Homecoming Party For Seniors Of '48 Held At The Hangar Friday

By EARLENE NIX
At 7:00 Friday night, November 28th, The Hangar was the place for a joyous re-union and homecoming party for the 1948 graduates of Goldthwaite High School.
As each one arrived, they were met by Melva Nowell and Vondean Hairston and asked to guess the number of beans in a jar. A gift went to the nearest guesser, who was James Hillman. They were then greeted by Mrs. Margaret Thompson, class sponsor.
After all had arrived, a delicious home-style dinner was served by Mr. and Mrs. Jackson. This was happily consumed amid much chatter of all the latest happenings. They had much to tell, because all have been through many new experiences since they were last gathered together as the Seniors of G. H. S.
At the close of the meal, Mrs. Glenn Geeslin, the former Geraldine Laughlin, and vice-president of the class, read a poem in memory of Ed Gilliam, president of the class who passed away September 8 of this year. She then called a business meeting. The class voted to have their next re-union on Thursday night, November 24, 1949, which will be Thanksgiving night. It will also be held at the Hangar at 7:00 p. m. Earlene Nix was elected Homecoming Chairman, to be in charge of arrangements for the future re-unions. A big cheer was given Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Geeslin for decorating the party hall. The class colors, green and white, were used throughout the room, and large bouquets of lovely white mums centered the tables.
At the close of the meeting, the tables were pushed back, and an evening of fun began. Dancing was enjoyed by many, but "just talking" was what every one enjoyed most.
Those who were not present were greatly missed, and it is the hope of every one that all shall be present next year for the second re-union of the Class of '48.

Uncle Sam Says

Your Uncle Sam wants to tell you about a Christmas gift you shouldn't be without. That's the gift of security, of confidence in your financial future, of that peace of mind that only comes when money's not a problem, but a blessing. You can have that gift because your Government is offering the finest savings plan that ever came within your reach. If you are on a payroll, join the Payroll Savings Plan that puts in your hand a U. S. Savings Bond at regular intervals. If not on a payroll, you can get a savings bond each month through the Bond-a-Month Plan at your bank. When making up your Christmas list, give a thought to Uncle Sam's gift.

SKUNK BOWL HERE

Old Hunnert has been reading about them different kind of bowls where them champs play off them football games around New Years each year—and he got an idea. Why not let the teams that never won a game this season, like Liano, match up a game and maybe some of them will win one? Old Hunnert's idea, subject to approval, of course, by the Lions Club and Jaycees, is to fix up a Skunk Bowl here and invite all them teams in Texas that got polleccated this year to come over and play off the 50's some could get out of (Continued on back page)

SANTA CLAUS-REINDEER AND SLEIGH-COMING HERE DEC. 10

According to a message received here yesterday morning by Goldthwaite's Mayor Loy Long from Santa Claus at the North Pole, Old Santa Claus will visit the children of Goldthwaite on next Friday afternoon, Dec. 10, at about 4 p. m.
Santa will travel here by sleigh pulled by four reindeer which have been imported here from above Nome, Alaska by Grady Carothers. Santa will drive the reindeer hitched to the sleigh through the streets of Goldthwaite, and pass out candy to the good children of Mills County. The whole county is invited to be present at his appearance here on Friday afternoon of next week.
The reindeer show has already appeared at appointments in Washington, Oregon and California while on their way to Goldthwaite, the home of their owner. Grady Carothers and Stanley Thomas arrived back here Tuesday after a 3,100-mile trailer trip from Seattle, Wash., bringing with them five art reindeer which were flown to Seattle from above Nome, Alaska, last August, after buying them from Eskimos. They have

TWELVE MORE MILES OF FARM-TO-MARKET ROADS IN MILLS CO.

Twelve more miles of farm-to-market highways in Mills County have been designated for construction and maintenance by the Texas Highway Department, according to a letter received this week by The Eagle from John Davenport, administrative aide to D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer.
Cost of construction is estimated to be $104,500.

Following is a copy of the minutes by the Texas Highway Commission effecting Mills County:
In Mills County the following described roads are hereby designated as Farm-to-Market Roads subject to the concurrence of the Public Roads Administration and subject to the condition that Mills County will furnish all required right-of-way free of cost to the State.
From end F. M. 575 northeast of Goldthwaite northeast to Caradan, a distance of approximately 4.4 miles.
From end F. M. 574 west of Goldthwaite west to road intersection, a distance of approximately 4.6 miles.
From U. S. Highway 84 approximately 4.5 miles southeast of Mullin north to road intersection, a distance of approximately 3.0 miles.

Upon fulfillment of the conditions of this Order, the State Highway Engineer is directed to proceed with plans for construction at an estimated cost of $104,500.00 and to assume the roads for maintenance upon completion of construction.
These roads are to be included in the State's farm-to-market program in the next two years. Mr. Davenport writes, and continues: "The enclosed minute is the result of study of road needs by your County Commissioners' Court with the District Engineers of the Texas Highway Department, a submission by the District Engineer to the Texas Highway Commission, and the approval of the Commission of the necessity of the road and its inclusion in the new program of work."

Mr. Davenport says the Texas Highway Department will extend every effort to equitably increase the present network of 8,700 miles of farm-to-market roads in the state.
Two farm-to-market highways built in Mills County last year are to be extended. F. M. Highway 575, under contract let on August 24 by the State Highway Department to Collins Construction Co. will start on Highway No. 84 one mile north-east of Goldthwaite and run toward Caradan for 4.8 miles. This highway, on which grading and structure work will start soon, is to be extended within the next two years another 4.4 miles running altogether 9.2 miles toward Caradan.

Under the new announcement, F. M. No. 574 which was built last year from Goldthwaite west to past Rock Springs will be extended another 4.6 miles west to road intersection. This road will cross the Bayou and will necessitate a new bridge to be built below the present Bayou bridge.
Collins Construction Co. has had a crew busy for the past several weeks on their contract for $84,903 let on last August 24 for working on drainage and structures on F. M. 573 from Mullin toward Democrat, and will start soon on work on the Caradan road. However, it will be after the first of January before heavy machinery is moved in and actual construction started.
The new three-mile farm-to-market road designated for the new setup to be completed within the next two years will start off at the Bozar Service Station and run almost directly north toward the Trigger Mountain Community.
These farm-to-market roads, passed by Congress during the war as a post-war job-making project, are paid for jointly by the Federal Government and the State. Our own Congressman, O. C. Fisher, took a leading part in getting this law through the National Congress.
After completion, Mills County will have seven paved highways starting at Goldthwaite and extending in all directions, County Commissioner Jess Y. Tullos points out. And all these highways are to be kept up by the State, leaving Mills County road money free to be spent on other farm roads.
Mills County is fast coming out of the mud.

ROG'S CORNER

A POLLSTER

A Pollster is a fellow who shoots at anything. And, sometimes, he misses. And the bell, it falls to ring. But, in the case of Truman, they all sure missed the works. And now a bunch of Pollsters. Are just a bunch of Jerks.
—Rog.

Many of my nieces and nephews are going to wake up the day after Christmas and realize they are broke. Many thousands of others will awaken to find they are well on the way to financial security. And the difference will be found in the regular automatic purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds. And the nice part of this is that it can happen to you. If you're not saving money as you'd like to, and you know you ought, get on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. You'll have $4 for every $3 you invest, in only ten years. If self-employed, your bank will enroll you for the Bond-a-Month Plan. Sign now and part of your pay check is put into safe, sure, payable U. S. Savings Bonds before you get a chance to spend it.

STOP TB

Tuberculosis, which causes the deaths of more people between 15 and 44 than any other disease, can be prevented. A communicable disease, it is spread by persons with "open" TB. Unfortunately, tuberculosis has no symptoms in its early stage, when it is easiest to cure. But, fortunately, it can be detected early by means of a chest X-ray.

The 3,000 associations affiliated with the National Tuberculosis Association, which are engaged in a year-round campaign against tuberculosis, urge every adult to have a chest X-ray at least once a year. If this were done, the estimated 250,000 cases of tuberculosis unknown to health authorities could be found. When all cases are found and treatment provided for the individuals, the danger of the spread of this disease will be prevented.

Christmas Seal funds help support X-ray services to find unknown cases of tuberculosis. Buy and Use Christmas Seals

'MAN-EATER OF KUMAON' HAS ACTION THRILLS & ROMANCE

Jim Corbett's Book-of-the-Month Club adventure story, which also appeared in Readers' Digest and Coronet, "Man-Eater of Kumaon," starring Sabu, Wendell Corey and Joanne Page, opens Saturday at the Melba Theatre. Here is the kind of film which made Hollywood famous the world over, the sort of picture which built the industry into a great entertainment medium. There is life, there is action, there are thrills of wild animals on the prowl, and there is tenderness.

The story is a simple and heart-warming one, played against the colorful background of an Indian village at the foot of the great Himalaya mountains.

An American hunter, portrayed by Wendell Corey, inadvertently wounds a tiger and the beast, unable to kill its natural food, becomes a man-eater which preys upon the villagers and almost demoralizes the community. The hunter, realizing what he has done, vows vengeance and stalks the tiger relentlessly through many perilous incidents, for the tiger has learned the hunter's scent and he, too, becomes a hunter!

An appealing, human love story between a native married couple played by Sabu and Joanne Page, is woven into the spine-tingling adventures to a smashing and completely satisfying climax.

'HOMECOMING' STIRRING LOVE STORY

The combination of Clark Gable and Lana Turner in a motion picture is an advance guarantee of dramatic and emotional fireworks, and "Homecoming," the new M-G-M offering to be shown Sunday and Monday at the Melba Theatre, gives these electric stars every opportunity in the heart-moving story of a doctor whose entire outlook on life is changed when he falls in love with the nurse who stands by him in his greatest crisis.

Gable plays the doctor, Ulysses Johnson, who leaves his adoring wife, Anne Baxter, and a successful practice behind when he goes overseas with a medical corps at the outbreak of World War II. His attitude that the war is just another chance for him to come back with a lot of medals undergoes a drastic change under the influence of "Snapshot" McCall (Miss Turner), the attractive nurse who is assigned to him. "Snapshot's" husband had died fighting in China and her resentment of Ulysses' calm assumption that all a guy has to do is look out for himself brings out all the contempt in her.

'TENTH AVENUE ANGEL'

All the warmth, tenderness and remarkable acting talent which have made Margaret O'Brien one of the screen's greatest box-office champions are enveloped in her latest role as little Flavia Mills, heroine of "Tenth Avenue Angel," M-G-M offering tonight on view at the Melba Theatre, commonplace neighborhood.

Little Flavia looks at her commonplace neighborhood through rose-colored glasses. She finds happiness in a thousand ordinary things, and is encouraged in her imagination and search for beauty by her sensitive mother and father. Her favorite grown-up friends are Luke, former taxi-driver who has served a jail sentence, and Susan, his girl, who doesn't share Flavia's enthusiasm for Tenth Avenue.

Dates of the last Crusade were from 1096 to 1099 A. D. Boston is often called the Hub of the Universe.

FALL TIME IS FIRE-WARNING TIME

Austin—Fall time is fire warning time, cautions Marvin Hall.

The State Fire Insurance Commissioner says when red leaves begin falling they really should be regarded as signals of fire danger because the greatest fire loss each year is suffered during cold, winter months.

Reminding housewives that one-half of the fires in Texas and the U. S. are home fires, Hall said the fall of the year was a good time to launch a personal fire prevention program with a thorough check-up and clean-up.

"Winter brings additional fire hazards as this season marks the time for heating equipment to be installed and put into use, for dead leaves to be gathered and burned, for lighting equipment to be in more frequent use as the days shorten, for the wearing of clothes that have to be dry cleaned rather than laundered and for greater use of matches," Hall explained.

Urging housewives to prepare now for the fire dangerous months, Commissioner Hall named a few special fire safety tips for Texas housewives to keep in mind while making their fall check-ups.

1. Have all gas stoves connected with solid piping and if leaking gas is noticed, call the gas company. Protect woodwork around or under gas heaters. Be sure heaters are a safe distance from curtains or towel racks.

2. By all means rake up the dead leaves on your premises but bury them—don't burn them—in your flower beds. Buried leaves enrich the soil and create no fire hazard.

3. Never use gasoline, benzene, naphtha or similar volatile inflammable liquids for cleaning purposes. Use an approved solvent for removing spots from clothes. Send to the dry cleaners any clothes needing extensive cleaning.

4. If the wiring system of the house is to be extended, call a professional electrician and have the job done right. Cords to portable electrical appliances should be as short as possible. Replace those that have become the least worn or frayed. Using pennies instead of fuses invites fire.

5. Keep matches in metal containers and out of reach of small children. Be sure matches and cigarettes are out before discarding them. Don't smoke in bed.

Official delegates, some are enjoying the prizes they won for their accomplishments, awarded in the form of trip expenses, scholarships, and occasionally material trophies.

The Texas group includes 27 boys and girls from all sections. It is significant that this state has five of the winners in national contests this year—including meat animal feeding, leadership, citizenship, food preparation and farm safety.

They tell us that dirt blowing has already started on the plains, which means we'll have a dust bowl of some unknown proportions this winter.

The Hockley county soil conservation district supervisors have described the wind erosion condition there as serious. They have made some emergency recommendations, including the deep plowing of sandy lands and chiseling of listing of shallow lands and moderately sandy lands that don't have adequate cover.

Also to delay listing as long as possible on land that has adequate cover of sorghums, which would prevent blowing. Another recommendation is to use the sweep or the chisel type plows so as to leave all of the stubble on the surface of the land.

There is a better chance to prevent blowing this year than in the "dirty 30's", they say because of the intense farm mechanization program that has taken place since that time.

In Lubbock county, the soil conservation district supervisors unanimously agreed that one-way plows should not be used to break land now.

George L. Horton of Texas A. and I. College, Kingsville, visited home folks during the holidays.

MARY HOLLEY

Mary Holley, daughter of Sarah Ann Verser and P. H. P. Holley was born Feb. 22, 1887, at Pleasant Grove.

Her mother died when she was quite small, and she made a home for her father and younger sister and brother. Here she spent her childhood.

She joined the Methodist Church when a young woman.

In 1920, she moved to Fort Worth and has made her home there until her death. She has often visited here since moving to Fort Worth. She died Nov. 29, 1943.

She helped to care for a family of nieces, and enjoyed mothering all young people. She was dependable, sincere, and hospitable.

Health Notes

In a statement on controlling communicable diseases issued by the Texas State Department of Health, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer states that if every case of suspected communicable disease were seen promptly by the family physician and definitely diagnosed, thousands of susceptible persons would be protected from these disabling diseases.

"The theory that it is a good thing for children to have these catching childhood diseases and get them over with, has long since been proven an error which may actually endanger a child's life," says Dr. Cox. "The longer he can avoid having these diseases, the better it is for him. Every child should be protected by immunization against all diseases where an immunity can be established."

Prompt diagnosis, isolation and good medical care give the patient the best chance for a satisfactory recovery without the serious complications that sometimes accompany even the milder forms of communicable diseases. Dr. Cox emphasized that obeying the public health laws regarding isolation and quarantine protects not only the patient, but helps to prevent the spread of the disease to other persons.

"The State Health Department", Dr. Cox said, "does everything within its power to protect the health of the people of Texas."

Good Sheep Dog Valuable Help To the Farmer

Many Countries Have Developed Their Own Special Shepherd Breeds

In the handling of large flocks of sheep on the farm, a good herd dog oftentimes accomplishes the work of two or three men, states the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City.

An old saying goes that "There is no good flock without a good shepherd, and there is no good shepherd without a good dog." In Scotland, where the work of the sheep dog has reached near perfection, no shepherd would consider selling, as he would feel himself helpless without his trained ally. The sight of a small black and white Border Collie driving a flock of sheep along a road or through a village in a calm, business-like manner is so common in that country as to attract no attention whatsoever.

While it is believed that the dog's first association with man was his hunting companion and helper, certainly his second trust was as guardian of mankind's flocks and herds. Though there was little communication between primitive peoples, the dog's ability as herder and guardian was early discovered and utilized by many different races and tribes.

Many countries have developed shepherd breeds, and while these vary widely in size and appearance, their work is identical. Belgium produced the Belgian Sheepdog and the Bouviers de Flandre. France bred the Briard, the Berger Blanc and the Berger Noir. Hungary developed the Pulik and the Komondorok. The Welsh Corgi, Old English Sheepdog, Border Collie, Shetland Sheepdog and Collie all originated in the British Isles. The German Shepherd and the Giant Schnauzer are, of course, products of Germany. The Australian Sheepdog, or Kelpie, has proven his value in the rugged sheep-raising country "down under." The Samoyede, though generally considered a Border Collie rounding up sheep. sledge dog, has also been used for the herding of reindeer on the tundras of Siberia.

In England, Scotland and America the Border Collie, which has been bred for herd work for 300 years, is the most frequently used sheep dog. The Border Collie is known for intelligence, obedience, and working ability. Standing about 18 inches at the shoulder, this dog has a dense coat of black with white markings on the collar, feet and tail tip. Weights run from thirty to forty pounds. The Border Collie's head is shorter and broader, and his eyes larger, than those of his big cousin, the Scotch Collie.

Puppies that come from working stock frequently display an interest in sheep as early as seven or eight weeks of age. The first lesson is usually taught at three to four months, when the puppy is taught to lie down on signal and to walk at heel on command. Training is simplified if the young dog can be allowed to follow the example of a well-schooled older dog, but many fine sheep dogs have been trained without ever having seen another dog work. The education of a sheep dog requires both time and patience, but once his dog is trained, the farmer or herdsman will wonder how he ever managed without his four-footed helper. Those interested in obtaining instructions for the training of a sheep dog may have them free of charge by writing to the Gaines Dog Research Center, 250 Park Avenue, New York 17, N. Y.

Trials for sheep dogs are held at annual contests in New England and California. Working at distances of hundreds of yards, and guided by signals from their owners given by means of outstretched arm or gesture with a cane, the dogs demonstrate their ability by herding a group of sheep through a complicated course and finally into a small pen. Large galleries of spectators who attend the trials are invariably impressed with the skill and sagacity exhibited by the canine contestants as they go through the maneuvers of handling a flock.

U. S. DOG POPULATION IS NEAR 20,000,000

America's dog population is right around 20,000,000, a survey by the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City, indicates.

The South leads in the number of dog-owning families and the average dogs per family is also highest there, the survey also revealed.

Dog ownership varies in inverse proportion to the size of communities, with farmers having the highest percentage of dog ownership. Approximately half of all families with children boast dogs, while 40 per cent of families without children keep canine pets.

J. M. KOEN

J. M. Koen was born in Arkansas in 1871, came to Texas when a young man. On May 13, 1910 he was married to Mary Alpha Carver. To this union four children were born, one son, three daughters.

He had been in ill health for several years but had been bedfast since February. He passed away on November 24.

Funeral services were held at the Caradan Church, November 25 at 2:30, Rev. Chambers officiating. He was laid to rest in the Caradan Cemetery. Fairman Wilkins Co. were in charge of funeral arrangements.

Paul bearers were James Koen, Cecil Huckabee, Curtis Ripley, Floyd Daniel, Lowell Bynum and Elkins Stillman.

Surviving are his wife and four children and nine grandchildren.

His children present were Clarence Koen and family and Mrs. Milton Horner and family, all of San Angelo, Mrs. Earl Nowell and family of Arizona.

We would say to the bereaved ones, weep not as them that have no hope. Our loss is Heavens gain.

Gone home to that beautiful land
Where the rivers gleam with silvery sand
Where the sun shines on with its golden light
And where the beautiful day turns not into night
Gone where no sorrows come

And where sad words to the lips are dumb,
Where peace broods ever and all is calm
And where the heart cannot feel alarm,
Gone where the loved ones wait
To welcome there at the pearly gate
Thy father and mother and loved ones dear
That have passed from earth to a brighter spere
Thou hast met again on that fair shore
Where separation comes no more,
But we miss thee ever oh father dear
We miss thy smile and words of cheer
Thy loving council
Thy guiding hand
Since thou hast passed to the better land
Thy sweet to know when the day is done
When the battle of life is fought and won
When we cross the river dark and cold
And enter the blessed Savoirs fold,
You will welcome us to a world of gold
And over there when this life is o'er
We shall be united to part no more

—Mrs. W. R. Bynum.

CROWN TEXAS A WHEAT CHAMPION

For growing the best Texas wheat exhibited at the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo, Texas, W. P. Axe of Hereford has been awarded the Philip W. Pillsbury trophy, and will have his grain judged for the national Pillsbury prize at Minneapolis, Minn., next spring.

Axe's wheat will compete with samples from the other principal wheat-growing states in the 8th annual competition for this award, which consists of $100 in cash and an all-expense trip to Minneapolis. This is the first year that Texas wheat has been entered in this competition.

Axe grew the prize-winning grain on his thousand-acre Deaf Smith County ranch, where he also grows potatoes and grain sorghums. It was hard red winter wheat of the Westar variety, and was grown on 300 acres of irrigated land following a crop of potatoes harvested in July, 1947.

Wheat grown by Leonard F. Wright of Farnsworth, who won second place at the Tri State Fair, also is eligible to compete for the national prize.

THE HEART WILL KEEP ITS MEMORIES

The gold may die from sunset skies
The purple from far hills
The foam flowers fade from the opal waves,
Drought hush the babbling rills,
The earth grows cold and passionless
Neath Winter's bitter blast;
But the heart will keep its memories
Till life itself is past.
The rose may leave the dimpled cheek,
The sparkle leave the eye;
The jet black hair may turn to gray
The step no longer spry,
The form that once stood and bold
Now shapeless shadows cast,
But the heart will keep its memories
Till life itself is past.
The castle built so long ago
May totter to its fall
And dancing feet no more
May trip
Along its festive hall;
Sweet music that once filled the air
May be heard never more
And childish voices may be still
And now are only lore.
The ivy loosen from its walls
It clung to once so fast;
But the heart will keep its memories
Till life itself is past.
—Frances M. Reinhardt, Goldthwaite.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE

"God the Only Cause and Creator" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, December 5.
The Golden Text is "Thus saith the Lord that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the Lord; and there is none else" (Isaiah 45:18).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord; neither are there any works like unto thy works" (Psalms 86:8).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Spiritual causation is the one question to be considered, for more than all others spiritual causation relates to human progress" (page 170).

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Weatherby and Mr. and Mrs. Talbot Ledbetter went to Hamilton last Thursday, where they spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Weatherby and family.

sticking that shovel in the ground and getting the dam started.
There'll be longtime residents of the Leon and Little valleys in the crowd December 9, and if you see a few tears of joy in their eyes, think nothing of it. They'll be remembering how long this tricky and turbulent river has been drowning human beings and ruining crops—in the great flood of 1921, it took more than 100 lives and ruined crops and property valued at more than the estimated cost of the dam. And they'll be thankful that all this needless destruction is ending.
They hope YOU will come and share their happiness on December 9.

Mrs. Lee Dyas of Burnet spent the holidays with her mother, Mrs. W. A. Bayley and her son, Eugene and family, and made acquaintance with her granddaughter, Loydene Dyas.
Mrs. R. M. Thompson returned Thanksgiving Day from Giddings where she was a guest in the home of her grandson, Rev. L. M. Stokes. She also visited relatives in Houston.

Miss Workman Conducts Successful School For Children At M. E. Church

The Demonstration School conducted by Miss Elizabeth Workman, conference director of children's work, was well attended and participation on the part of workers and children was excellent.

Miss Workman conducted a model class with each age group with local teachers and mothers for helpers, and all received new insight into the great possibilities of church school teaching. After each class session of handwork, stories, music, etc., Miss Workman and her helpers met and discussed at length the good and bad parts of the session.

Local workers feel that this has been a very practical help, and Miss Workman has said that Goldthwaite has had the finest school of any she has led

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH:
Hans Hedtoft, the Danish Prime Minister, greeting the announcement of the royal birth in Buckingham Palace, said, "Let us hope the little child will lead a generation which will maintain peace in the world." You will agree that this is a very proper and fitting greeting to the royal child, but greetings alone will never produce peace among men. Peace will come only as you and I become living examples of the principles of peace. It simply means that we have to be peaceable in all our relationships. If we cannot get along with people in our neighborhood, how can we expect the people of the world to get along?

GOLDDIGGIN' WOMEN—
Now, everybuddy knows Old Hunnert's fondness for Redheads, but he sure made one big mistake this week when he butted into a poetic-inclined one who said: Quote: "A date with you—h-l no; I figure you'd be too d—slow. Your posterior sticks out of your britches. And you,—even if you made a lot of stitches, Wouldn't have any money left and it still would show." O. H. admits he needs a new suit—but then dry goods stores just say: "Pay cash, and pay less." And O. H. has less of that than most anything else he can think of at present writin'.

And when Old Hunnert won that radio phone call that gave him a trip around the world, he changed his mind and told them he'd go some place else.

Onct when a man from Brooklyn who was visiting Old Hunnert on his ranch brought back a handful of rattles from an enormous rattlesnake. It made chills run up O. H.'s spine, but the Easterner explained: "I took them often the biggest worm I ever seen."

A long time ago when they had saloons here a bad man rushed in shooting right and left, yelling, "All you dirty skunks git out of her." The customers all fled in a hall of bullets except O. H. who had his elbows on the bar. "Well," snapped the bad man, waving his smoking gun. "Well," said O. H. "There certainly were a lot of 'em weren't there?" When the 7th was taking her

TO PROVE THAT THERE IS STRENGTH IN UNITY, A MAN GAVE HIS QUARRERING SONS A BUNDLE OF STICKS, INVITING THEM TO BREAK IT... WHEN THEY FAILED, HE SEPARATED THE BUNDLE, EACH SON THEN EASILY BROKE THE SINGLE STICKS.

HERE IN AMERICA, WE HAVE MANY EXAMPLES OF STRENGTH IN UNITY... WE SEE THIS PRINCIPLE AT WORK IN LIFE INSURANCE, WHERE MANY—WORKING TOGETHER—POOL THEIR RESOURCES AND SHARE THEIR RISKS SO THAT ALL CAN ENJOY FAMILY PROTECTION AND SECURITY... OLD MILLS COUNAY LANDMARK IS SOLD

L. B. Porter closed a deal last week, selling his Mt. Olive ranch, known as the Porter place. This is one of the old landmarks of that part of the county, and was purchased by A. B. Porter, his father, in 1892. This place was originally in Hamilton County which was organized before the Civil War, lying on the headwaters of Washboard Creek, a tributary of the Cow House and Leon River. There are some of the pre-Civil War places of interest that can be located by Mr. Porter.

This place is located on the Caradan and Indian Gap road. Where you leave the road and go in the place, to the right is the old Indian Lookout; only a short distance are distinct signs of the work place of the Indian warriors or the squaws who worked in rock and also iron in preparing weapons of war. There are some of these arrow heads in flint and iron in the hands of the prior owner of this place. At two other places are graves, evidence of the making of history.

The old watering places which have long since been abandoned for drilled wells all can be located by Mr. Porter. The old lime kiln with the quarry is still in evidence, and no one has any history of the date or the people who worked it.

The old corners of the horse corral that lay between the mountains was one of the headquarters of an early-day notorious band of horse thieves, the history of whom has been enumerated to the early settlers by old timers.

This place was sold to G. B. Williams and family, who come here from Carrizo Springs and are highly recommended. Mr. Williams is a veteran of World War One, and served with distinction with the noted 36th Division in France. His sons have had service with the Navy and one son is now in the U. S. Air Force. This good family is a credit to any community.

Mr. and Mrs. Burl Holland and his mother, Mrs. Tonie Holland and Edward Harris attended the Texas-A and M Football game in Austin, last Thursday.

Scallorn H. D. Club

The Scallorn Home Demonstration Club met in its regular monthly meeting, which was also our annual Thanksgiving luncheon, Wednesday, November 24, in the home of Mrs. C. S. Smith. By 11:30 the ladies began arriving with their covered dishes, and were greeted by the delicious aroma of baking turkey and other holiday goodies. When the noon hour arrived, so had all the club members, who were coming, also two former club members who are always welcome to visit our club. We were invited into the dining room by the hostess where a beautiful and delicious feast was served buffet style. After each one had filled her plate she found a comfortable place to eat, either in the living room, or around the dining table which was by this time relieved of a great deal of its original load. About an hour was spent in eating and visiting with our neighbors. By the time for dish washing most of us were much too uncomfortable from eating to stir around, but enough volunteers were found to get the kitchen in good order again.

At 2:00 o'clock we assembled in the living room for our regular club meeting. In the absence of the president, the vice-president, Mrs. P. R. Jordan, presided. As the secretary was absent the president called the roll. The reading of the minutes was omitted. Under old business we discussed and made final plans for our Annual Club Christmas Party. The party this year will be Thursday, December 16, in the home of Mrs. Silas Burk. Each club member is to bring a gift, either hand made, or if bought not to exceed 75 cents in price. Names will be drawn after we reach the party.

As there was no other old or new business the meeting was turned over to Miss Hintz, who gave a very interesting picture illustrating demonstration on "the well arranged kitchen." By planning a kitchen, either old or new it is possible for a home-maker to save a number of steps each day. We were very happy to have Mrs. L. S. King as a new club member. Hope she will feel very much at home among us and assume a very important part in our club. We were also happy to have two former club members, Mrs. Velma Gage, and Mrs. Homer Eckert with us as special guests of the day. Also happy to have Mrs. Fred Sullivan and Mrs. Elmer Scoby visit with us again.

Be sure to remember the Christmas party on Thursday, December 16. After the club adjourned we were very fortunate in having Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Willis give a demonstration of a Repair Air Washer and Humidifier. This was a very interesting demonstration of a very useful and beneficial machine.

J. V. Brown and Keith of Donna, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Brown and Lamona of Roscoe, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brown from Kermit, Texas, visited J. D. Robertson and family during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Floyd Fox of Grandbury spent the week-end with Mrs. Fox. Jim Bob Steen of A & M College spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steen. The Steens were accompanied by Glynn and Billy Collier to Austin, where they attended the A & M and Texas University football game. Take a look at your Ford's speedometer, today. If it's nearing a "5000" mile reading, bring it "home" to us for your Ford's "Physical"—which includes a thorough engine, ignition, electrical, wheel and brake check... and a complete inspection of the body, inside and out.

Soil Conservation Prizes Worth Press 1949 Program

The Soil and Water Conservation Service awards prizes to the outstanding soil conservation group (community) in Texas.

Other statewide sweepstakes awards will include: $500 to the state's top conservation farmer; $500 to the farmer who has done the best job of reclaiming a worn-out piece of land; $500 for the best community achievement in the field of forestry.

Again a bronze plaque will go to the individual in Texas, not a farmer, who has rendered the greatest unselfish service to the cause of soil conservation in Texas.

Similar plaques will be awarded in that field to the outstanding man in the five different regions of Texas into which Texas State Soil Conservation Board activity is divided.

The outstanding conservation farmer in each of the five regions will receive $200 award.

In cash alone, each of the five regions will receive $1200 in awards in addition to the statewide sweepstakes awards.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK:
Apple Crispy Dessert
4 cups sliced apples
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
2-3 cup firmly packed brown sugar
1-3 cup butter or margarine
Place the apples in a greased baking dish (8 x 8 x 2 inches). Sprinkle with lemon juice and cinnamon. Mix the flour and sugar together until well combined; then cut the butter into this mixture as you would in making pie crust. Sprinkle over the apples. Bake for 30 minutes at 375 degrees Fahrenheit. Serve either plain or with whipped cream.

THE LADY OF THE HOUSE REPAIRS: Get a strip of old inner tube and tack it around the top of a step ladder to form a shallow tray. This prevents nails and tools from falling off. When repairing anything with small parts, such as nuts, screws, bolts, etc., lay each part, as it is removed, on a strip of sticking tape. This makes it easy to put parts back in the same order in which they were removed, and prevents them from getting lost. ### NEWEST METHODS FOR CANCER CURE TO BE DISCUSSED

Newest methods of detection and treatment of cancer will be demonstrated for Texas doctors at the third annual meeting of the American Cancer Society, Texas Division, in Houston December 5 and 6. Members of the Society from throughout the state will attend scientific and lay sessions featuring the two-day meeting, according to Frank C. Smith of Houston, president of the Division.

Speakers will emphasize the need for every doctor's office to be a cancer detection center and will describe the part volunteer men and women are playing in the state's expanding cancer control program.

A presentation for all present by nationally known specialists will describe the present and future of medical control of cancer, will emphasize that much cancer can be cured with what is now known, and will explore some of the possibilities which present-day research holds.

Dr. E. W. Bertner of Houston, executive committee chairman, said that actual patients will be presented during one of the professional meetings. Conditions will be similar to those in a typical cancer clinic, and representatives of 10 Texas tumor clinics which receive support from the Society will act as the medical staff for this demonstration. All Texas physicians, dentists, and nurses are being invited to attend.

Awards for outstanding service to Texas cancer patients will be presented during the annual dinner, and business sessions will also be held. An open public meeting presenting some of the outstanding speakers will be held at the Houston YMCA December 6 at 8:00 p. m.

THE ELECTION HASN'T STOPPED INFLATION

THOMAS L. PARKINSON
President, The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the U. S.

How does the election result affect inflation? My answer would be not at all. Our inflation began with an increase in the money supply from $60 billion before the war to $152 billion at the end of 1945, these figures excluding the bank deposits of the U. S. Treasury, representing simply the coins, bank notes, and bank deposits held by the people.

We ended the war with an excess of money and a shortage of goods. That's the traditional foundation for inflation, and we've suffered since from increased prices, increased wages, and a consequent rise in the cost of living from 100% in 1940 to 175% at this time.

Since the end of 1945 our Government debt has gone down nearly $30 billion and the marketable debt—i.e. other than savings bonds and special bonds in the Social Security and other like funds—has gone down nearly $40 billion. But the money supply has gone up nearly $20 billion and has taken prices and the cost of living up with it.

At the end of the war our money supply, inflated by newly created bank deposits, was out of balance with business activity and production. They could come into balance only by increasing production or reducing the money supply. Unfortunately, despite our great progress in industry, there is a limit to our increases in the production of goods. But there is almost no limit to the production of money as long as we continue the monetary policies presently pursued by the Federal Reserve Board and the U. S. Treasury.

These policies continue to increase our money, and therein lies inflation. The reason that the election has had no effect on inflation is that neither party showed any inclination to tackle the unpopular and misunderstood task of stopping the money making machinery.

Why does the money supply continue to rise? Simply because: 1. We continue to buy all gold offered to us under a procedure which adds 4 to 5 times the price of the gold to our bank deposits, and 2. We continue to buy into the Federal Reserve Banks at a pegged price all government bonds offered by present holders, increasing bank deposits by 4 or 5 times the price paid for the bonds.

This lack of control of the inflation of our money supply cannot be too much emphasized. Literally it is true that the sellers of gold, and the sellers of bonds in their own discretion and for their own purposes determine the extent to which we increase our bank deposits and therefore our money supply.

Who suffers from inflation? Grover Cleveland said it was the average citizen. Certainly that's true this time.

That's the situation facing the new Democratic administration. There was nothing said in the party platform, or indeed in the campaign that goes to the root of inflation, i.e. our monetary problem. There was plenty said about high prices and limited controls. But unless the monetary problem is tackled, high prices will go higher and limited controls will do nothing to stop them.

The inflation picture is still as grim as it was November 1.

About one-third of those who die of cancer could have been cured had adequate treatment been started in time.

Cancer killed 182,000 Americans in 1946, 189,400 in 1947 and an estimated 195,500 will die of cancer in 1948.

Describing the proper winterization of trucks, H. E. Harrig, Chevrolet service manager, urges owners to start with the cabs. Harrig says "uncomfortable drivers are seldom safe drivers" and points out that heating systems and insulation should be examined.

Cancer is not confined to the aged. Only half of those who died of this disease last year were over 65 years of age.

Story of Revolution

Lesson for December 5, 1948

THE MOST important history in the world is in one small book. The most important movement, the one that is destined to change the world more than any other, is the Christian church.

THE story of how it began is in the book of Acts. No other book in or out of the New Testament tells the story: The history of the beginnings of the one and only international, interracial, worldwide movement that sets out to aim at nothing less than a complete transformation of mankind, the Revolution from Within, the Christian Church.

What the Church Is

THERE are hundreds of churches today and they do not all agree. But every church, whatever its name or peculiarities, aims to stay on the course marked out by the Christian church when it was one and undivided, the church of the Apostles. We look back to the story in Acts to see what the true church is.

In the very beginning, the church was not the place where the Christians met for worship. It was not the officers. The Apostles themselves were not the church. The church was not a thing at all; it was people.

In Acts these people are seldom called Christians and never called churchmen or church-members. They are given more meaningful names. They are called "disciples," that is, learners, students. They are called "believers." They are called "brothers" for their life was like that of a family. They are called the people of "the Way,"—travelers together to the same destination. The church, in short, is a fellowship, the Family of the Friends of Christ.

How the Church Began

THE infant church was like all human babies; it began small and poor. No bystander would have expected it to live; but it had life in its heart. Two forces set that church on its way. One was the command of Christ.

The people who were in it, or rather the people who were the church, took their orders from Christ. It was because of him that they went out to bear witness to him to the "uttermost parts of the earth."

Then the people were filled with the Holy Spirit; they were guided constantly by the Spirit. The book of Acts has often been called the "Acts of the Holy Spirit" rather than of the Apostles.

Leaders

GOD never does for people what they can do for themselves. So guidance of the Spirit was never a substitute for human leadership. A true church is not a mob; it acts, as the New Testament church did, in an orderly fashion.

One of the church's first problems was that of finding leaders. The history in Acts is largely the history of certain leaders—John, Peter, Paul. But these were not alone. Not even the Apostles tried to run the church like a dictatorship. The people themselves chose the officers who were ordained by the Apostles.

What the Church Does

FIVE things the Apostolic church did, and these mark any true church today. They "continued in the Apostles' teachings;" the beginning of all our church schools and Sunday schools is in that brief phrase. They formed a fellowship; the church then was not a list of names of people who cared little for one another; it was a true family.

They observed the sacraments; they and their households were baptized, and they continued "in the breaking of the bread." Baptism and the Lord's Supper have always been observed in some form in every Christian church. They "continued in prayer;" a church in which only the minister prays is a feeble affair.

Above all, they were "witnesses." That is to say, they told the story of Jesus—his life, his teachings, his death, his resurrection. Jesus lives! Jesus is Lord! So the Apostles preached, from Jerusalem to Rome and far beyond. But their preaching would have been mere shouting in the wind, if Christ had not lived again in thousands of everyday Christians.

Christmas Seal Sales Will Bring Real Christmas Joy This Year

As Christmas approaches each of us would like to feel that we have done something to add to another's happiness at this season.

The joy that Christmas normally brings is not complete unless we have that inner satisfaction that comes with knowing we have made a contribution to the welfare of others, that we have overlooked no little thing that might make this Christmas a better Christmas.

Each person may know of some special thing he can do to make Christmas happier for another. For one person, it may be buying a doll for a neglected child. For another, it may be sending a basket of fruit to an invalid. But, regardless of what we may do for individuals, there is one thing all of us can do for everyone in the community, including ourselves.

We can all buy and use Christmas Seals.

Christmas Seals have become an American tradition. They have become a tradition in Texas because they are a symbol of an important piece of work that has been carried on in this State for forty-odd years.

The Texas Tuberculosis Association depends entirely upon the annual sale of Christmas Seals to finance its projects. Those of us who buy and use Christmas Seals will have the satisfaction of knowing, when Christmas Day dawns, that we have made a contribution to the welfare of the community in which we live.

That work is the campaign against tuberculosis inaugurated in 1908 by the Texas Tuberculosis Association and continued without interruption by the Association and its increasing number of affiliates.

In its campaign against tuberculosis, which kills more than 2,500 Texans a year, our Association is engaged in a program of health education, case-finding and research.

MADRID CLOVER

Cooperators with the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District are getting in their fall plantings of Madrid Clover. By planting their Madrid Clover now most farmers figure on getting early grazing, less weed competition and the clover will act as a biennial furnishing grazing for about 16 months before it makes a seed crop.

With an adequate supply of locally grown seed on hand, a large acreage of Madrid Clover is expected to be planted in this District which can be sown now or during the month of February.

In the Pleasant Grove Conservation Group No. 2, Kenneth Kidd sowed 40 lbs. of Madrid Clover seed on 13 acres with phosphate fertilizer. R. C. Berry also used District owned drill to sow 17 acres of oats and Madrid Clover and Britt Berry planted 15 acres of Madrid Clover alone.

In the Washboard Conservation Group, Elmer Emory sowed 5 lbs. of Madrid Clover per acre on 4 acres with 125 lbs. of phosphate per acre. Charles Swindle who harvested 8 acres of Madrid Clover, planted an additional 8 acres and reports a volunteer stand of the clover on the field that he had harvested.

Earl Fairman, planted 15 acres of Madrid Clover last week with 125 lbs. of phosphate fertilizer. Mr. Fairman also planted 6 acres of native grass seed for a seed plot. Luther Soules planted 5 acres of Madrid Clover with oats, vetch and phosphate.

Madrid Clover seed can be obtained from local seed dealers and the following cooperators: Charley Swindle, H. P. Beard, Frank Kirby, Jim Soules.

ASK FOR SOCIAL SECURITY CHECKS WHEN YOU REACH 65

"What difference does it make whether I find out about my old-age insurance payment under social security when I'm 65 or wait until I'm ready to stop work permanently.

"It may mean more money for you," is the answer David S. Pruitt, Manager of the Austin social security field office. He explains it this way:

"The amount of your monthly benefit checks won't be any higher if you file claim for them when you're 65, instead of later, but you may get checks for more months. Here's the reason: You don't have to retire permanently in order to get old-age insurance. If you're 65 and otherwise qualified, you can get it for any months when you're not working.

"Most people aren't ready to retire when they're 65. They can't afford to, and most of them don't want to. But many people lose considerable working time after that age. They're likely to be sick more often, and if they lose their jobs it's likely to be harder to get other work. Social security checks would come in handy then—but you won't get them unless you ask for them.

"Your wife, too, if or when she is 65, may get old-age insurance checks for any months when you get them.

"Drawing social security doesn't mean you can't go back to work. If you go to work again, you let the social security office know. It stops your checks for those months when you're earning more than $14.99 on jobs that come under social security. When you stop work again, you notify the social security office and it starts the checks coming again.

"Get all the social security benefits that are coming to you—make sure by getting in touch with the nearest social security office when you're 65."

Weekly Swing of Southwest Markets

By U. S. D. A.
Livestock and grains showed some easiness during the past week, in otherwise unchanged to stronger southwest farm markets, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

After day to day fluctuations during the week, most grains showed net losses of 1 to 2 cents, with white corn and sorghums falling even more. Barley gained two cents to sell from $1.47 to $1.52 at Texas Common points. No. 2 milo closed Monday at $2.72 to $2.77 a hundred pounds and white corn $1.89 to $1.94 a bushel.

Texas sheep markets paid steady to $1 higher prices for sheep and lambs, as other terminals dropped as much as 25 or 50 cents a hundred on some classes. Goat prices rose mainly 50 cents at San Antonio. Best ewes cleared around $9.50 at San Antonio and Denver, $8.50 at Oklahoma City and Wichita, and $10 at Fort Worth.

Wool prices in the Southwest strengthened following the advance in foreign Merino wools. Mohair sold around 40 cents for adult and 60 to 75 for kid f.o.b. Texas.

Hogs netted an advance of mostly 50 cents at Texas markets, but lost as much as 50 cents during the week at Kansas terminals and $1 at Denver. Top butcher hogs cashed at $23.75 at Fort Worth, $23.50 at Oklahoma City and Denver, and $23.25 at San Antonio, Wichita, and Kansas City. Sows brought mainly $18 to $21.50.

Cattle sold unchanged to $1 higher for the week at most southwest terminals, although some classes lost as much as 50 cents at Kansas City. Cows and calves were most numerous in the week's trade. Killing calves moved largely from $25 down at Kansas City and Oklahoma City. Heavy slaughter calves sold mainly from $19 to $24 at Denver, as good and choice grades brought $19 to $24 at Wichita and $21.50 to $25 at Fort Worth. Good calves made $24 to $25 at Houston and San Antonio.

Heavy hens found best demand at southwest poultry markets the past week at slightly stronger prices. Best heavy hens brought 32 to 35 at Dallas and Fort Worth. Fryers sold around 32 to 33 cents at Arkansas farms. Light egg supplies sold firm.

Cotton closed Monday about unchanged for the week. Spot middling 15/16 inch brought 31.55 cents a pound at Dallas, 31.45 at Galveston, and 31.40 at New Orleans.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Sam Marler celebrated his eighty-first birthday November 24 at home with a few friends. He is a Texan by birth and was born in Hopkins County and moved to West Texas in the early seventies in time to see herds of cattle on the trails to Kansas City.

The woods had plenty of deer and bears. Wild cats and Indians made occasional raids through the country. The grass was fine; the rivers, creeks and springs had plenty of water.

He said all a man had to do was cut logs, build him a home, grub the land, split rails, build a fence around it, get his oxen, horses or mules and go to farming.

Everybody will be at the Grammar School Dec. 17, at 8 p. m. to hear the Sagebrush Quartet.

Christmas Roasts Have Holiday Air With Gay Garnishes

When it comes to decorating the Christmas roast, the fun begins. It can be as sumptuous as a whole roast ham, or as budget-wise as a succulent beef pot-roast. The meat makes the meal, but it is the garnish that gives any meal a holiday air.

One important thing to remember is not to over-garnish the meat. The garnishes are only accessories and must not get in the way of proper carving or serving, points out Reba Staags, home economist.

For instance, you might surround that whole ham with sweet potato boats filled with pineapple, she suggests. This is Christmas eating at its best.

For the sweet potatoes first, then skin and hollow them out. Fill the cavities with crushed pineapple which has been mixed with a little sugar and lemon juice. Brush the potatoes with melted butter or margarine, then return to the oven to heat through.

For a king-size beef roast, there's nothing like baked apples stuffed with mince-meat as a garnish. Serve the apples hot if you're planning them for a Christmas dinner feast, or cold if you are slicing the roast and serving it for a buffet.

Symmetrical Christmas trees made of cranberry jelly are good with a fresh pork roast. Select a loin or crown roast of pork, or a fresh ham. Be sure to roast to the well-done stage, then serve with the cranberry trees. Make these by pouring jellied cranberry sauce into greased, cone-shaped paper cups. Stand the cups in water tumblers to keep them upright. To unmold, invert the paper cups. Pipe cream cheese around the trees to resemble Christmas decorations.

If you're planning a holiday buffet, any of these meats would be fine to carve at the table. Serve them on a big bread board, with washed, waxed green leaves covering the surface, and the garnishes at the sides. Carve the first round of servings yourself, then allow the guests to help themselves.

$14 MILLION LOST TO SOCIAL SECURITY WORKERS IN U. S.

A part of 14 million dollars might have been yours. Last year American workers in commerce and industry, or their survivors, lost 14 million dollars in Social Security benefits because they were slow in asking for what was theirs. The individuals who lost this 14 million dollars have no one to blame for this condition but themselves, because they delayed contacting the Social Security Administration. To prevent the loss of possible benefits, remember there are two times when the Social Security Administration field office at Austin should be contacted: First, in case of death, and second, upon reaching 65, if the individual is working in employment by the Social Security Act. You might be the part of 14 million year.
