Sam Henry Rahl Decides Against Running Again For School Board

Help Fight Polio As You See Iron Lungs In Stores

Starting today, Friday, appealing posters, which of themselves tell of the need for a March of Dimes campaign, will appear throughout Goldthwaite and Mills County, it was announced this week by W. C. Barnett, general campaign director.

In addition to the posters, Mr. Barnett said, placards bearing a miniature iron lung such as is used for the treatment of polio patients, will appear on the counters of business houses, at the Trent State Bank, and at the office of the Goldthwaite City Utilities, so that dimes may be deposited in it to help the work of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The March of Dimes campaign will extend officially from January 15 through January 31, Mr. Barnett said, and the Mills County Committee has completed its preparations in confidence that there will be a generous response by the public.

Coin cards, which will hold from one to five dimes, will be distributed among school pupils under the supervision of Hope D. Schulze and Jack Locklear in Goldthwaite, Wray B. Williams in Mullin, T. M. Cash in Priddy and Leroy Beard in Star.

Mr. Barnett said that those who may wish to make larger gifts toward meeting the urgent need of aiding polio victims and of furthering research into the cause and treatment of the disease may do so at the City Utilities Office, the Melba Theater, the Trent State Bank and the Goldthwaite Eagle.

"When you join the March of Dimes," Mr. Barnett said, "you aid a great research program which is designated to wipe out polio. With the faith and support of the public, success will come."

In addition to those previously named, Mr. Barnett is being assisted in the March of Dimes campaign by Eugene L. Dyas, Goldthwaite Chairman; T. C. Chaney, Mullin Chairman; DeWard Waggoner, Priddy Chairman; and Delton Barnett, Chairman of Rural Committees.

The 1951 elections for members of the Board of the Goldthwaite Independent School District still are some weeks away but interest was stirred this week when Sam Henry Rahl, senior member of the Board in point of service, said he would not run for re-election.

Mr. Rahl, who is Secretary of the Board, and Claude A. Wicker of Caradan, are the only two Board members whose terms expire this year. Mr. Wicker is the only member of the Board who resides in a rural area.

The election to fill the places now held by Mr. Rahl and Mr. Wicker will be held on Saturday, April 7. The deadline for filing as candidates for places on the ballot is ten days before the election or 5:00 p. m. on March 27. Candidacies should be filed with Mr. Rahl as Secretary of the Board.

Following the assertion by Mr. Rahl that he would not be a candidate for re-election, there was considerable talk to the effect of "let's draft him anyway." It was not known whether Mr. Wicker would offer himself for re-election.

Last year, the entire Board of the Goldthwaite Independent School District was re-elected. The deadline for the filing of nominations passed with no opposition candidates entering for places on the ballot, but almost on the eve of the election, unsigned letters were circulated urging write-in votes for an opposition slate, which was defeated.

Other members of the Board of the Goldthwaite Independent School District and who are not up for decisions by the voters this year are C. C. Collier, Chairman; Ray Duren, Roy Wilkins, Mohler Simpson, and Far-est Frazier.

Mr. Steen is credited by his many associates for much of the vision, perseverance and leadership that has brought Mills County to its present position of pre-eminence nationally.

Many Men Toil On Show Job To Assure Success

Many men have pooled their efforts to make possible next week's Spring Show by the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association. In addition to President Robert L. Steen, the officers of the Association are:

Willis V. Horton, Vice President; and Glynn Collier, Secretary-Treasurer.

Others who are directly concerned with the organization and operation of the Show are:

J. C. Yearly, Jr., hog superintendent; Y. B. Johnson, sheep superintendent; David Watters, goat superintendent; Dick Vestal, poultry superintendent;

LIVESTOCK SHOW NEXT MONDAY AND TUESDAY TO DISPLAY WORK OF 4-H AND F. F. A. MEMBERS

Before daylight next Monday morning, livestock from all corners of Mills County will be moving to the "Barn" or Agriculture Building in Goldthwaite so as to be in their stalls by 8:30 o'clock—an hour and a half before the official time for opening the 13th annual Spring Show of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association. The Show, which ranks among the most important in the entire United States, will continue until 4:30 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon. The prospect is for the biggest Show in Association history.

There Were Days When Livestock Show Was Rugged

When you go to the Spring Show of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association at the Barn next Monday and Tuesday, you will find not only admirable youngsters, earnest and devoted adults, and wonderful livestock, but you will also find a well-equipped exposition building complete with fine stalls, washing racks, an exhibition ring and all the rest of it. It was not always that way.

The Show has grown from small beginnings. There has been struggle. Discouragements had to be overcome; money had to be raised. Men had to look forward with a firm determination to make dreams come true.

The Mills County Livestock Raisers Association has been in existence for 14 years. Prior to its establishment, there was no County Shows in Mills County. But next week, the 13th annual County Show will be held—the third such event to be staged at the Barn.

Before there was a Barn, the Show was held not only in Goldthwaite, but sometimes at Star, Priddy or Mullin. There were times when it was held in the bus garage at the Goldthwaite School. It has been held on football fields, where the Goldthwaite Electric Company now stands—even in a tent on the vacant lot adjoining the Harper Implement Company, fronting the railroad tracks. One year, President Robert L. Steen of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association said

Reflecting the significance of the Show to the life of the community as a whole and in recognition of the outstanding achievements by Mills County 4-H Club boys and girls and the Future Farmers of America in the field of animal husbandry, the majority of business houses in Goldthwaite will close next Tuesday afternoon during the club cattle judging and auctioneering. Everybody has a date at the Show.

Mullin Is Agog Over Stock Show Due On Saturday

An Agriculture and Livestock Show, sponsored by the Mullin Lions Club and open only to entries from the Mullin trade territory, will be held tomorrow, Saturday at the Mullin High School with many elements of the community participating.

Mullin Lions Club Secretary Ray Barnett said that the Mullin Parent-Teacher Association will sponsor a bazaar at the Show and that the ladies of the P.-T. A. will welcome donations of pies and cakes for the free barbecue that will become part of the Show at 2:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

In addition to exhibits by breeders and members of the Mullin Chapter of the Future Farmers of America, Mr. Barnett said, the Mullin F.H.A. girls will enter potato salad in competition for first, second and third prizes.

The Show, Mr. Barnett said, will display entries of sheep, cattle and hogs by the following breeders:

Butch Rowlett, Bill Black, Tom Cooksey, Herman Jones, H. H. Rankin, Earl Fisher, Lewis Pafford, Dick Kemp, Willis Hill, C. W. Holden, Andy Rowlett, Pete Smith, W. B. Black, Glenn

This week, President Robert L. Steen of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association said that among the exhibits to be seen at the Show will be:

Fifty or more steers to be exhibited by 4-H Club boys and girls and members of the Future Farmers of America—many of which later will enter some of the toughest competition ever at fat stock expositions at Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio.

About a score of breeding cattle, to be shown by the finest breeders in Texas and consequently, by the topmost breeders in the whole United States.

Fifty or more hogs, at least 60 lambs and sheep, some dairy cattle, many chickens and turkeys and some goats.

On hand, Mr. Steen said, there will be such distinguished judges as Frank Jordan of Art, Tom Henry of San Saba, Guy Powell of Kerrville, and R. J. Powell of Richland Springs.

Very probably, among those present will be A. L. "Whiskey" Smith, the animal husbandry expert of the Extension Service of Texas A. & M. College; and R. G. Burwell, District Extension Agent. In addition, many another County in Texas will send "scouts" to size-up Mills County prospects at the Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio expositions.

Under the latest rules of the Show, Mr. Steen said, all breeding stock must be purebred. All livestock considered unworthy to be shown will be removed from the grounds. No one person will be allowed to sell more than two animals and no one person will be allowed to show more than three animals in any one class.

At ten o'clock on Monday morning, the Show will open officially with introductions over a mobile public address system to be provided by the Burrus Feed Mills of Fort Worth.

Future Farmers Of America Will Have Record Entries At Big Show

Mills County Future Farmers of America will have more entries in the Spring Show of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association than ever before, it became apparent this week as the various F. F. A. Chapters announced the projects they will exhibit.

F. F. A. Chapters in Goldthwaite, Mullin, Star and Priddy will be represented at the Show by cattle, hogs, sheep, goats and chickens.

Y. B. Johnson, Advisor to the F. F. A. Eagle Chapter in Goldthwaite, listed the following entries:

Fat muttons: Charles and Aaron Batchelor, 3 lambs; James Kemp, five lambs; Bobby Joe Davis, four lambs; Callie Sides, four lambs; and Bob Parker, four lambs.

Breeding sheep: Doyle Roach, four Delaines; James Tippen, two Delaines; Johnny Carr, one Delaine; Curtis Doyle, one Delaine; James Kemp, one Delaine; Hammond Humphries, two Delaines; Wayne Perry, four Delaines; Bobby Joe Davis, one Delaine; Goldthwaite F.F.A., four Delaines; Herbert Burks, one Delaine; and Billy Rahl, four Delaines.

Fat barrows: Bobby Wilcox, 2; Goldthwaite F.F.A., 1; Bobby and Johnny Carr, 2.

Breeding hogs, Bill Parker, one Berkshire; Wayne Wicker, one Duroc Jersey.

Chickens: Charles Batchelor.

Seven More Miles Of Rural Roads Scheduled Soon For Mills County

Plans for construction of nearly seven more miles of farm-to-market roads in Mills County were announced this week by Thomas W. Smith, Resident Engineer of the Texas Highway Department.

Mr. Smith said that highway number 572 will undergo new construction and improvement, including hard surfacing, from its present end, southeast of Goldthwaite, for a distance of 3 1/8 miles.

Similar construction and surfacing will be undertaken on highway number 218 from the north edge of Priddy to the present end of the road in Hamilton County. This construction will involve 3 1/10 miles in Mills County and half a mile in Hamilton County.

Mr. Smith said that with the new work to be done in extending Highway No. 218, Priddy will be linked directly with Hamilton by a farm-to-market road extending from highway 16 in Mills County to highway 36 in Hamilton County.

The construction will be paid for with funds of the State of Texas as authorized by the Legislature. Bids for the construction of the new roads will be opened in Austin at the office of the Texas Highway Department on January 23.

Mr. Smith said also that resurfacing soon will begin on highway number 84 from Pompey Creek Bridge to the intersection of highway 16 at Goldthwaite and that a new surface will be placed very shortly on highway 574, which extends from the Hannah Valley Road, near Goldthwaite, across Pecan Bayou and to the intersection of the Ridge and Ebony roads.

The fourth boy from the left is Warren P. Duren, who now is Vice President of the Trent State Bank in Goldthwaite; and the boy at the extreme right is J. B. Harper. The Eagle thanks County Agent George Reese for providing the photograph. It certainly shows that times have changed.

OUR VERY OWN LIVESTOCK EXHIBITION

On Monday and Tuesday of next week, the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association will hold its 13th annual Show at the "Barn" or Agriculture Building in Goldthwaite.

The primary reason for the existence of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association is inspiring. It has been and will continue to be the encouragement of our boys and girls in breeding fine stock and in acquiring the knowledge they must have to become successful ranchers and farmers.

That the leadership provided, and the incentives offered, by the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association have been effective, has been proved by the triumphs of Mills County boys and girls at major fat stock exhibitions during the past few years.

Since that is so true, everybody can help in the great undertaking. In a news story in this week's Eagle, President Robert L. Steen and Secretary-Treasurer Glynn Collier of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association point out that, as in nearly everything else, money is essential.

It ought not to be necessary to have to emphasize again that without prosperity on our farms and ranches, Mills County would be desolate. It ought not to be necessary to point out that without the education and encouragement of and to youngsters to carry on and improve in the future the work of the past, this area would stagnate and die.

Attend the Spring Show of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association at the Barn in Goldthwaite next Monday and Tuesday. See for yourself what our 4-H Club boys and girls and our Future Farmers of America have been doing, under the guidance of the adults whose names are printed elsewhere in this newspaper.

Anybody who fails to attend the Show on both days at the Barn next week will be missing an opportunity to see the animals that will take the top honors at Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio. We say that because of our confidence in Mills County calf feeders.

WHEN THE OLD BIRD WAS YOUNGER

10 YEARS AGO (Taken from Eagle Files of January 10, 1941)

Mr. J. D. Brim, a long-time resident of Mills County, passed away very suddenly last Monday night.

The Death Angel came silently and swiftly on December 28 and wafted the sweet spirit of Charlotte Mingus McCullough to that Heavenly home where sickness, sorrow nor tears ever come.

Misses Abbie and Ruth Ervin took their sister, Mrs. O. S. White and children, who have been visiting them, to Ranger Friday.

Wallace Johnson returned to Austin to resume his studies at the University after spending the holidays here with relatives.

Last Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Miss Coleman entertained the boys who played football on the Goldthwaite High School team last year and the boys who intend to play next year at the Melba Theatre. The show was "Yesterday's Heroes."

Among those who are eligible for the first call from Goldthwaite and who have volunteered to enter the service of the Army or Navy and expect to leave next Monday are the following: V. Lee Williams, Mullin; L. L. Williams, Mullin; Floyd Hashaw, James C. Adams, E. E. Roberts, and Harold Yarborough, Goldthwaite.

At a meeting in County Agent Sam Rosenberg's office, Thursday night, January 9th, plans for a Livestock Raisers' Show were made by a committee of livestock raisers. It was planned that the first show would be used as a measuring stick to learn how much interest ranchmen and farmers have in this kind of livestock improvement program.

M. L. Casbeer has been quite sick at his home at South Bennett with flu.

Miss Kathleen Tabors spent Sunday with Norma Gene Hill. R. E. Worley spent Wednesday in Dallas seeing the A. & M. and Fordham football game.

Mrs. Tim Trousdale and daughter, Mrs. Clarence Walker and husband of Kemper spent Sunday with her brother, Y. E. Hoover and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Livingston of Lafayette, La., and his mother, Mrs. Rolla Livingston and daughter, Miss Mary Margaret of Liberty visited Mr. and Mrs. Hud Hamilton and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ervin of Lubbock, who were on their honeymoon, left Tuesday after spending a few days here with his aunts, Misses Abbie and Ruth Ervin.

Fairman Marshall came in from Houston Saturday evening for a short visit to his mother, and to take his wife and son home after visiting here with relatives.

20 YEARS AGO (Taken from Eagle Files of January 16, 1931)

Mr. Odell Oleson of Brady and Miss Geneva Robertson of Electra were united in marriage Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in the home of Judge and Mrs. E. B. Anderson in this city.

County Agent W. P. Weaver called a meeting of leading farmers of the county, to be held in the Court House, yesterday afternoon, to discuss diversification, good seed and the Extension Department's program of safe farming in general.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Horton of Seallorn returned Monday night from a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Frazier of Brownwood.

Dr. Em. Wilson, Manager of the Corpus Christi broadcasting station, invites the readers of the Eagle who have radios to tune in on KGFL, Corpus Christi, Texas, operating on 1500 kilocycles, and hear a DX program to be broadcast Jan. 18, from 1:00 to 3:00 a. m., CST. Curtis Koen, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Koen of Caradan, was badly hurt in an automobile accident near Amarillo some days ago. Mr. Koen left for Amarillo immediately upon receipt of information regarding the accident and returned Monday, being cared for in the family home at Caradan until he recovers.

Mrs. Vernon Tyson underwent a serious operation in the Cottage Hospital yesterday afternoon and her condition was reported to be alarming.

Mrs. Robert Robertson and daughter, Normalee, of Big Valley, and Mrs. Eddie Hawkins of Globe, Arizona, went to Houston for a visit with friends and relatives.

Eugene Dickerson arrived from Clifton, Arizona, Tuesday night for a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Dickerson, and other relatives.

Mrs. George H. Winsor of Houston arrived in this city Tuesday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Rahl and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Miller were Brownwood visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Ernest Allen of Blanket, who has been ill at the Central Texas Hospital for several days underwent a major operation there Monday. (Brownwood Bulletin.)

S. M. McCasland of the eastern part of the county, transacted business in this city the early part of the week.

Mrs. Earl Fairman is spending a few days with relatives in Waco.

Miss Lillie Martin, who travels in the interest of the Dorothy Perkins Toilet Goods Co., left for a trip over her territory Monday, after spending several weeks including the holidays, at home.

F. A. Hines was in from Antelope Gap section last Saturday, looking after business matters.

50 YEARS AGO (Taken from Eagle Files of January 12, 1901)

G. W. Welty of Mullin and Miss Annabelle Lewis were united in marriage in this city Monday night. Judge H. T. White officiating.

Last Thursday night while our Honorable Squire Nelson was slumbering, possibly dreaming of younger days that have passed, he was awakened by some one at the gate, who said, "Hello, Walter." The squire aroused from his slumbers and went to the door. "Who is that?" "Come out, I want to see you."

The J. P. went back in the house and loaded his Henry Clay and ventured out and found it to be W. M. Trowbridge, and beside him sat the fairest of ten thousand. Says Bill to "Pete," "I want you to marry me and Miss Willie."

"All right," said the squire. "I enjoy such an occasion, when there is cash in the trade, but I am getting enough of it on the credit." So the trade was soon made, the consideration being two and one half bushels of sweet taters. So Bill and Willie went away happy. "Long may you live, happy may you be, as many be your joys as there were taters in the fee."

At her home in this city Thursday morning at 12:30 o'clock Miss Sallie S. Thompson died.

A gentleman stopped over in Goldthwaite Friday night and stated that he was making a trip over the world on foot. He was traveling for the New York Herald and gave us a short account of his trip.

P. D. Yarborough expected to move his family to his farm in San Saba County this week and carried one load of furniture over there when he had a good offer for the place and sold it to Mr. W. J. Burnett of San Saba County. He will probably buy or build a home and remain in Goldthwaite.

L. R. Conro expects to put in a telephone exchange in San Saba in the near future. He has one of the best systems in Texas here and the people in our neighboring city can be sure he will give them good service in the exchange.

News reached us this week that Mr. Chas. Rudd and Miss Sallie Martin were united in marriage at Angleton, Brazoria County, December 31, and after spending a few days at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Martin, the happy couple started for the Indian Territory, where they will reside.

Mrs. F. N. Irwin of Pleasant

In a completely renovated chamber, the House of Representatives met last week to begin a grim new session, beset with rumblings of war and ominous developments around the world.

The 81st Congress had concluded an historic session late the evening before. For the first time in history the Congress met and worked all day on New Year's Day, disposing of bills that had then become ready for the final touches before the session's end.

The 1950 session voted a $40 billion, plus, preparedness budget. Immediately following the intervention, by the President's order, in Korea, the Congress last summer passed a mobilization law giving authority for wage and price freezes and controls and proceeded with an unprecedented peacetime order for a powerful army, navy and air force, with additional guns, planes and equipment. A tax bill was passed to help pay the added cost. Even before the Korean action a $15 billion defense budget had been voted.

Ironically, these efforts to make America strong were condemned alike by the Communists in their annual convention in Madison Square Garden and by certain disgruntled die-hards who could see no good in the Congressional temper that passed laws to mobilize America's resources to meet the onslaught of communist aggression and possibly thereby stay the hand of Soviet imperialism.

The party-line complexion of the new Congress is considerably changed from the outgoing one. The House now has 234 Democrats, 199 Republicans, 1 Democrat-Liberal, and one Independent. Thus, the majority control has dropped in the House from 92 in the last session to 35 at present. In the Senate the Democratic majority dropped from 12 to 2.

Incidentally, the 82nd Congress has 9 women members compared with 10 in the preceding Congress. All walks of life are represented, including preachers, teachers, labor leaders, businessmen, farmers, newspaper publishers, lawyers, writers, soldiers, Marines, Navy men, dentists and physicians. The youngest member is 27-year old Patrick J. Hillings, Democrat, of California, and the oldest is venerable Robert Doughton of North Carolina, now 87, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee.

Our reverses in Korea have added to the widespread demands for the removal by the President, of Secretary, Dean Acheson, and for a revamped foreign policy. Certainly, it seems to me, no man should be Secretary of State or hold any other high policy-making post if our government who does not have the confidence of most of the American people.

There is no panacea for the solution of world problems where communist aggression, dictated from Moscow, is breaking out or threatening at many spots along the borders of Communist-dominated countries. It does seem that we cannot afford to commit ourselves to a

Grove was shopping and visiting relatives and friends in the city Tuesday.

The Eagle's Aery

By The Editor

Since the United Nations has been evading its moral duty and since it is essential that the American people debate and then agree upon a policy on which we can stand united before the world, the Eagle this week reprints in this space an editorial from last Sunday's Houston Chronicle as a contribution to public thinking on the entire issue. The editorial was entitled: "Taft Opens Great Debate." The editorial follows in full in the paragraphs below.

One does not have to agree with everything that Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio said in his speech opening the so-called "great debate" on United States foreign policy to welcome the full discussion of the issues which his address forecasts.

There should be full consideration of all of the problems involved in our future military course of action. The fact that such a debate takes place cannot weaken our position or our determination to defend freedom throughout the world.

It may lead to even greater unity in the United States and between this nation and our allies than now exists, for a complete examination of what needs to be done and how it should be done can dispel confusion and misunderstanding which now prevails.

When the Republican senate leader challenged President Truman's statement that he has power to send troops to Europe without the consent of Congress, he injected a new phase into the debate.

These challenges assuredly are legitimate subjects for discussion, and they will bulk large in what is becoming the greatest debate since the one which preceded the War Between the States.

That years-long discussion by Webster, Clay, Calhoun, Hayne and others revolved about states' rights, national unity, the right of succession. The current great debate must be resolved quickly into policies upon which the nation can unite in this time of its greatest peril from without.

As to the constitutional question which Senator Taft raises, it is clear that only Congress has "power...to declare war." Also the President "shall have power by and with the consent of the senate to make treaties." But presidents have so managed some phases of foreign affairs without congressional consultation, as to commit us to war. Mr. Truman is not the first president to do this.

Mr. Taft's point most heavily emphasized in his speech Friday was that the President lacked authority to send troops abroad prior to attack by an enemy without the advice and consent of Congress. The senator from Ohio did not say that troops should not be sent. He did not propose to repudiate the North Atlantic alliance. He held to the thesis that in the event of Russian aggression the United States must come to the aid of the Western European nations.

In taking this position Taft reflected the opinion of senate foreign relations committee when the North Atlantic alliance was under consideration. That committee specifically reserved for the senate authority which it possesses to declare war, regardless of the language of that treaty.

We think that there is for a full debate on the point made by Senator Taft that is that the United States abandon the "theory" of Korea and elsewhere it is being as the representative of United Nations. Senator expressed the conviction "we have to engage in wars when we think we can engage in them and not at times."

When Senator Taft endeavored to spell out the numbers and the circumstances under which they may be used, he believed that his words should in no sense final. Here the senator from Ohio invaded the territory of military high command way that cannot be helped in time of emergency of war.

We already have troops. How they shall be retained and used is not for the determination of the United States, although it may have the right to counsel military leaders.

Probably the most important consequence of the speech Senator Taft delivered is the sought to far our European allies into the realization that too have a responsibility they cannot hand over to Dwight Eisenhower and American people. Those who interpret the Taft speech as a challenge to General Eisenhower should remember that give him a powerful weapon convince European leaders they must throw their weight into the North Atlantic alliance preparedness program.

It would have been European leaders to make that the general's appointment would force us to play a greater role than we have readily accepted. They have no doubts now that this country expect to share every obligation and every sacrifice that the United States is asked to make of itself.

So let the "great debate" continue. Out of it should be a clarity of perception that may prevent American from having once again undertake the defense of "impossible" positions such as cost us 40,000 casualties in during the last six months.

No patriotic American should abandon the struggle for freedom through the world. The battles be fought in the fields and under conditions that have national support give our men an equal with the enemy.

The debate which has begun is necessary, for the issue is deeply divided on foreign and military policy. May suit in early coalescence of public opinion into a solid front national unity behind international and practical policies. May administration, the Congress, the people be guided by the spirit that moved Daniel Webster during that other great debate, to say:

"When my eyes shall be closed, (Continued on Page 11)

Girl Scouts Make Plans For 1951 And Thank Public For Its Support

Improvement of the yard at the Little House was agreed upon as a project for 1951 at a meeting on Wednesday morning of last week of the Board of Directors of the Goldthwaite Girl Scouts, which also was attended by some of the Troop Leaders.

Mrs. J. H. Saylor, President, said that at the Board meeting it was agreed also that Girl Scout Troops will sell cookies for the purpose of raising funds. Finishing touches were given to the 1950 report of the Goldthwaite Girl Scout Association and Mrs. Saylor reported on the various troops.

The Girl Scout Yard Improvement project for 1951 will include the construction of an out-of-doors fireplace, Mrs. Saylor said. She announced progress by four Girl Scout Troops, two Brownie Scout Troops, and two Intermediate Scout Troops, having a combined membership of 34 girls. Mrs. Saylor again pointed out that more girls wish to become Girl Scouts but that there is a lack of leadership. Persons interested in becoming leaders in the Girl Scout movement should telephone 145-J or 40-J. Mrs. Saylor said. She pointed out that the Girl Scout Association provides leadership training.

In connection with the report on the Board meeting, Mrs. Saylor issued a resolution of thanks by the Girl Scouts, Brownies and the Girl Scout Council for contributions by the public to provide funds for their work.

The Girl Scouts issued a financial statement for 1950 showing that the drive for funds resulted in contributions of $380.51. With a balance on hand from 1949 of $430.73 and the payment of $5.00 in membership dues, their funds available for 1950 totaled $816.24.

Expenditures during 1950 totaled $424.38, leaving a current balance of $391.86. Expenditures for 1950 included the following: area dues, $175.00; care of yard, $4.45; light, heat and water, $23.64; insurance, $20.65; interior and exterior building repairs, $158.49; training program, $27.82; registration fees, $10.00; equipment, $4.33.

Future Mrs. Horton Is Honored At Tea

Miss Marquette Coats of Waco, bride-elect of M. Allan Horton of Waco, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Horton of Goldthwaite, was the honoree at a tea-shower given in the home of Mrs. J. C. Morgan, 3115 Homan Avenue, Waco, Friday evening, January 5. Misses Morgan, Frank Johnson, and Misses Bonnie Thompson and Ruth Smith were co-hostesses.

Miss Coats is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Vance of Waco. The wedding will be solemnized January 20 in the Herring Avenue Church of Christ in Waco.

The parents of the groom attended the announcement tea given in the home of the bride's parents December 17.

American Legion To Aid March Of Dimes

The Harry F. Edmondson Post number 289 of the American Legion will meet tonight, Friday, at 7:30 o'clock at the Legion Hall to discuss the organization's participation in Mills County March of Dimes Campaign, which will be conducted from January 15 through January 31 under the general chairmanship of W. C. Barnett.

Also at the meeting, a motion picture film, "Two Views of Socialism," will be exhibited by courtesy of T. M. Glass, a Past Commander of the local American Legion Post.

Because of the important topics to be considered at the meeting, Acting Commander Burl Holland urged that all members attend.

OUR VERY OWN LIVESTOCK EXHIBITION

On Monday and Tuesday of next week, the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association will hold its 13th annual Show at the "Barn" or Agriculture Building in Goldthwaite. As the amount of space that is devoted to the event in this week's Eagle indicates, we believe that the Show will represent just about as important an event as there can be in our community life. That we are not alone in our belief is demonstrated by the fact that next Tuesday afternoon, a majority of the business houses in Goldthwaite will close so that during the periods of judging and auctioneering, all of us may concentrate on the happenings at the Barn.

The primary reason for the existence of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association is inspiring. It has been and will continue to be the encouragement of our boys and girls in breeding fine stock and in acquiring the knowledge they must have to become successful ranchers and farmers. The men who banded themselves together in the Association have worked with the youngsters, with breeders, with County Agents and teachers of vocational agriculture, with parents and with the business elements of the community in order to raise the standards of our economic fundamental—animal husbandry and agriculture.

That the leadership provided, and the incentives offered, by the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association have been effective, has been proved by the triumphs of Mills County boys and girls at major fat stock expositions during the past few years. The entries with which they will compete this year at Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio can be seen by everybody at the Barn next Monday and Tuesday. There is no person among us who does not benefit from the thought, the education, the organization and the work that will be on display for everybody to see at the Barn next week.

Since that is so true, everybody can help in the great undertaking. In a news story in this week's Eagle, President Robert L. Steen and Secretary-Treasurer Glynn Collier of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association point out that, as in nearly everything else, money is essential. By joining the Association at a nominal cost of only one dollar, everybody may have a sense of belonging and of helping. During next week's Show, Dutton Barnett, L. F. Bain and Everett Holland will be available to take memberships. Further, the Association will welcome contributions to help to liquidate the mortgage on the Barn, which is a facility that has done so much to bring the Show to its present stature. Persons who formerly lived in Mills County but who now live elsewhere can help by mailing their membership fees or contributions to the Barn Fund to Mr. Steen or to Mr. Collier at the Trent State Bank in Goldthwaite. We urge that this year, there be a mighty effort by everybody who has the best interests of Mills County at heart in the form of contributions to the Barn Fund and in the form of the greatest number of memberships ever paid into the treasury of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association.

It ought not to be necessary to have to emphasize again that without prosperity on our farms and ranches, Mills County would be desolate. It ought not to be necessary to point out that without the education and encouragement of and to youngsters to carry on and improve in the future the work of the past, this area would stagnate and die. But it is so true that all of us are dependent upon our land and our animal husbandry so exclusively that only the most selfish would overlook an opportunity to spur on the varied activities that will be displayed so well at the Barn next week.

Attend the Spring Show of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association at the Barn in Goldthwaite next Monday and Tuesday. See for yourself what our 4-H Club boys and girls and our Future Farmers of America have been doing, under the guidance of the adults whose names are printed elsewhere in this newspaper. Then, be sure that you, too, are participating, if only by means of financial support, in a truly tremendous work that is of incalculable benefit to everybody, without exception.

Anybody who fails to attend the Show on both days at the Barn next week will be missing an opportunity to see the animals that will take the top honors at Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio. We say that because of our confidence in Mills County calf feeders.

G. W. Welty of Mullin and Miss Annabelle Lewis were united in marriage in this city Monday night, Judge H. T. White officiating.

Last Thursday night while our Honorable Squire Nelson was slumbering, possibly dreaming of younger days that have passed, he was awakened by some one at the gate, who said, "Hello, Walter." The squire awoke from his slumbers and went to the door. "Who is that?" "Come out, I want to see you." The J. P. went back in the house and loaded his Henry Clay and ventured out and found it to be W. M. Trowbridge, and beside him sat the fairest of ten thousand. Says Bill to "Pete," "I want you to marry me and Miss Willie." "All right," said the squire. "I enjoy such an occasion, when there is cash in the trade, but I am getting enough of it on the credit." So the trade was soon made, the consideration being two and one half bushels of sweet taters. So Bill and Willie went away happy. "Long may you live, happy may you be, as many be your joys as there were taters in the fee."

At her home in this city Thursday morning at 12:30 o'clock Miss Sallie S. Thompson died.

A gentleman stopped over in Goldthwaite Friday night and stated that he was making a trip over the world on foot. He was traveling for the New York Herald and gave us a short account of his trip.

P. D. Yarborough expected to move his family to his farm in San Saba County this week and carried one load of furniture over there when he had a good offer for the place and sold it to Mr. W. J. Burnett of San Saba County. He will probably buy or build a home and remain in Goldthwaite.

L. R. Conro expects to put in a telephone exchange in San Saba in the near future. He has one of the best systems in Texas here and the people in our neighboring city can be sure he will give them good service in the exchange.

News reached us this week that Mr. Chas. Rudd and Miss Sallie Martin were united in marriage at Angleton, Brazoria County, December 31, and after spending a few days at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Martin, the happy couple started for the Indian Territory, where they will reside.

Mrs. F. N. Irwin of Pleasant

In a completely renovated chamber, the House of Representatives met last week to begin a grim new session, beset with rumblings of war and ominous developments around the world.

The 81st Congress had concluded an historic session late the evening before. For the first time in history the Congress met and worked all day on New Year's Day, disposing of bills that had then become ready for the final touches before the session's end.

The 1950 session voted a $40 billion, plus, preparedness budget. Immediately following the intervention, by the President's order, in Korea, the Congress last summer passed a mobilization law giving authority for wage and price freezes and controls and proceeded with an unprecedented peacetime order for a powerful army, navy and air force, with additional guns, planes and equipment. A tax bill was passed to help pay the added cost. Even before the Korean action, a $15 billion defense budget had been voted.

Ironically, these efforts to make America strong were condemned alike by the Communists in their annual convention in Madison Square Garden and by certain disgruntled die-hards who could see no good in the Congressional temper that passed laws to mobilize America's resources to meet the onslaught of communist aggression and possibly thereby stay the hand of Soviet imperialism.

The party-line complexion of the new Congress is considerably changed from the outgoing one. The House now has 234 Democrats, 199 Republicans, 1 Democrat-Liberal, and one Independent. Thus, the majority control has dropped in the House from 92 in the last session to 35 at present. In the Senate the Democratic majority dropped from 12 to 2.

Incidentally, the 82nd Congress has 9 women members compared with 10 in the preceding Congress. All walks of life are represented, including preachers, teachers, labor leaders, businessmen, farmers, newspaper publishers, lawyers, writers, soldiers, Marines, Navy men, dentists and physicians. The youngest member is 27-year old Patrick J. Hillings, Democrat, of California, and the oldest is venerable Robert Doughton of North Carolina, now 87, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee.

Our reverses in Korea have added to the widespread demands for the removal by the President, of Secretary, Dean Acheson, and for a revamped foreign policy. Certainly, it seems to me, no man should be Secretary of State or hold any other high policy-making post in our government; who does not have the confidence of most of the American people.

There is no panacea for the solution of world problems where communist aggression, dictated from Moscow, is breaking out or threatening at many spots along the borders of Communist-dominated countries. It does seem that we cannot afford to commit ourselves to a

By The Editor

Since the United Nations has been evading its moral duty and since it is essential that the American people debate and then agree upon a policy on which we can stand united before the world, the Eagle this week reprints in this space an editorial from last Sunday's Houston Chronicle as a contribution to public thinking on the entire issue. The editorial was entitled: "Taft Opens Great Debate." The editorial follows in full in the paragraphs below.

One does not have to agree with everything that Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio said in his speech opening the so-called "great debate" on United States foreign policy to welcome the full discussion of the issues which his address forecasts.

There should be full consideration of all of the problems involved in our future military course of action. The fact that such a debate takes place cannot weaken our position or our determination to defend freedom throughout the world.

It will not, as some administration supporters have already suggested, mean the abandonment of commitments that we have made.

It may lead to even greater unity in the United States and between this nation and our allies than now exists, for a complete examination of what needs to be done and how it should be done can dispel confusion and misunderstanding which now prevails.

When the Republican senate leader challenged President Truman's statement that he has power to send troops to Europe without the consent of congress he injected a new phase into the debate.

That was only a part of the challenge he hurled against administration comments on foreign and military aid without prior congressional consultation. He charged also that President Truman involved this nation in the Korean war "without authority."

These challenges assuredly are legitimate subjects for discussion, and they will bulk large in what is becoming the greatest debate since the one which preceded the War Between the States.

That years-long discussion by Webster, Clay, Calhoun, Hayne and others revolved about states' rights, national unity, the right of succession. The current great debate must be resolved quickly into policies upon which the nation can unite in this time of its greatest peril from without.

As to the constitutional question which Senator Taft raises, it is clear that only congress has "power to declare war." Also the President "shall have power by and with the consent of the senate to make treaties." But presidents have so managed some phases of foreign affairs without congressional consultation, as to commit us to war. Mr. Truman is not the first president to do this.

Mr. Taft's point most heavily emphasized in his speech Friday was that the President lacked authority to send troops abroad prior to attack by an enemy without the advice and consent of congress. The senator from Ohio did not say that troops should not be sent. He did not propose to repudiate the North Atlantic alliance. He held to the thesis that in the event of Russian aggression the United States must come to the aid of the Western European nations.

In taking this position, Taft reflected the opinion of senate foreign relations committee when the North Atlantic alliance was under consideration. That committee specifically reserved for the senate authority which it possesses to declare war, regardless of the language of that treaty.

We think that there is a full debate on a point made by Senator Taft that is that the United States should not abandon the "theory" in Korea and elsewhere that it is the representative of United Nations. Senator expressed the conviction "we have to engage in wars when we think we should engage in them and not at times."

When Senator Taft endeavored to spell out the number and the circumstances under which they may be used, he believed that his words should in no sense final. Here the senator from Ohio invaded the domain of military high command, a way that cannot be helped in time of emergency of war.

We already have troops. How they shall be retrained and used is not for the determination of the United States, although it may have the right to counsel military leaders.

Probably the most immediate consequence of the speech Senator Taft delivered is that it is to jar our European allies into the realization that they too have a responsibility which they cannot hand over to Dwight Eisenhower and the American people. Those who interpret the Taft speech as disservice to General Eisenhower should remember that give him a powerful weapon to convince European leaders they must throw their weight into the North Atlantic alliance preparedness program.

It would have been a mistake for European leaders to think that the general's appointment would force us to play a greater role than we have already accepted. They have no doubts now that this country expects to share every obligation and every sacrifice that the United States is asked to make on behalf.

So let the "great debate" continue. Out of it should come a clearer perception of what we must do to prevent American from having once again to undertake the defense of "unsustainable" positions such as cost us 40,000 casualties in during the last six months.

No patriotic American should abandon the struggle for freedom through the world, let the battles be fought in fields and under conditions that have national support give our men an equal fight with the enemy.

The debate which has begun is necessary, for the nation is deeply divided on military policy. Many have in early coalescence of opinion into a solid national unity behind international and practical policies. The people be guided by the spirit that moved Daniel Webster during that other great debate, to say:

"When my eyes shall be closed, I shall be content to leave behind me a nation that is united and strong." (Continued on Page 1)

Girl Scouts Make Plans For 1951 And Thank Public For Its Support

Improvement of the yard at the Little House was agreed upon as a project for 1951 at a meeting on Wednesday morning of last week of the Board of Directors of the Goldthwaite Girl Scouts, which also was attended by some of the Troop Leaders.

Mrs. J. H. Saylor, President, said that at the Board meeting it was agreed also that Girl Scout Troops will sell cookies for the purpose of raising funds. Finishing touches were given to the 1950 report of the Goldthwaite Girl Scout Association and Mrs. Saylor reported on the various troops.

The Girl Scout Yard Improvement project for 1951 will include the construction of an out-of-doors fireplace, Mrs. Saylor said. She announced progress by four Girl Scout Troops, two Brownie Scout Troops, and two Intermediate Scout Troops, having a combined membership of 34 girls. Mrs. Saylor again pointed out that more girls wish to become Girl Scouts but that there is a lack of leadership. Persons interested in becoming leaders in the Girl Scout movement should telephone 145-J or 40-J. Mrs. Saylor said. She pointed out that the Girl Scout Association provides leadership training.

In connection with the report on the Board meeting, Mrs. Saylor issued a resolution of thanks by the Girl Scouts, Brownies and the Girl Scout Council for contributions by the public to provide funds for their work.

The Girl Scouts issued a financial statement for 1950 showing that the drive for funds resulted in contributions of $380.51. With a balance on hand from 1949 of $430.73 and the payment of $5.00 in membership dues, their funds available for 1950 totaled $816.24.

Expenditures during 1950 totaled $424.38, leaving a current balance of $391.86. Expenditures for 1950 included the following: area dues, $175.00; care of yard, $4.45; light, heat and water, $23.64; insurance, $20.65; interior and exterior building repairs, $158.49; training program, $27.82; registration fees, $10.00; equipment, $4.33.

Betsy Smith Writes Of Troop Meeting

By BETSY SMITH

Troop III of the Girl Scouts had its first meeting on January 3. Our Leaders are Mrs. J. H. Saylor and Mrs. Brantley Hudson.

We elected officers as follows: Barbara Blackburn is our President, Martha Carolyn Graves is our Secretary, Kathryn Horton is Treasurer and Betsy Smith is Scribe.

We have one new member who was not with us last year. She is Linda Lee Edgington. We all hope that she will enjoy Girl Scouting very much.

We are all looking forward to a very enjoyable year as Girl Scouts. There are 12 members in our Troop and we expect to have two more join soon.

At the end of our last meeting we sang the Girl Scout Song, and then the meeting adjourned.

News Of The Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District

Art Dillon, a prominent farmer in Erath county, was featured in a story in the Farm and Ranch News of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. His enthusiasm for Indian grass has given the farmers and ranchers here the best information available on the value of Indian grass. He also has Indian grass seed for sale that will be available to farmers here.

Mr. Dillon, who lives on a 660 acre ranch, seven miles south of Stephenville, has harvested Indian grass seed from 45 acres of his ranch with a combine. He has set $1.00 per pound as a fair price for his seed and recommends planting 3 to 5 pounds per acre in 36 inch rows.

Mr. Dillon has divided his range land into three pastures and has deferred two of them each year except this year he is resting only one. He has discovered a formula that works on his ranch. He sows his cultivated land to small grain and vetch and buys steers in the fall to utilize the grazing in his deferred pastures and cultivated fields.

In 1948, Mr. Dillon doubled his money on 51 head of steers by feeding $200 worth of coke. In 1949, he put 6400 pounds of beef on 34 steers in 60 days. This year he is feeding out 51 steers.

Last year, Dr. T. C. Graves bought 100 pounds of Indian grass seed from Mr. Dillon. Dr. Graves and L. B. Burnham also bought little bluestem seed from Mr. Dillon to scatter on their ranches. Dr. Graves planted six acres to Indian grass and got a good stand this year.

Farmers and ranchers who are planning to sow Indian grass this spring can look to Mr. Dillon for their seed if they get their orders in early. Indian grass will do good on sandy land, bottomland soils, and fertile brush pastures.

O. O. Smith Sizes Up The Building Situation And Urges Quick Action

Anyone in Goldthwaite desiring to build or modernize a home or other building is advised to start work as early as possible, according to O. O. Smith, president of Barnes & McCullough, who is a member of the Public Affairs Committee of the National Retail Lumber Dealers Association.

"There are three reasons for getting an early start," Mr. Smith said. "In the first place, there is no reason to believe that materials prices or building costs will decline to any important extent in the months ahead. In fact, some increases are likely.

"Second, some essential building materials, notably those containing strategic metals, such as steel, copper and aluminum, are certain to be less plentiful from now on, owing to the large quantities being set aside for the rearmament program.

"Other materials probably will be in full supply, but some metal is required in building even the most modest new homes.

"In the third place, there always is the possibility that defense officials in Washington will decide to restrict construction of houses still further as a means of conserving materials for defense production. Should that happen, some local families who have good cause to build may face delays in obtaining the necessary approvals and in obtaining all of the required materials.

"Furthermore, there always is the possibility that mortgage credit restrictions will be tightened by the Federal government, in which case some families might find difficulty in meeting the higher downpayment requirements.

"Limitations on the use of copper and aluminum for construction and other civilian use already are in effect and the amount of steel for non-defense use also has been reduced, so that supplies of building materials containing those metals will be curtailed at an early date."

"Through blizzard after blizzard my car performed better!"

"I was one of those selected to test new Conoco Super Motor Oil in my own car before it was put on the market. Through blizzard after blizzard, I travelled in Northern Colorado and Wyoming.

says D.G. HUBBARD
1645 Jasmine St. Denver 7, Colorado

"BUT THOSE WERE THE TWO BEST WINTERS I EVER HAD ON THE ROAD! New Conoco Super improved the operation of my car. And at the end of the test, with proper drains and regular care, gasoline mileage was virtually as good as at the beginning."

After a total of 386,422 miles, logged by Mr. Hubbard and other winter test drivers, Conoco engineers found no wear of any consequence! Analysis of crankcase drains showed that this great new oil actually stopped the dangerous accumulation of free water and acids, chief causes of winter wear. This test proved that new Conoco Super Motor Oil, with OUTFLATING, fights off rust, corrosion and sludge. So, change to winter-grade Conoco Super Motor Oil.

Priddy FFA Livestock Show Last Saturday Was Highly Successful

Last Saturday's annual Livestock Show of the Future Farmers of America at Priddy, was sponsored by the Priddy Lions Club, was pronounced as outstanding success with a gratifyingly large attendance.

Richard Jeske won first place in the lightweight hog division, with second place going to Charles Ray Roark and third, fourth and fifth places to Marvin Kirsche.

Luther Schoen won first place in the heavy weight hog division while second place was awarded to Melvin Senger. Oliver Selheimer won third place and fourth and fifth places went to Melvin Senger.

First and second prizes in the sheep division were won by R. J. Tiemann. O. L. Harris won third and fourth places and fifth and sixth places were taken by Willis Cash. Seventh and eighth places were won by Neal Conner. Other prize winners in the sheep division were C. W. Grelle, Donald McCarthy and J. C. Partin.

Ribbons were presented by Kathleen Hooper, the Priddy F.F.A. sweetheart. Other prizes were awarded as follows:

Charles Niemann, calf; Ben Steinmann, calf; Hubert Meyer, calf; R. J. Tiemann, Southdown lamb; Thomas Murphy, chickens; Walter Schlee, breeding ewes; Angus Lee, breeding boar; Melvin Senger, breeding boar; Edgar Limmer, fat barrow; and Otto Seider, fat barrow.

At auction, Mills County Sheriff C. F. Stubblefield and Norman Duren bought capons from Thomas Murphy, who is President of the Priddy F.F.A. Chapter and who was Superintendent of the Show.

A fat calf, that had been donated by the Priddy Lions Club, was won by Mrs. Fritz Tiemann.

As part of the day's program, representatives of the Goldthwaite Work Unit of the United States Soil Conservation Service presented a demonstration of native grasses.

O. B. Edmondson, vocational agriculture teacher at Cross Plains, was Judge for the Show. Dick Vestal is Advisor to the Priddy F.F.A. Chapter. The Show was staged in the yard of the Priddy gin.

J. C. Mason Ends Much Traveling

J. C. Mason of Caradan who, with Mrs. Mason, spent the recent holidays with their son, Freeman Mason in Grand Prairie, is finally back home after considerable gallivanting around. From Grand Prairie, Mr. Mason was taken to Paris by his daughter, Mrs. A. E. Fields. Then he went back to Grand Prairie. Now he is home again and who is visiting the Masons? None other than Mrs. Fields, of course.

Gospel Hall Singing

A Singing will be held at two o'clock next Sunday afternoon at the Gospel Hall on the west side of the Square in Goldthwaite, it was announced this week by the Rev. E. W. Dickson.

Brother Dickson said also that evangelistic services are being held at the Gospel Hall on Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday nights at 7:30 o'clock.

Shirley Nickols Is Pampa Deputy

Shirley Nickols, 35, son of Mrs. Eula Nickols of Goldthwaite, has been appointed Deputy Sheriff in Gray County with headquarters at Pampa.

A former patrolman with the Pampa Police Department, Mr. Nickols is chief criminal investigator for Gray County Sheriff Rufe Jordan.

Mr. Nickols, who formerly worked for the Variety Store and the Smith Equipment Company in Goldthwaite, has lived in Pampa for about three years. He is married. The Nickols' daughter, Patricia, celebrated her seventh birthday anniversary last Monday.

Wedding Bells

Since last report County Clerk Earl Summy has issued the following marriage licenses:

Charles Ed Wylie and Jane Long;

Kenneth Deryl Doss and Leila Wardene Davenport;

Jerry H. Jackson and Mrs. Patricia Saylor;

Raymond Eugene McKinney and Eva Juanita Koen;

Frank P. Pickle and Jimmie Louise Avinger; and Voyd Henry and Sue O'Neal.

Physicians Meet

The Medical Society of Mills, San Saba, Comanche and Brown Counties met last Monday night in Brownwood with Dr. E. R. Veirs of the Scott and White hospital at Temple speaking on "Tumors and Other Diseases of the Eye." Dr. Veirs illustrated his lecture with stereoptican slides. Dr. M. A. Childress of Goldthwaite is Secretary of the Society.

Chappell Hill

By PEARL CRAWFORD
It remains dry and dusty. We did have a few days of cloudy weather and a little shower.

Walter Weatherby's and Ray Priddy's fields still have signs of green grain.

Some of the farmers keep busy getting their land in shape to do planting, if the showers should come our way.

N. C. Karnes is bedding land.

W. C. Oxford is building terraces.

Bill Partin keeps busy hauling dirt. He has just finished building a road for his father, Charlie Partin. Now he is building a road for Henry Neiman.

A large crowd attended the Livestock Show at Priddy last Friday, in behalf of the Priddy School Chapter of the Future Farmers. Every one surely did enjoy this little community Show. I heard an elderly lady say, "Why can't we have Shows like this more often, near home?" The weather was so warm and pretty. It was a very pleasant affair for the elderly folks and children.

The Judge of the Livestock Exhibit said the stock were so equal, it was hard to judge them.

We were all proud of R. J. Tiemann, who received so many ribbons with his lambs.

We are also proud of Neal Conner and O. L. Harris, who did nice work in finishing their lambs.

We were all very happy when Mrs. F. H. Tieman's name was called as winner of the Registered Hereford calf, which was donated by the Priddy Lions Club. We all think this calf has a nice home and will be well fed. We all hope to see and hear from this calf often.

We were all happy to have Sheriff C. F. Stubblefield and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Duren attend the Stock Show.

We tried to tell of Mrs. Billie McEnerlin's and Gen's holiday guests last week. Anyway, Mr. McEnerlin returned home from the hospital and we are happy to learn he is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford and William G. visited Mrs. R. A. Stevens and Miss Lolo Saturday. We were glad to learn Granny Stevens was up and around in her usual way after an attack of flu.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Evans were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reynolds and daughter Saturday.

Elvis Stevens of Levelland returned home Wednesday, after an extended stay with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stevens.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Partin and sons were: Mrs. W. R. Wren of Texas City, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Partin and Jay Partin of Priddy, and Mrs. Roger Smith, Mrs. L. C. Knowles and Mrs. Billie McEnerlin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ivy visited Mr. and Mrs. Billie McEnerlin Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Evans visited Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan at Trigger Mt. last Wednesday, and found Mr. Vaughan very sick. Mr. Evans went after his son, Truman Vaughan. At last report, Mr. Vaughan was very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Partin of Priddy, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Elkins and family of San Angelo went to Texas City to spend the New Year holiday with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Raines and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wren. Mrs. Wren accompanied them home for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Smith went to Gatesville to spend the New Year holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Roger Smith, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Conner and family and Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Evans attended Church at Mullin Sunday.

I enjoyed a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bramblett during the holidays.

O. A. Evans spent Friday afternoon with B. J. Crawford. Other visitors in the Crawford home were: Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford and William G., and N. C. Karnes and son, Noah.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Hunt and Billy of Caldwell spent the weekend in Goldthwaite with relatives. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Eunice Morris, who will spend some time there recuperating from a recent illness.

Accommodations At Jail Are Due For Improvement Soon

Meeting in regular session at the Court House last Monday, the Mills County Commissioners Court officially confirmed Sheriff C. F. Stubblefield's appointments of Clyde Cockrum, John L. Patterson, W. B. Summy and O. D. Williford as Deputy Sheriffs.

The Commissioners also confirmed the appointments of Mrs. Mary Maultsby and Ollie May as Deputy County and District Clerks in the office of County Clerk Earl Summy.

For the most part, routine business was transacted by the Commissioners, who approved the supplemental tax roll and bills that had been presented for payment. The Court also renewed the contract under which Mills County operates road construction and maintenance machinery.

It is not expected that the project will proceed so far as innerpring mattresses, oriental rugs, upholstered arm chairs, air conditioning, private bawths and individual refrigerators in each room, but be it recorded that at last Monday's meeting, the Commissioner's Court did authorize certain improvements in the Mills County jail, to be made under the supervision of County Judge L. B. Porter. The prospect is, however, that at best the local bastille will not be made too inviting—especially for prolonged residence.

So far as the Minutes of the meeting show, nothing was done by the Commissioners last Monday about having Precinct 1 Commissioner Jess Y. Tullos remove the Christmas tree from the roof of the Mills County Court House. Easter comes early this year, Commissioner Tullos.

Mrs. Dutch Smith has returned from West Texas, where she has been staying with her sister, who has been in hospital.

Personal Paragraphs

Those who attended the funeral of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Whatley from out-of-town Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Jim Chambers and sons, Dr. and Mrs. McEnnis, Mrs. Bertie White, all of Brownwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ritcherston, Mr. and Mrs. Oris Ritcherston of Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Moreland of Austin spent last weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs.

H. E. Moreland and his Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Moreland. Mr. and Mrs. George were called to Evant Sunday night. Her mother, Mrs. Griggs, had the misfortune fall at her home and was taken to the hospital at Harlingen. She is in a serious condition with a broken hip.

Mrs. Louise Long visited relatives in Waco over the weekend.

Mills County Baptist Workers Meet On Monday At Caradan

Regular monthly meeting of the Mills County Baptist Conference will be held Monday at the Caradan Church with "Our Birthright" as the theme, it was announced this week by the Rev. Ayers, Moderator of the conference and Pastor of the Baptist Church in Goldthwaite.

Her Ayers said the conference will start on Monday at 10 a. m., with a Board meeting and a session of the Women's Missionary Union. At six o'clock there will be a service of Song and Praise, to be followed by an address on "Our Bible, the Inspired Word of God," by the Rev. Henry C. Garber, Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Mullin.

Subsequently, the Rev. Travis Ellis, Pastor of the Trigger Mountain Baptist Church, will speak on "Our Bible, A Revelation of God." After a roll call of the Churches, announcements and the Treasurer's Report by Mrs. Eula Nickols of Goldthwaite, Dr. Nat Tracy of the Bible Department of Howard Payne College in Brownwood will deliver the principal address of the evening.

Sheriff Arrests Wetbacks And An Escaped Lunatic

What with a couple of "wetbacks" who had been helping themselves to the contents of one of Mr. Y. E. Hoover's Santa Fe railroad box cars and an escaped lunatic who had set himself up at housekeeping in a culvert on highway number 84, Mills County Sheriff C. F. "Stub" Stubblefield and his Deputies had a busy week.

Despite all the goings on, Deputy Sheriff John L. Patterson and Mrs. Patterson managed to find time to move into the residence formerly occupied by Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Sadler, who have moved to Fabens.

Some of the activity began last Saturday afternoon when Sheriff Stubblefield found a man living in a culvert on highway 84 and who had started a grass fire for himself. Some passing citizens helped the Sheriff to put out the flames. Following inquiry, Sheriff Stubblefield established that he had apprehended an escaped inmate from the State Hospital in Austin, to which the man was returned.

On Tuesday, the Sheriff's office received a complaint from Mr. Hoover that a railroad box car had been entered in Goldthwaite and that goods worth about $200.00 had been removed. The mystery was solved when three citizens from Comanche apprehended two "wetbacks" and turned them over to Sheriff Stubblefield and Deputy Sheriff Clyde Cockrum as suspicious characters. The Sheriff lodged the "wetbacks" in the County jail, pending action by District Attorney Jim Everts. Then the Sheriff recovered the stolen goods, which he found cached away along the railroad right-of-way.

Letters Come In Sgt. Dankers

Letters, both dated December, were received this week by Sgt. A. J. Dankers, Jr., of Mills County Judge Lewis B. Porter, from his wife, who is with the 24th Division in Korea. As of the letters were written, Sgt. Dankers was well with other anti-Communists, the Second Division was engaged in a fighting retreat in Korea.

Dance At Kemp's Aids Polio Fund

The 1951 March of Dimes Campaign in Mills County was kicked off early last Tuesday night when the proceeds from a dance at Kemp's roller rink were turned over to Sheriff C. F. Stubblefield. There was a goodly crowd at the dance, the Sheriff said. So as to help the March of Dimes campaign to further polio research and to assist victims of polio, the Texas Wranglers of Hamilton donated their musical services to the dance.

Hillside Mission

By LIDA BYRNE

Our Lord tells us in St. Matthew, chapter 7, verse 15 to beware of false prophets. We hear some of them on the radio now. We know we have forgotten God's commands and been rebellious against His laws and just because we do not know the law is no reason we are not going to get justice dealt out to us, but the Bible tells us in Hebrews, chapter 12, verse 6: "For whom the Lord loveth He chasteth, and scourgeth every son whom He receiveth." There is no use getting panicky. We need to ask for faith. We are told, we sin when we do not have faith. Romans the 14th chapter and 23rd verse says: "for whatsoever is not of faith is sin." Let us believe what the Bible says in Psalm 37, verse 3: "Trust in the Lord and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed."

Felix Leifeste Dies In Killeen Of Long Illness

Funeral services were conducted on Thursday afternoon of last week at the First Baptist Church in Goldthwaite for Felix Leifeste, who died on January 3 in Killeen. He was 65.

Mr. Leifeste was a brother of Mrs. Emma Oltrogge and Mrs. W. C. Fox, both of Goldthwaite. They survive. Other surviving sisters and brothers are Mrs. Hattie Boehl of Galveston, Mrs. Carrie Wilson of Sonora, Ed Leifeste of Junction, Henry Leifeste of Killeen and Adolph Leifeste of Iron River, Wisconsin.

A native of Mason County, Mr. Leifeste had been ill for four months.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Ed H. Lovelace, Pastor of the First Methodist Church in Goldthwaite, and the Rev. Edgar I. Hanna, Pastor of the Church of the Nazarene. Interment was in the Goldthwaite Memorial Cemetery, with arrangements by the Fairman-Wilkins Funeral Home of Goldthwaite.

Pall bearers at the funeral were Joe A. Palmer, Dow Hudson, Will Woody, F. M. Stephens, Joe Bailey Karnes, and W. C. Frazier.

County Mourns Mrs. W. D. Clements Who Died Thursday Of Last Week

Tribute was paid by a grieving community on Friday of last week when funeral services were conducted at the First Methodist Church in Goldthwaite for Mrs. W. D. Clements, who died on Thursday night of last week at Memorial Hospital in Brownwood. During the period of the funeral, which started at 4:30 p. m., and interment, business in Goldthwaite came to a standstill.

ON GOING OVER

At funeral services last Friday for the late Mrs. W. D. Clements, the Rev. Ed H. Lovelace read a poem, "On Going Over," that had been written in February, 1941, by the late Bentley Clements, who gave his life in World War II. The son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Clements, Bentley had dedicated the poem to his Mother. With an expression of the deepest sympathy to the Saylor and Clements families, the Eagle herewith publishes Bentley's poem for the first time.

Do not be sad when I'm away,
And if I should fall in foreign fields,
Time will heal the scars of the fray,
And time will stop the pain my leaving yields.

Just think of me as one who died
That freedom might exist for thee;
That you might stroll over the countryside,
And enjoy the blessings of the free.

But great is the chance I may return
And greet you again over here,
My love for you will always burn
Like a bright, everlasting fire.

So grieve not for me while I'm gone,
Chin's up, and a heart that's brave,
If God wishes, I shall be one
To enjoy the freedom we strive to save.

—Bentley Clements

The services at the Methodist Church, of which Mrs. Clements had been a member since 1926, were conducted by the Rev. Ed H. Lovelace, Pastor, who was assisted by the Rev. J. T. Ayers, Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Goldthwaite. Interment was in the Goldthwaite Memorial Cemetery, with arrangements by the Fairman-Wilkins Funeral Home.

Mrs. Clements, the former Tillie Kathleen Saylor, was born in Mills County on April 6, 1891. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Saylor.

Following her graduation from the Goldthwaite High School in 1911, she studied at the Sam Houston State Normal School, from which she received her teacher's certificate. Subsequently, she taught school in Mills, San Saba and Hamilton Counties.

On June 29, 1914, she married W. D. Clements, who survives. Two daughters, Mary and Kathleen, also survive. A son, Bentley, who had joined the Royal Canadian Air Force as a volunteer, was killed in action in World War II—the first such casualty from Mills County. At the funeral services last Friday, there was a deeply touching moment when Brother Lovelace read a poem, entitled, "On Going Over," which Bentley had written and dedicated to his Mother in February of 1941, at his post in Ontario, Canada, Brother Lovelace also read the last verse of William Cullen Bryant's "Thanatopsis."

Stanley B. Whatley

Stanley B. Whatley, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Whatley of Rt. 1, north of Goldthwaite, died on Saturday of last week at the Medical Arts Hospital in Brownwood at three months of age. Funeral services were conducted Sunday in the Chapel of the First Baptist Church in Goldthwaite with the Rev. J. T. Ayers, Pastor, officiating. Interment was in the Goldthwaite Memorial Cemetery, with arrangements by the Fairman-Wilkins Funeral Home.

Survivors, in addition to the parents, are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whatley of Rt. 1, paternal grandparents; and Mrs. Birdie White of Brownwood, maternal grandmother.

From the time of his birth, infant Stanley had been a patient in the hospital at Brownwood.

Surviving brothers and sisters of Mrs. Clements are:

Jacob H. Saylor, Wellie Saylor, Claude Saylor, Kelly Saylor, Lincoln Saylor and Mrs. C. M. Burch, all of Goldthwaite; Mack Saylor, Miss Margaret Saylor, and Mrs. Grace Heltman, all of Montclair, New Jersey; Mrs. Fred Faulkner of Fort Worth, Mrs. Emily Moffett of Carlsbad, New Mexico; and Mrs. Thelma Mitchell of Hamilton.

Mrs. Clements had been ill for some time. She was taken to hospital in Brownwood only a few days before her death.

Pall bearers at the funeral were David O. Clements, W. G. Saylor, Layman Saylor, Philip Nickols, James Nickols and Bob Davis.

(Bentley Clements, who is referred to above, went overseas to England in July, 1941. In March, of 1942 he was assigned to Egypt, where he flew in the North African campaign against German General Rommel. He was listed as missing in action in September, 1942. No details of his supreme sacrifice were made known to his family.)

ATTEND JOHN DEERE DAY JANUARY

a John Deere Day message

January 17, 1951

Dear Friends:

John Deere Day will soon be here again; in fact, next Wednesday, Jan. 17. This is the day we look forward to having all our farmer friends here to be our guests and spend the day with us. There just isn't time to call on each of you personally. We have endeavored to mail invitations to each one of you, but if you did not receive one, or have not been invited by any of our personnel, please consider this your personal invitation to attend. The picture show will start at 1:00 P. M. at the MELBA THEATRE.

The feature picture, "One Happy Family" starring Marjorie Reynolds and Don DeFore, is a top notch production — one which we are sure you will enjoy. We will also have several interesting and educational features on modern equipment and farming practices.

Don't forget the time — Wednesday, Jan. 17. Come early! Bring the whole family and spend the day with us.

Ebony News

By Clementine Wilmet Briley

Charles Henry Griffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griffin, who left for volunteer service in the Air Corps December 28, has been temporarily stationed at San Antonio. Hearing through a daughter, Mrs. Gladys La Rue, who lives in San Antonio, that Charles Henry might soon be sent to a distant place for training, Mr. and Mrs. Griffin and Johnny left Saturday for San Antonio.

Mrs. Blue Thompson in Brownwood Saturday afternoon met up with Mrs. Odell Crowder of Eastland, another Griffin daughter. She told Mrs. Thompson that Charles Henry had written her that he might be sent off for training soon, and he was going to try to go home for the weekend. Mrs. Crowder got a friend to bring her to the Griffin home. She was dismayed to find no one there. Her uncle, Doug Grogan, who was taking care of the Griffin things, came in just in time to save the day. He helped her get to Brownwood and get a ticket for San Antonio.

The Kay Roberts, who have sold their farm to Rex Mahan, left out last week. They have taken their things and moved to his father's at Avant where they will stay for awhile. Mr. Roberts has applied for a job as highway patrolman. He has been called to come to Austin January 29 for a few weeks training. After that he expects to get a job.

Mrs. Daz Oliver and Iravon of Brownwood spent Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Egger.

Mrs. Hattie Whittenburg, who is spending the winter with the Edward Eggers, has been unusually well this past week. A few days ago she remarked to Mrs. Egger that it seemed to her that this was an unusually warm winter, whereupon Mrs. Egger remonstrated with her. She said, "Well, you all have taken such good care of me I didn't know it was cold." She is enjoying a fireside climate in her daughter's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Duncan and Annette helped move her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Boren, of Bangs to their new place in Oklahoma. It rained on them some as they went. Mrs. Duncan said the cattle up there looked fat and fine.

Mrs. Flora Hodges and her mother, Mrs. Sarah Ann Reeves, who have been visiting at the Stanley Reeves home, left early last week. Mrs. Reeves returned to her home at Brownwood, and Mrs. Hodges to Oklahoma.

Mrs. Reeves is the widow of the late John Reeves, who died in 1932. They came from Tennessee and settled in this community in 1883. Mr. Reeves pioneered in orchard growing and bee keeping in Mills County. The pear orchard he planted is still producing. He was by nature very enthusiastic. I used to hear him tell my father, "This is the land that flows with milk and honey." His son, Stanley, has followed in his footsteps, and has one of the finest commercial orchards in this county. Stanley's son, Hubert, shares with him in the orchard, the peanut growing, the cattle raising, and all the industries of the Reeves places. The Reeves and Wilmeths have treasured throughout the years a mutual friendship. To me Mrs. Reeves has always been an ideal of lovely womanhood and a

Christian Science Services

"Sacrament" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 14.

The Golden Text is: "The bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world" (John 6:33).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it." (Matthew 26: 26, 27).

very precious friend. Friday, January 19, brings her another birthday which makes her 93.

A few years ago while grubbing on the Reeves river farm, a number of spears and skeletons were dug up. The Texas Almanac says, "Camp Colorado, apparently was first established near the present town of Ebony, Mills County, in 1855 or 1856, taking its name from the Colorado River on which it is situated." Could this be the place?

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Chesser of Brownwood, Mr. and Mrs. Lem Egger, Stanley Reeves and his grandchildren, Nancy and John, and Nancy's visiting friend, and John Briley and I met at the oil well Sunday afternoon. I think our oil well is going the way of all the oil wells that have thus far been drilled in Mills County. It is being abandoned. The driller told Stanley that they are taking one more sample of formation to Abilene to be tested. But they think they are in the Ellenburger lime. He said the drilling in the present formation is too expensive for him to keep on. The artesian water is to be left flowing. It is very clear and pretty and has only a slightly salty taste. Blue Thompson failed to get it to flow in his big tank, but intends to do some digging and get it there yet. Mrs. Thompson says if they can get their tank full then they can have a bathroom, which will make her very happy.

Mrs. Edna Dwyer writes from her daughter's home at Orange that she is much better, and will be home this weekend.

Misses Mary and Kathleen Clements returned to their respective schools at Denton and Lubbock Monday after being at home for their mother's funeral.

The Rev. J. T. Ayers and family left Monday to attend an Evangelistic conference in Dallas.

TREASURER'S REPORT

COMMISSIONERS' COURT MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, IN REGULAR SESSION, JANUARY TERM, 1951.

IN THE MATTER OF COUNTY FINANCES IN THE HANDS OF MRS. BERTHA WEATHERS, TREASURER OF MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS.

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, as County Commissioners within and for said Mills County, and the Hon. L. B. Porter, County Judge of said Mills County, constituting the entire Commission of said County, and each one of us, do hereby certify that on this, the 8th day of January A. D. 1951, at a regular term of our said Court, we have compared and examined the report of Mrs. Bertha Weathers, Treasurer of said County, for the period beginning on the 1st day of October A. D. 1950 and ending on the 31st day of December A. D. 1950, and finding the same correct have caused an order to be entered upon the minutes of the Commissioners' Court of said County, stating the approval of said Treasurer's Report by our said Court, which said order recites separately the amount received and paid out of each fund by said County Treasurer since her last report to this Court, and for and during the time covered by her present report, and the balance of each fund remaining in said Treasurer's hands on the said 31st day of December A. D. 1950, and have ordered the proper credits to be made in the accounts of the said County Treasurer, in accordance with said order as required by Articles 1636-1637, Chapter 1, Title 34 of the Revised Statutes of Texas, 1925.

And we, and each of us, further certify that we have actually and fully inspected and counted all the actual cash and assets in hands of the said Treasurer belonging to Mills County at the close of the examination of said Treasurer's Report, on this the 8th day of January A. J. H. Allen, Jr., Dies In Fort Worth

Funeral services for J. H. Allen, Jr., uncle of Goldthwaite Postmaster Lucile Fairman, were conducted in Fort Worth on Friday of last week. Mr. Allen, who lived in Goldthwaite many years ago, died on January 3.

Mr. Allen was the son of the late "Saddler" Allen. At one time he worked for the Trent State Bank. He is survived by Mrs.
 Allen and four children. Mrs.
 Allen is the former Nora Lynn of San Saba.

Miss Lafon Horton of Brown-foot-soldier war inside China where more than 350 million people live and where the Kremlin-controlled government has no concern about the lives of its soldiers.

But we can use our own
 methods and choose our own (and not the enemy's) strategy
 if we are to fight fire with fire in the Far East. Chiang Kai-shek has under his control in Formosa a half million Nationalist soldiers. We can supply him with guns, bombs, planes and equipment and encourage and thereby assist the Nationalists to bomb and terrorize Communist factories, transportation, and supply lines inside China.

And we can encourage the mobilization of a huge Japanese army, whose existence alone would have a sobering effect in the Orient. Moreover, we can proceed with any practical method of making use of the large pool of Germans in the western zones, for joint service with the Eisenhower-directed international army now in the making. This can be done without yielding such control that could result in the resurgence of German militarism.

And, in the meantime, we must proceed to mobilize our manpower and resources in a preparedness program at home that can make our potential enemies stop, look and listen before risking a war against a strong, united and powerful America.

Among recent visitors have been Wendell Mayes, Jack Broad, R. W. Hedges, of Brownwood and J. Edward Johnson of Dallas—all here to present the advantages of Brownwood and its environs for the re-activation of Camp Bowie. It appears that some additional training facilities must be provided to meet the stepped-up mobilization program, and the national interest requires that the most adaptable, feasible and advantageous sites be chosen. Camp Bowie was one of the Nation's largest training grounds during the last war.

Amazing is the word for it!

In the grave emergency that now confronts our country, the oil industry faces its great job with confidence... because, in the past 50 years, oil has enabled Americans to produce more, to have more, and to live better than any other people on the earth.

The oil industry kept pace with this amazing progress—supplied its energy, lubricated its wheels and gears, developed new and better products for new and better American machines. Foresighted, the industry planned yesterday for today's great need for oil; today, it plans for tomorrow's.

Since the discovery of oil in great quantities at Spindletop, oil has supported a progressive economic development that has brought about more profound changes in man's way of living than occurred in any other period of history.

At the beginning of another year, the oil industry faces its biggest job in all the fifty years since Spindletop. It must produce more oil in 1951 than has ever been produced before. For the defense of our country and for our economic welfare—both now and in the future—the oil industry must continue to find new oil, to develop producing oil fields, to build refining and transportation facilities.

For oil, available in steadily increasing quantities as a fuel, made possible the development of machinery and it is this combination of machines and energy which has changed the world in the short space of half a century.

It approaches this job with a full realization of the size and number of the problems involved, but also with a confidence born of its demonstrated ability to keep ahead of the times.

With oil came automobiles... mass production... airplanes... mechanized farming... diesel electric trains... ships that cross an ocean in four days.

Livestock Show

The introductions will be followed by hog judging by Mr. Henry and goat judging by Guy Powell. At one o'clock Monday afternoon Guy Powell also will judge fat lambs, Southdowns, Delaines and Rambouillet sheep. At three o'clock, also on Monday afternoon, there will be poultry judging by R. J. Powell.
On Tuesday morning at ten o'clock, Frank Jordan will judge Hereford breeding cattle. Then, at one o'clock Tuesday afternoon, the high point of the Show will be reached when Mr. Jordan judges the fat steers to be exhibited by the Club youngsters—the 4-H Club and F. P. A. boys and girls of Mills County. Then the auction ring, with "Colonel" Delton Barnett as the auctioneer. The rule is that all animals that will be put through the auction ring must have been fed under the supervision of County Agent, George Reese or of Vocational Agriculture Teachers Y. B. Johnson of Goldthwaite, Don Clark of Mullin, Dick Vestal of Priddy and J. C. Yeary, Jr., of Star.

Club calves entered in the Show will compete in three weight divisions—heavy, medium and light. In addition to the Grand Champion Calf and the Reserve champion calf, there will be other awards. In all, there will be ten awards for calves and ten awards for sheep.

All livestock will be weighed before the Show. Under the rules, it will be sold by the pound, and not by the head. No diseased animals will be allowed on the grounds. The order of sale requires that the Grand Champion in each class must be sold first.

Mr. Steen said that a large turnout is anticipated by the Association. He announced that all concessions, including those for the sale of food and refreshments, will be operated exclusively by the Association, with the proceeds to go into the Association's treasury.

Sadlers Leave

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Sadler left Goldthwaite last Saturday morning for Fabens, in El Paso County. In Fabens, Dr. Sadler will continue the practice of chiropractic.

4-H Club Boys And Girls Plump Big On Cattle At Livestock Show

at the Show at the Barn next Monday and Tuesday, there will be exhibits by the following 4-H Club boys and girls:
Dana Saylor, three Hereford steers; Shirle Saylor, one Hereford steer; Johnnie Wigley, two Hereford steers and one Short-horn steer; Jimmy Wiggle, two Hereford steers and one Aberdeen-Angus steer; Wayne Horton, two Hereford steers; Merion Reynolds, four Hereford steers; Modene Reynolds, two Hereford steers; and Leo Reynolds, two Hereford steers.

Also: Bobby Zane Egger, four Hereford steers; J. W. Woodard, Jr., one Hereford steer; Merlene Woodard, one Hereford steer; Billy Mac Newton, two Hereford steers; Wayne Poe, one Hereford steer; J. W. Horton, Jr., two Hereford steers; Harold Carter, one Hereford steer; Edward Carter, two Hereford steers; and John Howard Owens, two Hereford steers.

Also: Davis Owens, one Aberdeen-Angus and one Hereford steers; Sammy Owens, one Aberdeen-Angus steer; R. D. Jordan, one Hereford steer; and Roy L. O'Banon, one Aberdeen-Angus steer.

Most of the steers listed above will compete in such forthcoming major fat stock Shows as those at Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio.

In addition, 4-H Club members will exhibit other projects at next week's Show at the Barn in Goldthwaite. They will include Southdown sheep by Armand Zoe Clary, who also will exhibit turkeys—with which he took the championship at the last State Fair of Texas Fair at Dallas. Turkeys also will be exhibited by Van Wilson McCasland, who too, won honors at Dallas.

Mullin Bursts At The Seams As Saturday Stock Show Draws Nigh

Sanders, Johnnie Woods, and Mr. Fuqua.

Hogs, cattle, chickens and sheep will be entered by the following Mullin Future Farmers of America:

Avril Swinney, Denny Shelton, Alvin Bramblett, Harley Ethridge, Harral Holden, Paul Hill, Ernest McGary, Myron Hillman, Roy Davis, W. H. Simpson, Connie Simpson, Elmer Harris, Roger Sanders, Freddy Spinks, Henry Gibbard, Eldon Pafford, Bobby Woods, Billy Slaughter, George Ellis, Billy Ray Anderson, Fred Daniel, Ezelle Thompson, Billy Hobbs, Lynn Shelton, Larry Walton, Lynn Reeves, Robert Smith, Gene Fisher and Dale Mosier.

One of the features of the Show will be exhibits of the Grand Champion Southdown buck and the Reserve Champion Southdown ewe from the 1950 State Fair of Texas at Dallas.

Mr. Barnett said that while everybody is invited to attend the Show and to view the fine exhibits, entries have been limited to those from the Mullin trade territory because of limited accommodations for exhibits.

"We are not yet large enough for everybody's exhibits and we are trying to create local interest and backing for Mullin projects," Mr. Barnett said.

Many of those who will exhibit at the Mullin Show also will display their projects at the Goldthwaite Show of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association on Monday and Tuesday of next week.

Post Office Gets Good Report Card

Goldthwaite Postmaster Lucile Fairman was notified this week that on the annual inspection, completed recently by an Inspector of the United States Post Office Department, the Goldthwaite Post Office won the exceptionally high rating of 97 per cent.

Don C. Clark, cattle superintendent.

Carl Casbeer is the Show Secretary and "Colonel" Delton Barnett will be the auctioneer. Mr. Barnett also will serve as a member of a roving membership committee for the Association with Everett Holland and L. F. Bain as his fellow-members.

Members of the publicity committee are County Agent George Reese, Mr. Bain and Norman Duren, with Mr. Collier serving with them ex-officio.

The catalogue committee for the Show consisted of Y. B. Johnson, T. C. Chaney, Don Clark, Dick Vestal, J. C. Yeary, Jr., Norman Duren, Dale Reid and Charles Conradt. George Reese and Norman Duren are the members of the ribbon committee.

R. C. McCollum was appointed by Mr. Steen to take charge of the concessions. Messrs. Johnson, Vestal, Reese, Clark and Vestal are the members of the arrangements committee.

E. B. Adams Buys Stones In Gawga

E. B. Adams of Goldthwaite planned to start this week on a journey to Georgia, where he will buy stone for his monument business. He planned to transact his business in Elberton, Georgia, and then go to Atlanta to pay a courtesy call on the convention of the Monument Builders of Georgia, Alabama and Florida. Mr. Adams is Secretary - Treasurer of the Monument Builders of the Southwest, Inc., which includes in its membership monument builders in Texas, New Mexico and Arizona.

W. S. C. S. Meets

Circle One of the W.S.C.S. of the First Methodist Church in Goldthwaite met last Monday with Mrs. Ed H. Lovelace as hostess. After devotions led by Mrs. C. A. Bailey, Mrs. W. M. Johnson conducted a program on health, in which Mrs. Walter Doggett and Mrs. M. Y. Stokes participated. The next meeting will be held on January 15 at the Church.

There Were Days

this week, the weather was so bad; it was so cold and there was so much ice, that exhibitors could not make their way into Goldthwaite with their animals.

The hurdles of past years have been surmounted, thanks to men who have given of their time, who have dispensed their "know how," and who have provided money as well as leadership. But more money is needed, according to Mr. Steen and Glynn Collier, who is Secretary-Treasurer of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association. During the Show next Monday and Tuesday, Mr. Collier said, Delton Barnett, L. F. Bain and Everett Holland will be circulating, ready to take from all and sundry memberships in the Association at one dollar each. They also will be glad to accept contributions toward liquidating the mortgage on the Barn or Agriculture Building, which provides a center for the Show, which stands as a mark of progress, and which of itself is a monument to the men who understand that animal husbandry and farming are the entire basis of the economy of Mills County.

From small beginnings, the Show has grown to such an extent that it can challenge any other County show in Texas and elsewhere in the United States—especially in the department of calf entries. This week, Mr. Collier suggested that during the Show, when you are asked to renew your membership in the Association or to join for the first time, you remember Les Bain's statement that "the size of the Show has doubled within the past five years." It ought to be remembered also, Mr. Collier said, that the tremendous achievements of Mills County youngsters at the major fat stock exhibitions at Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio have been due to the preliminary spadework by the men who have built the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association into its present position of national importance.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hightower were called to Temple to be with their son, Jack, who underwent surgery on Thursday. They came home Sunday, and he is recovering nicely.

Eagle's Eye

I have surveyed the scene on which we gaze. But, events catch up with time, and those of us who have known that we have been at WAR since late in June of 1951, have been proved correct. Yet, we still pour millions down the rat-hole of the United Nations, we still refuse to use the anti-Communist Chinese armies of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek—we continue on a course of letting the enemy in the Kremlin bleed us white.

I have not written much of the war lately. I have found it necessary to let events catch up with time. But, in view of the news, I say that we have reached another cycle in the turn of the wheel of ill fortune. We are about to be thrown out of Korea. We are about to see the consolidation of the Communist conquest of Asia. We are about to witness new challenges in the Middle East and in Europe.

In the face of events, many still hope for life and living and business as usual. They have about three months in which to continue to dawdle. At the end of that period, time will have caught up with events and do to have some hope of survival will be purely academic. We shall be having to exert our utmost with too little and too late—the while wishing that we had used our atomic weapons to destroy the Russian war potential.

TO OUR FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS:

We want to advise anyone who is needing a new suit or will need a new suit within the next year and a half to buy it now while the prices are at a low level. The suits that we now have on hand are considerably lower in price than they will be next year.

The suits that we have on hand are made from 50 and 60 cent wool, and our next Fall's line will be made out of the $1.00, $1.10 or higher wool. We believe that you will make a substantial saving by buying a suit now, if you are going to need one. This is not intended to be a scare buying advertising scheme, but it is a matter of helping you save money.
