M. E. Ice, of the Ice and McAmey Oil Co., of Dallas, is on the field this week looking after the erection of the drilling equipment at the Blom No. 1 oil test well to be drilled in the Pottsville area. The drilling machinery is of the most modern type, and the fact that several big trucks were required for the transportation of the equipment to the location, is said to mean that the modern drill is one that will "reach to China," if necessary to go to that depth in the earth to discover oil in paying quantities.

Everywhere that James M. Roddy is known there are many friends who share the anguished grief and loneliness of his devoted family and affectionate relatives since death brought an earthly separation from him on Friday evening, April 23, at the eleven o'clock hour.

Money received Saturday by Hamilton business houses and service establishments will be invested in War Bonds. —Herald

Elvis Joe, 11 year old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Ballew, here on a visit from Corpus Christi, on the Gulf, and his pal, Jack Clark 14, know where to come for the big 'uns. Tuesday night the lads put out a throw-line in the San Saba river and early Wednesday morning they returned to find a 66-lb. yellow catfish on their line.

Following a meeting of the County War Finance Committee Wednesday, called by Chairman L. C. Ward to canvass the returns from the county workers in the 2nd War Loan Drive, it was announced that we were at that time still $72,000.00 short of our goal of $152,000.

In a long distance telephone conversation with the Texas Representative of the U. S. Treasury Dept. at Fort Worth, Mr. Ward explained the situation in this county to him and the Treasury representative granted a few more days in which to fulfill our pledges and make every effort to complete our quota.

Lometa

An event of more than passing importance in Lometa last week was the formal opening of the new school building, and it was the largest gathering in Lometa since the days of summer picnics. Various estimates were placed on numbers but something like 900 were seated in the auditorium for the program.

Shortly after noon Thursday, fire was discovered in the Daniels cedar yard. The fire department responded promptly, but on account of it being so far from the city limits, there was no water available to put it out with. All that could be done was to tear away what cedar that had not yet caught, to a safe distance and let the balance burn. Our fire boys, as usual, were there doing all that could be done to save whatever could be saved. Nothing is known positively as yet, as to how it started but it should make every one redouble their efforts to prevent fires. —Reporter

CENTER POINT— By MRS. JEWEL SPINKS

We are beginning to need rain. Some of the grain and gardens are turning brown. However we are glad we didn't have any cold weather Easter, that damaged anything. It looks like we are going to have plenty of fruit in our community.

IN MEMORY OF TOLBERT PATTERSON

The Lord in all of His goodness
Has taken our good friend away;
His work here on earth has been finished,
It was wonderful work and not play.

We are all sad at his going,
We shall miss him and wonder just why
That God would take him away now,
But we can only wonder and cry,
He has left behind happiness and sunshine,
For his friends he had always a smile;
I will say he was one among millions
Who helped us to shorten the mile.

He has left us a record unbroken
Of truth, honesty, friendship and love,
He has gone where we all often read of—
The Beautiful White City Above.

Have You Rendered Your Property for 1943 Taxes?

If not, or if you are not sure, get in touch with your Tax Assessor-Collector and make sure that they are on the rendered roll.

Many people who are buying property from or through loan companies under the impression that the loan company renders their taxes for them, are incorrect. Unless you have made the rendition yourself your taxes are rendered.

Property Must Be Rendered To Receive Benefit Of Homestead Exemption

The law states that your property must be rendered in April or May. All of such property will be placed on the UNRENDERED ROLL and means that such property will be listed as unknown and you will not be entitled to the HOMESTEAD privilege and will have to pay the STATE TAX.

This also means that the property owner will not be consulted when the Board of Equalization meets and that such property can be lowered or raised in valuation without their being notified of such change of valuation.

The Tax Assessor's Office will try to see you, but if you are missed call by the office, and the Tax Assessor-Collector will see that you are placed on the rendered roll.

Due to gasoline and tire rationing and labor shortage, we have been unable to send assessors to every community in the county. If your property hasn't been rendered, we'll appreciate your cooperation in coming by our office, rendering it as soon as possible.

Your co-operation will be appreciated very much.

To Hasten Victory

No American wants this war to go one minute beyond the time we can bring it to a victorious end. To hasten that victory—to save possibly the lives of millions of our boys on our far flung fronts—it is imperative that every American do his part in the Second War Loan. There is an investment to fit every purse. The most you can do is little enough compared with the sacrifice offered by our boys in service. They give their lives—you lend your money.

CREED

First of all, I'm an American. My country's interest comes first. I work with all my strength for Victory. On my pay day I'll put 10% into War Bonds, and I'll spend carefully—buy only necessities. I'll build a reserve fund for taxes. My remaining cent will go into my War Savings Bank account where it will be used to help win the war now, and be ready when I need it.

WOMEN AT WAR

Sophia

Mrs. Kimball and Mrs. Worthington, dressed soberly and wearing their best black gloves, walked along the stony country road back toward Sophia Hardy's farm, to pay their visit of condolence.

"How do you reckon she'll be bearing up?" Mrs. Kimball asked Mrs. Worthington. Both ladies wore their most solemn, funeral expressions.

"A mighty severe blow," Mrs. Worthington said. "Mighty severe. To lose your only son, the mainstay of your declining years, and such a dreadful death, too—to go down with a ship. Mercy!"

"The first of our boys from Hand County to go, too," Mrs. Kimball said, mournfully. "I wouldn't blame Sophia Hardy for feeling right bitter."

They stood on the simple stone doorstep, with downcast eyes, getting themselves into the proper commiserative mood.

"Come in!" The voice was brisk and cordial. They looked up in surprise. Sophia herself had come to the door. As they followed her into the parlor they exchanged glances, with eyebrows lifted. Sophia was not even in mourning. The parlor shades were not even drawn.

"It's nice of you to come," Sophia said. "Do sit down."

"We came," Mrs. Kimball said almost reprovingly, "to tell you that our hearts are bleeding for you in your great loss."

"We know how lonely you must be out here," Mrs. Worthington said. "With nothing to take your mind off . . . off . . ." She sniffed and reached in her purse for a handkerchief.

"Oh, I keep busy," Sophia said. "I've just finished applying for the Government insurance on Tom's life."

The visiting ladies could not resist a shocked glance at one another.

"I want to get it right away," Sophia said. "So I can put it into War Bonds. My boy hasn't finished fighting yet, not by a long shot."

The ladies were so occupied with feeling horrified, so titillated by this callous behaviour in a bereaved mother—that neither of them noticed Sophia's hands. Under the folds of her clean print dress, against the seat of her chair, they were tightly clenched.

(Story from an actual report in the files of the Treasury Department.)

There was fourteen at Sunday school Sunday morning. Some stayed at home and some went visiting and some went to town to church.

There was forty-eight men and boys went to Abeline last Monday for their last examination. It was sad to see our men and boys leave for the examination, but it will be sadder when they leave next time for Camp Wolters. We know they will be gone for good. I know for I had one to go there and he hasn't been back and I don't suppose he will be back soon. My son, Philip, was one of the men who went to Abeline. He, like eleven others, didn't pass. I feel sure some wonder why he didn't pass, you know how people are prone to say things about the other fellow. When Philip was a very small boy he had a leather whip in his hand helping Shirley plow and he hit it on the ground and a chip flew in his eye. His sister, Elizabeth, and I took him to town to a doctor. A Dr. Jones from Brownwood an eye doctor was in Clements Drug Store so he examined Philip's eye and told me his sight was gone. His eye hasn't ever bothered him ery much he just can't see out of it is all.

I can sympathize with all of you mothers whose boys didn't pass, and to those who have sons in the army, navy or marines.

Last Wednesday afternoon James Nickols and wife went to Abilene and spent the night with his sister, Earline, and children. Then early Thursday morning they went to Sweetwater to meet Mrs. Dick Lewis and children who come from California. She is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tyson at Williams Ranch. Her husband has gone across the waters.

Mrs. Maggie Traylor and Miss Myrna and Oliver listened to the Governors speech Sunday night in Woodie Traylor's home.

Mrs. Lula Gatlin and Miss Love from town visited with Oscar and Jim Gatlin Sunday afternoon.

James Nickols and family sat until bedtime in the Tyson home Saturday night. I stopped with Otis and Besse Hutchings and visited.

Floyd Day and family spent the day Sunday away from home but I didn't learn where they visited.

Mrs. John Roberts spent last Wednesday afternoon in the Nickols home.

My daughter, Mrs. Erline Roberts heard from her son, James who is in the navy. He was well and enjoying navy life. He was in Portland, Maine. His address is still New York. He isn't very good to write to his grandmother.

I went to Sunday School and church in town Sunday morning. I enjoyed the lesson taught by Mr. Bowman, and Bro. Bryant's sermon was fine, and the singing was also good. I visited before church with the Ford family. I ate dinner at Shorty's with Miss Coleman, she was kind enough to buy my lunch, which I appreciated. After dinner I called in the Urbach, Oden, Sowders and Vaughns homes.

Sunday is Mothers Day. If you have a mother and it is so you can go see her, it will help her and you too. I always claimed Mrs. Potter, who passed away not long ago as my mother after my mother went away. I have some other elderly mothers I love I hope I can go see before long.

Riley Circle helped B. F. Renfro work on his house Sunday.

We extend sympathy to Uncle Tom William's children in the passing away of their father, also to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hunt and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hunt and Mr. and Mrs. Norton in the passing away of their child and grandchild.

John Roberts and wife and Woodie Traylor and wife spent Friday in Brownwood.

Marvin Spinks and wife from town, J. T. Stark and James Nickols and family visited in the Cooke home Monday night. The men played forty-two.

Mrs. Harry Palmer and children went to town to Sunday School and church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Simpson were glad to have their two daughters home Saturday and Sunday. They each have a job in Waco. They have heard from Terrell, who is in the Navy. Rudolph Cooke helped James Nickols take some cattle to auction Monday.

B. F. Renfro and wife are preparing their house. He has leased his farm to a Mr. Cornwell. We welcome the Cornwell family in our community.

The English III classes have just completed a course in litera-ture and the rest of the term will be devoted to a stiff course in Formal Grammar. Miss Welch commented that that was where the English III Class last year fell down. She wishes to better prepare the future English IV Class for its course in grammar.

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT ACTIVITIES

(Velma Fox)
 Many worthwhile aims have been accomplished by the stu-dents in the science department this year. General science is a study of science in general. By this study each student can de-termined what phase of science he is most interested in. Biology is a study of living things. One studies biology to safeguard against false ideas, control and improve environment, adjust the world, satisfy instinctive desires, solve problems.

Both science classes have just completed a Red Cross First-Aid Course, with Mrs. Bigham as teacher and Mr. Summy as in-structor. The science students this week received the certifi-cates for The American Red Cross First Aid Course. About one hundred students have passed this course. About fifty of the students received Junior certifi-cates, and about fifty students received Standard Certificates for having fully completed the course of instruction in first aid to the injured. The work requir-ed for the Juniors was about the same as for those who received the Standard certificates but those under seventeen years of age received Junior certificates, and all seventeen or over received Standard Certificates.

Each member received individ-ual practice on tying bandages, what to do in case of fainting, and how to treat a wound until the doctor arrives.

All the science students took this course in connection with their science sources, and have worked hard for six weeks. By concentrating on the first aid course they could have complet-ed their training in much less time, but Mrs. Bigham, the science teacher, and Mr. Walter Summy, instructor, decided that each student could get along better in the world if he could be given a great deal of private in-struction and practical exper-ience in first aid to the injured. Since there is a shortage of doc-tors and nurses now, the students needed individual practice more than ever.

The pupils have had a flower exchange, have studied flower arrangements and types of flow-ers. A victory garden planned according to the Texas Food Standard will be emphasized as term project. It is customary for science classes to leave mountings and stuffed animals for exhibition. Such things as birds, flowers, butterflies, all kinds of insects, a mouse snake, and different kinds of plant life have been brought to school for the students to experiment with. There will be an open house for everyone to see the projects.

With the guidance of Mrs. Big-ham the science department is one of the most successful divi-sions of high school.

GOOD READING FOR HIGH SCHOOL

(Wanda Burkett)
 If you see a group around the library you can guess that some new books have been acquired, such as: "I Was A Nazi Flier," "The Fullback," "The Moon and Sixpence," or "Matched Pearls"; these seem to be the favorite books in high school. Other new books are: "The Magic Garden," "The Phantom of the Rivers," "South Moon Under," Shanghai Passage," "Rainbow Hill," "Sec-ret Agents Against America," and "White Banners."

Everyone in high school is proud of the new books and we are all going to take care not to mark in them or to tear a page.

MR. A. G. BLACK'S MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

(Kathryn Miller)
 "Mathematics is more essen-tial during wartime than at any other time because you need mathematics to carry on pro-cedure of war, aviation, naviga-tion; and all high officers have to have excellent training in math," quotes A. G. Black, Head of the Mathematics Department. All officers of the armed forces say that boys capable of solving mathematic problems are more efficient in fighting and taking care of themselves.

"Mathematics is more essen-tial in society at the present be-cause of changing prices, and the entire world deals with fig-ures more than ever before," states Mr. Black.

Black has about one hundred students studying math. this year. At the beginning of school he had about 120.

His classes are made up chiefly of average students. Some are above the average. He has one boy and two girls that are as smart as any student he has ever taught.

Black said, "The students that get a good start in Algebra and Geometry are the students that make good grades. Anyone that passes the first half of one of these subjects has no reason to fall the second half."

All his classes have progressed very rapidly this year. Instead of being behind they have already advanced further than prescrib-ed courses of study demand. "This happens very rarely," says Black.

"Mathematics is a course that you have to keep acquainted with," quotes Black. To illustrate this maxim he tells of two of his seniors who have already taken math and are taking it now just to learn more about it than they learned last year; their grades are poorer than their last year's grades. This fact seems to prove that efficient mathematicians have to study constantly.

Geometry is not as hard as Al-gebra, but it requires more co-ordination of thought, fewer for-mulas, more personal concentra-tion, and it offers better chance for the development of mind, Mr. Black believes.

In conclusion, Mr. Black points out that math develops the mind and encourages students to act and think for themselves.

HISTORY DEPARTMENT

(Beryl Oglesby)
 When Miss Love Gatlin was asked why she thought history was more important today than ever before, she replied by say-ing, "I think history is very im-portant today because we can have a better peace if we under-stand the custom and habits of all the people of the world. We can solve the problems of today better if we know the problems of yesterday and how they were solved."

She stated that her classes were studying post-war plans, economic, and peace plans. They are studying the Russian and Chinese people to have a better understanding of them, and the Japanese and the Germans to learn why they are so warlike.

Her Modern History Class is studying the first World War and are comparing the events leading up to this war. They are studying the mistakes of the Ver-sailles conference in the light of present-day events.

Her chief criticism of her lit-tle "animals" is that they are not interested enough in present events, and they do not keep themselves well informed.

CHURCH BELIEF
 In appreciation of Rev. Bowles' editorial in the Eagle of April 29, one of his fans brought forth the following excellent poetry:
 I'm not very strong on church belief.
 Often it leads to nothing but grief.
 What's the difference, my church and yours?
 Usually nothing but rough detours
 Round mind-made mountains of woe and wailing
 When it should be smooth-sea sailing.

SENIOR DAY—SENIOR TRIP

The most enjoyable occasion of the year for the Seniors took place Thursday and Friday, May 29 and 30. It was Senior Day spent at Panther Park, formerly Hancock Park, at Lampasas, Texas. The date for the picnic was set for May 30 but the Seniors were allowed to leave school Thursday afternoon at three o'clock. There were six cars used for transportation facilities for 38 people. There were 32 Seniors, one guest, five chaperons, and Mrs. Barnett, our sponsor. The caravan arrived at Panther Park, now a government reservation, around 4:45 Thursday evening. Upon their arrival, most of the Seniors went in swimming in the pool, which is supplied by perpetual sulphur springs. Others skated, played table tennis or badminton. After two hours of such exercise, the class congregated on the second story of the club house, which is a dance pavilion, where everyone participated in an hour of dancing. About seven o'clock it was announced that they were to eat in the Army cafeteria. This fact was welcomed by everyone because three hours of strenuous exercise had made them extremely hungry. The class adjourned to the cafeteria where they were served a delicious meal consisting of roast beef and gravy, English peas, mashed potatoes, vegetable salad, blackberry pie, and choice of drinks. This meal was consumed very rapidly due to their ravenous appetites. Following the meal, the class went back to the dance pavilion and spent quite a while dancing, talking and laughing. It was then decided that the group should go to a show. The cars were filled with tired but happy Seniors and they were taken to a theatre in Lampasas to see "Whistling In Dixie," starring Red Skelton. This picture afforded much hysterical laughter. After the show, the students returned to the park to sleep in army barracks. However, there was not much sleeping done because of pillow fights, practical jokes and pranks. Surprisingly they arose before sun-up. The boys played baseball, while the girls looked on, until pangs of hunger drove them to the cafeteria where they ate a hearty breakfast of eggs, bacon, jelly, and coffee. The morning was spent in swimming, dancing, exploring the park, playing table tennis, badminton, and skating. The noon meal was eaten at the cafeteria and the afternoon program was similar to that of the morning.

 The group, all very tired and sunburned, left the park at 7 o'clock Friday evening.

The Seniors express gratitude to Mrs. Gamble, head of the Lampasas USO, to the personnel who made convenient arrangements for meals and their sleeping quarters, to our chaperons, Mrs. Barnett upon whose shoulders lay so much responsibility. May it be said that a joyable time could not have had at any other place.

JOE BOB MOODY VISITS SCHOOL

Last Tuesday Second Petty Officer Joe Bob Moody and his friend, Second Petty Officer Billy Moore of Mississippi visited classes in high school. He attended Goldthwaite High School previous to his enlistment in the Navy. He told the students many of his experiences in present conflict, having part in nine major battles. He gave a very vivid description of Pearl Harbor Dec. 7. Joe Moody and Mr. Alms were both commended for bravery in the war.
 Moody is a sound destroyer. Goldthwaite School is very proud of a young man.

SOMETIMES the nicest things happen. This is one of those times you can make it so. For years the best Mother in all the world has been "so nice to come home to" when all was well or everything was dead wrong. For years she has given much when you have taken it all for granted. A mere bit of gift attention now cannot repay her for it all. But your remembrance of the day that has been set aside in which to do her honor will this year warm the heart of many a mother now spending some hours in a home that misses what the war has already taken away.

To all local sons and daughters to service men from far away—make this sincere appeal: don't forget your mother on Mother's Day, no matter what your remembrance. And if you can, be sure to pay her a visit.

This War Is Doing Something For Us

By J. S. BOWLES

NEVER IN THE world's history has there been so much anxiety among thoughtful people about the welfare of the upgrowing generation as at this present time. Possibly we feel the dangers confronting the future generations in our great cities more than in the small towns, and in the country.

In these great centers there are constant reminders of offenses that would test the strength of the most optimistic. As a result, parents, guardians and social workers are having many anxious days and sleepless nights.

This terrorism is directly traceable to the conditions resultant from the war. Many of the parents are either in the armed forces, or are employed in war work, and as a consequence the children, many of them at least, are left to roam the streets or else are unprotected when at home. The result is inevitable and thousands are growing up with dissolute habits, drifting into all sorts of delinquencies and crime.

We all understand the temptation to gather in the money that is so easily obtained now, especially so when we are made to believe that war work is our patriotic duty. Nor should any neglect either the urge to make money nor be dissuaded to neglect a patriotic duty. But we should never forget that there are some things that far exceed in value mere cash. For what is sordid cash? Much as we may desire it to the immortal values in the children who are to become the custodians of the country when the war has done its deadly work?

If we are not to reap a mighty harvest of sorrow in the generation to follow, we have another guess yet to be answered.

The crying need of this hour is better environments at home. The home holds a greater value than the dollars that may be gained through its neglect.

Next to the home in potentialities is the church. There are thousands of parents now neglecting the church, and its power for good, who are going to reap the whirlwind in broken homes.

LOOKING BACKWARD

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

From Eagle files of May 11, 1918

The school board held a meeting Monday night and re-elected: Prof. T. L. Price, superintendent; Mrs. Winnie D. McElroy, principal; Miss Lucille Frizzell, Latin and history; Prof. Arthur Smith, seventh grade; Miss Nellie Kirkpatrick, fifth grade; Miss Erma Harrison, third grade; Miss Rosa Johnston, second grade.

Charley Wilson has been appointed to a course of mechanical training at the State University by the Military Exemption Board and will leave for Austin on the 15th.

Mesdames J. H. Randolph, W. A. L. Graves, G. N. Atkinson and R. M. Thompson, together with the Boy Scouts, have been appointed to decorate the Baptist Tabernacle for the Red Cross mass meeting the night of the 19th.

Dow Hudson, Aaron Bean and Zollie Grayson are to leave tonight for Fort Sam Houston and Hawkins Kirby will go to Camp Travis.

Mrs. S. A. Lowrie has returned from Light, Arizona, where she taught school the past session.

Mrs. H. O. Potter has returned from a visit to relatives in Dallas.

D. Albert Trent and wife are spending a few days in Dallas.

The Black face Minstrals gave an entertainment at Indian Gap last Saturday night and notwithstanding the rain, we had a good crowd and the receipts amounted to $36.80.

Still Making Bobby Pins

Rumors of a ban on manufacture of bobby pins are false, WPB has declared. Even though the pins are made of vital high carbon steel their production will be permitted.

Women Make Good Inspectors
Women have proved such a success as Army Signal Corps equipment inspectors that they now make up 40 per cent of the inspection force, according to the War Department. The women do the entire inspection job, from the mechanical work on the assembly line to the final inspection of the extremely complex electrical equipment.

State Department Health Notes

Advise To Picnickers

Some timely advice to vacationists and picnickers was released from the State Health Department by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

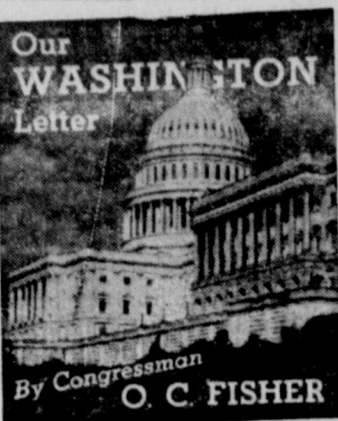

It was pointed out that, in view of wartime restrictions, vacation pleasures are apt to be limited to excursions and picnics at nearby lakes, rivers, and ponds of unfamiliar depths and currents, and without the usual lifeguard supervision associated with bathing beaches and commercial swimming pools.

"Swimming and water sports are beneficial to good health provided one's physical condition justifies this type of exercise," Dr. Cox asserted, "nevertheless, they possess dangerous possibilities if the rules of safety are disregarded."

The following simple rules for bathing and swimming in safety were suggested: at least one hour should elapse after a meal before entering the water; never dive into unfamiliar waters; upon the first indication of fatigue, come ashore and don't re-enter the water; leave the water immediately, if chilled; do not enter the water when overheated; learn to float; never attempt to rock a boat in a spirit of fun; never swim in water that may be polluted. Swimming close to or even a few miles below sewage outlets is inviting the possibility of acquiring diseases.

"Excursions, picnics, and swimming parties contribute much to a healthy, happy, normal life, which is especially desirable at this particular time when the whole nation is under the strain of war," Dr. Cox said. "It is by no means advisable to eliminate these excursions from our summer program, but it is important that they prove beneficial and not disastrous."

Blankets cannot exceed 84 inches in length except for white cotton sheet blankets, which may be 95 inches long, according to an order by the WPB. Furthermore, no line of blankets can be made in more than four colors, plus white. In general, only rose, blue, green, and cedar are permitted for solid color blankets.

TEXAS LEADS AGAIN

Texas is so far ahead of most other states in actual war participation that it's almost improper to joke about it now.

The Lone Star State has by far the highest ratio of volunteers in the armed forces as compared with population.

In the war communiques and dispatches, a Texan is almost sure to be mentioned if 18 or more men are involved. And it seems that every single bomber has at least one Texan on it.

The Army and Navy have more than 100 camps and establishments in Texas, including the West Point of the Air at San Antonio, and the world's largest naval air training station at Corpus Christi.

When these are counted in, Texas' participation in the war effort is truly immense. And that's aside from the $3,642,268,000 (billions) worth of war contracts held by Texas industries.

OIL TO GREASE THE SKIDS FOR THE AXIS

The part that Texas' agriculture plays already is well-known. Our leadership in livestock production is outstanding. Nearly everyone knows that Texas produces 21.1 per cent of the nation's wool; 85.8 per cent of its mohair; 23.7 per cent of its cotton; 31.2 per cent of its pecans, and so on and so on. Also, our production of three-fourths of Uncle Sam's sulphur—a war-vital mineral—is adequately recognized.

But in petroleum, Texas literally is greasing the skids for the Axis. Much of the Allied armies, navies and air armadas move across the globe today on Texas oil and gasoline. Texas has one-half of the nation's oil reserves, and one-fourth of the world reserves.

Given the proper incentives, the oil industry can drill for and find most of the needed new petroleum reserves in West Texas, according to geologists' reports now before me. Last year the number of wildcat wells dropped one-third, and the nation's oil reserves slumped 10 billion barrels. With oil so vital to the war effort, the drillers should be encouraged to start these new tests immediately.

TEXANS OVER TOKYO

The recent anniversary disclosure of the full story of the bombing of Tokyo revealed that 15—nearly a fourth—of Uncle Sam's daring precision raiders, were Texans.

Captain David Jones of Winters, one of those fliers, later distinguished himself over Tunisia before being captured by the Germans.

Two of the eight U. S. fliers captured by the Japs shortly after the Tokio raid, were Texans. Two Texans were interned in Russia.

Tojo's war lords boasted that some of these eight American airmen had been "tried" and executed. The hollow implied threat has been cast aside by the fliers who clamor to be given a chance to continue where Doolittle's boys left off.

The memory of what the beastial Japs did to those captured fliers will still be burning fresh when Texans march in the streets of Tokyo!

Extra Food For Hospitals

Hospitals can now get additional supplies of rationed foods that are needed in patient's diets by means of an application signed by whatever officer is in charge. Formerly, the OPA required the head physician to show the reason for the extra foods and the amount required.

CCC To Buy No. 2 Beans

The Commodity Credit Corporation will purchase No. 2 dry edible beans as well as No. 1 from the 1943 crop. The price for No. 2 grade will be 15 cents below the prices for the No. 1 grade.

PETER AND JOHN LEADERS IN THE EARLY CHURCH

LESSON TEXT—Acts 2:37-41; 3:1-8; 4:13, 18-21.

GOLDEN TEXT—Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.—Acts 4:13.

Does the Church have a message for our day? Sometimes one wonders a bit, but a little thought indicates that if it does not, it is not because Christianity has failed, but because Christian people have failed to declare the eternal and powerful truth of God. The primary responsibility for any such failure must rest upon the leaders of the Church.

It is instructive to see the qualities which made the leaders of the early Church effective for the Lord. In our lesson we find Peter and John doing three things.

I. Declaring God's Word (Acts 2: 37-41).

Peter had just finished the first sermon preached in the Church, which was delivered at Pentecost. The declaration of God's truth in the power of the Holy Spirit brought conviction of sin. It always does, although the outward indication of its working may not be as marked as it was on that day. Three thousand souls were under conviction and asking what to do to be saved.

What an opportunity for the preacher and his fellow worker, John. How did they meet it? By faithfully declaring the need of repentance and faith, and then of fellowship with others in the Church.

One mark of a real leader for God will always be that he preaches and teaches the message of God without adulteration, without modification, and with plainness and simplicity.

The kind of leadership which is often magnified in the Church today and which is largely made up of personal magnetism, "pop" and fast talk, is not real leadership at all. Test your leaders by their faithful and intelligent declaration of God's Word.

II. Conveying God's Power (Acts 3:1-8).

"Channels only"—that is the function of the worker for Christ, the leader in His Church. As Mary Maxwell well put it:

Channels only, blessed Master, But with all Thy wondrous power Flowing through us, Thou canst use us Every day and every hour.

Silver and gold was a scarce commodity with Peter and John, as it has been with many, yes most, of God's servants through the centuries. But they did have the blessed privilege of being channels through which the healing, cleansing, redeeming power of God could flow—and that was infinitely better.

The lame man had long since given up hope of anything better than the few coins he could beg at the temple gate. He was like many in our hard and practical age who see only the values that money can give, and thus miss the real blessing of God.

God has for men today, as He had for this beggar, that which is far better than gold—deliverance from sin and liberation from the limitations of spirit which make them content with the paltry aims of men.

Peter and John were ready to be used of God because they were men who were not too busy to pray (v. 1). Knowing the compassion of God they sought out the one in need, and by faith put the unlimited power of God to work on his behalf.

God healed this man's body, but what is more important, He healed his spirit (v. 8). We need that kind of healing for the weak-kneed, lame-ankled, spirit-darkened individuals in our communities and our churches. We will have it only as our leaders are men and women who are cleansed—ready to be channels for the conveying of God's power to a needy world.

III. Doing God's Will (Acts 4:13, 18-21).

The way of life of God's leaders is not an easy one, but it is a simple one. They do God's will—nothing less, nothing more, and nothing else. What could be more delightful?

Peter and John had spoken the truth and declared salvation to be only in the name of Jesus (v. 12). Certain easy talkers within the Church who tell us that we must not be narrow but broad enough to see salvation in all religions, had better read that verse again.

Because they had preached Christ and for no other reason, they were imprisoned, then released on condition that they would not mention Him again. What a splendid opportunity for a smooth and comfortable compromise! They could preach but just leave out Christ. Did they do it? No! (vv. 19, 20).

Obedience to God was paramount with them, and it must be with every genuinely Christian leader in the Church. Nothing else will do, no will it have the blessing and approval of God.

Gas For Victory Gardeners

Victory gardeners cultivating plots away from their homes are eligible for extra rations of gasoline this summer, if they can show need for extra mileage, the OPA has announced. Mileage rationing regulations are amended to provide up to 300 miles for six months for Victory Garden travel, if the car owner: (1) is regularly cultivating tract of vegetables of 1,500 square feet or more; (2) cannot get to his garden any other way and shows his labor is necessary to it; (3) arranges, is possible to share his car with other gardeners.

War Expenditures—1918 and 1943

In 1918 American war expenditures were only 18 1-2 billion dollars; in 1943 they will exceed 100 billion dollars. These figures show sharply the difference in cost between the last war and this one. There were four Liberty and one Victory Loan drive in the last war, with a total goal of less than 19 billion dollars; but to finance the present war the people of the United States must raise about 70 billion dollars before the end of this year. In that war, our task was chiefly to fortify a line of trenches in France; in this war we must equip and supply our armies on all the far-flung battle-fields of the world.

Employment Stabilized

Workers planning to quit their jobs to accept other employment either in home area or in other sections of the country should confer with their present employers first. War Manpower Commission officials warn. Under WMC employment stabilization plans announced last week, workers in essential industries must have a statement of availability signed by his most recent employer or by the WMC before he can be hired in another essential industry; he can't accept work in a non-essential industry at higher pay; he can quit a non-essential employer without a release to accept work in an essential industry. Agriculture is high on the list of the 34 essential industries. Complete information concerning the stabilization plan can be obtained from any U. S. Employment Service office or WMC office.

Change In Tire Ration

Passenger car drivers with mileage rations exceeding 240 monthly now are eligible for any grade of new tire when their present casings are not recappable.

More Mileage For Workers

Seven hundred twenty miles a month will be allowed hereafter for in-course-of-work driving, instead of the 470 miles previously allowed. This does not change the mileage allowed for driving between home and work. A car owner formerly eligible for an "B" ration book only may qualify for additional gasoline if he (1) shows he needs it for course-of-work travel; (2) meets regular car-sharing requirements; (3) shows he is not already allowed as much as 720 miles a month.

Job Records of High School Students

To help high school students find their proper place in the army (or in war industry), each one will soon be asked to make a card record of his school and job history. These "educational experience summary record" cards will contain such information as A students, academic standing and achievement, voca-

MRS. BILL YARBOROUGH

(Norma Featherston)

A very outstanding and charming person in Grammar School is Mrs. Bill Yarbrough. She is read-headed and is five feet 6 inches tall and weighs 120 pounds.

She has only been teaching here one year, but everyone has learned to respect and obey her. She has no special pets; she is just the same to everyone. She has a very sweet personality and everyone is very fond of her. She is the home room teacher of 8-2. She has a very charming smile. During the short time she has been here she has shown her ability in teaching math and spelling. She is a favorite of everyone, including the teachers.

MISS SMITH

(Carol Ward)

A very attractive and intelligent person, who takes trouble with a smile, and is always willing to do anything for anybody at any time is Miss Smith. She's a good sport and is always full of fun. She knows how to make the very hardest lessons easy. All the students like her, and she understands all of them. In class she teaches the most interesting lessons and at recess the most interesting games. She is always neat in her appearance and her desk always has a beautiful bouquet of flowers. It is certainly easy to like Miss Smith, and everybody does.

More Soya Foods

Edible soya products—the high protein foods soon to have an important place in both military and civilian diets—are expected to reach 1-2 billion pounds annually. The quantity available for civilians will be many times as large as in the past year. Soya products have already played a significant wartime role. Rich in valuable proteins, minerals and vitamins, they are readily adaptable to large scale use as a human food to supplement meat, milk and eggs.

News In Animal Feeds

Farmers will be interested in two Department of Agriculture discoveries. Poultry nutrition specialists have found that soybean meal properly cooked is a promising substitute for meat scrap and other protein feeds of animal origin. Another discovery is that good-quality home-grown legume hays, formerly considered too bulky for hog feed, may be used to reduce the amount of concentrates required in rations for growing and fattening pigs. Of three legumes tested, ground soybean hay gave the best results, when used for five to ten per cent of the total ration.

Plenty Of Baby Carriages

Over 300,000 baby carriages will be made during the next two months to help meet the anticipated demand for 900,000 this year. In addition, 163,500 strollers, baby-walkers and sulkies are authorized for manufacture by June 30.

'UNITED WE STAND' REVEALS BACKGROUND OF FLAMING ERA

Out of the secret archives of a wealth of hitherto unshown film, acquired at the risk of life and limb, 20th Century-Fox has re-created the true story of the last quarter-century—from Versailles to Pearl Harbor. Entitled "UNITED WE STAND" the film chronicle gives articulation and purpose to the angry confusion of our times.

To be shown at the MELBA THEATRE, THURSDAY, FRI. and SAT. MATINEE. "UNITED WE STAND" took twenty-five turbulent years to produce. It is the living, spectacular story of the world's most explosive era photographed on the spot, with the men who were and are making history as its cast.

Thousands—presidents, prime ministers, emperors, dictators, generals as well as the free and captive peoples of the world—parade in true perspective before the camera. They're all there; together with all the unforgettable memories and men of the past two and one-half decades.

"UNITED WE STAND" has been called an inspiring account torn from civilization's most tumultuous period. Screened against the blazing background of the whole embattled earth and seven seas, it makes one of the most unusual films ever brought to the screen. The film has a message—the message contained in the title—which proves for all time that "Divide and Conquer" can only win when disunity is widespread.

The story is told by Lowell Thomas, and the film was produced for 20th Century-Fox by Edmund Reek, while a special musical score was prepared by Louis de Francesco. Earl Alvine was the editor.

DURING the first year of our toughest war, we—Trained a lot of men—made a lot of fighting tools—built a lot of shipping.

And to help pay for it all, we bought War Bonds.
Altogether, 50 millions of us bought War Bonds.
And nearly 30 millions of us started putting, on the average, 10 percent of our pay into War Bonds every payday through the Payroll Savings Plan.

That was a good start. But, it was only a start.
That we did in '42 is not enough for '43!

We've got to do more fighting this year. We've got to do more building, more training, more ship-

We've got to buy more War Bonds.

Is that too much to ask? Many of us are making more money than we have made for years. The things we'd like to buy with that money have either why not put that money into War Bonds at good

Money to help pay for the war—keep prices down—
