Even Bachelors Call Mrs. Graves About Red Cross Maternal Care!

You don't have to be planning to have a baby—you can be a bachelor, a grandparent or just anybody who wants to contribute to the strength of our country by taking, in Goldthwaite, an American Red Cross course in mother and baby care.

So read on, please. Classes, to be taught by Mrs. M. Y. Stokes, Jr., will start next Tuesday afternoon at the Baptist Education Building on Fisher Street. So the very first thing readers are asked to do is to telephone to Mrs. T. C. Graves at 199-J and enroll for the course which, starting next Tuesday afternoon, will be conducted every Tuesday and Friday afternoon from three o'clock to five o'clock. Mrs. Graves is American Red Cross Home Nursing Chairman for Mills County. The 12 hour course to be taught by Mrs. Stokes will provide instruction in what to do before, during and after the baby's arrival; what to do as the baby grows; and how community health affects the general welfare. The purpose of the Red Cross, at a time of proclaimed national emergency, is to educate two per cent of the American populace in home nursing. That is why you do NOT have to be a prospective parent to get on the telephone right now and call Mrs. Graves at 199-J and enroll for the course that Mrs. Stokes will start next Tuesday afternoon.

The Red Cross Home Nursing Program is going great guns in Mill County. Miss Maxine Geeslin, Goldthwaite School Nurse, has just completed giving a course in general home nursing and the following have qualified for certificates as having completed the course:

Mrs. David O. Clements, Mrs. Jim Long, Mrs. Floyd Platt, Mrs. Daisy Wrinkle, Mrs. A. L. Cole, Mrs. Lyman Saylor, Mrs. Louise Long, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Jr., Mrs. Olen Kemp, Mrs. Bill Yeager, Mrs. J. D. Walton, Mrs. Dickie Sparkman, and Mrs. Frank P. Bowman.

Miss Geeslin is also teaching home nursing to a class of girls at the Goldthwaite High School.

Home Nursing also is being taught by Mrs. John L. Gwin, County School Nurse, at Mullin, Priddy and Star. At Priddy Mrs. Gwin has two classes, including ten school girls and ten adults. At Mullin 16 school girls and 16 adults are taking the course, and at Star ten school girls and 12 adults are studying home nursing under the instruction of Mrs. Gwin.

Miss Geeslin, Mrs. Stokes and Mrs. Gwin recently took a Red Cross refresher course at Brownwood to be brought up to date on the latest teaching methods that were devised to meet the national emergency and to help to attain the goal of a public widely educated in home nursing.

Sheriff Issues Reminder About New Car Plates

Time is running out so quickly that again this week Sheriff C. F. Stubblefield reminded all persons who have not yet obtained their 1951 automobile and truck plates that the deadline is March 31—one week from tomorrow, Saturday.

This week Sheriff Stubblefield was notified by the Texas Highway Department that there will be no period of grace in obtaining 1951 vehicle registrations and that after March 31 penalties will be effective.

Sheriff Stubblefield said that he and the members of his staff are anxious to avoid any delays in issuing car and truck registration plates and so again he reminded, all applicants that it will be necessary for them to show not only last year's registration receipt but also their vehicle titles.

"A last minute rush and consequent delays can be avoided if those who have not yet obtained their 1950 vehicle registrations apply promptly," Sheriff Stubblefield said. He added that at his office in the Mills County Court House Deputies John L. Patterson, Clyde Cockrum and W. B. Summy are prepared to give fast action to all those who have not yet applied for their new plates.

CITY POLITICS

Under the headline, "Goldthwaite Politics," the Dallas Morning News on Monday of this week published a reminder that in Goldthwaite there will be a city election on April 3 for the selection of two Aldermen. The Dallas Morning News noted that Jesse C. Moreland and H. Everett Holland are running unopposed for the two seats on the City Council.

Red Cross Fund Nears Half Way Mark In County

With $1,206.73 already reported as collected by the co-chairmen who are working with him, Warren P. Duren, Mills County Campaign Director announced this week that the 1951 American Red Cross fund is well on the way to the half-way mark on the road to the goal of $2,800.00.

Mr. Duren said that Ridge, Ebony and Scallorn already have exceeded their 1951 Red Cross quotas. The chairmen in the communities that have completed their drives are W. H. Freeman, Hubert Reeves and M. F. Hines, respectively.

Progress reports, Mr. Duren said, have been received from Glynn Sanedrs of Mullin, S. M. McCasland of Center City, W. A. Triplett of Pompey Creek, and C. A. Page of Big Valley.

Ray Duren, who is Red Cross campaign chairman for the City of Goldthwaite, reported as the Eagle went to press this week that his co-workers already have raised $787.36 toward their quota of $1,295.00. He said it was his intention to complete the campaign in Goldthwaite this week and he was confident that the quota would be exceeded. A total of 18 committees are working in behalf of the Red Cross in Goldthwaite alone, Ray Duren pointed out. He requested that any contributors who might have been overlooked by solicitors send their donations directly to him.

Warren Duren announced receipt of the following sums: Mullin, $140.00; Center City, $47.70; Pompey Creek, $40.50; Big Valley, $51.60; Ridge, $24.77; Ebony, $60.80; and Scallorn, $54.00.

He said he was confident that the Mills County overall 1951 quota would be met within the allotted time—before the end of March.

Willis A. Hill Is President Of New Co-op Group

An organization of telephone cooperatives for the purpose of creating a central agency for the joint solution of mutual problems was brought into being at the Mills County Court House on Wednesday of last week.

Other officers are: Vice President, J. C. Turney of Dublin; Secretary, John Love of Ranger; and Assistant Secretary, the Rev. W. S. Clark of Comanche.

Ernest E. Wilson, who is Secretary of the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative, said that the Association of Cooperatives will be expanded. In its present form it represents the nucleus that will include other Cooperatives as they are established. At present, and in addition to the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative, which has its headquarters in Goldthwaite, it includes in its membership Cooperatives which have their headquarters in Comanche, Ranger, Dublin and Stephenville.

The organization meeting also was attended by Robert E. Beeghly and E. G. Ammons of the Telephone Division of the Rural Electrification Administration, Washington, D. C.

Carl Letbetter Is Moving Shop To The Linkenhoger Works

The Carl Letbetter Welding Shop and the Linkenhoger Machine Shop are about to join forces, it was announced this week by W. H. Linkenhoger and Mr. Letbetter.

The Letbetter Weldery, which has been doing business on Third Street, east of Fisher Street, is moving into the Linkenhoger Machine Shop on Parker Street, north of the Post Office. Much of the Linkenhoger stock and machinery will be taken over by Mr. Letbetter but Mr. Linkenhoger will retain and continue to operate the precious lathes and other equipment with which he performs such miracles.

"I hope to have completed the move of the Weldery by April 1," Mr. Letbetter said this week.

Moving back into familiar surroundings will be A. L. Cole, who was a blacksmith with Mr. Linkenhoger for 13 years but who has been with Mr. Letbetter for the past couple of years.

Further details of the Linkenhoger-Letbetter goings-on will be announced later.

Mills County 4-H Club Members Start New Calf Feeding Projects

With the 1951 livestock shows a matter of history, Mills County 4-H Club calf feeders again are pointing to the future.

County Agent George G. Reese said this week that with more calves yet to be acquired, Mills County 4-H Club boys and girls now have 19 new calves and two carry-overs.

The carry-overs are Herefords with which Wayne Poe took third place and with which Dana Saylor took sixth place in the lightweight wet lot division at the Odessa Show. At the same exposition Leo Reynolds took seventh place in the heavy-weight dry lot division but his calf, weighing 1,020 pounds, was sold at Odessa for 48 cents a pound.

Newly-acquired calves were listed by Mr. Reese as follows: The Wigley Brothers—Johnny and Jimmy of Durenville—four Hereford calves obtained from Fitzsimmons, Willis A. Hill, and J. C. Dibrell and J. E. Burleson, the latter two of Coleman.

The Owens Brothers—Davis and John Howard of Center City—two Aberdeen-Angus calves from Tommy Brook of Camp San Saba.

Dana and Shirley Saylor of Goldthwaite, one Fitzsimmons Hereford each—in addition to Dana's carry-over.

Merlon, Leo and Modene Reynolds of Caradan Route, four Hereford calves, including two Fitzsimmons and two from R. A. Halbert of Sonora.

Larry O'Banon of Scallorn, two Aberdeen-Angus calves from Mrs. Flo Wilke's Shady Oaks Ranch.

In addition to the above, five new calves are on feed by Bobby Zane Egger of Star. One is a Fitzsimmons and four are Egger bred.

Never mind if it is March and the rebuds, ty-ty's and cydonia are blooming. All the same it is gridiron season in Goldthwaite and it will be real football Friday night with the intramural game at Eagle Field bringing out just as much competitive spirit as if the boys were out to win a crucial Conference tussle. They have been pointing toward the game ever since February 25, when spring training began, and dyed in the wool football fans—of which there are reputed to be a great many in these parts—ought to welcome a chance to get out and scream and holler and have the fun of pretending that the golden days of autumn are here again. All that is necessary to have a good football game is to have the players take it seriously—and that they can be depended upon to do at Eagle Field tonight, Friday. (Continued on Page 9.)

Downtown Men's Bible Class To Hear Crucifixion's Legal Aspects

The Downtown Men's Bible Class of Goldthwaite, aspiring to another record attendance when it meets at 9:30 o'clock on Easter morning at the Melba Theater on the north side of the Square, will have a most interesting program presented by Frank P. Bowman, it was announced this week by Delton Barnett, President.

Mr. Barnett said that Mr. Bowman, who is the Assistant Teacher of the Class as well as a lawyer, will discuss the legal aspects of the crucifixion of Jesus—just with special emphasis on his arrest by the Roman soldiery and his trial before Pontius Pilot.

In addition to the address by Mr. Bowman, extra special music for next Sunday morning has been planned by W. C. Frazier, Song Leader of the Downtown Men's Bible Class.

Last Easter Sunday the Downtown Men's Bible Class surpassed its goal of a record attendance and this week President Barnett was confident that a new, all-time high record will be achieved next Sunday, especially because of the unique and absorbing angle of the Easter tide that has been selected by Mr. Bowman for his topic. Mr. Bowman, Mr. Barnett said, the persecution, trial and execution of Jesus.

"We would like to see standing room only at the Melba Theater on Sunday morning," Mr. Barnett said. "Come, join with us—down in the alley, just off the square"—and listen to Mr. Bowman's presentation of the results of his delving."

Firemen Respond To Pair Of Alarms

The Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department, with V. A. Hudson driving the truck, extinguished a brush fire along the railroad right of way near First Street on Saturday afternoon of last week. The same afternoon, Fire Chief Jack Reid and W. C. Barnett took off in a great rush for Democrat to fight a fire that spread over an area of 600 or 700 acres—southeast of Democrat. Chief Jack Reid and Mr. Barnett left for the Democrat brush fire about five o'clock and returned, wearily, about 10:00 p. m. Both fire trucks were given a good maintenance going-over in the warm sun of last Monday afternoon.

On Tuesday of this week the firemen also extinguished a small grass fire on the Wellie Saylor property in Goldthwaite.

Telephone Co-op Leases Building In Goldthwaite

Lease of the building which, until recently housed the Shepherd Hatchery, to the Central Texas Telephone Co-operative for its use as a headquarters office was announced this week by Willis A. Hill, President of the Co-op.

The building is located in Goldthwaite on Fourth Street between the Square and the Santa Fe railroad tracks. The lease will run for a term of 15 years.

At present the structure, which has a floor area of 4,500 square feet, is being used by the Goldthwaite Electric Company for its expanded Philco line.

For the present, it was understood, the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative will require only part of the space for its headquarters and main offices. Following completion of an engineering survey and the establishment of the Co-op as a going concern, the space required by it can readily be extended.

The Central Texas Telephone Cooperative, which will provide dial telephone service for a rural area that extends from Goldthwaite into eight other Counties, now is on the verge of an engineering survey which (Continued on Back Page.)

A "MORAL RESPONSIBILITY"

This is the third week in a row that we have given considerable space to plans for the free chest X-ray examinations that again this year will be offered to the public by the Texas State Department of Health in cooperation with a committee of local citizens headed by Howard Campbell. We intend to continue to give publicity to this important project in every way that we can right up to the very dates for the free chest X-rays on May 5, 7, 8 and 9. Here is why: In a statement contained in a news story that is published elsewhere in this week's Eagle, Mr. Campbell points out that while more than 1,800 persons took advantage of the free chest X-ray examinations here last year, there were some 2,500 persons who did NOT. The mighty effort that is being made to detect and then to eradicate tuberculosis has a personal meaning to every one of us, and the least that can be expected is that everybody will want to know where he stands regarding tuberculosis for his own sake—even if he does not care about what harm he might do to others. As Mr. Campbell rightly points out, the opportunity that will be provided by the X-ray program also involves moral responsibility—which still is of great concern at the grassroots in this country, even though there is a conspicuous lack of it in certain high places. As Mr. Campbell also points out, the chest X-rays are paid for by all of us, even if they are described as "free." So there is no question of charity involved. Further, little time will be required for the examinations.

We suggest that between now and the first week in May, those who took the chest X-rays last year—and who can be expected to repeat this year—make it their business to tell everybody how easy it was.

With some 1,800 convinced advocates of chest X-rays right in our own midst and with more than a month in which to work, it ought to be a simple matter to have every Mills County citizen over the age of 15 report for examinations during the 1951 project. Let's all work together to assure a maximum of success in the effort to eradicate tuberculosis. Detection comes first; it is the purpose of the chest X-ray examinations.

ARE YOU SET FOR CLEAN-UP WEEK?

All around the town house-proud and civic-minded citizens have been working hard these days to beautify the grounds around their homes; many home owners have planted shrubs and bushes, they have put top soil on their lawns and they have been pruning and raking. All of the activity is a good augury for the Clean-Up Week that the City of Goldthwaite, in cooperation with the Civic Committee of the Goldthwaite Garden Club, will sponsor here from April 2 through April 7. With so many citizens toiling away to make Goldthwaite more and more attractive in appearance, it is to be hoped that those who are responsible for the eye-sores that mar the view in all too many places will see to it that they are cleaned up before the end of Clean-Up Week.

Mayor Loy Long and the City Council have arranged to truck away trash and debris during Clean-Up Week. Thus, it will be difficult for anyone to find an excuse for letting unsightly places continue to detract from the good work that is being done by so many and to which the Garden Club's Civic Committee points with pride.

For the most part, unoccupied lots in every section of Goldthwaite are the worst offenders of the public interest in having an attractive city in which to live and to which to attract business. Anybody riding around in an automobile and who has normal vision can see where the application of Clean-Up Week is needed most. Any eye-sores that remain in our city after April 7 will be testimony that their owners just don't care whether Goldthwaite puts its best foot forward.

We are printing this editorial well in advance of Clean-Up Week so that if some of the trash-filled and brush-clogged lots in Goldthwaite are owned by people who live away from here, they can either come home and clean-up their property or arrange with somebody here to do it for them. Those who permit unsightly spots to continue to mar the Goldthwaite landscape can count on being most unpopular with the great majority of people who are proving by their deeds that they want this city to be pleasing to the eye and satisfying to worthy pride.

Washington News

Editor's Note: The following is a "hand-out" from the Washington office of U. S. Senator Tom Connally, Democrat of Texas. It was written in Senator Connally's office and it was distributed to newspapers by the Senator's office.

Senator Tom Connally has announced his vigorous support of a proposed amendment to the Defense Production Act which would exempt farm prices from ceilings.

The amendment was suggested by Senator Maybank, chairman of the Senate Banking and Currency Committee, after the Administration fixed ceilings on raw cotton. It would provide:

"Prices for agricultural commodities when sold by farmers in the form in which generally sold by farmers are exempted from any price controls."

At a hearing on the cotton price matter before the congressional Joint Defense Production Committee, Connally argued for ceilings on the finished cotton goods, instead of on raw cotton, as recommended by the Department of Agriculture.

"That is what the consumer buys," Connally declared. "He does not go in and say 'Give me ten pounds of raw cotton.' He goes in and buys a yard of cloth or something of that kind."

Connally, however, opposed the part of the Agriculture Department plan which provided for limiting exports of cotton. This, he told Agriculture Secretary Charles Brannan, "would tend to reduce domestic prices. The only place the farmer sells the cotton is the domestic market. He does not take it on his back to Europe; he sells it here at home."

The Senator charged Price Stabilizer Michael DiSalle, a former mayor of Toledo, with attempting "to reduce everything you buy and raise the prices of everything you sell."

"You let the cat out of the bag," Connally told DiSalle, "when you said, in talking about the price of cotton and the raising of cotton, that you did not raise any cotton in Ohio but you consumed a lot of it. In other words, you were trying to regulate the price to the consumer, weren't you?"

DiSalle: Yes.

Connally: All right. Do you not, when you regulate the finished manufactured product? ... If you put ceilings on that, would not that do the job better than this thing you have now?

DiSalle: It will not.

Connally: How do you know? Have you ever seen it tried?

DiSalle: I just know that you cannot control the finished product if you do not control the basic elements that go into that. (Continued on page 11)

The Eagle's

By The Editor

Frank P. Bowman of the National Farm Loan Association pulled the crack of the week and the editor prints it here even if it does involve bringing onto the printed page once again Eric B. Adams and Harry Allen, whose dreams of Knighthood by King George VI may have been shattered by the foul theft of the replica of the Stone of Scorne from the Adams Monument Works.

Mr. Bowman, possibly trying to console Mr. Allen, pointed to the law. The law of the land says that without a specific Act of Congress, no American citizen may accept an honor such as Knighthood if he holds a position of trust or profit with his own government. Continuing his line of logic, Mr. Bowman reasoned that Mr. Allen has a government gauge with which he measures rainfall, if any, in these parts. That may not be a position of profit, but it most certainly places Mr. Allen in a post of public trust, Mr. Bowman, pointed out.

Then, reverting to the previously publicized dream of a Knighthood for Mr. Allen, who thought up the replica of the Stone of Scorne for Mr. Adams, Mr. Bowman came up with this kicker: "You know, if it takes an Act of Congress, then Congress definitely is NOT going to come up with an Act in behalf of anybody named Harry!"

Some further comment on Mr. Adams and his replica of the Stone of Scorne has come from Liss "Old Friday" Walker, who now lives in Austin. Mr. Walker wrote as follows:

"I would like to tell Mr. Adams, the maker of the Stone of Scorne, that knowing them as I do, he should keep his eye on Bear Allen and W. H. Linkenhog. Of course, I am not making any accusations." It should be understood definitely that Mr. Walker's opinions are his own and do not necessarily represent the attitude of this newspaper.

Mr. Walker also had a message for the Eagle's Chappell Hill correspondent, Miss Pearl Crawford. The message will bear some pondering but here it is: "... I would like to advise Miss Pearl Crawford to be careful with her electric eels. They might shock her modesty." The editor, not knowing enough about electric eels, leaves that one to Mr. Walker and Miss Crawford. He has heard that electric eels are capable of giving shock but what they might do to "modesty" is a matter that requires considerable thought.

Of course, Mr. Walker never lets a letter fly without having a whack at events on the national political scene. The latest communication from Old Friday started out this way: "I have been sitting by my radio and I have been listening to 'Gang Busters.' I just wondered why they did not ever work in Washington. It seems to me to be high time that some changes were being made. First, weed all of the Communists out of Washington. ... Then get out the warmongers and would-be dictators. Cut out the United Nations and give General MacArthur full authority to use his own judgment, cross the 38th parallel, go into China or Russia, and anywhere else he damn well pleases. I think the name of the Big One is that trouble with is that they respect for the in some cases their words."

April 7 Set As Date For Wedding Of Jeanne Thomas, Mark Fairman

April 7 has been set as the date for the marriage of Miss Jeanne Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sid B. Thomas of Lockney, and Mark Fairman, son of Mrs. Lucile Fairman of Goldthwaite.

The engagement was announced last week by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas at their home in Lockney, where the wedding ceremony will occur at eight o'clock on the night of April 7.

Miss Thomas was graduated from Lockney High School and Baylor University. She is teaching at present in the Junior High School at Pecos, where Mr. Fairman is stationed with the Highway Patrol of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Mr. Fairman was graduated from Goldthwaite High School in 1940. A veteran of World War II, he entered the Army Air Force in November of 1942. After training at Waco, Uvalde and San Antonio and at various other Air Force stations in the United States, he was sent overseas. After the war he reenlisted and saw service in Alaska. He attended Texas University and was graduated from Texas A. & I. College at Kingsville, after which he served for a year in the merchant marine. Mr. Fairman has been a member of the Highway Patrol since March 1, 1950.

Following their marriage next month, the couple plan to make their home in Pecos.

Goldthwaite HD Members Suppress Tales Of Embarrassing Moments

A "beauty jamboree," about which the Goldthwaite Home Demonstration Club has been talking for quite a while in hushed, guarded tones, finally is going to be held on Tuesday of next week with Mrs. Glenn Lewis as the hostess.

Giving a clue as to just what other permanent waves.

"Bring what you will need for your permanents and by all means bring a dish full of food," Mrs. Nickols said in announcing that the members of the Goldthwaite H. D. Club will gather at her home at 9:30 o'clock next Tuesday morning. Then they will proceed to the Lewis home and devote the day to gilding the lillies.

On Tuesday of last week the Club met with Mrs. Nickols as hostess and with 12 members present. They had what Mrs. Nickols described as an interesting program revolving around discussion of courtesy cues for public places. But the most interesting part of the meeting must have been the roll call, to which the ladies responded by telling of their most embarrassing moments. The nearest to a public statement that Mrs. Nickols would make on so absorbing and fascinating a topic was: "We had lots of good laughs over it." If only there were written minutes of the answers to the roll call—and if only they could be printed. What a story that could be!

is a "beauty jamboree," Mrs. Eula Nickols, Club Reporter, said: "We're all going to look pretty when we get back." Then the story came out. It seems that at the "beauty jamboree" at the home of Mrs. Glenn Lewis on Tuesday of next week, the members will give each

Garden Club Needs Many More Meadolake Margarine End Flaps

IRENE SOARS ON END FLAPS

As a contribution to the effort of the Goldthwaite Garden Club to finance the landscaping of the grounds at the Jennie Trent Dew Library, R. E. Clements has written a poem, which he has presented to the Club. The poem, entitled, "Meadolake Margarine," can be sung to the tune of "Good Night Irene." Here it is:

By R. E. CLEMENTS

Let's use the Meadolake Margarine
And save those little flaps.
We'll get a nickel in return
And many more, perhaps.

CHORUS

Irene goodnight
Irene goodnight.
Use Meadolake,
The Margarine,
And help the Library.

Our Library's your Library,
Let's lend a helping hand.
Then we'll have the best

In all the promised land.

We were sorry when the news came that Mr. E. B. Adams' replica of the Stone of Scone had been stolen. We hope that it will be returned very soon.

(Editor's Note: The attention of readers is drawn to the fact that while Miss Crawford's heart bleeds for Mr. Adams over his loss of the Goldthwaite Stone of Scone, there is not a word anywhere in her column this week about the famous Chappell Hill electric eels.)

Predicting the weather is a thing of the past. We do wonder, sometimes, just how much damage the cold caused.

The Billie McNeerlin orchard is in bloom but Mrs. McNeerlin expressed fear that their grain had been damaged by the cold.

At the J. S. Ivy home it looks bleak for this time of the year. Mrs. Ivy usually has so many pretty flowers in the early spring. Often they are peppered with their cousin Indian paint brushes. Then, usually, there are the wild plum blossoms from the hillsides to add to the beauty thrill of a lifetime.

Jaycees And Lions Talk Phone Co-op

With members of the Goldthwaite Lions Club as their guests, the Goldthwaite Junior Chamber of Commerce met at the Hangar on Wednesday night of last week for a discussion on plans for and the significance of the Central Texas Telephone Cooperative. President Eugene L. Dyas said that Loan Appraiser Robert E. Beeghly and Field Representative E. G. Ammons, both of the Telephone Division of the Rural Electrification Administration, attended the meeting and answered questions regarding the project that is to provide modern, dial rural telephone service in a nine-county area that will have Goldthwaite as headquarters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Palmer spent Saturday, visiting in Fort Worth.

State statutes provide that the office of the Secretary of State in Austin send commissions to County Judges for distribution following the receipt of certificates of election and qualification.

Free Chest X-Ray Project Will Give Opportunity To All Citizens

Howard Campbell, Chairman of the 1951 free chest X-ray project that will be conducted in Mills County on May 5, 7, 8 and 9 in cooperation with the Texas State Department of Health said this week that every effort will be made to have every citizen over 15 years of age take advantage of a great opportunity in the field of preventive medicine. In a statement, Mr. Campbell said:

"Last year, at the X-ray program given in Goldthwaite, there were 1875 people who had pictures made of their chest. There were 42 persons who were notified to go to their doctor for a complete physical, which is a small per cent. However, the 2500 people who stayed at home and did not have their chests X-rayed could be carrying a greater per cent of deadly disease than the 1875 who did

Troop 77 Scouts Change Meeting Day To Thursday

Boy Scouts of Goldthwaite troop number 77, at a meeting early last Saturday morning at the First Methodist Church, decided that from now they will meet at seven o'clock every Thursday night.

Troop 77 has a busy schedule, for every Monday and Wednesday nights its members take first aid training at the Mills County Court House under the instruction of Brian Smith, Executive Secretary of the Mills County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

The Troop, which was organized only a few months ago, has James Wesley Nickols as Leader of the Crow Patrol, while Larry Day is Leader of the Apache Patrol. The Patrols now are studying map making and reading and use of the compass on their hikes. Other hiking skills are included in the program.

Ben R. Day is Scoutmaster of Troop 77 and James Nickols and Ernest Beckham are the Assistant Scoutmasters.

have their chests X-rayed.

"It is estimated that the X-ray machine can make pictures of two persons per minute, therefore you can have your chest X-rayed in a matter of minutes.

"Transportation will be furnished to every person in Mills County. If you do not have transportation simply notify the committee on transportation or the County Judge's office.

"The school buses will run from every community.

"Every person in Mills County who has reached the age of 15 years should come in for the X-ray. We advertise the X-ray pictures as free. They have already been paid for by the tax payers of the state and county, so come along and get what you have already paid for. It is not charity. You have already paid for it. No one has the moral right not to have the X-ray picture made, as we may be TB carriers and may be endangering the lives of the children of the community.

"It has been determined that these pictures are beneficial in locating heart trouble, cancer of the lungs, tumors of the chest as well as tuberculosis and adult people are more susceptible to these ailments than younger people.

"As to shocking our modesty, there is nothing embarrassing or painful to the most delicate persons and there will be lady hostesses and school girls to register you at all times.

"We feel that it is the duty of every good citizen in Mills County and that it is her moral obligation to have their chest X-rayed on one of the 4 days, MAY 5, 7, 8 and 9."

We shivered Sunday with another weekend norther, but it wasn't so bad as the one last week. At Church we were encouraged to find, despite the drouth, thrifty, deep purple irises blooming in a protected corner on the south side of the school house. They were planted there by Mrs. J. R. Reeves when she taught the last school at the Ebony school house about six years ago.

Jimmy Wilkins, T. D. Wilkins, and Woodrow Spinks sheared sheep for Clayton Egger, Charm Whittenburg, and Edward Egger last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Egger of Regency visited with Mrs. Effie Egger Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Hubert Reeves, Mrs. Effie Egger, and Mrs. Stanley Reeves are attending the home nursing classes being given at Mullin each Wednesday.

Roy Teague of San Saba County visited Ernest Malone Sunday night and Monday.

Kay Roberts visited his cousin, Albert Hardin, this past week. He says he and Mrs. Roberts and Carol are located in Brownwood now.

June Wilkins of Mullin spent Saturday with Mrs. Effie Egger.

We see a tractor plowing in the field and someone living in the house at the place sold by Kay Roberts to Rex Mahan Sr. Though we asked many, we could not learn the name of the occupants. That will have to come later.

We were greatly encouraged to find this week both the Brownwood Banner and the Goldthwaite Eagle carrying front page news stories concerning the probable early realization of our Central Texas

Telephone Cooperative. After Bible study and worship Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Briley and Mrs. Edna Dwyer went on to Oakland where they were having preaching, dinner on the ground, and singing. Numa Crowder, minister of the Church of Christ at Davenport, Iowa, did the preaching. He and Mrs. Crowder and their little daughter, Elaine, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crowder. Numa is well known to every one here as he grew up here. He served in the U. S. Air Corps in World War II. After the war he attended Abilene Christian College. There he met his wife. She was Miss Ruth Benson, daughter of Dr. Benson, President of Harding College at Searcy, Arkansas. She was born in China where her parents spent several years as missionaries.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Reeves and children, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Reeves, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Egger and Ynell attended services at Oakland Sunday.

Cecil Egger hears from his step sister, Mrs. Nelson Williams, of Junction that they have bought land at Nashville, Ark., and intend to move there. This is very interesting to me, since on the day after Christmas, 1891, Mrs. Crowder and her boys took my mother and us children in their wagon to Brownwood where we boarded the train for Nashville, Arkansas. It was my first train ride, and I was scared within an inch of my life. I had always been so afraid of trains. But once inside, I was never afraid again. We stayed all night in Fort Worth with my mother's sister, and we rode the

Dickie Sparkman Is Examined By Army

L. A. "Dickie" Sparkman, a member of the staff at the Goldthwaite Post Office, reported to Fort Hood on Tuesday of this week for a physical examination. A Lieutenant in the organized reserve, he commands the organized reserve unit in Goldthwaite. As the Eagle went to press this week, Mr. Sparkman said he had not yet received orders recalling him to active duty.

Misses Woodall and Mary Nell Wilson of Hubbard left Monday afternoon after spending a few days with Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Ayers.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Highower, Gale and June of Irvin were here recently visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Highower and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Burns.

New electric street car right to her door. The next night we boarded the train again, and the next day my father met us at Nashville in our hack. He took us to Corinth seven miles north of Nashville where he had been teaching in a small college since September. We spent two years there. It was then a country of tall pines in whose spring woods you could find running brooks, tall ferns, wild violets, flowering crab apples, dogwood blossoms, May apples, and huckleberry blooms. The rail fence corners were full of wild blackberry vines taller than your head, and there were lots of chiggers. Most every house had a spinning wheel and loom. Now I hear that a Northern Company has bought up the land, cut away the pines, and made it into the largest Elberta peach orchard in the world.

We are sorry that Mrs. W. P. Ledbetter was so sick. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Noel Ledbetter, was her nurse. I liked Mrs. Ledbetter very much. This was the first time that I had met her.

Mr. Ledbetter asked me if A. L. Crawford had bought some more sheep—he had seen a large herd at his farm that afternoon.

We were happy to learn that Mrs. O. Nauert has recovered from her rheumatism. Henry was putting a new grain drill together. Hilda had gone to see after the sheep.

Mrs. J. V. Gage was busy with her chickens. Mrs. Alford Brown and her daughter had spent the afternoon with her.

W. P. Oxford and his sons were grinding feed. Mrs. Oxford had prepared supper for the family.

They have a new washing machine at the N. C. Karnes home. Mrs. Karnes said it was handy, as she can pick her wash days and does not have so much running around to do with the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Partin were busy at their home. Mr. Partin was building sideboards for their new pickup, while Mrs. Partin was cleaning the yard.

B. J. Crawford suffered a pain in his arm on Thursday of last week. He was taken to the Slaughter Clinic in Goldthwaite for treatment.

The little lambs were dancing in the sunshine at the F. H. Tiemann home.

O. A. Evans' arm is much better. A man called at the Evans home and asked if he wanted to sell the team of mules that he had seen near the house. Mr. Evans said "no." Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Evans knew the man—they think he is a new-comer and does not live so far away.

We all wonder how Carl Grell's fresh-sheared goats made out during the cold spell.

Mary and Dorothy Conner were keeping house while Mrs. Conner was gathering up the eggs. Mr. Conner had gone to the mail box.

Tommy Partin visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Partin.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stevens have their flower beds and vegetable garden ready for planting. They always plant on Good Friday—which is an old family custom.

B. F. Humphries was at his mountain farm all last week planting corn.

At this time the sun is bright and warm. The cows and sheep are picking around to see if they can find a sprig of green grass.

We are glad that the sick all are feeling much better. We all hope the boys' arms will be well soon.

Our community Red Cross campaign went over in a big way because everyone was so enthusiastic.

Kendall Worsens

The unhappy news came this week that Otto Kendall, who now is a patient in a Veterans Administration hospital at Memphis, Tennessee, after having been hospitalized for many months at Temple is not doing well. Mrs. Kendall, who is with her husband, expressed the fear that he will not walk again. Mrs. Kendall also reported with obvious distaste that Memphis is covered with snow.

concerns can now obtain needed loans, if they are justified, from banks and other private lending agencies. So here's another way to economize on a non-essential project. Essential RFC functions could easily be transferred to other government lending agencies.

The third bill voted on last week—a Defense Housing measure—was rejected by the House. It was so drawn that much non-essential spending and waste could conceivably have resulted, estimated to cost up to three billion dollars. The bill would have permitted the President to have designated any area he might choose, without justifying reasons, as a defense housing area and permit the Government to go into those places and build houses, streets, sewer systems, recreational facilities, hospitals, day care centers, schools and everything that is needed in a community. The sky would be the limit on where, when and how much Uncle Sam could spend on such projects. I voted with a majority in disapproving this vast spending proposal. Another housing bill to meet any actual unfilled defense area needs is now under study by the committee which reported the measure that was defeated.

If freight and travel volume serve as a barometer of the expansion of our economy, Dr. Walter W. M. Splawn, the Texas on the Interstate Commerce Commission, told a dramatic story in a few words and figures when he spoke to the Texas delegation luncheon last week. From 1939 to 1949 the ton miles of freight moved in this country jumped from 527 billion tons to 870 billion. In trucks alone it skyrocketed from 44 to 94 billion. Bus travel went from five to 20 billion ton miles from 1939 to 1949. The biggest gain, though, was noted in airway travel when the 1949 volume exceeded the 1939 figure six-fold. It jumped from six billion ton miles in 1949 to eight billion last year, and is still zooming.

Speaking of Dr. Splawn, he is a former President of Texas University and has served for around two decades on the ICC. Widely regarded as one of the Nation's leading authorities on transportation, he is every bit a Texan and numbers personal friends and admirers by the thousands. Speaker Sam Rayburn eulogized Dr. Splawn as the man whose views have for years been the most respected on Capitol Hill on subjects pertaining to his specialty.

In Washington to confer with Pentagon officials last week regarding the availability of Laughlin Field as a training center by the Air Force were John Dodson, Jr., Roger Wheeler, L. B. Duke and Phillip Ricks. En route here the Del Rions ran into plenty of rain and fog which would have looked a lot better to them in Texas. They were forced to park their plane in Louisville, Ky., and proceed the rest of the way by train. Laughlin Field, used as a bombardier training center during the last war, is still owned by the Government. It is estimated that six million dollars' worth of concrete and utilities are intact and in good condition on the field.

News Of Scallorn

By ORA BLACK
The subject most discussed out our way when you meet with a neighbor is, was your garden killed by the freeze? and nine out of ten will say I didn't have one thing left. Well, gardens are a very important item these days with store bought groceries advancing in prices every 24 hours. We who have the pleasure of growing two thirds of what we eat and storing it away in deep freezes and with the use of home canners will be wondering just how we are to make ends meet if it doesn't rain soon and these northers don't let up. With Easter just around the corner we may well expect a cold spell to follow then—maybe spring.

Beginning Friday night the 23rd there will be services at the Scallorn Baptist Church on through the Easter holidays. Following the eleven o'clock services lunch will be spread by the ladies while the men make old time boiled coffee out under the old live oaks where the first such coffee was made 35 years ago, and like Miss Eula's rock if this old tree could talk our minds could be renewed by many happy occasions.

Members of the Scallorn Church met in conference Sunday night and called Rev. Pankhurst to full time pastorate. Up to now the church was going half time.

News Of The Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District

Twenty-four farmers and ranchers met in the Mullin School gymnasium Thursday night, March 15, at the invitation of Don Clark, vocational agricultural teacher of Mullin, and heard Ben R. Day, Work Unit Conservationist of Goldthwaite, discuss grasses. Henry Turney, Range Conservationist from Dublin, was scheduled to speak, but was ill.

In discussing the characteristics of the various grasses, Mr. Day gave the forage production of ten native grasses and their season of use. The high forage producing grasses were big bluestem, little bluestem, Indian grass, and side oats grama. The low producing grasses are Texas grama, hairy triodia, three awn (needlegrass) and buffalo grass. In a six inch column of soil taken from a pasture in excellent condition, Day showed that water flowed through the soil freely while a similar soil sample from an overgrazed pasture allowed no water to run through in 45 minutes.

Charles Haenisch showed several slides featuring soil improving crops of vetch, Madrid clover, and Hubam clover that local farmers and ranchers are using also for grazing. The pictures were made on the farms of Jim Soules, Sherwood Owens, Brit Berry, J. H. Priddy, V. C. Segelquist and Harold Beard. Pictures of various grasses growing on the ranches of Carey Owens, L. B. Burnham, Dr. T. C. Graves, V. C. Segelquist, and E. J. Drucekhammer were also shown by slides.

Pete Smith, Blanket Springs rancher, told how he had wintered his livestock on a deferred pasture this year with cake as the only supplemental feed. Mr. Smith and C. W. Holden from the Pompey Community have good examples of reseeding old fields to native grasses.

Don Clark reviewed the growth progress of the Pilca Butta (dry land alfalfa) that was planted on the T. C. Chaney and Ernest Lynn Fisher farms. Pete Smith and C. W. Holden will plant their Pilca Butta seed soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse J. Saegert of Austin, with their children, visited friends in Goldthwaite on Friday of last week. Mr. Saegert now is busily engaged in selling furniture in Austin.

Draft Board Has Important News For Registrants

Information of great importance to every man of draft age was announced this week by Charles Frizzelle of Goldthwaite. Mr. Frizzelle is the Mills County representative on Selective Service Board number 84, which maintains its headquarters in Lampasas. The information that was issued by Mr. Frizzelle follows:

Erigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state director of Selective Service, reminded all men registered with local draft boards that the law requires them to report any change in personal status to their respective boards.

"Young men have asked us by telephone and letter just what changes are required to be reported," General Wakefield said. "Generally, anything which may have a bearing on classification should be reported."

The state director pointed to the following things which would be regarded as a change of personal status:

1. Change of address. This is a change in the address at which a man expects to receive his mail.

2. Change in marital status. If a man marries, he should advise the local board of the name of the person he marries, the place and date of marriage, and name of county in which the marriage is recorded. If he has children, date and place of birth should be named, and place where birth is recorded. If he becomes separated, divorced, or his wife dies, this should be reported.

3. Change of job. The local board should be advised only if this is a permanent change.

4. Change in physical status. If a man has had a serious injury or has otherwise acquired a physical defect, it should be reported whether it is permanent or temporary.

5. Students. If a man becomes a student in a school, college, or university; this fact should be reported.

6. Members of armed forces reserves or National Guard. If a man enters any of these, he should advise the local board, giving date of entry and name of organization.

7. Rejections by the armed forces. If a man has attempted to volunteer for the army, navy, air force, or any other branch of the armed services and has been rejected, he should advise the local board.

Much of this information is vital in determining proper classification of any man. The law requires men to keep local boards advised about such matters. All such information, if submitted by letter or card, must be signed by the man himself.

He came to Goldthwaite last Sunday and remained until well into the week to help Coaches Knox and Locklear in spring training—the first that Class "A" teams have been permitted to have for many years. President E. B. Gilliam, Jr., of the Quarterback Club expressed hope this week that at least 1,500 persons will turn out to see Friday night's game—which was dreamed up at a recent Quarterback Club meeting after the members had witnessed a night scrimmage by the football players of the Goldthwaite Schools.

Superintendent H. E. Patton and Coaches Knox and Locklear have worked as a committee to stage the performance for which game time will be eight o'clock Friday night with, as President Gilliam said over and over again, "everybody invited."

The Quarterback Club, which has been promoting tonight's

"We believe that spring training this year has been an important event in our School's athletic program and we want everybody to see our football players in action even if it is spring," President Gilliam said.

While he pointed out that admission to tonight's gridiron classic will be by freewill offering at the gate to Eagle Field, Mr. Gilliam also issued a reminder that everybody is welcome to join the Quarterback Club.

"To join is easy," Mr. Gilliam said. "Just go to Treasurer Alfred Carter at the Trent State Bank, pay him $6.00 to cover both dues and initiation fees, and presto!—you will be a member of the Quarterback Club and in good standing."

The Quarterback Club is the organization that last month so successfully sponsored "Ice-landia" at the School Gymnasium in Goldthwaite.

FORD WINS AGAIN!

TAKES FIRST PLACE IN CLASS "A" MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN

Again this year... it's high honors for Ford! In the most important economy trial for American stock model cars... the famous annual Mobilgas Economy Run... A Ford 100-h.p. V-8 equipped with Overdrive took first place competing against all cars in its price class, making 54.587 ton-miles per gallon* and 25.994 miles per gallon. And its companion in quality, the new Ford SIX with Overdrive, was right up there with the winner. In fact, both cars averaged better than 25.9 miles per gallon.

Traditional Ford economy, for the second straight year, has been proved in open competition. Proved on the tough 840-mile grind from Los Angeles to the Grand Canyon... a course that included city traffic, below-sea-level desert heat and 7,000-foot mountain passes. Ford's Automatic Mileage Maker, standard equipment on all Ford V-8's and SIXES, contributed to this great achievement by squeezing the last mile out of every drop of gasoline.

Why not "Test Drive" the new Ford at your neighborhood Ford Dealer's? There's no better way to be convinced that "You can pay more but you can't buy better!"

*The AAA Contest Board determines the winner by a "ton-mile per gallon" formula to insure equal chance for all cars in each class regardless of size and weight. Ton-miles per gallon equals the car weight (including passengers) in tons, multiplied by number of miles travelled, divided by number of gallons of gasoline consumed.

Can't stop now!

The daily needs of the American people for oil are at an all-time high. When you add to these the needs of the defense program, you find that U. S. oil production is greater than ever before in history.

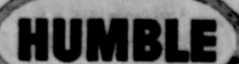

The men who search for oil did their part in supplying this record demand 10, 20, even 30 years ago.

But they can't stop now. The search for oil must be continuous, so that the U. S. will have oil for you and your neighbor and for the country's needs in the years ahead. This year's oil discoveries may be producing oil for the vehicles, the flying machines, the industries of the year 2000!

The oil companies look so far to the future because it takes about 10 years fully to develop an average oil field. Then, if production is efficiently managed in accordance with conservation practices, the field continues to produce for another thirty or forty years, or even longer.

This foresight provided the vast quantities of oil required for World War II, and it has established the reserves the nation needs for the emergency of 1951. There is no time, now, to search for the oil we need today; it must be — it is — instantly available.

Here Is An Important Warning To Farmers About Cotton Seeds

(Editor's Note: In view of the recent interest in cotton planting that was stimulated in Mills County by L. F. Bain of the Production-Marketing Administration of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and by W. R. "Bill" Shipp of the Priddy Gin, the Eagle this week publishes the following statement by Texas Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White, who, in Austin, has expressed alarm over cotton planting seed in Texas and who advises farmers to exercise extreme caution when making purchases. The statement by Commissioner White follows:)

"It has been known for some time that a shortage of cotton seed existed for the 1951 goal of 11,000,000 acres. Quality seed was booked early and supplies completely exhausted. Texas seed stocks were supplemented by what amounts could be purchased from other states and much of this seed has come in labeled below standard for germination or approximately 60%. Additional seed stocks needed for this year's acreage in Texas will come from seed at gins, oil mills and from farmers themselves. It is this seed about which I am alarmed and concerned since we have found in our two state seed testing laboratories that samples submitted from these sources run as low as 3% germination."

The Commissioner reminded seed purchasers that every sack of seed offered or exposed for sale in Texas is required by law to have a tag attached showing germination percentage. "In the case of bulk seed", the Commissioner added, "the seller is required to furnish one tag for each one hundred pounds of the seed sold."

"I urge all purchasers of cotton seed to exercise every precaution and care. The facilities of our seed laboratories are available to all Texas farmers. A little discretion at this time in demanding to know the germination percentage of the seed will eliminate disappointments in stands as well as time, money and possible loss of crops", Commissioner White said.

News Of Star

By DORA GOODE
Heavenly days! What's this old world coming to, anyway? I had hoped that electric eels would ever stay in their own tropical domain. And look now at what Pearl Crawford is doing—training 'em to follow folks around.

I wondered at the time why I felt such an urge to write that letter. Now I know—those eels casting off radio-active waves, short waves that hit only in spots, and I got them, or they got me, so the reaction was terrific, according to Pearl's report. Better be careful, Pearl, how you go in swimming with those eels. They've got an awful wallop.

Yes, I've really come alive after being sick all winter, and liable to be a lot livelier if you should turn those eels loose. I suggest to Mr. Adams and Mr. Allen that if and when they do find the Stone of Scone, that it could be put to no better use than to smash Pearl Crawford's eels to smithereens.

Christian says that if folks want to know when Spring is here "watch the hackberries, they never do anything silly."

Thank you, Eula. I was glad to see your letter, and to know you are still on the map. Yes, the ways of the world do change, and all are not for the best.

Someone sent a real rain gauge our way recently. Thanks a lot. I thought surely we'd have a reading right off the bat. But the drops were so scattered they missed the tube, that is, all but two.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. June Clifton moved to Evant. We wish them well in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris Witty have purchased "Rover's Rest" in Vagabond Lane, from Christian Goode, and expect to tear down their house and remodel it on the new site.

Mrs. Lona Burney of Evant was a recent visitor in the home of her sister, Mrs. Dora Goode.

Dave Thompson, who had a bad fall recently from the rear of his pickup, is home now and reported doing fine.

We're still dry folks, and along with the recent cold, early gardens look a desert green. But "He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap" Eccl. 11:4. So we work and live by faith.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Rickel visited in Lampasas Thursday night with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Rickel and baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gardner of Comanche were weekend visitors with the Goode families.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Saegert, Gene and Joe of Austin were Friday guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blue and Miss Dovie Blue, all of Copperas Cove, visited friends in Goldthwaite last Saturday. They also visited Mrs. Ola Howell and her brothers, Truman Hill and Roy L. Hill, of Star.

Youth Volunteer For Armed Services

In increasing numbers, Mills County young men are going into the armed services as volunteers.

On Friday of last week Bennie Bob Long, son of Mayor and Mrs. Loy Long; and Jesse Wayne Hammond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hammond; passed their physical examinations at Abilene and entered the Air Force. This week Bennie Bob and Jesse Wayne were assigned to Lackland Air Base at San Antonio for training.

Several other young men have volunteered for military or naval service and they are being "processed," including the Eagle's Franklin Dew Weathers.

James C. Wesson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wesson, enlisted in the Navy recently and now is in boot camp at San Diego, California.

Billy Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Miller, also enlisted in the navy recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Geeslin and son Bert of Cherokee spent last weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Geeslin.

field's desk. "No clues," Mr. Adams replied this week when he was asked if his Stone of Scorne had been found. It turned out, also, that there was nothing to report by A. L. Reese that the missing replica of the Stone of Scorne had been found on the banks of Stink Creek where, allegedly, it had been placed by mosquitoes. Mr. Reese, it seems, had his tongue in his cheek when he built-up Mr. Adams to a great big letdown.

Fifth—and there will be more about this later, too—there is a challenge to the claim of Thomas Franklin Elliott that in point of years of residence in these parts, he is the oldest pioneer. Mr. Elliott came here in 1879 before there was a Mills County. Now it develops that Mrs. J. C. "Aunt Maria" Stark has been hereabouts since 1876, which puts her three years up on Mr. Elliott. "Aunt Maria" will be 81 on May 29, thereby providing another opportunity to remember her on her birthday anniversary.

Major Campbell Reports April 14

Major Milton Allan Campbell, who was recalled to active duty with the Air Force last week, will report to Carswell Air Base at Fort Worth on April 14, according to orders that he received this week.

Pontiac Honors V. C. Bradford

H. L. ROBINSON, CHIEF PONTIAC AND V. C. BRADFORD

In recognition of "outstanding dealer accomplishments," V. C. Bradford was honored on Monday of this week when H. L. Robinson, manager of the Houston zone, presented to him a large painting of Chief Pontiac in behalf of the Pontiac Division of General Motors.

Guests who attended the luncheon were the Rev. J. T. Ayers, Pastor of the First Baptist Church; Mayor Loy Long, Major M. A. Campbell, E. B. Gilliam, Jr., Talbot Ledbetter, Warren P. Duren, J. P. McCready, Pontiac district manager who maintains his headquarters in Austin; and H. R. Ekins.

In a brief speech of presentation, Mr. Robinson said: "Pontiac Motor Division of General Motors has named the Central Pontiac Company of Goldthwaite to the Better Dealer Hall of Fame. This recognition came as a result of outstanding dealer accomplishments."

Mr. Robinson emphasized that the award had been earned by Mr. Bradford because he had measured up to qualifications that are based not on merely (Eagle Photo By Wicker Studio.) sales performance but on community service and standing and his fine representation of the company in Mills County.

The painting, a reproduction of an original by Jerry Farnsworth, is on view in the window of the Central Pontiac Company on the east side of the Square in Goldthwaite. It depicts Pontiac, Chief of the Ottawas, who was leader of the Indian Confederacy that was so loyal to the United States in pioneer times. The car that Mr. Bradford sells was named for Chief Pontiac.

An inscription on the painting says: "Presented to Central Pontiac Company by L. W. Ward, General Sales Manager, Pontiac Motor Division."

When the luncheon gathering was all over Talbot Ledbetter, who had NOT discussed his own business while he was one of Mr. Bradford's honored guests, was asked what he thought of the painting of Chief Pontiac. Seizing a golden opportunity, Mr. Ledbetter replied: "It is wonderful—and would be even more so if only there were a Ford in the background."

Jimmy Culwell Finds Whattizzit Which He Wants To Be Identified

Just about the strangest critter you could possibly imagine was brought to the Eagle office this week by our next door neighbor, Jimmy Culwell, who is the left bower to George "Mobilgas" Gilbert.

Approximately three inches long, the "whattizzit" has a hard shell, a head that looks as though it had been designed for boring, a tall and wings. The one Mr. Culwell presented to the Eagle was dead, so it couldn't talk.

Mr. Culwell said he found his exhibit while digging in his flower beds. What's more, he said, he found several of them. Nobody on the Eagle staff ever saw anything like it and George Gilbert, who is supposed to know all about gadgets with wings, just shook his head in profound mystification.

An emergency call to the Goldthwaite office of the United States Soil Conservation Service for an entomologist brought the reply from Mrs. E. P. "Blondie" Shaw that there were NO men around, let alone an entomologist. The fact that she was of no help brought a big wish that her husband, Parker "Screwdriver" Shaw were around for consultation.

Whatever it is that Mr. Culwell found, it is lying in state on the counter of the Eagle office. Miss Ruth Ervin and Miss Earlene Nix regard "it" with mixed emotions. "I don't care as long as it is dead and in a coffee can," Miss Ervin said. "It is okay with me just as long as I don't have to smell it," said Miss Nix—who definitely had NOT been asked to use her olfactory organ in the research.

Roy Lee Hill examined the critter but declined to discuss it with this reporter because the reporter had not yet written a story about the American Legion's dance THIS Saturday night. Arnold Kenneth Kelly contented himself with the opinion that the "whattizzit" is NOT a native of Mills County and therefore must be a foreigner.

If only Franklin Dew Weathers were not off getting to be an Admiral he would know, Mr. Culwell. Just wait until Franklin comes home from the wars.

Legion Dance On Saturday Night On Account Of Sleeping Habits

Okay, okay—Roy Lee Hill—okay; the Harry F. Edmondson Post number 289, the American Legion, will dance at the Legion Hall tomorrow night, Saturday—8:00 o'clock until midnight—to the music of the Dixie Playboys of Lampasas.

Mr. Hill, who is Publicity Chairman of the American Legion, made a survey of fellow members of the Harry F. Edmondson Post to find out what bright ideas, if any, they might have about publicity. They did not have any. So it was decided to interview Mr. Hill himself.

"Why does the American Legion dance on Saturday night?" he was asked.

"Can't anybody sleep on Saturday morning so we have to dance on Saturday night," Mr. Hill replied.

Figure out the rest of it for yourself. That is the end of the interview.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. McCombs and Jim Bob of Bastrop were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steen, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Frazier and Jack Shaw went to Lampasas Sunday afternoon to attend the Singing. Mrs. Frazier stopped at Lometa to visit her sister, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Parker.

Harris Children Have Reunion At The Dutch Smiths

The children of John Harris gathered last Sunday at a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dutch Smith. Of twelve children, ten were present—marking the first time that so many of them had been together since Mrs. Harris died in 1942.

Those who were present were Elbert Harris, Mr. and Mrs. John Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Dee Harris, all of Lometa; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Day of Killeen, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Leverett of San Saba, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harris all of Baird; Mr. and Mrs. Foy Taylor of Jayton, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Conrad of Long Cove, and Mr. and Mrs. Dutch Smith.

Grandchildren who attended the reunion were Mrs. Lorene Hoover and Earline of Killeen, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Murphy and Bill, Bud and Gene Harris all of Lometa, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Ball and Jimmy of Goldthwaite, C. S. Smith, Jr., of Navarro College in Corsicana, Johnnie Smith of N.T.S.C., Denton; Darrell and Gail Harris of Baird, and Junior and Verlon Conrad of Long Cove.

The guests feasted well, visited and posed for photographs that were taken by Mrs. B. C. Wicker.

Friends who attended the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Gage of Priddy and Jim Hunt of Lometa. Two of the Harris children—Mrs. Cliff Peeler of Robstown and Mrs. Dee Conner of Waco, were not able to attend the reunion.

Methodist Church Starts Campaign To Enlarge Work

A campaign to enlarge the program and to provide adequate financial support for the overall program has been launched by the First Methodist Church of Goldthwaite, it was announced this week by the Rev. Ed H. Lovelace, Pastor. The campaign will continue for six weeks, Brother Lovelace said.

The effort will be under the direction of Dr. T. C. Graves who, as its General Chairman, will be assisted by M. Y. Stokes, Jr., Julian C. Evans, Malcolm Jernigan and Mrs. Robert L. Steen. They will head up various divisions of the campaign.

In all, Brother Lovelace said, more than 50 members of the Church have been enlisted to work actively throughout the duration of the campaign.

Frank Moore of Sweetwater spent Sunday night with his sister, Mrs. L. P. Huddleston and Dr. Huddleston.
