Governor Jester Calls Election For Feb. 10 For Legislative Place

Gov. Beauford H. Jester of Texas has issued the following proclamation calling a special election for Thursday, February 10, for the purpose of electing a State Representative for the 104th Representative District comprising Mills and Comanche Counties.

In another column of this issue will be found the resignation of J. R. Eanes of Comanche, elected in the Democratic Primary last year, who was forced to resign on account of his health. Mr. Eanes has many friends in Mills and Comanche counties who will be grieved to learn of his resignation.

In another column of this issue will be found the announcement of W. M. (Bill) Haynes, who has been a farmer-rancher in the Duster Community of Comanche County, near De Leon, for the past 45 years. Mr. Haynes was the first to announce in The Eagle for the place, and this is his first attempt at public office.

Rumors which have failed to materialize to date place at least three prominent Mills County citizens in the race, and two former representatives from Comanche County. In this special election to win the place you have to poll more votes than the nearest candidate to you. There'll be no run-off.

County Judge Lewis B. Porter has received the following proclamation from Gov. Beauford H. Jester calling the special election:

PROCLAMATION By The GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF TEXAS To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come:

WHEREAS, a vacancy now exists in the membership of the House of Representatives of this State, occasioned by the resignation, on January 13, 1949, of the Honorable J. R. Eanes, State Representative from the One Hundred and Fourth Representative District, comprising Comanche and Mills Counties, Texas.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BEAUFORD H. JESTER, Governor of Texas, under the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of Texas, and particularly pursuant to Article 16, Section 27, Constitution of Texas, and Article 2953a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, do hereby order an election and issue a writ of election directing that a special election be held in the One Hundred and Fourth Representative District of Texas on the 10th day of February, 1949, for the purpose of electing a State Representative for the One Hundred and Fourth Representative District, comprising the counties aforesaid, to serve out the unexpired term of the Honorable J. R. Eanes, resigned.

A copy of this order or writ will be mailed immediately to the County Judges of Comanche and Mills Counties, Texas, and all appropriate writs will issue and all proper proceedings will be followed to the end that said election may be held and its results proclaimed in accordance with law.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the Seal of State to be affixed hereto at Austin, this 18th day of January, A. D. 1949.

BEAUFORD H. JESTER, Governor of Texas.

Farm And Ranch Group To Meet Here Thursday Night, January 27

L. F. Bain, Administrator of the PMA, will explain the 1949 farm program at the regular meeting of the Farm and Ranch Group on Thursday night, January 27, at 7:30 p. m. at the Mills County Agricultural Building. Dr. T. C. Graves, leader of the Farm and Ranch Group, is extending an invitation to any landowner who would like to hear the 1949 farm program discussed.

"Mills County will get about $30,000 more this year to carry out the farm program," Bain says, "and the allotments will be set up on the basis of needs." Bain will elaborate on these points at the meeting and outline the practices that have been approved for this county.

The Farm and Ranch Group has been meeting once each month to study agricultural subjects. Cover Crops and Range Management have been discussed at previous meetings before good crowds. The Mills County Agricultural Building has a well-heated auditorium that will seat about 60 people comfortably. Farmers and their wives are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

PRIDDY MAN PLACES ANNOUNCEMENT FOR STATE LEGISLATURE

Arthur E. Gromatzky, 35-year-old farmer and rancher who lives 5 miles west of Priddy, who has been a leader in civic affairs in that community since returning from World War Two service, this week authorized The Eagle to announce his candidacy for Representative from the 104th Representative District comprising Mills and Comanche Counties, subject to the special election called by Governor Beauford H. Jester of Texas for Thursday, Feb. 10, to elect a representative to serve in place of J. R. Eanes of Comanche, whose letter of resignation to the Governor will be found in another column in this issue. Mr. Eanes, nominated in the July Democratic primaries and elected at the Nov. 2 general election, resigned on account of bad health.

Mr. Gromatzky is well and favorably known in both Mills and Comanche Counties. He graduated from the Comanche High School in 1932, and after that attended the University of Texas for four years. He is a World War Two veteran, with four year's service in the Army Air Corps.

Since his release from service he has worked the last few years in the interest and development of rural electrification in Mills and Comanche Counties, with the Agricultural Adjustment Administration in Mills County, and for the State AAA office at A & M College.

As Comanche County outvotes Mills County, and as Comanche County has furnished the State Representative for both counties for many years, Mr. Gromatzky is asking for the vote and support of the voters of both Mills and Comanche Counties. He promises if elected to give his best efforts to advance the interests of this section of Texas—and says he will not attend any party of any nature given by lobbyists in Austin who wine and dine our elected officers for benefit of big special interests.

Mr. Gromatzky will have a statement to the voters of Mills and Comanche Counties in next week's issue of The Eagle.

Miss Floy Woodard's 925-pound calf, "J. B.," was judged Grand Champion of the Twelfth Annual Mills County Livestock Raisers Association show here last Saturday afternoon by Judge Stud Barnes. Miss Woodard is a 17-year-old junior in the Star High School. Miss Woodard fed the calf, which was bred by H. A. Fitzsimmons.

Robert Henry Johnson's "Kilroy Return" was judged Reserve Champion. Johnson's "Kilroy" won state honors last January at the Houston Livestock Show by being judged Grand Champion there. That made the second year in a row that Mills County 4-H Club Boys and F. F. A. Boys brought home the bacon from the Houston state show, Jim Bob Steen having won Grand Champion honors at Houston in 1946 with a fat calf called "Flat Top."

Although the weather was partly bad last Friday and Saturday, large crowds attended the show here, which was held in the new Mills County Agriculture Building. Saturday morning the ground on the outside was muddy, but the visitors waded the mud with smiles.

AUBREY H. SMITH PLANS TO RUN FOR STATE LEGISLATURE

A telegram received by The Eagle just before noon yesterday from Aubrey H. Smith of Austin, states he will announce next week for the State Representative place vacated by the resignation of Representative-elect J. R. Eanes of Comanche, who wrote the Governor a letter of resignation on account of his health last week.

Aubrey attended Goldthwaite High School here. He is a son of former Goldthwaite School Superintendent A. H. Smith, now of San Antonio. He will be the third to announce for the job. Rumors are that two or three more from Comanche County and maybe two or three more from Mills County may enter the race next week.

Governor Beauford H. Jester of Texas has called a special election to be held in Mills and Comanche Counties for February 10, 1949, to fill the vacancy.

INSPECTOR TO VISIT GOLDTHWAITE ON FREE MAIL SERVICE

Mrs. Lucile Fairman, acting postmaster, received the following letter this week from V. C. Burke, First Assistant Postmaster General:

Mrs. Lucile Fairman, Acting Postmaster, Goldthwaite, Texas.

Dear Mrs. Fairman:

This refers to your letter of December 30, 1948, completed Form 1342, and the letters from four civic organizations concerning the proposed establishment of city delivery service at Goldthwaite.

It has been decided that the matter should be investigated by a post office inspector. The papers have therefore been referred for the inspector's consideration, and when the Bureau has reached a decision on his report you will be further informed.

Sincerely yours,
V. C. BURKE,
First Assistant.

A vendetta is a feud.

TO THE VOTERS OF COMANCHE AND MILLS COUNTIES

After consideration and consulting with friends, I have decided to enter the race for Representative. This vacancy, as you know, was caused by the resignation of my friend, Mr. Eanes, on account of his health. I regret his misfortune and I wish for him a successful recovery.

Now for those who do not know me personally, I am a native Texan. I moved to Comanche County in 1904. Have farmed and ranched all my life, and have never sought, or held any kind of elective office.

I am for the enactment of any Legislation that I think would be to the best interest of all. Especially to Rural or Farm to Market Roads, Soil and Water Conservation, and any Legislation for the improvement of our schools.

I am not well enough posted at present to commit myself on the Gilmer Aiken proposal. I am also in favor of reforming our prison system and other Legislation that is now Pending and others that will come before the Legislature at this session. I will vote to the best of my judgment on all questions. The voters will naturally know that I am in favor of any legislation that will help the living conditions of our old folks.

The campaign will be short, and with the possibility of bad weather, it will be impossible to contact all personally. I am acquainted with most of the people in Comanche County, also Mills County, but if you do not know me, ask some of your neighbors. Therefore I take this means of asking for your support, and if I am elected, I will serve to the best of my ability.

W. M. (Will) HAYNES. (Editor's note—Mr. Haynes has been a farmer and rancher in Duster Community, near De Leon, Comanche County, for 45 years.)

For A Better TOMORROW

... we must work better today!
When the miller turns out better wheat, we eat better. If the manufacturer builds a better car, we travel better. As business and industry produce finer things, we improve our standard of living.

The future is in our hands. Tomorrows are the products of today's labor and planning. We hope that each page on the 1949 calendar brings with it the success and happiness you want, and are working for!

LET 'ER SNOW--

Old Hunnert, after these many months, has finally got his Weather Distributor machine straightened out. Here's what happened: Some Goldthwaite high school boys got wise to where O. H. kept the famous W. D. out at the edge of town—and you know what G. H. S. boys'll do! Enyway, O. H. has at last and at least got some of them rusty wires fixed so's when he punches R on them buttons he don't get snow, sleet and I over E (ice over everything). As the 7th's appetite takes up $9.50 of O. H.'s weekly 11 dullers, and the 1.50 left is for incidentals, Holland Frizzell, just 83 years old and ain't learned too much yet, dug up down deep and bought O. H. a lock to put on the W. D. building. So, from here on out, the weather will be as, if and when wanted by them double-crossers—time that'll jingle in O. H.'s pocket, remember. Enyway, on Boss's orders, here's what O. H. pulled out of the drawer's dept. this week:

"This is nothing. There's five tons of coal underneath."

DRIPPED AG'IN--

Now, jest take last year when O. H. was electing a new Pres. to serve for four years to rule this kinty—which they won't, and also to put them cheap US dullers in their pockets of them show Europeans—o. h. throwed his hat in that political ring and, by-gum, got 2 votes for res. of these USlesses. O. h. orter took out when he found at that he couldn't rent out at W. House account it had have a million dullers worth repair—the million is what it cost us taxpaying citizens, but I over a few thousand will be aft. Also, o. h. has jest recent read where the Pres. advisors advised him to get his salary raised as, if and when he n before the kinty goes bankruptcy. This is the only time in a last few years that them es. advisers has advised him way near right. Old Hunnert going to write his Congressmen about why them one million extra not needed govt. empees at 2 thousand per year he is still kept on the govt. roll this long after the election. Everybuddy around here says that Mr. Harry had to up them on and us taxpayers n't gripe none a-tall, until the Nov. 2 election that he him a 35 thousand lead in (Million, my friend,) votes t. After he's set up good for core years, our Congressman could see it that them mil. extras do-nothing govt. empees should get canned as of week. We need some ditch gress at 75c per hour. Next week, o. h.'s going to print a asking US Mills County gress to write our Pres., if or our Congressman, to report to US about them extras that've been our unwanted—since WW2 declared won, and which useless and unneeded as man is in the Siberian between these USes and Rushns.

Just this week when o. h. the 7th why we wasn't give anything of his 11 salary, the 7th said very say: "It's the neighbors, F. They're always doing thing we can't afford."

Our WASHINGTON Letter
By CONG. O. D. FISHER
As this is written, Washington is in a dither over the approaching inauguration. At a cost of a half million dollars, stands have been built and thousands of seats erected for cash customers to view the mile-long parade. These seats cost from $10.00 down.

It will be a big day for souvenir hunters. Commemorative coins, programs and what have you are on sale.

Even the lowly hot-dogs will ride the wave of lush money that day and for the first time in history around here will sell for 20c each, puppy size.

Everybody's worried about the weather. A taxi driver guessed the "Truman luck" will hold out and that fair weather will be with us.

When the President rides down historic Pennsylvania Avenue on Inauguration Day he will travel over ground steeped in inaugural drama. That ride is one of our deep-seated traditions.

When Abe Lincoln came to Washington for his first inauguration seven states had left the Union and the newly-elected President came into an unfriendly city. Washington, after all, is South of the Mason-Dixon Line. They say three-fourths of the capital residents regarded Lincoln as an enemy.

Eurotue to Washington from Illinois, he was induced to change his schedule in order to avoid assassination. He slipped into town at 6:00 a. m.

In this Inaugurational atmosphere he rode up Pennsylvania Avenue in a carriage surrounded by soldiers. Sharp-shooters on housetops trained their rifles on the main street below.

It was thus that the "backwoodsman" rode to the Capital to swear to preserve the Union.

Rough weather has played havoc with many inaugural pageants and imperiled the health of many Presidents. Indeed, one President lost his life as a result of exposure during the inauguration. William Henry Harrison, oldest man ever to become President, died of pneumonia attributed in large part to the rigors of the swearing-in ceremonies.

Harrison, the 68 year old warrior of Tippecanoe, hatless and without an overcoat, mounted a white horse and rode him triumphantly from the White House to the Capitol on a wintry day. He spoke for an hour facing a raw wind, then stood in a receiving line all afternoon and polished off the day by attending three inauguration balls. He died exactly one month later.

But the worst inaugural weather in history greeted William H. Taft, an elderly taxi-driver recalled it to me the other day.

It was a whirling blizzard, he recalled, featured by flares of lightning, rain, sleet, heavy snowfall and a whirling wind. Telephone and telegraph lines were down, and Washington was isolated for hours.

It was the first time in 76 years a president-elect took the oath indoors, the ceremony taking place in the Senate Chamber, which at that time seated only a handful of people.

Four years ago, I witnessed the fourth inauguration of the late President Roosevelt. It was wartime and the President was ailing. The ceremony was quiet and simple. There was no parade, no fireworks. The scene was in the up-stairs White House back porch, since remodeled with the famous Truman balcony. And the weather was good. Everyone stood in the lawn and observed an abbreviated ceremony.

The Truman inauguration, weather permitting, promises to be one of the very biggest in history.

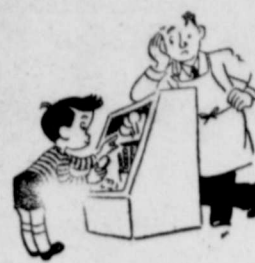

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Truth" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 23. The Golden Text is: "Thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, and long-suffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth" (Psalms 86:15). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name" (Psalms 86:11). The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary

Baker Eddy: "The understanding of Truth gives full faith. Truth, and spiritual understanding is better than all burnt offerings" (page 286). —Eagle Want Ads Get Results

'NEW' JOE E. BROWN SCORES HIT IN 'TENDER YEARS'

There's a rich and exciting screen experience in store for local moviegoers with the opening Saturday, matinee and night at the Melba Theatre of "The Tender Years," a Twentieth Century-Fox release which stars Joe E. Brown in his first dramatic film role.

Here is a picture that carries a new emotional thrill with one of the greatest and best-loved comedians of all time emerging as a wonderful new screen personality. For Brown's dramatic debut, Producer Edward L. Alperson has provided him with a grand vehicle, a rich, heart-warming story, tender and poignant, yet carrying a terrific impact that will stay with you for a long time to come.

"The Tender Years" tells the story of a small-town minister who suddenly finds himself catapulted into the fight of his lifetime, battling to right a wrong that even the town's most respectable people had winked at for a long time. Rev. "Will" Norris' existence was placid enough, ministering to his community's spiritual needs, and being "the best dad a fellow ever had" to his twelve-year-old son, Ted. But one day Ted brings a dog home with him. The dog, badly slashed, turns out to have escaped from its owner who had pitted it in the ring in the brutal sport of dog fighting. Will is forced by "legal rights" to return it to its arrogant master, only to find that he has lost the love and respect of his shocked son.

UNCONQUERED

The technique of the super-Western, thrills, suspense, continuous action, fights and danger, uncomplicated drama and straight romance combined with grandeur of setting and a broad canvas—has no better master than Cecil Blount DeMille. He's been doing it since "The Squaw Man" and he does it here again in the grand manner.

The catalogue of historical epics which includes "King of Kings," "The Crusades," and "Union Pacific" will be embellished but not diversified by this latest work; it is DeMille complete down to the bathtub, wooden, with Paulette Goddard immersed in the suds.

The producer-director turns this time for his history to the American colonial struggle for the empire west of the Appalachians. It is 1763, the year that Pontiac, chief of the Ottawas, led 18 Indian nations in a final desperate struggle to halt the white man's westward march and after burning and massacring forts and settlements along 500 miles of frontier was defeated at Fort Pitt after a 90-day siege.

The history is accurate in infinite detail, erring only on the side of simplification in the interests of the story, the settings are magnificent in Technicolor, and the actors are numerous, expensive and competent. All that, in these days of fantastic prices, costs money, and the picture gives evidence in every one of its 130 minutes that the budget was never spared.

"Unconquered"—Their daring carved a nation out of a wilderness and America's glory on the pillars of history. In Technicolor. Sunday and Monday at The Melba Theatre.

HALL COUNTY WINS MERIT PLAQUE FOR 4-H BETTER METHODS

For the second consecutive year, Hall county has been selected by the State Extension office as reporting the most outstanding 4-H Better Methods Electric program of 1948 in Texas. In recognition of this achievement, the County Extension office receives a Westinghouse Educational Foundation plaque of merit, approximately inscribed. Purpose of the awards program, it was announced, is to encourage 4-H youth to simplify farm and home tasks.

Typical jobs analyzed, according to W. B. Hooser, County Agricultural Agent, were livestock watering and spraying, feed grinding, milking, brooding chicks, and drying and elevating threshed grain. Grinding feed for livestock brought best results, he reported. It was found that wasted time with old methods could be turned into extra profits, which would pay for wiring and installing electric power for farm operation.

A county-wide Rural Electrification program was carried on in 16 4-H Clubs of Hall county with 483 members participating, Hooser reported. An unelectrified farm survey revealed that 1,282 houses were energized compared to 1,065 a year ago. Explaining the Better Methods Electric contest at regular meetings of 4-H Clubs, augmented by follow-up displays proved most effective in developing the program, stated Hooser.

Jimmie Bownds of Memphis was county medal winner of the 1948 National 4-H Better Methods Electric program, while Wayne White of Coahoma won state and Howard county honors. Thirty-two other county winners were named throughout the state.

Chevrolet's 'Balanced Design' Adds Beauty and Comfort,

Progressive streamlining of the 1949 Chevrolet is in emphasis in this view of the Styleline De Luxe four-door sedan against a new Martin 202 passenger air-liner. Notable in the roomier, lower cars is a balance in design that adds greater comfort and driving ease as well as smart appearance.

NEW CHEVROLET ON DISPLAY HERE TOMORROW, SAT.

Chevrolet's 1949 passenger cars, completely restyled and possessing more mechanical improvements than any model within recent years, go on display at dealer showrooms here Saturday, January 22.

The automobile is the product of three years of engineering research and design development. Begun immediately after V-J Day, experimental work has included 1,068,000 miles of test driving over the roads of the General Motors Proving Ground and arid highways of the southwest.

The local showing will be held simultaneously with displays in other cities and is expected to draw one of the biggest crowds in the history of events of its kind.

From inquiries at our offices and dealer showrooms, we know that literally millions are waiting to see the car," said T. H. Keating, general sales manager. "Chevrolet's solid reputation for value and reports of impressive new features have kindled a nationwide interest.

"We do not believe the public will be disappointed. While the car carries numerous comfortable and convenience advances, it maintains our tradition of rugged, reliable transportation at the lowest possible cost."

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH
New radar screens spot approaching storms as far as two hundred miles away making it possible to give at least six hours warning. More and more progress is being made in the science of weather forecasting. There seemingly is no comparable progress being made in foretelling the future good or ill of a human being. This, it seems to me, is because far too many people today are unmindful of the unchangeable law that "whatsoever a man sows, that shall he also reap". The spirit of Jesus Christ is reflected in the personality of all who practice right, and the end of that person is coveted by all sensible people. A wicked spirit is reflected in the personality of all who practice evil, and the end of that person is shameful defeat because he habitually refused to embrace principles which could have made his life a success. EANES RESIGNS AS REPRESENTATIVE
(From Comanche Chief.)
J. R. Eanes, Comanche, State Representative-elect, Comanche and Mills Counties, has resigned, for reasons set forth in the copy of the following letter mailed Thursday to Governor Jester:

Comanche, Texas
January 13, 1949

Governor Beauford H. Jester
State Capitol Bldg.
Austin, Texas

Dear Sir:

I wish to express my sincere thanks to you for your very kind letter of recent date in response to my request for a leave of absence from the House for the opening days. I appreciate greatly your interest.

I have, from the inception of my illness a few short weeks ago felt certain that I would be able to serve in the House of Representatives during the sessions of the 51st Legislature.

I am very sorry to inform you that my personal physicians and consultants at this time advise me to tender my resignation because of the detrimental effects that may accrue to my good chances of recovery if I were to assume the duties of a House member. Therefore, in the interests of the people of this district I wish to take this means of informing you of my resignation from the House effective this date and respectfully request you to call a special election for this district (Comanche and Mills Counties) so that the voters can select a person to fill the vacancy created by my resignation. I regret very much the necessity of this action.

With best wishes for a very successful session of the 51st Legislature, I am

Very sincerely yours,
J. R. Eanes.

SAYLOR CHEVROLET CO. TO DISPLAY 1949 CHEVROLET SATURDAY

A product of three years' development work and more than a million miles of engineering research, the 1949 Chevrolet goes on display in dealer showrooms here Saturday.

The latest model has been completely restyled. It is lower, wider and more distinctive than any previous series. Not only does the design introduce superior beauty to the lowest-priced ranks, but numerous body and chassis improvements promise to add to Chevrolet's reputation for comfort, safety and convenience.

Two series of cars, the Fleetline and Skyline, are included with De Luxe treatment an option in most body types. De Luxe cars lay increased emphasis on the styling of fabrics, trim and appointments. The lineup shows:

Theodore Roosevelt was the youngest president of the U. S. John Paul Jones was the first great naval hero of America.

DROUTH IN THIS SECTION ENDS; RAIN, SLEET, SNOW THIS WEEK

Rain, ice, sleet and snow, falling in Mills County and in West Texas during the past two weeks, is believed to have permanently broken the three-year drouth which has been bad enough in Mills County and too bad for counties farther west. The last three months of 1948 were the driest experienced here since 1917 old timers say.

Drizzling rain which turned to ice on Monday and Tuesday of last week registered 30 of an inch in Harry Allen's government gauge here in town. Last Saturday night's rain hit the Jack-pot here in town with .95 of an inch. Other places in Mills County reported more than this. Again Monday night a fall of sleet and snow registered .16 of an inch here—bringing the January total to date to 1.41 inches of moisture.

As the month of January has always been a heavy moisture month in Mills County, and as several amateur weather forecasters in West Texas have predicted that January will bring much moisture in rain, sleet and snow, people here feel that the long dry season has at last—or will soon—be broken.

A GOOD RESOLUTION

A few weeks ago the New Year was greeted throughout the nation with prayer and song and dance. We said goodbye to 1948, extended a welcoming hand to the Newcomer, and exchanged mutual expressions of hope with our friends that the New Year would prove happy and prosperous.

At the same time, the great majority of Americans gave some thought to New Year resolutions. Most of us might even have kept some of them, right up to this "late" date. But if we did not, there still is a chance to redeem ourselves right now.

There is one resolution every man, woman and child should make and keep. It is an easy one. It entails little or no sacrifice. It will give you a grand feeling—but more important, it will help bring back to health youngsters you may know, or have heard of, or perhaps never even knew existed.

That resolution is simply to: "JOIN THE MARCH OF DIMES, JANUARY 14-31." The dimes and dollars given to the 1949 appeal of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis will enable that organization to rebuild chapter funds exhausted during last year's polio epidemics—which were comparable to those of 1916, worst in history.

You will never miss the dime or dollar you contribute. Resolve now to give generously to the MARCH OF DIMES. You may be sure you will share in the prayers of thousands of little ones. You will write the score for a song of a brighter future. Yes, these polio-stricken children may even be able to dance again... because YOU helped.

A TURN IN TEXAS AGRICULTURE

Twenty-five years have made a big change in Texas agriculture.

A quarter of a century ago, Texas farmers received a large share of their income from cotton—around 70 percent, according to the figures. Today, livestock is taking the place of cotton as the basis of income. It isn't quite up to the 70 percent mark, however. At the present time, the income of Texas farmers from livestock and livestock products runs about 40 percent of the total income.

Sales from other Texas crops—wheat, rice, sorghum, citrus, flax and peanuts—made up around 33 to 35 percent of Texas' farm income. This growth in sales from fruits and crops other than cotton brings out the increasing commercial importance of these parts of Texas agriculture. The big need for food and feed during the war and the years following was one main cause for this upward trend in these crops, says H. C. Bates, Extension farm management specialist of Texas A. and M. College.

Also, markets for an increasing volume of milk have developed from the rapid expansion of the industrial activity in the state. Population growth within Texas and the Southwest calls for an increased output of meats, poultry and dairy products. Prospects are that this growth will balance the economic pattern with more livestock on Texas farms.

This big turn in agriculture wasn't a case of wanting to, he concluded, but of having to.

No Greater Prophet

Lesson for January 23, 1949

"OF ALL the characters in history, which one do you admire most?" We know how Jesus answered that interesting question.

He had a great array of personages from whom to make his selection. But he took as the Great Man of all time, up to his own generation, no heroic figure from the past, no king, general, scholar or prophet. The greatest man, for Jesus could think of none greater—was one of his own contemporaries, a cousin of his who was in jail at the time when Jesus said of him, "Among those born of women none is greater than John." Known to us as John the Baptist, that is, John the Baptizer, we seldom realize either his greatness or the close connection between his life and that of Jesus.

John of the Jordan

WE DO not know how much Jesus himself owed to John. We do know that John was the man who first called the public's attention to Jesus. John it was who gave some of Jesus' most important disciples their first training; John who introduced to Jesus, and turned over to him, some of his own followers. It may be significant too that Jesus' first preaching was identical with that of John (compare Matthew 3:2 and 4:17).

Some Christian scholars have gone so far as to suppose that it was John's preaching that stirred the young carpenter from Nazareth to leave his shop and begin his great work as teacher.

Whether this is so or not, we do know that it was the baptizing by John which led to the baptism of Jesus, and that Jesus' baptism was the turning-point between Jesus' private life and his short and stormy public career. It is quite clear that if there had been no John the Baptizer, the story of Jesus would have been very different from what it actually was.

Only a Voice

JOHN'S own picture of himself is not a picture at all. When they asked him to say what he was, and half-expected him to declare that he was the Messiah, the long-looked-for King, John said only, "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness."

John, so far as we know, never accepted dinner invitations, he was never under the roof of any friend, and he had no roof of his own. People even called him demon-possessed, he was so far removed from ordinary life.

But Jesus was always in people's homes. That is one reason why the greatness of John fades before the greatness of Jesus, for a Voice makes a poor companion. Jesus had the human sympathy that John lacked, and John well knew this. "He must increase, but I must decrease," he said.

Repentance: Seed and Fruit

NEVERTHELESS the Voice spoke truth. John must have been a powerful preacher, for his meetings were held miles from the nearest town, so that to reach him from Jerusalem one would have to travel through wild country infested with bandits. Few modern preachers, without benefit of advertising, music or choir, without even a tent, would dare to start a revival meeting 15 rough miles out of town. But John did—and the people came in crowds. We do not have the full report of his preaching of Jesus, but we do know that he broke the hard crust of his listeners' conscience.

He made them see how unfit they were for the Kingdom of God for which they prayed; he broke down their pride till they went down to the Jordan and were baptised under the open sky, in public confession of their sins.

When men asked him, What shall we do? John did not have the fuller, higher message that Jesus later had. But he did make plain two things about the good life, the life that pleases God: It cannot even begin without repentance and confession of sin, but it does not end there. Repentance is not a simple granite milestone on life's way; it is a seed which if it is real will bear fruit.

PASTOR OF 42 YEARS AGO DIES

Rev. J. S. Bowles III died at his home in Fort Worth, December 29, and was laid to rest in the Garden of Memories Park, Fort Worth, Texas, after a long illness. Rev. Bowles came from Missouri as pastor to the Methodist Church in Goldthwaite in 1906 and served the charge three years. After his retirement he returned to this city and lived five years as he had a host of friends among the church people.

He was born in Ripley, Virginia (now known as West Virginia) in 1861 to Rev. M. V. Bowles and Mary Rayburn Bowles. His father became known as the Old Man Eloquent of the West Virginia Conference. His family was the descendants of the three Bowles brothers who settled in the Massachusetts colony, one of whom migrated to the Virginia Colony during that period. This southern branch of the family has had a place in the religious history of the Virginia, having given ten ministers to the Methodist Church in that section of the country, beginning with his great grandfather, Dr. Mason Bowles, a pioneer doctor and local preacher, besides teachers, college professors, doctors, lawyers have taken their places in the nation's work from this branch of the Bowles brothers. The present governor-elect of Connecticut is from the New England branch. J. S. Bowles grew up the hard way during the Reconstruction Period after the war between the States. He taught school to educate himself, as he felt the call to the ministry early in life. At the age of 24 he preached his first sermon in Bowles Chapel on Parchment Creek, West Virginia, built by his grandfather for the community in 1884. He entered the ministry in 1886 and retired in 1923. Bro. Bowles often laughingly said he had lived through four stages of transportation in his service to mankind: walked his first circuit; rode horseback with Bible and belongings in saddle bags; a station pastor, driving a pair of matched horses to buggy; then he served his last pastorate by automobile.

Bro. Bowles belonged to the old school of southern gentlemen; while his material possessions were not great, he was rich in experiences with God and mankind; he was deeply interested in the betterment of mankind and many a poor boy or girl found his or her way to an education through the influence of this good man; until his last illness, he taught the Men's Bible Class and kept up with the affairs of his country and the world. The poetry which he composed reflected his high minded thoughts and his love of beauty. He left a religious message to each of his children; a book of his poems titled "The Quest of the Soul."

Rev. M. A. Turner, an old acquaintance of the Central Texas Conference, wrote of him: "I shall never forget his sparkling but chaste wit and his brilliant discussions of the deeper things of life—both new and old. His limited and circumscribed lot in this life gave too little room for the expression of his great mind and soul. His early physical collapse was a tragic loss to the ministry and the church he loved so well."

Dr. P. E. Riley, secretary of the Board of Conference Claimants of the Central Conference of the Methodist Church, writes of him: "I have known him through many long years, and have always held him in the highest esteem, and greatly appreciated his friendship. He was an elegant gentleman, a true Christian, always and anywhere, a good minister of Jesus Christ. He wrought well in his day and has left a vacant place in life."

Survivors: Wife, Flora G. Bowles; sons: L. R. Bowles, Van Horn; Major J. S. Bowles, Dallas; daughters, Mmes. Anna Duff Rinaman, Mary O'Neal, Frankfurt, Germany; two grandchildren; nieces, Mmes. J. P. Henderson, Hildred Thompson, of Huntington, West Virginia; a nephew, Judge Martin Bowles, Charleston, West Virginia.

Plans are being made by Trinity Church in Fort Worth to establish a J. S. Bowles Memorial, not a small thing but something worthy of the Christian life that Brother Bowles lived, one in which every member might have a part.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

"IT IS OUR OWN LIBERTY, GUARDED BY CONSTITUTIONS AND SECURED BY UNION, IT IS THAT LIBERTY WHICH IS OUR PATERNAL INHERITANCE, IT IS OUR ESTABLISHED DEAR-Bought PECULIAR AMERICAN LIBERTY TO WHICH I AM DEVOTED AND THE CAUSE OF WHICH I MEAN, TO THE MOST OF MY POWER, TO MAINTAIN AND DEFEND."

DANIEL WEBSTER—JAN. 18, 1782—OCT. 24, 1852

KNOWN AS THE "DEFENDER OF THE CONSTITUTION", DANIEL WEBSTER—THROUGH HIS IMPASSIONED SPEECHES—WAS CREDITED, MORE THAN ONCE, WITH HAVING HELPED TO PRESERVE THE UNION.
 THROUGHOUT OUR HISTORY, IN TIMES OF CRISIS, MEN LIKE WEBSTER—DEVOTED TO THE CAUSE OF LIBERTY AND UNION—HAVE STEPPED FORTH TO STRENGTHEN AND REAFFIRM AMONG ALL FACTIONS, TRUST AND BELIEF IN AMERICAN DEMOCRACY.
