NEWS FROM YOUR COUNTY AGENT

By JOHN A. WRIGHT
Mills County Agent

J. A. WRIGHT EXPLAINS
VICTORY FOOD SPECIALS

Two new Victory Food Specials will be featured by the Agricultural Marketing Administration, U.S.D.A., in co-operation with the food industry, beginning today. Broilers, fryers, and peaches will share the food spotlight.

Broilers and fryers will be featured in local stores from today to July 25. Peaches will be featured for a longer period starting today and ending Aug. 5.

Speaking of the Victory Food Specials, J. A. Wright, Mills County Agent, stated: "One of the main purposes of the Victory Food Special program is to spot especially heavy movements of food and to notify consumer groups of the opportunity to get farm-fresh food at special low prices."

"This year, under the Food for Freedom campaign, farmers will produce a record supply of food. But weather whims are going to send some of this food to town in unexpected spurts. During a war, we cannot allow food to be wasted, or to misuse the labor and materials used to produce this food. Therefore, everyone—radios, newspapers, stores, consumers and the government—is co-operating to turn sudden over-abundance into Victory Food Specials."

"The duty of every American homemaker," Mr. Wright continued, "is to find out what is most plentiful each time she goes shopping, and to buy and use it. She should watch for Victory Food Specials—the best food buys—in food columns in the newspapers. Everyone who buys a Victory Food Special saves money by buying food which is being sold at reasonable prices. They help the war effort by cutting down on the waste of fresh foods and saving preserved for use when fresh foods are not in abundance. Also they are materially aiding in the war effort by helping create much needed farm markets, enabling farmers to continue to grow the food necessary to win the war and write the peace."

BUY VICTORY FOOD

Starting today and continuing until July 25, local merchants will feature broilers and fryers as a Victory Food Special. This is the fourth Victory Food Special to be featured in this area.

Speaking of the success of previous "Specials," John A. Wright, county agent, said: "Local homemakers and storekeepers are to be congratulated for the splendid co-operation they have given the government in the promotion of Victory Food Specials. When we increase the consumption of farm products that are in abundance, we are all helping the war effort. By eating health-building foods we are not only making America strong but we are also assisting farmers by buying their products that are in temporary abundance."

"Victory Food Specials on broilers and fryers will give clever housewives the opportunity to serve one of America's favorite foods without stretching the family budget," Mr. Wright continued.

"Here are some table tips on broilers and fryers which come from the Bureau of Home Economics, USDA:

Ordinarily you'll buy chickens to fry or broil by their dressed weight. That is the weight of the chicken picked but not drawn and including head and feet. The weight of a drawn chicken is about three-fourths that of a dressed chicken. Best chickens for table use are well-rounded—short and stocky rather than rangy. All bones are well-covered with flesh so that the chicken has a meaty look.

Because chicken is a perishable food—keep it cold when it is raw. Eat it quickly after it is cooked. Chill it right away if you don't intend to eat it at once. When you bring chicken home from the store, wash it thoroughly inside and out, pat it dry, store it in your coldest storage place until you cook it. If you have no very cold storage place, do not attempt to keep chicken long—either before or after you cook it."

FEED IN SILOS WORTH MORE

Almost any feed crop is worth twice as much an acre when made into silage as it is in the barn or stack, according to E. R. Eudaly, dairyman of the A. and M. College Extension Service. This is especially true of corn and grain sorghum crops which will not make much grain. It applies equally to sweet sorghums, Johnson grass and sudan.

If corn and grain sorghums can be left standing until the grain is hard, they will make better silage, provided the majority of the leaves still are green. Nevertheless, these feeds even though the leaves are burned or dried up. But all vitamin A would be lost in the latter case. Vitamin A is very essential, especially if silage is its only source, and the main origin of vitamin A for livestock is green feed.

It is even more necessary to have the sweet sorghums, such as redbud cane and seeded ribbon cane, ripe for making sil-

MILLS COUNTY NATIVE FOR RR COMMISSIONER

CLIFF McCORMICK

A native of Mills County is a leading candidate for the unexpired term on the Texas Railroad Commission.

He is C. E. (Cliff) McCormick, son of David R. McCormick and grandson of Henry Barker, pioneer Mills County ranchers and merchants.

Mr. McCormick, who resigned a responsible position with the State Department of Agriculture to enter the race, has had years of experience in oil and transportation matters, both of which are the most important duties of railroad commissioners. He was one of the developers of the West Desdemona field in West Texas after he returned from the army in 1919, and had experience in East Texas in public utilities, oil and refineries before going into federal and state service as administrator of production and transportation laws.

Mr. McCormick, who went to school in Mullin, later attended Southwest Texas State Teachers' College at San Marcos and Baylor University at Waco.

He was in Mullin and Goldthwaite Tuesday calling on old friends to support his race for this high state office.

Mr. McCormick, whose long years of experience in transportation matters give him authority in that field, is campaigning on a promise to speed up transportation in Texas, to break the transportation bottleneck and see that war materials get to the fighting lines in time to be of use. He points out that Texas oil is one of the major weapons of the United Nations, and that Texas must see that it reaches the places where it is needed in time. Texas food is also feeding America's fighting men at battlefronts and training camps, and here is another important job for a railroad commissioner who knows how to co-operate with transportation men and get the job done.

THAT "SOMETHING ABOUT A SOLDIER" STRONG APPEAL TO WIFE AND SONS

That "something about a soldier" which appeals to boys and girls is especially strong when the soldier is father and husband. That is shown in this family scene of Lieutenant Vernon Lemens, taken this week at Camp Hood, Temple, while his happy family were visiting him from their home in Waxahachie. Mrs. Lemens is completing her husband's campaign for Lieutenant Governor which he began before entering the army.

Vernon, Jr., age 6, shows a preference for the U. S. Army uniform of his father, while Bobby, age 3, wears the sailor suit selected by his mother.

Senator Lemens served in World War I, was an active Legionnaire and reserve officer in the peace period, and is now on duty as assistant adjutant with the tank destroyer command at Camp Hood. As Senator of the Twelfth District he will be granted leave to serve in Austin during the session of the Legislature under War Department rules governing reserve officers holding public office at the time of army induction.

He is asking a promotion to Lieutenant Governor so that he can preside over the Senate. He feels that his fourteen years of continuous legislative service and his military experience and standing especially fit him to direct the Senate in the wartime session ahead. The duties of Lieutenant Governor require no more time in Austin than those of Senator, which he now is.

"Never before has there been a greater opportunity to serve the state as an official than today on the railroad commission. As railroad commissioner I will devote my energies toward conservation of our national and physical resources."

Brooks, who was run-off candidate for the commission in 1940, said "I shall pursue a definite policy of co-operation with our state and national administrations to the end that our vast resources may be placed on an all-out basis."

In my effort to co-operate with my government I am not using a lot of fanfare. I have no sound trucks, but on the other hand, a conserving rubber by only using one car to a limited extent. I am depending on my friends throughout the state to campaign in their communities. The 240,000 votes I received in the last Democratic primary is an outstanding endorsement within itself."

Goes To N. Y. School

MISS CLEDE GEESLIN of

Goldthwaite, who has been working as a radio mechanic at $1,500 a year for the Duncan Field Air Depot in San Antonio, was one of two girls, both formerly employed on NYA Radio Projects, who recently were sent by Duncan Field Army officials for one month of training to the New York School of Aircraft Instruments, 1960 Broadway, New York City, according to J. C. Kellam, regional NYA administrator.

For six months, and until March 24, assigned to the radio unit at the NYA Center at Blinn College in Brenham, Miss Geeslin obtained work experience there in radio code, construction, repair, and transmission and receiving.

Having applied for NYA work through the United States Employment Service, she also attended related information and training classes in radio theory taught by an instructor furnished through Blinn College and the State Board of Vocational Education.

Miss Merle Couch of Austin, formerly employed on the Austin NYA Radio Project, accompanied Miss Geeslin to obtain the same training at the New York School of Aircraft Instruments.

Home Demonstration Council

The Home Demonstration Council met in Miss Brammer's office July 11, with good attendance. Roll was called, and ten minutes of recreation led by Mrs. George Shady included singing patriotic songs. Reading of the minutes and committees reported on year books. The presidents of Home Demonstration Clubs all over the county gave report of their clubs. Some gave excellent reports showing their clubs had grown in membership and had shown greater interest in earning and improvement of their homes.

It was decided that each individual club should vote on where they should meet every three weeks or six weeks on account of the tire situation.

Our president, Mrs. White, announced we would have a new home demonstration agent at our next Council meeting in August. We are sorry to lose our present home demonstration agent, Miss Brammer, who has done good work here. We all wish her long years of happiness.—Reporter.

Jumbo Ice Cream Soda.—Hudson Bros.

Prairie H-D Club

Our club met at the school house July 1. We decided we would only meet every six weeks when the home demonstration agent would be with us.

The club meets with Mrs. Ira Hutchings July 22, at 2 p. m. We hope everyone will be there, as Miss Brammer will be with us.—Reporter.

Jones Valley Club

The Jones Valley Home Demonstration Club met July 9 with Mrs. Tip Roberts. When the members arrived they found Mr. and Mrs. Roberts in the backyard under a large China tree silking roasting ears. Every one began to tie on aprons and get busy, and soon there were two cookers of canned corn on the stove. The club then had a short business session, after which the hostess served delicious cookies and iced tea and lemonade to the club members and three visitors.

We will meet with Mrs. Arthur Wilcox July 30. Every one be sure and come as we will discuss our annual club party and maybe can some more.—Reporter.

EBONY NEWS

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY

Our summer meeting begins Friday night, July 17, and will continue through two Sundays. Bro. McFarland of Lubbock is expected to do the preaching. There will be dinner on the ground both Sundays. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Daz Oliver and Elton of Brownwood spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Egger.

Miss Louise Perkins of Indian Creek, who is staying with her aunt, Mrs. Charles Roberts, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Roberts to church here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilmeth and children, Lucy Gale and Nancy Jim, of Brooksmith, spent Monday night at the Wilmeth home.

Charles Roberts of San Antonio met his Grandfather, S. H. Reeves, at a nearby town where he was delivering a load of fruit last week, and accompanied him home to spend a while on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Allen and children of Bangs and Mrs. Brammer and Mrs. Sauters of Goldthwaite were present for the H. D. Club which met with Mrs. J. R. Briley Friday afternoon.

Dixie Joy McMullen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman McMullen of Lubbock is visiting her cousin, Erva June Hanna, and accompanied her to Sunday School Sunday.

Ebony store has been keeping late hours last week and this to accommodate the many soldiers who have been maneuvering through the nights in these parts lately. Ira Egger has been helping some through the rush.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Reeves and children, Joe and Nancy Ann, Mrs. Nellie Malone, and Mrs. Edna Dwer were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Briley Sunday after church.

Mrs. Norman Chesser of Brownwood spent Saturday night with her friend, Mrs. Dale Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Egger had for their guests for supper Wednesday night Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Stapleton and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Stapleton. The supper was given in honor of S. A. Stapleton, who was leaving for the army Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilmeth attended church at Brooksmith Sunday and spent the rest of the day with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilmeth.

Charles White of Globe, Ariz., left Saturday after spending a week visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Reeves, and other relatives and friends here. Charles has been on border patrol duty in Arizona for several months, but expects to be called back to the army Aug. 1. On his return to Arizona he expects to visit his sister Mrs. Preston McCall, at Albany.

Reide Haynes was able to go to Brownwood Monday to visit his daughter, Mrs. Mack Chestnut, and also to attend the cattle auction sale there.

Bob Bell of Brownwood, an old-time resident of this community, was buried here Friday, July 17. He is survived by his wife and eleven children, all of whom were present at the funeral. Mr. Bell was 64 years old and was born in Bell County. He once owned the P. R. Reid place here, one of the best farms in this community. He lived there many years. His brother, Seal Bell, who also lived here at that time, was present at the funeral. There was also a sister present, but we failed to get her name. Having taught two of Mr. Bell's little grandsons who were living with him the last time he lived at Ebony, we always felt we had something in common and always stopped to talk to each other when I met him in Brownwood. We extend a heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

Miss Maurine Hearne, district home demonstration agent, Miss Brammer and Mrs. Sauters of Goldthwaite were present for the H. D. Club which met with Mrs. J. R. Briley Friday afternoon.

No other members were present save Mrs. Nellie Malone and Mrs. J. R. Wilmeth. And very likely none of us would have been present had we got word of the funeral in time to attend. But as it was Miss Brammer went right through with her demonstration, the canning of an acid and a non-acid vegetable, which she did very skillfully and interestingly. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Cecil Egger Friday, July 31.

Here is how some people who have traveled around talk about our home town. A Texas lady, who has visited in England, taught in China, and lived many years in the Philippines, discovered that you had a noted dentist in Goldthwaite and went there for a few days with her mother for some dental work. Finding no cards and no beer there, she said, "This must be the best town in the United States." When she went shopping, she said, "I have looked at costume jewelry all over the world and I never saw any so cheap and so lovely as that at the 10c store in Goldthwaite."

Mrs. W. E. Stevenson and Mrs. Homer Eckert spent Tuesday of last week in the home of the writer.

Mrs. Chas. Smith, who has been visiting with homefolks, left last Thursday for Dallas. Accompanying her was her father, L. J. Gartman. Mr. Gartman also visited in Houston.
