New Mills County Agricultural Building

THE MILLS COUNTY AGRICULTURAL BUILDING pictured above is nearing completion. This building was constructed from two surplus buildings secured from Camp Bowie on a priority held by the Brown-Mills SCD. It is located on the old Fairman Gin lot donated by Earl Fairman. The Mills County Agricultural Buildings will be used cooperatively by the Mills County Livestock Association to hold their annual livestock show and the Brown-Mills District to store their equipment and for use as office space. The building is 25 feet wide and 224 feet long with the office space occupying 50 feet of the length.

DRIVE FOR FUNDS TO PAY FOR MILLS COUNTY AGRICULTURAL BUILDING NOW UNDER WAY

The Mills County Livestock Raisers' Association, in a meeting for the first time in the new Mills County Agricultural Building last Thursday night, outlined plans for and appointed committees to put on a drive over Mills County to pay off the cost of the new Mills County Agricultural Building which is now nearing completion. They will work together with the Mills County Soil Conservation Group.

Livestock Raisers' Association officers are R. L. Steen, President; Willis Horton, Vice-President; and Glenn Collier, Secretary-Treasurer. The Twelfth Annual Mills County Livestock Show will be held in the new building in January, 1949, and it will be used for all agricultural purposes.

The people of Mills County should really be proud of the new Mills County Agricultural Building. In view of the recent history being made by our local 4-H Club and F.F.A. boys in their winnings at practically all Livestock Shows and Judging Contests, we should back them here at home and we can do just that by helping the boys in raising money to relieve the debt which has occurred in building the Agriculture Building.

Remember we could not have our County 4-H and F.F.A. Show last year because of bad weather and a good building such as we have erected now would have prevented the putting off of our show. If we could have had a suitable building last year Mills County people could have had the chance to see one of the greatest group of prize winning steers to ever be assembled from one county.

If you have not seen the Agricultural Building take a few minutes off some time while in town and go down and look it over. We don't quite have it completed, but we do intend to put the finishing touches to it before long. As it now stands, you will see a building with dimensions of 25 feet wide and 224 feet long. You will find the building on the Fairman Gin lot, down two blocks behind the locker plant.

Some people who have seen the building have estimated it to be worth $10,000, as it now stands, and it has cost us far less.

The men who have made this building possible by their untiring efforts are Messrs. Bob Steen, Malcolm Jernigan, Willis Horton, Willis Hill and Hobart Priddy.

Mills County now has a place to hold all agriculture events regardless of nature, as long as it is agriculture. It is something that we should be proud of for ourselves, our community and 4-H and F.F.A. boys and girls.

Let us all look the building over. We know you will be proud of it. See what you think it is worth and let's get behind these men, club boys and girls and help them pay for it. Then we can stick our chest out and say proudly that it belongs to the people of Mills County.

Committees have been appointed for each community. Let's contact these committees and help them with our donations. The following committees have been appointed for each community:

Center City—W. V. Horton, Sherwood Owens.

Star—Avery Poe, Art Egger, Wesley Woodard, Ernest O'Neal.

POLITICS WARMING UP IN CENTRAL TEXAS THIS WEEK

With the State Democratic Convention to be held at Brownwood next Tuesday when delegates will be named to the national presidential nomination convention to be held in Philadelphia in June, the whole top of the lid of politics is expected to be blown off. Bitter controversy is expected to be shown on matters of instructed or uninstructed delegates to the national convention, states rights, civil rights, tideland ownership and others. Earl Fairman and Charlie Wilson are to represent Mills County at Brownwood.

Charles L. South, candidate for Congress, has been through Goldthwaite this week, and a new name, that of J. R. Eanes of Comanche was filed for State Representative from Mills and Comanche Counties Monday just before the deadline with Mills County Democratic Chairman Joe A. Palmer.

Political-minded citizens of Mills County still have lots of time to file for county and precinct offices, the deadline being June 19.

Senator W. Lee O'Daniel was scheduled to announce his plans for re-election or otherwise in a radio address from Fort Worth last night. Already in the race for U. S. Senator are former Governor Coke Stevenson, Geo. E. B. Peddy, Rep. Lyndon Johnson, and F. B. Clark.

Much Advertising Being Done For Third Annual Goldthwaite Rodeo

Much enthusiasm is being manifested by citizens of the county in the coming Third Annual Rodeo Cowboys Association-Approved World Championship Rodeo scheduled for three night performances at Jernigan Arena two miles east of Goldthwaite on Monday, May 31, and Tuesday and Wednesday, June 1 and 2.

The Goldthwaite Lions Club Advertising Committee composed of D. H. Holland, M. E. Blake, John L. Gwin, D. D. Tate, Mrs. William G. Yarborough, and Mrs. J. H. Harrell, is doing a good job of advertising the Rodeo in this and surrounding counties and beyond.

The town this week is decorated with two streamers across the main street and individual flag decorations in front of most of the stores. Window signs were being painted yesterday in many of the store windows.

Next week The Eagle will publish its special Rodeo Edition, Spot Saylor, accompanied by Dan Holland, will take off in his new Speeder airplane early next week to distribute circulars from the air on a 1000-mile trip covering Santa Anna, Coleman, Weatherford, Waco, Belton, Temple, and many other towns that cannot be covered by the Caravan.

CARAVAN STARTS OFF THURSDAY MORNING

Next Thursday morning a motor Caravan will leave Goldthwaite on a south and west tour of surrounding towns. All cars and people who can go are asked to please notify Dan Holland at the Coffee Shop Rodeo Headquarters. There will be plenty of cars to take care of all who wish to go. The High School Band and Hobson Miller's string band and a loud speaker furnished by Joe B. Karnes will be along. All cars and people wishing to go will assemble on the court house lawn next Thursday morning at 8 o'clock. The route that day will cover Lometa, Lampasas, Burnet, Llano, Mason, Brady, Rochelle, Richland Springs, San Saba and back to Goldthwaite.

Friday morning they will again assemble at the court house lawn for a trip east and north to cover Star, Evans, Hamilton, Hico, Stephenville, Dublin, Comanche, Brownwood, Zephyr, Mullin, and back to Goldthwaite. At Brownwood, which is expected to be reached about 3:30 p. m., the Caravan will be met by the Rotary Club Band and escorted through the city by horseback riders from the Pecan Valley Riders Club.

Reserve seat tickets for all three nights of the performance are on sale at The Coffee Shop Headquarters today.

RODEO STOCK BY SPROTT AND SPENCE

The Sprott & Spence Ranch at Killeen will furnish the stock for the Goldthwaite Rodeo, under the direction of Darrell B. Sprott, Rodeo Producer. One of the best in the business, Charlie Schultz, will clown the show.

Goldthwaite Lions Club Committees For New Year Announced Tues.

At the regular third Tuesday night meeting of the Goldthwaite Lions Club at The Hangar, committees appointed by President Joe B. Karnes to serve for the new year were read by Secretary Ray Duren, and other business transacted.

Motion was carried to hold meetings during the baseball season this summer at noon at each first and third Tuesdays instead of at night, in order that members could attend the games of the Mills County Softball League, which the Lions Club is sponsoring.

Discussion was had on ways to raise money for the club to carry on its work. The major activities committee of the club is working on several ideas, one of which may be a boxing tournament to be put on at the baseball park.

County Agent D. B. McCombs said the Mills County 4-H Club encampment would be held on June 3 and 4 at a place yet to be selected, and invited Lions Club members to visit the en-

THE NATURAL
REGAIN HEALTH

Chiropractic is a natural method by which to keep strong and healthy. Thousands of individuals have been restored to robust health and vigorous activity by the application of its principles, and its impressive record of achievement in restoring sick people to health merits your consideration, investigation and trial.

Chiropractic does not "treat" effects. Its objective is to "adjust" causes. There must be a cause for every effect, and the Chiropractic premise is that interference to the proper transmission of nerve force creates a bodily condition of disease. Vigorous health is only contributed by the healthy and normal function of the forces within your own body. Chiropractic adjustment restores and maintains normal function.

CASE REPORT:—Middle aged man taken to bed with severe back condition and excruciating pains in legs. Unable to stand up and confined to bed. After a month in bed at home, was removed to hospital where many tests and examinations were made. A possible cancerous tumor was one diagnosis and crushed lumbar vertebrae was another. An operation was recommended as the best chance for recovery. While contemplating his decision, a friend induced him to go to a Chiropractor. Results were soon incoming and progress was constant. Was back on his job full time in four months.

'KILLER MCCOY' FAST ACTION PICTURE' MICKEY ROONEY TOPS

Mickey Rooney, Brian Donlevy, Ann Blyth and James Dunn are the principals of M-G-M's vivid "Killer McCoy," which shows Saturday night prevue, Sunday and Monday at the Melba Theatre and which comes as one of the most punch-filled and excitement-packed dramas to reach the screen in some time.

Young Rooney reaches the peak of his acting career in this story of Tommy McCoy, tough tenement kid who achieves notoriety when he accidentally kills his opponent in the prize-ring with an unlucky punch. Big-time gambler Jim Caghn becomes interested in the young fighter and gives him a build-up as a boxer who must rely on his left punch. In reality, Tommy packs a terrific right, and the gambler intends to make a clean-up before his victims get wise. Meanwhile, Tommy falls in love with the promoter's daughter, Sheila, but Caghn, wanting her to marry well, opposes their friendship. When Tommy is scheduled to meet Patsy Cigones, number one challenger for the title, Caghn tricks Cecil Walsh, a rival gambler, into placing fifty thousand dollars on Cigones. While drunk, Tommy's weakling father, Brian, reveals that Caghn is backing Tommy, which results in Walsh's henchmen kidnapping both Brian and Sheila. He then notifies Tommy that to insure their safety he must throw the fight in the eighth round. The suspense that is engendered up to the story's thrilling climax makes for explosive dramatic material.

The marriage of Miss Willene Perkins and Milton G. Tate was solemnized in a twilight ceremony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis D. Tate Saturday, May 15, at 7:30. The Rev. Joseph Emery officiated at the double ring service. The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Perkins and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis D. Tate.

The couple exchanged their vows before a living room desk with a large mirror banked with gladioli and fern.

The bride wore a tulle two piece original of creme tissue flannel accented with dark brown accessories. Her corsage was a large orchid.

Mrs. Dale McCasland, matron of honor, chose a dress of aqua shantung with black accessories and white carnation corsage.

Dale McCasland served as the groom's best man. Only the immediate families of the couple were present.

Mrs. Tate graduated from Mullin High School and Durham Business College in Austin and is employed by The Trent State Bank.

Mr. Tate is a graduate of Goldthwaite High School, attended Texas Tech, and served more than two years overseas in the Navy during World War II. He is employed by The Fort Worth Poultry and Egg Co.

Engagement Announced

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Marilyn Woodward Gravett of Winchester, Ky., to Cpl. William Richard Hendry of Elgin Field, Florida, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hollis Hendry of Goldthwaite, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Gravett, Sr., also of Winchester, Kentucky.

The wedding will be Sunday, May 23.

'WILD HARVEST'

A starring combine that should arouse a great deal of interest among film fans is that in Paramount's new action thriller, "Wild Harvest." The film, due Tuesday and Wednesday at the Melba Theatre, boasts starring roles filled by Alan Ladd, Dorothy Lamour, Robert Preston and Lloyd Nolan, supported by Dick Erdman and Allen Jenkins.

"Wild Harvest" is, in Ladd's own words: "The toughest and the roughest picture I have ever made," which ought to satisfy his countless followers. For the first time he teamed with the sultry, stunning Dorothy Lamour, who has a straight dramatic role in the film that is set in the great wheat belt of America. She is called upon to portray a predatory female, determined to get off her uncle's farm by fair means or foul. To accomplish her purpose she first attaches herself to Ladd and when things don't go according to her plan, she marries Robert Preston, Ladd's friend. The romantic part of the story comes to a fist-fighting climax as a result of Dorothy's playing one friend against the other.

(Written for last week)
By MRS. E. T. CROWDER

For the first time in over four years the local creeks were so swollen Wednesday evening by the rain and hail storm we had here, that the school bus was unable to cross to bring the children home. The good people of Indian Creek opened their homes to them, giving them good warm suppers and beds for the night. The children report "a good time was had by all."

Growing crops suffered some damage from the hail but were not ruined. Tanks were filled to overflowing assuring a supply of stock water this summer.

Miss Betty Hunter spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. E. T. Crowder while they sewed up fairy costumes for Misses Leona Hunter and Iris Jo Crowder who took part in a flower garden play given Friday night by the Brooksmith grammar school.

SALE OF TRANSMISSION LINE
"A Good Deal"
Says
Utility Manager Barnett

As a result of good business for your local owned electric utility, it now becomes necessary that increased power supply be secured. If this power supply is to be transmitted from Lower Colorado River Authority's System, which is the only logical source at this time, it is necessary to increase the carrying capacity of the existing line from Lometa, Texas.

In order for the City of Goldthwaite to do this they must spend additional money. 1. Reinsulate and raise voltage of line. 2. Build their own substation at the City Limits of Goldthwaite to lower this voltage again before entering distribution system. These two items would cost the City approximately $50,000.00. After taking these steps we would still have the maintenance and line loss costs to bear for some years to come.

We have negotiated a deal with the Lower Colorado River Authority whereby they assume all these costs, and furnish us with sufficient service at a point near town for thirty years at the same rate we are now paying for current at Lometa, Texas. We are asked to deed the line we now own to the Authority in return for their expenditure. The line as it now stands is and has been in excellent condition, we have had very little trouble with it, but, it is definitely a liability in the future and the only purpose it can ever serve is to bring current to our system.

Therefore we think this is a "Good Deal." We urge you as tax payer and voter to go to the polls next Monday and vote for this proposal. Whereby you will be giving your City Council the power to complete this transaction.

Sincerely,
W. C. BARNETT

We, the City Council of Goldthwaite hereby endorse the above.

BROWN, MILLS CO. OFFICIALS DISCUSS HIGHWAY SITUATION

Mills County road enthusiasts, headed by County Judge John L. Patterson, Monday morning met with the Brown County Commissioners Court to discuss highway projects for the two counties.

The Mills County delegation, besides the judge, included County Commissioner K. B. Henry of Mullin, J. H. Priddy, Fred Johnson, LeRoy Johnson, Arthur Gromatzky, W. W. Limmer, and C. R. Willis, all of Priddy, Mullin and Democrat.

At the meeting efforts were planned to get the long-sought highway from near Zephyr through Priddy on to Hamilton.

Brown County Judge A. E. Brown appointed Earl Looney of the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce to represent Brown in obtaining a traffic ordinance for the proposed road. A person named J. H. Patterson and W. W. Limmer, Fred Johnson, to represent Priddy area.

Brown County road men also discussed right-of-way needs for a proposed extension of State Highway 279 from Brownwood through Camp Bowie Reservation to Richland Springs. Part of this road will run through Mills County.

The Zephyr to Priddy highway on the route proposed from a point about three-fourths mile southeast of Zephyr, where the road would have a junction with U. S. 84, would open up a new and important direct connection between the East Texas and West Texas oil capitals of Tyler and Midland. The distance between those cities would be shortened by more than 50 miles if the Zephyr-Priddy link is built and a road from Sterling City through Robert Lee is completed.

From Zephyr, the route would run through Priddy to a paved FM road from the Hamilton county line near Priddy into Hamilton.

by the bride. In the lapel of his tuxedo, the groom wore a red rose, complimenting his bride's bouquet.

Best man to the groom was Kenneth Smith. Ushers to the friends attendance were Frank Howard, Gil Morse, Benson Ingraham, and Alfred Harris, all in tuxedos with white carnation boutonnieres.

The family sections of the church were designated with gardenias and white satin bows. Mrs. Tullos, mother of the bride, was in aqua crepe with black patent accessories, while Mrs. Post, the groom's mother, wore navy crepe with white accessories. Both wore Butterfly Brilliant rose corsages.

Following the wedding, a reception for 175 bidden guests was held in the banquet room of the church, where the beautiful four-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bridal couple, was cut in traditional style by the bride and groom.

For the honeymoon trip, the bride wore a light-weight wool dress of Queen Elizabeth blue with black patent accessories and off the face hat; her full length, swing back coat was of beige-grey with corsage of Sweetheart roses and orange-blossoms. The groom was also attired in beige-grey.

Amid the throwing of rice and old shoes, the newly-weds departed, honeymooning from Los Angeles to San Francisco with all its connotations of fun ashore, including beautiful Carmel-by-the-Sea and historic old Monterey.

Upon their return, they are residing in Palmdale, where the bride is resuming her teaching in the local school system until June at which time they will move to the Inyokern, Calif., Naval Base, where Mr. Post is employed by the Rocket Town school system as Speech Therapist and Psychologist for the ensuing year.

County Judge John L. Patter-son and Mayor Loy Long this week have received the following letter from Texas Governor Beauford H. Jester, which has also been sent to every county in Texas, in which the governor urges a statewide polio prevention campaign:

To The County Judges and Mayors of Texas:

The number of cases of poliomyelitis reported in Texas to date this year is more than has ever been reported during this period in any previous year.

You must not allow your people to become unduly excited or panic-stricken in the face of this situation, but I feel that all of us must bring to their attention the imperative necessity of prompt and thorough campaigns for improved programs of community, home, and personal sanitation.

I am attaching copy of the latest bulletin from the Texas State Department of Health giving suggestions for the prevention and control of this disease.

Through mass meetings, press interviews, and radio addresses, you will doubtless wish to bring to your citizens the information and the appeal for cooperation suggested in this report.

Your local health authorities, the representatives of the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis, and the American Red Cross, are all prepared to give expert leadership in the campaign.

It rests with the people, however,—all the people—to make the effort succeed and to save their community and their fellow-citizens from the serious consequences which can follow inattention to this appeal. To assist in promoting this educational campaign, it has been suggested that organizations such as parent-teachers campaign might organize every block in every city in Texas. It is too late for some child in some Texas family, if we wait until the disease appears in our respective communities before beginning the preventive campaign.

I therefore appeal to you as the chosen officials and leaders of the people in your respective communities to give this matter your first and continuing attention; to organize the undertaking within your jurisdictions in accordance with your best judgement; and, if you will, to send to me frequently—for the inspiration of our other communities—complete bulletins on the progress of the movement which you are directing.

I have the fullest confidence in the ability of the local governmental officials and of the people in their constituents to cope with this serious situation. Please call upon this office for any possible assistance you think we can give you.

Most sincerely yours,
BEAUFORD H. JESTER

SUGGESTIONS REGARDING CONTROL OF POLIOMYELITIS (INFANTILE PARALYSIS)

By GEO. W. COX, M. D., State Health Officer

The primary way by which the virus of Poliomyelitis is transmitted from person to person has not been definitely determined. Some think that it is spread by direct contact through droplet infections of the nose and throat. Others believe that the primary mode of transmission is by way of the gastrointestinal tract through ingestion of contaminated food or drink. It is also possible that flies, mosquitoes and insects may be important factors in the dissemination of this dreaded disease.

Since the exact way in which Poliomyelitis is spread has not been determined, preventive measures against ALL possible sources of infection should be taken when this disease is prevalent. The following suggestions should be taken during the summer and fall months when Poliomyelitis is more likely to occur:

1. When suspicious symptoms (headache, undetermined fever, vomiting, drowsiness, stiffness of neck or back) appear, a physician should be called at once.
2. Sudden chilling and over-exertion should be avoided.
3. Elective surgery involving the nose and throat should be postponed.
4. Good personal hygiene, especially of children, is very important at all times.
5. Children should avoid crowds and sick persons when Poliomyelitis is prevalent.
6. Individual home sanitation should be perfected to include approved water supply, waste disposal and proper control of insects, especially flies and mosquitoes. Raw fruits and vegetables should be cleaned well before using. Garbage containers should be covered at all times.
7. Community sanitation should be rigidly controlled the year around. The following recommendations are offered:
 - a. Approved water and sewerage systems.
 - b. Proper disposal of garbage and other waste products.
 - c. Sanitary supervision of public swimming pools.
 - d. Adequate supervision of all food handling establishments in order to assure compliance with State Food and Drug Laws, especially regarding sterilization of dishes and utensils.
 - e. Elimination of flies, mosquitoes, insects and rats as far as possible by use of DDT

(Continued from page one) towns advertising the Rodeo to leave their names with Dan Holland at the Coffee Shop, if they could go either day, with or without furnishing a car. The Caravan will make a trip to the south on next Thursday, May 27, and again to the north next Friday. Letters will be written to all Lions Clubs in towns to be visited advising them of the approximate time of the Caravan's arrival.

Ex-President Saegert also presented Lion membership attendance buttons to three Goldthwaite Lions who were 100 per cent in attendance at meetings here during the last club year. They are Lions Joe B. Karnes, W. P. Duren, and John Jackson.

Lion T. C. Graves called the club's attention to the new Agricultural Building just completed here through the efforts of the Mills County Soil Conservation Group, and said a drive would be made soon to finance the cost of the two buildings bought at Camp Bowie and moved here to lots donated for their free use by Earl Fairman. He asked the members to support the finance drive 100 per cent, saying the new show buildings would be a fine place for all agricultural groups of the county to use.

Following are the committees appointed to serve the club the coming year by Lion President Karnes:

They Not Only Grow 'Em - They Know 'Em

MILLS COUNTY 4-H CLUB AND FFA BOYS have made history in the livestock raising and judging contests over Texas this year and last. Last year, a Mills County boy won Grand Champion honors at the Houston Show. This year Mills County boys won Grand Champion and Reeve Champion at the Houston Show, and Grand Champions at the Brownwood and San Angelo Shows—breaking an all-time record for one Texas county. To prove that they know 'em as well as grow 'em, Vocational Ag. Teacher Y. B. Johnson took a team from here to College Station and entered them in the A. and M. Livestock Judging Contest May 1. Competing with teams from all over the state, Mills County boys won first place and will represent the State of Texas at the National Judging contest at Kansas City on October 10. Pictured above is the team: Left to right: Coach Y. B. Johnson, Robert Henry Johnson, Bobbie Burks, and Robert (Red) Miller.

Commencement Program Next Wednesday Closes Goldthwaite Schools

Rev. J. L. Emery preached the Baccalaureate Sermon to the graduating class of the Goldthwaite High Schools last Sunday night at the Baptist Church. An excellent program was rendered before a large crowd. Next Wednesday night at 8 p. m., the Commencement Exercises will be rendered at the Grammar School Auditorium here, which will close one of the most successful school terms in the school's history. Dean E. J. Howell of John Tarleton College, Stephenville, will address the graduating class. Programs for both the Baccalaureate and Commencement will be found in the center pages of this section, in which merchants of the town congratulate the Seniors. There are 44 candidates for graduation this year, as follows:

Body Of Capt. T. H. McArthur Due To Arrive In New York Today

An Army release just received by the Eagle lists Capt. T. H. McArthur, Air Force, whose father is Tom McArthur of Caradan as being among the 2,530 World War II dead on the U. S. Army Transport Barney Kirschbaum, which is due to arrive in New York harbor today or tomorrow. The body will be returned to Mills County for reburial at the request of next of kin.

Also on the transport is the body of Pvt. Billy J. Conner, Army; next of kin, Mrs. Verbenia Matlock, Brownwood. Remains of 2,530 Americans who lost their lives during World War II are being returned to the United States from Africa aboard the United States Army Transport Barney Kirschbaum, the Department of the Army announced today. Arrival of the vessel will be announced by the New York Port of Embarkation.

Armed forces dead originally interred in temporary military cemeteries near the battlefields of North Africa are among those being brought back to this country. A total of 122 remains are being returned upon instructions of next of kin residing in Texas.

The Army stated that each next of kin would be notified in advance of the return of remains. From ten days to three weeks will elapse after arrival of the ship before Distribution Centers of the American Graves Registration Service will be able to advise next of kin of the date when they may expect to receive remains.

Under the program for final burial of World War II dead, next of kin may elect to have remains returned to the United States for burial in a private or National Cemetery, or may re-

Crime More Prevalent In Cities Than In Country, Survey Shows

MILLS COUNTY In the survey of inmates in Texas prisons during the ten years, 1937-1947, Mills County is listed in seventh place among the lowest prison population percentage to the whole population. Mills County had five convicts in Texas prisons during the ten years, with a percentage of .62 convicts to the 1,000 population.

The lowest counties are Kenedy, Loving and McMullen, which had no convicts in prison during the period, while the highest percentage county in the state was Culberson, which had 16.93 convicts to each 1,000 population. The county with the largest number of convicts was Harris, with 3,087.

Hamilton County had 33 inmates, which figures 2.48 per thousand population. Comanche County had 56 prisoners, 2.90 per 1,000; San Saba County, 38 and 3.45; Lampasas County, 33 and 3.60; Llano County, 29 and 4.83; Brown County, 157 and 6.05.

Huntsville, May 12—In the past 11 years there have been 26,231 criminal convictions in the state of Texas. The worst area in the state is the trans-Pecos region where El Paso, Hudspeth and Culberson counties show criminal convictions of 8.78, 12.01 and 16.93 per 1,000 population from 1937 to 1947.

The state average number of convictions per 1,000 of population is 3.39. The figures were announced in a recently published study of crime in Texas made by Dr. R. C. Koeninger of Sam Houston State College with the cooperation of prison officials in Huntsville. Three counties, Kenedy, Loving and McMullen have had no criminal convictions over the 11-year period. Five counties have accounted for one-third of all criminals convicted in the eleven years. Harris, Dallas, Bexar, El Paso and Tarrant counties sent up 8,751 criminals. The Koeninger study, in general, indicates a close correlation between crime and population density; in other words, there is more crime in big city areas than in rural districts. Although all figures are for counties, cities can be assumed ample, the five top counties on the basis of criminal convictions are the counties in which Houston, Dallas, San Antonio, El Paso and Fort Worth are located. Each of the five counties mentioned tops the average figure for convictions per county on a population basis. Tarrant county is the best of the five with its 4.84 convictions per 1,000 population and El Paso the worst with 8.78 per 1,000. More than 90 regular Navy and Naval Reserve officers have been assigned as Navy Liaison officers for Scouting, assisting and instructing American Sea Scouts in nautical subjects. U. S. Navy scientists expect to be able to produce temperatures within .001 degrees of absolute zero (-459.7 degrees Fahrenheit).

Mills County
Veterans' Vocational School

(Written for last week)
The agriculture instructors and co-ordinator of our school plan to attend a meeting at the Black Land Experiment Station at Temple on Friday, May 14, for research and demonstration work. This is a general conference for all the agriculture teachers of the Waco region. Problems of soil conservation, field research, erosion of soil and other topics of interest to farmers will be considered.

Mr. Carothers, agriculture instructor for the Star group, states that quite a number of goats and sheep in this county are infested with lice and need to be treated. So his class constructed a portable dipping vat of sheet metal which can be moved from place to place on a small truck or pick-up and easily handled by two men. This will solve the dipping problem for several farmers if they work together, and with but small cost to any one person. Another project of the class at Star has been to put a concrete floor in the shop. It is now ready for use and will prove of great help as the boys can bring their machinery into the shop for repairs.

Mr. White's ag. class is planning a grass seed harvester which will be made in the shop at the Vocational School here. This should be a very valuable project as there is great need for saving native grasses to reseed the pastures which have been over grazed and depleted. All of the instructors for agriculture have been making special studies and research work in pasture preservation for the past several days.

Wednesday of this week Mr. Harriston's class made a visit to the Owens ranch for a demonstration in soil conservation, study of grasses and pasture lands, etc. Mr. Ford of Mullin region and Mr. Duren at Priddy have also been doing work of similar nature during the week.

The boys in T. and I. class, under Mr. Locklear, have recently rebuilt the home of Mrs. Weaver, which was occupied by our county agent, Mr. McCombs, and was destroyed by fire some days ago.

Distributive education classes under Mr. Williams and Mr. Swindle have dedicated their new building by holding classes in it this week. But it is not quite finished.

HILLSIDE MISSION

By LIDA BYRNE
When you hear the bell, which is on top of the little Hillside Mission please pray, regardless of where you are or what you are doing. Cares of this life and so many material duties detract from devotional duties, but when we hear the Mission bell it announces the time of such devotions—to pause right where we are and lift our hearts and minds to the Higher Power, and when so-doing, please speak a little prayer for us also. A man, who had been a sinner, like every one of us have been, or are, had repented of his sins—he had been born again—he was regenerated and had been converted, said, soon after the Mission had been built and the bell installed, that he heard that bell. He said he did not know who was ringing it or where it was but that it was ringing for him. Friend, it is ringing for you also for a prayer meeting regardless of any and all circumstances, and wherever you may be at that time. God's word tells us in St. Matthew 6:6 that a prayer in secret is effectual: "But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly."

GENERAL REVENUE ALL-TIME HIGH

General fund of Texas at $64,690,420 after Mr. Geo. H. Sheppard transferred over ten million from the clearance of the net balance at the April was fifty-four million. Due to tremendous income from nearly all sources of the Available School Fund, Sheppard has reduced the amount taken from Omnibus to make up the $55 per capita. This leaves more for General Revenue. Crude Oil tax is running at almost eight million per month, an undreamed of figure two years ago. Carbon Black, Cement, Sulphur, Natural Gas, Auto Sales, Cigarette and Insurance Company Occupation Taxes all exceed last year's receipts and contribute to the General Revenue surplus.

Mr. John Schlee, of the Lower Cowhouse Conservation group, has started a second year deferment of his native pasture. He deferred this pasture last year from June 1st to frost and was well pleased with the amount of seed, plant growth and root growth he received. He is chiefly interested in allowing his native grasses to retain their vigor and also to create a mulch on the soil to prevent runoff. A bare pasture will not allow rainfall to penetrate the soil and it has been determined that approximately 54 percent of the water will run off and leave the grass in want of moisture during the "dry summer."

Lee Priddy, of the Upper Cowhouse Conservation Group, and Charlie Swindle, of the Washboard Conservation Group, each built 3500 feet and 2300 feet of diversions respectively. These were built above cultivated fields to keep excess pasture water from washing their fields. These diversions were built by Lee Parker with a bull dozer.

A meeting was held recently with the Center Point Community for the purpose of organizing a group in this community. The meeting was held by technicians of the Soil Conservation and six farmers of that community were present. Applications for assistance of conservation work on their farms were submitted to the supervisors of the Brown-Mills Conservation District by J. N. Faith, J. D. Walton, J. M. Spinks, Mrs. Jewell Gartman, J. D. Manual, and B. F. Mahan. Two other farmers, who are now co-operators, will be members of this group. They are Gail H. New and Calvin Ross.

An application meeting was held recently with the Mt. Olive Conservation Group. Colored slides of conservation practices in Mills County were shown and explained by technicians of the Soil Conservation Service. At this meeting five co-operators and their families were present.

SWIFT & COMPANY HELPING SUPER-PHOSPHATE PRODUC'N.

Production operations in three new Swift & Company superphosphate plants, which started in May, will help meet the urgent need for increased supplies of superphosphate in the mid-west and southwest, C. T. Prindle, vice president, in charge of plant food operations, reports.

"Swift & Company's expansion in the production of superphosphates was taken to keep pace with the greatly increased demand in the midwest and southwestern states," Prindle pointed out. "Phosphate is the principal ingredient of complete plant foods and also is widely used alone on soil conserving crops in connection with the government's soil conservation program."

The new phosphate acidulating units, located at Cleveland, Ohio, East St. Louis, Illinois, and Shreveport, La., will have a combined annual capacity up to Raw phosphate for the new superphosphate plants will be supplied from two company mines in the rich Florida phosphate field near Bartow.

"During the war and since, farmers have become increasingly aware of the value of phosphates in helping boost the production of feed and forage crops," Prindle reported.

"Phosphates are important in the development of a vigorous root system in growing plants."

"The benefits from the use of superphosphates, however, does not stop with increased yields. They also hasten maturity, resulting in less soft corn following early frosts.

"Phosphates also contribute to higher quality and more nutritive foods and feed. Research has shown that animals and humans who eat phosphate-enriched foods and feeds derive nutritional advantages from the extra phosphorus and also from other minerals, including calcium and sulphur, which are present in superphosphates."

The four largest producers of lumber in the nation account for only five per cent of the total lumber production.

There are only about two hundred actual working days in the average Southern Pine saw-mill, due to the high average rainfall throughout the South, which curtails operations.

Our WASHINGTON Letter

By Congressman O. C. FISHER

BOOST FOR AIR FORCE

Last week the Senate, by a vote of 74-to-2, put its approval on the 70-group air force, previously overwhelmingly endorsed by the House.

Opponents of a strong air force have fought a rear-guard action, some claiming that it is an attempt to sidetrack UMT, and others frankly contending, as did Senator Taylor and his running mate, Henry Wallace, that it is unnecessary and is evidence of warlike intentions. They are afraid it would hurt Joe Stalin's feelings.

These opponents of a strong air force are wholly unimpressed by the fact that Russia is stronger in the air than we are and is, according to Secretary of Air Symington, building bombers and jet planes faster today than we are.

America is of course, stronger industrially, stronger in oil, stronger in transportation (Russian railroad mileage is but one-fourth of ours), and under our free enterprise system is far superior to the communist system when it comes to capacity for production.

But militarily Russia is said to be stronger at the moment. The appeasers who are afraid of offending the Soviets seem to overlook the fact that the Russian army hovers around 4,000,000 men, not counting the satellites. This compares with a current strength of less than 600,000 men in the United States Army ground forces.

Estimates of the Russian Air Forces range from 8,000 to 16,000 first-line combat planes, with from 600,000 to 700,000 men in the Soviet Air Force. This compares with our 2,000 fighter planes and only around 500 bombers. The Air Forces report that the reserve planes are largely obsolescent. In our own air force we now have only 350,000 men.

Yet, in the face of these facts, we find all sorts of excuses being given for opposing a strong army, navy and air force in this country! Fortunately, the appeasers are very much in the minority today. It is generally agreed that this move for a strong air force will have the effect of stilling the hand of Stalin more than any other thing we could do.

THE DRAFT BILL

The House Committee on Armed Services has reported a selective service bill designed to bring our total military personnel up to 2,000,000 men, including the army, navy and air forces. At present there are only 1,200,000 in uniform.

The House bill covers men from 19 through 25, with two-year voluntary enlistments being permitted in lieu of induction. Exemptions go to Purple Heart holders, veterans over 12 months' service; to veterans with 90 days' to 12 months' service, if members of organized reserve units; veterans with combat service; reserves in organized units on the effective date of the Act, and persons entering organized reserve units after the Act is passed who enter before 18 and 1-2 years of age.

Deferments would be fashioned after the wartime draft law, with a more liberal provision for students. Essential workers, including those in agriculture, would be subject to deferment.

The actual rate of voluntary enlistments during the past year has averaged between 12,000 and 24,000 per month. But in order to maintain the present authorized army strength, about 30,000 new enlistments per month is required. The measure may, of course, be altered before passed, and the Senate version has not yet been reported.

The Committee, in its report, found that the danger of war with Soviet Russia has increased since last January. The Communist coup in Czechoslovakia, the excessive pressure of Finland, the Soviet diplomatic probings on the Scandinavian Peninsula, the Soviet reaction to the 5-power mutual defense pact signed at Brussels in March, the severe and annoying restrictions put upon the American occupation forces in Berlin and Vienna, together with resistance to the efforts of the United States and 16 European governments to revitalize the life of Europe, are listed as arousing the tempo of stepped-up Soviet military activity.

While the committee believes the United States will never initiate a war, it strongly believes the possession of adequate offensive power will serve to deter aggression and prevent war.

CENTRAL TEXAS 5TH SUNDAY FELLOWSHIP MEETS N. BENNETT

The Central Texas 5th Sunday Fellowship meets with the North Bennett Baptist Church, beginning Thursday night, May 27. Many noted preachers will be with us, and every Bible-loving Christian will want to hear the gospel preached with tears and power. There will be many climaxes of spiritual presence, and many cups will run over. If your spiritual status is low, you have need of a new filling of the Spirit, and your soul needs to be broken up and poured out, then you come.

There will be no program printed—I don't believe in 'em—but every speaker will choose his own subject and will preach when he is called on. This gives the Holy Spirit a chance to empower, guide and fill as He will. But if this Fellowship runs true to order all the cardinal doctrines of the faith will be set forth in declarative preaching.

Swing Of Southwest Farm Markets

By U.S.D.A.

Grains and vegetables furnished major weak spots in mainly steady to strong southwest farm markets during the past week, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

Yellow corn closed Monday a nickel higher than a week earlier, but other grains netted losses from a quarter cent on wheat to 4 and 1-2 on oats and 8 and 1-2 on barley. No. 1 hard ordinary wheat sold around $2.52 and 1-4 in bulk carlots at Texas common points. No. 2 grade white corn brought about $2.77, yellow $2.53 and 1-2 and oats $1.30 and 1-4 to $1.34.

Eggs and poultry continued fairly steady. Eggs sold generally at the support levels of 35 cents a dozen at the farm or 37 cents delivered to drying plants. Heavy hens ranged from 24 to 28 cents a pound at Dallas and Fort Worth and 32 to 33 at New Orleans. Fryers sold mainly from 38 to 42 cents in the southwest.

Hogs advanced 50 cents to $1 in Texas and Oklahoma and $1 to $2 at other southwest terminals. Prices ranged from $21.50 to $23 on good and choice medium weight butchers. Sows brought $16 to $17.50 in Texas and $13 to $15 elsewhere.

Cattle scored gains of mostly 50 cents to $1. Denver reached new all-time high levels on both steers and heifers, as choice steers sold at $32 to $33.50 Monday, and good and choice heifers $30 to $31.50. Good and choice fed steers bulked at $30.50 at $33 at Kansas City, and good light steers reached $30.50 at Wichita. Oklahoma City paid $32 for top choice fed steers, a new high for recent months. Medium and good steers, yearlings and heifers drew $24 to $29.50 at Texas markets.

Southwest sheep markets paid record high prices for reduced lamb marketings. Net highs on spring lambs included $28.50 paid at Fort Worth, $29 at Oklahoma City, and $31 at Kansas City. New high on shorn lambs was $27.50 at Fort Worth and $28.25 at Kansas City. Woolled lambs made a new high at $28 at Denver and at Kansas City.

Country wool markets enjoyed a flurry of trading, and prices held firm.

Cotton netted $2 to $2.50 a bale higher for the week. Spot middling 15-16 inch closed Monday at 38.10 cents a pound at Dallas and Houston and 37.90 at New Orleans.

JOHNSON TO OPEN SENATORIAL CAMPAIGN AT AUSTIN

Austin, May 18—Launching what promises to be one of the hottest senatorial campaigns Texas has ever seen, Congressman Lyndon Johnson will open his race for the United States Senate with a speech in the open-air Woolridge Park in Austin May 22.

The young Central Texas congressman pitted his strength against earlier candidates just nine days before the date set for his opening speech. His headquarters was set up and functioning within two days, in charge of the man who managed Johnson's first Congressional campaign in 1937—Claude C. Wild.

Eleven years ago, Wild recalled, "I recognized in Lyndon Johnson a young man of great promise, a fitting successor to the late J. P. Buchanan. Johnson has made an outstanding Congressman and his record as Senator will be fully as outstanding."

Johnson might have run for re-election without opposition but as he put it in an opening statement, "Texans don't have much patience with people who play only cinches; I think they are fed up with political has-beens who want to sit things out."

In the special election of 1941, Johnson was defeated by W. Lee O'Daniel by the margin of 1,111 votes. On election night, Johnson was well ahead of the field. The next day, belated returns from east Texas gave O'Daniel the victory.

"I was urged to contest that election," Johnson recalled. "I tried to be a good sport. Lots of folks said they'd support me the next time—but the war intervened. This is the first opportunity since 1941. I know the fair minded people of Texas will help me win that promotion to which I came so close before."

With his announcement, the Congressman outlined the qualifications which the rigorous job of Senator requires: "He should be young enough to have energy for the work; level headed enough to be heard with respect; and with courage and independence to make his own decisions."

Johnson is 39. He entered the Navy the day war was declared and served in the Pacific until members of Congress were recalled to their posts by President Roosevelt. On the House armed services committee, he is widely credited with pushing through the 70-group air forces bill; and initiated with President Truman the move to halt the sale of our usable national defense plants.

A native of Johnson City, Blanco county, Johnson's family includes Mrs. Johnson and two daughters, Linda Bird and Lucy Baines.
