PETICOAT PICTURES—
Old Hunnert reads where some women are starting a move to have all us men declared incompetent to hold public office. Same to be run by women extensive. Looks like all they got to do to prove their case is to go to the present mess us men has got things in, including world-wide, US-wide, state-wide, county-wide, and city-wide messes, not to mention the mess of our homes.
Also, they could make a rule that all wars had to be fought on a cash basis—with no more money borrowing from the taxpayers of any nation, and that'd keep the peace for at least a hundred years. Seems like they'd shot rulers want to get their names in the history books as hero warriors—and make us poor suckers do all the fighting and then after we win and get back home we have to pay for same, to boot. The 7th says to give the women a try at it—but Old Hunnert says to give us a chance one more chance—and let us see if we can't Jew them off their feet nations down from 22 to about 20 billions—and that way our big-shot Gov. Sellers wouldn't have to get us in a war to get their names in them history books—they'd go down as the biggest-hearted world-wide givers-away of other people's money in all ancient, medieval, present and future history.

PICTURES—
Old Hunnert couldn't think of nothing to draw a picture about this week, except a rancher told him his sheep was having insomnia:

"98 .. 99 .. 100 .."

WHO'S AFRAID—
Old Hunnert likes to keep his many readers up to snuff on the World War of Words 3 between US taxpayers' mess on one side and that Dad-gummed Dictator Joe and his Russhin big-shots on the other. Up to now, the gun shooting ain't started much yet—but the mouth shooting is sure going strong on both sides, but they've so far stopped the name-calling a little short of fist fights. It seems both sides are trying to scare the other side to death in this war, instead of having their cannon-fodder kill each other off with guns. First, the USES gets the Big Bum, which the Russhin's ain't—we hope. That was supposed to scare Old Joe enough to make him shut up. Then them Russhin's say they got didoes to kill people off with that make that Big Bum look like a toy pistol. That didn't seem to scare US much, and we come back quick in the newspapers with an article that says the USES have a liquid that a couple of ounces of will kill about 180 million people just like that—which is the number of the entire Russhin population. We seemed to be winning the war for a few weeks, but now the Russhin's say they got a Big Bum of their own and spelled it with a capital B. We seemed to have run out of ammunition for a spell—but just last week the papers carried a story that oughter shut them Russhin's up until Nov. 17 when Congress needs to figure out how many of US taxpayers' dullers it'll take to get them European nations back on their feet. The face-making and mouth-shooting part of the war is over now—and we'll have to start shooting dollars for awhile, if US taxpayers can find enough. Anyway, here's what a US Navy man said, quote: "Without including the atomic bomb, weapons exist now that could wipe the last vestige of human, animal and vegetable life from the earth." Several nations have it." Unquote. There's one bright spot—he didn't mention tad-

Goldthwaite All-Stars Play San Saba All-Stars There Tuesday

With stores in Goldthwaite and San Saba closed for Armistice Day—a national holiday—a large crowd from both places is expected to go to San Saba next Tuesday afternoon to witness a football game between Goldthwaite All-Stars and San Saba All-Stars.
Game will be called at San Saba at 2 p. m. next Tuesday.
Benefits from the game go to building a good baseball and athletic field in Goldthwaite.

With four wins and one loss for the season, the Goldthwaite high school Eagles will enter their sixth game tonight on Eagle Field opposite The State School of Gatesville, in a return engagement with the State Trojans. In their first game with the State School two weeks ago the locals ran wild to pile up a score of 33 and held the Trojans to one score. Scoring artists were Herman Anderson, Jimmy Laughlin and Bobby Lawson. Morris Law of Houston went into pay dirt for Gatesville for their only score of the game in the fourth period of play.

The Eagles will go on the field tonight with advantages of weight and a good season record. In five games the Eagles have scored 110 points against 32 for the opposition, greatly attributed to a defeat by hard-hitting San Marcos Baptist Academy when they ran by the Goldthwaite team 19-7. The largest score dished out by the Eagles was a 33 over the State School of Gatesville. The Trojans have played six games in which they were defeated four times and won twice running a score of 47 compared to an even 100 for their opposing teams. The two games won were from the colored boys of their own school. Goldthwaite carries a first string weight advantage of 129 pounds for tonight's game scheduled at 8 o'clock on Eagle Field.

FANS ASKED TO BE ON GOOD CONDUCT

Tonight the boys from the Gatesville State Home come to Eagle Field to play a return game with Goldthwaite. The Eagles played a very good, clean game at Gatesville and came through with a well-earned victory. As you all know, it is the good sportsmanship that is shown by the Eagle team and our fans that will enable us to regain our place in 32-A District Conference. It is up to you—players and fans—whether or not we will again regain this place. You, the people of our community, fans and players, are to be commended on your excellent sportsmanship shown so far this season. If there is any time we wish for good behavior on the part of the fans, it will be this Friday night at Eagle Field. You have been courteous, polite and well-behaved at each game—just keep it up and Goldthwaite will be proud of you.

Lions Club Members And Guests Hear Soil Conservation Talk Here

At the regular first Tuesday night meeting of the Goldthwaite Lions Club, Lions and their invited guests heard an excellent talk by A. C. Spencer of Dublin, Field Representative for State Soil Conservation Board.
Guests introduced included: A. C. Spencer of Dublin and Ben R. Day of Goldthwaite, both with the Soil Conservation Service; J. H. Priddy, L. B. Burnham, Jr., C. C. Wesson, L. H. Soules, and A. L. Reese.
In the absence of the president, Vice-President D. D. Tate was master of ceremonies, and introduced Paul T. Koshi, local representative of the Soil Conservation Service, who introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. Spencer, who oversees the work in 52 counties of North-Central Texas, outlined in detail the Soil Conservation Service set-up, and read an editorial from the Houston Post which said one-third of the top soil on lands in the United States is already gone through erosion and bad farming practices. He said soil conservation is a national problem to which all of us should give our best thought and effort, and added the economy and prosperity of the nation depend on the land, and that we could not afford to lose our land, as it takes two and a half acres of land to feed one person. By 1970 or 1980 we would be unable to feed the increased population unless our best efforts were put forth to conserve the soil.
Mr. Spencer said Congress first recognized the need for soil conservation in 1928, when it appropriated a small amount of money to set up experiment stations, with two in Texas. In 1933 Congress set up a Soil Erosion Service, and in 1935 the present Soil Conservation Service was set up under the Department of Agriculture. The bill under which land owners could organize soil conservation districts passed in Texas in 1939, and the matter was placed 100 per cent in the hands of landowners of the districts set up. There are five sub-divisions in Texas and each is subdivided into five Soil Conservation Districts. The Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District covers the two counties, and has five district supervisors elected by the landowners. Hobart Priddy and Willis Hill are two of the five for this district, and the five supervisors' terms of office are staggered so as to have one expiring each year. The speaker emphasized that soil conservation districts, a subdivision of the state government, are owned and operated by the landowners of the district. He said the Lions Club and business men can do much to help in soil conservation, by familiarizing themselves with the subject and then talk soil conservation, which is necessary and profitable. The board of supervisors of the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District have bought drills and other farm machinery to be let out for use by the small landowners at a nominal cost.

A project is on here to get buildings, which have been bought, to be moved on lots in Goldthwaite to give office and storage space for soil conservation use and a place to hold the boys' calf shows.
Hobart Priddy said the landowners appreciated the interest the business men are taking in soil conservation work, mentioning the Field Day held last spring. He said the board of supervisors had bought two buildings, 25 by 99 feet, to be moved to Goldthwaite.

HOPE TO RE-OPEN VOCATIONAL SCHOOL IN NEAR FUTURE

The Board has held several meetings to speed up matters, but has been forced to mark time this week awaiting a definite go-ahead order.

SUNDAY IS MILLS COUNTY MEMORIAL AND CEMETERY ENTRANCE DEDICATION DAY

Sunday promises to be a monumental day in observance of the dedicatory services for the men and women of Mills County killed in the World War II. A Memorial Service is to be conducted in every church in the county at the morning hour.

The whole program for the memorial occasion is sponsored by the Garden Club of Goldthwaite. The women have been planning for months for the days program. Through their sponsorship the city and cemetery have been and are being beautified. Much landscaping at the cemetery has added to its beauty.

Every civic organization has worked for the day's success. These include The Lions Club, county and city officers, representatives from the V. F. W., and the American Legion, and ministers of the city.

NEWS from FOOD FOR VICTORY

YOUR COUNTY HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENT
TEXAS EXTENSION SERVICE

By MRS. EMAGENE HAENISCH FEATURE FRUIT

Now that flour and eggs are on the list of critical foods, it's a good idea to feature fruits in desserts for the family. A variety of fruits, fresh and canned and dried, are on the market this fall, and there is plenty of sugar and syrups for sweetening.

All homemakers know that baked pears and baked apples are easy to prepare as well as good to eat. Dried apples, peaches, apricots and prunes can be served many ways. Raisins add taste and texture variety to such dishes as baked apples, apple-raisin marmalade, fruit and waldorf salads.

Spiced prunes are good hot or cold and may be served as a relish with the meat course or as a dessert. Prepare the prunes in the usual way, then toward the end of cooking, add sugar to taste, a few grains of salt, such spices as clove, nutmeg, cinnamon or allspice, and a vinegar or lemon juice. Other dried fruits can be spiced by the same recipe.

If fruits are used as much as possible, there is less need for cakes, pies and puddings. By cutting down on baked desserts, the housewife is doing her part in the government's program for saving certain foods.

GRILLED MUFF-CAKES

Split left-over muffins in half. Place on a lightly greaser griddle, cut side down and heat thoroughly. Serve like pancakes with honey or syrup. Left over yeast rolls may be used the same way.

FRESH AGAIN-MUFFINS, BISCUITS AND ROLLS

Place left-over muffins, biscuits or rolls into top of a double boiler. Sprinkle with a few drops of water. Cover, set over hot water and heat for 20 minutes.

BABY LIMAS IN CHEESE SAUCE

Split left-over muffins or biscuits in half. Toast and serve as a foundation for baby lima beans in cheese sauce. Toasted biscuits or muffins may also be used to top casserole dishes.

STICKIES

Reheat muffins in muffin pans which have been prepared as follows: Into each muffin cup put 1-2 teaspoon margarine or 1 tablespoon marmalade. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 15 minutes.

AUTUMN PUDDING

1 3-4 cups muffin or biscuit crumbs, 3-4 cup diced cooked dried apricote, 1-2 cup apricot juice. Mix the above ingredients together thoroughly. Place this mixture into four greased custard cups or a small casserole. Top with the following topping.

TOPPING

1-2 cup crumbs, 1-2 cup brown sugar. Mix thoroughly and sprinkle on pudding mixture. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 30 minutes.—Yield: 4 servings.

CONSERVATION IDEAS FOR LEFT OVER BREAD AND CAKE

Bread which is no longer "fresh" may be converted into French toast, cinnamon toast, hot milk toast.

Pulled bread:—Tear shreds of dried bread from slice. Toast these shreds in oven and serve with milk as you would other dry cereals. The inside of rolls or biscuit can also be used for this.

Cake which has lost its freshness can be served with sauces such as vanilla cream, orange, lemon, etc. Prepare the advance so as to allow the sauce to saturate into the cake.

Cut dried cake into fingers for lining serving dishes for tapioca puddings, etc. These fingers are placed around inside—Charlotte Russe effect.

Pound and loaf cakes which has become dry can be sliced and toasted.

A delicious treat is fried pound cake. The cake is sliced and fried in buttered skillet, using slow heat. Turn to brown both sides. Serve with jelly.

Toasted cake crumbs make ideal topping for other desserts such as ice cream, puddings, etc.

Sliced dried cake and place in serving plate covered with whipped cream, with half apricot in center to resemble poached or fried egg on toast. This should be done in advance so that moisture from cream saturates cake to soften it before serving.

Coffee cake and rolls may be sliced and toasted in home bake oven on a cookie pan. Toast or brown upper side to desired shade of brown; then turn under side up to brown.

Bread type rolls, coffee cakes, sweet rolls, etc., may be refreshed by placing in a paper bag, wet the outside of the bag and place into oven.

Intermediates Of Baptist Church Have Party

In keeping with the hallowe'en spirit, the Intermediate department of the First Baptist Church Sunday School was entertained by their teachers and officers in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gilliam last Monday night, October 27, with a mask-querade party. About fifty boys and girls and several teachers and officers were present. Everyone was happy to have Bro. and Mrs. Joe Emery present, also.

The first hour was spent in much laughter while everyone tried to guess the identity of everyone else. Some best friends did not know each other. Mary Katherine Palmer won the prize for being the best disguised person there, and Joyce Harrell won the prize for being the funniest dressed girl present. Others who were not easily recognized were: Mrs. Ellen Cochrum, Earlene Nix, and Dorothy Helen Featherston.

Such games as "How Do You Like Your Neighbor", "Pleased or Displeased", a peanut relay contest, and a contest to determine who could unscramble the letters in the objects of Hallowe'en the quickest and most accurate, were enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Gilliam, Mrs. Cockrum, and Mrs. McCombs served delicious refreshments of sandwiches, cookies, and cold drinks to the happy group.

The Intermediates want to take this opportunity to thank their teachers and officers for giving them such a wonderful evening.

COUNTY AGENT NEWS --

By DARLUS B. McCOMBS

PLOW-UP PAYS

J. A. Oswalt, Hidalgo County Agent, believes that early plow-up of cotton stalks following harvest is doing plenty for insect control in South Texas.

During the past producing season, boll weevils never infested Hidalgo county cotton in great enough numbers to justify the use of control measures. He credits controlled planting dates under the pink boll worm quarantine regulations, as well as early plow-up of stalks, for the absence of insects this year.

Cotton production for the county, reports the agent, totaled 83,633 bales, produced off 143,000 acres by 2,400 farmers. Those figures average 280.7 pounds of lint per acre.

Oswalt says that with controlled planting dates and the early plow-up, extended dry weather was the only factor that kept Hidalgo farmers from producing an average of 300 pounds of lint per acre.

TURTLE TRAP

If you've got a farm pond or tank on your place, you've probably been bothered by turtles. Not that they do any particular harm. In fact, R. E. Callender, extension specialist in wildlife conservation for Texas A. and M. College, says that turtles do some good, as they serve as scavengers and help destroy pond weeds. . . young turtles are eaten by bass, too. And if you're worried about turtles eating fish eggs, there's not much to that idea, because parent fish are excellent defenders of their nests.

But if you think your turtle population is a little high, and you'd like to do something about it, there's a turtle trap that you can build and set afloat or anchor in your pond or tank. . . and it'll do the job. It's pretty simple to make. You'll need only four pieces of a split log, some 1 x 4 or 1 x 6 lumber, 16 penny nails, and 1-inch poultry netting for the bait basket and to trap the turtles. Mr. Callender says to be sure to get rid of each catch of turtles by burning or burying in a pit, so they won't be a source of contamination for chickens and turkeys.

If you're interested in building a turtle trap, talk to your county agent. He's got the plans. Just ask for the turtle trap.

Harmony Choir Sings At Howard Payne

On Monday, October 27, the Baptist Harmony Choir under the direction of Mrs. F. P. Bowman sang four songs in chapel at Howard Payne College.

After chapel Miss Cox, Dean of Women at Howard Payne, conducted the girls on a tour of the campus. The group especially enjoyed visiting the girls' and boys' dormitories. Miss Cox was an excellent guide, and everyone received a vivid picture of college life at Howard Payne.

The Harmony Choir wishes to express its thanks to Mrs. O. O. Smith, Mrs. F. W. Chadwick, Rev. Joe Emery, and Mrs. F. O. Sykes for furnishing transportation to and from Brownwood. They also wish to thank Mrs. F. P. Bowman and Mrs. R. V. Littlepage for working with the choir and giving their time and talent to it.

'DISHONORED LADY' IS BRILLIANT COMMENT ON MODERN WOMAN

It is a fairly common fallacy for people the country over to look with envy upon the comparative handful of men and women whose days center around newspaper and magazine offices and whose nights are spent in crystal and plush nightclubs, as if this mode of living contained something valuable which their own does not.

"Dishonored Lady," Hunt Stromberg's latest production opens Saturday night prevue, Sunday and Monday at the Melba Theatre through United Aatise release, goes a long way toward dispelling this.

With Hedy Lamarr, breath-takingly beauty as usual, as Madeleine Damien, brilliant art editor of a smart magazine by day and glamorous femme fatale by evening, the picture demonstrates the emotional and spiritual sterility which can exist cheek by jowl with material plenty in a compelling drama of the rejuvenation of a soul.

GAY, ROMANTIC LAUGH FILM STARS GODDARD, MACMURRY

The Ahmy, it is generally conceded, builds men, but Paramount's new romantic comedy, "Suddenly It's Spring," opening Saturday night only at the Melba Theatre, Paulette Goddard sets out to prove to co-star Fred MacMurry that military service gives wives something they never had before. Macdonald Carey and Arleen Whelan are also very much involved in the reportedly hilarious experiment.

Paulette is seen as "Captain Lonelyhearts," the Dorothy Dix of the WAC, who returns from overseas to find her estranged husband, MacMurray, waiting on the pier with divorce papers for her to sign. Paulette had been away too long, and Arleen Whelan had moved in on Fred's heart.

Paulette sets out to dislodge the enemy, with such unusual feminine tricks as alluring black negligees reinforced by newly learned military tactics. Aided by Macdonald Carey, who would like to see Paulette free for personal reasons, she engages Fred in a series of wacky maneuvers that are said to make "Suddenly It's Spring" one of the seasons zingiest comedies.

STOREYVILLE FAMED FOR SIN AND SYNCOPATION

Storeyville, the once notorious, now almost legendary center of New Orleans' after-dark activity, is being hailed in Jules Levey's dramatic film, "New Orleans," as the birthplace of the blues—to the delight of Crescent City. Not so long ago, though, quite the reverse was true.

For now extinct section of the city, which bordered on the fabulous Vieux Carre and boasted Basin and Customhouse Streets as its strongholds, was a festering sore in not only the body politic but the body geographic, too. An ordinance passed in 1897 had restricted the darker aspects of the city's life to that district—and there crime, a brief upsurge of the Mafia, loose living, gambling and dissolution flourished.

Opens at the Melba Theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday.

J. O. HUTCHINGS

J. O. Hutchings was born in Lebanon, Ind., Nov. 1, 1880. He passed away on his 67th birthday.

Funeral services were conducted at the Goldthwaite Methodist Church Sunday afternoon at four o'clock by the pastor, Rev. M. D. Lowry, assisted by Rev. Joseph L. Emery and Rev. Jim Ashcraft. Interment followed in Goldthwaite Memorial Cemetery.

He moved with his parents to Thayer, Kansas, when an infant. His father died March 26, 1890, leaving his wife, Mrs. Willie Hutchings, with eight children.

She and the children moved to Goldthwaite, Texas, Nov. 1, 1892, where she resided until her death June 21, 1925.

Otis leaves to mourn his death two half-brothers, J. W. Edlin of Brownwood and S. O. Edlin of Oilton, Oklahoma; one brother, Ira Hutchings near Zephyr; two sisters, Miss Bessie Hutchings and Mrs. George Hill.

One brother, Walter, preceded him in death in 1893, and one half-brother, W. D. Edlin, in 1917.

Otis and Miss Bessie Hutchings have lived together since their mother's death.

He has been a wonderful brother and a good Christian character all his life and counted his friends by his acquaintances.

He has lived in or near Goldthwaite since he was a very small boy except the three years he and Miss Bess lived in Brownwood, returning to Goldthwaite September 1946.

He has enjoyed meeting old friends and having them visit him during his illness the last few months, and has spoken often of how glad he was that he moved back to Goldthwaite, where friends proved by their visits and good deeds that they cared for others when they were sick. He appreciated every visit and every kindness shown.

He helped his cousin, Mrs. Eula Nickols, in every way he could, to raise her children after their father's death in 1918, and

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Saturday afternoon, at four o'clock, Mrs. Carl Featherston honored Master Dale Gwin with a birthday party in her home. The little guests were greeted at the door by Miss Norma Featherston and Mrs. Jack Kelso. One hour was spent telling stories, playing inside games, and singing songs. The gifts were then opened and it caused much fun and excitement.

Then Dale invited the little guests to the dining room, where a beautiful white and blue birthday cake, decorated with five tiny candles awaited them. After blowing out the candles and singing the birthday song to Dale, Mrs. Lewis Gwin, Mrs. Jack Kelso, and Miss Norma Featherston served the children ice cream cones and cake. Plate favors were tiny plastic elephants for the boys and clowns for the girls.

Twenty-five guests bade Dale good-bye at a late hour and wished for him many more happy birthdays.

Electric Cooperatives.

This money, totaling nearly one million dollars, will all be used to extend the lines and service of these two cooperatives which collectively form the largest rural electric system in the United States. More than 1200 new rural homes will have the benefits of low-cost electricity under the new program of extension, Martin Hyltin, manager for the cooperatives said.

There were about 250,000 more people working on farms the first of October this year than a year ago.

The latest of three loans, one of $400,000, was made to the LCRA Cooperatives this week. Other loans of $215,000 and $263,000 were made several weeks ago to the Pedernales

LITTLE'S "SINCE 1898"

The American Legion And V. F. W. Present 3 Act Comedy Wed.—Thurs.

"Cornzappoppin," a three Act Comedy with music and specialities was presented at the Grammar School Auditorium Wednesday night and will be presented tonight (Thursday) at 8:13 p. m. Proceeds will be used for building fund. Miss Alice Burke, Director, says the production is reminiscent of the "Grand Ole Opry" program. It is built for laughs, she explains, and James Brown as Cousin Linnie Pearl contributes her share as an old maid collecting mountain music; Elvire Judkins, played by Dick Lowry, dominates and rules the roost. She tries to keep Dr. T. C. Graves, (Pa Judkins) from investing all their savings in making perfumes from the Crik water. Bob Sandrock (Jesse Moreland) is a partner in the scheme, but only because he is anxious to marry his daughter, Sue (Richard Sowders). Brian Smith as Squire Hicks almost spoils the proceedings until Miss Twitty (Leonard Archer) gets in his hair. One of the neatest comedy hits in the show, according to Miss Burke, is handled by Howard Campbell as "Elmer," and Julian Evans as "Mazie Mae"—"Aunt Bessie" (H. E. Patton) is the matriarch of the household, and confuses every one as she searches for her pet bear cub.

Choruses and tuneful music are gay and colorful. Specialties add to the show and costume numbers include Mrs. Forehand and other local talent with Hill Billy music. Eighteen children from Goldthwaite are entered in the Tiny Tot Contest. The winners will be introduced and awarded prizes on the stage Thursday night. They are part of the show. Entries include Mike Carter, Jim Daniel, Mike Welch, Genne Saegert, James Campbell, Jr. Griffith, Cecil Campbell, Eddie Shaw, Helen Kelly, Kay Campbell, Marth Lee Harvey, Rita Sue Johnson, Anita Campbell, Joann Sowders, Shelly Paige White, Jan Moreland, Sharon White and Wanda Jean Johnson.

SLOW BUSINESS FOR MR. STORK IN MILLS COUNTY

Mr. Stork is losing out in Mills County as only nine births have been reported for 1947 to date. That doesn't mean Mills County residents have quit trading with him, but it seems he prefers to deliver the goods elsewhere.

The latest birth reported to the County Clerk's office was Delores Mae Kincheloe, born to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kincheloe on October 18.

Marriage licenses recorded since last report and including November 5, were Paul S. Warlick and Rozella Wright, John Ellis and Martha Holmes, James E. Biggs and Blanche Cook, James H. Hodges and Gwendolyn Clark, Charlie Sheppard and Bonnie Earnest, H. W. Limmer and Helen Reich.

FIRE LOSSES DECREASE IN SEPTEMBER

Austin, Nov. 4—September fire losses in Texas show a decrease over those in August, as announced today by Marvin Hall, State Fire Insurance Commissioner.

The Commissioner said that the September report was the first encouraging data received in his office this year. Until that month the rate of burning in Texas had reached an all-time high and was constantly rising.

"Our needless burning of valuable materials and property is still shocking; however, the September reduction in losses is a starting point in Texas' year-round campaign to save lives, property and natural resources from fire," he said.

WAR ASSETS FREEZES 55,000-ACRE CAMP BOWIE AREA

The Brownwood Chamber of Commerce was notified last week that 55,000 acres of Camp Bowie maneuver land had been frozen by the War Assets Administration as a possible game preserve. Action was taken at request of the Texas, Game, Fish and Oyster Commission.

This action prevents sale of the land until March 15, 1948.

Congressman O. C. Fisher has notified the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce he is strongly opposed to establishment of a game preserve on the Camp Bowie maneuver area.

"Congress has not in the past, and I am certain will not in the future give any surplus land away—for such purposes," Fisher said. "I would vigorously oppose any such attempt. We have been working for two years to expedite the return of Camp Bowie surplus land to tax rolls and private ownership."

HOG KILLING DAY—

Got any nice, fat hogs ready for killing? Next Wednesday, Nov. 12, is known in this section as Judge Head's hog killing day. There are left only a few old timers here who remember this, but back in 1887 when Mills County was organized the first county judge was known far and wide as the man who also killed hogs on November 12, regardless of how the weather seemed that morning. And he never lost any. If you go back that day, Old Hunnert could take some fresh meat in his shack—just leave it in one of them modern conveniences, and if you don't kill that day he will still be hungry later on.

Since he's been with the so long, Old Hunnert has found out that frequently it's advisable not even to attempt an explanation. And when he told her he takes two to make a bargain, she said: "Yes, but only one of them gets it."

A long time ago, Old Hunnert was running a newspaper of his own and fighting the town council strong. He came out one week with a big headline, "Half the Town Council Are Crooks!" When they called his hand he promised a retraction, and next week made the headline read: "Half the Town Council Are Not Crooks!"

After his sentence was up, one man didn't want to leave the jail and when asked why, replied: "I've been reading the papers."

F. H. A. MAILS

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

To make the hearts of foreign children happy at Christmas time, 23 F. H. A. girls participated in the World Christmas Festival. Seventeen gifts of all kinds were wrapped with Christmas trimmings and packed in one large box which weighed 4 1-2 pounds.

These gifts are to reach the foreign countries and be distributed on December 15.

THEY'VE COME AT LAST

For the first time Goldthwaite High School is offering second-year typing.

The advanced books have arrived and students are working toward an increase in accuracy and won. We played Lometa and the score was a tie. We plan to go to Lometa next week providing we meet certain standards in our studies and in Citizenship grades. We are trying as we all wish to go.

Our class enjoyed a wiener roast given by Althea Mae Eckert at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Eckert at Scallorn. Franklin Weathers from the 7 grade was a visitor. Games were played after which we ate and had a most enjoyable time. We wish to thank our room-mothers for this entertainment.

Our class sponsored the sale of the blanket at the Hallowe'en Carnival. The lovely blanket was donated by Yarborough and Duran Dry Goods Store and brought nearly $40 for the school.

THE TOP DRAWER

(Everything goes into it) "Red" got it back on Carlene by stepping out with Margaret Monday night after the scout party. Stepping out also were Larry and Anita, Ada Margaret and Billy, and Modene and Jesse.

Joyce, you have us wondering. Which is it going to be—James or Billy? Just listen to these new romances! There's Jane Long and Jesse, Norma Sue and Herman, "Lena" and James Hillman, Sybil Ann and Raymond, and Carlin Dale and "Suzie".

Margaret is very sad and lonely since Ray left town, but in a few more weeks they'll be at it again.

It's funny that Vera Mae and Judy Whitley and Wayne and Bess didn't even get cold in that jeep without a top!

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Patton were accompanied to Mexia Saturday afternoon by La Verne Sykes, Joyce Harrell, Rita Henry, and Scottie Vaughn. Upon arriving, everyone enjoyed a delicious dinner at the home of Rev. and Mrs. D. A. Bryant. Saturday night the town was explored by the girls, and Mr. and Mrs. Patton enjoyed a picture which Rev. Bryant showed in the projection room of the church. After a good night's rest, Rev. Bryant and Steve Heathers, educational director of the First Baptist Church of Mexia, took the girls to Waco where they met the rest of the Harmony Choir.

Mrs. C. S. Thompson and son, Richard Scott, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Gilmer, near Waxahachie.

JUNIORS ORDER RINGS

The Junior class ordered their Senior class rings last Thursday. The class had several samples to choose from. They voted on which one they wanted.

The Junior class is going to entertain the Senior class with a party at the Hangar, Friday night. Everyone is expecting a good time.

The class wishes to thank it's room mothers for the wonderful work they did at the snow cone booth Saturday at the Carnival.

EDUCATIONAL TRIP

Six members of the second and third year H. M. classes spent Saturday seeing some of the things they have studied in class.

In New Braunfels, the girls were taken through the textile mills where they saw all the stages in the manufacture of cotton materials. The girls purchased materials to be used in class problems. Following a picnic lunch in beautiful Landa park, the girls went to Austin, where they did more shopping. On a brief tour through the University Campus they were entertained by the electric eye which operates a fountain in the physics building. In the Home Economics building the oriental rug collection was of special interest.

F. H. A. WEEK

Future Homemakers of America is a national organization of pupils who study homemaking in junior and senior high schools.

We work together for better and happier home life for everyone.

We think that helping to make happy homes, now and in the future, is the most important thing that youth can do for a democracy.

The Goldthwaite Chapter is observing the week by doing the following: Wearing F. H. A. emblems all week; attending Baptist Church Sunday morning; participating in City cleaning week, having assembly program and initiation; decorating tables for Memorial Service next Sunday; planning to plant red rose bush; signing the pledge for the President's Food Conservation Program and participating in the World Christmas Festival.

PARTIES! PARTIES! PARTIES! SENIORS HAVE HALLOWE'EN FROLIC

Last Thursday evening at 7:30 Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gilliam entertained the Senior Class of Goldthwaite High School with a Hallowe'en party. About forty seniors and several faculty members attended the party, which was held in the gaily decorated playroom above the Gilliams' garage.

The party got under way with a get acquainted game, "How Do You Like Your Neighbor?" Other games played during the evening were "Witche's Broomstick", "Bluebeard's Key", "Paul Jones", and "Pleased or Displeased." Much laughter was brought forth when Mr. Gilliam told everybody's fortune. Earline Nix won a contest to determine who knew the most cars.

The seniors certainly enjoyed the party and wish to take this opportunity to thank the Gilliams for their gracious hospitality.

SOPHOMORES ENJOY HALLOWE'EN PARTY

The Sophomores all agreed that the Hallowe'en Party was the best they had ever had.

It took place in Larry Simmons' barn on Thursday, October 30.

Everyone entered into the games and "spook" story held in the loft.

Each drew a number for partners in a delicious box supper consisting of sandwiches and every thing to go with them, including cookies with Hallowe'en faces.

The class wishes to extend their deepest appreciation to the room mothers who worked so hard to give them a wonderful party and to Mr. Hunt, who is the Sophomore sponsor.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PARTY HELD AT HANGAR

Hallowe'en night all the witches and spooks of the Junior and Senior classes and some faculty members met at the Hangar for a Hallowe'en party. The Hangar was decorated for Hallowe'en and everyone was in a festive mood. Orange Game, Blind Handshake, and Unlucky Spot Game were some of the games enjoyed by everyone. Miss Neida Hodges, famed fortune teller, told some of the deepest secrets of the Juniors and Seniors.

Refreshments were served by the Junior home room mothers. The Juniors hope to have just such a party again soon.

The Seniors had a wonderful time and wish to thank the Juniors for giving such a grand party.

THE GILLIAMS ENTERTAIN FOOTBALL TEAM

The witches were out early this year as Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gilliam, Sr. and Ed, Jr. entertained the Goldthwaite Football Team on Saturday, October 18.

All the guests arrived attired in masks, but one member of the team, namely, Jimmie Laughlin, was disguised so that even his own mother would not have known him.

The upstairs playroom was decorated with garlands of orange and black crepe paper and Jack-o-lanterns, along with witches, black cats and skeletons.

Numerous games were played, which included recognizing each guest. La Verne Sykes and Jimmie Laughlin won prizes for being the best disguised. Then each couple worked on a game to see who knew the most about famous football players. Joyce Harrell and Billy Miller won a large box of chocolates for getting the most correct answers.

At this time Ed Gilliam, Jr. presented Coach Kirby a large box of candy in appreciation of the games the Eagles had won up to that time.

For two hours the guests enjoyed having their fortunes told, playing "Pleased or Displeased" and many other games. Terry Blake surprised us all by singing a very comical song, which was enjoyed by everyone.

At ten o'clock the guests were invited to come down stairs. The leaders of the Pep Squad and some of the members of the Pep Squad assisted Mrs. Gilliam in serving delicious orange punch, chocolate cakes and plate favors of assorted candy. The Hallowe'en motif was carried throughout the living and dining rooms.

A number of guests lingered until midnight and at this time realize it had been so much fun the time flew by.

Members of the faculty present were Miss Edna Fouse, Mrs. Campbell Thompson and son, Mr. Fields Hines and Bonnie, Mr. Ted Kirby and Daphne.

It was a gala occasion and each member will always remember the Gilliams for such a wonderful evening.

GIRLS ATTEND SLUMBER PARTY

Last Friday night, on Hallowe'en, Norma Sue Ross opened her home to a group of senior girls. The girls met after the Junior-Senior party, as some had attended the party, and others had gone to the spook shows at the Melba Theatre. The night was spent with much laughter, gossiping, eating, and some even walked around in the wee hours of the morning.

About 4:30 in the morning everything became still and quiet as sleep had finally overtaken the determined girls.

Those who attended the party were: Vera Mae Bell, Rita Henry, La Verne Sykes, Jeral Vaughn, Joyce Harrell, Earline Nix, Carlene Featherston and the hostess, Norma Sue.

ARMISTICE DAY

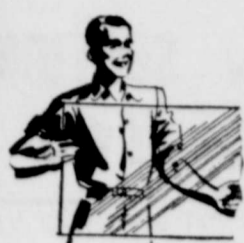

The feast we can do is lay flowers at their graves, and go to Church with reverent thoughts of them, and come home and bring them to verbal life for a moment while we sit around a comfortable living room. That's the least we can do for the men and boys whose memories this Armistice Day honors. But they deserve more than the least we can do—they through their sacrifice earned the most we can do—and that means keeping this country free ... keeping the world free from war ... keeping all the people of all the world free to live at peace!

Visiting with the members of the House of Representatives agricultural committee when they arrived in Texas on tour last week, we found all the congressmen pleased with the things they have seen and heard since beginning the round of hearings on a long range program of agriculture for the nation.

Some of them expressed the opinion they learned as much from what they saw of the land, as they learned in listening to testimony.

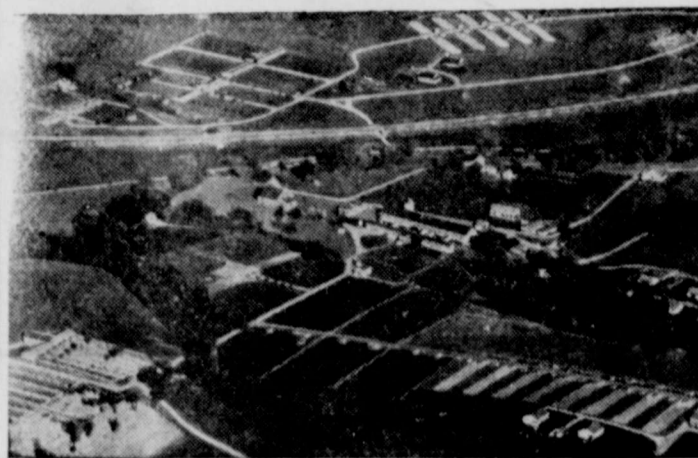

One of the congressmen said privately that he believed ninety percent of the testimony was inspired by government agencies. Chairman Clifford Hope said he did not share this opinion.

Comes news that at last some of the land previously infested with foot and mouth disease in central Mexico is to be tested now to determine whether the virus has been completely eradicated so that the area may be restocked with cattle, sheep or goats. The first test will be run in the state of San Luis Potosi. Officials believe the disease has been eliminated also in Aguascalientes and Zacatecas states. The test will take several weeks, and if virus is still present, restocking then must be delayed for months.

Turkey raisers of Texas have adopted a plan to obtain funds to spend on advertising and promotion of the eating of more turkey meat. Entirely voluntary, a system of checkoff of one per cent per bird received at the processing plants will be followed. This is calculated to raise a sum of around $35,000 per year in Texas, which will go into the general promotion fund of the National Turkey Federation. Meanwhile, the processors in Texas have agreed to contribute an equal amount, by knocking down one cent per bird they receive. The processors' contributions will be spent for turkey promotion in Texas.

Farmers in Henderson county, Kentucky, gave weed-killer 2,4-D a good trial on their corn land this year. Heavy rains put weeds up ten to twelve inches higher than the young corn last spring. One fellow, in desperation, and "with fear and trembling," sprayed his corn field with

AL T. LANGFORD ATTENDS PURNIA MEETING

Purina Research Farm, Gray Summit, Mo.

AL T. LANGFORD OF GOLDTHWAITE was one of a group of 225 Texas feed dealers traveling by special train to the 738-acre Research Farm of the Ralston Purina Company at Gray Summit, Mo., recently.

One of the largest privately-owned livestock and poultry research projects in the world, more than 45,000 birds and 3,000 animals are studied each year. The Purina Research Farm has pioneered many advanced practices such as year round production of turkeys, dry feeding for calves, life-cycle feeding program for dairy cows, complete dry feed for dogs, special starting mashers for baby chicks and other poultry, and many others.

Langford saw the grade-stock dairy herd which has doubled its production under the Purina program of careful sanitation, sound management, good breeding and good feeding.

2,4-D. Pretty soon others followed suit and eventually 14,000 acres were sprayed, out of a total of 25,000 acres of weed-infested corn.

The county agent reports that they got a root and growth stimulation in the corn in most cases. Ten days after the spraying, the development of new feeder roots was twice as great as in untreated check plot rows. The abnormal condition they report with the corn is a slight twisting of the brace roots, but they don't consider it an injury. The 2,4-D cost $10 per gallon, less than fifty cents per acre.

WORLD WAR II VETERANS

WASHINGTON, D. C.—World War II veterans serving in the Enlisted Reserve Corps may enter on active duty on a purely volunteer basis to participate in paying homage to the war dead being returned from overseas. The Department of the Army explained that in order to provide fitting escorts and ceremonies for returning dead, enlisted reserves may return to active duty for six-month and one-year periods at the option of the applicant.

NATIONAL GUARD ENLISTS

8,023 MEN IN WEEK
WASHINGTON, D. C.—National Guard enlistments rose to 8,023 bringing the total new enlistments to 38,174 since the nation-wide recruiting campaign started September 16, 1947 in the direction of President Truman.

This is the highest weekly total so far and indicates that the recruiting campaign is gathering momentum, Major Kenneth F. Cramer, Chief, National Guard Bureau, has announced.

A study in Texas shows that costs of producing cotton in the state range all the way from 19.4 cents to less than 4 cents per pound.

(Written for last week)

Rain threatened terribly Friday night, but none fell here. However, some fell Saturday night, and Sunday brought a good shower.

Ernest Malone received a letter from his sister-in-law, Mrs. Garland Malone, of Ysleta, Saturday, telling him that his mother, Mrs. Nellie Malone, had been moved by ambulance from an El Paso hospital to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clara Bean at Van Horn. A practical nurse is taking care of her. Her condition is mostly unchanged.

Gene Egger took his father, Bob Egger, to San Angelo Friday to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. General Estes, who died Thursday morning in an Abilene hospital after a long illness. Mrs. Janie Roberts, sister of Mr. Estes, has been helping nurse Mr. and Mrs. Estes both for some time.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Estes was Miss Rachel Egger, one of the Egger twins. Her twin sister, Belle, now Mrs. Callison, survives her, and lives in San Angelo. One other brother besides Bob, Jim Egger, of New Mexico also survives. Thursday evening Mrs. Griffin, our efficient bus driver, let Henry drive the bus home while she went to Brownwood to meet her daughter, Mrs. Cecil Crowder, and her daughters, Norma Sue and Betty Lou, of Fort Worth. Friday Cecil and Cecil, Jr. came in Saturday morning at eight o'clock, the family met at a Brownwood hospital where the doctors removed a silver plate from Betty Lou's shoulder which was put there when she fell from a tree and broke her shoulder last May. She is doing well. Her mother is staying with her until she is able to return home.

Nancy Reeves told me Monday that they went to Brady Sunday night to see a house there. The Hubert Reeves are thinking of rebuilding soon.

As I was waiting in the pick-up at Lem Egger's Thursday morning while the school bus went to Regency and back, Mrs. Jess Egger came out to talk to me. She had been there all the week she said, but was going home to Brownwood that morning with Henry Egger. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lem Egger, had been sewing for her. She said she was lonely in town, but she knew it was best for her to be there.

As we came by to take Mrs. Edna Dwyer to church Sunday morning, she wasn't ready. She said she was down in her back and wasn't able to go. We stopped on our way back, and she said she was better.

Friday night I was awakened about 2 o'clock by a deep-toned melodious voice singing. "Good-night, Sweetheart, May angels up above Watch over you, my Love, Until the dawn breaks through". It was Bill Belich trying to rock Billy to sleep after disturbing him by coming in unexpectedly at one o'clock from Lubbock.

Bill, who is attending Texas Tech., says the housing situation at Lubbock is still fierce, but the city is growing by leaps and bounds. He says he finds his courses pretty stiff, and they don't mind to fail you there. He returned to Lubbock, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charm Whittenburg were host and hostess to the members of their families at a family dinner Sunday after

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE

"Adam and Fallen Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 9.

The Golden Text is: "Ye were sometimes in darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light." (Ephesians 5:8).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me" (Psalms 138:8).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The great truth in the Science of being, that the real man was, is, and ever shall be perfect, is incontrovertible; for if man is the image, reflection, of God, he is neither inverted nor subverted, (but upright and Godlike)" (page 200).

SENIOR NEWS

The Seniors are progressing nicely. We have been studying the "Prologue of The Canterbury Tales", in English.

We are expecting our pictures and plan to start working on our annuals.

The Seniors had the Bingo Stand and the Basketball booth, which brought in $91.00.

We had the cold drink stand at the football game Friday. The proceeds went to the Senior candidate for Hallowe'en Queen. Although she was not crowned, we supported her to the last and are proud of our accomplishments.

JUNIOR NEWS

We wish to thank each and everyone of you for the votes which have made Christine Rickel Hallowe'en Queen. The Juniors are very proud of Christine.

We have taken three weeks test in History and English. We are all progressing in History, but we're not doing so well in English. We are studying figures of speech, and sentence structure. We hope everyone does better next three weeks.

This year everyone enjoyed the carnival more because of the variety of things for entertainment.

The Carnival took in about $900.00.

Jerry, we hear you had a better time Friday night than usual. Could Allen have had anything to do with it?

Geraldine, why didn't you go home with Aldean Sunday? You might have had a good time.

Margarie, you looked very cute Saturday night, with H. C. David, we didn't see you and Mildred out Saturday night. We wonder why?

Who's basketball jackets were Christine and Frances sporting Saturday night? P. S. We wonder.

Mary Jo, you seemed happy Friday after the carnival. Could it be because of Charles' presence?

Johnnie, Roland, and Allen seemed to hang near the Junior booth Friday night. We wonder why?

Velda W. did you and Bobby C. have a fight, too? We heard Corene and Zane did.

Well, Gwendolyn, we see you and Charles Lee are at it again. You're not happy, are you?

First it's Dorothy and Billy; then it's Dorothy and James. What about Bobbie Lee. Dot?

We hear that Mary Leigh and studying is needed, though. We started practicing the P. T. A. play Tuesday. We decided not to have "While the Toast Burned".

QUEEN CHRISTINE

Christine Rickel was crowned queen of Star High School, Friday night, Oct. 31, 1947, at the Hallowe'en Carnival. She was dressed in a pale blue formal with a white carnation corsage and a white veil. Her escort was Allen Poe. The Queen's attendants were Mary Leigh Aldredge and Billy Baker. The crown was white with small red and blue stars on it and shined silver stencil on both edges.

All four high school classes worked very hard, but the Juniors won. It looked as if they were beaten when at the last minute, one hundred and twenty two dollars and nineteen cents was turned in. When added to the other they had two hundred and four dollars and sixty eight cents. The Seniors came next with one hundred and seventy eight dollars and fifty nine cents. The Sophomores had fifty nine dollars and seventy five cents. The Freshmen had four dollars and sixty one cents.

When the grammar school money was added to this, the queen race alone brought six hundred and thirteen dollars and sixty three cents.

The carnival was a great success and was concluded about ten fifteen when the queens were crowned. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.

HALLOWEEN QUEEN

On October 31, 1947, at 10:15 at Star Gym, the queens race ended with May Bell Cox elected grammar school queen.

She wore a corsage of pink gardenias and cream colored roses on her pink cream satin evening dress. The dress was trimmed in black sequins and velvet ribbon. She wore matching ribbons in her hair.

She was escorted by King Doyle Duncan. Ethylene McChasland was her lady-in-waiting.

We wish to thank all who helped make her Queen.

The final votes in grammar school were as follows:

Seventh and Eighth—$87.97.
Fifth and Sixth—$15.61.
Third and Fourth—$51.61.
First and Second—$11.16.

HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL

The Star School and P. T. A. had the Hallowe'en Carnival last Friday night.

The Seniors had the "Bingo stand", the Juniors had "Darts for Cakes", rather than the usual cake walk. The Sophomores had charge of the Cat rack and the Freshmen had the rifle range.

This year everyone enjoyed the carnival more because of the variety of things for entertainment.

The Carnival took in about $900.00.

Jerry, we hear you had a better time Friday night than usual. Could Allen have had anything to do with it?

Geraldine, why didn't you go home with Aldean Sunday? You might have had a good time.

Well, Gwendolyn, we see you and Charles Lee are at it again. You're not happy, are you?

First it's Dorothy and Billy; then it's Dorothy and James. What about Bobbie Lee. Dot?

We hear that Mary Leigh and Jerry Covington are getting along all right. Friday and Saturday night, both.

Christine, you certainly looked beautiful when you were crowned queen. You, too, Mae Bell.

Oh! We have so many new couples; Janetha and Doyle, Lottie and Norval, Billy B. and Velda B. Jerry Covington and Mary Leigh, Margarie and H. C., Jerry Collier and Allen Poe, and Sue and O'Dale.

Frances we see you and Buck are getting along real well. Glad?

All we talk about are our new couples, but everyone has not broken up. We still have Valley and Arnold, Christine and Roland, David and Mildred, Mary Jo and Charles, Cecil and Ruth, Johnnie and Uvaughn and it looks like all of these are for keeps.

May Bell seems as though you have been seeing a lot of that "little red shooter". Couldn't be Eddie Jenness, could it?

There were some new and old twosomes at Lola's party Saturday night. The new ones are: June and Sammie, Velda B. and Jerry Dean, Alice and "Buck" also Janetha Lee and Doyle. The old ones are: Mattie Joe and Marvin, Christine and Roland, and Bonnie and Dixie. Last, but not least are: Jerry and Jomie, Valley and Arnold, and Ruth Ell and Cecil.

If you see a blond headed boy in Star school with all smiles and grins, you will know it's Billy Harper, because he is going to crown the Football Sweetheart or "His" sweetheart at the football game Thursday. Also, he is to have his picture made with "Dot" for the Annuals.

Frances, you shouldn't have gone to Fort Worth Saturday night! James really wanted to go with you!

Dorothy, why have you been trying to get Roland to go with a Lometa girl instead of Christine? Could it be that you don't want strong competition on the Queen race?

Harvey, when you go after Oma Lee, please put another girl in the car and less boys.

THE PIRATES' TREASURE

(Written for last week)
PRIDDY FHA CHAPTER

The FHA Chapter has successfully carried out a monthly meeting.

The meeting was called to order. The secretary called the roll and read the minutes.

The program committee then took over. The program committee had asked a boy in high school to get the opinion of all the boys in high school on some questions given to him by the committee.

The questions and answers given were as follows:

1. How should a girl act when eating with a boy?

A girl when eating with a boy should have manners. A boy doesn't want to be seen with a girl who has no manners which sometimes cause embarrassment. But a girl should not put on all her manners, for boys realize that girls usually have more manners than a boy. And also, a boy likes to feel equal to the girl he is dining with.

2. How should a girl apply her make-up?

The boys seem to agree on their opinions quite a bit. They all seem to like the idea of wearing a little make-up. The type of make-up that looks natural. They don't seem to like the idea of girls wearing rouge.

3. How should a girl dress to go to school, basket ball games, parties, etc.?

When choosing dresses the boys of Priddy don't seem to like the idea of girls wearing long dresses, although long dresses is probably the style for spring. They are helping Gracie Allen. Most boys like dresses worn to school just below the knees. Plain dresses made of cotton material or something similar to that. Dresses worn to basketball games should be about the same. But something that will give the dress a touch of sport may be worn. To parties and similar gatherings a little longer dress should be worn. Then to add a more dress-up look a corsage or something to that accord may be worn.

4. How should girls act on dates and when asked what should their answer be?

She should keep the conversation going and speak of interesting things. When asked for a date, a girl should be able to say "no." If the boy is really interested he will do his best to earn a date from the girl. And if he doesn't come back you know you haven't lost a thing.

5. What length should dresses be worn?

All boys here at Priddy seem to agree that dresses should be worn just below the knees. At most social gatherings dresses should cover the knees.

6. What length should finger nails be worn?

The girls' desire usually determines the length of her nails. And if she wants to please the boys she can wear her nails as the boys desire.

7. What color should nail polish be worn?

The boys seem to like the natural tint of nail polish. Except for special occasions.

8. Should girls suggest where to go on dates?

Yes, the boys want the girls to suggest where to go, but not to be too insistant. Instead she can suggest more than one place. Then let the boy make his choice.

The program then had a personal clinic for "How you can improve yourself."

BASKETBALL GAMES

Thursday night of last week the Pirates went to Alexander for two games. Both teams were in high spirits, which helped them throughout the games.

The girls were successful in their game, which ended in a victory for Priddy. The final score being 6-14.

Although the Alexander boys won by a victory of 11-13, they didn't win an easy game. Our boys showed that they weren't easily defeated, and given a second chance they will end the game a victory for Priddy.

Both teams are indeed grateful for the splendid backing given them by the pep squad and the community.

THE UNMASKED EYE

Edeline, you really pick them tall, don't you? Could it have been Shorty?

Bettie Marie, you must certainly like those blue Fords around Priddy. One night it's Alfred's, and the next night it's Walter Niemann's.

Bernice Bufo, who did actually bring you home Sunday night? Alma Jean, you and Walton can find a way around even if the car is broken down.

Ruth, why don't you hand your gum around to the others instead of chewing a package at a time by yourself? Howard doesn't like that.

Hertha, I heard your sister-in-law has a brother about your age. Or do you still prefer Oland?

Ramona, what! Why weren't you with Leo Sunday night? What's wrong already, or was it muddy out your way?

Geneva, where does Rosie keep his letters? Huh!

La Verne, did Henry shave when he took you out Sunday night?

Charline S., you must have been disappointed Sunday, because Homer didn't make it.

Pete! Charline is so heart-broken whenever you don't speak to her.

Family Reunion

Mrs. C. F. Williams and son, Bill, were pleasantly surprised Oct. 26 by the arrival of all the children for a family reunion. The first such occasion in fifteen years.

Gifts were presented to their mother, and church services attended then the table was loaded with foods for all appetites. After luncheon began a session of reminiscing and relating 'highlights' of the past, which was abruptly closed by the Camera

Fans. That desire having been satisfied it was time to end the gala affair, since some had to start for home, but all left hoping to repeat this gathering more frequently in the future.

Those present at some time during the day were:

Mrs. C. F. Williams, Bill Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Henry McFadin, Mrs. Guy Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Osborn all of Iraan, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jordan of Mineral Wells, Miss Alta Williams of Oklahoma City, Okla., Mr. Bub Johnson, a nephew of the late Mr. Cam Williams, and Misses Abbie and Ruth Ervin, nieces of Mrs. Williams.

LOST: $5,000,000

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 4—A little time and trouble now, plus some rotenone, can put Texas cattle—and dairymen, on the on the road to saving $5 million.

How? By spraying for cattle grubs.

Statistics show that forty-two percent of all Texas cattle are grubby. Grubby cattle are discounted on the market at about one cent a pound. The total loss to Texans in the cattle and dairy business in terms of milk, meat and leather each year comes close to five million dollars.

Most farms and ranches cause their own trouble with grubs. Extension entomologists for Texas A. and M. College point out. Heel flies are the parents of grubs, and the flies seldom migrate over half-a-mile. So treatment for grubs in the fall and winter will control the heel fly on the farm and ranch in the spring.

Spray the backs of the animals with a mixture of 7½ pounds of 5 percent rotenone in 100 gallons of water at about 30-day intervals in the fall and winter, the entomologists say. Rotenone dust can be used on small herds.

Control now will help to save feed next year, too, as it takes

Where They Lie Hope Can't Die

The marked graves of tens of thousands of our boys—of all races, colors and creeds—and the monument to the Unknown Soldier are a constant challenge to all of us to fight unflinchingly for unending peace.

This anniversary of one war's ending becomes even more significant when we also think in terms of the war which followed it. For each war is always bigger and more tragic than the last. We can create no more fitting memorial to all our war dead than the preservation of this world as a peaceful world in which their survivors can live in security.
