USDA WAR BOARDS NOW RECOMMEND TO CO. DRAFT BOARDS

Texas' 254 County USDA War Boards were handed the job this week of assisting in the selective service classification of agricultural registrants, according to an announcement from the Texas United States Department of Agriculture War Board at College Station.

County war boards were asked by Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard to make requests immediately for the deferment of registrants who are necessary farm workers and farm operators not now in Class II-C or Class III-C and whose deferment has not otherwise been requested.

To be eligible for Class II-C or III-C, a registrant must be necessary to and regularly engaged in an agricultural occupation or agricultural endeavor essential to the Food for Freedom program.

"The young men of Texas who are producing Food for Freedom are serving their country as loyally as though they were in the armed forces," B. F. Vance, chairman Texas USDA War Board, said and added that "The farm boy's overalls are his uniform, and it's an honor to wear them."

At the same time, he appealed to all Texas farmers and ranchers to plan for maximum war production this year, despite the shortages with which they are confronted.

Basis for recommending deferment of farm workers will be data taken from the 1943 farm plan sheets, which now are being signed throughout the state, and from the farm manpower's inventory, a part of the production plan sheet.

Although the USDA War Boards will make recommendations, the final decision for classification for an agricultural registrant will be made by local selective service boards.

FARMERS TAKE COTTON CROP INSURANCE

College Station, March 17.—Kaufman County farmers were leading the state in the number of cotton crop insurance applications as the campaign gained momentum throughout the cotton area.

Total applications signed to date in the state approximate 11,500 contracts.

Offered for second consecutive year, cotton insurance protects either 50 or 75 per cent of a farm's average yield, goes into effect when the crop is planted and protects the cotton until it is weighed in at the gin.

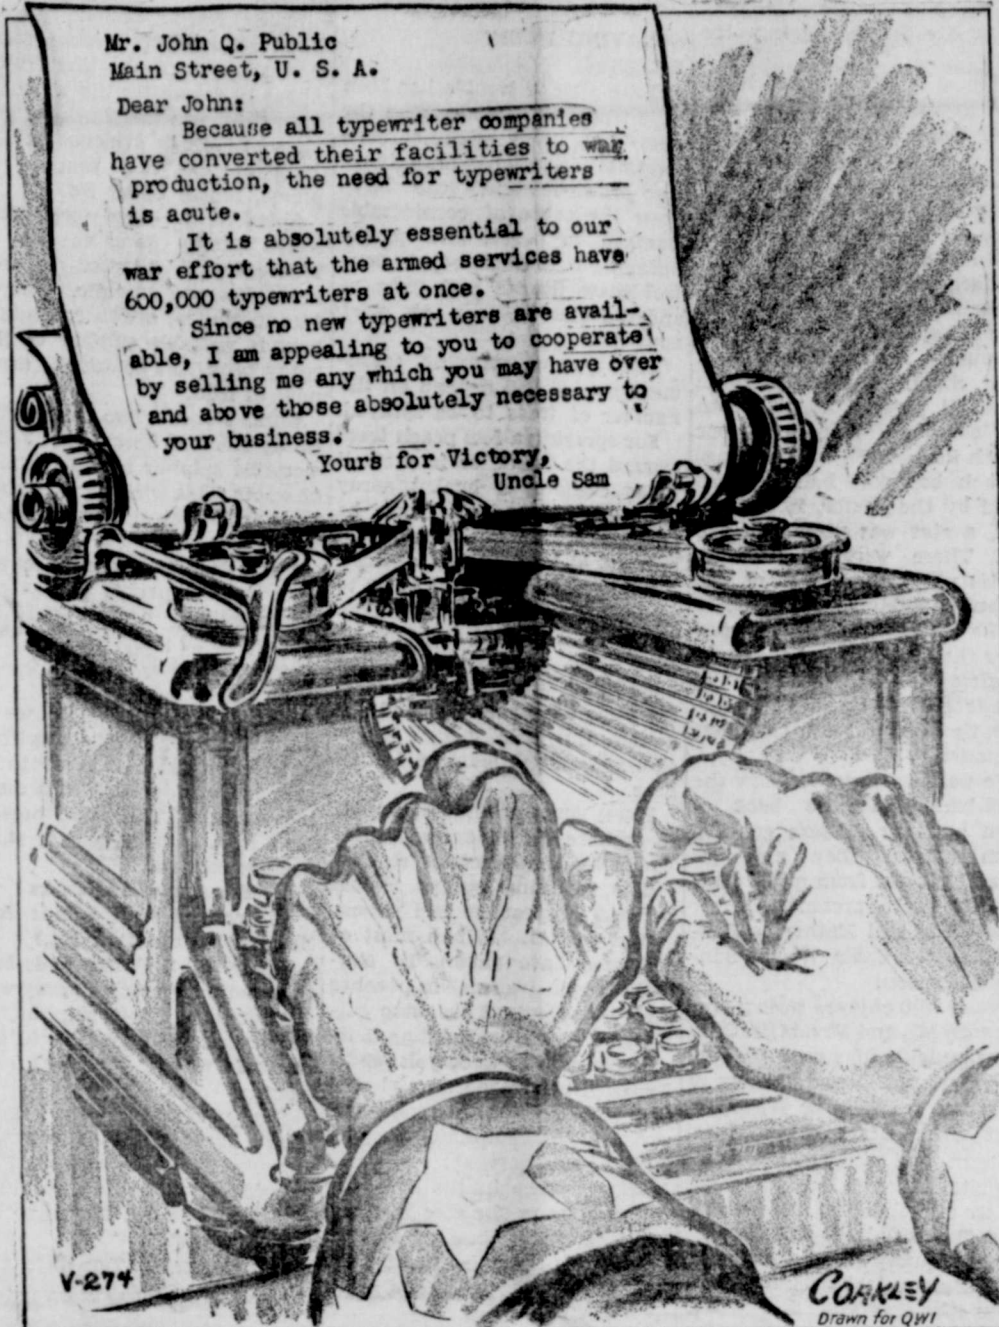

Premiums may be paid by signing a commodity note which calls for payment either in cotton or the cash equivalent, in deductions from loss payments or from the first AAA payment.

One of the new features of this year's program, according to Donald L. Cothran, state crop insurance supervisor, is a new clause which offers protection against losses "due to inability to secure machinery, labor, insecticides or fertilizer because of war conditions."

Also added to the 1943 program is the reduced premium plan, under which premiums will be reduced as much as 50 per cent when the amount paid into the Corporation over a continuous period of years equals or exceeds the amount required to pay one total loss.

Cothran urged cotton farmers to sign their cotton crop insurance applications at the same time they visit committeemen to plan for maximum production under the 1943 Food for Freedom program. Only two closing dates, April 1 and April 15, remain in which applications may be signed this year.

AN OPEN LETTER TO YOU!

PROGRESS IS BEING MADE ON FAIRMAN TEST WEST OF CITY

The oil test west of Goldthwaite on the E. T. Fairman land has encountered the top of the Marble Falls limestone at 2,133 feet, which put it structurally much higher than the same reliable marker found in a few tests drilled years ago SSE, WNW, NW and N of the present venture, thus definitely proving Geologist Emil Ott's previous scientific deductions which were based on a magnetometer survey he conducted through Mills County over two years ago.

Seven-inch OD casing was run and set five feet in the lime at 2,138 feet and the well was deepened in very hard white, grey and tan lime to 2,148 when a bearing in the drilling engine burned out yesterday afternoon. New parts are being made now and it is expected that drilling will be resumed again late tonight.

A four-days church revival was recently held under the leadership of District 16, did the preaching of the Men's Brotherhood. The meeting closed last Sunday with 21 new members added to the church and a large number of people coming for re-dedication of life.

Dr. J. R. Hickerson, missionary of District 16, did the preaching and Joe Grissom, Goldthwaite did a fine job in leading the music.

Gloria Young, noted author of short stories and editor of the children's page in the Baptist Standard and The Commission, was the guest speaker at the mid-week service last Wednesday evening.

Miss Young is a teacher in the Sunday School at Travis Avenue Baptist Church, Fort Worth, and, speaking out of her rich experiences as a Sunday School teacher, she presented a great challenge to all who were present. It shall be the purpose of all who heard her to accept the fine suggestions and seek to build a bigger and better school where the Eternal Word of God shall be taught in all its truth and beauty and simplicity.

PLANTING SEEDS ARE SOLD POINT-FREE

Dried beans, peas and lentils may be sold for planting purposes point-free if processors will simply label such seeds, A. T. Pribble, Chairman of the Mills County War Price and Rationing Board, announced this week.

All beans, lentils and peas which have been treated with any substances rendering them unfit for human consumption must be so labeled and these also may be transferred point-free.

OPA regulations will be met by attaching the following label to the package: "For seed only. Not for human consumption. Labeled and packaged in compliance with applicable federal and state laws."

"This label may be in the form of a tag, rubber stamps, or ink marking on the package," Mr. Pribble explained.

If a seller's points are depleted as the result of such sales or transfers, application may be made to the State or District OPA office for adjustment of point inventory on OPA Form R-315, stating the quantities so transferred and the names of the transferees," Mr. Pribble added.

"Application for points lost as the result of such sales or transfers should state that these products were transferred for planting purposes only."

Mrs. Emma Whitt left Saturday for a two weeks' visit with her son, Hubert Whitt, and family, at Bronte.

Here is what Randolph Field did in one day:

NEW PRIORITY AREAS APPROVED FOR THIS CONSERVATION DIST

At the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District Supervisors' meeting held at Brownwood on March 9, the following new priority areas were approved: Priddy, in J. H. Priddy's sub-division; Mullin, and an addition to the Lake Merritt priority area, both of which are in Willis A. Hill's sub-division.

In the Long Cove Priority Area these farmer district cooperative agreements were approved: Albert Conrad, Fred Conrad, Mrs. Effie Roberts, Enoch Godwin, and Willie T. Bain.

The Mills County Simple Conservation Practice Program was discussed by Supervisor Hill, who worked with the county technical committee. He explained that Mr. Hayne and Mr. Priddy were working with the AAA in getting simple soil conservation practice sheets distributed to each farmer in Mills County.

G. G. Goss, authorized representative of the Brown-Mills supervisors signed for nine long-winged plows, four No. 2 slips, one No. 3 slip, eleven Fresnoes, and four middle breaker plows, loaned by the Soil Conservation Service to be used in the Brown-Mills Conservation District.

NOTES FROM COUNTY SCHOOL SUPERIN- TENDENT' OFFICE

March is the month for taking the scholastic census. I wish to call attention to the following points about the census:

1. Census trustees should see that all blanks are filled properly, and that each slip is signed by both the person rendering the child and by the census trustee.
2. Care should be taken that the day, month and year of birth are correct.
3. The AGE to be put down on blank should be the age the child will be on September 1, 1943.
4. The name and number of the district should be shown on each family blank.
5. Each child should be rendered in the district where he legally resides on April 1, 1943.
6. Children who will become six years of age BEFORE Sept. 1, 1943, and those who will be UNDER eighteen on that date should be enumerated. No others will be eligible for the state apportionment.
7. Parents should see that their children are rendered by April 1, 1943. In case some child has not been enumerated by that time, the parents should get in touch with the local trustees or Ex-officio County Supt. John Patterson.

The Office of Defense Transportation is going to be very strict about school bus operation from now on. All unnecessary driving, especially on side routes, will be eliminated. No buses will be given permission to operate unless it is shown to the ODT that the operation of such bus is absolutely essential. Blanks for showing that the present bus routes are essential are being distributed from the County Superintendent's office. These reports are due in the office not later than April 1, 1943. Bus drivers and the superintendents or principals of the local schools should make these reports. Since these reports go to a division of the federal government, extreme care should be used in preparing them. All such reports should be submitted exactly as received in this office.

JOHN L. PATTERSON,
Ex-Officio Co. Supt.

SINGING CONVENTION

OUTSTANDING GIRL TELLS OF 4-H PROJECT

I joined the 4-H Club at Big Valley when I was nine years old. During that year I made a slip, two handkerchiefs, a cup towel, and a dress. At the Style Show I won first place on my dress and for a prize I got to go to A. and M. College. I met girls from different parts of Texas while I was there. I surely enjoyed my bus trip back home.

I also had a frame garden. I raised carrots, tomatoes, English peas, radishes and cabbage. I canned 19 half pints of fruit and tomatoes.

During my second year of 4-H work, I made a house coat and a gown. At the 4-H and F.F.A. Show I won second place on my gown. At the Mills County Style Show, I won second on my house coat. I served as the Big Valley reporter during that year.

In my third year of 4-H work I made a shoe bag, a laundry bag, a poultry scrap book, a slip, and a dress. At the 4-H and F.F.A. Show I won first on my dress and slip and third on my shoe-bag. I raised about 45 baby Plymouth Rock chickens. I kept all of the pullets and sold the roosters in order to pay for them and their feed.

This year I am a member of Jones Valley 4-H club. I made a dress and a blouse, an apron a clown and elephant, a luncheon cloth with four napkins, a dresser scarf, and a receipt book. In the 4-H and F.F.A. Show I won first on my dress and blouse second on my dresser scarf, and second on my luncheon cloth and napkins. Since I won the most prizes I was selected outstanding 4-H club girl of Mills County. I am president of our club.

Other than the things I have entered I have made a dress, a pair of slacks, and a dresser stool. I also have a pig and a calf. I am now selling eggs from my Plymouth Rock chickens. I have sold about 20 dozen eggs. I am saving my money so I can buy fixtures for my room. I have a $25.00 War Bond. And I gathered up 339 pounds of rubber and I helped gather up 2000 pounds of iron. I have won $14.00 in all of my prize money.

A TABLESPOON WILL HELP

College Station—If every American rural family saved one tablespoon of fat a day, more than half a million pounds would be available for the making of glycerin, a badly needed war material, Mildred Horton of the A. and M. College Extension Service said in a recent radio talk addressed to farm homemakers of the state. Miss Horton is a member of the Texas Salvage Committee.

Miss Horton calls attention to a Washington report that unless homemakers can swell current fat collections, a further cut will be necessary in civilian uses of glycerin. At present glycerin is being used in the manufacture of cellophane, leather and textiles, tooth paste, drugs and pharmaceuticals, and other articles for civilian use.

Approximately 85 per cent of the current glycerin output is going into warproduction and the remaining 15 per cent of the current glycerin output is going into essential civilian uses.

Kitchen fats have their place in the war program, first as food and second as a source of glycerin, Miss Horton says. It is common sense for homemakers to use bacon drippings or other fat for seasoning as long as it is edible, and those who have more than they need can share it with their neighbors. That is economical as well as neighborly, she explains. Then when fat ceases to be good food, it should be strained into a clean, wide-mouthed, one-pound can, and kept in a cool place. It can be sold to most butchers at four cents per pound.

Only five pounds of salvaged fat are required in the manufacture of one pound of nitroglycerin, Miss Horton says.

TIME SAVERS IN SEWING

College Station—There is a boom in home sewing in Texas as evidenced by the hundreds of sewing machine clinics reported by county home demonstration agents of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

Homemakers who are turning to this practice can save themselves considerable time by proper preparation for the job, says Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, Extension clothing specialist. She suggests first, selection and convenient arrangement of a sewing room or "sewing corner". Whatever

BIG VALLEY—
 By MRS. CARL WOODS

Mr. and Mrs. Leman Reagan and children of Fort Worth visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Reagan, last week-end.

D. J. McConal, who has been working in West Texas, came home last week to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McConal, and family before joining the Navy.

Durward Woods returned home last week from Manhattan Beach, Calif., where he has been working in the Douglas Aircraft plant for the past few months. He left last Thursday for Abilene where he will begin a new life for Uncle Sam in the Navy.

A large crowd attended the Memorial Service Sunday night for our boys who have left our community for military service. After singing several patriotic songs, all pledged allegiance to our country's flag and our church flag. Then as the names of each boy who had left was called by the Pastor, Rev. Hancock, a star was placed on the flag. There were 24 stars. A service pin with four stars was presented to Mrs. Joe Corona as she has four sons in the service. After the dedication of the service flag, Rev. C. K. Roberts, a former pastor, brought a message, the subject being "Precious Memories."

We want our boys to know the folks back home are back of them and our prayers go with them wherever they may go. Several visitors from other communities were present.

Reta Lou and Katherine Dennard visited Syble Woods Sunday afternoon.

Those who enjoyed turkey dinner with Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Cook and family Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Hyslop, Bill and Tommy of Goldthwaite, Blanche Hyslop of Port Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Morgan and children of Goldthwaite, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ledbetter and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Oglesby and Beryl.

Mrs. Johnny M. Woods returned to Denton last week after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Carl Woods and family and her mother, Mrs. Farrar, and other relatives at Evant.

Mrs. Vance Cockrell taught the primary room last week for Miss Cave, as she was sick with the flu, but was able to be back on her job this week.

Jackie Dennard spent Friday night with Mary Beth Renfro.

M. T. Wylie of Mullin and Robert Long of Goldthwaite spent the week-end with Ralph Woods.

Hugh Forest Smith visited Garland McConal Sunday afternoon.

place is chosen should have proper lighting to prevent eyestrain and speed up the work, Mrs. Barnes says.

Keeping a well-equipped sewing box also is an aid to sewing and tempers as well. A good sharp pair of scissors and pins should be included in this equipment, the specialist says. She also advises the frequent use of a well-padded ironing board, for "pressing as you sew means better workmanship."

Learning to use all the attachments of a machine simplifies many sewing tasks. For example, Mrs. Barnes suggests learning to gather on the machine.

Making garments factory style—that is, cutting out at least two at a time, also results in economy. The specialist says this is particularly helpful in the making of garments such as boy's shirts. She advocates use of the buttonhole stitch in sewing on snaps and hooks and eyes. This makes them more secure.

Covering the table with oil cloth "wrong side up" is helpful during the cutting operation. Since this surface is slightly rough it will keep the material from slipping. It is also practical to keep a pair of eyebrow tweezers in the machine drawer. Then when the bobbin thread is too short to be caught with the fingers, the tweezers can be used to catch the thread without removing the bobbin.

SPRAYING FRUIT TREES

Quite a bit of trouble has been experienced by fruit growers the past few years with curculio (worms) in peaches and plums. Also brown rot and scab have been the cause of considerable damage to peach and plums. Spraying is the only way to control these insects and diseases, and the time is near to start spraying.

The type of spraying equipment needed will depend on the number of trees to be sprayed.

For spraying a few peach trees around the home, or in a small home orchard, a bucket spray pump may be used. It should be equipped with a 4-foot extension rod and at least 15 feet of hose.

For spraying orchards of up to 40 or 500 trees, a barrel spray pump will be found satisfactory. This pump fits into a 50-gallon barrel and develops from 125 to 150 pounds pressure. It should be equipped with a 4-foot extension rod and at least 25 feet of hose.

Power sprayers should be used in orchards of 10 acres or over to obtain satisfactory results.

The following sprays should be used for peaches and plums:

Spray No. 1. (When most of blossoms have shed.) To control curculio (worms) in peaches and plums, mix 2 lbs. zinc sulphate, 4 lbs. hydrated lime, 1 lb. arsenate of lead to 50 gals. water. Caution: where the annual rain fall is less than 30 inches, do not use zinc sulphate in spray mixture. Important:

Mix this spray in the following order: dissolve the zinc in spray tank; add the lime as a thin creamy paste to a nearly full tank before adding the lead arsenate.

Spray No. 2. Shuck spray—when the dried up blossoms form a shuck around the tiny fruit.) About 10 days after the blossoms are in evidence at the base of the tiny peaches or plums, repeat Spray No. 1.

Spray No. 3. (Two weeks after shuck spray.) Same as No. 1. This spray is directed against brown rot and curculio. Therefore to control brown rot, add 3 pounds wettable sulphur to the spray tank just before the arsenate of lead.

Spray No. 4. (Two weeks after Spray No. 3.) Spray with 3 lbs. wettable sulphur to 50 gallons of water. This spray is to protect early fruit against brown rot and scab.

Spray No. 5. (For mid-season and late ripening varieties.) Spray with 3 pounds wettable sulphur to 50 gallons water. This is approximately 30 days before fruit ripens.

Spray No. 6. (Just before or during harvest.) Spray with 5 pounds wettable sulphur to 50 gallons water, or dust with dusting sulphur. This is to protect fruit that is to be held or shipped against rot.

For Apples and Pears

(To control scab, aphids, codling moth, and bitter rot.) Spray No. 1. (When buds turn pink before opening.) Spray with 3 pounds wettable sulphur, 1-2 pint nicotine sulphate to 50 gallons of water, for scab and aphids.

Spray No. 2. (When blossom petals have dropped.) Spray with 3 pounds wettable sulphur, 1-2 pounds arsenate of lead to 50 gallons of water, for scab and codling moth.

Spray No. 3. (Ten days after

No. 2.) Spray with 3 pounds wettable sulphur, 1 1-2 pounds lead arsenate to 50 gallons water, for scab and codling moth.

Spray No. 4. (July 1 to 15.) Spray with Bordeaux mixture (4 lbs. copper sulphate, 6 lbs. hydrated lime to 50 gallons water) and add 1 1-2 pounds lead arsenic for bitter rot and codling moth.

For Grapes

Black rot attacks the fruit, leaves and twigs of the plants when the grapes are about grown. Soft brownish spots appear first on the berries in the cluster, soon involving the entire berry which becomes black and shriveled. The disease spreads rapidly, and unless an effort is made to control it, usually takes a heavy toll. Bordeaux mixture is used to control black rot.

The leaf hopper is a yellowish colored insect about one-eighth of an inch long, and half as wide. It is very active and if the vines are disturbed, it flies out quickly. Plants attacked by this sucking insect are greatly weakened and do not produce normally. Nicotine sulphate (one-half pint to 50 gallons of water) applied as a spray over the vines as the leaf hoppers first appear, and followed at intervals of 20 to 30 days apart, will kill the immature insects. By adding nicotine sulphate to Bordeaux spray for grape disease, both may be applied at one time. Clean out and burn all plant prunings and rubbish as it is in this material that these pests spend the winter.

The caterpillar of the grape leaf folder folds the leaf and then feeds upon the soft tissues between the veins of the leaf. Lead arsenate, one and one-half pounds to 50 gallons water applied with the first signs of folded leaves, will control this pest. The lead arsenate may be mixed with the Bordeaux spray and applied together.

Downy mildew or powdery mildew is a yellowish green or greenish white mildew, causing the berries to shed and rot and the foliage to be spotted and fall off. The velvety, felt-like fungus covers the leaves, cane tips and fruit. Bordeaux applied as recommended spraying schedule, will control.

Spray No. 1. (In later vines have been Bordeaux mixture copper sulphate 4 pounds hydrated lime 50 gallons water to control.

Spray No. 2. (In blossoms have opened No. 1, to control dew, grape leaf folder hopper and aphids.

Spray No. 3. (In of blossoms have been as No. 1, to control mildew, leaf folder.) Spray No. 4. (In weeks after third No. 1.

Note:—Grapes are colored if sprayed with of the time in which ripen.

For Fig Fig rust is a disease to foliage a rusty The foliage usually and the late fruit ture. To control spray as follows: Spray No. 1. (Use 4 pounds copper pounds hydrated loss water.

Spray No. 2. (Same as No. 1.)

Spray No. 3. (Same as No. 1.)

Axis cuts your driving— Terrorizes your engine with AC

Every time short rations keep your car idle it's really like the Axis trying to dose your engine with acid. All the Axis needs is the acid products of combustion always left in your engine when it stops. This unavoidable acid wasn't so bad when cleaned out pretty well, several times a day, on fast runs that warmed the engine completely. But now with slow short runs often keeping the engine too cool, acid's chance has increased to corrode metal.

To keep your tools from corroding you apply oil—again and again. In your engine you can have a more lasting preservative. It's designed to combat internal acid corrosion.

It's surfaced to metals as closely as any protective plating. That's why this inner engine preservative—made possible by the quick, simple, economical change to Conoco Nth motor oil—is known as OIL-PLATING.

Conoco Nth—patented—brings you the special synthetic invented to make metal surfaces cover themselves with OIL-PLATING. It may be quite a while "between coupons" now. But you needn't give hungry acids all that while to gnaw at your engine, which the Axis won't let you replace yet! OIL-PLATE it now. Change to Conoco Nth for Spring. ### WAR TIME SENIOR CLASS

This year, more than ever before, there is a need for intelligent, hard working youth and Goldthwaite High is doing her part in supplying this need by enlisting 47 people willing and able to do their best for Victory.

The Senior Class of 1942-43 has become accustomed to a wartime basis. They sacrificed many of the usual activities carried on by previous Senior classes, but they never complained because they had to make these sacrifices. Instead they entered the gathering of scrap iron, Junior Red Cross, the Victory Book Campaign, and anything they could do to help the war effort.

In this class there are students who become soldiers, sailors, nurses, doctors, defense workers or just plain bond-buyers, but whatever they do you can be assured that they do their best for their country and your country—THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

SENIOR CLASS REPORT

Because of the rationing of gas and other things, the parents of Juniors have decided to pay the Missionary Society to cook and serve the Junior-Senior banquet this year.

I have said before, the date of the banquet will be April 13, 3:00 o'clock in the Methodist church recreation room.

The room mothers and some of the Junior Class sold sandwiches, soda water at the 4-H Club—to raise funds to take the actors, teachers and ourselves to the theatre after the banquet. The picture is "Desperate Journey," a very interesting picture, so let's all go to the theatre—the date again, April 13.

FRESHMAN REPORT

We received our report on the first six weeks of the year. The Freshman class had five students who were absent or tardy this year. They are Lloyd Crawford, Nelda Reed, Dennis Karnes, LeRoy, Thelda May Koen, Leonard, Mary Lou Long, and Mrs. Mashburn, Donald Ruth Simpson, Delma Stewart, and Glenna Venerable.

Most of our class has received a citizenship for home conduct. We feel that Freshmen have better home conduct than any other class in school, and we are proud of our room in the Study Hall.

ten by Business English students which the class has selected to appear in the "Spotlight" are: "Arm-Chair Generals" by Joe Taylor; "The Man Behind the Gun" by Billy Dennard; "—And Pass the Ammunition," by Wanda Burkett; and "What Can We Do to Help Win the War?" by Frances Adams.

OUR ARM-CHAIR GENERALS

(Joe Taylor)

Undoubtedly, everyone of us has heard our street corner and arm-chair generals talk. They usually consist of men too old to fight and too lazy to work. They could be at home working on a victory garden but instead they are on the street corners telling how the war should be fought and criticizing our leaders. They start propaganda and spread gossip that is music in Hitler's ears. It is the boys at the front that it hurts. They stop the bullets and suffer the hardships while Grandpa Grouch just sits around and says that there is no sense in rationing. They are up there knocking the "H" out of Hitler. So come on, folks, old and young, stop this nonsense and the war will be won quicker. Put your money in savings stamps and bonds so that when the war is over, you can sit around on the street corner and blow about the part you played in winning the war.

THE MAN BEHIND THE GUN

(Billy Dennard)

The man behind the gun is doing his part for your country and my country. You and I at the home front must do our part by furnishing our fighting men with weapons. We can do this by giving our scrap iron and by buying more war bonds and stamps.

Did you say "guts"? Yes, they have "guts." Hell—they have more guts than the whole darn Axis—but guts alone can't digest the scrap iron the other guy is throwing at our fighting men. It takes bigger and better fighting weapons! And that's where you and I come in. Whether our fighting men are on land, in the air, or on the sea, they will be needing something that your scrap and my scrap has helped to make. But they need more—MORE—MORE! It's up to you and me to keep our fighting men supplied with weapons. Put yourself in some fighting soldier's place. How would you like to be without weapons?

—AND PASS THE AMMUNITION—

(Wanda Burkett)

Each war has produced its own epic phrases and epic songs. The most popular song of this war is "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition." It is more than a commonplace song. It expresses the spirit necessary to win this war both on battlefronts and on the home front.

Not all of us can be the man behind the gun, but ALL of us can "pass the ammunition" in the form of scrap metal, in the form of waste fats, tin cans, discarded hosiery, rags, and rubber—those precious waste materials which our country is asking us to donate to the national salvage drive. All of these are mighty important today to all the boys across and those training; important to a sailor fighting for his life and ours; important to a flyer over the African desert racing to reach his target before some German gets him; important to a marine or doughboy wading in mud waist deep trying to drive the treacherous Japs out of some stolen territory.

There is a chance for every American to do some highly effective fighting, so let's keep at this job of collecting scrap materials as though we were in the this job of collecting scrap ammunition to our men on the firing line.

WHAT WE CAN DO TO HELP WIN THE WAR

(Frances Adams)

Young people all over the United States are asking the question, "What can we do to help win the war?" Many of them quit school and enter war work. That certainly isn't the thing to do.

We have to think of post-war problems. The largest percentage of our citizens have to have a high school education or the government will become inefficient.

It is our duty, as true American citizens, to finish high school! Then, when we have, at

GRAMMAR SCHOOL NEWS

The Seventh and Eighth grade boys and girls met and organized a 4-H Club. A large number of boys and girls joined. We expect to accomplish very much by raising cattle, hogs, poultry, sheep, having gardens, and buying war stamps and bonds with all the money we make.

We were honored to have Lt. Myers talk to us Thursday. He described Panama Canal and many other interesting places.

Due to a number of requests we have changed our chapel from Wednesday to Friday. We hope to have visitors each time.

Six-1 had charge of our chapel last week. They presented a program entitled "To Victory by Way of the Cross," which consisted of a number of readings and songs which fitted into a story. There were several visitors.

Former Ambassador to Russia and Belgium.

(Written for the Treasury Department in connection with the Retailers' "BUY U.S. BONDS AND STAMPS" campaign to complete the nation's 100,000,000 partially filled War Stamp albums.)

What I myself saw in my four years in Europe gave me a new realization of the priceless rights which we here enjoy.

No secret police can in the night whisk us away, never again to be seen by those we love.

None of us can be deprived by any party, state or tyrant of those precious civil liberties which our laws and our courts guarantee.

None of us can be persecuted for practicing the faith which we found at our mother's knee.

None of us can be persecuted, tortured or killed because of the fact that an accident of fate might have made us of the same race as the Nazarene.

No American can be placed by any party or government in a regimented vise which takes from him or her either freedom of economic opportunity or political religious liberty.

What would the millions of unfortunate men, women and children in Europe give to be able to live and enjoy such a way of life?

Well, in this war, those are the things in our lives which are in jeopardy. Our boys are dying to preserve them for us.

Then we can do no less than to "say yes" and fill those war stamp albums. It is our duty and privilege to help the secretary of the treasury, Mr. Morgenthau, in his magnificent effort to do the tremendous job of getting the money to keep our boys supplied with the weapons with which to fight our fight.

Surely that is little enough for us to do on the home front.

Austin, March 17.—Their first semester in college didn't prove much of a hurdle for 140 University of Texas freshmen who did well enough scholastically to be admitted to Phi Eta Sigma, honor society for freshmen men students, or Alpha Lambda Delta, women's honor fraternity.

Augusta

Augusta Travers—you know, the one who runs the little hat shop down on Main Street—she's always been dead set against gambling in any form. Never will forget when I was a kid and she found little Hammy, her youngest nephew, playing marbles for keeps out back of the shop. Took it on herself to give him a whaling and point out the evils of gambling. She's a strict woman, Augusta, real strict. Good as gold, of course. But mighty set against the lighter things of life.

Well, so you could have knocked us all over with a feather when Augusta started her gambling campaign for War Bonds and Stamps, right out in the window of her shop.

First she got hold of the photographs of every boy here in town who's joined up, and pasted them on a big board in the window, with little American flags at the corners. Half the town was down there watching her do it. She left the middle empty. Then she brought out a placard she'd had printed up and put it in the middle, and this is what it said: "These are the Local Boys who have enlisted in America's War—They are betting that you are buying War Bonds and Stamps—Hitler and the Japs are getting you aren't—Place your bets inside."

My wife couldn't wait to get herself down there and inside Augusta's shop to see what in the wide world had happened to her, turning right around about gambling like that.

You know my wife. She kind of likes to talk. She went right up to Augusta and said, "Augusta Travers, seems like something's come over you. Why, I never thought I'd see you running a gambling campaign in your own shop."

Mean to tell me it's a gamble whether this country buys enough bonds to win this war?" Augusta asked.

I forgot to say. Wasn't just a hat my wife brought home. Was a hat and a $25 bond.

EBONY NEWS—By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY

In spite of the long-continued drouth, Hubert Reeves planted corn last week.

Mrs. Ira Egger was sick in bed with the flu most of this past week, and Ira had to battle alone with housekeeping and farm chores. It should be some satisfaction to us over-worked unappreciated housewives to know that he has declared that he wouldn't keep house for $50 a day. Mrs. Egger was able to be up Sunday.

Mrs. R. M. Haynes has also been a victim of the flu, but is better.

Mrs. Nellie Malone is still recuperating from her spell of flu. She is able to be up most of the time now.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Egger and Leighton of Indian Creek spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Egger.

Miss Dolly Reynolds spent last week with Mrs. Bob Egger.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Reid have moved back to the store and are back at their old post, which they executed so well for many years, as storekeeper and postmaster. Mr. and Mrs. Dale Reid and children have moved to the farm. Dale will run the tractor to cultivate the Crowder and Haynes farms.

Mrs. Edward Egger took Mrs. Roscoe Jones to the doctor at Goldthwaite last week. Mrs. Jones is suffering from a bad infection caused from a wire scratch.

Louise Carter of Indian Creek attended church here Sunday with Erve June Hanna.

Mrs. Frank Crowder went to San Angelo this week-end to visit her son, Sgt. Neuma Crowder, of Goodfellow Field.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilmeth went to Brooksmith Friday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilmeth. Ralph is having trouble finding feed for his sheep.

Mr. and Mrs. John Briley called at the Ira Egger home Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Irene Reeves and Mrs. Charles Griffin and Gladys were among those who called to brighten the hours for Mrs. Nellie Malone last week.

While in Brownwood last week Mr. and Mrs. Edward Egger called on Clifford Crowder. They found him in good spirits, and seemingly getting along fine.

Wood Roberts, who has been working at Camp Bowie, has been suffering from asthma and not able to work lately. He is at the home of his daughter, Mrs. P. R. Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilmeth and Mrs. Johnnie Egger visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Egger Sunday night.

Mrs. Dewey Smith spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Charles Griffin.

At the request of relatives, the U. S. Government this last week moved the graves of the Reynolds place (that is now included in the maneuver area) to the Ebony cemetery.

We were pleasantly surprised to hear of the marriage of Paul McCullough and Miss Geraldine Summers, our home demonstration agent. This county takes the cake for marrying off its home demonstration agents. In a little more than a year we have had four. All of them married while here save one who was already married when she came, and left to go to her soldier husband. We send our best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. McCullough and are glad that a change of law permits her to retain her present office.

Cecil Egger sent a telegram for Ben Egger to his son, R. D., in Iceland last week. Ben has not heard from R. D. for several weeks. The telegram cost less than a dollar.

Mrs. Eugene Egger received a letter from her brother, Bill Ketchum, in North Africa Sunday morning. Bill says he is all right and still gets the Ebony News which she sends him in her letters.

Miss Mary Margaret Sykes of Winters sent the following book for the Blake Hudson Memorial Shelf: "Mission to Moscow," by Joseph E. Davies; and "The Man in Gray" by Lady Elmer Smith.

SOLDIER LETTERS

The following letter was received by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carroll from their son who is oversea

Dear Folks:

How are all of you? I hope as well as I am. I really feel fine. I guess you realize by now or surely will by the time you get this letter that I am not in the U. S. anymore. I am laying flat on my stomach in my pup tent writing this, but will try to write as plain as possible.

This is really, to my notion a beautiful country, the climate is ideal, about my best description of it all, is to compare it to Arizona. The days are warm and sunshiny, the nights are quite cool.

The boat trip over was fine. had smooth sailing all the way, no trouble at all. I didn't ever get the least bit seasick, but plenty of them did. It was nothing to be standing on deck and see some boy go shaking his head and pushing his way through the crowd trying to get to the rail so he could heave overboard. Of course some would never make it and would have to go right on deck. I can tell you this tho' a person that has never crossed the ocean, just can't realize that there is so much water in this world. All one can see day after day is water, the scenery never changes.

I have visited the city of Oran since being here, so you can look at a map and find one place that I have been. I can't tell you where I am now, one reason I am not allowed to, and another reason is I really don't know.

The people here are the Natives, (Arabs) and French and Spanish. Believe me these Natives are a sight to see. After seeing them and the way they live we, the Boys of U. S. realize more than ever that we really have something to fight for. After being use to the clean American way of living I just can't see how they live. It's just simply a matter of sanitation. From appearances it doesn't look as tho' they know what water is for, and I understand that soap is a very, very scarce thing.

The Native women wear white sheets or shawls, and they completely cover themselves from head to foot. Most of the men's clothes are old and ragged just patch after patch. Some of the French and Spanish are not much more thrifty than the natives. Of course all the business places are run by them and the farms too, I imagine.

Speaking of farms, they appear to be very rich and fertile, and very beautiful lying over the valleys and up the hillsides. The chief crops appear to be grain and citrus and vineyards. Lots of the grapes are raised which in turn are made into wine, being one of the largest industries.

I understand Oran has a population of about 300,000. It has many nice large buildings, some being of the same design as bur own.

Back to the natives, they seem to think nothing of begging, in fact they are very adept at it. They like our American cigarettes very much and as I said don't mind asking for them. The children are very friendly, and think we Americans are just it.

Before America occupied N. Africa they were nearly starved, they were rationed to very little, the Germans would come in and take all their food. Black bread was the only bread they had and very little of that. Altho' they are still rationed, they are satisfied, and too, they get white bread. They stress the bread very much.

Well, now for something different. I guess Mohler is in the Army by now, hope he gets along Okay and I am sure he will. Sure glad Raymond got sent so close to home, and hope he gets to remain there.

Write Cliff that you heard from me, I will write him, but something could delay it, and he could hear sooner through you.

As I have said before don't worry about me for I'll make it, we'll wind this thing up before too long, then I'll be back and tell you things about this side that I can't tell you now. Surely we can finish it before too many more of the Boys have to come over.

Write me all the news, be sure and have Claudia write too. Put them in the same envelope, as I am sure there is more chance of getting one than two.

I have tried to write this according to censor, but I might have slipped and something may be stamped out.

Love, O. B.

OUR HEN

(Shades of John L. Lewis and the C.I.O.)

Our hen went out to lay an egg. Her intentions were the very best. But she fooled around till nearly night, Trying to find a nest. The sun went down, the cockrel crowed, To the roost she went a junio— Our hen couldn't work any longer to-day Because she belongs to the union.

Our hen would like to lay every day, It is natural that she should. But she heard the union leaders say, That wouldn't be so good. So she works just five days a week now, Or has to have over-time pay. And she gets mad and goes on a strike, If non-union hens continue to lay.

We wish our hen were more patriotic, But she gets more and more like a human. She thinks National Defense has importance, But not as much as the egg-layers' union.

-FPB.

It takes both... Punch and Judy to stage a pantomime show and two hands to pull the strings behind the scenes. It takes both... War Bonds and taxes to finance the staggering cost of this global war. Buy War Bonds and more War Bonds every payday as you pay your Victory Tax.

- Q. Can Stamps of various denominations be placed in one album? A. More than one denomination in an album greatly increases the work and cost of redemption. Please, therefore, don't mix denominations. Q. May a minor designate a co-owner or beneficiary? A. Yes, if the purchase is made by the minor from his own wages or earnings. Q. Do I lose my investment if my War Savings Bond is lost, stolen, or destroyed?

- A. No; upon satisfactory proof of loss or destruction, the Treasury Department will issue a duplicate, usually without requiring a bond of indemnity. Q. May I register the name of a beneficiary on a Bond without his knowledge? A. Yes. Records of War Savings Bonds are confidential. It is not necessary for the Treasury to contact the beneficiary during the owner's lifetime. Only individuals may be named as beneficiaries. No associations, churches, or clubs may be so named.

Remember—the longer you keep War Bonds, up to 10 years, the more valuable they become.

BE HONEST WITH CHINA

There is a great value in such splendid appeals as Madame Chiang Kai-shek is addressing to the American people—and in the enthusiastic responses they are making.

All who heard Madame Chiang's radio address from New York must have been grateful for her clear and moving statement of Christian peace-making—for the peoples of the United Nations to conquer with compassion and to rise above stultifying self-sufficiency with the vision of world-wide brotherhood.

To many Americans the most notable feature of Madame Chiang's address has been the almost total lack of direct appeal for help for China. But the unspoken appeal has been stronger than any pleading.

Unofficially China has talked of 500 planes on the line from Assam. The Chinese know the difficulties of flying over the Himalayas and are grateful for the estimated 100 cargo craft now operating.

Nor do the Chinese question the assumptions that nothing much can be done until Burma is retaken. They are familiar with the argument that only when the Mediterranean is clear will there be British-American naval power sufficient to cut Japanese sea supplies to Burma.

But apparently they do believe some of the transport planes now being flown on other lines could be better employed in arming China or enabling the American air forces in China to strike some real blows at Japan's home islands and her vital supply lines.

THE HUMAN SOUL ON FIRE

RECENTLY I had lunch with a man who is an outstanding success as a sales manager. He has taken an old organization that was in a rut, and within a year, through the force of dynamic personality, he has tripled the business.

Always interested in the hidden powers that motivate men, I asked his secret.

"One day," he replied, "I had an experience that has influenced my entire life. In the office of an executive on whom I was calling I saw a framed motto which read, 'They told him it couldn't be done, but the poor fool didn't believe them and went ahead and did it.' That statement challenged me.

Enthusiasm is a powerful force both in peace and war. We need more of it right now in our war effort. The great Marshall Foch who led us to victory in the first World War once made this statement: 'The human soul on fire is man's greatest weapon.'

State Department Health Notes

DYSENTERY INCREASES

Commenting on the unusually high incidence of dysentery in Texas at the present time, Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer, described dysentery as being an infectious disease characterized by diarrhea, pain in the abdomen, and toxemia. It is caused by a specific bacteria or germ. These germs cause inflammation of the intestinal tract which produces pain throughout the abdomen and the discharge of many loose stools that frequently contain blood and mucous.

"The germs gain entrance to the body through the mouth," Dr. Cox said, "and then make their way to the intestines in the same manner in which food does. When they reach the intestines they find conditions favorable to their growth, and there they establish themselves at the expense of the person infected and produce their harmful effects."

Dr. Cox warned that dysentery effects young children more often and more seriously than adults, frequently resulting fatally. However, he said, it may occur at any age. It is usually more prevalent during the summer season, and the great number of cases now being reported are unusual for spring.

"The germ is always expelled with the excreta of persons sick with dysentery and may continue to be expelled for some time after the patient recovers from the disease. These persons who still discharge the germs after they recover are called carriers, and they occur more frequently in this disease than in the majority of other infectious diseases.

"Food protection and adequate sanitary measures are more urgently needed now than ever before if we control the potential possibilities of epidemic dysentery in our state."

OUR LORD'S INTERCESSORY PRAYER

LESSON TEXT—John 17:1-8, 18-25. GOLDEN TEXT—"Holy Father, keep those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are."—John 17:11.

There are some times and places so sacred that one is instinctively hushed into reverent devotion. When Christ prayed in holy intercession (as recorded in John 17) on the night before His suffering His disciples must have been lifted into the very presence of the Eternal One. It was a holy experience.

He prayed for Himself, but even more did He pray for His believing followers. To know that someone is praying for us is indeed an anchor in a time of storm, a strong help in the hour of conflict or of service for Christ.

But to know that the Master prayed for you and me—that is enough to send us, like the disciples of old, out to face an unbelieving world in His conquering name. He prayed for Himself—and He prayed for me!

I. He Prayed for Himself (vv. 1-8). He looked up and said: "Father," and then He was ready to pray. So close was He to God that there was just this simple recognition of their communion. In Christ are we not as close as He?

What did Jesus ask for Himself? At first thought it seems a little unusual that He asked:

1. For Recognition of His Divine Glory (vv. 1-5). Why would He who had just given the disciples an example of and an admonition to humility desire to have His glory manifested? Be sure it was not a matter of selfish pride. He had finished His work (for He counted redemption as complete throughout His prayer), and now the glory which He laid down when He came to earth (Phil. 2:6-8) was to be resumed.

He wants man to see Him now not only as the compassionate Son of man, but the glorious Son of God, able to save. It is right that the glory of Christ should be magnified and recognized by the whole creation. He is worthy!

2. For the Manifestation of His Grace (vv. 6-8).

The Father had given Christ the heart devotion of those who believed in Him. Note that their faith rested on the name of God (v. 6), and upon His Word which had come to them and to us through Christ.

He recognized their position and standing in Him and established it before God and man. He then prayed for them (read vv. 9-17) that they might be kept in an evil world as a testimony to the grace and power of God in the human heart.

This leads to His intercession for all believers.

II. He Prayed for All Believers (vv. 18-22). Christians are not simply the avowed adherents to a particular form of belief, they are "sent" ones. As the Father sent Him into the world, "even so send I them into the world," said Christ.

Christ has gone to be with the Father, but He has left those who believe in Him as His witnesses, His representatives. For this they need holiness. He prayed:

1. For Their Consecration (vv. 18, 19).

For their sakes He consecrated Himself. Surely if He needed it, we do far more. It is not only His will for us, but His prayer. How wonderfully that prayer was answered we see as we look back over the intervening 19 centuries, from His immediate disciples on through the martyrs, the missionary pioneers of all ages, the faithful preachers and teachers of the gospel, yes and "livers" of the gospel too. He knew, He prayed, God answered. Are you in that blessed host of consecrated believers?

2. For Their Unity and Glory (vv. 20-25).

There is a refreshing simplicity about the Christian faith which is utterly different from all the complications which man has prepared and superimposed upon it. Essentially it is a matter of God having sent His Son into the world to be the Redeemer of men. He and the Father are one, He and His followers are one, and so we are all one. We who today believe are included (read vv. 20-23).

This is an inward unity of the Spirit, not an outward union of organizations. The answer to our difficulty is not the dissolution of denominations (although there do seem to be far too many subdivisions, too), but the uniting of all groups in a oneness of love and devotion to Christ, and a united emphasis on the gospel.

There is something more here. This unity puts Christ's followers into the place where His glory may be revealed in and upon them. It is His prayer that we should behold in our Saviour the glory which God had given Him because He loved Him before the foundation of the world.

Not only does the Hill Country of Texas produce some of the best saddle horses in the world, but it produces, possibly, the most healthful horses anywhere. The climatic conditions of the area are largely responsible for both, coupled with the topography and the fast-disappearing frontier. Among these are the cool summers, the moderate winters, the semi-dry weather, the rocky hills and valleys, with much pure water, which is filled with needed minerals, and to excellent forages, too, supplied

Our Red Cross War Fund Drive has gone over in a big way. Hamilton County quota of $4,000 has been raised to the tune of $5,637.64 to date and still coming in.

For a number of years in Hamilton, the Cunningham Post No. 222, American Legion annual banquet has been an affair of extraordinary pleasure with the reunion around the festive board of buddies of the home post and their guests from other towns and the country. Volunteer Army, Three Million Strong,
 Serves The Nation Through Red Cross

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Five hundred thousand surgical dressings an hour—

No, that's not the production schedule of some gargantuan, highly mechanized manufacturing plant.

It's what 2,000,000 women—part of the army of 3,000,000 trained Red Cross volunteer workers—are accomplishing as their contribution to the war effort from the home front.

In cities, towns, and hamlets up, down and across the country, women of all ages from every station in life are working side by side in Red Cross production rooms. They know that in field dressing stations and hospitals within range of enemy guns, American fighting men are depending upon them.

The work of these women and the very existence of the American Red Cross Volunteer Special Services depends on public support of the 1943 War Fund appeal for $125,000,000.

In Chicago recently a soldier wearing the Distinguished Service Cross walked into a production center in a department store. Thoughtfully he watched the Red Cross women work. One of the women looked up, asked him about himself. He told them he was 21, had been in the Army three years and had been decorated twice after being wounded in action in the South Pacific. Then he added:

"I want to thank you women for supplying the Red Cross surgical dressings. If two of you worked all day long you couldn't begin to make all the dressings I needed when I was in the hospital."

This isn't all Red Cross volunteers do, not by a long shot. They make knitted garments for the armed forces, clothing for war's refugees. They work in hospitals and camps as nurse's aides and Gray Ladies. They do clerical work for rationing centers and draft boards. They learn wholesale cooking and serving. They can nurse a balky motor as well as any man. They are indefatigable and steadfast. Proof is in this story from Monmouth County, New Jersey.

"A Red Cross Chapter service especially requested by the Army and highly valued by soldiers and coast guardsmen stationed here is the daily visits of patrols along the beaches and at Fort Hancock by the canteen corps' mobile kitchen. Nightly, the Red Cross truck, driven by a motor corps girl and manned by two canteen workers goes out with its load of coffee and cocoa, stacks of doughnuts and often packages of cigarettes. In bitter winds, rain and snow, lone sentries or groups on bleak nights listen to the low toot of the canteen horn or watch for the feble glimmer of the parking lights as the truck makes its way through the dimout. This truck hasn't missed going out on a single night since October 1st. . ."

In cities and towns through out the U. S., 3,050,000 Red Cross volunteer workers are contributing to the Nation's war effort. Upper left, a Red Cross Motor Corps member adjusts the engine of her car. Right, complete confidence in this nurse's aide is registered by the infant she holds. Below, women like these last year produced 520,000,000 surgical dressings for the armed forces.
