Football Season Opens Tonight With Eagles Flying At Hamilton

The Goldthwaite Eagles go to Hamilton for the opening football game of the season tonight, Friday, with enthusiasm high but with just about everything else in favor of Hamilton. "Our kids know what they are up against," Coach Carl Knox of the Goldthwaite High School said. "We don't have a chance to win, but we'll go to Hamilton and play as well and as hard as we can."

Coach Knox said that Coach Pete Roach of Hamilton has two good gridiron teams and that the Eagles will have to be in there fighting every minute just to hold the score down.

Goldthwaite will start the game with only two experienced players on the line. There will be only five lettermen—Vernon Whitley, Jimmy Hays, John Stark, Alvidoye Roberts and Billy Anderson. So the Eagles will have the odds of numbers, experience and weight against them.

Since the reopening of school this week, the Eagles have had three workouts under Coach Knox and Assistant Coach Jack Locklear. They took it easy yesterday, Thursday, and today, Friday, they will run through their plays before starting the trip to Hamilton, where game time will be at eight o'clock Friday night.

Coach Knox said he would take a squad of about 25 Eagles to Hamilton for the 1950 season curtain raiser. He said that while it will be tough going tomorrow night, he expects the story to be different as the season grinds on and after the local boys have had a chance to learn under actual playing conditions.

The Eagles' starting lineup for tonight's game will be: Wayne Wicker — C Bobby Ledbetter — RG Vernon Whitley — LG Curtis Lawson — RT Thomas Lawson — LT Jimmy Hays — RE John Stark — LE John Gilliam — QB Dizzy Clifton — RHB Alvidoye Roberts — FB Billy Anderson — LHB

Three Boys Held In Llano Charged With Theft Here

Sheriff Wiley L. Mahan this week filed charges of burglary, subject to Grand Jury action, against three boys who confessed to recent entries of the Mills

County Locker Corporation, Dalton Cleaners, Mills County Cold Storage Company and George Gilbert's Service Station in Goldthwaite.

The boys were apprehended in Llano on August 30. They confessed to 17 burglaries, including those in Mills County. They were identified as Luther Smith, Jr., 17, Charles Wilmoth, 17, both of Lampasas County, and a boy from Michigan who claimed to be a 14-year old minor. The Smith boy, who has a record of nine previous burglaries in Lampasas County, has been released on $500 bail. The other two are being held in the Llano jail.

There is no previous record of criminal charges against either the Wilmoth boy or the minor. After being picked up by the night watchman at Llano a week ago last Wednesday, the trio admitted the Goldthwaite entries, along with others in Llano, Lampasas and Burnet counties. The Goldthwaite entries resulted in only minor losses.

Gerald E. Bryan Enlists In US Navy

Gerald Edward Bryan, 18, who was graduated from the Goldthwaite High School in the Class of 1948, has volunteered for four years of service in the United States Navy and now is taking his boot training at the U. S. Naval Training Center at San Diego, California.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bryan, now of Del Rio. Before the new sailor left for boot camp, he was visited at Del Rio last week by his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Darr V. Henderson of Goldthwaite.

Religious Survey Is Planned Here Soon By The First Baptist Church

A survey or census that will provide an accurate chart of the religious life and needs of this community will be undertaken shortly after the middle of this month, it was announced this week by the Rev. J. T. Ayers, Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Goldthwaite.

Brother Ayers said that older Sunday School members and members of the various other organizations of the First Baptist Church will make a household survey. They will push doorbells to ask a few simple questions under an organized, carefully prepared plan in which Goldthwaite and vicinity will be divided into zones so as to assure thorough coverage.

"The results of the survey will be made available to all of our Churches and religious organizations," Brother Ayers said. He expressed hope for full community cooperation in the undertaking.

An aerial photograph of Goldthwaite has been obtained from the U. S. Soil Conservation Service and from it, a "blow up" has been made for the use of the religious census-takers.

Langford Trial Set For September 18

September 18 was set this week as the date for trial before County Judge Lewis B. Porter of Charlie Langford, who is charged with the sale of whiskey and with the possession of beer for sale in a dry area. Having entered pleas of not guilty on both charges, he is free on a total of $1,000 bond. The case arose from August 26 raids by Sheriff Mahan, Deputy Sheriff Clyde Cockrum and State law enforcement officers.

Barnett Honored By Appointment To Unique Posts

Two important committee assignments in connection with the forthcoming session of the International City Managers Association have been given to W. C. Barnett, Goldthwaite City Utilities Manager, it was announced this week by Mayor Loy Long.

The annual conference of the Association is to be held at Houston, November 26 through 29. In notifying Mayor Long of the responsibility placed on Mr. Barnett, G. O. Summers, City Manager of Longview, wrote:

"His appointment on these committees is quite a distinction for your city. . . This will be the first time in over twenty years that a Texas Manager has had this privilege and it likely will be fully that long before it will happen again."

In a letter to Mr. Barnett, Mr. Summers asked him to serve on the Invitation Committee and also as a member of the Special Arrangement and Entertainment Committee for the Houston Conference in November. It will be the first such Conference to have been held in Texas since 1929.

As described by Mr. Summers in his letter to Mayor Long, the Conference will in effect be a "work shop" at which City Managers from all over will get together, discuss their problems and pass their ideas from one to another.

W. E. Miller returned Thursday of last week from Excelsior, Missouri, where he was for a month's treatment at the Ball Clinic.

Preparations Proceed Apace For Livestock Preview September 16

Preparations moved swiftly this week for the Preview, to be held under the auspices of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association at the "Barn" or Agriculture Building on Saturday, September 16, when the public generally will have an opportunity to see what 4-H Club and F. F. A. youngsters are doing on their livestock programs.

The Preview will be preliminary to the Spring Show, the dates for which have been set for next January 15 and 16.

President Robert L. Steen of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association and County Agent George Reese said that plans for a week from next Saturday call for a hog show in the morning and the calf preview in the afternoon. While there will be judging of hogs, there will be no judging of the calves.

About 17 hogs will be exhibited in competition for first place boar, first place gilt and a pen of three barrows. The winners will go to Coleman on October 17 for the District Show sponsored under the Sears-Roebuck program that is designed to encourage Duroc breeding. In the afternoon, President

Steen said, some 60 to 65 calves that are being fed by local 4-H Club and F. F. A. members will be presented in the ring so that even four months before the Spring Show, the public will be able to see the progress being made by Mills County youngsters who, during the past few years, have established so wide a reputation in animal husbandry.

Between the Preview and big-time competition, calves will put on much more weight and will progress far beyond dry weather condition. But scores of boys and girls are working hard to have them look their best, even for the preview.

With their own funds and at a cost of approximately $300, 4-H Club youngsters have acquired a new and most modern work chute which, under the supervision of Norman Duren, has been mounted on wheels so that it may be taken from ranch to ranch for the trimming of the feet of calves and for other purposes.

As an editorial in this week's Eagle emphasizes, Mills County youngsters who have calves on feed need some mobile scales that also can be taken from ranch to ranch so as to avoid transporting feeding calves considerable distances for monthly weighings.

President Steen this week issued a cordial invitation to everybody, whether engaged in livestock raising or not, to make a point of attending the September 16 Preview so as to be informed on the work and accomplishments of 4-H Club and F. F. A. members

They Emptied The Rain Gauges This Week And Were Very Happy

Program Planned For Dedication Of Dew Library

The Library Committee met at the Mills County Court House last Tuesday afternoon and agreed upon a program for the ceremonies that will dedicate the Jennie Trent Dew Memorial Library on Sunday afternoon, September 17.

W. C. Barnett, a Vice Chairman of the Library Committee, will be the Master of Ceremonies. Mayor Loy Long will speak in behalf of the City of Goldthwaite, which holds title to the Library, and Judge Lewis B. Porter will speak for Mills County, which has undertaken to give financial support to the Library.

The principal address of the dedication ceremony will be by the Rev. Ed H. Lovelace, Pastor of the First Methodist Church in Goldthwaite.

A plaque of tribute to the late Jennie Trent Dew will be unveiled by Sam Sullivan, and music will be by Mrs. John G. Berry.

There will be other participants in the program, complete details of which will be published in next week's Eagle.

An opportunity to help the Library and to pay tribute to dear ones has been provided by the Committee, which has arranged for memorial shelves. Persons who may be interested in memorial shelves at the Jennie Trent Dew Memorial Library should consult the Committee, of which Mrs. Jim Weatherby is the Chairman.

This week, it was not necessary to look out the window or to disturb Harry Allen by telephone to find out about the rain. All of the Eagle's country correspondents wrote in about rain and cooler weather and most of their top paragraphs had to be lopped off by the editorial pencil so that all of the country correspondence would not seem the same.

For Eagle readers who were not so blessed as to be rained on in Mills County this week, the Eagle reports that there were several showers and a splendid rain last Monday night and Tuesday morning.

In Goldthwaite, Harry Allen's gauge recorded 1.03 inches of rain Monday night and Tuesday morning. The showers, he said, did not add up to enough to be measured. In some parts of Goldthwaite, Mr. Allen said, it rained more than in others and so, even right in town, there could have been measurements greater than his 1.03 inches.

Now about the situation to the east. This reporter will try to be conservative in the matter. Our Roy Lee Hill announced the other morning that there had been eight inches of rain somewhere around the Star area. We asked him how he knew; he said that most rain gauges hold only up to four inches and that if they had to be emptied twice, that made eight inches, didn't it?

Regardless of how much emptying there was of rain gauges in some places, Herman Ford, who lives 3 1/2 miles southwest of Star, reported that the rainfall last Monday night and Tuesday morning was three inches. Our Mr. Hill insists that in other places nearer Star and beyond Star, the rainfall was

Fight Stiffens Against US Grab Of Texas Rights

A continuing fight to resist the Federal grab of Texas tidelands was promised this week by the Texas Property Defense Association, which W. C. Barnett, Goldthwaite City Utilities Manager, helped to organize at a recent meeting in Austin.

This week, Mr. Barnett received a letter from Durwood Manford of Smiley, President of the Texas Property Defense Association, in which he pledged that there will be no surrender in the fight against the Washington violation of the treaty under which Texas became a member of the Federal Union. In his letter, Mr. Manford said:

Dear Mr. Barnett: Thank you for your interest and help in our fight to keep the Tidelands of Texas where they belong, under our own state government.

When the Republic of Texas was admitted to the Union in 1846, the Treaty between the Republic of Texas and the Congress of the United States stated "said State, when admitted into the Union. . . shall also retain all the vacant and unappropriated lands lying within its limits to be applied to the payment of the debts and liabilities of said Republic of Texas; and the residue of said lands. . . to be disposed of as said State may direct."

The Texas Property Defense Association has been organized by citizens from all parts of Texas for the purpose of bringing this issue before the Congress of the United States for final decision. Since the Treaty of Admission was made by their predecessors, and accepted in good faith by the State of Texas, we believe that Congress, when given the true facts, will right the wrong done by the U. S. Supreme Court.

Editor's Note: On August 23 Representative Homer Thornberry of the 10th Congressional District of Texas read into the Congressional Record portions of an article by Ernest W. Jackson, President of the Steak Company in Austin. Mr. Jackson is a son of G. W. Jackson of Goldthwaite. He is a brother of Miss Fannie Jackson—the only school teacher who ever gave our Roy Lee Hill a whipping—and of John Jackson of the Hangar. The article was entitled, "America Remembers Her Mission Is Revolution." Congressman Thornberry described it as "one of the finest I have seen" on the current world crisis. Because we share Congressman Thornberry's estimate of Mr. Jackson's article, the Eagle herewith reprints it in full.

By ERNEST W. JACKSON

So many times I've heard the story about our power to produce material things—about the number of our bath tubs, radios, automobiles, and television sets—that I have feared for America—feared not because she had them, but because she might mistake effect for cause. I have feared she was approaching the state of mind of the Rich Man who had stored great wealth in his barns and then said, "Soul, take thine ease." You remember on that very day his soul was required of him. He died. We as a nation will experience our spiritual death—and in turn our physical death—if our only reason for existence is that we may have more bath tubs, more automobiles to crowd the highways, and more radios to disturb our neighbors' slumbers.

We have been a nation without a great driving purpose. We, for generations, have had no great unifying cause that has been worth dying for. Men won't die for more bath tubs—nor will they willingly die for the privilege of crowding a few more autos on the highways. And yet, it seems that the justification for our own existence has been these material things. We have forgotten the force that brought our nation into being. We forget that Revolution.

A WAY FOR YOU TO HELP EFFECTIVELY

Your chance to see what Mills County 4-H Club boys and girls and Future Farmers of America are doing on their calf-feeding programs will come on Saturday, September 16, when the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association will sponsor a Preview at the "Barn" or Agriculture Building.

Many persons who live right here in Mills County and especially in Goldthwaite never have seen calves on feed. They have only the vaguest ideas as to what our youngsters are doing in preparation for the forthcoming big fat stock shows—to say nothing of what they are accomplishing toward becoming competent ranchers. It is a considerable chore to go out to the Mills County farms and ranches on which history is being made in animal husbandry but, thanks to the September 16 Preview, you will be able to see what is being done simply by going to the "Barn" on that day. The calves will be brought in from the various feeding sheds and while they will not be judged at the Preview, they will be sized-up by expert eyes for a forecast of when there will be competition after the turn of the year.

A good attendance at the September 16 Preview can go a long way toward encouraging the 4-H Club and F. F. A. members who work so hard at caring for animals that will bring distinction and fame to Mills County.

In addition to attending the Preview for the purposes of encouraging, admiring and learning, you can do something more tangible. You can put up some money to help to clear the last indebtedness on the "Barn" or Agriculture Building, which means so much to this Country's economic base—livestock. Robert L. Steen, who is President of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association, also is Treasurer of the Agriculture Building fund. He will be glad to have your donation, large or small, for as worthwhile a project as you could possibly find.

We have heard a number of persons say that what our youngsters are doing in their 4-H Club and F.F.A. work is just wonderful. It is, indeed, but it needs to be helped along. The young persons help themselves, as a news story this week on the September 16 Preview tells. At a cost of some $300, they have equipped themselves with an up-to-date work chute on wheels—a mobile unit that can be towed by a trailer from ranch to ranch. They need not only to have the Agriculture Building paid for completely, but they also need some mobile scales so that feeding calves can be weighed right at their sheds.

More than one thousand Eagles go to readers outside this County every week. Most of them go to men and women who formerly lived here and who tell us in their letters that their hearts still are in Mills County. When our youngsters win at the Shows, such readers write in to tell of their pride in them. How about having a part in the great work that is being done to put Mills County on the animal husbandry map? Shower down with some checks to Bob Steen; they will pay big dividends in helping our youngsters to achieve in the future even more than they have achieved in the past.

A VALUABLE CHURCH SURVEY

Some time during the next few weeks there will be a knocking on your door, if you live in Goldthwaite and its immediate vicinity, and when you answer the knock, you will find somebody from the First Baptist Church in Goldthwaite. As a first page news article this week explains, the purpose of your caller will be to ask some simple questions. The answers will add up to a survey or census of the religious life of this community. With the cooperation of everybody, it can be a most useful survey. The results of it will be made available to all of the Churches so that they, as well as the First Baptist Church, will have factual information regarding the community's religious needs. We believe with the Rev. J. T. Ayers, Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Goldthwaite, that Churches can go about their missions more effectively and intelligently if they are not working haphazardly. No question will be embarrassing. Even ladies should not mind answering the questions about age if they understand that it is not helpful to know merely that Mamie Zilch lives at such-and such an address. She might be six weeks old or sixty, or somewhere in between, but the survey ought to show just what place she might have in religious life. There will be a good reason for every question and the forthcoming survey can be of great value if everybody gives a cordial welcome to the questioners and assists in filling out the census card. We happen to know of other communities that have benefitted vastly from just such a survey as has been planned here.

The cotton market here reached 10 cents Thursday and A. D. Karnes, who lives east of town was the first farmer to get that price for his staple. This is the first time in a good many years that the price has reached this point. The government report says that the market was 10 cents in 1891, but very few farmers can remember selling at that price.

Last Sunday, September 2nd, was the fifteenth anniversary of the sale of town lots in Goldthwaite. But few people thought of the fact until reminded of it by some of the old citizens who remembered when the place where the nice town inhabited by the best class of people on earth was only a shinnery thicket. They have seen the town grow until now it is one of the leading commercial points in this part of the state and is universally recognized as being perhaps the best cotton market west of Waco.

Washington Letter

(Editor's Note: Since our usual Washington letter again this week failed to arrive in time to fill this space, we reprint what we consider to be a most important article by David Lawrence on the continually shifting American policy in the Far East. The article by Mr. Lawrence raises some pertinent questions which should be of deep concern to every American.)

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Is the United States government trying to wiggle out of its entanglement in defending Formosa and thus make diplomatic concessions to certain European governments and pave the way for appeasement of Communist China and its possible admission to the Security Council of the United Nations?

This question may well be asked now in view of the startling announcement by President Truman that, as soon as the Korean episode is over, it would not be necessary to keep the United States Navy's Seventh Fleet in the Straits of Formosa. Mr. Truman added that the presence of this fleet in that position was just a flank protection for our forces in Korea.

This is not only an amazing contradiction of the strategy which the United States joint chiefs of staff cannot but have developed for the protection of the Japan-Okinawa-Philippines perimeter of our defense, but it is a complete disavowal of the military views of General Douglas MacArthur, recently given, as to the importance of defending Formosa.

Invitation to Reds

It is something even more important—it could be construed by the Chinese Communists as an open invitation to them to American pronouncement of last occupy Formosa, just as the January that our defense line didn't include Korea gave encouragement to the Communists to march below the thirty-eighth parallel.

Mr. Truman's comment has sent a shiver of apprehension through certain quarters in congress, where it had been believed that the United States was standing firmly in the Far East and that appeasement of Communist China was unthinkable.

What is also disturbing is that either the President has now projected himself as a military expert superior to his own joint chiefs of staff and to General MacArthur, or else that he is weakening in favor of some State Department chicanery to ease the path of Great Britain and other countries with commercial interests in the Far East who want to continue to trade with and maintain diplomatic relations with Communist China.

The argument all along in some quarters—especially in Communist circles—has been that to defend Formosa would entangle us in a war with Communist China. The opposite is true—failure to defend Formosa after America has publicly declared that it doesn't belong to Communist China and must be neutralized until the treaty with Japan disposes of the question of trusteeship may indeed cause war with China. It could come if the Communists, perceiving American weakness, started an aggression similar to that in Korea, only to be met by a sudden decision by the United States to throw in sea forces to protect Formosa.

Is this why General MacArthur risked a reprimand and spoke out so plainly on how important to the defense of continental United States the retention of Formosa is?

The Eagle's Aer

By The Editor

If Sheriff Wiley L. Mahan knew that back in the hills there was a ruthless gang of bandits plotting to ransack the Trent State Bank, what would we expect him to do? Would we be satisfied if the Sheriff waited for the bandits to blast open the bank, before taking action, or would we expect him to break up the plot before somebody got hurt and the bank was looted?

Last week when Mickey Cohen, the big-time Los Angeles gambler, came to Texas, he was met at several places by an assortment of Texas Rangers, Sheriffs, Deputy Sheriffs and City Police. He saw the inside of one jail and by the time the incident was over, within a matter of hours, he was aboard an airplane headed back to Los Angeles. Nearly everybody approved the preventive action that was taken, although none of the officers of the Law had anything on Mickey Cohen. They knew only that whatever brought him to Texas, it was for no good.

There always is danger in over-simplification, but at a time when there is a great debate about "preventive war," it seems to the editor to be a good idea to have it understood that we take many preventive actions—against criminals, in the field of medicine, against the elements, and so on. Accordingly, what is so horrendous about giving serious consideration to preventing Russia from making other countries the utter shambles that has been made of South Korea?

President Truman is against "preventive war." He said so in his radio speech last Friday night. He said that such war "is the weapon of Dictators." We disagree. Dictators revert to war for purposes of conquest, and never to prevent anything, unless it might be internal rebellion. Dictators have had at least temporary success and they have wrought tremendous destruction in the past because nobody, even with realization of their menace, took preventive measures against them.

The President told this country and the world last Friday night that our armed forces are to be built up to 3,000,000 men. He made it clear that whatever the uncertainties of the future, one thing is sure and that is that we are to stagger under a terrific arms burden. The President also made it clear that Russia's program is one of imperialistic conquest and that there is no telling where she might hit.

So, in the face of an acknowledged menace, we are advised to get ready for a struggle at terrific cost and at the expense of dislocating all plans for peaceful progress. The idea is to deal with the enemy after he hits, but not before. That does not make sense to the editor. We spent a great amount of our substance resisting Hitler, Mussolini and the Japanese Militarists after they hit and then we spent even more of our substance repairing the damage they spread. Now, despite the light of very recent experience, we are told that all we can do is wait for the newest enemy to make his next destructive moves, and then act. That would be the same as if Sheriff Mahan refused to act against bandits even when he had certain knowledge that they were preparing to descend upon and to loot Goldthwaite.

In August of 1945, President Truman himself gave the atom bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki. When he announced the fact of the attack onshima, he said the atom had been used to prevent loss of thousands of American lives, to prevent continuing fighting for an indefinite time and to prevent any further delay in a return to the peace. The first use of the bomb was a weapon of preventive measure. Grand war is on—but war is on and nobody is so naive as to believe that wherever the conflict now the Kremlin tached from it.

The Kremlin is directly responsible for the war in our own spokesmen charged in the United States. The Kremlin is directly responsible for the prolonged and bloody and desecrated conflict in French Indochina. It is responsible for the ties in the Philippines known beyond the shadow of a doubt that Moscow is directly responsible for the hostilities in areas and of its own choice. Yet, told that we can take a defensive, not preventive. Does that make sense? What will be the judgment history as it looks back is our present?

Even two or three years necessary to cope with the overpowering numbers of Russian satellites. Russia's military asset is manpower people in Washington are already are scared into the mere thought of billions of armed, battle-hardened Communist in the war on her own time—by piece-meal conquest, is being neither weak nor discouraged. James E. "Uncle Jimmy" Evans Dies At 85 After Long Illness

James E. Evans, who was known affectionately to many persons as "Uncle Jimmy" and who had lived in the Chappell Hill community of Mills County since 1888, died last Thursday, August 31, after having been in ill health for some two years. With a host of his friends around him, he had observed his 85th birthday anniversary last July 14.

Funeral services were conducted in the North Brown Cemetery last Friday afternoon with arrangements by the Fairman-Wilkins Funeral Home of Goldthwaite. Elder E. M. Macy of Gatesville officiated. "Uncle Jimmy" died peacefully in his sleep. Just when it had been hoped that he was improving from his illness, he was found at eternal rest by his son, Orville A. Evans, who made his home with his father.

James E. Evans was born on July 14, 1865, in Jackson Parish, Louisiana. He was the youngest of 12 children and he was the last survivor.

As a boy, he moved with his family in 1872 to Hopkins County, Texas, but he lived there for only about three years. He grew to manhood in Navarro County. About 1884, Mr. Evans moved to Hamilton County. On March 23, 1890, he was married in Hamilton County to Selma Hall, who was a native of Laclede County, Missouri. Mrs. Evans died on November 24, 1949.

In 1896, Mr. Evans moved to Mills County. At the time of his death, he had lived on the same place in the Chappell Hill Community for a little more than 53 years.

Two of the six children who were born to Mr. Evans and his wife died in infancy. A son, Aubrey E. Evans, was killed in action in France during World War I.

The surviving children are Orville A. Evans of Chappell Hill, Mrs. J. N. Crook of Abilene, and Mrs. O. C. Hill of Wingate.

Also surviving are eight grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Mr. Evans had been a farmer all of his working life.

Pallbearers at the funeral were Uncle Jimmy's grandsons—Clayton Crook, Willis Aubrey Crook, Charles Crook, Elvin Hill, Glynn Hill, and Alpheus Hill.

Mr. Evans was the son of Elijah Down Evans and Annie Kill Evans. His mother was a native of Louisiana and his father was a native of Illinois. In fact, Elijah Down Evans fought in the Black Hawk war and Abraham Lincoln was the Captain of his company.

One of Mr. Evans' brothers died in action in the War Between the States. Another brother died shortly after that war of exposure endured in the course of his military service.

Washington Letter

tion of Formosa in friendly hands appears to be?

Did General MacArthur know of the campaign of appeasement going on in Washington, and did he suspect that Formosa was to be tossed over to the Communists? Did he feel that, as a soldier and as the man selected to represent the United Nations in command of all the armed forces in the Far East, he should speak out so that the American people at least would know about the scuttling policy that might be under consideration?

Fundamental Principle

It seems strange that General MacArthur would just send out an indiscreet statement. It is more logical to believe that he took the risk because he thought a fundamental principle affecting the nation's defenses was at stake. To say that the Department of State or the President alone can speak on "foreign policy" and that nobody else should be allowed to speak, even when a grave question of national defense is concerned, does not explain away the strange circumstances surrounding this episode.

Whom did General MacArthur have in mind when he wrote this paragraph:

"Nothing could be more fallacious than the threadbare argument by those who advocate appeasement and defeatism in the Pacific that if we defend Formosa we alienate continental Asia."

Was MacArthur's statement a last desperate attempt to ward off another Munich in the Far East—a quick way to end the Korean war by conceding to the Communists what they have wanted from the beginning—admission to the position of another veto in the Security Council?

If so, then doesn't it seem that the appeasement should have begun on June 25 last? A lot of American boys would be

The Golden Text is: "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it" (Malachi 3:10).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Riches and honor are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness" (Proverbs 8:18).

No More Straw

Put up your straw hat and get out the felt hat. It is official by Yarborough & Duren that today, Friday, is felt hat day. In some places, New York City, for instance, a man venturing forth in straw after the deadline for felt would have his beanie smashed. That probably won't happen in Goldthwaite, although Yarborough & Duren, and Little's, too, like to have happen things that make men need new hats.

er K. B. Henry of Precinct though all of the Precinct tributed men and equit in view of the fact that son's Crossing is a bridge.

Walter Summy of the Highway Department said he has been waiting for additional material to complete work that has been done his supervision on the Bridge. School buses have crossing the bridge all but "bridge out" and signs still are up and be sometime late next week for the Slack bridge open to traffic general

Eagle's Aery

(Continued from Editorial page) The day will come when we will wish that we had. Then it will be too late. The damage will have been done—to us. If more Americans knew at first hand what war's destruction really is like, they would advocate preventive war, now, so as to keep America intact. The Atlantic and Pacific oceans protect us no longer. We are as vulnerable as anybody to the destruction that was spread in Europe and Asia and Africa during the last war.

Hillside Mission

By LINDA BYRNE With reference to some quotations from the Bible, a woman recently said: "I haven't got any use for this stuff." The Bible, for which she now has no use, says: "For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God." Romans 14:11, 12.

Thinking of the Long Pull?

Better Buy Buick!

If that car of yours has put its best days behind it, there's no time like right now to think about starting out afresh with a taut, new, up-to-the-minute motorcar with all its mileage still in it.

And there's no better place in the world to start than with the beauty pictured here, for a variety of reasons.

For one thing, this Buick SPECIAL is a quick-stepping Fireball valve-in-head straight-eight that's priced lower than some sixes.

For another, it's built with typical Buick ruggedness through and through—a husky that can take a lot of years without crying "Uncle."

Then, too—this high-styled beauty is proving to be one of the most economical Buicks ever built—easy on gas, easy on upkeep, easy on you in its soft, floating, light-handling comfort.

It even comes with Dynaflo Drive* if you like—and Dynaflo means that you will never have to service or replace a friction clutch, and that rear-end or transmission servicing—even engine upkeep—are cut to a minimum.

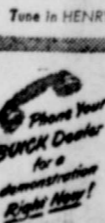

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Of course, you can't see all of this in the brief span of a trial drive.

But you can experience the good solid feel of Buick strength beneath you. You can satisfy yourself on the lightness of the controls, the utter smoothness of Dynaflo, the quick surge of Buick's Fireball power.

All such things will tell you that this is a car you'll be glad to live with for a long time to come—and you need only to ask your Buick dealer for a demonstration to see precisely what we mean.

Why not call on him soon to talk about signing up?

Ebony News

By Clementine Wilmeth Briley

The Egger reunion took place last Sunday at Brownwood. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Egger and Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Egger and Ynell, Mrs. Effie Egger and Clayton, and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Egger were all due to attend from Ebony. Also Mr. and Mrs. Charm Whittenburg and Clint and Jack and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Smith. Mrs. Edna Dwyer went along as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Egger.

Mr. and Mrs. Blue Thompson visited Mr. and Mrs. Don Lewis at Fort Worth over the weekend.

Mrs. Charles Griffin began her fourth year as driver of the school bus Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Briley attended church at Oakland Sunday. They were also guests for dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crowder. They got to visit with Grandmother Ivy, who makes her home there.

Grandmother Kelly was also due to arrive back home there Sunday afternoon. She has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ira Ratliff at Sterling City and her stepson, Albert Kelly, at San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Crowder and children from Early High were also guests at the Crowder home Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Crowder is foreman at a clothing factory at Brownwood. She says they have received orders to go to work on government khakis, and she has been training twenty extra women workers.

Just recently Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crowder were the guests of their son, Frank L. Jr. on a trip to Davenport, Iowa to see Mr. and Mrs. Numa Crowder and their daughter, Elaine. They went in Frank L. Jr.'s nice new car and did quite a bit of sight seeing. Mrs. Crowder says one of her experiences was a drive through down town Chicago with its streets crowded to the limit with cars and buses and streams of people and the elevated trains roaring over all this.

They found Mr. and Mrs. Numa installed in their own pretty home, happy and busy with their work. Numa is minister of the Church of Christ in Davenport, and Ruth, his wife, is his ever-ready and efficient co-worker. Numa has found time to raise a garden and they feasted on fresh vegetables.

It was a wonderful trip, but when they arrived home Monday, Frank L. Jr.'s papers were waiting for him, calling him to the service of his country. He left Wednesday for training in the U. S. Air Corp at San Antonio.

The grass is green again in the pastures and the earth has been fragrant with the rain lilies. There is an autumn tang in the air, and on a sunny afternoon I have a feeling that I must slip off to the creek and the woods to look for wild plums and golden rod and ferns.

 Elmer G. Johnson, President of Harlingen State Bank, Harlingen, Texas, writes on Feb. 20, 1948:

"Please send another bottle of Liquid Garlic, also send a bottle to my sister-in-law, Mrs. Hulda C. Dutton, 45 Atwater Terrace, Springfield, Mo.
 "I have some good reports to make on the effectiveness of garlic used. Mr. Turner, Texaco dealer here has taken two bottles and is much better, his blood pressure down about 60 points. Mrs. W. F. Nelson, San Benito, who was in bad shape, is also very much better and her blood pressure down considerable. This garlic works, and you are doing a fine job of producing it for the benefit of those suffering from high blood pressure or heart trouble."

Think of speed... and you naturally think of electric cooking.

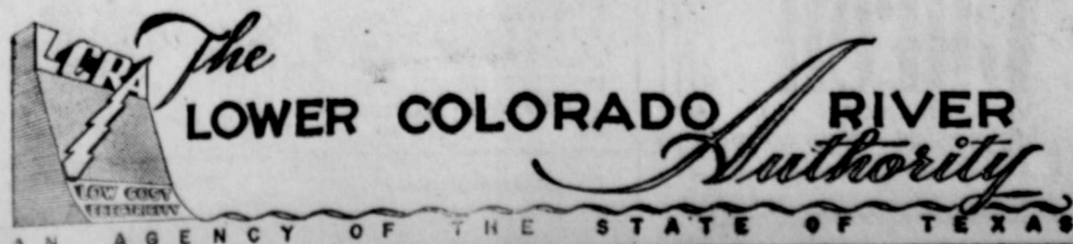

Electric cooking is fast. In an instant the coils of a modern electric range reach the desired temperature. Then, because the heat is constant, your food is ready to be removed from the range as soon as the allotted cooking time is past. You lose no time, because electricity is dependable, never varies.

And electric cooking is so easy... so simple. It is both accurate and automatic. Electric heat is quick and intense.

For example, you can bake a pan of biscuits in twelve minutes from a cold start! Can you equal that time on your present range? Furthermore, electric cooking is clean, cool, economical, safe and gives the most wonderful results.

tion is our father and Freedom is our mother. We forget ours is a task of carrying freedom to people. We forget it was the zeal for freedom that won our Revolution. Until we remember with thanksgiving the forces that brought us into national being, and until we again become conscious of our mission to take freedom to all the earth, our consciences will not let us rest. We will be half convinced that what our enemies are saying is true.

Our enemies are trying to convince us that our aims are material and sordid. They have almost convinced some among us that material greed is the inspiration for our efforts and the source of our power. They have accused us of imperialism. But they know they lie. The only imperialism this country knows and professes is the imperialism of freedom. And the spirit of freedom is unconquerable, imperial. When apparently defeated it has always risen again. Ultimately it will rule men's minds and souls throughout the earth. This is what Stalin fears. This fear of the power of freedom is the reason he will not let free people communicate with those behind the iron curtain. It is the reason he lets only the privileged few with whom he shares his power travel in lands where freedom lives. Stalin hates us deeply because he fears we will be faithful to our heritage.

At times I have thought we as a nation are behaving like one contemplating suicide. No man ever committed suicide who had a worthwhile purpose in life. But without a sublime mission in life the daily frustrations become so big that the struggle seems hardly worthwhile.

Nationally we have our minor frustrations—injustices, inequities, discriminations—all petty compared to the conditions existing in lands behind the iron curtain. And what is more heartening, our revolutionary society has in it the seeds for correcting every injustice that arises. And these seeds are constantly germinating and bearing fruit. Our great purpose in life—our sublime mission—is to plant our revolutionary society in all the earth. When we see our mission clearly, our frustrations will appear in their true proportions—and we will know they are not sufficient reason for us to suicidally destroy our great institutions of freedom.

We have done a lot of vacillating the last five years, tottering between the decision to suicide or to shoulder the responsibility for our true mission. The material comforts we must sacrifice have been alluring; misguided pacifism has given a sort of hollow-sounding righteousness to our shirking the duty we could plainly see. But thanks to God, America is getting religion! It is the evangelical religion of Freedom. America is at last coming to know that life without a motivating force worth dying for, worth paying taxes for, worth daily sacrificing for, is not worth living; and if long pursued will in fact be suicide.

In the days when we won our freedom as a nation, our forefathers literally risked their lives and their fortunes for the cause of freedom—and they made the matter of sustaining their position one involving their sacred honor. And now the time has come for us to pledge our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor for an even greater cause—the cause not of securing just our own freedom, but of securing liberty for the millions now in slavery. Ours is not a passive mission; it is militant. Ours is the glorious task of taking to the enslaved of the earth the revolution of freedom. We are not on a crusade to "contain" communism. We are going to crush it. We are not going to just keep the Kremlin from going further. We are going to push it back. We are out to liberate Poland, and Czechoslovakia, and Albania, and the Baltic states, and the citizen slaves of the Russian tyrant. No longer are we fighting to be "let alone." We are aggressors fast-moving car or pickup has little or no chance.

Mothers who take license numbers and refer them to the proper authorities are not taking the law into their own hands. They are merely acting to protect their children against reckless, careless and thoughtless persons who try to save a few seconds of time at the risk of the lives of children. Those who were responsible last week for making Hannah Valley Road perilous to children are known. Further, mothers are not patient or indulgent in the face of a menace to the safety of their children. Unless the school zone is observed by motorists who so far this week have disregarded it, they can expect much more drastic action—quickly.

for freedom. And no man need be ashamed of that kind of aggression. Rather he can take pride in giving his life in its cause—and for it, he can and will gladly sacrifice all his goods.

America is not sordid. She has hesitated in the past only because she hasn't been given the vision of a great cause. Her leaders have talked of material things—of radios, and bath tubs, and pensions, and automobiles—when America wanted to espouse something greater. She wanted to champion the cause of freedom; she knew the material things were incidental. She has been willing all along to sacrifice all for a worthy cause. And at last it seems our leadership is coming to know our souls—and perhaps to find their own.

It looks now as though we have made the decision to be great—and God pity any who attempt to turn to their selfish material or political advantage this fervent dedication of a great people.

This is your fight and my fight. It is our responsibility to do everything in our power to see that the school children of Texas do not lose their rightful revenue to the wealthy tidelands by default. We appreciate greatly your help in this fight. We hope that you will urge all your friends to become members of the Texas Property Defense Association. The help of every Texan is needed to save our tidelands.

Public Welfare Office Moves Down

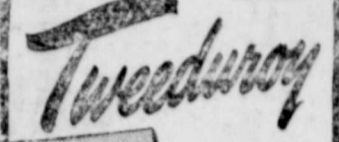

Persons who have business with the Goldthwaite office of the State Department of Public Welfare will no longer find it necessary to climb stairs at the Mills County Court House. Mrs. Anita Isham, who is in charge of the office, has moved the Public Welfare Headquarters into the Court House basement, thereby making it much easier to reach.

heavier than Mr. Ford says, and we feel it to be our duty to so report.

The country correspondents did not report how much rain fell on them. They just wrote about rain, rain, rain and more rain. Maybe they, too, were too busy emptying rain gauges to be certain just how much rain there was.

Up in Brownwood, the reports of heavy rainfall in Mills County reached such proportions that it was rumored an ark had been seen trying to find anchorage on top of San Saba Peak.

As the Eagle went to press the sky was blue and the temperature was pleasantly moderate. There was general agreement around the Square that the fall rains have not yet started—that the recent precipitation was due to sodden clouds that came in from the gulf coast.
