RED CROSS SUPPLIES DISTRIBUTED DURING BIG NAVAL BATTLES

Washington, D. C.—American Red Cross sweaters, kit bags, and comfort supplies, prepared by Red Cross volunteers in widely-separated sections of this country, were distributed in the midst of battle to the survivors of the United States cruisers, Astoria, Vincennes, and Quincy whose sinkings in the Solomon Islands were recently announced.

The supplies were carried into the area by the Red Cross Field Director Alfred S. Campbell and two assistants, witnessed the battle from one of the transports the Japanese sought to sink.

The survivors and wounded were given clothes and kit bags containing cigarettes, soap, razors, tooth brushes, playing cards, and other comfort articles as they lay on decks and gangways of one of the transports following the battle.

"They were incredulous at first that Red Cross supplies could be distributed so fast," Campbell said, "let me tell you, it was concrete evidence that the folks at home had not forgotten them, and it gave them a feeling that they were being backed up by their country."

"One sailor remarked unbelievably that he didn't see how the folks at home could have learned of the battle so quickly."

Many of the men were without clothes following the naval action, and two Red Cross men collected surplus clothing from other ships for the survivors, while the third landed with the Marines and stayed with their wounded during the action.

In a letter to Campbell, Captain William G. Creeman of the U. S. S. Astoria writes: "In behalf of the surviving officers and men of the U. S. S. Astoria, I wish to express to you our deepest appreciation of the assistance rendered by you and by the American Red Cross to our personnel at a time when all were practically destitute of the essentials for health and comfort."

The work done by volunteers in the Mills County Chapter production rooms, under the supervision of Mrs. Whittaker is a record that all Mills County is proud of. These women have made 4018 items, these items consist of 3661 sewed garments, 131 knitted garments, 200 kit bags and 26 quilts. This is a splendid record for our chapter. Material has just been received for about 470 hospital garments, consisting of pajamas and night shirts. Hospital garments are one of the items we are asked to rush thru our production room. These garments must be finished before the Christmas holidays.

THINGS THAT COUNT

Verse

Two and two add up to four, Four and four make eight; Up and you can win the war, These figures indicate.

Not the large amount, The little things that count.

Chorus

Don't forget, put out the light, Last year's dress still looks all right, You can save while others fight It's the little things that count.

Wear the hat you bought last spring, Save your paper, wind up string, Pick up pins, don't waste a thing It's the little things that count.

Just remember, Mrs. Doakes, Little strokes fell great oaks, That's no joke, thrifty folks Help to win the war.

THANKSGIVING DAY -- 1942

A PROCLAMATION

By the President of the United States of America

"It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord." Across the uncertain ways of space and time our hearts echo those words, for the days are with us again when, at the gathering of the harvest, we solemnly express our dependence upon Almighty God.

The final months of this year, now almost spent, find our Republic and the nations joined with it waging a battle on many fronts for the preservation of liberty.

In giving thanks for the greatest harvest in the history of our nation, we who plant and reap can well resolve that in the year to come we will do all in our power to pass the milestone; for by our labors in the fields we can share some part of the sacrifice with our brothers and sons who wear the uniform of the United States.

It is fitting that we recall now the reverent words of George Washington:

"Almighty God, we make our earnest prayer that Thou wilt keep the United States in Thy holy protection," and that every American in his own way lift his voice to heaven.

I recommend that all of us bear in mind this great psalm:

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

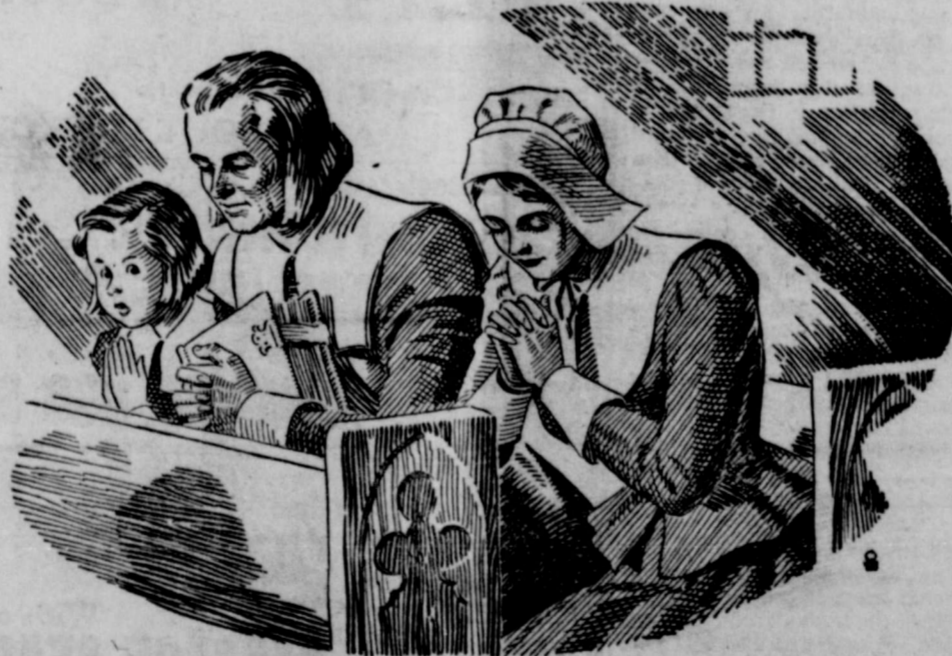

Inspired with faith and courage by these words, let us turn again to the work that confronts us in this time of national emergency; in the armed services and the merchant marine; in factories and offices; on farms and in the mines; on highways, railways, and airways; in other places of public service to the nation, and in our homes.

Now, therefore, I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, do hereby invite the attention of the people of the joint resolution of Congress approved Dec. 26, 1941, which designates the fourth Thursday in November of each year as Thanksgiving Day; and I request that both Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 26, 1942, and New Year's Day, Jan. 1, 1943, be observed in prayer publicly and privately.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this eleventh day of November in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and forty-two, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-seventh.

(Signed) FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.
By the President:
CORDELL HULL, Secretary of State.

FAITH in the Future!

Although we live in a streamlined age devoid of the simpleness of Puritan life, we still possess much of the same fear and faith in the future as the Puritan had. The Puritan overcame his fear by trusting in God and his flintlock, and people today are still depending on powder and shot. With the United States armed forces on the offensive today all over the world, and with the United Nations beginning to throw a ring of steel around the international gangsters now dictating the war policies of the Axis nations, people of the United States have many things to be thankful for on this

THANKSGIVING DAY -- 1942

CHRISTMAS MAILING SHOULD BE DONE BY DECEMBER THE FIRST

The bulk of Christmas mail must be in the post offices by December 1 this year if deliveries on time are to be assured, according to Smith W. Purdum, Second Assistant Postmaster General. Mr. Purdum is responsible to Postmaster General Frank C. Walker for smooth and efficient air and railway mail service.

Unprecedented war time demands on the postal and transportation systems, plus a prospective record volume of Christmas mailings, were cited by Mr. Purdum as necessitating earlier mailings than ever before. "It is physically impossible for the railroads and air lines, burdened with vitally important war materials, to handle the Christmas mailings as rapidly as in normal times", Mr. Purdum said. "If the bulk of parcels and greeting cards are held back until the usual time—the period of about December 15 to 23—they simply cannot be distributed in time, and thousands of gifts will not reach their destination until after Christmas."

In 1941, about 21,950 mail cars were required between December 12 and 24 to deliver Christmas mails—enough cars to make a train 170 miles long. This year, the extra cars needed to move holiday mails are largely being used by the armed services, and a severe shortage is in prospect.

The postal service burrows about 2,500 trucks from the agencies, and rents about 10,000 from private owners, to handle the Christmas mails. This year it will be extremely difficult to obtain enough of these vehicles to meet even a substantial part of the need. The Army needs its own trucks and private owners are reluctant to let someone else use their tires.

Mr. Purdum called attention to the task of the Post Office Department in moving millions of pieces of mail every day to and from soldiers, sailors and marines throughout the world. This extraordinary job must be kept current, even while the holiday rush of mailings is handled. Also, he pointed out, the postal establishment is operating with many thousands of inexperienced personnel, employed to take the place of men called to the armed services. The new employees naturally cannot handle the holiday mail jam with the smoothness and speed of the postal veterans whom they replace.

In view of these handicaps to the service, Mr. Purdum added, postal patrons should mail their gifts by December 1 if they wish to insure that their friends will not be disappointed at Christmas.

THANKSGIVING

Our old Thanksgiving Day is here,
On its accustomed date,
Somewhat the time was held so dear,
We could not proclaimate.
Its other customs may not hold,
Too strong to substitute,
But time was held so firm and bold,
We could not it refute.
Its object if we could impress
Upon the souls of men
As firmly—there's less distress
Among their kith and kin.

Thanksgiving now suggests to mind:
Hol-i-day and turkey,
Cranberry sauce, pit, pumpkin kind,
Football e'en though murky.
Our thanks and praise to God above
Most should we remember
Not feast and game more than His love,
This Day in November.
—May Marshall Weaver.

INTENSIFIED SCRAP HUNT BY FARMERS IS ASKED BY NELSON

The Eagle Wednesday received the following telegram from National Chairman Donald M. Nelson at Washington:

"The government is asking the American farmer to dedicate the remaining weeks of 1942 to an intensified scrap hunt. Steel mills need more heavy scrap and the farms are one of the best sources of this type of metal. We need your newspaper's further help in this farm drive and in aiding our salvage committees to continue this effort throughout the next few weeks. Mats and other material to help you are being prepared and will be mailed soon. All salvage committees are being instructed to continue to make available to the farmer all their transportation facilities and manpower and to cooperate with you in every possible way. The nation is looking to the American farmer. I am sure, with the help of your newspaper, he will come through.

DONALD M. NELSON.

ARTILLERY FIRE IS TO BEGIN ON DECEMBER 1

CAMPBOWIE, Nov. 25—Camp Bowie officials today issued another warning to residents who might still be lingering in the new maneuver area that artillery fire will begin in that area on December 1.

The land first was condemned by the Government on Aug. 26, at which time the Army was given immediate possession of it. Since then, however, numerous extensions have been granted to property holders to harvest their crops, remove livestock, repair buildings and move to new locations.

Last of these extensions expires on December 1, which Army officials say will be the final deadline.

The area is bounded on the west by the Brady Highway; on the south by the Dulin-Indian Creek-Ebony-Ridge road; on the east by the Williams Ranch Road, to the railroad tracks; and on the north, the boundary follows the railroad to the Thomas J. Glass survey, meandering to Willow Creek, omitting Woodland Heights, then back to Willow Creek and the Brady Highway.

Attention is particularly called to clearing the western part of the area in which no artillery fire has hitherto taken place. Army officials stated that when they take command on December 1, firing will begin immediately and it will be too late, then, to remove any more personal property.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

D. A. BRYANT, Pastor.
"I Thank Thee, O Father."
Many portraits of Jesus depict His courage, resolution, high and holy purpose, fixed unalterable determination at whatever cost to do the Father's business, but here is one dominated by His gentleness, His tenderness, His radiant beauty, His humility; thanking the Heavenly Father.
A thoughtful appraisal will bring to our minds reasons for thankfulness... this Thanksgiving Day.

Speaking of the Coffee Situation
There is enough coffee for everyone if we don't waste it. This message received direct from the Pan-American Coffee Bureau, is of very real moment to homemakers since coffee will be rationed in a very short time.

There's no deep secret about the coffee situation—and because coffee is our great national beverage, the public should get the facts; simply here's the story: There is enough coffee to go around, but there is NONE TO WASTE. Present irregularities in the supply of coffee are due to the shipping situation.

But—there is enough coffee for America's fighting forces—and there is enough coffee for America's workers and homemakers. If we don't waste it.

In plain language, coffee is TOO GOOD TO WASTE. Fortunately the American people have not been operating on a "coffee margin." They have always had more than they need—what the present situation demands is simply more caution in using the supplies that are available. We'll get more good cups of coffee, actually, if care is exercised in its preparation. Make only the amount of cups that are desired. Continue to serve the same delicious, full-strength coffee you're accustomed to—but don't waste any. Buy your coffee as you need it—hoarding is unnecessary. You will get your share of coffee—if you co-operate in using it carefully.

If homemakers make more coffee than is needed for a meal, the left-over quantity should not be poured down the drain. There are dozens of ways to use it: in cakes, frostings, desserts, and other recipes where the distinctive coffee flavoring will "make" the dish. Such left-over coffee should be poured into a glass jar with a cover and placed in the refrigerator. That way it will be handy for use whenever needed.

Keep on enjoying coffee—it's an American tradition. But homemakers, you must remember—It's too good to waste.

Making the Most of Meat
The Quartermaster of the Kitchen in every home of our land has an important new assignment—to map the campaign for her family to share-the-meat. It's patriotic and fair to get right into step on meat sharing now that the meat sharing program is part of our all-out for Victory. And it's wartime duty besides to see that a family's nourished for fitness.

How to do it secrets are mainly—plan with care, and use imagination as you cook and serve, advises Home Demonstration Agent Geraldene Summers.

The sharing allowance for a person over 12 years of age, as you know, is 2 one-half pounds of pork, beef, veal and lamb, figured "bone in." For a child under 6, allow three-fourths pound, and for each child from 6 to 12, allow one and one-half pounds.

Be An Open-Minded Shopper
You know by this time that it is best to go to a meat counter with an open mind. The store may be out of a certain cut. So that gives you the cue to two lines of action. Either you buy meat first and build your meal with quick adaptability around the meat parcel you acquire. Or you plan your menu before shopping so that any one of several kinds of meat will fit.

Store and Cook with Care
Put meat, and poultry too, in the coolest part of your ice-box or other cold storage; 45 degrees Fahrenheit or lower is best. If it's ground meat, store it extra cold and use it soon.

Many a retired cook book will go on extra duty in the hunt for meat recipes. When you are looking, hunt recipes that make the most of meat both in food value and flavor. Remember, the modern way is: cook meat with moderate heat until done, and no longer. This way meat, is more tender, tastes better, and losses in cooking are low—so there's more left to serve!

Stretching Meat
There are dozens of ways to "stretch" meat supplies. Just as a starter, here are ways from home economists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture:

1. STUFFING is a good extender for a boned roast, such as a pork or lamb shoulder, or a boned cut like spare ribs or lamb. Use mashed potatoes, bread crumbs, or cooked rice, and season as you like it. Here is a recipe for savory stuffing: Cook one-fourth cup of chopped celery and leaves 1 tablespoon of chopped onions, and one tablespoon of chopped parsley in 2 tablespoons of fat for a few minutes. Then add 2 cups of soft bread crumbs, one-fourth teaspoon of savory seasoning, and salt and pepper to taste. Stir until well mixed and hot. This recipe makes enough for a 5 or 6 pound pork or lamb shoulder.

2. VEAL OR BEEF BIRDS are another savory blend of stuffing and meat. Have the meat cut into strips two or three inch wide. Spread with the stuffing. Roll, and toothpick into neat packages for individual servings. Brown in fat, add a little water, and braise slowly in a covered baking dish until tender. Serve with the gravy.

3. STEWES go well in cold weather. And even the toughest and cheapest meat is a good starter for a stew. So are small tidbits of tender meat. When the amount of meat is limited, be more liberal with the vegetables. And for a good stew, brown the meat in a little fat before you add water, and remember not to add your vegetables until the meat is almost tender. You can extend the meat flavor in a stew by using dumplings, or serving it as shortcake, between rounds of biscuits, or on a platter with a border of mashed potatoes, boiled rice or hominy grits.

MEAT PIE is another good user of the cheap cuts. Have the raw lean meat ground fine and season it well. Combine it with such binders and flavor extenders as: bread crumbs, cornmeal, boiled rice, mashed potatoes, oatmeal. Meat loaf, sliced cold, is a perfect filling for sandwiches.

6. GROUND BEEF broiled on toast catches every drop of the flavorful juice, makes a neat serving piece. One pound of ground beef mixed with 2 or 3 tablespoons of milk, seasoned with salt and pepper, will cover 6 or 8 slices of bread. First, toast the bread on one side and spread the meat clear to the edges of the untoasted side, then dot with fat and slip into the oven to broil. Serve at once.

A POUND OF SAUSAGE, some apples and cabbage—two foods on the abundant list—and you have the "makings" of a tempting baked dish, that needs only potatoes baked at the same oven heat to round out the main part of dinner. Arrange the raw cabbage and apples in alternate layers in the baking dish, fry sausage cakes and lay on top. Add a tablespoon of vinegar to the sausage fat and pour over all. Cover and bake until cabbage and apples are tender.

8. LIVER is a 6-star scorer on the vitamin list. And it's one of the variety meats that need not be included in meat-sharing arithmetic. Try liver scalloped with potatoes, first lightly browning in fat the seasoned and floured liver slices; then putting alternate layers of potato and liver in a greased baking dish. Use raw, sliced potato for this, sprinkling with salt and pepper. And cut the liver in small pieces—add onion, if you like. Make the top layer potato, cover with milk, and bake under a lid 1 hour at moderate heat or until potatoes tender. At the last, remove the lid, so the potato blanket will brown.

9. A RICH MEAT AND VEGETABLE SOUP is almost a meal in itself. Start the pot boiling with a beef or ham bone, or a knuckle of veal, an oxtail, or bones trimmed out of the roast. When you have a good rich broth add vegetables, rice or barley, or serve with toasted squares of bread.

MEAT TURNS—a good use for left over cooked meat. First chop and season the meat with onion or parsley, then moisten slightly with gravy, broth, tomatoes, or chili sauce. Add salt and pepper to taste. Make a rich dough and roll out portions into rounds about 6 inches across. On each round of dough place some of the meat filling, fold the dough over, and pinch the edges together to make turn overs. Bake until brown in hot oven—about 425 degrees F. The meat turn-overs are a pleasant change from sandwiches in a lunch box.

11. SAVORY MEAT ON TOAST is another good user-up of left-overs. Cook one sliced onion and one cup of chopped celery and leaves in a tablespoon of fat for a few minutes. Add three cups of cooked tomatoes and cook for about 20 minutes. If the mixture is too thin, add 1 to two tablespoons of flour mixed to a smooth paste with an equal quantity of cold water. Cook until smooth and thickened. Add one and one-half cups of chopped cooked meat, heat thoroughly, season with salt and pepper. Serve hot and crisp toast.

12. CURRY OF MEAT has the oriental touch and likewise it makes a little meat go a long way. Cook 1 sliced onion in 3 tablespoons of meat drippings or other fat. Add three pints of sliced tart apples or green tomatoes, cover, and cook until tender. Then add 3 cups of chopped cooked pork, lamb, veal or beef, and heat thoroughly. If the mixture is too thick, thin it slightly with meat broth, gravy or water. Season to taste with curry powder and salt. Serve with flaky broiled rice, or with noodles.

 Freshman Reporter — Glenna Venerable

SENIOR REPORT
 Thanksgiving is almost here and the Seniors have a lot to be thankful for. We have money in our treasury and everybody has been so nice to our class and we want to take this opportunity to thank all of those who have helped us in any way.
 We are glad that Elmer Geeslin is doing all right, and we want everybody to keep sending him letters and to keep going to see him if they get the chance.
 All the Seniors are working hard and they hope to make good in their courses.
 We are expecting our rings in any day from now until Christmas, and we sure are very anxious to get them.

FORMER STUDENT VISITS SCHOOL
 Pat Bohannon, one of our well-known former students, honored us with a visit Monday. He attended school here all his school years. He has been taking training at Arlington, and he is now living in Dallas working at Grand Prairie at the North American plant.

SPORTS SLANTS: RESUME OF THE ENTIRE FOOTBALL SEASON
 We are going to try to summarize the football games up and give you the standing of our 1942 football team.
 When we played San Saba we were in shape, but we hadn't had enough practice. They had the advantage of playing two games before they played us. Another thing is that our boys, or most of them, were playing their first game. Just two of our men had been on the field before and they were John and Larry. San Saba scored both touchdowns in the second quarter after we had held them close up until that time. They didn't score the rest of the game although they were putting out all they had. Our star end that we were counting on was injured in the second quarter. Lynn came back in the last of the fourth quarter. The final score was San Saba 13, Goldthwaite 0.

IN THE LIMELIGHT: FRIEDA LAFON HORTON
 Lafon is the charming daughter of Mrs. Lula Horton. She came to G.H.S. when she was a Freshman, and has remained here ever since.
 Lafon has blue eyes, light brown hair, and a winning personality. She is one of the loveliest girls in our Senior Class. On August 19, Lafon will be 17.
 Lafon is well liked by every one, this being proven by her many friends.
 She hopes to take a business course after she has finished high school, and get a job in a defense plant.

 Best pal—Francis Adams.
 Likes best—To borrow money.
 Dislikes—To get "stood up" by Priddy.
 Hobby—To be funny.
 Ambition—To secure a "Mae West" figure.

ADELAIDE HOLLAND
 Adelaide is an old member of our class, since she has gone to this school since her second year in school. Her first year in school was spent in the Lometa school.
 She is one of our shortest and most energetic Seniors (5 and 1-2 inches tall). She has been a helpful member of Homemaking Club, pep squad, band, and dramatic club.
 Adelaide's favorite courses are speech and English. When her high school days are over Adelaide plans to attend Texas University and major in dietetics.
 Likes—To argue with the teachers.
 Dislikes—Nosey people.
 Secret ambition—To outsmart Mr. Helton.
 Hobby—Collecting novelty pins.

REPORT ON PUBLIC SPEAKING CLASS
 The Public Speaking Class, under Mrs. Barnett, has progressed nicely so far this year.
 The class is made up of Juniors and Seniors.
 We began this year by telling stories for the class. Each pupil was allowed to choose his own story, and there were some good stories told.
 We were then given charge of the activity period. We organized sports such as baseball, basket ball, tennis, and others. Members of the class were given charge of these organizations. They all proved successful.
 Next we took up class-room discussions. There are three types that we used. They are single leader, panel, and assembly types. We had some very interesting discussions about "Civic Improvement for the School," "The War," Shakespeare's "Macbeth," and many other timely subjects.
 After this we dramatized plays. We learned how to go up and down imaginary steps and through imaginary doors.
 The Public Speaking Class gave a Red Cross program Nov. 4. Everyone took part and enjoyed it. It was the first program the entire class ever had with an audience other than ourselves.
 The last week we have been giving speeches on timely subjects such as "The Best Way to Bomb Japan"; "Kitchen Fats"; "Ration," and "America's Secret Enemies." There were many other interesting talks given.
 For our Thanksgiving program to be given during class Tuesday and Wednesday, the 24th and 25th, singing, reading poems, acting plays, and even dancing may be included in the program.

 We have all enjoyed being in this class and I am sure we will continue to enjoy it the rest of the year.

LET'S DON'T GET NOSEY, "BUB"
 Well! Well! We thought Lov-ers' Lane had lost its popularity, but we were mistaken. Eh, Wanda?
 Well, it seems that at least one girl doesn't mind staying home all time. Eh, Dorothy Nell?
 Mary Elaine isn't doing so bad, either. Saturday night it was romeo, Pat Bohannon, and Sunday night it was that dashing red-head, Toby Bryant.
 Lanelle is doing all right, too. Saturday night it was Weldon and Sunday night it was Cleo. What about it, Mary Ann,
 Why wasn't Macalee with Hugh Brown last night? Could Billy Hartley have anything to do with it?
 Bobbie, it's pretty bad when your date and the one you stood up gang up on you, isn't it?
 Bill, you and Eli better stay away from San Saba. Lorena and Velma seemed to be plenty mad Sunday evening.
 Mary Nell! How did you get all that skin taken off your knee? Is Billy Jack that rough?
 It seems that San Saba boys really get around. Eh, Adelaide? Don't you ever mind being second choice?
 Say, Wanda, came to school Monday with a quarter. Did you have a good time this week-end?
 What's this? Did I hera Ralph Jones had a bicycle built for two, Orpha F?
 Shame on you, Alvis, letting Martha fall in the creek. You're no good at all.
 Say, Louis, you keep a close track of Wanda B. don't you? Or maybe it was you with her in Lov-er's Lane. Could be.
 Mary Nell, who's this fellow "Curly" Arnold? A guy from Star? Anyway, you two were doing all right Saturday night.
 Cheer up, girls, maybe Jack hasn't quit school. I imagine he'll be back.
 Billy Hartley is plenty cute. Mary Nell, you should have gone with him Friday nite.
 Lewis, you're doing better these days; you can take Kate home and stay out as late as you want to, can't you?? Maybe she can go again after you take her home? Reckon!!!

SCOTT-BOWMAN Wedding Is Announced
 (San Angelo Standard)
 Mr. and Mrs. Steve W. Scott announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Billie Scott, and Lt. John H. Bowman, when Mrs. Scott entertained with a tea yesterday evening at their home, 1518 Austin.

CUPID COUPLETS OF GOLDTHWAITE III
 Wanda Burkett, Stoddard Gerald.
 Mary Nell Epperson, Billy Jack Kelso.
 Velma Fox, Bill Rose.
 Lorena Smith, Eli Tulley.
 Bobbie Overhaus, Claude Collier.
 Lucy Reeves, Doyle Reid.
 Ladell Casbeer, Joe Proctor Karnes.
 Kate Miller, Lewis Hudson.
 Dorothy Nell, Billy Ray Long.
 Adelaide Holland, Herschell Hutchings.
 All the girls (we wish), Jack Hightower.
 Doris Gene Chapman, Weldon Barnett.

TRADITIONAL FOOTBALL GAME AT UNIV. OF TEXAS
 Austin, Nov. 25.—With the traditional football battle between the University of Texas and Texas A. and M. as the headline attraction, the University will open its doors to an estimated 25,000 visitors here on Thanksgiving Day.
 The G. H. Frizzell family here enjoyed a fine wild turkey dinner last Sunday. Mr. Frizzelle's daughter, Mrs. Bonnie Overstreet, killed a 20-pound wild gobbler near Kerrville and brought it here.
 Sgt. John L. House, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom House of Mills County, left Tuesday for Camp Edwards, Mass. He likes army life and Massachusetts.
 Allison Geeslin of Tarleton spent the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Geeslin.
 L. E. Augubright received a letter from Edward C. Hughes. He is Corporal now and is stationed at Robins Field, Ga.

CAMP BOWIE HOSPITAL NEWS

A Christmas tree and gifts are being given to all the men in the hospital on December 24, at the Station Hospital Mills County is expected to have a share in these gifts.

The following is a list sent us by the Hospital Council:

Shaving soap and hand soap, shaving cream, shaving lotion, writing tablets and envelopes, pencils and pens with clip attached, cans of salted peanuts or any nuts, pocket combs, pocket dictionaries, chewing gum; no home-made foods of any kind; khaki neckties khaki handkerchiefs, soap dishes, post cards, pocket knives, tooth brushes, tooth paste, cigarettes, comic magazines.

Please leave your gifts at City Utilities Office or the Melba Theatre at once as they have to be shipped by Dec. 15. There are to be over fifteen hundred gifts needed, so let's everyone give as many as we possibly can to make the Christmas pleasant for the men who—many of them—are away from home for the first time this Christmas.

Don't forget to be prompt, for all packages must be in Camp Bowie by Dec. 15.

Remember, no home-made food of any kind will be accepted.

P-T.A. MEETING

The P-T.A. met in its regular session Wednesday, Nov. 11th, with Mrs. Dan Callaway as program leader.

Patriotic songs were sung and Rev. Burgner, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, gave the invocation.
 Mrs. Jim Weatherby and Miss Anne Coleman made talks in interest of the Red Cross, and explained what the Mills County Chapter, with Brian Smith as Chairman, was doing and what it has in store for us in the future. They urged each mother and woman of Mills County to take the course in Home Nursing that will probably be available in the early part of 1943.

A short business meeting followed the program. Two new teachers were introduced, Mrs. Gerald and Mrs. Campbell.

There will be a Christmas program next meeting, December 9, so don't forget to attend this meeting.—Reporter.

STAR COUPLE ANNOUNCE RITES

(By CLARA LINTON, Hamilton County News.)
 Pvt. Ben Dale Cox, of Majors Flying Field, Greenville, Texas and his bonny bride, the former Miss Ina Florence Rickel, of Dallas were visitors of distinctive interests recently in the Star community, where they were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Rickel, members of the home family, relatives of the couple, and many friends of their earlier youth. For both were born and reared at Star. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cox, now of Dallas, are parents of the young aviation cadet.

Announcement of the wedding date of Miss Rickel and Private Cox is made by Mr. and Mrs. Rickel through the press. The holy rites were solemnized in Dallas at the First Baptist church on October 16, 1942, with Rev. King, pastor of the congregation, reading the ritual in the presence of the groom's family, and a select number of close friends of the couple. Preparations were hurried on account of the war emergency, and the wedding plans at first arranged were accordingly changed. The brief honeymoon was spent in the recent visit of the happy young people "back home."

The romance that was consummated in marriage had its beginning in their happy, care-free childhood days as students in the Star public school, and grew into the chief interest of their busy lives, the Star of love ever leading them on to the Altar where the vows were pledged by Ina Florence Rickel and Private Ben Dale Cox that united their lives in wedded companionship as "long as they both shall live."

After graduation from the Star school, where Miss Rickel played in the band and was drum major, the paths of the young people diverged. She entered John Tarleton College at Stephenville, where she graduated at the age of eighteen years, and also was recognized as a musician, playing in the JTAC Girl's band. Her major was in home economics. After one semester at North Texas State Teachers College at Denton, she completed a course at Southwestern Aircraft School at Dallas, and was employed at the North American plant at the time of her marriage. She expects to continue her work there for the duration.

The groom graduated from the Gatesville High school: two years in an aircraft plant at Los Angeles, returning to Dallas where he was at home with his mother, where he resumed work in the defense production in the North American Aircraft plant. He was an inspector and remained there until his enlistment last August in the United States Air Corps. He was sent to Kelly Field, San Antonio, for basic training, and recently was transferred to Major Flying Field at Greenville. As in all of life's activities, the young cadet is making an enviable record.

A bright future seems to lie beyond the war-darkened horizon for these fine young people.

HUDSON BROS. Goldthwaite, Texas

Long ago the railroads made possible the swift settlement and development of this land.

Today they face their greatest test in the struggle to preserve it.

For this is essentially a war of rolling wheels. Millions of men, and tens of millions of tons of vital raw and finished products must be moved swiftly and surely, where and when they are needed.

Stop the wheels that move them, and we stop all that floats and flies as well.

That is why today, on the Santa Fe, movements essential to the war effort are "topping" the biggest job in our history. They must come first, beyond argument or selfish interest, on every American railroad.

KEEP 'EM ROLLIN'—OR ELSE

* No nation that does not possess efficient mass transportation can hope to win a modern war. In America that mass transportation job is squarely up to her railroads. If they fail, we lose.

Neither battle gallantry nor industrial wizardry alone will turn the tide. To meet this tremendous responsibility, we ask for every possible consideration in the allocation of materials for vitally essential repairs, maintenance and new equipment.

LET'S ALL PULL TOGETHER

As the tide of military rail travel mounts, you can help us maintain adequate civilian passenger service as well, in these ways:

* Make reservations and buy tickets early * Cancel unwanted reservations promptly * Carry least possible luggage, checking extra pieces to avoid crowding * Vacate dining cars quickly after meals * Travel mid-week, avoiding week-end and holiday rush periods.

Turn freely to your local Santa Fe representatives for help on your travel or shipping problems.

SALE OF SERVICE PENS

The Art and Civic Club will sponsor a sale of service pens with one, two and three stars. Wives, mothers, sisters and sweethearts of men in the service may wear a pen with a star for each member of family serving in any branch of the armed forces.

Pens will be on sale in the lobby of the Melba Theatre on Saturday. These pens are patriotic emblems of service and make ideal gifts and mementoes. Only a limited number could be secured. Make your purchase early.

Service flags will be offered as soon as they can be obtained.

W.S.C.S. MEETING

The W.S.C.S. met with Mrs. Charlie Bayley Monday, Nov. 23. We finished our study with a quiz program. This was the most interesting study we have ever had, thanks to our study leader, Mrs. Raymond Little.

Mrs. Bayley served tea and cookies to nine members.—Reporter.

LIVE OAK

By MRS. J. H. BROWN

It seems that winter is really here. Ice and frost were plentiful two mornings this week.

Mrs. C. G. Featherston has returned from a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Tolbert Patterson at Moline.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Fox visited in Lampasas Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Holman of Hutto were Sunday guests in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Featherston.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Yeager have moved from this community to Goldthwaite. We regret to lose this good family. L. B. Bramlett will occupy the place made vacant by Mr. Yeager.

Edd Randle and son Travis visited in the Will Fox home Monday night.

EBONY NEWS

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY

In spite of the cold norther, which was keenly felt because of our long extended springlike weather, a good audience attended church here Sunday.

Little Virginia Ann Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Russell, was taken seriously ill Friday evening late. Mack Egger of Brownwood who happened to be at the Bob Egger home, took her and her family to Brownwood where she was operated on for appendicitis. Her family returned home Sunday. She was still at the Medical Arts Hospital doing nicely.

Cloud Mashburn and Hard Jones moved their cattle to their place on the other side of Goldthwaite, this past week.

Ernest Malone is staying at Brownwood expecting to get defense work.

Clifford Crowder of Brownwood spent part of his week's vacation at the old home place now occupied by P. R. Reid.

Albert Hardin, Dewey Smith, Stanley Reeves, S. L. Singleton, J. Wilkins, Hubert Reeves, and six others including J. R. Reeves, J. R. Briley, Charlie Griffin, Herman Glen Egger, Gene Egger, and Ira Egger with their wagons and teams congregated at the J. R. Reeves place Monday all set for the peanut thrashing, but were disappointed and disgusted, for no thrasher came. However, the thrasher came Tuesday, and they have had plenty of work since, working until late at night. They thrashed at J. R. Reeves's, Albers Hardin's, and Charlie Griffin's.

Rain knocked them out Saturday. They were to begin at Gene Egger's Monday of this week, and hoped to get through with all the others during the week. The women have done their share of the work meeting at all these places and preparing dinner for all the men. I believe Mrs. Charlie Griffin and Mrs. Irene Reeves have covered more places and fixed more dinners than any of the rest of us.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Egger visited Mrs. Hattie Whittenburg at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams at Indian Creek Friday.

Granny Hobbs is reported to be quite sick at the home of her son John Hobbs, at Fort Stanton N. M.

Mrs. R. M. Haynes called on Mrs. J. R. Briley Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Egger, Billie and Norvelle McNurden, and Cecil Egger returned from their hunting expedition in Llano county the middle of the week. Norvelle bagged a wild turkey. Henry Egger was the only one lucky enough to capture a deer, but there was venison for all.

Mrs. Ira Egger returned Tuesday from Dallas where she has been staying with her daughter, Mrs. Nelson Williams, who had undergone a very serious operation. She left Mrs. Williams getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Edna Dyer walked to the school house to register for the gasoline rationing Friday. On the way she stopped to rest by calling on Mrs. Bob Egger for a few minutes. Mrs. Egger is not at all well, but we hope she will miss her usual winter siege of sickness.

Mrs. John Berry, Mrs. Jon Schooler and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hester attended the Camp Bowie Camp and Hospital Service Council meeting at the Red Cross station hospital Thursday last week.

Marvin Weatherby was here the first of last week. Mrs. J. H. Burnett accompanied him back to Fort Worth where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Marvin Weatherby, and family. Mrs. Burnett also visited her new great-grandson who lives with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Plack Carr, at Dallas. Mrs. Burnett returned to Goldthwaite last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Overstreet of Kerrville were here last Sunday. Mrs. Overstreet was indeed proud of having bagged the first turkey of the season in Kerr County. They had an advanced Thanksgiving turkey dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Frizzelle.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Weeks and boys of San Saba visited in the B. F. Renfro home Wednesday.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for November 29

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 18:15-17; Acts 1:8; 2:42; 6:1-4; 11:27-30; 13:1-3; 1 John 1:3.

GOLDEN TEXT—As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.—John 20:21.

THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH

The church is the greatest institution in all the world, with the most widespread membership and influence. That is true from a purely secular or worldly standpoint. Then when we realize that here is more than a human organization, for it is in fact a divine organism; that it is the means through which God is now manifesting His power to mankind, we see the supreme importance of understanding the mission of the church and our relationship to it.

This week we stress the mission of the church. We note seven things:

I. Holiness of Life (Matt. 18:15-17).

In a time when general standards of decency and honesty are low, and no one wants to be his brother's keeper, the church needs to be reminded that part of its mission is to maintain holiness in life and the relationship of one to another.

Notice that man's attitude toward his fellowman is first a matter for personal attention, then it becomes of real interest to the church, and if no response is found there, the offending individual is excluded and put in the hands of God. Be sure to observe that all this is done to "gain" or win him back, not for revenge or in bitterness.

II. Witness in Divine Power (Acts 1:8).

The witness bears testimony to that which he has experienced, and in the case of Christian experience he is assured of divine power in carrying out his sacred task.

The world would have laughed (and possibly did) at the idea of a small group of humble believers making the gospel effective simply by telling "whers about the Saviour"—but it worked, because God's power was in it.

III. Unity in Faith and Practice (Acts 2:42).

The early church had not yet been split up by the philosophies of men and the vagaries of doctrine, which have since divided God's people. It was His purpose that His people should be one in Him, something we should recall before we divide them just to promote some theory of interpretation.

Unity is not only a matter of belief, it must reach into the practice of daily life. They were steadfast not only in doctrine, but in communion and prayer. A bit more unity there might bring us closer together in belief.

IV. Service, Spiritual and Social (Acts 6:1-4).

The church rightly put the emphasis on the spiritual. The leaders who had gifts for ministry of the Word did not permit themselves to be diverted into social service. Too many in the church have failed at that point. Even the good may be the mortal enemy of the best.

At the same time the early church did not neglect social needs. Men were appointed to care for them. In all too many instances the modern church has failed to minister to the social needs even of its own people and has weakly (and one fears gladly) turned them over to social agencies. What a pity!

V. Love—in Deed as Well as in Word (Acts 11:27-30).

Talking about the need of others, wishing them God's blessing, saying a desultory prayer asking God to bless and help them, is not sufficient, in fact it is not Christian at all (see James 2:14-17).

Love acts. It gives. It serves. It proves faith by works. It translates the gospel into a language an unbelieving world can understand.

VI. Obedience to the Holy Spirit (Acts 13:1-3).

God has certain plans for the work of the church in the world, and be sure that they are no small or indifferent plans. His mighty agent in bringing His will to pass in the world is the third person of the Trinity, the Holy Spirit. If the church will respond to His guidance and be subject to His control, the work of God may go on unhindered. But just there, Christian friends, the church has most ingloriously failed.

The early church was directed of the Holy Spirit to set apart Paul and Barnabas for the work of missionaries and evangelists. Knowing as we do the marvelous results of their ministry, we shudder at the thought of what might have happened if the church had disobeyed the Holy Spirit that day!

VII. Fellowship (1 John 1:3).

Here is the great secret of spiritual life and growth—Christian fellowship. And notice with care the place for it is in the church. If we do not come to the church we deprive ourselves and others of the opportunity for fellowship. The matter of church attendance (and twice on Sunday is not too much) needs to be put on our consciences lest we by our absence bear an anti-church testimony before our neighbors. But even more important is our own need of fellowship with God's people.

THE EAGLET

Last week our part of the paper was named Snoozy Snooper. This is the name of a section of our paper.

We had a contest to choose a name for our part of the paper. The name that was chosen is "The Eaglet," and Elizabeth Stockton submitted it. There was a secret ballot and the judges did not know who submitted the name for our part of the paper. Many good names were suggested. There were 78 entries for the name. The winning name was announced in chapel Wednesday, and the winner was given defense stamps.

Quite a bit of work is being done in landscaping our school yard. A number of shrubs are being moved and new ones added. This work is being done by the grounds committee of the P-T.A. Thanks to the P-T.A. We will show our appreciation for this by keeping our yard clean and caring for the grass and shrubbery.

Mrs. Gerald's 8-1 group gave a very entertaining program. It consisted of a one-act playlet by two boys entitled, "You'd Be Surprised," and a one-act playlet, "Ma's Thanksgiving Strategy." The entire class sang "We Must Be Vigilant."

Most of the pupils in Grammar School were very happy that the parents had to get their gas rationing cards Friday, because we had a holiday.

LITERATURE ON WAYS TO CONSERVE MEAT

For every household in your country there is literature available on ways to conserve essential meat products which are vitally needed for our prosecution of the war, R. E. Smith, Director of the Office of Civilian Defense for the Eighth Region, said today.

THANKSGIVING DAY MENU AT FORT SAM

Col. Telesphor G. Gottschalk, commanding the Fort Sam Houston Reception Center for the United States Army, has sent the following greetings to all men of the Reception Center:

On this Thanksgiving Day, it is with great pleasure that I welcome you into the service. Although we are thankful, each day of the year, at this time of world strife we are more than grateful to our forefathers, who had the foresight to set aside a general Thanksgiving for the privilege of being Americans.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

The following marriage license has been issued by County Clerk Earl Summy:

Mrs. Kyle G. Sims and little daughter, Martha, of Bastrop arrived last Thursday for a visit with Mrs. J. D. Sims. Sgt. Kyle G. Sims has been transferred from Camp Swift to Camp Livingston in Louisiana.

Effective next Sunday, Nov. 29, the Santa Fe will put on two additional trains between Temple and Brownwood. Schedule can be obtained by reading the Santa Fe ad in this issue.

MILLS COUNTY MAN ENLISTS IN NAVY AT BROWNWOOD

En route to a training station for Naval Service is Apprentice Seaman J. T. Richard Absher, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Absher, Mullin. Young Absher will go through a three weeks' period of indoctrination, a short period of military training, and then qualify for a ship or trade school, as seaman, second class, or fireman (artificer) third class in approximately two months' time.

Absher was one of the twelve men who enlisted at the new Navy Recruiting Station at Brownwood, which serves Mills County, and which is in charge of Yeoman Vance Nichols. Lt. L. H. Ridout, Jr., officer in charge of the North Texas recruiting district, advised the petty-officer-in-charge of the Brownwood station Tuesday that of all the one-man stations in North Texas the Brownwood office had sent in more men and attained a higher percentage of its quota.

Nichols asserts that he is anxious that all men—not just those who will soon be called through Selective Service—know the Navy, and make their choice while there is still opportunity. All men between 17 and 50 years of age, no matter what their trade, who are physically able and mentally alert, are urged to call at or write the Navy Recruiting Station located in the Memorial Hall in Brownwood. Office hours are 8:30 a. m. to 6 p. m. except Sunday.

DUREN

Everybody seems to be enjoying good health at this writing. School is progressing nicely. We have all three teachers now, and everybody is well pleased.

STAR NEWS—By MRS. DORA GOODE

"Please God, preserve across our land a pattern which we understand, of happy homes which need not hide the lamplight world of eventide."

Thanksgiving greeting to the Editor, The office force, The correspondants, and all who read The Good Old Eagle.

Last week Pete Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Lee, visited home folks while on leave from his Camp in La.

Mrs. Warren Ellis and little daughter, Annabel have returned home from a visit with relatives at Llano. Annabel, who was quite sick, is much improved.

Mrs. J.W. Burney and daughter, Mrs. Troy Derman and baby, Troy, Jr., visited with Mrs. Lonnie Baker one day last week. J. J. Witty, O. B. Gummelt and Fred Sheldon have returned home. They found plenty of work out there, but reports followed them that there was also work at home as well.

A little man, James Douglas, has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Karnes to help in this great fight we are in. The more help, the better. Of course, young James will have to be in training for some 18 years yet.

Mrs. John Shelton and baby and a lady friend of Daisietta are visiting homefolks. Mrs. Shelton's mother, Mrs. T. E. Hamilton will return home with her daughter for a visit over the holidays.

Mrs. John Shelton and baby and a lady friend of Daisietta are visiting homefolks. Mrs. Shelton's mother, Mrs. T. E. Hamilton will return home with her daughter for a visit over the holidays.

Miss Golden Witty came in home to spend the week-end. Golden works in Brownwood; also Miss Ione Waddell.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodson Clary and their mother, Mrs. Billie Clary, visited last week in the Lampasas community with Mr. and Mrs. Alva Clary (Rip and Beatrice).

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Witty have moved back to Mr. Witty's old home place and are busy repairing and fixing up what years of wind, rain and wear have done to destroy the work of loving hands.

Miss Lula Mae Neighbors has returned home from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Wilson Head, at Lockney.

Sgt. Charles D. Rickel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Rickel, has returned to his camp in Massachusetts after a visit with homefolks.

Bruce Roberts, Jr., has also been visiting homefolks.

J. D. Roberts and family and his mother, Mrs. Alice Roberts, have moved to Gatesville.

Mrs. Tom Emory reports that her hens are now rationing eggs. Well, so are ours. Now ain't that a shame! When eggs are so badly needed.

Mrs. Novella Grumble and Mrs. L. J. Teague visited Sunday afternoon at Evant.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Military motorcycles, for couriers, for speeding light guns from one section to another, are an important part of America's mechanized army. Many are equipped with sidecars for use of staff officers. They cost from $400 to $450.

We need thousands of these small maneuverable machines in our Army today. You and your neighbors, all buying War Bonds and Stamps, can help buy them for the Army. Invest at least ten percent of your income every payday in War Bonds and Stamps and become a member of the patriotic "Ten Percent Club." It is rapidly becoming the largest club in the world.

Mullin News

From Mullin Enterprise

OUR BOYS — Taylor Simms surprised the town when he came home Monday on a furlough. It had been many months since a word had been heard from him down on the Solomon Islands.

Well! He says mail is hard to get down there. Precious. He has been in many vivid experiences but has no regrets. The Navy and the ship Yorktown his favorites.

Then John Farmer made glad the hearts of many by coming in Monday. The Editor has not seen John but hears he is from South America and loves Texas better than ever. It had been rumored both these boys were lost or missing.

Grady Hancock writes he is happy to be back in good old U. S. A. home from Alaska, where temperature was 20 below; now at Camp Clairborne, La., and 90 degrees above, and would like to see old friends here.

Sgt. Sidney Neal writes he is well pleased with the armed forces down in sunny Florida.

Sgt. Leonard L. Williams, who is in the Signal Service up in New Jersey at Fort Monmouth, is well pleased with army life.

Sgt. Francis E. Duren has been transferred to a Bombardier Training Squad at Hobbs, N. M., and promises to send us a copy of the post newspaper, "Bomb Blast," at an early date.

Houston Duren and estimable family are now located in San Antonio and writes to have the home paper follow them. Houston has a good job down in the Alamo City.

Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss Sanders of Brownwood were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Sanders.

Miss Myra Fisher, teacher in the Brownwood schools, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Fisher.

The many friends of Miss Mollie Lou Sanders of San Antonio will be happy to hear that she is now employed in the post office there.

A grand old man gently passed his eightieth milestone Monday. Mr. B. I. Lawson was born in Alabama and came to Texas when quite a boy and in a few years met and married the present Mrs. B. I. Lawson.

Mrs. Ella Masters and Frank Masters were recent visitors of her sister, Mrs. Sam McMillin of Carlsbad. Mrs. McMillin returned with them for a visit here.

Mrs. Eula Harkey visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Coalson, at Katemey over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sanders had their children from San Antonio as week-end guests. They were: Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sanders and children, and Misses Mollie Lou and Lula Belle Sanders.

Mrs. Wayne Baker left on Saturday night's train for Lysburg, N. C., where she will visit her husband, Cpl. Wayne Baker, who is a mechanic in the Air Corps.

Miss Agnes Johnson of Zephyr was meeting friends here Friday and renewed her subscription to the Enterprise.

Jimmie Rex Neill is at home from N.Y.A. school at Ranger, where he creditably completed his wedding job. Billy Cooksey and Bobby Wilson also completed the wedding course. There are many calls for good welders now and it's fine to know how to weld.

Rev. J. D. Farmer of Evant was here Sunday and preached at the 11 o'clock hour and held a steward's meeting later at the Methodist Church.

Mrs. W. C. Preston and Sharon have returned from a visit with W. C. Preston of San Marcos and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Scrivner of Lockhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tullos of Klowa, Okla., are here visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. S. W. Isham and daughter, Barbara Ann, of San Saba were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Fletcher; also Homer F. Shultz of Aspermont visited here and with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Shultz, of Zephyr.

Mrs. Harvey Dudley was carried back to Temple hospital for treatment Thursday. Here is hoping she comes home well and strong.

Mrs. Moody Perkins has added her name to the Enterprise list of readers.

Mrs. G. W. Black and daughter, Jean Black, of College Station, and her brother, Lewis Westbrook of Houston, have returned to their homes after a visit with their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Westbrook. Life is a sweet song to Jean on granddad's ranch horseback riding.

Warren Duren returned home the first of the week from Temple and reports Mrs. Warren P. Duren doing fine.

Miss Dalsey Lee Sanders visited in Goldthwaite Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Roberts of Regency were here Sunday looking for a place to move temporarily. They are one of the many in the maneuver area.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jackson and baby have said good-bye for the present to homefolks and gone to McAllister, Okla., and baby's grandmother, Mrs. J. F. Williams, will be looking for them to come back in time for Santa.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Butler and George Wright looked after business in Comanche Friday.

Attorney and Mrs. Tommy Holcomb of Dallas and G. R. Willis and family of Comanche were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hamilton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Crockett went to Brownwood Sunday to welcome their new granddaughter, Carol Dee Shelton, who was born on the 19th; weight 7 pounds, daughter of Atty. and Mrs. D. R. Shelton of Brownwood. Atty. Shelton is with Uncle Sam and is now in New York. Other admirers of the baby Sunday from here were Mr. and Mrs. I. McCurry. They also visited Mrs. Reene McCurry.

Roy Crockett visited relatives and friends in Brownwood Sunday.

Mrs. John Patterson underwent a major operation at Temple Hospital Tuesday morning. Rev. and Mrs. B. A. Myers spent several days last week in San Antonio where they attended a family reunion.

Mrs. Ralph Legrande of Gonzales, Calif., has returned to her home, after an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Fletcher, and family.

Record War Bond Sales Is Goal
Of Women At War Week Nov. 22

WASHINGTON, D. C.—America's women in the cities and on the farms—in war factories and in their homes—are determined to make Women At War Week the greatest War Bond selling effort since Pearl Harbor.

"We women want to work hard, we want to be a part of this strenuous period because unless we are, we will not be able to face the men when they return and claim our share of the future responsibility for building a peaceful world," the First Lady declared.

During Women At War Week volunteer War Bond saleswomen will wear an armband similar to the one being attached to the sleeve of Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, Jr., by Miss Harriet Elliott.

The overall direction of Women At War Week rests with the Women's Section of the War Savings Staff under the leadership of Miss Harriet Elliott, Associate Field Director, and Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Chief of the Special Activities Unit.

From coast to coast women in every community have made plans for torchlight parades, fashion shows, teas, rallies, store window displays, Stamp and Bond booths, pageants, civic sings, balls and mardi gras. In each locality administration of the one week drive rests with the local War Savings Committee which has worked out activities adapted to their areas.

Mrs. Morgenthau, in a special message for Women At War Week, declared that the spirit of America's pioneer women lives today more strongly than ever.

"The average American woman began to rise to new heights on Sunday, Dec. 7, 1941," Mrs. Morgenthau said. "This winter the average American woman will be spending less in order to save more to invest in War Bonds and Stamps. She will not, please God, ever have to fire a gun or fly a bomber. But she will, please God, always do everything she can to help buy anything—and the best of everything—that fires or floats in this terrible war."

WOMEN AT WAR—Overalls, wrenches and drills replace fineries as these war workers in an Army Arsenal march to tank repair shops. Note the determination on their faces. These women are typical of hundreds of thousands who are working in war factories and investing part of their earnings in War Bonds.

Mrs. Roosevelt (left) says women help men at front by buying War Bonds. At right is the lapel tag which volunteers will wear during Women At War Week, Nov. 22 to 28.

Joe Palooka says—

"Hey, youse folks, don't forget to go over th' top with that 10% by New Year's!"

10% for War Bonds every pay day!

Andy Gump says—

"OH, MIN!—We're going to buy more War Bonds. Like everyone else we're going to 'top that 10%' by New Year's."

With Mills County Men
In Armed Forces

MILLS COUNTY BOYS
ENLIST IN THE RESERVE CORPS

Hubert L. Berry, Glynn V. Collier, Sam Saylor and James C. Long have enlisted in the Enlisted Reserve Corps at the John Tarleton Agricultural College, according to a recent news release from the office of Lt. J. D. McCullough, Enlistment Officer at Tarleton.

The Enlisted Reserve Corps was set up during the past summer by the Army, Army Air Corps, Navy, Naval Air Corps, Marines and Coast Guard; and units were established in the various colleges throughout the country, particularly those already offering military training. The primary objective of the Enlisted Reserve Corps is to discover and train an adequate supply of potential officer material for the armed forces well in advance of the actual need for replacement officers. It is the policy of the Reserve Board to keep those enrollees in school who prove by their "satisfactory progress" in their academic work that they are potential officer material.

Any college student who can meet the physical requirements and who is over eighteen years of age may enlist in the Reserve Corps. When a student is enlisted, his name is removed from the files of his local draft board, and he is subject by call only by the branch of the armed service in which he enlisted.

EAGER CADET GROUP
ARRIVES AT RANDOLPH

On the eve of what may be one of the Allies' greatest victories in World War II, another eager group of potential Army Air Force pilots has reported to Randolph Field, world's largest basic flying school, for the second stage of their intensive training.

Included in this class is Cadet L. D. Fletcher of Mullin. Mr. Fletcher is 23, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Fletcher. He was a sergeant in the Infantry when appointed as an Aviation Cadet. His elementary flight training was at Cuero, Texas.

These fledgling pilots, after nine weeks of intensive air and ground training at the West Point of the Air, will be assigned to advance flighter and bomber schools. Silver pilots wings and commissions in the Army Air Forces will be theirs upon completion of the advanced course.

Significantly, this new group, Class 43-C, includes many 18 and 19 year-old aviation cadets, young men who volunteered to do their part in mopping up the Axis.

"These young cadets show exceptional ability in handling a plane, sometimes even better than their older flying classmates," a Randolph Field instructor declared.

GRADUATES FROM AVIATION SCHOOL AT SHEPPARD FLD.

Pvt. Aubrey M. Burkes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Margin Burkes of Mullin, has graduated from an intensive course in aviation mechanics and is now prepared to blast the Axis. Sheppard Field, near Wichita Falls, is one of the many schools in the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command which trains the specialist technicians who maintain our bombers and fighting planes in perfect combat condition. He is now eligible to become crew chief on a bomber and to win a rating as corporal or sergeant.

Willard Ervin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ervin, former residents of Goldthwaite, and Mrs. Ervin came in this week for a visit to relatives and friends. Willard last week enlisted in the Navy and is now waiting a call to active duty. He is an old Navy man, having served one hitch on the carrier Lexington, since sunk by the Japs.

HAROLD YARBOROUGH
GETS COMMISSION

Fort Benning, Ga. Owen Harold Yarborough of Goldthwaite, Texas, was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army of the United States today upon successful completion of the Officers Candidate Course at The Infantry School at Fort Benning. Lt. Yarborough is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Yarborough of Goldthwaite.

The new lieutenant enlisted in the army on January 23, 1941 and served with the 144th Infantry before going to Officers Candidate School three months ago. He held the rank of Corporal before being commissioned.

The new officer is a graduate of Goldthwaite High School in Goldthwaite, Texas, and attended the University of Texas where he was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

At the Infantry School, world's largest institution of its kind, the local officer took a three months course to fit him for his new responsibilities. The course covers the technique of handling all the varied modern infantry weapons and the tactics of leading small infantry units in combat. It also includes study of many varied subjects which future officers must know along the lines of administration, military law, etc.

The men who attend the officers training schools are the best privates, corporals and sergeants from the entire army, selected by their superiors for outstanding intelligence and qualities of leadership. During the course even the mildly incapable are weeded out, so that the men who graduate with commissions are America's finest soldiers, fully qualified to be the leaders in our new army.

STAR BOY GRADUATES

A graduate last week of the Harlingen Army Gunnery School who qualified as an expert aerial triggerman after five weeks of intensive training and now wears the silver Wings of a Gunnery Sergeant is Joe D. Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Carter, Jr., of Center City, Texas.

Young Carter was promoted to sergeant and received his diploma at brief exercises held at the Gunnery School at Harlingen and, unless held over to serve as an instructor, will depart immediately to join a combat crew aboard a bomber.

Now as an official crew member of the Army Air Forces' fighting combination, it will be his job to fight off enemy aircraft while other men in the bomber crew finish off the job of destroying enemy concentrations. To qualify as a top-notch man at flexible gunnery, he spent many hours in careful study and actual practice at aircraft identification, sight harmonization, machine gun nomenclature, and shooting every kind of weapon from BB to 50 caliber machine guns.

LIEUT. JACK M. CASEY
PROMOTED TO CAPTAIN

The many friends of Lieut. Jack M. Casey, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Casey of Mullin, are happy to hear that he has been promoted to the rank of captain in the United States Army.

Captain Casey, who is 22 years of age, was born and reared in Mullin. He finished the public schools in 1937, as an honor graduate. He received his college education at Texas A. and M., receiving his degree in 1941. He immediately went into the army. For the past year he has been stationed in San Diego, Calif., in the Coast Artillery. For the past several months he has been an instructor in the machine gun schools, and now has command of a battery.

LETTER FROM LT
O. W. HAMILTON

Cape Neddick, Maine,
November 4, 1942.

Dearest Mom and family:
How is every one at home? Little Sister must be getting to be quite a young lady. How are Harold, Jack and Eddy making out in school? Would like very much to see all of you and be home. Mom, how are you and dad? I know I don't write very much or very often, but don't worry about me. I am back in the United States now. Of course the Island was still the U. S. However, it did not seem like it to me. There is nothing much on the tiny little islet. The army took over all the boats but one, which was run out to the island. We had a few submarine scares, out there. Other than that there was not much activity. I have been traveling a great deal this summer: making inspections and setting up the units pertaining to our particular work, which is very secret. Last week I was up as far north as Box Harbor, Maine. It is beautiful country up there at present; it is very cold. It started snowing last night, but did not last very long. I spent several weeks down at Cape Cod, Mass. It is very pretty down there in the summer. The Cape is a summer resort. When a lot of people come down to enjoy the outdoors away from the cities. I was in Boston, Mass., Monday. Peg is fine and sends his best to all of you. I have not been feeling so well today myself. I have a very bad cold along with a little fever. I will be all right in a day or two. I guess this illness got me inside long enough to write. I think I am leaving for Boston tomorrow. I am getting fed up with not knowing where I will be one day to the next. I was up in Box Harbor, Maine on my birthday. Yes, I am getting older with a few grey hairs peeking out from behind my ears. Peg sent me up a cake with candles. Lt. Gibbons and I had it for supper that night. We ate all we could and gave the rest to the cook and K. P's. Peg also sent me a couple of French straight-grain pipes, which are very rare.

Two or three months ago when I went back to the island I received a letter from Dad, also a "are you lonesome" card from Eddie. Did I tell you I got my promotion in the summer? That brings in a little extra. I could save $100.00 per month if they would let me stay put in one place. I think pretty soon I will be settled with the exception that I might have to go to Florida in December or January. I was supposed to have gone the first of November, but the trip was called off. Are Eddie and Gloria still in Fort Worth? How are they making out these days? And how is Gran and all the rest of the Star people? What do you hear from James Soules? I guess most of the boys are in the army now and scattered from Kalamazoo to Possum Hollow. We have a big job to do up here. It is a twenty-four hour a day task, so everyone is very busy.

I will write oftener and let you know that I am still going. I don't know what address to give you, so if you don't get a line or two in the next few days my address will be—

Lt. O. W. HAMILTON,
Hotel Bellevue,
Boston, Mass.

JOINS "SEA BEES"

Mrs. Floyd Manuel was in the Eagle office this week to notify us of her change of address. Mr. and Mrs. Manuel have moved here from Houston. Before leaving Houston, Mr. Manuel enlisted in the U. S. Navy in the construction corps known as the "Sea Bees." He received the excellent rating of Chief Petty Officer. Mr. and Mrs. Manuel will be here until he receives his call for active duty with the Navy.

MRS. PERKINS WRITES FROM BATON ROUGE

The Goldthwaite Eagle:
Dear Editor:
Enclosed find $1.75 for renewal for another year.
Isn't there some way you can induce the writers to send in the local news more often—Star for instance?
You have to be out of the state, as I have for eighteen months, to really appreciate the home county news.
This is an interesting state, but I still feel there is no place like Texas.
My husband is working for Chicago Bridge and Iron Company in the Standard Oil Co.
Baton Rouge has a number of vital war industries and the housing situation is getting serious.
I hope I have not delayed to renew my subscription until I miss a copy of the "Eagle."
Sincerely yours,
MRS. V. V. PERKINS,
3554 Pochontas Street,
Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

DOMESTIC TREE NUTS VICTORY SPECIAL FOR REMAINDER OF WEEK

Domestic tree nuts, the Victory Food Special, will be extended an additional week, Granville G. Weaver, Area Supervisor, announced today. The drive will last until November 28 instead of ending November 21, as originally planned.
"Various factors affecting the available supply of certain types of tree nuts have led the Agricultural Marketing Administration to extend the period of the drive in Texas," Mr. Weaver explained.
"Homemakers will now have an additional week in which to take advantage of their Victory Food Special."

Pecans, walnuts, almonds, filberts and other domestic tree nuts will hold the Victory Food Special spotlight until next Saturday.
Domestic tree nuts were designated a Victory Food Special by the Agricultural Marketing Administration since this year's supply of nuts has reached a near record level and foreign shipments of United States nuts has been practically stopped by the war.
Local merchants are featuring tree nuts to focus consumer attention on their food value and use in wartime meal planning. The increased consumption of nuts will relieve pressure on less abundant foods.

Mrs. Frank Oltrogge of Alpine spent last Thursday night with Mrs. Emma Oltrogge.

11TH ANNUAL MEET OF SOUTH TEXAS MEDICAL ASSEMBLY

On December 1st, 2nd and 3rd, the Post Graduate Medical Assembly of South Texas will hold its Eleventh Annual Meeting at the Rice Hotel in Houston. All phases of medicine, surgery, and psychiatry, will be covered by men of outstanding ability in these fields, selected from eminent teachers of all parts of North America. Clinics, demonstrations and motion pictures will bring these subjects more vividly before the doctors attending the meeting.

Speakers who will participate in the program of the continuous general Session, are: Dr. Chester M. Jones, Professor of medicine, Harvard University Medical School, Boston, Mass. Dr. J. H. Means, Chief of Medical Service, Massachusetts General Hospital and Jackson Professor Clinical Medicine, Harvard University Medical School, Boston, Mass.
Dr. Donovan J. McCune, Assistant Professor Pediatrics, Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons New York City.
Dr. John C. Burch, Associate Professor Obstetrics and Gynecology, Vanderbilt University School of Medicine, Nashville, Tenn.

Dr. G. Allen Rebinson, Asst. Clinical Professor Radiology, New York Medical College and Flower Hospital, New York City.
Dr. Robert Gordon Douglas, Associate Professor, Obstetrics and Gynecology, Cornell University Medical College, New York City.
Dr. Roy Biggs Henline, Associate Attending Urologist Brady Urology Department, New York Hospital and Riverside Hospital, New York City.
Dr. Owen H. Wagenstein, Professor of Surgery University of Minnesota School of Medicine, Minneapolis, Minn.
Dr. Lawrence S. Falls, Surgeon-in-Charge, Division of General Surgery, Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit, Michigan.
The Eye, Ear, Nose, and Throat Section will hold a separate continuous program. The honored guest speakers for this Session are:
Dr. Myer Wiener, Professor of Clinical Optomology, Washington University School of Medicine, St. Louis, MO.
Dr. Georgiana Devorka-Theobald, Asst. Clinical Professor, Rush Medical College Oak Park, Illinois.
Dr. Arthur W. Protez, Professor of Clinic Otolaryngic, Indiana University School of Medicine, St. Louis Mo.
Dr. Carl H. McCasky, Professor Chm. Department Otolaryngology, Indiana University School of Medicine, Indianapolis, Indiana.

NO MORE COFFEE AFTER NOVEMBER 21

Retail sales of coffee to consumers will be suspended from midnight of Saturday, November 21 until midnight of Saturday, November 28, A. T. Pribble, Chairman of the Mills County War Price and Rationing Board, pointed out today.

During this period when retail sales of coffee or "frozen" however, dealers may stock up their shelves and sales may be made in that week to institution all users who have registered and obtained their allotments. Sales also may be made to certain government agencies including the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard.

In order to obtain their allotments, Mr. Pribble explained, these institutional users should register with the War Price and Rationing Board on either Monday or Tuesday or Wednesday, November 23, 24, or 25. Their allotment will start with the date of registration and extend to midnight of Jan. 13, 1943.

Restaurants, hotels, hospitals and other such institutions will be entitled to as much coffee during the first two months of rationing as they used during September and October. This allotment for a restaurant, hotel or institution not operating in September or October, 1942, will be two pounds of coffee for each 60 meals served during the allotment period, but Mr. Pribble had this word of warning to add: "A cup of coffee, unless served with a food item other than milk, cream or sugar, will not be regarded as constituting a meal."
One pound of roasted coffee will be allowed between November 29 and January 3, 1943 for each consumer whose age is recorded as 15 years or more on his sugar ration book. Persons who have attained the age of fifteen years since the ration book was issued are not eligible to purchase coffee.
"The coffee supply is going to be adequate to meet the ration demands of all consumer and institutional users during the first period," Mr. Pribble emphasized, "but the problem of distributing this supply to the stores during the first week or two will be relieved considerably if purchasers will start out by buying only the quantity needed immediately, such as one pound at a time for a family. Consumers who have coffee on hand also are asked not to buy any coffee until it is needed. This will help in the distribution."
Under the rationing regulation, coffee is defined as green or roasted coffee, whether packaged or not and whether in the bean or ground. It also will include coffee mixed with chickory, cereal, chickpeas or similar substitutes and coffee from which all or part of the caffeine has been removed still will be coffee.

He explained that this apparently disconnected sequence of the stamp numbers is to be used because of the arrangement of the stamps in the ration book.
"Another important point to bear in mind," he said, "is that only those whose ration books show them to be over 15 years old may purchase a pound of coffee for each of these coffee stamps. Persons who have attained the age of 15 years since the ration book was issued are not eligible to purchase coffee. The reason for this age limitation is to allow larger coffee rations for grownups."
The first ration period will be for five weeks from November 29 through January 3, 1943.
"Consumers who have stocked up on coffee will have to count all above one pound they have on hand November 28 as a part of their ration," he added.
"When the consumer applies for War Ration Book No. 2, sometime around the first of the year, he will be required to declare the amount of coffee he had on hand at the start of the rationing and stamps will be removed from his book to cover any excess supply. This means that the consumer will be unable to continue coffee purchases until he has used up his stock on hand at the rationed rate."
Mr. Pribble explained that coffee stamps in the ration books of children under 15 years of age must be left in their books and will be surrendered when War Ration Book No. 2 is issued.
For the benefit of those who live in remote localities or where transportation facilities make the buying of supplies in small quantities a hardship, Mr. Pribble pointed out that a consumer may apply to his ration board for a certificate to buy as much as five pounds of coffee at a time but in such instances, of course, a sufficient number of stamps will be removed by the Board to cover such advanced rations.
In spite of the shortage of coffee, Mr. Pribble emphasized that the price of coffee is controlled by the OPA regulations and no one should pay more than a particular merchant's ceiling price.
Mr. Pribble added a word of warning to coffee buyers, advising them not to rush to a store on November 29 with all of a family's ration books and try to buy all the coffee the stamps in those books might allow.
"There will be enough coffee for everyone," he said. "That is the very reason why coffee is being rationed. Coffee loses its freshness and flavor if it is kept too long and it will be far wiser to buy a pound at a time as it is needed. Stamp No. 27 will be valid for five weeks, and most ing that period any time as is grocers will have coffee all dur- wanted."

In our present national emergency the local doctor is called upon to increase the field of his activity and there will be less opportunity for him and for the patient to seek outside help. This makes it all the more important that the patient at large should take advantage of this opportunity for home instructions so that they may better adapt themselves to the increased needs of the community.
To those men entering or already in the service, many new features of war time medicine and surgery will be discussed and they will be better able to enter or continue in their present field.
The rapid advances in medicine and surgery bring new and startling discoveries each year so that it is impossible for a doctor to keep well abreast of the times without opportunity for post graduate instructions such as the Assembly offers in these lectures. The Director of this organization hope that the physicians in this community and this county will be able to make among themselves so that all can attend as much of the meeting as possible and that it will prove a real benefit to the doctor and to the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dalton of Abilene are visiting his mother, Mrs. Lula Evans, and other relatives in Goldthwaite.

Mrs. Nevada Harris

Mrs. Nevada Harris, age 53 years, 11 months and 25 days, died at her home at La Porte, Texas last Sunday, Nov. 22.

Mrs. Harris was born Nov. 28, 1888, at Carbon Hill, Ala. She was a member of the Primitive Baptist Church, and had lived in the Pecan Wells Community in this county for a long number of years until the family moved to La Porte a few months ago.

Funeral services were held at the Pecan Wells Cemetery last Monday, being conducted by Pastor D. A. Bryant of the Goldthwaite Baptist Church, and Rev. L. L. Hays of Trigger Mountain.

Mrs. Harris is survived by her husband, Alonzo Harris; three sons, Lee, Allen, and Louis A., all of La Porte; two daughters, Mrs. Norman Crawford and Mrs. Toby Redden of Goose Creek; her mother, Mrs. Lela S. Roberts of Center City; and one brother, J. Maynard Roberts of Center City.

SCALLORN

By MRS. OPA BLACK

There was a splendid crowd out Sunday morning to hear Rev. Stohler deliver an inspiring sermon. Rev. Stohler is a student from Howard Payne College and comes well recommended. The church has called him for next year. He will be back to preach here the third Sunday in January.

Sunday callers in the Dee Jones home were Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Hill of Long Cove and Rev. Purvis and Mrs. Purvis of Brownwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Henry came in home Friday after having been away several months. Mr. Henry has been working at Killeen.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb Laughlin have purchased the Alf Smith farm located in Chadwick Community and plan to make that their home in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Eckert called in the Dutch Smith home Sunday evening.

Instead of Monday being wash day in this vicinity it turned out to be hog-butchering day since we've heard of several being killed.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ford of Florence visited through the week-end with Mrs. J. D. Ford. While in town Monday Mrs. C. H. Black and Mrs. Earl Blake called on Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hufstutler.

C. H. Horton visited over the week-end in Mullin with his daughter, Mrs. Henry Crawford, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Dutch Smith and sons, Junior and Johnnie, visited Sunday in the C. H. Black home.

MELBA THEATRE NEWS

'A TRAGEDY AT MIDNIGHT' Murder mystery fans will find the Melba Theatre's forthcoming fare precisely to their liking. Republic's 'A Tragedy at Midnight' which opens there on Saturday night for a two-day run, promises movie-goers all the elements of glamor, romance, suspense, thrills and originality, everything, in fact that the successful mystery drama formula requires.

John Howard and Margaret Lindsey head the cast, with Roscoe Karns, Keye Luke, Miles Mander, Lillian Bond, Billy Newell and Helena Phillipis Evans in supporting roles.

Howard plays the role of Greg Sherman, good-looking young radio detective who has won the animosity of the police by his unflinching knack of solving current murder mysteries from under the very noses of the police commissioner and his detectives. To save their own faces they are out to "get" Greg on one count or another and thus put the Roastie Toastie sponsored program off the air.

'HENRY AND DIZZY' The Peck's bad boy of Hollywood and the airways - Henry Aldrich - is on his way to the screen of the Melba Theatre, due to arrive there Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday with a load of troubles and laughs. Jimmy Lydon, Paramount's screen Henry Aldrich, plays the role again. He's accompanied, as usual, by friend Dizzy, in the person of Charles Smith, together with whom he manages to raise more sand than ever before.

The picture is Paramount's 'Henry and Dizzy,' and from all accounts it is the best of the Aldrich Family films to date. The perpetually distressed parents of Henry in this case are John Litel and Olive Blakeney. Phyllis, Henry's girl, is again played by petite Mary Anderson. Also in the cast are Vaughn Glaser, Maude Eburne, Carl 'Alfalfa' Switzer and Warren Hymer.

'Henry and Dizzy' tells the side-splitting story of the two boys' dilemma when they smash
