NINTH INFANTRY FINDS TEXAS SHRANG-RI-LA AT MANEUVERS

The following is taken from "The Spear Head," published by army officers and men of Fort Sam Houston:

Eastern selectees who may have believed that those yarns about Texas hospitality were myths found out in big way this past week that it's straight dope.

The little town of Goldthwaite, in the recent maneuver area, devoted most of its time and a lot of its money to show Second Division soldiers a happy occasion.

The Ninth Infantry, camped near Goldthwaite, got the luckiest break. They received a stream of refreshments, candy and tobacco, and special invitations to dine with the townspeople.

Earl T. Fairman, one of Goldthwaite's leading citizens, invited the soldiers to take a swim and bathe in a lake on his ranch. Soldiers who accepted were given cold drinks and sandwiches.

Easterners were awed by the unaffected display of gentility. Only lately arrived from the impersonal cities, they were deeply touched by the welcome given them in Goldthwaite.

Miss Ann Coleman, owner of the theatre, invited soldiers to attend free movies. Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Hamilton visited the camp and distributed cigars. Mr. and Mrs. Burkett baked cakes for the boys.

Other Goldthwaite citizens who were constantly making life easier for the Ninth were Rev. W. H. Marshall, Rev. E. E. Dawson, Mrs. John Berry, Mrs. Sam Sullivan and Mrs. Thompson, editor of the Goldthwaite Eagle. There were more, too, but the boys were so busy eating they forgot to write the names down.

A Letter to the Eagle THANKS PEOPLE HERE FOR KINDNESS TO HER BROTHER

I wish to thank you people of Goldthwaite for your kindness to the draftees. My brother is one of them and has written to us telling of the consideration you have shown them.

He mentioned that the ladies of the town had taken over the theatre and opened it to the boys. And while on guard duty on a road out of town some kind farmer brought them milk and another bread and peanut butter.

It means a great deal to us at home to know that you people of Texas are taking a personal interest in our boys. Please accept our gratitude and thanks.

Sincerely yours, (Miss) HELEN KOLCZYNSKI, 19 Ronkonkoma Ave. Hempstead, L. I., New York.

CANDY AND COOKIES TO CAMP BOWIE

On Saturday afternoon of last week, June 21, Mrs. A. L. Whitaker, chairman of candy and cookie committee of Mills County Women's Defense Recreation League, delivered to Camp Bowie over 500 pounds of candy and cookies from the women of Mills County. About twenty-one large boxes were filled and distributed to the different mess halls, and at supper Saturday night every enlisted man in Camp Bowie shared in the "sweets."

A number of Mills County communities sent in beautiful boxes as a community. Mullin sent three such boxes, Regency had one at the Chamber of Commerce at Brownwood, Caradan and Pleasant Grove and Scallorn each sent an attractive and representative assortment. Individuals from all over the county were generous in this effort of the County Defense League to add cheer to the soldier's life at Camp Bowie.

If you are one of those who did not take part this time, try your best to be a part of the next effort of the league. Do not wait to be asked. When you learn something is being planned, remember it is Mills County that is behind it and if you consider yourself a part of Mills County, come forward with your part.

The Committee takes this means of thanking you all for your hearty co-operation. Camp Bowie reported Mills County has done more than any other one county.

MILLS COUNTY COOKIES TAKEN TO MANEUVER AREA

(Brownwood Bulletin) Part of the 900 pounds of cookies prepared by the Mills County Defense League for soldiers at Camp Bowie have been taken out to the field to sweeten the lives of the boys on maneuvers. The baking of cookies and making of candy was the monthly contribution of the league.

During the last maneuvers, however, the women of Mills County kept boys sectioned in their area supplied with cakes and ice cream. Miss Annie Louise Coleman, manager of the movie theatre in Goldthwaite, turned over three performances free to the visiting soldiers. The boys were from Fort Sam Houston and were so grateful for the kindnesses of the Mills County women that on their first free time they returned to put on a band concert for them.

UNITED SERVICE ORGANIZATION FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE

Is reaching out to every person in Mills County, asking you to help with whatever amount of money you can, to help provide civilian entertainment for the soldier and sailor when off duty. A place staffed by civilians, to furnish equipment for amusement, a place to read or write, to furnish a civilian home for them for whatever purpose the soldier or sailor might want. Uncle Sam will build the house. Civilians to run it and furnish it. A house wherever there is a camp.

A lot of people in Mills County have a boy or relative in the army serving the nation. Let's do our part to help provide for them.

S. J. Eaton, County Chairman, Jack L. Coppage, at Mullin.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

E. E. DAWSON, Pastor

Our Vacation Bible School finishes its two-weeks work this Friday, enrolling a total of 100. The attendance might have been larger but for whooping cough and measles. We are grateful for the response and the very excellent work of the directors of departments and their helpers, and the efficient secretaries.

We would call attention again to our revival that is scheduled to begin on July 6, which is the first Sunday. A large tent will be used for the services at the corner of Parker and First Streets. The Rev. John O. Scott of Teague will be the evangelist.

Next Sunday we will have our regular schedule of services consisting of Sunday School at 10 and worship at 11. The evening service will be cancelled out of deference to the revival at the Methodist Church.

Congratulations to the Big Valley Baptists upon the occasion of their dedication of their new building next Sunday. They have done a monumental piece of work and are worthy of heartfelt congratulations.

TEXAS EDITORS CONVENTION BOUND IN GALVESTON AS CLOCK WENT ROUND!

GALVESTON, TEXAS.—"A huge success—we're coming back soon."

Such was the unanimous opinion heralded by the several hundred members of the Texas Press Association who gathered here for their sixty-second annual convention at the Buccaneer Hotel. From the moment that the program was finally mapped out and ready to "roll," until the closing hour, the three days teemed with a round of activities of business and pleasure, checked with cocktail parties, luncheons, barbecues, boat rides, dinner dances and stirring sessions. Center photo (left to right) shows Sam F. Harben, association secretary; E. S. Holliday, Galveston Chamber manager, and Louis Elbert, publisher of the Galveston News—Texas' oldest newspaper, whose centennial will be celebrated, April, 1942—and local host, making plans. Considerable credit also goes to photo-shy Jack McDermott, Lufkin, general program chairman.

Herewith is a panoramic view of some of the highlights of the "round the clock activities" enjoyed by the Fourth Estate.

XII. Mayor Brantly Harris presents key to Charles K. Devall, Kilgore, president of the Texas Press Association.

I. George K. Marshall, Galveston Chamber proxy, extends a welcoming hand to (left to right) Mrs. Vestal Lott, Mrs. Charles K. Devall and Mrs. Sam Holloway and all the ladies and gentlemen.

II. Speeches reflecting the challenging issues of the day ran the gamut from Mickey Mouse to Hitler, and were made by such experts as General Hugh R. Johnson, former N.R.A. Administrator (now a columnist); General Paul E. Malone (retired), San Francisco, former Commander of the Eighth Corps Area, San Antonio headquarters; Jimmie Fidler, radio and movie commentator; Bob Considine, syndicated sports writer; Colonel R. H. Henry, Washington, vice president of the American Association of Railroads; and Major James E. Crown, managing editor of the "New Orleans States," who acquired national fame by virtue of his exposure of Louisiana's recent gubernatorial graft.

III. And, how the newsfolk listened, too.

IV. A few ladies of the press take time out for tea: (left to right) Mrs. Rosella H. Werlin, publicity director, Galveston Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. Hugh Lemah Murphy, of Holland; Miss F. M. ("Robbie") Robinson, secretary to Hugh R. Johnson; Mrs. Cicero J. Parchman, past president of the Texas Women's Press Association, and Mrs. J. P. Beck, publisher of the Alvin Surf.

V. Dave Warren, of Panhandle, newly elected president, learns all about Galveston's Third Annual Tarpon Rodeo, July 3 to 6, offering $1,500 in prizes, from Miss Dorothy Thibodeaux.

VI. To sixteen-months-old Jack Harper, Jr., of Dallas, goes credit for being the youngest registrant. It was all pleasure for Jackie and scores of other "editors in the rough," who enjoyed the various resort attractions, including Galveston's $500,000 Stewart Beach development.

VII. Horse-shoeing was another sport: (left to right) Booth Mooney, Texas Digest, Dallas; Bob Baldrige, Clifton; Joe Cook, Mission; Dave Warren and Don Scarborough. Also golfing: (Ask Sam Holloway, Deport; W. N. Blanton, Jr., Houston, and James Donohue, Tyler) or rummy (Sh!—).

VIII. What an enjoyable treat that wiener roast was! Deskins Wells, Wellington; Joe T. Cook, Mission; Ross Woodall, Huntsville, and Luther Watson, Sweetwater, are just a few of the reasons why they went so fast.

IX. Five "Uncle" Sams: Sam Holloway, Deport; Same Fore, Jr., Floresville; Sam Harben, Richardson; Sam Chesnut, Kennedy, and Sam Braswell, Clarendon. A convention without them would just not be a real T. P. A. conclave.

X. A tribute to age as well to youth was paid when Dr. Joe Taylor, editor emeritus of the Dallas News, was given a public ovation, and Pat Holt, Jr., Gatesville, was awarded the $1,500 Pulitzer Travel Award, which takes him to Melbourne, Australia, and other points. They celebrated with a tap dance with Mrs. Al G. Erickson, Dallas, and Miss Betty Nichols, Vernon, as their partners.

XI. With an adieu of "until we meet again," how the quips did fall as past presidents, young and old, from the four corners of Texas, met for their annual breakfast to discuss headlines and deadlines. A touching note was injected when Sam Harben, secretary for thirty-five years, resigned to let "younger hands take a hand." Seated, left to right: R. J. Edwards, Denton; D. R. Harris, Henderson; Dr. J. J. Taylor, Dallas; John H. Cullom, Dallas; Harry P. Schwenker, Brady; Sam D. Chestnut, Kennedy; Charles K. Devall, Kilgore, and Sam P. Harben (secretary and honorary president). Richardson. Standing: Sam M. Braswell, Clarendon; R. L. Baldrige, Clifton; David M. Warren, Panhandle; Sam Fore, Jr., Floresville; R. H. Nichols, Vernon; Lowry Martin, Corsicana; Walter Buckner, San Marcos; H. H. Jackson, Coleman; Louis C. Elbert, Galveston, and Sam Holloway, Deport.

J. of Austin came Friday night; Mr. Weldon Hill of Goldthwaite and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morgan of Mullin came Sunday morning, with Christine, Norma Gene and David bringing up the rear.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hill boast the proverb, "the more the merrier," and so do their nine children. They all left Sunday evening looking forward to another such time.

THE labor unions have made their demands upon the railways of the United States—and through the railways upon the PUBLIC. These demands are vastly larger in proportion than any they have ever made. The economical and efficient operation of the railways is vital to the nation's defense effort. Therefore, the Western Railways present to the public the following facts:

The labor unions representing engineers, firemen, conductors, brakemen and switchmen are demanding a 30 per cent increase in wages, amounting to 190 million dollars a year—although their present rates of pay are the highest in history.

Other unions representing a greater number of railway employees are demanding wage increases ranging as high as 95 per cent—averaging 47 per cent—and amounting to 580 million dollars a year—although their present rates of pay also are the highest in history.

Thus the wage increases being demanded by the labor unions amount to 770 million dollars a year, an average increase in excess of 41 per cent.

In addition, certain of these labor unions have demanded advances in their pay not included in the above figures, and more rules for the creation of unnecessary jobs.

The situation, then, is this: The total cost of complying with all the demands made would be approximately 900 million dollars a year!

The average weekly earnings of railway employees are now 15 per cent higher than in the peak year 1929, while the cost of living is 12 per cent less.

The demands of the railway labor unions are being made when the entire nation has just been asked to make a supreme effort for National Defense.

The railways cannot meet these demands without a great increase in the cost of transportation. They exceed by more than 700 million dollars the income that the railways had left after paying their annual expenses, taxes and charges in 1940.

The railways have a vitally important job before them. They need all their resources to continue adequately to serve you and contribute effectively toward the National Defense Program.

MISS GARTMAN MARRIED HERE LAST NIGHT

Louise Gartman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Gartman of Goldthwaite, and Charles C. Smith, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Smith of Dallas, were married Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, June 26, in the First Methodist Church at Goldthwaite. The Reverend Jasper Manton of the Trinity Presbyterian Church at Dallas officiated.

The Shubert Club of Goldthwaite sang in choir "The Bells of St. Mary's." Miss Aroxie Hagopian, instructor in voice at Southwestern University, sang two solos, "Because" and the "Ave Maria." Mrs. A. H. Smith of Goldthwaite was at the organ. The processional was the wedding march from Wagner's "Lohengrin," and the recessional was Mendelssohn's "Wedding March." Music during the ceremony was the "Liebestraum" by Liszt.

The bride was dressed in a white cloud-striped organdy dress, with a square neckline and elbow-length sleeves. The dress was made with a train, and the veil, of white net, was full length. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

The groom's gift to the bride was a set of heirloom garnets, a finger ring and earrings. The mother of the bride gave her a matching garnet cross, and the bride wore them in the wedding.

The matron of honor, Mrs. C. E. Saegert of Seguin, sister of the bride, wore blue dotted swiss, with elbow-length sleeves and a full skirt with a dust ruffle. She carried yellow dahlias.

The maid-of-honor, Rebekah Jane Bush of San Antonio, wore yellow dotted swiss of the same style as the matron-of-honor's. She carried lavender dahlias.

The bridesmaids, Josephine McCutcheon and Peggie Patterson of Austin, wore identical dresses of green and pink dotted swiss, with high necks, puffed sleeves, and full skirts with dust ruffles. They carried salmon-pink gladioli.

Louis Akin of Dallas served as best man. George Smith, brother of the groom; C. E. Saegert of Seguin; and Edwin Hawkins of Mansfield were ushers. They were dressed alike in white suits.

The bride's mother wore a dinner dress of blue crepe and a corsage of gardenias. The groom's mother wore pink and black marquisette and a gardenia corsage.

The church was decorated with white gladioli, esther reeds, fern, and fever few, with white candelabra on each side of the altar.

Myrna Beth Harris of Evant was the flower girl, and James Gilliam of Goldthwaite was the ringbearer.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Jack Gartman of Brady poured punch, and Mrs. Charles Stogor of Dallas served the wedding cake. Also assisting at the buffet were Mrs. Joe Garvey of Dallas, Mrs. Geo. Flach of San Antonio, and Mrs. Marvin Hodges of Goldthwaite.

Mrs. Smith is a June graduate of the University of Texas, where she took a bachelor of journalism with high honors. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority, Theta Sigma Phi, honorary journalism fraternity for women; Sigma Delta Pi, honorary Spanish fraternity; Forensica, Co-Ed Assembly; and Cap and Gown. Mr. Smith is also a June graduate of the University, where he took a bachelor of science degree in petroleum engineering. He is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

After a wedding trip to Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home in Tyler, where he works with the Salt Water Control division of the State Health Board.

INTRODUCING—

Little Miss Caralan Weatherby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Weatherby of Hamilton and granddaughter of Mrs. Annie Little and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weatherby of this city. Leland Horton Meyers, 8 1-4 pound son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Meyers, who made his arrival Sunday, June 22.

WALTER PECK AND OMA ERVIN ARE MARRIED

The marriage of Miss Oma Ervin, daughter of Robert L. Ervin of Rockport, and Walter Hathaway Peck, son of Dr. and Mrs. Walter M. Peck, 3708 Armstrong, was solemnized at high noon last Saturday at the Church of the Incarnation. The Rev. L. Valentine Lee officiated.

Charles R. Ervin of Lubbock gave his sister in marriage. The bride was dressed in an imported white silk frock cut with fitted bodice and flared skirt. The square neck line and sleeves were trimmed in Iris lace and the bodice was fastened with pearl buttons down the front. Her corsage was of orange blossoms and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Gus W. Thomasson, Jr., was matron of honor. Her frock of surf blue was cut on princess lines with a sweetheart neckline. Sweetheart roses formed her corsage. Dr. Thomasson was best man.

A small reception was held at the bride's home, 4224 Prescott. As the couple left on a short trip the bride was wearing a black mesh jacket frock trimmed in white pique. The couple will live in Dallas.

Out-of-town guests were Dr. and Mrs. Harold B. Anderson, Betty Anderson and Anita Anderson of Temple, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Ervin of Lubbock.—Dallas News.

Mrs. Peck will be remembered by many here, having finished school at Goldthwaite. At one time she was employed at the Eagle Office, later going to Dallas where she attended business school. At the time of her marriage she was employed as executive secretary of the Dallas Bar Association.

The following article was taken from the Texas Bar Journal: When the executive office of the Dallas Bar Association was established in 1937, it was the only one of its kind in the Southwest. Prior to that time, the office of secretary was held by first one and then another. No one at any time was thoroughly familiar with the work of the various committees, and there was no coordination of any two administrations.

With the employment of Miss Oma Ervin as full-time secretary, office space in the courthouse was sought by the association so that she might be in constant contact with members of the bar.

In addition to being hostess at the executive office, Miss Ervin is present at the weekly legal clinics, numerous social events, committee meetings, and other activities attendant to an active association with more than one thousand members.

When the Houston Bar Association voted last October to establish a central office, Mrs. Ruth Laws, the executive secretary, was sent to Dallas to be trained by Miss Ervin. Although Houston has approximately 1,450 lawyers to Dallas' 1,200, a smaller percentage is enrolled in the local association.

The bride wore a lovely navy blue chiffon dress, trimmed in white embroidered chiffon. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and a white Bible. The groom wore a gray suit.

Their only attendant was the bride's sister, Laura Jackson. After the ceremony the young couple departed for Santa Maria, Calif., where the groom has a position.

Slaton, Tex., June 23, 1941.

Dear Mrs. Thompson:

I want to thank you for sending me the Eagle. Notice that several of Mills County's folks have been unfortunate. What McKenzie boy died or was sick. Feel that the letter to the President expressed the general sentiment of the people. I passed the paper around. I think if several of the labor agitators were sentenced to three years' service in the marines it would promote a healthier line of thought—or kill them out—be a public relief any way. I am enclosing a $2.00 check, which will help a little.—J. E. Brooking.

Sense Of Financial Responsibility Needed In Austin

By GEORGE C. HESTER

As this is written the Forty-seventh Legislature will soon pass into history. In many respects it was an important session. It met under the most trying circumstances. It enacted several needed and important laws, smothered many vicious proposals, and like all its predecessors, failed to enact other good measures.

As one who was personally acquainted with a large majority of the members of each House, many of them for several years, this writer has the impression that the body represented, by and large, as intelligent, hardworking, and public-spirited group of men and women as has met in Austin in many years, irrespective of the work performed.

The fiscal work of the session is now well known. In the increase of both taxing and spending it broke all records. It levied some $22,000,000 in new taxes, and in spending, the session goes down as the most extravagant in the history of the state. In these respects, it also led all states in the Union this year. It increased expenditures from state taxes alone by at least $56,000,000 for the next biennium or at the rate of some $28,000,000 annually.

How is such a record to be explained at a time when the entire nation is facing an ever-deepening emergency in public finance? Social Security obligations, you say! Yes, but this accounts for only about one-half of the increase, even though our state made provisions to outstrip every state in the Union in liberality for old age pensions when all factors are considered.

A glimpse of the trend for the past few years may be of some interest to thinking citizens who might be curious enough to raise the question: Where are we heading?

Pending final action on the appropriations this year, the record over the past three sessions covering a six year period will look about like this:

Appropriated in 1935	$49,481,777
Appropriated in 1941 (Est.)	93,000,000
Per cent increase 1941 over 1935	85

The above figures, of course, do not include any of the social security financing, nor do they include the increases in the many non-budgeted funds which are financed directly from ear-marked revenue and make up a major portion of the state's expenditures.

To get a general picture of the over-all expenditures, from all sources and for all purposes, we have the following comparative figures for single years only:

Spent, year ending Aug. 31, 1936	$124,941,724
Spent, year ending Aug. 31, 1942 (Est.)	$220,000,000

This represents an increase of about 75 per cent since 1936, and about 140 per cent increase over the boom year of 1929 when the state's total expenditures aggregated only $91,924,307. During the same period, the state's population increased about 10 per cent and the total income of its people increased only about five per cent.

It is useless, however, to call attention to the phenomenal rises in governmental expenditures over the past few years. Much more is demanded of government today, still more, perhaps, is spent that is not necessary.

All this is water over the dam. But what of the future? With a national debt shooting upward further and further beyond our reach every hour we live, irrespective of heavy taxes to come, when will we awaken to the hard, cold realities ahead of us? We are urged to make sacrifices in order to be able to pay for defense, and sacrifice we must. But an extravagant state government hardly coincides with that theory.

While Texas was leading all states in increased spending, many other states actually cut expenditures this year. Several have operated for years with no new taxes. States like Minnesota, Kentucky, Louisiana, and others, through enlightened reforms led by wide awake executives, have reduced operating costs by millions.

But in Texas we apparently prefer to listen to the senseless "pitter-patter" of personal politics while drifting aimlessly with that ever rising tide of public extravagance, which threatens the very life of free enterprise and democratic institutions in this country.

Texas Banks Made 557,000 Loans Last Half Of Year 1940

Twenty-five per cent of the banks in Texas made more than 557,000 loans totaling $609,000,000 to business firms and individuals throughout the state during the second half of 1940, according to the semi-annual survey of bank lending activity made by the Research Council of the American Bankers Association.

The A.B.A. loan survey was participated in by 207 Texas banks, or 25 per cent of the 832 banks in the state.

These 207 banks reported that they made between July 1 and December 1, 1940:

388,067 new loans totaling $288,382,707; 167,092 renewals of loans totaling $315,012,133; 2,084 new mortgage loans totaling $5,689,865; a total of 557,243 loans with a grand total of $609,084,705.

The survey showed that business firms in the state used less than half of the "confirmed open lines of credit" maintained for their use on the books of banks. A total of 30 banks in the larger centers of the state reported that they carried on their books $77,540,450 in "open lines of credit" offered and kept available for regular borrowers for use as needed by them. Of this amount $34,883,420 or 45 per cent was used.

The average number of new loans made per bank during the six months period under review was 1,875 and the average size of loan was $743.

The average number of loans renewed per bank was 807 and the average renewal was for $1,885.

The average number of new mortgage loans made per bank was 10 and the average new mortgage made was for $2,730.

Approximately one-sixth the population of Texas depends upon the petroleum industry for their entire living.

Know Your Mills County

Mills County, in the exact central portion of Texas, was created and organized in 1887 from Brown, Comanche, Hamilton and Lampasas Counties, and was named from Judge John T. Mills.

Mills County has an area of 696 square miles, and has an average altitude of about 1,500 feet. Its farming land is made up of loam, sandy loam and sandy soils, and this is one of the best counties in the world for diversified farming and livestock raising. The timbers in the county are oak, mesquite and cedar, with numerous pecan trees along the streams.

State Department Health Notes

National defense training course in water and sewage plant operation are now being offered as part of the curricula in the University of Texas, A. & M. College, and Texas Technological College, according to Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Department, as a national defense measure and are tuition-free.

The courses provide three months of full-time training for water treatment and sewage plant treatment operators. The courses were designed to meet the need of additional trained water workers and sewage operators to serve in municipal plants and in the plants of military and naval establishments.

The courses include instruction in general principles of sanitation, principles of water treatment, sanitary water analysis, plant operation, principles of sewage treatment, sewage analysis, and sewage treatment plant operation. Practical application of sanitary problems is being stressed, and much of the course has been designated as laboratory work in the water and sewage plants of nearby municipalities.

That each student may obtain the maximum benefits from the defense course, enrollment has been limited to fifteen students per school.

The State Health Department wishes to commend the University of Texas, Texas A. & M. College, and Texas Technological College for their co-operation in making these courses possible, thus supplying trained professional water and sewage plant operators at a time of national emergency when the need for such personnel in Texas is particularly great," Dr. Cox concluded.

Thought Texas To Turn Out More Milk

Texas is in position to turn out more milk during the next six to twelve months than in any similar period of its history, said General Agent Jack Shelton of the Farm Credit Administration of Houston, in commenting on the Department of Agriculture's program to moderately increase milk production as a part of the national defense.

"It will be not only a practical profitable part in the food-for-defense effort," Shelton said, "but it will help farmers in many cases this year to overcome the threatened loss of income from cotton due to the excessive rains."

"Milk production is based on good grazing, abundant cheap roughage, and cows," said Shelton, who spent 20 years with the state's dairying industry as an operator and also in the educational work of the Extension Service.

"We have the best pastures in a generation and an opportunity for plenty of roughage, hay and ensilage because of the moisture. We have the cows, so our production can be stepped up with just a little extra care."

Corned beef is a beef pickled with salt, saltpeter, and sugar. The salt and saltpeter cure the meat, and the saltpeter gives the reddish or pink color to the meat. The sugar is for flavor. It cuts the harshness of the salt.

Highlights Of Texas History

THE SAGE OF ELLIS BEAN; THE ART OF ADVENTURE

It will probably not come soon, but eventually when Texas is old and rich and settled, there will come a great awakening of the literary spirit in the Southwest. Then the colorful heritage that will have been kept alive through the years primarily by such institutions as the University of Texas Library and the Texas State Historical Association will at last come into its own in the literature of the world.

When the cultural awakening comes, someone browsing among the records of old Texas—near-forgotten records by then, perhaps—will come upon the outline of a story, and of it he will make a great novel. For imbedded in the Texas-Mexican heritage is a great true tale of wonderful adventure, almost complete in outline, which equals "Anthony Adverse" or anything that Alexander Dumas ever wrote. It is the life story of Ellis P. Bean, in his own words.

Last week in this column was told the history of Philip Nolan's filibustering expedition into Texas, to the command of which 17-year-old Ellis P. Bean succeeded at Nolan's death March 21, 1801. That story of the expedition proper ended sometime before 1807; Bean's story—the beginning of which will be sketched here—is its sequel.

A DICE GAME FOR KEEPS

After Bean and his followers were clapped in irons at Nacogdoches by the Spanish in 1801, they were taken to San Antonio, to San Luis Potosi, and finally to Chihuahua, in the Mexican interior. Years passed, and Bean's life alternated between comparative freedom and close confinement, punishment for his repeated attempts to escape. Then at last came a royal decree that one of every five of the surviving Nolan prisoners be hanged.

By then—November, 1897—only nine of the company remained alive. It was decided that only one must die, that one to be determined by the throwing of dice. Bean threw a five; the low man had a four. After the execution three of the men were released, but Bean and the other four were carried off to Mexico City in chains, hardly guessing what lay in store for them.

At every little village along the way people flocked to see them, probably never having seen an American so deep in the interior before. And among the curious at the town of Salamanca was one Senora Maria Baladonada—who was very young, married to a very rich but very old man, and therefore unhappy.

THE SAD SENORA

The Senora came to Bean, talked with him, liked him, and offered to help him escape—promised, indeed, to flee with him to America and be his wife. Everything was prepared for the get-away; but at the last moment Bean declined her offer. He would not desert his men, he said; and, moreover, he fully expected to be set free at the capital. So he went on with his guard.

Bean remarks in his memoirs that he cursed himself for years for this blunder; for, instead of being released at Mexico City, he and his men were sent on to Acapulco, a fortified castle on the Pacific coast, and there he was locked up in solitary confinement in a windowless cell of three by seven feet, with stone walls 12 feet thick. Double irons were on his arms. Once a day he got a pot of water, some beef and a little bread. He was not allowed to talk with anyone. And so he lived—all alone with a tame lizard named Bill—for a total of two years and four months.

Once, after three weeks of torture in the town hospital, he made an escape and was free for a short time; and during the remaining 17 months of his confinement, he wrote later, "I consoled myself with the thought that I had enjoyed a few hours of liberty, and had heard the birds sing, and perhaps might hear them again."

100 YEARS AGO IN TEXAS

"We present to our readers a plan of a national bank, submitted by 'A Citizen of Austin,' which has at least the merit of originality, and does not smell quite so much of cotton, as the plan lately received from below. The author does not ask to convert the government of Texas into a great commission merchant; or the collectors of Texas, into factors for receiving, forwarding and selling the great staple of our country. We recommend our correspondent's plan to the attention of our patrons. If there is any good in it, we hope it will be preserved; if not, let it pass among the crowd of fugitives that necessarily encumber the columns of a newspaper."

"The San Augustine paper having changed its title to that of the 'Red Lander,' in the first number it denounced the representatives of that country, in the last Congress, in unmeasured terms. But like all things

Ishmael Martin And Henry Wallace Long

On June 7, 1941, Ishmael and Woddy mounted their horses at five p. m. to round up their sheep and drive them to safety
away from the rapidly rising Colorado River. God in His great wisdom saw fit to call them home; and as they went down in the Colorado River, the Master took them by the hands and guided them safely across that dark river which leads to Heaven. Ishmael and Woddy are now safe in the arms of Jesus,
away from all pain, heartache and sickness. They are waiting and watching for their loved ones to join them in that fair
city of God.

Ishmael was born Sept. 5, 1912,
and Henry Wallace was born Nov. 28, 1920. Both died together, one trying to save the other, early Saturday night, June 7, 1941. Ishmael was converted at the age of 12 or 13 and Woddy was converted in 1937.
Both were baptized and became members of the Big Valley Baptist Church. Both boys were good, honorable and noble. They were princes among men and were loved by everyone who knew them. They never refused to help anyone who needed them and went out of their way to befriend the friendless or help their neighbors.

Ishmael was married to Pearl Marie Hale August 24, 1935. He was a good husband and father.
He leaves to mourn his passing his babies, Sidney Joe and Judy Martin, age 4 and 1; his wife, mother and father, two brothers and three sisters: Adrian and Dan of Goldthwaite, Mrs. John
Jackson, Goldthwaite, Mrs. Jack Attaway, Como, Mrs. Edgar Barrington, Sherman. Henry Wallace leaves to mourn his passing his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Long of Goldthwaite, Mary Lou, a sister, and Maurice,
his soldier brother of Camp
Bowie.

They're gone and we shall miss them. Our hearts are so heavy,
our eyes are filled with tears,
but God looked down and saw how beautiful their lives were and needed them for his banquet. We should not question
His will as He giveth and taketh life as he sees fit. We cannot understand why God took them when we needed them so, but we must look to the Holy Comforter for comfort and solace in this heart breaking time. Do not mourn as those who have no hope, but look toward that great round-up when we shall be reunited with them forever-
more. Ishmael and Woddy would say to us, "Now, dry your tears and make the best of your lives and put your trust in our Master."—A Friend.

TEXAS NATIONAL DEFENSE
CONTRACTS ARE $495,241,752

AUSTIN, June 26.—National defense contracts let in Texas up to April 15 amounted to $495,241,752.81, and Texans have been quick to make themselves available for employment in occupations essential to national defense, James R. D. Eddy, state director of the National Defense Training Program, said today.

Shipyard contracts in Texas
total $181,142,542. These contracts cover 12 destroyers to be built at Orange, 12 cargo vessels and four steel mine sweepers to be built at Beaumont, four steel submarine chasers and 37 steel cargo boats to be built at Houston, 10 wood mine sweepers to be built at Orange, and an unspecified number of wood submarine chasers at Rockport and Galveston.

With Texas forging to the front as a center for ship construction, labor estimates compiled by the Texas State Employment Service indicate that the shipyards in Texas will absorb 12,000 workers within the next 12 months.

"If the flow of national defense materials is continued un-hampered, it is essential that trained men be available for jobs when they are needed," Eddy declared.

Cream containing 30 to 35 per cent milk fat is ideal for whipping. "Coffee" cream, with 18
to 20 per cent milk fat content is not suitable for whipping, but may be found satisfactory if whipped when cold and at least one day old.

LESSONS FROM THE EARLY CHURCH

LESSON TEXT—1 Corinthians 3:1-13.
GOLDEN TEXT—For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.—1 Corinthians 3:11.

Corinth in the time of Paul was a great city, as renowned for its commerce and culture as it was notorious for its vice and licentiousness.
Here on his second missionary journey, Paul, with Silas and Timothy, spent 18 months winning many to Christ, in spite of the hostility of the Jews and the opposition of wicked men.

The church established in Corinth
became the victim of a factional spirit which divided the loyalty of the people, hindering spiritual growth, destroying discipline, and resulting in low standards of life.

Paul found it necessary to write to the church regarding its difficulties,
and we may well learn salutary
lessons from his epistle.

I. A Lesson in Spirituality (vv. 1-4).

The further a man drifts from his place of spiritual power and usefulness, the more apt he is to try to keep up a "front," to take up any possible means of justification. The Corinthian church was divided into four groups, each one priding itself on being right. There was "a Pauline party, overzealous for the founder of the church; an Apollonian party,
bewitched by the oratory of Apollos;
a Petrine party, which, claiming Peter as authority, was bent on mixing Jewish ideas with Christianity;
and a Christ party, which, in antagonizing other elements, became itself a faction" (Moore). (See 1 Cor 1:11-13.) All this activity was covering up the fact that they were having.

1. Milk Instead of Meat (vv. 1, 2).

In other words they were spiritual babes when they should have been grown-ups. Milk is a marvelous food, but there is need of stronger food for virile men and women.

How true it is that many ministers must spoon-feed or bottle-feed a lot of spiritual babes who should long since have grown up to the place where they can feed themselves and help others.

2. Strife Instead of Stability (vv. 3, 4).

God does not want Christians to be like other men. When will we learn that lesson? One of the sure ways to stifle spiritual growth in a church or in an individual life is to engage in strife. Let us heed Paul's admonition and put away our bickerings, that we may become strong in the Lord.

II. A Lesson on Service (vv. 5-15).

Here is helpful instruction to the minister regarding his calling.
Brethren, let us judge ourselves in the light of it lest we hinder God's work by having the wrong attitude or encourage our people to think carelessly on this important subject.

1. The Minister (vv. 5-9).

There is no higher or holier calling than that to the ministry. We should no forget that, and will not, but will rather glorify the calling, when we realize that "minister" (v. 5) means
"servant," "attendant," or "waiter." So Paul and Apollos, men of highest office and highest gifts, were God's waiters, to bring forth the bread of life; His servants, to plant and cultivate His field; and His builders, laboring on His building.
Ministers are only instruments in God's hands, but they should be clean, well-prepared, and submissive instruments in His hands.

2. The Manner (v. 10).

The servant of God must take heed how he builds. If, like Paul, he has the privilege of laying the foundation, he must be careful that it is the true foundation and is properly laid. He who builds must also be careful that every stone he lays is fitly placed and well-chosen.

3. The Materials (vv. 11, 12).

How important it is that the materials of a building be right. If that be true of a physical building, it is a thousand times more important in God's building.
First of all there is only one foundation which the true minister can lay—Jesus Christ. It is the only foundation upon which anyone can build a lasting life structure for time
and for eternity.
But there are other materials in the building which need to be chosen with care. It will not do for the minister to substitute the wood, hay, and stubble of his wisdom or the philosophy of men for the gold, silver, and precious stones of God's Word. Terrifying shame and loss is all that can result from such folly,
for remember there is a day of judgment coming.

FOR A SAFE FOURTH—

MOTORISTS—You've heard a lot recently about the dangers of a fifth column in the United States. But a more immediate danger is the Fourth column—
that long column of fatalities which will follow in the wake of the Fourth of July celebration.

THE FOURTH OF JULY isn't far off. The Texas Safety Association asks you to plan right now to celebrate safely. Make up your mind today that you won't join the Fourth column!

AMERICA is thinking a lot these days about the problem of war and peace. But the Texas Safety Association asks you to think for just a moment about another grave problem—the rising traffic toll in the nation.

THE TRAFFIC DEATH TOLL
for the last two years greatly exceeds the American dead in the World War, and the traffic deaths in the last seven years have been greater than the total number of Americans killed in all the wars of the nation's history!

IT WON'T BE LONG NOW until we'll be celebrating the Fourth of July... the birth of our Independence. But when that holiday is ended, hundreds will be dead, thousands injured

as the result of accidents... a sacrifice even more tragic than war because there is no reason for it.

WON'T YOU KEEP that in mind when you celebrate the Fourth this year?

Farmers in Northern Mary-

weed when processed gives out ascardole, a drug capable of ridding livestock of hookworm.

ROSENBERG GIVES REMEDY TO COMBAT SHEEP TROUBLES

By COUNTY AGENT SAM ROSENBERG

Mills County sheep men are experiencing the most trouble that they have probably ever had with internal parasites, stomach worms, says County Agent Sam Rosenberg. This trouble is the result of conditions that have made it very favorable for all kinds of parasites this year. In fact, troubles of this type, worms, mites, lice, bugs, to all types of livestock and to most crops, is much worse this year than has been experienced for several years. The reasons for this are very clear, says Rosenberg, as we have had a mild, damp winter that has practically acted as an incubator or incubating period for all insects.

Internal parasites of sheep are with us to stay, if we stay with sheep, and it becomes more and more necessary for us to practice control measures if we wish to cut down losses and damage caused by stomach worms. A definite program for controlling stomach worms should be adopted by every person having sheep and not entirely sheep as occasionally goats are also infested with stomach worms. Rosenberg pointed out. The same program will work on goats as effectively as it will on sheep. Rosenberg outlines a program to follow as a means of controlling stomach worms. This program is fool-proof and if followed will give an easy and effective practical program that can be followed by any one in the sheep business or who anticipates this business. Some ranchers are already following the program and are finding it very practical and easy as well as very profitable, because stomach worms can wreck the profits of the business very quickly.

Program For Controlling Stomach Worms Outlined:
 (1) The first step in combating stomach worms, diseases, or any other trouble is to practice all means of preventing it. To prevent stomach worm infestations carry out the following: Do not overgraze pastures. Practice pasture rotation by changing sheep frequently from one pasture to another. Never crowd sheep in small holding pastures, hospital pastures, or pens, or sheds, for longer periods of time than is absolutely necessary. Maintain sheep in good condition as health and vigor is the best natural means of prevention. When supplemental feeding is necessary, provide it before animals are already in a weakened condition. The above means are steps in PREVENTION, and prevention is the best cure of any trouble.

(2) In most cases and on most farms and ranches in Mills County, prevention measures alone as means of controlling stomach worms will not get the job completely done. So the next thing to do is to OBSERVE ANIMALS CLOSELY. Practice a strict culling program, culling animals that are getting so much age that they can no longer maintain health and vigor, as they will not produce offspring that will be strong and vigorous. Also cull weak and undersize animals in the flock regardless of their age.

(3) The last step in the control of stomach worms is that of actual methods of control or of eradication from the animal if they are already infested. In practically 100 per cent of the cases in Mills County actual control measures are necessary in keeping sheep free of stomach worms. Any effective method of ridding sheep of stomach worms will require the administration of a drench or pilling operation with a reliable material that you are certain will be in the proper amount to kill the worms that are in the sheep. If some improperly prepared or some unreliable material is given, you can rest assured that your time, expense, and efforts will be completely wasted and the unthrifty condition and death losses of your sheep will continue. From all experimental results with materials to use for the control of stomach worms, there are a few chemicals that have been found to be the most effective and the most practical to use. These chemi-als are Bluestone or Copper Sulphate, "Black-leaf 40" or Nicotine Sulphate, Tetrachlorethylene, and Phenothiazine, and possibly others of a minor significance. These materials must be given in a drench or capsule form in an amount sufficient to kill the stomach worms before they will be effective. The farmer or ranchman should make certain, without doubt, that the material he is using regardless of its name, comes up to the standard necessary to be effective in controlling stomach worms. Flock treatment for the prevention of stomach worms by feeding salt preparations or by mixing bluestone or tobacco dust with the salt have not proven to be effective in eradicating infestations of stomach worms from sheep. In treating sheep for stomach worms the best time to start is before harmful results appear in the sheep and before death losses occur. If the first treatment is given in early May or about shearing time and then treatment is continued at regular intervals during the summer until late fall, sheep will not be troubled with heavy stomach worm infestation. The length of time in intervals of treatment will vary depending on the chemical used for treatment.

For additional information on the control and prevention of stomach worms in sheep, contact your county agent.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dennis spent a part of Sunday in Bronte with his sister, Mrs. Lee Wrinkle, who is critically ill.

BELL-BERRY

The marriage of Miss Greta Bell to J. D. Berry took place Thursday, June 26, at 8 a. m. at the bride's home at Jones Valley.

Rev. Dawson, pastor of the Goldthwaite Baptist Church, performed the ceremony.

J. D., oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Berry, graduated from Goldthwaite High School in 1937. He also graduated from John Tarleton in 1939. Greta, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Bell, graduated from Goldthwaite High School in 1940 and attended John Tarleton last year.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a navy ensemble with white accessories, and a white corsage of angel's tuft. Her something borrowed was a lace handkerchief belonging to Mrs. Shirley Nickols; something old was a necklace worn by her mother at her wedding. For luck, she wore in her shoe an old coin given her by her great-grandfather.

The groom's best man and the bride's attendant were Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Nickols.

An informal reception was held for those attending. The dining table was laid with a white linen cloth and centered with a bowl of white phlox. A friend, Miss Ina Beale Hale, presided at the punch bowl and Miss Vera Mae Bess, sister of the bride, served the cake.

Members of the immediate families, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Nickols, Miss Dona Mae Worrel of Irredell, Miss Ina Beale Hale and Miss Marilyn Bledsoe of Dallas, attended the ceremony.

After a trip to the coast, the couple will live in Goldthwaite, where the groom has employment.

Birthday Dinner

Mrs. F. M. Anderson and her little grandson, Marian Reynolds entertained their family and friends with an annual birthday dinner Sunday, June 22.

Those who were present and enjoyed the big feast and hospitality were Mrs. Will Knight and family of Brownwood, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Anderson from Goldthwaite, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Petsick and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Anderson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Anderson, Mrs. Alice Page, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harden, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Knight and little son, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Reynolds.

The day was enjoyably spent in conversation and visiting. Entirely too early did the time come for us to say good-by, wishing Mrs. Anderson and Marian many other happy birthdays.—A Guest.

Center City H-D Club

The Center Home Demonstration Club met Monday afternoon, June 16, with Mrs. Jim Hamilton.

Roll call was answered with a short discussion of "My Favorite Flower."

The program for the use of flowers in various ways and the forming of bouquets for different rooms and for different occasions were carried out.

Our next meeting will be July 7 in the afternoon with Mrs. Tom House. Miss Scott will be present and every member is urged to come. Remember, if you live in the community and appreciate what our agent has done, it will help and encourage her to have a good attendance.

After the business hour Mrs. Hamilton, assisted by Mrs. Ira Alldredge, served delicious ice cream and cookies to Mrs. Stacy McCasland, J. J. Geeslin, Hubert Geeslin, Hollis Hendry, Ercher McCasland, J. M. Oglesby, Misses Clea Geeslin, Mary Leigh Alldredge, and Shirley Hamilton.—Reporter.

Pleasant Grove H-D Club Has Meeting

The Pleasant Grove Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Y. D. Benningfield on Tuesday, June 17.

Flower arrangement was the subject for study. Each club member answered the roll call by naming her favorite blooming flower. I believe the rose was the most popular. Different club members gave discussions on selection of flower containers, home made frogs, flowers for the bedroom, flowers for the sick, etc.

Mrs. C. N. Berry reported on the last meeting of the national defense league of Mills County. Mrs. R. C. Berry gave a report of the last council meeting, and Mrs. Minnie Crawford directed ten minutes of recreation.

Those present at the meeting were: Mrs. C. N. Berry, Mrs. O. Z. Berry, Mrs. R. C. Berry, Mrs. W. W. Berry, Mrs. L. B. Covington, Mrs. Minnie Crawford, Mrs. L. O. Kelly, Mrs. W. T. Moreland, Mrs. George Shady, Mrs. Walker Wigley, and Mrs. David Watters. Janie Mae Kelly was a visitor.
