NOTICE:

Due to the fact that requests for less use of Water have been in most cases ignored, it has become necessary to LIMIT the use of Water to Household necessities.

This means there shall be no more Watering of shrubs, flowers, gardens, lawns or water used for any purpose that is not necessary to Life and Health until further notice by the City Council.

A recent check of meters shows that the use of water has increased from twenty-five to fifty percent in the last thirty-day period and that this increase has been by at least ninety percent of the customers. These figures prove that we can eliminate the shortage without a hardship to anyone.

Your City Council has seen fit to issue this Notice and if it is not obeyed will take whatever step necessary to enforce the order.

Anthrax Outbreak In County Causes Quarantine Of One-Fifth Of Its Area

Dr. King of Brady, District Veterinarian for the Texas Livestock Sanitary Commission, Thursday imposed a livestock quarantine on about one-fifth of Mills County in territory west and south of Goldthwaite.

Anthrax broke out among cattle in that territory two weeks ago, and a voluntary vaccination campaign conducted since then has failed to get 100 per cent results.

The quarantine is for thirty days, or longer if necessary. All cattle in the territory will have to be vaccinated, and all that die from the disease are to be burned completely.

The Mills County Sheriff's Department is to enforce the quarantine, and is to see that no livestock be moved in or out of the territory quarantined. By no livestock is meant any domestic animal—chicken, dog, cat, cattle or horses.

Dr. King was here Thursday putting the quarantine into effect and supervising the vaccinations. All cattle in the area of the quarantine will have to be vaccinated before it is lifted.

The Mills County Commissioners' Court in called session has authorized expenditure of enough money to carry out the quarantine. Anthrax, although mostly an animal disease, has been known to kill many people.

Forty to 50 head of cattle have already died from the disease in the quarantined area. Signs with 24-hour guards are to be placed on roads leading out of the area to see that no livestock go into or out during the quarantine period.

Last outbreak of anthrax in Mills County was in 1944, when a small area successfully fought the disease with a voluntary vaccination campaign. Last anthrax quarantine in the county was in 1938 or 1939.

The Texas Livestock Sanitary Commission, passed a livestock quarantine on a portion of Mills County, beginning June 23rd. The territory will begin at the city limits west on Farm to Market No. 574 on Regency road to the Slack Bridge, then down the Bayou, to the Colorado River; the other line to begin near the city limits on the Lampasas Highway south of town, and follow the highway to the road in the Scallorn Community west with the public road south of F. R. Hines and back with the old highway to near Ward Carlisle, then west on the Burnham Road, to M. T. Burnham's place, then west to the Colorado River. This is approximately the territory, however there may be some minor changes.

The Livestock Sanitary Commission has asked for a strict enforcement of this quarantine, with the assurance that if any individual in the territory that does not vaccinate, he will be under quarantine until the time he reports that all livestock has been vaccinated satisfactory to the Commission, and that if any stock dies on the place they shall be burned and completely destroyed. The Commission further insists that stockmen along the boundary to the extent of 2 to 3 miles out of the quarantined territory, vaccinate to prevent the spread over the boundary lines.

The Commission requires guards to be stationed at the road entrance and exit of the territory, at the expense of Mills County to the amount of about $100.00 per day. Any person who fails to co-operate is doing it at the detriment of his neighbors and county. At the suggestion of the Livestock Sanitary Commission the County tried for two weeks to carry out a voluntary campaign, and would have succeeded had it not been for a very few who did not vaccinate, and as many as two different persons who instead of calling the Sheriff's department, called the Soap Factory to come and haul the dead cattle out of the area instead of having them consumed by the only method recommended for destroying animals that die with Anthrax.

The Livestock Commission is very complimentary of the majority of the citizens in this locality, and paid special compliments to the Jernigan Brothers, owners of Mills County Auction, for their co-operation in helping to control the contagion at this time.

For any information, any assistance, or to report any irregularities, all good citizens should not hesitate to call your Sheriff's department, who is always willing to help you in your needs, and is anxious that the anthrax be exterminated from Mills County, once and for all. Through co-operation is the only way that it can be done.

New Officers Installed For Goldthwaite Lions Club Tuesday Night

Rev. Ed. Lovelace
NEW PASTOR FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. Ed. H. Lovelace, with Mrs. Lovelace, has recently moved to Goldthwaite to become the pastor of the Methodist Church. He follows the Rev. M. Dick Lowry who had been the popular pastor of the Methodist Church here for the past two years and who was transferred to Kennedy, Texas, at the May session of the Southwest Texas Annual Conference.

The Rev. Mr. Lovelace comes here after five and one half years as pastor of the Methodist Church in Sterling City, Texas, of the San Angelo District. Earlier he served as pastor of Hackberry Street Methodist Church and Associate Pastor of the Laurel Heights Methodist Church, both in San Antonio. While at Laurel Heights Church he was also Minister of Education and Church Music.

Mr. Lovelace is a graduate of Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia, (1920-27) holding the B. P., M. A., and B. D. Degrees from that institution. He has done Graduate Work at the University of Chicago in Religious Education and has been with the Westminster and Christian-Choir Schools for two summer sessions in California and Chicago respectively. For five years he was Instructor in Hymnology in the School of Theology of Emory University. He was also a member of the University Glee Club which toured Europe in the summer of 1926.

Mrs. Lovelace, the former Miss Helen Christie of Decatur, Georgia, is a graduate of the Georgia State College for Women and the Atlanta Conservatory of Music. She has served several years as church organist during the intervening years and was a teacher of Public School Music for three years while in Sterling City.

RE-BURIAL FOR MAURICE LONG TO BE SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Sgt. Maurice Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan E. Long of Goldthwaite, will be re-buried Sunday afternoon, June 26th. Services will be conducted at 4:00 o'clock in the Big Valley Baptist Church, with interment in the Big Valley Cemetery. The body will arrive in Goldthwaite Saturday morning at 7:55, and will be taken to the home of his parents until time for the services.

Mr. and Mrs. Duke Carroll of Elliasville spent the week end here with her mother, Mrs. A. D. Karnes and other relatives and friends.

Lion John A. Hester was installing officers for new officers to serve the Goldthwaite Lions Club for the next year, at the regular third Tuesday night meeting at The Hangar. A large number of Lions and two guests, Harry Sutherland of Kaufman, Texas, and Tommie Tucker from Hollywood, were present.

Officers installed included: President—Warren P. Duren. Secretary-Treasurer—T. M. Glass. First Vice-President—Hope Schultz. Second Vice-President—Dr. C. C. Sadler.

Third Vice-President—S. C. Mauldin. Tail Twister—Leston Bain. Lion Tamer—Brian Smith. Directors—Loy Long and Dr. M. A. Childress. Carry-over directors, Leonard Archer and D. D. Tate.

Lion President Joe B. Karnes announced that Sunday, July 10, would be Mills County Day to entertain veterans in the Waco Hospital. Also, that the JayCee Girls' Softball team had challenged the Lions Club to play an all-ladies softball game here at the end of the season. Proceeds above expenses to be split between the two organizations.

The retiring president said he greatly appreciated the cooperation he had received from the officers and every individual member of the Lions Club during the year he had served as head of the organization, that had made it a pleasure for him to serve. He asked the cooperation of the members for the incoming officers.

Lion Joseph L. Emery, who had been invited by the program committee to speak to the club, made an excellent address on our responsibility to our young people, which was very much appreciated by every one present. He read some statistics of death and accidents caused in the U. S. by teen-agers at the auto wheel, and said it is our responsibility to help as fathers by setting the right example before them. He listed four things that fathers should do in expressing our responsibility to the young people: Daily conduct; language we employ; recreational facilities for our community; and expression in church affiliation.

Upon invitation from the club, Tommie Tucker from Hollywood, a movie sound-effect man, gave some excellent imitations which were very entertaining and very much appreciated.

Circle No. Two
Circle Number two of the Methodist Church will meet Monday afternoon, June 27, at 3:00 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Robert Johnson, Jr. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Walton Daniel and little son, Tommy, attended services at the Baptist Church here Sunday.

Goldthwaite Utilities Manager Asks People To Conserve Water

Dear Citizen: We are doing what we can to keep your supply of water constant. Wells are being pumped to capacity around the clock, but, there is not enough water.

The washing of cars by stations has been stopped and the boys who run these wash racks should be complimented for giving up this cash business with out a single protest.

The time has arrived for the rest of us to give up something. Whatever use you are making of water in excess of necessity must be discontinued.

It is not possible for us to furnish water to one part of town at the expense of another, but those living on high spots are naturally being penalized because the pressure will not reach them.

We are asking YOU to help US to help YOUR NEIGHBOR and YOURSELF.

Very truly,
CITY UTILITIES

• Maybe you enjoy slow farming... but there's no money in it. If I can show you faster farming... with no more work, you'll be interested, won't you?

All right, just take one feature of the Ford Tractor, the 4-speed transmission. On the road it'll give you up to 12 1/2 miles per hour. In third speed (top field working speed), it'll give you 6 miles per hour. And so on down... each speed, even the reverse, is faster. Saves lots of hours in a year.

Texas Voters Still Want Poll Tax, Texas Poll Survey Shows This Week

By JOE BELDEN
 Director, The Texas Poll
 Austin, Texas—The rank and file of Texas adults still tend to favor the poll tax as a requirement for voting, even though feeling among the state's political leaders is that it should be abolished.

Research by The Texas Poll indicates there has been little or no change in public opinion on the poll tax during the past six months. Of a statewide cross section of adults questioned in May, 51 per cent said they thought Texas should keep the tax. Exactly the same percentage voted in favor of the tax in a comparable survey last December.

In its latest survey, The Texas Poll asked persons favoring the poll tax why they thought it should be kept. One out of every three said they felt the state needed the revenue. Some of these pointed out that the tax now helps to finance the public school system, and a few were worried that other taxes might be raised if the poll tax were abolished.

Another important reason why people favor the poll tax, they confess, is because it "keeps the poor and ignorant from voting." Only two per cent, however, admitted they backed the poll tax because they feel it keeps the Negroes from voting.

Most of those who want the poll tax abolished criticize it generally as being undemocratic. Their typical comment is that "voting is a privilege everyone should have without paying for it."

In its May survey, The Texas Poll asked these questions:

"In your opinion, should Texas do away with or continue to have a poll tax as a requirement for voting?"

Keep it	51%
Abolish it	42%
No opinion	7%

"May I ask why you say Texas shall continue to have a poll tax?" (Asked only of those who favor the tax.)

State needs revenue	34%
It keeps "poor and ignorant" from voting	19%
Paying a tax to vote helps to make good citizens	11%
People are used to it	8%

It puts you on equal rights with everyone 2
 It keeps Negroes from voting 2
 Misc. reasons 13
 No particular reason 11
 100%

"May I ask why you say Texas should do away with the poll tax?" (Asked only of those who oppose the tax.)

It's undemocratic	51%
It's an unfair tax	21%
People forget to pay it	3%
Other states don't have it	3%
No need for it	2%
Misc. reasons	14%
No particular reason	6%

In previous surveys, the question was worded merely as follows: "In your opinion, should Texas do away with or continue to have a poll tax?" There was no addition of the phrase, "as a requirement for voting." In spite of this difference, the results of the May survey were exactly the same as those of last December. An earlier survey, however, indicates that opinion used to be even more favorable to the poll tax.

	Nov. 1947	Dec. 1947	May 1949
Keep it	58%	51%	51%
Abolish it	33	42	42
No opinion	10	7	7

The cross section for this survey included a correct proportion of Negroes as they exist in Texas.

Among the state's political leaders, poll tax repeal has gained much support because of the threat of federal action. Two out of every three members of the Texas Legislature have put themselves on record in favor of a proposed constitutional amendment abolishing the poll tax. The people will vote on this proposed amendment in a special election set for September 24.

The poll tax as a requirement for voting is still in effect in six other Southern states, besides Texas. President Truman is insisting on federal action to kill it.

Texas collected $2,250,000 from its poll tax last year. Two-thirds of this amount was allocated to the public school fund and the rest to the general revenue fund.

Health Notes

During the last several summers, considerable enthusiasm was shown by various local organizations such as Chambers of Commerce, many Civic Organizations, and others in the arranging of a fly eradication program. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, says that for taking interest in this work, the responsible parties are to be commended.

However, without year-round community sanitation the ultimate result, which is so important has not always been too successful; in some areas this has given rise to rumors that flies are DDT resistant.

"The Texas State Department of Health heartily endorses a fly spraying program, provided it includes a general clean-up program carried out during the entire year", Dr. Cox said. "For example, why spray a garbage heap that not only invites but actually breeds flies when it should have been removed. Why spray the city dump when it really should be covered. I fear the unplanned spraying program is similar to the application of perfume or toilet water to overcome B. O. or the application of powder to cover dirt."

In a well-planned fly control program, Dr. Cox declared, all places where flies gather, such as dumps, rubbish piles, garbage piles, decaying vegetation should be cleaned up by hauling away and burying. Proper garbage and rubbish containers with fly tight covers should be demanded from all. All buildings should be screened. Then, secure a sprayer outfit, preferably with one or more hoses each manned by a skilled operator to spray the areas where flies and other insects will light. It does little good to spray the center of the street, the ball diamond, or the sidewalks. Spray the surfaces where insects light or breed.

A residual spray remains active until the DDT washes off or is covered with grease, dirt or soot. This usually lasts four to six weeks. After that, a second spray is recommended provided the item of clean-up is still being carried out.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Christian Science" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 26.

The Golden Text is: "Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price" (Isaiah 55:1).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible:

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father" (John 14:12).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The great spiritual facts of being, like rays of light, shine in the darkness, though the darkness, comprehending them not, may deny their reality" (page 546).

FARM AND RANCH CHATTER

WITH LAYNE BEATY WBAP PORT WORTH
6:30 AM Week Days—10:15 AM Sundays

Three former GI's have found that good farming methods pay off in a way they hadn't thought of two months ago.

Kay W. Moore, who lives on the Lynn-Lubbock county line, Arnold Cervenka of Williamson County, and J. P. Jones, of Limestone County, along with their wives, had free trips and an all-expense paid stay at the Hotel Shamrock in Houston last week because they have done notable work in controlling cotton insects, in stopping soil erosion, and in mechanizing the farm.

Now, not every farmer—not even every ex-GI—who does a diligent or clever job of farming is likely to benefit in a like manner. But the Texas Cottonseed Crushers' Association, which is interested in increasing the production of cotton through better farming methods—i. e. soil conservation, insect control, mechanization, etc., had the three young farmers as honor guests at the group's annual convention last week. They were selected by Texas officials of the veteran's agricultural training program.

Cervenka's farm, they say, is a fine example of soil conservation in action. In addition to proving by increased yields the value of poisoning cotton insects, Jones produced a third of a bale of cotton to the acre on 94 acres where only Johnson grass had grown for years. Moore, with a back injury, put a special seat on his tractor to enable him to run it several hours without stopping, and invented a "knocker wheel" for his cotton harvester (stripper) which he says saves 20 to 30 pounds of cotton to the acre which would normally be lost.

Flying around over the south plains, they say, you can see cotton for miles and miles.

And flying from Lubbock to Fort Worth, over customarily over-grazed, scanty grass, dry country, one sees green grass, moist soil, and even water in "sinks," ponds, gullies, and in streams. What a sight!

With our numbers of livestock down, and with good moisture, this may be the best chance in years for our over-grazed, drought-ridden range lands to recuperate.

We should never overstock our ranges and pastures again.

Widespread Irish potato crop failures this year can be blamed mostly on the weather, the experts tell us. It is not necessarily the fault of seed stock when your growing season has been handicapped by too much moisture in some areas, and not enough in others, to enable the blossoms to do their maximum work.

Maybe this year the government won't have to sell any U. S. No. 1 grade potatoes for stock feed.

How deep is an oil well? . . . How long is a piece of string!

This is an exploratory well being drilled by the Humble Company on the Continental Shelf 7 miles offshore from Quatre Bayou, Louisiana. It will be drilled to a depth of 14,000 feet.

Humble has production 12,026 feet deep in the South Mayes Field in Chambers County, Texas.

The great East Texas oil field was discovered in 1930 at an average depth of only 3,570 feet. Today, most oil is found in the United States at much greater depths.

The oil industry is going deeper to find more oil for your needs, to discover reserves of oil that will be available for long-range increasing needs and for national emergencies. Fifteen years ago, the average depth of a Humble well was 4,362 feet. Ten years ago, the Company went 700 feet deeper, to about 5,000 feet, to find oil for you. And the average depth of producing Humble wells drilled in 1948 was 6,695 feet. That's average. The oil companies go a lot deeper if they think they can find oil farther down. The deepest well drilled in 1948 was 17,696 feet; it was a wildcat well which discovered neither oil nor gas.

How deep is an oil well? It's as deep as it has to be to find or produce oil, or to prove that there's no oil there.

Costs go up as wells go deeper. A well 10,000 feet deep costs, on the average, about three times as much as a 7,000-foot well; a 15,000-foot well may cost 12 times as much.

To find and produce more oil for you requires a tremendous lot of money. And in any territory, there's a considerable risk involved, for only by drilling can you prove, or disprove, that a geological or geophysical "prospect" actually contains oil. In fact, a good many hundreds of millions of dollars have been invested in drilling "dry holes." In an unproved area, the odds are 9 to 1 against the chances of finding oil.

But the oil industry continues to drill wherever scientists think there is a possibility of finding oil; it will go as deep as today's equipment will permit in its hunt for oil . . . because it is a responsible, dynamic industry whose major interest is to supply the oil you need today, and to provide reserves of oil for your needs, and those of the country, in the years to come.

BRADY JULY JUBILEE STARTS ON JUNE 30

Brady's 22nd Annual July Jubilee will offer four big days and nights of entertainment for young and old. Members of the Jubilee committee are confident that the 1949 edition of the Jubilee will be the finest presented to date.

The colorful Queen Coronation ceremonies will raise the curtain on the 1949 Jubilee on Thursday night, June 30. A large, illustrious parade, with "Romance of the South" as its theme, will be presented on Friday morning, July 1. Following the parade, Hill Country Day will be proclaimed at Richards Park, with two famous Hill Country "boys," Fred Gipson, the "Hound Dog Man" from Mason, and Senator Carlos C. Ashley, the "Spotted Sow and Pig" man from Llano, to be introduced as guest speakers.

The famous race meet will be opened on Friday afternoon, with races each afternoon of the Jubilee. Longer races and fatter purses are sure to attract some very fine racing stock. In fact a large number of fine horses are already entered in the event. Rodeo events will be presented between races.

Old Settlers will be spotlighted at Richards Park on Saturday, July 2. Prizes will be given to the oldest citizen, the oldest couple, and the man and wife bringing the largest family. Old settlers will begin registering at the Chamber of Commerce at 9:00 a. m. Fiddler's contests and programs of Western music will be offered, along with band concerts.

Evenings entertainments at Richards Park will feature free movies, platform dances, and carnival attractions, with the accent on free entertainment. From start to finish the 1949 Jubilee will be chock full of good wholesome entertainment for everyone.

HOME STATION TRAINING FOR RESERVISTS

Austin, June — Organized Reserves in the State of Texas are again conducting Home Station Training, Colonel Oscar B. Abbott, Executive of the Texas Military District, announced here this week. Over five thousand man-days on this week-end training will have been completed by June 30th throughout the State.

Home Station Training for the Reserves was inaugurated last year to allow the military to obtain training under field conditions near their own homes on week-ends. Generally, Reservists who have been unable to attend the Organized Reserve summer camps have taken advantage of this new type of program. Reservists cannot attend both summer encampments and home station training.

LIBERAL TRAINING UNIT

Austin, June 13—Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson this week urged all employers of members of the Organized Reserve Corps and the National Guard to be liberal in granting them special leaves of absence to participate in annual periods of military training.

In a statement addressed to "The Employers of the United States," Secretary Johnson pointed out the importance to national security of maintaining a large well-trained and enthusiastic military reserve force.

Cooperation of employers, by adopting a liberal policy in granting leaves of absence, is fundamental, Secretary Johnson said, because the strength, skill, and teamwork of our Armed Forces reserves depend upon participation in the annual training activities.

Secretary Johnson's appeal to employers was made at the request of Chairman Thomas R. Reid of the Personnel Policy Board of the National Military Establishment. The Board's Military Personnel Policy Committee, on which the three armed services are represented, unanimously recommended that an appeal be issued.

MAKE HAY WHILE THE SUN SHINES

The old proverb goes "Make hay while the sun shines." That's fine, says E. A. Miller, extension agronomist of Texas A. & M. College. But he reminds Texas farmers not to let the sun shine too long on their hay.

There's a "best time" to cut every kind of hay. When to cut depends on what hay crop is harvested. If hay is left too long before cutting, it becomes coarse and loses much of its feed value, especially the protein. Prairie grass, for example, can generally wait until there's time and labor available. But even with prairie grass, you can't wait too long, because it—like the rest—will lose quality, Miller says.

Sudan and Johnsongrass can be cut as soon as the first seed head begins to form, or even a little earlier to get the full benefit of high quality, protein-rich hay. Cowpeas should be left until the first pods start to ripen.

Let clover cut for hay should be cut before the stems get tough and woody—before it blooms. And don't forget to leave five or six inches of stem on the sweet clover so there'll be enough to grow another cutting or two. Alfalfa hay is ripe for harvest when the field is one-tenth to one-fourth in bloom—or when the young shoots begin to show up at the base of the plants.

If you're growing alfalfa in a field for the first time, it's a good idea to let the crop go to seed—or at least to the full bloom stage—to develop a stronger root system and build longer lived fields, Miller points out.

Legume hay—alfalfa, the clovers and cowpeas—must be raked into rows before the leaves shatter. Grass hay may be left in the swath until fairly well cured. If pickup balers are not handy, stack the hay in small piles before the leaves shatter. Then bale or place in haystacks when sufficiently cured.

The two important processes in hay curing are loss of water—about 75 percent to 15 or 20 percent—and the chemical change known as "sweating" or fermenting. It is during this sweating process the hay develops an aroma and becomes palatable, Miller says.

TEXAS 4-H GIRLS CANNING YEAR-ROUND SUPPLY OF FOODSTUFF

It'll be June in January for Texas 4-H families when it comes to eating fruits and vegetables next winter. Girls enrolled in the 1949 National 4-H Canning Achievement program have learned to estimate family food needs, and have their food preservation plans pretty well worked out. They are doing a lot to top last year's national output of 17 million quarts canned by 4-H Club girls. In addition to providing healthful, nutritious dishes for daily meals, the canning project cuts food costs considerably. Most of the produce, meat and poultry canned is raised on the home farm. The girls are aware of the importance of fruits and vegetables in the winter diet, and see to it that there's a plentiful variety served at the family table. Weekly Swing of SOUTHWEST FARM MARKETS

Southwest farm markets presented a mixture of rising and falling prices during the past week, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

Sorghum grain prices dropped 10 cents a hundred pounds for the week, and wheat and barley about 2 cents a bushel. Oats and corn advanced 3 to 5 cents. No. 1 wheat closed Monday at $2.03 1/2 to $2.11 1/2 at Texas common points. No. 2 white corn sold at $1.73 to $1.74, yellow corn $1.62 to $1.64, and milo $2.25 to $2.35. Eggs strengthened slightly at Denver during the week, and sold about steady in the southwest. Prices of hens declined 2 to 4 cents at Denver and 1 to 2 cents at Dallas. Fryers lost 4 cents at Denver.

Leading markets received fewer livestock of all kinds last week than the week before. A third less sheep arrived in Texas and Oklahoma than a week earlier and less than half that of a year ago. Wholesale dressed meat prices declined mostly $2 to $4 for the week at New York. Pork loins fell $7 and $8 and lamb $5 to $12.

Cows, calves and bulls recorded losses of $1 and $2 from a week ago at southwest markets, with fed classes unchanged to $1 lower. Medium to good killing calves ranged from $22 to $25 at Denver, while good and choice grades brought $24 to $26 at Oklahoma City, and $23 to $26 at Fort Worth.

Monday's strong hog market reduced the week's losses at Texas terminals to around 50 cents. Butcher hogs gained up to $1 at Denver, but most sows sold unevenly lower. Top butchers closed Monday at $22 at Denver and $20.75 at Fort Worth. Sheep and lambs closed Monday unchanged to $1 lower compared to the very weak market the Monday before. Good spring lambs brought $23 at Texas markets. Good and choice natives sold at $27.50 to $28 at Denver. Goats lost 25 to 50 cents.

Mohair strengthened last week, to bring 38 to 40 cents a pound for adults and 58 for kid hair. Some average French combing New Mexico wool sold around $1.35 to 1.45 per clean pound delivered in Boston.

Cotton advanced 50 cents to $1.25 a bale, spot middling 15/16 inch closed Monday at 32.55 cents a pound at Dallas and Galveston, and 32.80 at New Orleans.

INFLUENTIAL DELEGATION
The custom of Texas electorate of maintaining this continuity in office can be illustrated by the fact that only two of the 21 Texans in the House are new members this year, whereas 116 of his 413 colleagues from other States are serving their first terms. In other words, less than 10 per cent of his colleagues from other States are freshmen in the House. And it is important to realize, also, that the turnover in the Texas delegation is determined primarily by the death or voluntary retirement of members, and not to defeat at the polls. In any event, it would seem that Texans in Congress clearly merit the concession by their colleagues that they constitute the most powerful and influential delegation on Capitol Hill. Note: Miscellaneous facts about the delegation include: Of the 23 Texans in the House and Senate 22 are married and they have 43 children; 20 of 23 are lawyers by profession or have had a legal education; 16 of 23 were born in Texas; and 13 of 23 saw service in World War I or II or both, one member having been decorated 11 times. The oldest member is 72 and the youngest 28. The oldest in point of service is in his thirty-sixth year in Congress, and the youngest has served four months. One member is a bachelor, and the biggest family man has five small children. A composite picture of the average Texas Congressman, therefore, shows him to be 47 years of age serving his ninth year in Congress, a lawyer, a war veteran, married, and the father of two children.

It is a surprising fact that the average Texan has in the House nearly a year longer than the average Texan. At the expiration of present term the average will have served nearly a year although his age today is slightly over 47.

Based on his life expectancy, the habit of Texas voters of electing their representatives in Congress, the average Texan, already enjoys high rank in terms of service, thus, can expect more than 20 more years of service.

What this means in terms of political influence in Congress is of tremendous significance. It means that he will be able to remain chairman of a committee for many years and that the Congress is Democratic or ranking minority member when Congress is Republican. It means that he has a far better chance to become Speaker of the House as a Texan has for seven of the past nine years, or otherwise occupy position of considerable influence. It means further that he can expect to have other Texan chairmen or ranking members of other committees.

TAKE YOUR FAMILY TO SUNDAY SCHOOL

"Take your family to Sunday school" because the family is the pivotal unit in society. As goes the family, so goes all else—the school, the church, the state. When you take your family to Sunday school, you take them to the Bible, to the church, to fellowship with consecrated Christian teachers, to a predominantly healthful spiritual atmosphere, to Christ, the Saviour of the soul and the Lord of life. In fact, you make available for them that which is indispensable to the solidarity of the family, the security of the home, the hope of the world.

FIRE IN THE FORESTS

Summer and fall constitute two of the most serious fire periods in this country. Forests and fields dry out, awaiting only the touch of a spark to burst into flame. Tourists throng the highways. Thousands of campers go into the woods. Commercial camps and vacation spots of all kinds run at capacity.

Every year sees the destruction of magnificent forests, accompanied by a tragic toll of wildlife. Some forest fires do occur spontaneously, from lightning or other natural causes. But a far greater number can be attributed to human carelessness and ignorance. The motorist who throws burning cigarette butts and matches from his car, and the camper who leaves a fire without dousing it with water and burying it with earth until every spark is out and every ember is cold, are two of the worst offenders. The whole nation is the poorer because of them.

A plain duty confronts everyone who goes into the outdoors for any reason. It is to protect a heritage which, once destroyed, may take centuries to replace. The various public and private bodies which deal with fire are doing a fine job. They are making available to all simple, easy rules for fire safety. They maintain patrols and fire fighting organizations. But they can do little without public cooperation. A forest fire can spread with incredible swiftness, and be completely beyond control in a matter of minutes under certain conditions.

Make the most of the woods — and save them for the future.

DANGER AT THE GRASSROOTS

Robert Kazmayer, the well known lecturer and commentator, recently made a penetrating observation on our internal weakness. He said: "The real danger in the U. S. today lies not in Washington, but at the grassroots. Governments have always tended to usurp more and more power unto themselves. In every free organization there is the seed of tyranny. That's why eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. The real danger in the U. S. lies with the millions who are apathetic. Democracy is going by default. Men and women are being promised by their government things—things which that government cannot deliver, not over any protracted period of time—for no government can go on promising more and more people more and more of everything, without telling anyone that someone has to pay the bills. Lulled into a false-security by these promises men are exchanging their liberties, their initiative, their dignity their heritage as free men, for a bunch of theories, most of which are imported from countries which are already dependent on the U. S. for support."

There's no sense in kicking at the government, as if it were something separate and apart from us. The government is what we make it by the public servants we elect to office. In late years, there has been a disgraceful increase in the "gimme" attitude indulged in by individuals, by local governments, and by various groups, all seeking special favors and benefits. This represents the "get-something-for-nothing" psychology in its worst form. And it is exactly the kind of thing which starves freedom and fattens tyranny.

He Lives On
Lesson for June 26, 1949

WHAT IS JESUS, after all? A name in a book? A picture on the walls of churches? More than that! A historical character? Founder of a great religion? More than that! He is the one and only Person who can be everywhere. He would be important if he had only lived; he is far more so because he lives on. But where does he live, and how? Christians would often feel lonely and discouraged, if it were not for one thing. They know Jesus prays for them. In long-ago times the High Priest of Israel used to pass beyond his people's sight into the silent Holy of Holies, and when he did, the people knew that in that sacred place he was bearing on his heart the whole people, the people whom he served. So the writer to the Hebrews, in the New Testament, pictures Jesus as the perfect High Priest, who has passed beyond our sight, beyond the beautiful blue veil of heaven, into the very presence of God, where he lives, now to intercede for his people who are ever on his heart.

Jesus lives on today in the life of prayer which we believe is still his. No matter what comes to the Christian, he can remember that One is praying for him who is stronger than all the world of evil. "Greater is he that is for us than he that is against us," said John the Apostle.

Dr. Foreman

In His Book

LUKE tells us that Jesus had to show some of his friends his own picture in the Old Testament. His portrait is not very plain there, but in the New Testament it is very plain indeed. The Bible leads up to Christ, he is its crowning figure. The Bible is, so to speak, a frame for his picture. Many a person, in remote regions of the world, has become Christian just by reading about Christ in some stray copy of the New Testament. The reader begins by reading about Jesus—then the pages come alive, and he meets Jesus, face to face. Jesus lives on, wherever the Bible goes.

In His People

CHURCHES may argue among themselves about what Jesus meant by this or that. But there cannot be any argument about one thing. When Jesus left his friends behind, he gave them orders to go tell the world about him. "Make disciples of all nations... Ye shall be my witnesses." A shut-mouthed Christian isn't much of a Christian. A shut-mouthed church is a poor sort of church. (Is it really a church at all?) We do not believe that Jesus expected his followers all to become preachers.

Indeed, we should remember that all the first Christians were laymen. But they got results. One hundred twenty people grew to be three thousand, five thousand, in a few weeks.

What is the reason that 120 Christians today don't win 3,000 converts? One reason is that you would probably find those 120 Christians complaining that their church is "vacant," they don't have a pastor. The early Christians might have thought that very funny. How can a church be vacant with 120 people in it? Christ lives in his church.

Into All the World

CHRISTIANITY is the only religion that can stand transplanting into any climate. There is no other religion that can number its people from the Arctic to the equator, and from east to west around the world. But this is not an accident. It would not have happened by itself. Jesus himself in Galilee walked wherever he went, and in all his grown-up life he did not walk farther from his birthplace than you could drive in an afternoon.

But he walks on every shore. Where ship and camel and plane carry the missionary, there goes Christ; where the airwaves carry his message, there is he. Wherever Christians go, Christ goes in them and with them.

He lives everywhere today where Christians live, he walks on Christians' feet. Beside the four Gospels in print, there is the Gospel According to You. Does Jesus live in and through you?

If you have ever wondered how much water comes out of a hose, here's your answer. A half-inch hose with a nozzle delivers 200 gallons of water an hour at normal pressure. A three-fourths-inch hose with a nozzle delivers 275 to 300 gallons of water an hour. And the average lawn sprinkler head will spray 120 gallons an hour over the yard.

High Blood Pressure

Hardening of Arteries, Pains in Left Arm And Side—

Elmer G. Johnson, President of Harlingen State Bank, Harlingen, Texas, writes on Feb. 20, 1948:

"Please send another bottle of Liquid Garlic, also send a bottle to my sister-in-law, Mrs. Hulda C. Dutton, 45 Atwater Terrace, Springfield, Mo.

"I have some good reports to make on the effectiveness of garlic used. Mr. Turner, Texaco dealer here has taken two bottles and is much better, his blood pressure down about 60 points. Mrs. W. F. Nelson, San Benito, who was in bad shape, is also very much better and her blood pressure down considerably. This garlic works, and you are doing a fine job of producing it for the benefit of those suffering from high blood pressure or heart trouble."

FARM FACTS WORTH KNOWING. 1. Are there any fleures to show the effects of treating stock cattle with DDT?

Giles Says Procedure For Acquiring Land Under Vet Program To Be Kept Simple. By BASCOM GILES. Commissioner of the General Land Office and Chairman of the Veterans' Land Board.

Yes, Kansas State College has put out a bulletin giving actual results in test demonstrations using DDT to control the horn fly. More than two million cattle were successfully treated with DDT for horn flies during the 1946 grazing season.

In keeping with the terms of the legislation creating the Texas Veterans' Land Board, its administration and operating policies will be kept as simple as the problems of this huge program will permit.

The veterans will NOT be required to live upon the property but he will NOT be permitted to dispose of it for a period of three years. Failure to make payments when due, permits the Board to revoke the contract of purchase and to forfeit the land which can then be offered for resale to other veterans.

FROM SPRINKLE TO OVER THREE INCHES RAIN THURSDAY A. M.

Rainfall which started about 3:00 o'clock Thursday morning measured all the way from a sprinkle in the southern part of the county to over three inches in the northern section.

Here in Goldthwaite, Harry Allen's government gauge measured 32/100ths of an inch, while the Wilson Garage at Mullin recorded 3.33 inches. To the south of town, only light sprinkles were reported.

John Meadows gauge at Lake Merritt recorded one and one-fourth inches, but over three inches fell above on the Lake Merritt watershed, which is believed will raise the lake level about ten inches or more when water stops running in.

More rain seemed in prospect yesterday afternoon as The Eagle went to press.

why they don't go." O. H.—"So what?" Sth—"You'd better go."

Old Hunnert believes free speech is here to stay. Home is a place where a man can say anything he pleases because no one pays any attention to him anyway.

And jest think, this country was just founded by people who wanted to avoid taxation.

They used to say two heads are better than one—but that was before the price of haircuts went up.

You can't expect a professional politician to make up his own mind and then lie in it; he's more likely to take up his own bunk and lie out of it.

Oncet, between the 4th and 5th, Old Hunnert heard his new girl friend tell her chum: "There are ten reasons why I won't marry Old Hunnert." Chum—"What are they?" Girl friend—"Well, the first is he hasn't any money, and the other nine are things I want."

A scientist came in the drug store and told Dow: "Give me some prepared monactiacidester of salicylic acid." Dow—"Do you mean aspirin?" Scientist—"That's right, I can never think of that name."

Maybe figures don't lie—but girls and bras keep a lot of them from telling the truth.

Old Hunnert has never been able to figure out—"When a doctor gets sick and another doctor doctors him, does the doctor doing the doctoring have to doctor the doctor the way the doctor being doctor'd wants to be doctor'd, or does the doctor doing the doctoring of the doctor doctor in his own way?"

Another thing, if nature is so wonderful why didn't she make a mosquito a vegetarian?

Here's another motto: Don't spend any time wondering why a black hen lays a white egg—get the egg.

Also, if it's true that only two per cent of the people in this country are morons, they sure get around.

SHORTY SHORTS—
About this time of the year the Boss allus tells Old Hunnert he writes his articles too long—that the Boss likes shorts, the shorter the better. So here's some:

People should practice what they preach—but don't dare to preach what they practice.

The best way to avoid an auto accident is to take an afternoon nap on Sunday.

And the best thing to do for spring fever—is nothing.

When Old Hunnert runs for Pres. in 1952, his platform promises will be: 1949 wages, 1932 prices, and 1910 taxes. He wants to see anybody top this.

Wedding Note: The bride's father had a lovely bow of white ribbon tied around his shotgun.

Man is the only animal that can be skinned more than once.

It used to be popular to put up scarecrows in the fields around here. A long time ago Old Hunnert remembers he built one that scared the crows so bad they brought back all the corn they'd stolen the year before.

Old Hunnert—"Who is on the phone?" Stenog—"It seems to be some woman. All I can hear is 'ldot.'" O. H.—"I'll answer it; it must be the 7th."

And if you ever see a people who don't quarrel over religion—well, they're heathens.

And, the man who gives in when he is wrong is a wise man, but the man who gives in when he is right is married.

Also, if you catch a big fish be sure to try for another—

they may sometimes pairs.

HOPELESS—

Oncet when Old Hunnert was answering an ad about help in memory he wrote them: "Please do you recommend I can't remember anything. Please check for $50." He simply back: "Old Man, less. You forget to check."

The Boss says this writes so much of this cause when he ont lung he's too lazy to ask O. H. heard this here: Smart Alex— "are you $6 shoe?" Three dollars a fast Old Hunnert don't how long he's gone but hopes to die right does.

People are allus wives ain't depend when income tax and they put them down dante.

Another law has been ered. In Kansas, it's law to "eat snakes, scorpions, centipedes, tulas in public." Bank 'em home to eat.

And a man here called nert: "I thought the your column last week was?" O. H.—"I did threw them in the fire just roared."

Oncet O. H. was an electrician helped they asked him: "What thing about electricity?" "Yes, sir." "What's a ture?" O. H.—"A chaes for nothing."

Oncet Old Hunnert's pen's helper on a he and the foreman hurly up. O. H.—"All But Rome wasn't built Foreman—"Maybe wasn't foreman on the
