MARKETING QUOTA ELECTION TO BE HELD DECEMBER 13

By marking a "Yes" or "No" on the face of the ballot, Mills County farmers will help write the answer to the question: "Do you favor marketing quotas on the 1942 crop?"

The question will be answered Saturday, Dec. 13, according to G. R. Goosby, Secretary of the Mills County AAA Committee when a national cotton marketing quota referendum is held.

To be in effect, marketing quotas must be approved by two-thirds of the cotton farmers voting in the national referendum. Cotton quotas have been approved for the past four years.

Regardless of whether farmers approve quotas, conservation features of the 1942 AAA farm program will be the same, but loans for cotton cannot be made unless quotas are approved, he pointed out.

According to the AAA Act, marketing quotas on cotton are proclaimed in any year when the supply of cotton is more than 7 per cent above the normal supply. With 23,800,000 bales of American cotton in the world August 1, 1941, the total supply was 31 per cent above normal. About 23,000,000 bales of the total supply were in the United States.

The purpose of marketing quotas is to divide a limited market equally among cotton producers. Farmers planting within acreage allotments established under the AAA program are permitted to sell all cotton produced on these acres.

With more than 2-million farmers in the United States planting within cotton acreage allotments they are cooperating in an effort to keep supply in line with demand, Mr. Goosby said.

REASONS FOR COTTON PRICE IMPROVEMENT GIVEN BY CHAIRMAN

Collective causes of improved price of cotton are acreage allotments, marketing quotas and the loan program, J. M. Geeslin, chairman of the Mills County AAA committee, announced this week.

"American prices are about twice that of foreign countries, none of which have a farm program approaching ours," the chairman said in pointing out that cotton prices are nearer parity than in many years.

In receiving better prices for cotton, farmers are enjoying a measure of prosperity more comparable to other classes, he said.

Farmers of Mills County should learn all the facts about cotton before voting in the national referendum, Saturday, December 13, the AAA official pointed out.

At the same time farmers are voting in the referendum, the fate of the loan program will be decided. According to the AAA Act, loans cannot be offered during any year in which quotas are voted down in a grower referendum. By planting within acreage allotments, over 90 per cent of the farmers in the United States are eligible for loans at the full rate, the chairman said.

"Cotton marketing quotas are not new to Mills County farmers and it is essential that a large proportion of them vote in the referendum," Mr. Geeslin said.

Seventeen Men Go Into Army From Mills Co.

Six Left Last Friday 11 More Go Next Wednesday, Dec. 17

A total of 18 Mills County men will have been inducted into the army from Mills County when December has ended, according to Selective Service Board Clerk, Omar Shaw.

One man left for the induction center on December 1 and six men left for Dallas last Friday night to be inducted into the army Saturday. They were: Lewis Leaver Hodges, Willie Bernhard Schoen, James N. Bayley, Joe Alton Kemp, Norma Lee Mosier and Robert Lee Hashaw.

Next Wednesday 11 more men will leave Mills County for Dallas for their final examination for army service. A new ruling allows them to all return home for the purpose of getting their affairs in shape. On January 26, those who have passed the final examination will be inducted into the army, Camp Wolters, Mineral Wells.

The eleven men for the Dec. 17 call are:

- Raymond Clyde Summy.
- Lester Lee Moreland.
- Lawrence Elmo Fallon.
- Voyd Lee Doggett.
- Henry Bates Smith.
- Clifford Nolan Williams.
- Carl William Sanger.
- Charles Barney Laughlin.
- Marvin K. McMullen.
- Martin Deward Fallon.
- Melvin Earl Wilcox.

The Mills County Selective Service Board has received a new call for four men to be sent for examination on January 7, and to be inducted into service late in January.

Henry Key Crawford, after passing the physical examination before the board here, volunteered at San Antonio on Dec. 4.

Among the eleven to leave next Wednesday are two sons of John Fallon.

WAR NEEDS MONEY NOW

As one of our peace loving U. S. senators bluntly said, "We've got to whip hell out of Japan," that will cost money, Much Money, but its got to be done.

We have sent the best of our young men, and will send more, to do this job for us.

When we get some one to do a piece of work for us around here we have to furnish him tools to do the job, we are getting these boys to do our fighting for us and it's up to us to furnish them with the necessary equipment to use to get the job done. This will cost money and we will have to pay for it.

This money is being raised by the sale of Defense Bonds, we must buy these bonds and buy NOW, DO YOUR BIT.

GROVER DALTON, County Chairman.

CHRISTMAS LIGHTING PLANS

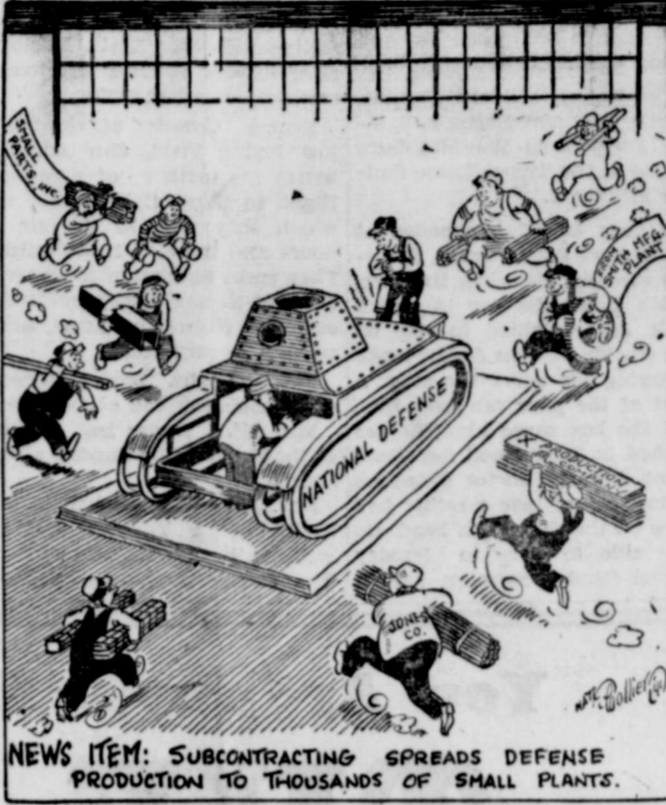

Due to our national emergency, the lighting committee has decided to discontinue our Christmas lighting contest. But we urge everyone to light their homes and places of business. Let's be thankful that we can still burn Christmas lights.

The date for the next Sing-Song will be decided at the next meeting of the Woman's Defense League, Friday, 2 p. m. at the Melba Theater.

Dixie

Dixie the most popular of the songs of the South, was written by Daniel Emmett of Ohio in 1859. After its introduction in a minstrel, it became so popular with the people that it was sung upon the streets and soon carried to the battlefields where it became the great inspirational song of the Southern Army.

I wish I was in de land ob cotton,
Old times dar am not forgotten,
Look away! Look away! Look away,
Dixie Land.
In Dixie Land whar I was born,
Early on one frosty mornin',
Look away! Look away! Look away,
Dixie Land.

Chorus:
Den I wish I was in Dixie,
Hoo-ray (hoo-ray) Hoo-ray (hoo-ray.)
In Dixie Land, I'll take my stand to lib and die in Dixie;
Away, Away, Away down South

Away, Away, Away down South

50 MILLION DOLLARS WAR FUND WANTED BY RED CROSS IN U. S.

Mayor H. G. Bodkin, chairman of the Mills County Chapter of the American Red Cross, has received the following urgent telegram from Norman H. Davis:

Again the American Red Cross is called upon to serve our nation in war. Both nationally and locally we face vast and definite responsibilities for service to our armed forces and for relief to distressed civilians. To provide essential funds, Red Cross today is launching a campaign for war fund of minimum of fifty million dollars. The president will issue on Friday a proclamation supporting this appeal. Your chapter quota is $1400. Chapters may retain fifteen per cent of their collections for local war relief expenditures. Chapter should at once devote full efforts to raising their quotas in shortest possible time. Please report action taken. We must not and shall not fail in this crisis.

NORMAN H. DAVIS.

CO. COMMISSIONERS REFUND CO. BONDS

Mills County Commissioners' Court in all-day session Monday, refunded outstanding courthouse bonds in the amount of $15,000, thereby reducing the interest from four and one-half to three per cent, which means a considerable saving to Mills County. County Judge R. J. Gerold said that the saving for the first year would amount to $225.

The court also transacted the regular routine business.

URGENT CALL FOR CHRISTMAS PECANS FOR MILLS CO. BOYS

The authorities at Camp Bowie insist that we go on with our Christmas decorations as planned. The people of Mills County are asked to furnish pecans for bags of pecans as place favors, for 3,000 boys. That is our quota. Bring pecans to the county judges' office by Saturday afternoon, Dec. 13.

We also need decorations for Christmas trees and wreaths made. We suggest strung popcorn and any other decorations you care to offer. Leave all at the judges office.

December 8, 1941, will be a marked day in the lives of every senior of Goldthwaite High School.

A time of crisis we feel we have grown older, wiser, more American citizens and more courageous and stronger. We set forth first in our ranks by a strong decision to do our part in the American cause, what may fall to us.

You have more to do now. Fight to gain the honor of this year in education and learn everything to the best of your ability when graduation is to join in some field. The Sam's program to do as a true American. It has come for less fooling and more sincerity to the cause for which so many are giving their best and to protect and preserve that is ours.

The rest of the nation, our forces can meet successfully and that we have the courage and strength to overcome all obstacles. We know that the success in war is God help us as a nation, undivided, to do our part and tear up the world that have made a world a bloody battle.

SOCIETY

Women's Defense League

Mills County Women's Defense League will meet Friday Dec. 12, at the usual place—the Melba Theatre. Officers will be elected for the first six months of next year.

Wilkinson - Myers

Miss Helen Wilkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wilkinson, became the bride of Lt. Henry Vernon Myers in a quiet ceremony at the home of the bride's parents Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The Rev. B. A. Myers of Goldthwaite, father of the bridegroom, read the ceremony before the improvised altar banked with autumn foliage and southern smilax. Central point of setting was a pottery madonna vase filled with yellow chrysanthemums. Six whipped cathedral candles in white floor candelabras stood at the sides of the altar.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a cinnamon brown wool crepe suit trimmed with brown fox fur. Her accessories were chocolate brown and her shoulder corsage of gardenias and individual tube rose flowerettes.

Only out-of-town guest was the mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. B. A. Myers of Goldthwaite.

Lt. and Mrs. Myers left Saturday night for a short wedding trip to New Orleans, La. He will sail early this week from New Orleans for the Panama Canal Zone, where he will be stationed in the U. S. Air Corps.

Lt. Myers was graduated Saturday morning from Barksdale Field, Shreveport, La., and commissioner into the air corps. He is also a graduate of a San Antonio high school and Southwestern University at Georgetown, where he was a member of the Kappa Alpha fraternity. Mrs. Myers, graduate of the Lufkin High School and Southwestern University, is a teacher in the Central Ward School. She is a member of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority at Southwestern. She will later join Lt. Myers in Panama City.

CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

F. P. Smith, Pastor

The deceit of the Japanese ambassadors and their government in some respects can be paralleled to the story of how a lefthanded Benjamite, Ehud delivered the children of Israel from King Eglon who had had them in bondage for over eighteen years. The part I am referring to is this and you can read the whole story in the third chapter of Judges.

The children of Israel decided to appease Eglon by sending him a present by Ehud, but Ehud decided that wasn't the way to deliver the people so he made a two edged sword about a cubit length which is nearly 22 inches long and hid under his cloak on the right side. The guards thought all was well as there was no sword hanging from his left side and let him see the King. The King's confidence was gained and Ehud left but returned to deliver a "Message from God," as he put it. All guards and attendants were dismissed and Ehud drove the dagger past the hilt into Eglon's fat stomach and couldn't pull it out. Then slipping out a back door he hurried home and organized a frontal attack before the guards awoke to the fact that something was wrong. Ehud completely deceived them by his smiling front.

It looks like the same kind of deceit in many respects was handed us by the squint-eyed itchy-itchy Japs. They came with their hypocritical friendly smiles and friendly front but under their coat were hid daggers with which to stab us in the back. As a result of such deceit many American lives are lost, ships and planes and other materials destroyed and the Japs are grinning their delight as they mark up the first round in their favor. But this is just the first round.

We are now in a war that we did not want and can ill afford. At last we are united and I hope this unity is not too late. This is no time for silly cowardly talk of conscientious objection. This rather is a time of going up to possess the land in the strength of our Lord. God is with the righteous and we are not to fear those who can only kill the body but rather fear God who can destroy both body and soul in hell. On our silver dollar are these words, "In God we Trust." We are going to prepare like it all depended on us alone and then fight and trust like we could do nothing without the help of God.

We have all been deceived by friends and even by loved ones many times. False teachers have crossed our paths and poisoned our minds with error. Who is there among us who hasn't at one time or another come in contact with an Ehud or a deceiving Kuruso? Our own hearts have deceived us. Sin has deceived us. But there is one who never deceives us. There is one whom we cannot deceive and that one is our Heavenly Father. He knows our hearts better even than we do. Be not deceived, God is not mocked.

Now as never before should we as American people turn from our wicked ways and go back to the house of God. Let us pray as never before for our country, our leaders, our men in armed forces, and let us confirm that Godly foundation based upon the word of God handed us by our forefathers by turning back to the Bible and the things of God. Our Church attendance has increased greatly, our Sunday school is growing. Come be with us Sunday.

GOVERNOR ASKS A CAMPAIGN AGAINST TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS

Proclamation by the Governor of the State of Texas, No. 3505. To all whom these presents shall come:

The State of Texas, like the Nation, is confronted with a rapidly rising traffic accident total. At the present rate, the total number of deaths from automobile accidents this year will exceed 2,000. Some 60,000 persons will have suffered non-fatal injuries.

It is of small consolation that the increased death toll parallels a like increase in mileage traveled, a factor attributed to the defense program. The fact remains that the State and Nation can ill afford this appalling waste of human and material resources through traffic accidents, particularly in this period of unlimited national emergency.

These unusual times require unusual safety efforts.

Now, Therefore, I, Coke Stevenson, Governor of the State of Texas, do hereby urge a concerted and intensified campaign against traffic accidents during the month of December when it is predicted 195 persons will be killed in traffic. To this end I hereby call upon the Texas Safety Association to coordinate civic effort with the official safety work of the State Department of Public Safety, the State Highway Department, and the State Department of Education. I further urge every citizen, in public or private capacity, to enlist in this campaign and do his part to make our streets and highways safe.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official Seal of State to be affixed hereto this the 24th day of November, A. D., 1941.

(SEAL)
COKE R. STEVENSON,
Governor of Texas.
WM. J. LAWSON,
Secretary of State.

MEET JOE STALIN—MAN OF STEEL

By GEORGE C. HESTER

When the war finally ends, history will record that perhaps the most fortunate turn of events for the democratic powers was the break between Hitler and Stalin. Had they joined forces, no combination of powers on earth could have defeated them. Both are unscrupulous, powerful dictators, with little or no sense of moral responsibility. Each saw but one reality in the universe, that of "force."

Lets take a look at this man Stalin. If the Allies win this war he is going to be the most powerful man on two continents—Europe and Asia—where live two-thirds of the human race. If he survives, he will come out of the struggle as the most powerful single human being on earth. It might be well for Americans to begin to get acquainted with him. Likely the time will come when they will need to know more about him.

What sort of a man is Joseph Stalin? In the first place his real name is not Stalin. His real name is Yosef (Joseph) Dyugoshvile. The story goes that he was nicknamed Stalin by his underground comrades way back in 1910. "Stalin" is the Russian word for steel. This was given in tribute to his iron will and durability.

Stalin once remarked, "No revolution can be made with silk gloves." One only has to recall the bloody path of the Communist Revolution in Russia over the fifteen years following 1917 to comprehend the significance of that statement.

When the peasants slaughtered their livestock and refused to gather their grain in opposition to Stalin's plan to socialize the farms, he coldly let 5,000,000 of them die of famine the following winter.

Ruthless, you say. Yes, but "ruthlessness" is one of his outstanding characteristics. In his younger days he was a train and bank robber. But don't consider him as an extraordinary thug. It was for the cause for which he labored. Stalin is a strong man. His physical strength and endurance are enormous, although he suffers occasionally with dilated heart. He is shrewd, crafty and cunning. He is no high-strung neurotic like Hitler, but calm, deliberate, unemotional.

This is the type of man who on November 7, the twenty-fourth anniversary of Bolshevism, in a raspy voice flung the challenge to Hitler and his German conquerors in the following words:

"The German invaders wish to have a war of extermination against the Soviet Union. Well, if the Germans wish this to be a war of extermination they will get it."

For the influence of his leadership, the "do or die" determination of the people who follow him, we only have to refer to the statements of the Germans themselves. In various articles, letters and editorials in the German papers in recent months the German leaders have told the German people something about the real obstacles encountered in Russia.

Here are a few typical excerpts from leading German papers which sum up and tell the story:

In the Voelkischer Beobachter of August 3 we find: "When, on June 22, the German army entered into battle with the Bolsheviks, many believed that at the first thrust of the German sword, the enemy on the east would weight itself down like a colossus with feet of clay. But, during the six weeks which have passed, the very last German citizen has become convinced to this fact: That at the very beginning of hostilities he had not a full understanding of the situation; we have to oppose an enemy who fights with an enchanted resistance and who, in his tenacity in battle, surpasses all the adversaries we have met up to the present."

The Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung of August 7 comments: "We cannot deny it; we are meeting some entirely different ideas. We wish to attack and gobble up the kilometers. But this is an attack proven in the forest and from the very first days we have seen that we must direct a war of a new type. This is a battle of man against man, bloody and primitive."

The Berliner Boerzen Zeitung of July 13 states: "The German soldiers have been through some of the most extraordinary experiences in the battle with the Soviet adversary. Like animals, who, encircled, sees no way out, the Soviet soldiers fight to the last man, but with a primitive intensity and a stupid contempt of death. The Soviet soldier stays in his tank, while the German soldier puts a mine underneath it. The Soviet infantry charges the German tanks, believing that they can do something to them. The individual soldier has enormous tenacity and a great dexterity in the construction of fortifications, trenches, shelters, and above all, the Asiatic people have great experience in the tricks of war, in camouflage and in taking advantage of the terrain."

In summarizing another German paper of July 30 says: "This is the most formidable combat which has been fought under the sun of Europe between the strongest military powers in the present world."

So it will be a war of extermination. Either totalitarianism or communism as now constituted must go. There isn't much hope for the conquered. In this supreme fact lies the explanation of the terrible ferocity with which the Eastern war is being waged.

NAVY AND PERIOD OF ENLISTMENT

C. L. Wylie, officer in charge of the Abilene Navy Recruiting Station, announces that a recent poll taken by the Navy Department reveals that the majority of the people think the shortest period of enlistment in the Navy is six years, with pay beginning at $21.00 per month. Wylie states that this is erroneous and points out that 60 per cent of the enlistments during the past six months were for the duration of the national emergency, and that 40 per cent were specialists, enlisted as petty officers, with average pay beginning at $772.00 for single men and $106.50 for married men. Wylie explained that this average rate of pay for specialists equals or exceeds that of civil employment when considering that this is exclusive of lodging, subsistence, clothing, and medical care and that this enlistment period is as short as any offered by other branches of the military services.

My Week
by Eleanor Roosevelt

DINNER WITH PRESIDENT

We had a very pleasant dinner party one night, consisting of my husband and myself! He ate milk toast and I ate one poached egg, which was good for our figures and permitted much conversation, since neither of us had to pay attention to our food.

I spent the evening wrapping Christmas presents and was joined by one of my friends, who arrived from the train. She remarked that she had not found me in such a carefree mood for a long time. There was no mail in sight and no interviews scheduled, just a deluge of Christmas wrapping paper, ribbons and cards.

PRIORITY PROBLEM

One noon, I met a very charming young woman who, with her sister, has taken over her late husband's business, the making of wire screening. Priorities affect this industry, especially where they use copper. It is not a very large industry and the amount of materials needed in it are not very great, but Mrs. John Ralston is here not only in the interests of her own plant or the industry, but because of the danger she feels a shortage of screen wire will mean to the health of the nation.

She points out that screens are of vital importance in our camps, and in all our defense industry buildings. Without them, we lay ourselves open to epidemics of all kinds which are spread by flies and mosquitoes.

HEALTH GROUP

Talking of health, a most interesting health co-operative came to my attention the other day. It is called the New York Volunteer Health co-operative. You have a certain freedom in the choice of doctors. You pay $18 a year without hospitalization. You cannot belong if you earn more than $2,000 a year while single, or $3,000 a year when married. There are already over 1,000 members.

There is much I should like to find out about this organization. For instance, just what are the services rendered if hospitalization is not included? I suppose if there is only a limited choice of doctors, they will be the same complaint about the doctor-patient relationship. People in this salary range do need more access to good and inexpensive medical care.

FULL SCHEDULE

Here was my schedule on one busy day:

Beginning with a meeting in the morning at nine o'clock at the office of civilian defense, I had no free minutes until I was back at the White House at 12:15 to meet and be photographed with Miss Margaret Hamma, the world's champion typist. Then I went to the Women's National Press club luncheon.

In spite of my membership in this club, I rarely manage to get there for lunch. Tuesdays come and go and there always seems to be something desperately necessary to be done at home.

At 2:30 I went to the sale for United China relief, received a group of 10 people at the White House a little after three, and made a four o'clock plane for New York city.

This was followed by a speech that night at Hunter college.

WAR NEWS

I find it increasingly difficult to feel either elated or depressed by the news which comes to us from the actual theaters of war. When I read one dispatch, the Nazis claim continuing victories. When I read another, the other side has moved forward without any setbacks. I now just pray that I can believe the things which I want to believe, and try to forget the rest.

MUSIC AND DEFENSE

One morning there came to my office in Civilian Defense headquarters, three women representing the National Federation of Music Clubs. They told me of the work they are doing for defense, and what they have accomplished is really astounding. Through their state and national organizations, they have already given phonographs to every camp. They provide records and their members volunteer to teach choral singing, to play for entertainments and to give concerts in various camps and nearby places where the boys congregate on leave.

Here is an organization which really has something to offer in the way of entertainment and has quietly gone about its work and already accomplished a great deal.

'UNEMPLOYABLES'

I received an interesting little folder the other day sent out by the Community Service society in New York city. It describes their employment service, which is largely devoted to placing people who, for one reason or another, have lost confidence in their own ability to hold a job. This is a difficult service because it is hard to find the right conditions and the right people to work together, so that the person to be rehabilitated will finally feel capable of standing alone.

state, the public should be awake to the danger of pneumonia as a complication of these diseases according to Doctor George W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"Pneumonia is recognized as a dangerous and often fatal disease," Doctor Cox pointed out "and competent medical care with skilled nursing in measles and influenza will materially lessen the danger of pneumonia," he stated.

The public has been slow to recognize pneumonia as being definitely a contagious disease, he asserted, and this in part has accounted for the huge toll of lives claimed by this disease yearly.

Texas Safety Assn.

When your back wheels slide crazily and your heart sinks—you are driving too fast for safety. But how can you tell when you are likely to skid?

One way to find out is to try out your brakes on a slippery road while traveling at about 10 miles per hour. If your car tends to slide at this speed, be extremely careful at higher speeds.

Exactly what you do when your car is kidding depends on your driving experience. Here are some suggestions, however, that are well worth following:

- 1. Don't put your foot on the break.
- 2. Don't throw out your clutch. It is better to stall your engine than to allow your car to waltz all over the road.
- 3. Take your foot off the gas.
- 4. To pull out of a skid, turn the steering wheel in the same direction that the rear of the car is skidding. You must be quick about his or the skid will be over and any damage likely to occur will be done.

Swerving suddenly or jamming on your brakes at high speed may cause skidding even on dry roads. A slight swerve or a sharp turn even at a reasonable speed on wet, oily, or icy pavements, or roads covered with soggy leaves may result in a disastrous skid. Smooth, worn tires and unequal brake or air pressure are also frequently the causes of serious skids.

Stopping on slippery or icy streets is often difficult. The first rule for safe stopping under these conditions is to begin slowing your car at some distance from the place where you wish to stop. At first, press your brake lightly and release almost at once. Then press it again, re-

Funeral At Pottsville For Sam Perkins

At 7 a. m. on Thursday, Nov. 27, Sam G. Perkins passed away in the Veterans Hospital at Legion, Texas. He had been an invalid for some years, although his going had been expected for some time, it was a shock to relatives and friends. He was 51 years of age.

Sam Perkins was married to Miss Beulah MacMurray of Pottsville in 1918 and they made their home in Hamilton County and Cleburne with their five children until the untimely death of the mother broke the family circle some six or seven years ago. Mr. Perkins became ill and the malady necessitated long hospitalization. The devout Christian training given children in the Boles Orphan Home, and the ideal environment and educational provisions decided the temporary residence of the five little motherless Perkins children.

On January 20, 1940, death took the life of the youngest boy, Raymon Wesley, age 11, while he and a friend were hunting. When walking across the creek on ice, the ice broke and he was drowned. This accident occurred near the home.

Memorial ceremonies were held for Sam Perkins on Friday afternoon in the Pottsville Church of Christ with Minister O. O. O. Newton of Abernathy conducting religious rites. The grave made to receive the body of Sam Perkins was beside that of Mrs. Perkins and Raymond Wesley in the Pottsville Cemetery, with highest tribute paid to the character of the beloved man.

Mr. Perkins is survived by his four children, one, Juanita, who is attending school in Los Angeles, Calif., was unable to be here at the funeral, and Alice, McRay, and Sammie Dell of the Boles Orphan Home at Quinlan, Tex.; and also a number of brothers and sisters. He also leaves a great number of nieces and nephews and a host of friends to mourn his going away.

Four nieces and a daughter of a close friend served as flower girls, and the pallbearers were six of Sam's closest friends.

Sam Perkins lived in the Pecan Wells community and also the McGirk community with friends after he became unable to work, and will be remembered as a great friend of everyone.

ENLISTED MEN CAN GET AIR TRAINING

New regulations recently announced by the War Department now make it possible for enlisted men of any branch of the regular army to make application for Aviation Student training, and to participate in an eight months course of instructions leading to a rating as Staff Sergeant Pilot, Army Air Corps, applicants successfully completing the course of instruction will be graduated with the rating of Staff Sergeant Pilot, and will be assigned to flying duty.

Sergeant, William J. Hess, Army Recruiting Sergeant, located in the basement of the Comanche County Court House said that it is no longer necessary for young men to have two years of college to be eligible for this training, young men between the ages of 18 and 23, who are physically qualified and who have graduated from high school with at least one and one-half units in mathematics, are eligible for this training without any further mental examination. However they must be enlisted men of the regular army air corps, or some other branch of the service, before making application for this training.

Young men who are interested in the above training, or any other part of the regular army including Flying Cadet training, are invited to call on Sergeant Hess, at his office in the basement of the Court House in Comanche.
