

The vast importance of Mills county as a center for livestock sales was emphasized vividly this week with an announcement by S. D. "Sig" and Malcolm Jernigan...

The Jernigan brothers tell their own story in an advertisement elsewhere in this week's eagle, but in this column I would like to point up as sharply as I can some of the figures that they have reported to the public which should be of the deepest interest to anybody who cares whether Goldthwaite grows...

If you add up the figures that are set forth in the advertisement of the Jernigan brothers this week you will find that 28,465 head of sheep, goats and cattle were sold at their auction barn in 1950...

The amount of money that was involved in the sales was well past the mark of four million dollars. Much of that amount went into trade in Mills county. By implication, the Jernigan brothers, in their advertisement, pointed to the contribution they make to the economic well-being of Goldthwaite and Mills County...

The war economy into which we are plunging headlong will also mean problems, not only for those in business as such, but also for those whose business is the operation of homes, controls will bring headaches (Continued on Back Page.)

EDITORIAL

Let's keep our feet on the ground. We suspect that nobody has less faith in the United Nations than we have. But the air is full of alarms. There is talk — much talk — that the Red Russians are about to split us off from our friends in Europe, in Asia, in Africa.

In the face of the news, let's face-up to the realities. Votes at the United Nations, which can change from day to day, do not change the realities of either power or position. We must be able to make criticism—especially since we always are ready to dish it out. We are a civilized people. We have an obligation to do everything that we can to save civilization.

We know that we can have no more limited wars. We are alarmed that in Korea, our total casualties, as the Eagle wants to press this week, were (Continued on Back Page.)

Less Than Week Remains To Aid March Of Dimes

W. C. Barnett, Mills County Campaign Director for the March of Dimes, issued reminder this week that the 1951 effort to combat the ravages of polio and to aid the victims of it will draw to an end next Wednesday.

"There is less than a week to go and those of us who are working to make as effective as possible the work of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis hope that every person in Mills County will join in the 1951 March of Dimes," Mr. Barnett said.

For those who receive their Eagles on Thursday, reminder also was issued that on Thursday night of this week the Harry F. Edmondson Post number 289 of the American Legion will sponsor a dance at the Legion Hall, with the proceeds going to the March of Dimes.

Many elements of the community have pitched in to help on the March of Dimes campaign. Last week, members and guests of the Goldthwaite Garden Club saw a motion picture film on polio that had been provided by E. T. Fairman, Mills County Chairman for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and that was exhibited by the Rev. Ed H. Lovelace, Pastor of the First Methodist Church.

As the campaign neared its ends, Mr. Barnett issued the following statement: "Twelve year old Larry McKenzie Jr., the March of Dimes Poster Boy, still stands with outstretched arms. His earnest appeal of 'Lend Me a Hand' might as easily have come from your boy or girl. It has happened to Mills County boys and girls and it most probably will happen again.

Your dimes and dollars will be on hand to help when it strikes. Last year Mills County gave $597.21 which was (Continued on Back Page.)

Playground Improvement Program Progresses At Goldthwaite School

A major program of playground improvement is in progress at the Goldthwaite Schools under the general direction of Coach Carl Knox and with the cooperation of Precinct 1 Commissioner Jess Y. Tullos and the City of Goldthwaite. Funds for further improvements have been provided by the Goldthwaite Parent-Teacher Association.

During the past week, Commissioner Tullos provided two road maintainers which scraped and graded the grounds all around the Grammar and High Schools. Debris has been cleared and piled and soon will be carted away, Coach Knox said. Old goal posts were removed by

Three More Men Called By Draft For Army Service

Three more Mills County young men have been summoned for induction into the armed services, it was announced this week by Charles Frizzelle of Selective Service Board number 84.

Mr. Frizzelle said that Orle D. Lee of Caradan, Gene J. Moore of Goldthwaite and Burl Edward Reynolds of the Mt. Olive community will be inducted on February 7.

The induction of Walter Summy, Jr., of Goldthwaite has been postponed, at least until June 30, so that he may continue his studies at A. & I. College at Kingsville.

Other young men in Mills County, it was expected, will be summoned soon either for physical examinations with a view toward induction or for the induction of those who already have passed their physical examinations.

Selective Service Board number 84, which maintains its headquarters in Lampasas and on which Mr. Frizzelle sits as the representative from Mills County, met on Tuesday night of this week.

GIVE TO MARCH OF DIMES

Looking more bedraggled with every passing day, the Christmas tree—a Goldthwaite Garden Club awards winner—continues to stand stark and lonely on top of the Mills County Court House.

Precinct 1 Commissioner Jess Y. Tullos, who was responsible for the tree in the first place, has been mighty busy giving of his time and effort to improve the playgrounds at the school. So, what with all of his other work too, it was difficult to interview Commissioner Tullos about the Christmas tree and how long it will remain on top of the Court House.

There was a report around that Commissioner Tullos intended to keep the Court House Christmas tree up until it rained. It now has been more than four months since there was any rain worth mentioning in Mills County, and people by the thousands would cheer if Commissioner Tullos could use the skeleton on the Court House roof to bring rain.

Another rumor going the rounds was that Commissioner Tullos was waiting for Mrs. Hudson, Assistant County Superintendent of Schools, to take down the tree. If so, according to Mrs. Hudson, it will never come down.

Despite all rumors, Commissioner Tullos has the answer. "I'm leaving the Christmas tree up until next Christmas," was his reply to all questions on the subject.

Sheriff Asks If You Paid Taxes As Deadline Nears

Sheriff C. F. Stubblefield, who also is Tax Assessor-Collector, had some reminders about taxes this week.

Next Wednesday, January 31, is the deadline for paying poll taxes, the Sheriff said. All citizens of voting age under the age of 60 should pay their poll taxes by next Wednesday and it will be necessary to have a poll tax receipt in order to vote.

Furthermore, the Sheriff said, next Wednesday is the deadline for the payment of property taxes. After February 1, unpaid property taxes due to Mills County will be subject to a penalty of one and a half per cent—one per cent for delayed payment and one half of one per cent for interest.

Sheriff Stubblefield also announced this week that the new 1951 registration plates for automobiles and trucks have arrived at his office in the Court House. The registration plates will go on sale starting February 1, although they need not be affixed to vehicles until April 1. Sheriff Stubblefield said that persons applying for 1951 registration plates should have their 1950 receipts and their certificates of ownership with them when they make their applications.

The Sheriff said that persons who obtain their 1951 vehicle registration plates early will be helping to avoid the rush that always comes during March when last-minute applicants form lines and cause delays.

Friends and relatives in Goldthwaite last week received invitations to attend the graduation of Travis Randles from the Paschal High School in Fort Worth on Tuesday night of this week. Travis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Randles. He formerly attended school at Goldthwaite.

YOUNGEST

Complete with freckles and a load of enthusiasm, Jimmy Wigley, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wigley of Durenville, will exhibit three calves—Blackie, Buster and Bud—at the Houston Fat Stock Show next week. Jimmy, a 4-H Club member in his first year, will be the youngest exhibitor at Houston from Mills County. Good luck, Jimmy—everybody is pulling for you.

Firemen Respond Promptly When Grass Fires Rage

Grass fires, that would have been much more serious except for prompt action by the Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department, called the new tank truck considerable distances from the city during the past week.

Last Tuesday morning Fire Chief Jack Reid and City Utilities Manager W. C. Barnett, with the new truck, responded to a call for help in quenching a grass fire on the Walter Fairman property, about a mile north of Center Point.

Some six or seven acres were burned over but the fire was prevented from spreading after the arrival of Firemen Reid and Barnett.

On Friday of last week Goldthwaite firemen and the tank truck rushed to the Democrat area to fight a grass fire that burned over an estimated 1,000 acres. That was a much more serious fire for, in addition to damage to pastures, fences were destroyed.

In fighting the Friday fire at Democrat Chief Reid and Mr. Barnett were aided by Melvin Harris, Assistant Fire Chief Joe Bailey Karnes, Burl Holland and Jack Earl Long.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Saegert and their children Gene and Joe, visited last Saturday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hamilton. The Saegerts, formerly of Goldthwaite, now live in Austin.

Mills County Scores Handsomely At Brown County Club Stock Show

Mills County sheep, bred by Steen and Turbiville and by Delton Barnett, took top honors at the Brown County Boys and Girls Club Show last week, while Kathryn Ann Brim and Jimmy Brim, grandchildren of Mrs. J. D. Brim, Sr., of Goldthwaite, won the highest ribbons.

Jimmy Brim is the owner of the grand champion fat steer, and Kathryn Ann Brim showed the grand champion fat lamb, which also took first place in the Southdown class at the Brownwood show.

Kathryn Brim's grand champion fat lamb was bred in Mills County by Steen and Turbiville.

They're Off For Fort Worth And Houston With Their Hopes High!

Livesock projects of Mills County 4-H Club and F. F. A. members are in Fort Worth or are preparing to leave today, Friday, for Houston to display the results of long months of diligent effort on farms and ranches and under feeding sheds.

Led by Y. B. Johnson, Jr., teacher of vocational agriculture at the Goldthwaite High School, a Mills County convoy left for Fort Worth on Wednesday. In joint command of the expedition was Everett Holland, whose hauling and advisory work has meant so much for so many years to Mills County 4-H Club members and to the Future Farmers of America.

Tomorrow, Saturday, the following will be shown at Fort Worth:

Merion Reynolds with three Hereford calves—a 4-H Club project. Also, the following F. F. A. projects: Don Reynolds, one Hereford heifer; Kenneth Wesson, one Aberdeen-Angus calf; John Carothers, one Hereford; Bill Parker, one Aberdeen-Angus.

At Fort Worth, 21 fat lambs will be shown as F. F. A. projects by Charles and Aaron Batchelor, Bob Parker, Callie Sides, Bobby Joe Davis and James Kemp. Doyle Roach will show two breeding Delaine sheep at Fort Worth, also as an F. F. A. entry.

As for Houston, Johnny Wigley of Durenville will leave today with "Scotty," his Hereford that took the Grand Championship at the Spring Show of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association at the Barn in Goldthwaite on January 16.

Johnny, with his brother Jimmy, personally announced their plans for the Houston Show. In addition to "Scotty," Johnny also will exhibit a Shorthorn named "Snowball" at Houston. Jimmy Wigley, who is only 10, said that at Houston he will exhibit an Angus named "Blackie," a Hereford named "Buster," and another Hereford named "Bud."

Other 4-H Club boys and girls who will exhibit at Houston are:

Dana Saylor, three Hereford steers; Shirle Saylor, one Hereford steer; Modene Reynolds, two Hereford steers; Merion Reynolds, three Hereford steers; Wayne Horton, two Herefords; Billy Mac Newton, two Herefords; R. D. Jordan, one Hereford; Roy L. O'Banon, one Aberdeen-Angus; Bobby Zane Egger, two Herefords; Sammy Owens, one Aberdeen-Angus; John Howard Owens, an Angus named "Spades"—the Reserve Championship at this year's Mills County Show; Davis Owens, one Angus and one Hereford; W. V. Horton, Jr.,

two Herefords; Harold Carter, one Hereford; Edward Carter, two Herefords; Armand Zoe Clary, two Southdown muttons. Entries that had been scheduled by Merlene and J. W. Woodard now have been slated for the San Antonio Show rather than Houston.

County Agent George Reese said that at the last minute there might be some changes in the Mills County entries. He pointed out that after Fort Worth and Houston, there will be Shows at San Antonio, San Angelo, Odessa and El Paso in which Mills County boys and girls probably will compete.

"We have some mighty good calves," Mr. Reese said. He will be joined at Houston by Robert L. Steen, President of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association, and by Norman Duren, who has been most active in assisting 4-H Club members on their various projects. A number of parents also will accompany their children to Houston, while others will be on hand at Fort Worth with Y. B. Johnson and Everett Holland.

Unless there are last minute changes, the Future Farmers of America will be represented at Houston by Kenneth Wesson, John Carothers and John Weaver, each with an Angus steer. And turkeys are going to Houston with Armand Zoe Clary and Van Wilson McCasland.

At Houston, "sifting" will start on Tuesday of next week. County Agent Reese said he expected that with the record number of entries at Houston, the judging might continue into Wednesday of next week—so far as the Club calves are concerned.

At both the Fort Worth and Houston Shows, Mills County will be represented by both Club calves and "open" steers. How well the Mills County entries do at Fort Worth in the judging on Saturday of this week will depend whether the suspense back home will extend into Monday of next week, when the judges will reach the stage of making championship selections at Fort Worth. Sales at Fort Worth will not be conducted until February 2. The Houston sale also will be on February 2.

The coincidence of dates and the distances between Fort Worth and Houston caused some late shuffling among the entries from Mills County. Some that had been entered originally for both the Fort Worth and Houston Shows later resulted in decision to exhibit only at Houston.

Didja Ever Hear Of Earl T. Fairman?

Marjorie E. Parr, an Australian who is a member of the staff of the Australian Government Trade Commissioner in New York, turned out this week to have relatives in Mills County. In a letter to the Eagle, Miss Parr asked if this newspaper knew of the whereabouts of E. T. Fairman, Freddy Marshall and others who were described as being descendants of cousins of Miss Parr's mother. The Eagle, having heard of both E. T. Fairman and Freddy Marshall, started in motion the machinery necessary for having them communicate with Miss Parr.

Mrs. Louis Long underwent surgery in the San Saba Memorial Hospital Monday this week. At last report she was doing nicely.

Miss Darlene Long of Fort Worth was a weekend guest in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Long.

LOOK OUT—FORT WORTH AND HOUSTON!

This week, Mills County 4-H Club boys and girls and members of the Future Farmers of America left or will leave for the big livestock expositions at Fort Worth and Houston. Just about everybody in the County knows what our boys and girls will exhibit at Fort Worth and at Houston because all of us had an opportunity to see their projects at the 13th annual Spring Show of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association in Goldthwaite last week.

—AND ANOTHER THING.

Somebody, who apparently does not know which way is up, popped off at last week's Show of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association and said, in effect, that "it is too bad we don't breed some of these champions in Mills County." Well, Brother, we do, and the record proves it. Just get a load of this:

Dana Saylor's calf, which took first place in the medium weight division, was bred right here in Mills County by W. V. Horton. In the lightweight division, W. V. Horton, Jr., took second place, also with a W. V. Horton calf. Also in the lightweight division, Wayne Poe's fourth place calf was a W. V. Horton Mills County product.

Furthermore, the three top championship sheep at the Brown County Show last week were bred in Mills County by either Steen and Turbiville or by Delton Barnett. At our own Show, Myron Hillman's Southdown champion, "Shorty," was bred in Mills County, and so were other Southdowns, Delaines and Suffolks for which blue ribbons went to F.F.A. boys and to individual breeders.

What is still more, those fine hogs with which Harley Ethridge, Bill Beard and Wayne Poe took championships at the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association's Show were Mills County bred and born. They were ornerly as all get-out when it came to having their pictures taken but they were fine hogs, and if you don't believe it, Brother, you'll probably have to fight J. C. Yearly, Jr., Advisor to the Star Capter of the Future Farmers of America.

Finally, how about turkeys? Brother, did you see Armand Zoe Clary's turkeys at the Spring Show of the Mills County Livestock Raisers Association? They took the Grand Championship at the State Fair of Texas at Dallas—not only in 1950, but in 1949 as well. And they, Brother, were from right here in Mills County.

Leave us not have anybody sneer at Mills County breeders unless he knows what he is talking about—and quite obviously that Brother at our own Show was talking out of his hat. The lovely part of it all was that just as he sounded off so erroneously, the loud speaker came on to announce a blue ribbon for Dana Saylor's Mills County W. V. Horton calf!

We can breed 'em as well as feed 'em, all of which is in the process of being proved all over again.

The gin house and contents at Lometa owned by Smith and Davis burned Monday night. It is not known how the fire originated, but we learn that the entire building was in flames before the fire was discovered. Smith and Davis estimated their loss at $6000, we are told, and carried $3000 insurance.

W. E. Pardue this week sold his farm and pasture known as the J. B. Murrah place, to G. W. Jackson. This place contains a little less than 500 acres and is fine property.

More contract airfields will be opened to speed the cadet training program, according to the Pentagon. During the last war our district provided contract training at Ballinger, Erady, Coleman, Kerrville and Uvalde. The Army Air Force had facilities at San Angelo, Brownwood and Del Rio.

The Pentagon has told me that around 8 or 9 contract fields may be opened over the country soon with the particular fields being designated not by the Air Force but by the individual contractors who will bid for the privilege of training the cadets at so much per hour, etc., in accordance with AF specifications.

In other words, the Pentagon will not decide where a particular contract training field will be located; that will be determined by the contractor who will choose the best site possible in order to meet AF specifications and make a profit. The contract bidding will be competitive.

Specifications and details of the program may be obtained from the Contract Relations Section, Procurement Division, Air Material Command, Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio.

Howard Kingsbury of Santa Anna, State PMA Committeeman, has been in Washington for several days in the interest of the peanut industry, mesquite eradication experiments and other matters of interest to our area. He reports that a mesquite-killing chemical solution has been concocted at the Spur Experiment Station that is very successful though not so well in South Texas.

The mixture is sprayed from an airplane. The plan is to use it over a belt in the central Texas area this Spring. It will cost a total of about $3.50 an acre to use it and re-treatment will probably be necessary a few years later in order to complete the kill and take care of sprouts.

If this experiment proves out it will mean a lot to southwest Texas where mesquite has become one big headache to farmers and ranchmen over a wide area. The problem is to be able to kill it at a cost that the owner can afford.

Stationed at Ft. Belvoir, the Army Engineer training base near Washington, is Cpl. Carl R. Sherrets of San Saba. Henry Morris of Center City moved back to Star Wednesday.

The Eagle's Aery

By The Editor

Many persons read Life magazine and they look at the pictures. Lest some of our readers may have been skipping Life editorials, however, the editor would like to emphasize that the magazine has been projecting some clear thinking into public consideration of the world crisis. Last week Life published an editorial entitled, "This Way To Suicide." It was based on the attitude of President Truman and Secretary of State Dean Acheson that it is possible to LIVE with the world Communist conspiracy.

Because of the importance and clarity of the Life editorial, it is being printed below. Please read it all the way through. The editorial follows, but it was preceded by the following quotation from President Truman's 1951 message to the Congress on the State of the Union:

"If we build our strength—and we are building it—the Soviet rulers may face the facts and lay aside their plans to take over the world. That is what we hope will happen, and that is what we are trying to bring about. That is the only realistic road to peace."

The foregoing words should be read and reread by every American. They were spoken last week by President Truman in his sixth message on the State of the Union.

On their face they are attractive and reasonable words. They reflect a hope of peace and a dread of war which endure in millions of human hearts. These words of the President occur in a message which, but for them, would deserve to be applauded as a fine and forceful speech.

It may very well be argued that the President's words are a useful concession to the universal desire for peace, a necessary recognition of the European and Asiatic state of mind.

But these words of the President cannot be dismissed in so easy a fashion. They cannot be dismissed on any ground. The President has shown too many times that he believes in the capacity of the Soviet rulers to "face the facts and lay aside their plans to take over the world."

Mr. Truman's principal adviser on world affairs, Secretary of State Dean Acheson, has shown too many times that he believes in what he has chosen to call the possibility of "coexistence," a "cooperative peace," a "cooperative relationship" with the rulers of Soviet Communism.

On the record the passage quoted here from the President's message must be taken for what it unquestionably is—a considered restatement, made in all good faith and with full conviction, of the major conception and major purpose underlying American policy.

Taken for what they are, these words of the President are mistaken and dangerous.

Taken for what they are, these words demand the attention and the talents of all the participants in "the Great Debate" over U. S. policy, a debate which has explored almost every aspect of the subject except the corrosive and fatal fallacy which the President preserved and restated.

The nature of the fallacy is clear. The fallacy is that those whom Mr. Truman calls "the Soviet rulers" are capable of arriving, by their own decision, at a state of peace with the non-Communist world. There is no prospect whatever that they are capable of doing so as long as the system which they themselves have created, their purposes and given their power is in being as long as the vast complex doctrine, nations, governing parties and men called "Communism" is intact, undefeated and undestroyed, until its power—its compulsion—to harass, and engulf the non-Communist world is effectively eliminated there be any chance of peace in the world.

The defeat and abolition of Soviet Communist power are not enough; the defeat of anti-Communism must have other and more objective objectives. But, there can be no peace, no security, no progress toward a better life, no progress toward a better society, until its power to obstruct progress and to assault anti-Communist societies.

Make no mistake; the defeat does not assume as a requirement of the Soviet power. The official author of the fallacy, Mr. Acheson, has recently said in so many words that "to subvert the Soviet Union"—that is, to bring about the downfall of Soviet Communism—is neither required for nor a proper purpose of American policy. When Mr. Acheson speaks of enforcing through strength, he means the record of what he as Secretary of State has supposed to mean peace: the present rulers of the Soviet system.

Many Americans do not know to be told that this is a false. With their hearts and in their bones, they know that it is false.

Many others would like to believe in the possibility that Truman says he believes. Many Americans do believe it still. But their number is small. Events visible to all—the actual behavior of the Soviet rulers, make any in the possibility of peace in the present rulers of the Soviet system more visible with every day that passes.

There is something wrong in the spectacle of a President of the U. S. who, late and awful hour, perceives that the concept he restated last week is wrong, in the continued presence at the President's right of a Secretary of State who has so long cultivated this fallacy. It is terrible that this product of "coexistence" with Communism, Dean Acheson, should still be in a position to shape the President's major conceptions and statements of American policy.

Here, Life once more states a real and present danger to this republic.

So long as the nature and purposes and the capacities of our enemy are misunderstood and underestimated at the pinnacle of American policy, what hope is there that American power will be effectively mobilized and used to effect and with adequate effectiveness of the tasks before it? What price "the Great Debate" (Continued on Page 2)

Mary Beatrice Bledsoe Engaged To Be Bride Of Edward E. Jares

On Wednesday morning of last week about 70 friends who went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bledsoe in Stephenville for coffee, were told of the plans for the marriage of Miss Mary Beatrice Bledsoe and Mr. Edward E. Jares. The Bledsoes are former residents of Goldthwaite.

The announcement was made through a group of dolls on the buffet, portraying a wedding party. At the altar, which was bedecked with white roses and lilies of the valley, stood the miniature minister, the groom-elect, and the best man awaiting the approaching bridesmaids, who were dressed in white net over green satin, followed by the bride, formally gowned for the marriage.

A sigh showed that the wedding was taking place in Flagstaff, Arizona. A large lace fan formed the background for the wedding scene. The message which the fan carried was that Miss Bledsoe and Mr. Jares will be married on February 6.

Mrs. Bledsoe and her three daughters, Beatrice, Mrs. Lorraine Duggan and Mrs. Wanda Anderson of Temple received the guests.

Coffee dainties and coffee were served in the dining room in which the bride's chosen colors, green and white, were shown by the white chrysanthemums, white stock and green napkins.

The Ammona Sunday School class of Gaston Avenue Baptist Church of Dallas, of which she is a member, entertained Miss Beatrice Bledsoe with a six o'clock dinner, on January 12, in the home of Mrs. C. L. Norsworthy, 4912 Swiss Avenue. After the social hours in which lively games were enjoyed, Miss Bledsoe was presented with gifts, including pieces of her crystal.

Garden Club Has Mrs. Cantrell As Speaker On Tour

At a meeting of the Goldthwaite Garden Club at the Jennie Trent Dew Library on Wednesday afternoon of last week, Mrs. W. E. Cantrell spoke on gardens that she had seen during an extended tour of Europe which she made last summer as a member of a delegation representing the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Cantrell interspersed her address with other observations and comments.

Mrs. Warren P. Duren was the Program Chairman for the meeting. The roll call was answered to the theme of "A spot in our community that I would like to see beautified."

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. T. M. Glass, Mrs. M. F. Horton, Mrs. M. T. Burnham, Mrs. J. V. Cockrum, Mrs. Ben R. Day, and Mrs. Henry Morris. The flower arrangements were by Mrs. Glass.

Although Mrs. Cantrell had spoken on numerous occasions since her return from Europe, her talk to the Goldthwaite Garden Club had been prepared especially for it and with the interests of its members in mind — as Mrs. Duren pointed out in thanking the speaker of the afternoon.

The next meeting of the Garden Club will be held on February 21 with Mrs. E. T. Fairman as the Program Chairman and Mrs. W. S. Pense of San Saba as the speaker. The horticulture of house plants will be the topic for the afternoon.

Mrs. Lennie Horton To Entertain Club

The Midway Community Club will meet on Friday of next week with Mrs. Lennie Horton as the hostess. At a meeting of the Club last Friday, with Mrs. Coley Sevier as the hostess, seven members and three children were present. The members worked on a quilt and completed embroidery on cup towels.

Ralph E. Castillo of Temple was best man. Ushers were Balderiano Campos, Rudy Martinez, Victor Corona, Salvador Garza, and Vicente Garza.

Salvador Calderon, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer, and Olivia Reyes was flower girl.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the bride's home. The bridal table, overlaid with a cutwork cloth, was centered with a three tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Emilio Calderon and Mrs. Cruz Corona. Miss Mona Corona was in charge of the bride's book.

Girl Scouts Have Fine Slumber Party

By MARGARET REESE

Last Friday night the girls of Scout Troop II were entertained with a Slumber party at the home of the leader, Mrs. Jemmie Shoemaker, in honor of her daughter, Jimmie Raye, who was eleven years old Saturday. As Mrs. Shoemaker lives in the country, she picked the girls up in her car after school. That night they enjoyed a Weiner Roast and the birthday cake. They sang songs and played games around the open camp fire.

The next morning they hiked to Lookout Mountain, where they cooked their breakfast. The morning was spent climbing and exploring the mountain. Many odd rocks were found — some with Indian writing on them. After a lunch out in the open, the girls piled into Mrs. Shoemaker's car and were brought home.

Those attending were: Wanda Rue Featherstone, Carolyn Wilkey, Margie Letbetter, Joyce Schuman, Margaret Reese, Virgilene Geeslin, Alice Ann Davis, Patsy Hammond, who was a visitor, Jimmie Raye and her sister.

3 — Installation of additional swings, slides and possibly a merry-go-round, depending upon what playground equipment may be obtainable within budgetary limitations.

Coach Knox said that in addition to the work that already has been done by Commissioner Tullos and Mr. Huffman, he has arranged to move benches from the football field sidelines to the east side of the school so that younger children and supervising teachers will have places for rest and relaxation.

Coach Knox pointed out that the work that has been done, that is being done and that will be done for playground improvement has been planned so as to provide the maximum benefit to the most pupils and students. Requirement of younger children, as well as of older children, have been taken into consideration, Coach Knox said.

"The work will be completed as soon as possible," Coach Knox added. "Our limited budget has been stretched to its maximum by the generous donations of time and equipment by Commissioner Tullos and the City of Goldthwaite. The aim is to provide the greatest possible return from funds that were appropriated by the P-T. A., and to give improved playground facilities to as many children as possible on a long-range basis."

The care with which the program was planned was indicated by the statement by Coach Knox that the surfaced tennis courts also will provide for such games as volleyball, jacks, marbles, basketball, and so on. The interests of children in the primary grades have been given full consideration. Already, the school grounds present a neat appearance, thanks to the work that already has been done.

Playground improvement was made the major project of the P-T. A., for its 1950-1951 year. At the request of the Parent-Teacher Association, Coach Knox assumed direction of the sweeping playground improvement activities in addition to his other duties.

Mrs. O. O. Smith, President of the Parent-Teacher Association, expressed her gratitude in behalf of the organization this week to Coach Knox, the school administrators, with whom he has consulted, and to Commissioner Tullos and the City of Goldthwaite.

Ebony News

By Clementine Wilmeth Briley

The big event in our life this past week was a trip to the Mills County Stock Show at Goldthwaite. To live in the County that has three times in the last four years exhibited the Grand Champion at the Houston Fat Stock Show — not to mention other championships — and not see its own stock show, is like the man who sold his farm to go in search of diamonds which he never found, while his successor found acres of diamonds on the farm which he sold. I had to see those "acres of diamonds." To me it was more thrilling than the Dallas Fair. We had one calf from our own community, Chief, belonging to Joe Reeves. He placed eighth in the medium weight class.

Then we got to see people—Murray Cox, whom we hear over the radio every day; Bob Steen, who started Mills county on its road to fame; Frank Jordan of Mason, who has acquired the skill to select the champion and place all that large number of the finest of calves. From Ebony we saw Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Reeves, the Hubert Reeves family, Mrs. Flora Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Egger, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Egger. Also others, who have lived at Ebony—Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Reid, Mrs. Cloud Mashburn, and Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Egger.

As I looked in the arena at the 4-H boys and their tip-top calves, I discovered my little pupil, Robert Smith, of Mullin. I wanted to catch his eye to telegraph him a message of how thrilled I was to see him there, but the business of showing calves was too serious for him to notice anyone in the crowd. But I did have the thrill of meeting two pupils I had taught at Long Branch in 1903-1904. They were Bud Harper and John Walton.

That Hanna Valley Road is something to make the heart happy. The paved part now extends from Goldthwaite to the Regency road this side of the Ashton place. Men were busy at work putting tar and gravel on the new part. Memory takes me back to the days when we little old country school teachers went by buggy to the county-seat to cash our vouchers. The first school I taught paid $30 a month, and lasted four months and one week. And the road to Goldthwaite matched the salary. It is wonderful to me today to see how modern engineers have made from those long rocky hills that beautiful, wide, smooth highway. Two hours are now ample time for a trip to Goldthwaite and back. Then it took two days. Verily my cup runneth over.

I find that the last of the Reynolds family has moved from our community. Roy Reynolds has sold his place to Russell Reed of San Angelo and has moved to Woodland Heights. I also find at this late in the day that the Jimmie Wilkins family moved from the Effie Egger place Christmas. Since then Mr. Hows has been working for Clayton Egger.

On the road to Brownwood Friday we found the Richland Springs Road shaping up nicely. Another thing I saw along the road was a whole flock of blue birds. Just one blue bird thrills me to ecstasies.

I learn through Mrs. Lena Crowder at Brownwood that Mrs. Edna Dwyer writes her from Orange that her son-in-law, Austin Cawyer, promises to bring her home February 3.

We met downtown Friday our good friends, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Egger.

Mrs. Daz Oliver and Iravon came out from Brownwood Saturday to spend the day with the Edward Eggers.

Mrs. Sarah Ann Reeves was 93 Friday January 19, and the Algood Home where she stays in Brownwood gave her open house. There we met Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Reeves, Mrs. Flora Hodges, Mrs. Dick Singleton, Mrs. Hardin, Evelyn Hardin, and Mrs. Jim Honea. There was a beautiful birthday cake. It was for Mrs. Reeves and also Mr. Algood who happens to have the same birthday. Incidentally we were reminded at the bank and the mail box that it was also the birthday of Robert E. Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Reeves are taking Joe and his calf to Houston Saturday where Joe will enter Chief in the Houston Fat Stock Show. While there Mrs. Reeves will visit her sisters.

Our oil well men have been pulling the casing from the well and are leaving out without making another effort. But we hear that Blue Thompson is getting his big tank filled with the artesian water.

Mrs. Cecil Truax of Las Cruces, New Mexico is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Burnett who has not seen her niece since she was a baby, 50 years ago.

Garden Club Plans Flower School With Courses Open To Everybody

Further details of plans for a Flower Show School, to be held on February 27 and 28 and March 1, were announced this week by the Goldthwaite Garden Club.

The school, which will be nationally accredited, will be open to all interested persons, in addition to Garden Club members. It will be held at the Jennie Frest Dew Library or at the Baptist Education Building on Fisher Street, in accordance with a decision to be announced later.

Registration fees for the school will be $7.00 per person, it was announced by Mrs. Philip Nickola. Courses will be offered in both horticulture and flower arrangements. Two outstanding instructors will come to Goldthwaite to conduct the courses.

At a Garden Club meeting last Wednesday afternoon, it was voted to sponsor performances of "Two Weeks With Love" at the Melba Theater in Goldthwaite on February 24 and 25. Half of the proceeds from the local exhibition of the technicolor, musical comedy will be used by the Garden Club to help to defray the expenses of the Flower Show School.

Additional details regarding the school will be announced before its scheduled opening on February 27 by Mrs. Jim Weatherly, who is the Chairman of the committee in charge of it.

Teenager Gets Appetite Back; Thanks Hadacol

HADACOL Supplies Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron Which Her System Lacked.

According to Sara Loraine Beck, Box 253, Coker, Alabama when a person is only 15 years old and feels terrible, can't eat or sleep the way they should, it's mighty bad. That is the way Loraine says she used to feel but that was, of course, before she started taking HADACOL. Loraine found that taking HADACOL helped her system overcome deficiencies in Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and iron, which HADACOL contains.

Here is Loraine Beck's own statement: "I was run-down, sick and skinny, and weighed only 90 pounds before I used HADACOL. I would not eat because I had no appetite. Now I weigh 123 pounds and have an appetite. I feel a lot better. I have been taking HADACOL 10 months and am still taking it. I am 15 years old. HADACOL has done me lots of good."

The color and excitement of the old west are prevalent in Fort Worth on the eve of the opening of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show. Cowboy, cowgirls and livestock from 30 states, Canada and Cuba already have arrived for the huge show which will swing open its gates to the public Friday. W. R. Watt, president-manager, predicts that the 1951 edition will be the greatest of them all.

Opening day festivities will begin at 2:00 p. m. with the traditional downtown parade. Ernest Allen, vice president and chairman of the parade committee, reports that the event will be more spectacular than ever before. The TCU Horned Frog band will lead the review through downtown Fort Worth, followed by almost countless riding clubs, horseback riders and horse-drawn vehicles. School bands will be interspersed throughout the length of the parade.

Verne Elliott, "Mr. Rodeo", again will produce the world's greatest indoor rodeo in Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum. Performances will be at 2:00 a. m. and 8 p. m. daily through February 4, after the first performance on opening night.

More than 375 of the greatest rodeo performers will compete for their share of the $50,000 purse. Slim Pickens, Conoga Park, Calif., and Sammy Raynoso, New Hall, Calif., will make their first appearances at the Stock Show as rodeo clowns, and the popular John Lindsey, Wichita Falls, will return as a clown.

Trick riders include Bernice Dossey, Chandler, Ariz., Nancy Bragg and Don Wilcox, Tulsa, Okla., Dick Griffith, Scottsdale, Ariz., and Mae Boss, Tucson, Ariz., making her first Stock Show appearance.

The Boom Town Mounted Square Dancers from Burkburnett, will thrill rodeo fans with their brand of horsemanship during the rodeo. Miss Huguette and her educated horse, Glamor Doc, will perform difficult feats and the Curtis Double Pony Hitch will be presented to round out the rodeo specialty acts.

Nearly $25,000 in premiums have increased horse show entries to more than 850 head of the country's finest horses. Horse Show events will be interspersed throughout the rodeo and will include Cutting horses, Quarter horses, gaiting horses, Walking horses, hunters and jumpers, Shetland and Hackney ponies. Skeeter, 1950 world's champion cutting horse will compete in the show. Wild Bill Elliott, cowboy movie star, will ride his cutting horse, Red Boy. Audie Murphy, most decorated soldier of World War II and movie star, will exhibit a Quarter horse.

More than 425 head of top bulls have been consigned for the carload-and-pen bull show. George R. Shepherd, superintendent, said that commercial breeders will have the opportunity to buy herd bulls from the nation's top herds.

All livestock, including beef cattle, horses, dairy cattle, swine, sheep, Angora goats, poultry turkeys, rabbits and Boys' Livestock Show entries will compete for record premiums. Awards, including the rodeo, total $146,000.

The Southwestern Championship Square Dance Contest will be held again in Will Rogers Memorial Auditorium. Ted Gouddy, dance director, stated that the contest would be even more spectacular than last year. It will be free to all on the grounds.

Seventy-five Southwestern cities and service organizations have scheduled special days. Many bands will give concerts and Cowgirl Sweethearts have been selected to represent their home towns.

Marshall Miller was taken to the Memorial Hospital at San Saba Tuesday of last week with a heart ailment. Since being there, Mrs. Miller visits him daily. se Requirements Restrict To Colorado River Dams

While not completely new, many of the dams and plants of the Lower River Authority, General Max Starcke announced last week in Austin. The RA has placed into operation war-time restrictions. All dams, plants, switchyards and lines have been declared restricted areas, and only those essential for the operation of the facilities will be permitted to operate under a permit now in effect. For the time being, travel across the top of Mansfield Dam will be permitted, but no vehicle will be allowed to stop or park on top of the dam. At Buchanan Dam, visitors will be allowed to continue to visit at the south end of the dam and to use the parking area at that point. The Visitors' Observation Building is not affected by the regulations and will continue in operation.

At the Austin Dam, in the vicinity of which are the shops, warehouse and certain operating headquarter offices of the LCRA, delivering vans and others will be allowed to enter the grounds until further notice. The dam and power house, however, are "off limits."

Application for permits to enter any of the restricted areas must be made in person at the General Offices of the LCRA, 3700 Lake Austin Blvd., in Austin.

Everyone from this community attended the livestock show at Goldthwaite last Monday and Tuesday. We all enjoyed the pretty stock so much. We think all the boys and girls did excellently. We want to congratulate Johnny Wigley for taking home the Grand Champion calf, Scotty.

We wonder what Grandmother Wigley thinks about little Johnny. We all think Grandmother Wigley has two mighty fine grandsons. We want Johnny and Jimmy to know that their grandparents were former residents of this community and highly honored for being lovely neighbors and always cared for their livestock well. We hope for Johnny and Scotty the best of luck as they so journey to the other shows.

We were happy to see Ike and Mike at the Show. They are two red pigs being fed at the Al T. Langford store. You folks who like hogs can see Ike and Mike any day.

Another very happy day was last Wednesday, when neighbors and friends gathered at the Harper Brothers' program. We just all ate and talked and had a good old-time get-together.

O. A. Evans' calf was very sick Thursday. Mr. Evans went after Dr. Danford, who said the calf Seems there's quite a bit of sickness. Anyway, we seem to have had our share, with as many as three ill at one time beside the son, C. H. Black, who has been hospitalized for two weeks.

Mrs. Della Tyson, who has been ill for the past six months in the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Black, was carried Saturday to Goldthwaite to the had pneumonia. At last report the calf was better.

Bill Partin hauled wood from the Roger Smith ranch Wednesday.

O. A. Evans and George Crawford did some plowing last week. They reported it to be very dry and dusty.

Mrs. Bill Partin and little Jimmie went to Houston Friday to spend awhile with her mother, Mrs. George Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Evans made a business trip to Hamilton last Friday. They also saw a lot of folks of their acquaintance.

Tom Stevens returned home Monday by train after a few weeks visits with his sons, Elvis Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Stevens and children of Leveland. He also visited Mrs. Stevens' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Reynolds of Lubbock. Mr. Stevens said he saw some fine country. The cotton gins were running and they had one big snow during his visit.

Mrs. A. L. Crawford and Mrs. Tom Stevens visited Mrs. R. A. Stevens and Miss Lola Friday. I visited Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Perry and Mrs. Blanch Barton Saturday afternoon. Grandma Barton wasn't feeling so well. She was piecing quilts some.

Thomas Partin is staying with his grandparents, while his mother is away.

Edwin Stevens spent Friday night with Alvin G. Tieman and Alvin returned home with Edwin Saturday. At last report Alvin and Edwin had gone hunting and gotten in the nettles. I may be talking out of school. I will let Edwin and Alvin tell the rest.

home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McWhorter, where she will stay for the time being.

For the past two weeks we have almost imagined we were living in a city. Mrs. Howard's bread truck, along with ice trucks, Fine - Food products trucks, cold drinks, milk and what-have-you driving past our door delivering their wares to an extra gang working for the Santa Fe. Some days there are as many as 100 cars pass through and on up into the night. So if we need bread we only have to put up a flag.

Guests Monday of Mrs. R. D. Evans and family were Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ward and Mrs. Albert Hereford of Stephenville.

Plans now are that C. H. Black will be home some time this week from Memorial Hospital, where he has been a patient for the past ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harris called Thursday in the home of Mrs. R. D. Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Burk were in San Saba one day last week, guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry.

Layton Black has been in bed the past week with a severe case of flu.

Huntis Black will show his lambs at the Houston Livestock Show. He plans to leave Sunday.

Glad to report Dad Stucky is doing good after a severe heart attack.

Brownwood Boxing

The Regional Golden Gloves Tournament will be held in the Brownwood Memorial Hall the nights of Thursday, Friday and Saturday, February 1, 2 and 3.

Groner Pitts, general chairman for the sponsoring Brownwood Junior Chamber of Commerce, has lined up amateur fighters from several towns of this area, as well as boxers from the armed forces. Winners in the regional tournament here will be sent to Fort Worth to compete in the state tourney.

San Saba Stages Boxing Build-Up To Golden Gloves

Fight fans of this area will converge on San Saba Friday and Saturday nights, January 26-27, for the San Saba District Golden Gloves Tournament to be staged in the school gymnasium beginning at 8:00 p. m. each night.

Twelve to fourteen bouts will be held each night, with top fighters from the Brownwood region competing. Lampasas, Llano, Goldthwaite, Austin, Stephenville, Lometa, Brownwood, Richland Springs, Brady and San Saba mittmen will be matched in the show, although Austin and Brownwood will not contend for the trophies to be awarded.

A fast 14-bout warm-up show was staged in San Saba Saturday night between contenders from Austin, Brady, Stephenville and San Saba, with San Saba taking six bouts. Austin took three and Stephenville one.

The San Saba team is packed with power this year and is pointing hopefully for the team trophy in the Brownwood Regional at a latter date.

Winston Lackey, promoter and manager of the San Saba show, said that amateur fighters in neighboring towns wishing to participate in the San Saba show may do so by reporting to the San Saba school gym between 3 and 5 p. m. Friday, where they will be weighed in and processed.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack T. Cartwright and son, Jackie, of Baytown spent the weekend in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Long.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bryan of Lubbock visited with their brother, Cecil Bryan and family the past weekend.

Brother Ayers said that two top-flight speakers will attend and make addresses. They are the Rev. Levi Price, Pastor of the First Baptist Church at Coleman; and the Rev. Hillside Mission

By LIDA BYRNE

A preacher said: "If there is no devil, who is carrying on his business?" The Bible says a tremendous lot about the devil. He gets into many people and rules them. Our Lord Jesus Christ said Judas Iscariot, who betrayed Him, was a devil. Are we going to let the devil rule our lives? The devil pays wages, but "the wages of sin is death."

News Of The Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District

Several cooperators with the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District are making a determined effort to break up the hard pan in their soil and to increase the water intake of their land. They are tackling the job with sweeps, chisels and subsoilers.

Clyde Kerby, Caradan, put flat sweeps on his two-row planter beams and double-bedded his land on an average of 10 inches deep. A definite restrictive layer was evident but the deep plowing was breaking it up to the point that the soil will now absorb the rainfall readily. A heavy growth of weeds and dead straw was left on top of the soil to protect it from the falling raindrops.

Charles Dudley, Democrat farmer, was determined to loosen the soil below the plowshare that had been formed in the cultivated fields. He used a single chisel on his Ford tractor and pulled it as deep as it would go. He chiseled the land north and south every 36 inches and then repeated the operation going east and west. The land is well stirred and ready for a good soaking rain. A good growth of Madrid sweetclover in a rotation will probably keep the restrictive layer from forming again. Breaking up the restrictive layer is sometimes necessary before a legume crop can be grown successfully.

L. B. Burnham, Goldthwaite farmer and rancher, attacked the hard pan on his Colorado River farm with four chisel points on the tool bar of his tractor. He smoothed the land with a one way plow and seeded the field to Madrid sweetclover and rye. He pulled a cultipacker behind the drill to firm the soil.

Jack Clendenin and M. C. Kirkpatrick, Mullin, used flat sweeps on their planter beams to loosen the soil below the plow sole in their fields and to leave the crop residues on top of the land. They later worked up a seedbed with the Hoeme plow which still left most of the crop residue near the surface of the soil for protection.

Of course, it will be several years before the real worth of the deep plowing operations will be apparent. The landowners are breaking the bottleneck to the production of their soil. With deep-rooted legumes and careful cultivation and plowing, the restrictive layer can probably be eliminated or controlled.

Mrs. Gwin, Mrs. Stokes And Miss Geeslin Start Defense Measures

Brian Smith, Executive Secretary of the Mills County Chapter of the American Red Cross, announced this week that Mrs. John L. Gwin, County School Nurse; Miss Maxine Geeslin, Goldthwaite School Nurse; and Mrs. M. Y. Stokes, Jr., will attend a Red Cross civilian defense home nurse training course next month.

The instruction will be given in Brownwood from February 1 through February 7 by Miss Beulah Miles, Red Cross nurse consultant from the Midwestern Area headquarters in St. Louis.

The course has been planned to instruct those who take it to teach homemakers, young persons, fathers and others how to care for the sick at home more effectively.

Mr. Smith said that after the course has been taken by Mrs. Gwin, Mrs. Stokes and Miss Geeslin, they will be prepared to teach classes in Goldthwaite as part of the Red Cross civilian defense program. The Red Cross has been asked to train at least two per cent of the American population in home nursing.

Miss Geeslin, Mrs. Stokes and Mrs. Gwin are highly competent nurses, Mr. Smith said, and their purpose in taking the course is to study teaching methods that have been developed by the Red Cross and to consider emergencies that might arise in the period during which civilian defense measures might be necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Featherston and Mr. and Mrs. Retus Ballentine of Brownwood spent the weekend in the home of Mrs. Henry Featherston.

from the world the threat of

He can perceive that peaceful, stable "coexistence" with Soviet Communism is utterly impossible, as the President holds when he talks of forcing or persuading "the Soviet rulers" to "lay aside their plans." It is perpetrate a pletistic fraud.
If "coexistence" with the present Soviet Communist system is impossible, is total war
"inevitable"?

Maybe so. Maybe not. Given the pressures resulting from a full recognition on our part of what must be accomplished and a full determination to accomplish it, the Soviet empire may start to change within and to crumble. No man can say just how the pure wickedness of Soviet Communism will ultimately be banished from the earth, as some day it will be banished. But what no man has a right to say is that we can live peacefully and happily with this prodigious evil.

Meanwhile what must be said is that the Soviet empire, far from retreating, will continue to expand unless it is opposed with all our strength and all our mind and all our will. That includes the steady, calm and constant acceptance of the risk of all-out war.

The President said last week that his chosen road—the road to a contrived peace with the present rulers of the present Communist system—is "the only realistic road to peace."

It is not a realistic road to peace.
It is not a realistic road to anything.
It is the road our enemy wants us to take.
It is the road to our defeat.
It is the way to suicide.

46,000 — dead, wounded and missing; with so many of them missing, and likely never to return. The Reds are trying to trade the blood of our dead in Korea in hope of gaining their own ends. We are surrounded by "appeasers." They are saying, "Let's stall awhile longer." The Reds are trying to confuse, scare and befuddle us. In Korea, as the Eagle went to press this week, we had no better than an edge in a stalemate. In the United Nations, Ambassador Warren Austin came right out in meeting and charged Russia with being the aggressor and with hiding behind the skirts of Red Korea and Red China.

The facts of the news are not good. But, when history is written by whomever may survive those of us who live now, the record will show that in the face of threatened disaster, we once again have joined Great Britain and France in trying again. We have asked Moscow: "Will you agree to an easing of tension?" We have asked: "Do you want peace, or are you determined upon war?"

British Prime Minister Clement Attlee and Indian Prime Minister Nehru seem to be taking a "soft approach" to the designers of the Kremlin. Nevertheless, in the United Nations, Ambassador Austin has not been abject. He knows that there has been no basic change in the insolence of Peiping. He has told the Red Chinese that "You can't shoot your way into the United Nations." He said that neither blackmail nor appeasement will work. He said that the time has arrived for the United Nations to face-up to the challenge of the Red Aggressors.

We believe that the issue, in the end, will have to be decided on the fields of bloody battle. We believe that appeasement would invite only more Red Aggression. But we do believe, also, that no man ought to condemn any other man for trying to test the possibilities of negotiations to its last dregs. Fight, we must, but the record must be clear.

We are not ready for the final showdown. It will come; we know that. When it comes, the British and the French and the Hindus; the people of Pakistan, of the Philippines—of Latin America, of Arabia—all will be with us. Between the meantime, let's keep our feet on the ground as civilized men strive to preserve civilization.

We have been so inconsistent and we have erred so much, despite warnings that were clear enough for all of us to understand, that we simply cannot, at this time, condemn any man who makes one last try to avert catastrophe for everybody. We are a civilized people. We have moral obligations. We must meet them. While we keep our powder dry and while we determine to meet the challenge to us, let's keep our feet on the ground. We shall not lack for allies when the showdown comes. May we be able to face ourselves as we look into the mirror when we shave in the morning.

and there are few signs that justify any confidence in the ability of the bureaucrats to cope with the rapidly ascending spiral of inflation. Hampered as all of us are going to be as we undertake to conduct our economic lives, we shall need all of the encouragement of the sort that is provided by the report of the Jernigan brothers in their announcement of how much they and those who are associated with them contributed toward making all of us keep going.

I hope that when 1952 rolls around, the Mills County Commission Company will be able to make as good or even a better report than they are able to make at this time. Some day, we can hope, this good country of ours can get back to operating on the basic principles of free enterprise. Malcolm and Sig Jernigan are fine examples of what able, hard-working men can do under a system of free enterprise. We need more of it—much more.
