Blackburn's Variety Store, owned and operated by T. J. Blackburn for the past five years, will have a grand opening in their new location on Friday and Saturday of this week. Store will be open at 9:00 o'clock Friday morning.

Pictured here, at right, is George Brooks of the Jones Valley community exhibiting a sample of his peanut crop from last year showing heavier yield of peanuts and volume of hay. This sample was taken from land where peanut hay has been put back into the soil for the past five years.

With Brooks is O. W. Bynum, soil scientist, from the Soil Conservation Service, Brownwood area office. He is holding a sample of last year's crop which was taken from an adjoining field, with the same type of soil, but, without hay being put back into the soil.

The two samples show the contrast in yield in peanuts and hay being produced on the same type of soil, one with hay being placed back into the soil and the other without this soil building method. (Photo by O. W. Bynum).

Soil Conservation Work Pays Off For George Brooks In Peanut Crop Yield

By O. W. BYNUM

Talk a few minutes on soil conservation with George Brooks of the Jones Valley community west of Goldthwaite and you'll find he is carrying out one of the most effective means of conserving and improving his soil. Yields and profits have gone up nicely in the past few years as a direct result of conservation farming.

In 1953, for the fifth consecutive year, Brooks put his peanut hay back on the land—and, in his own words, this wasn't easy at first because of the demand for hay throughout drought-stricken West Texas. Although he had to forego ready cash for his hay, he is now convinced that he is actually many dollars ahead by virtue of having left the hay on the ground.

Visit Brooks and he'll cite numerous figures to back up his thoughts on the matter. For example, he harvested 30 bushels of peanuts per acre in 1953, while 10 bushels were harvested on the same type of soil without the hay treatment. The meat content of the peanuts grown on his farm ran from 71 to 73 per cent.

According to Brooks his land has almost stopped blowing, thanks to the conservation practice concerning hay. The hay turned back on the land does other things, too. Considerable organic matter has been added to the soil, thus increasing its fertility; greater amounts of moisture are retained; yields and, consequently, profits, go up.

Local SCS technicians ran a series of moisture tests on Brooks' farm. On the land where he has turned back the hay, the tests showed that a pound of soil will hold one ounce more moisture than a pound of the same type soil where the hay has not been returned to the soil. In more understandable terms, this means that the soil where the hay has been turned back will hold 150,000 gallons more water per acre than the same type of soil without the hay treatment.

Other tests likewise show the value of returning the hay to the soil. Recent dust storms indicate what happens as a result of little or no organic material being returned to the soil from year to year. When high winds lift soil from the land it is the very fine fertility bearing particles that depart for places unknown—and laboratory analysis shows that the fine particles which blow away contain 12 times as much phosphorus, four times as much potash, and three times as much nitrogen as the soil remaining in the field. Brooks states that five years ago his soil would blow as much as any in the country, but now it has almost stopped blowing. He also says that in April combine tracks from the previous fall are still easily seen in his field. What does this mean? Simply, it means that the organic material in the soil halts wind erosion, and that a high percentage of the soil moisture is retained.

To make his case for soil conservation even more convincing, Brooks states that he grossed about $100 per acre in 1953. This compares to a gross of $30 to $35 per acre on the same type of soil where the hay has been baled and sold. Ask him, finally, if the loss of cash by not selling his hay offsets the benefits of this particular soil conservation practice and he'll tell you that more than half of the approximately 65¢ that a bale sells for goes for baling, hauling, and other expenses. He thinks that's proof enough that turning the hay back to the soil is a profitable venture.

Brooks is a cooperator with the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District. Other conservation practices carried out on his farm include terracing, and growing peas and vetch.

GIVE TO THE MILLS COUNTY RED CROSS FUND DRIVE MARCH 1-31

Inside WASHINGTON MARCH OF EVENTS

Foresee Demos Blasting Repubs on Tax Issue
Big, Not Little, Man Most Benefited, Charge

WASHINGTON—Look for Democrats to use the tax issue as foundation for blasting the Republicans as members of the party of Alexander Hamilton, not Abraham Lincoln.

The Texas Democrat reportedly is keying a forthcoming speech to an assault on the GOP for going along with Hamilton's theory—as the nation's first Treasury secretary—that prosperity "trickles down" from the top to the bottom elements of the economy.

The Democrats are expected, in this regard, to dig up Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson's remark to the Senate armed services committee last year about what's good for General Motors being good for the country.

Yarn's blast probably will come when the tax revision bill reaches the floor of the House for debate, so that the Democrats—with an eye toward the November elections—can get the maximum political effect. He and other members of his party are expected to charge that the proposed revisions would benefit corporations and their stockholders with only a few minor items for a few taxpayers in the lower income brackets.

UNFAIR—Senator Robert S. Kerr complains that Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson is not giving farmers a square deal on castor oil. The Oklahoma Democrat says that after the government promised to pay nine cents a pound for castor beans to increase the production of castor oil—used for machine lubrication—it reduced the price to six cents.

Kerr asserts: "Obviously, it would be unjust to compel the farmers to produce and sell at that cut in price, and even Secretary Benson knows it would be unfair to expect the farm families to dispose of their crop by home consumption."

PRISONER PROBE—Senator Charles Potter (R), Michigan, says there are more than 5,200 Americans—or persons claiming American citizenship—held in prisons behind the Iron Curtain.

Senator Potter is now conducting a preliminary investigation to learn the exact number and to find why they are there. If the facts warrant it, Potter promises there will be a full-scale congressional investigation.

Such an inquiry would likely be conducted by Potter himself, a legless veteran of World War II. He served as a one-man "task force" at recent open hearings on Red atrocities in Korea.

That investigation was timed to coincide with the United States presentation of atrocity charges before the United Nations. Similarly, any probe of American prisoners behind the Iron Curtain undoubtedly would be timed to coincide with concerted United States efforts to obtain the release of its captive citizens.

The 5,200 prisoners cited by Potter are in addition to those American troops unaccounted for in the Korean prisoner exchange and believed to be alive.

FLEXIBLE?—President Eisenhower's flexible price support program is apparently headed for some pretty inflexible opposition from Congress.

However, indications are that while the newly-proposed plan has little chance of passage in its present form, Congress may pass a modified version.

Modifications may include upgrading the scale of percentages. The President's proposed scale of 75 to 90 per cent price support, the exact percentage depending on the level of supply, is primarily designed to discourage overproduction by eliminating the existing 90 per cent price guarantee to the farmer.

Compromise figures being mentioned include 82 to 100 per cent, or 85 to 90 per cent, which would be about half-way between the President's proposal and that of critics who favor rigid 90 per cent, or even 100 per cent, government controls.

WHEN THE OLD BIRD WAS YOUNGER

10 YEARS AGO— (Taken from Eagle Files of March 3, 1944).

Friday of last week 4-year-old Kenneth Perry, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Irk Black, stepped onto the street near the Trent State Bank in the path of a car which was backing from the curb. The car knocked the youngster down and passed over him. Luckily the wheels did not touch him and he was bruised and scared, but not seriously injured.

The many friends of S. E. Cloninger, former principal and coach of the Goldthwaite High School, are pleased to know that he is doing outstanding work as A. C. C. Secretary in Mason County.

A family reunion was celebrated in honor of R. Varnell at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Laughlin, last Monday and Tuesday. Those present were his six daughters, Mrs. O. L. Smith of Alto, Mrs. Raymond Gilber of Houston, Mrs. Raymond Dickson and husband, Seattle, Washington, Mrs. W. B. Wilkey and family of Pleasant Grove, Mrs. Bert Wright, Goldthwaite, and his niece, Mrs. Walter Sweeney and family of Brownwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Dalton received a message Monday that they are grandparents of a new baby girl who made her arrival February 28 at Randolph Field at San Antonio. The young lady weighed 7½ pounds and plans to make her home with S/Sgt. and Mrs. Wayne Cornelius.

Mr. and Mrs. Mohler Simpson and family from Garland spent a part of the week with friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lane and little daughter, Mollie Ann, moved here from Borger and have moved into the McCullough house on Fisher Street.

25 YEARS AGO—

(Taken from Eagle Files of March 1, 1929).

The little 18 months-old baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Burks died at the family home on Parker Street in this city Sunday night at 9:30, after suffering a few hours with bronchial pneumonia.

Mr. J. C. Bailey died last Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the sanitarium at Temple, where he had been a patient for two weeks or more.

Mrs. W. H. Thompson, aged 71 years and 11 months, died at the sanitarium in this city last Thursday evening, after suffering several days with a broken hip and other injuries, the result of a fall on the ice at her home at Caradan.

A committee of teachers of Goldthwaite Public Schools has been at work this week raising funds to defray the expenses of the Interscholastic League Meet, to be held in this city March 29-30.

Master Jack Taft of Temple spent the weekend with relatives in this city.

R. E. Griffin is another of the Mills County wanderers who has come back home to stay, he and family having arrived in Pleasant Grove community Sunday. They have made their home in Crosby County the past two years, but he was in town Monday and assured the Eagle man that his permanent address was now Mills County.

J. A. Hester and family visited the family of W. T. Little in San Saba Sunday.

50 YEARS AGO—

(Taken from Eagle Files of March 5, 1904).

Weakley and Watson, having decided to retire from business both here and at Brownwood, this week sold their stock of hardware and furniture in this city to Henry Martin, one of the wealthiest and most successful merchants of this city.

VIC'S... SOLILOQUY

Mills County friends of Rev. H. C. Garber will be happy to hear the news of his moving to a new and larger field. He was formerly pastor of the Mullin Baptist Church before going to Lometa some time ago. Now he has resigned there, and accepted a call as pastor of the First Baptist Church at Mineral Wells.

In writing to us about his moving he gives a bit of information regarding his work in Lometa that folks may be happy to hear. He says: "During our two years of service here there were 97 additions to the church, the average Sunday School attendance increased from 130 to 175. A church debt of $10,000.00 has been retired, $5,000.00 has been given to missions. The Church at Mineral Wells has a membership of 1,600, with 850 resident members. The average Sunday School attendance is 450, and the yearly budget $35,000. At present the church has begun construction on the first unit of a three unit expansion program that is to cost in excess of $250,000."

G. B. Stark was here Wednesday and reported a new girl at his house. He now has eight girls and one boy.

Tom Calaway has returned to his home in this city, having sold his restaurant at Coleman.

H. B. Carter was here from Center City the first of the week. He reports Mrs. Carter improving after a sick spell.

E. D. Norman has moved from Rock Springs to Ballinger.

Will Carmine of Hico, an experienced dispenser of cold drinks, has taken a position with May and Blake and will have charge of their cold drink counter.

friends." We are sure that many of those who formerly worked with Bro. Garber are happy to extend him their best wishes on entering this new field of work.

Leave it to Joe Bailey Karnes to think up a new twist to the situation. Last week Monday when the fire boys were called out to put out a fire up at the athletic field, near the dressing rooms and stadium Joe was right on the job and guarding traffic at the end of the block where the firemen were working. When he was asked about the fire he said: "One of the football boys started to take a shower and the water caught afire." Brother, now that is going some for things getting dry in the Central Texas country. We knew all the time it was getting dry enough to become serious, but, we didn't suspect it was getting to that degree.

This writer was looking several days, in making his rounds, for "Holland 'Fesser' Frizzelle the latter part of last week, but failed to contact him for comment on his hearing that 89th birthday which slipped up on him Monday of this week, March 1. They say he has lived up on the mountain for many moons and no doubt he can tell any newcomer a thing or two about some of the many moons that have passed. Anyway, here's wishing "Fesser" a happy birthday and many more happy returns.

The New Commandment

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—John 13—14.

After the Passover supper, Jesus washed the feet of his disciples. Peter protested, but Jesus said, "If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with Me."

After Jesus had washed His disciples' feet, He said, "If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet."

Jesus told the disciples, "One of you shall betray Me," and when they asked which one He dipped bread and gave it to Judas Iscariot, who left hastily,

Jesus gave His disciples a new commandment: "That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another."

of our state. One good pasture or crop can be eradicated or buried by a nearby blowing field where no soil and moisture saving plan is in effect. Conservation is a state-wide, full time job.

The task now rests with the state, the county and the individual farmers. The federal government has already announced it will not provide funds to initiate soil and pasture restoration programs which were recommended by the drought states.

A study of 17 states, including Texas, showed that on pasture restoration alone, some $308 million would be needed. And this is merely for seed, lime and fertilizer required to restore about 39 million acres of land.

Actually, this 39 million acres includes only land within "major disaster" areas. The figure would be considerably increased if pastureland were included where weather conditions have been bad but not severe enough to warrant designation as a disaster area.

Since we cannot turn to federal aid in this time of need, then Texas must depend upon its farmers to do the best they can under the circumstances. It is a job that must be done!

Mr. and Mrs. Art Whittle and Mrs. M. B. Crawford of Brownwood visited here Sunday.

LONE STAR Agriculture Released by The Texas Department of Agriculture

By John C. White, Commissioner

THE RETURNING DUST STORMS

The choking shroud of dust which smothered the state in the last days of February poses an ominous threat to the future of Texas agriculture.

It means our soil is blowing away at a rate greater than at any time in the past 15 years. Our soil moisture content is at such a low ebb in some sections that early crop prospects are very poor. If the dust storms continue, then much of our cropland in West Texas can be counted out of production this year.

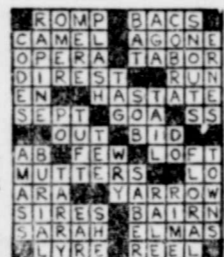

These recurring dusters raise the question "What is wrong with the extensive soil conservation methods advocated and practiced during the past two decades?" Where did we go wrong?

The truth is, we didn't go wrong. We just haven't gone far enough in the right direction. We have done wonders in some sections, but our soil saving measures have broken down under the constant buffeting of a three-year drought.

We need to exercise every known conservation practice to the "nth" degree in all sections

News Of The Ebony Community

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY

(Written for Last Week)

Friday morning we awoke before day to heavy clouds, lightning, and thunder. Suddenly, it began to rain, and as suddenly it quit. John said it did not put one drop in the rain gauge. Along the road to town we saw a little water in the ditches. But what a day! The radio said it was the worst sandstorm in fifteen years. This is Sunday and dust is still suspended in the air.

We salute Johnny Griffin from Ebony. From the Fat Stock Show in San Antonio he has written his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Griffin, that his Shropshire buck won the championship in his breed. His ewe placed first and his twin lambs placed sixth and seventh.

Ernest Malone and Jim King had hard luck on their trip to San Antonio to attend church last Sunday. When in ten miles of San Antonio, they had car trouble. They got to attend church that night. Monday Ernest went by bus to San Saba where he got someone to bring him home. Jim King stayed on to get the car fixed— hasn't returned yet. Thursday Ernest was sick. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilmeth of Brownwood, returning from working in their pecan orchard on the river, took him home with them. They called a doctor out to see him that night. The doctor discovered he was suffering from a heart attack and gave him medicine that relieved him. The doctor told him he should return to McClosky Hospital and make that his home from now on. Ernest didn't much like the idea, but anyway he left for Temple Friday. He's hoping Jim King will come to stay at his place.

Mr. and Mrs. Charm Whittenburg called at the Bob Egger home Saturday. They found Uncle Bob gone to the hospital for a blood transfusion and Mrs. Egger and her daughter, Mrs. Dewey Smith, both in bed. Mrs. Eugene Egger said Sunday at church that Uncle Bob was so much better after the transfusion that the doctor permitted him to go home. Mrs. Egger was so relieved that she was able to get up. Miss Mary Egger is staying with them to care for them.

We learn that one of Ebony's granddaughters, Diane Webb, of Brownwood, a freshman in Howard Payne College, is winning scholastic honors. Of the 721 pupils enrolled she is one of the eleven making highest grades for last semester— all having made 45 honor points. She also won an honor last week for speed in shorthand. She is majoring in elementary education with minors in sociology and business. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Webb, and the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Josh Philen Sr.— longtime residents of Ebony.

Death came to our community this week, taking Mrs. John Guthrie, mother of Mrs. Hubert Reeves. She and Mr. Guthrie had been staying at the Reeves' home since before Christmas. Funeral services were at the Methodist Church at Mullin Thursday afternoon with burial in Mullin Cemetery. All eleven children were present. The immense crowd attending and the floral offering, which made the inside of the church a bower of beauty, were a beautiful tribute to the life of Mrs. Guthrie. We hear it said, "Give me flowers while I live. Don't wait till I am dead." But I insist that the flowers at a funeral are for the living. There is no sweeter expression of sympathy than the silent language of flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Blue Thompson and Ezelle spent the weekend at Meridian visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Grubbs of Abilene visited relatives here last Sunday.

Ben Hancock Rites Held At Big Wells

Ray Berry, Leston Berry, Mrs. David Watters, Mrs. Lina McLean and Mrs. Annie Armstrong attended the funeral of Ben Hancock in Big Wells, Thursday.

Mr. Hancock was living in Dallas at the time of his death, but had lived in the Payne Gap community a number of years before moving to Big Wells, some years ago. He married the former Miss Oma Armstrong.

METHODIST LADIES STUDY "SPANISH SPEAKING AMERICANS"

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Goldthwaite Methodist Church began a study of "Spanish Speaking Americans" on last Monday afternoon. The study will continue through the month with Mrs. M. Y. Stokes Jr., as the leader.

Scallorn News

By ORA BLACK

Weather conditions which prevail out our way are unpredictable, however, as the saying goes, it could be worse.

Stockmen are very grateful for the mild weather since stock are in a poor condition for extremely bad weather.

March the 11th will be the date for the monthly social at Scallorn. Again you are asked to bring a covered dish for the supper which will be served at seven o'clock. Remember you have a special invitation to attend these get-togethers. There will be some form of entertainment.

Mrs. Charley Bryant from Hamilton visited last week with Mrs. C. H. Black.

Huntis Black will have charge of the Sunday service at the Scallorn Church due to the absence of the pastor, Rev. Marvin Clark, who sent in his resignation Sunday, by Rev. Massey.

Bro. Massey and Mrs. Massey were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Arlie O'Bannon. Le Dell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Casbeer, spent the weekend here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hines and Greta Sue were in Brownwood Sunday, guests of Mrs. Janie Weathers.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hughes and Dad Stucky called Sunday evening with the C.H. Blacks.

The entertainment for the social at the Scallorn Center the night of the 11th will be stunt night, so says Mrs. C. H. Black, who has charge of the entertainment for the evening. She further states you will be fined 25 cents if you fail to perform when called on. The money will be placed in the treasury for the needs of the society.

The ladies of the W. M. U. will meet Thursday for an all day meeting to observe the Week of Prayer.

Brownie Troop IV Meets Monday

Brownie Troop Number 4, under the leadership of Mrs. Vance Booker, met at the Scout House Monday, for their regular meeting.

A Flag ceremony was presented by Kay Benningfield, Jeanie Taylor, Carol Nan Gage, Carolyn Rhoades and Linda Lou Booker.

An Investiture was held and Maria Armendarez and Loraine Ynostrosa received their Brownie pins. To receive this honor the girls were required to know the Brownie Story, Promise, Handshake and Sign.

After having been a Brownie a year the following received their Pennants: Kay Benningfield, Linda Lou Booker, Carol Nan Gage, Bebe Harper, Carolyn Rhoades, Janet Shelton, and Jeanie Taylor. Wanda Jo Burns was absent but will receive a year pennant. Everyone gave the Promise and Salute and then sang the "Brownie Smile Song."

The Brownies surprised Mrs. Booker by singing "Happy Birthday" to her. "Nibbles" were served by the hostess, Carol Nan Gage. They closed the meeting by singing "The Magic Tunnel."

USO Fund Drive To Start Today

Mills County today opened its 1953 campaign for the USO. County Chairman Lewis T. Hudson announced that within the next few days the county will seek to raise its proportionate share of the Texas goal of $775,000.00.

"We can no longer think of our boys and girls serving in the uniform of our country without thinking of the wonderful job which USO is doing in their behalf," said Mr. Hudson. "The USO, actually, has become an important part of our Defense Forces."

The chairman is urging all parents who have boys or girls in military service at this time to make a special effort to make a contribution to this fund. They are requested to mail their contributions to Lewis Hudson, County Chairman, or leave it at Hudson Drug Store in Goldthwaite.

NOT ENOUGH: Department of Agriculture economists predict farm income will be about the same this year as it was last year— unless, that is, "abnormal developments" occur in either the weather or the national economy.

Net cash farm income in 1953 was over four billion dollars below net cash farm income in 1947. Texas farm income was 17 per cent less last year than in 1952.

The farmers' share of the national income was not enough last year. We need to do better this year.

 PURCHASING POWER: Farm purchases were down last year along with farm income.

Retail sales of farm equipment and machinery ran about 17 per cent below 1952 sales. Gross investment in farm buildings, motor vehicles and other machinery and equipment dropped by $600,000,000—a decline of 11 per cent.

We must not adopt a farm program which would further reduce the purchasing power of the farmers.

 WOOL TRADING: Senate voted last week to put trading in wool futures under supervision of the Agriculture Department's Commodity Exchange Authority, the purpose being to prevent manipulation of prices. Twenty other commodities are under CEA regulation. The bill still must pass the house.

 NOTED AND FILED: Post Office Department offered "no encouragement" when Laredo Chamber of Commerce requested issuance of a commemorative stamp to mark the city's 200th anniversary. Department approved a commemorative stamp honoring 200th anniversary of Columbia University. That's Columbia U. of New York City.

Elementary And Junior High Teams Bring Home Basketball Trophies

By PEGGY JONES

On February 20, the junior boys and girls journeyed to Llano for contest in district basketball and brought home three trophies out of a possible four.

GIRLS' GAME

Play was opened between the girls of Burnet and Goldthwaite elementary school. Immediately our girls took a 11 to 1 lead on the lassies of Burnet but allowed them to pass us in scoring before we moved off the 11 points. All the scoring of Burnet came on the free toss route but the 24 baskets beat what we could do by two points. The high scoring combination of Virgilene Geeslin, Belinda Whitely and Alice Davis was ineffective even though Virgilene scored from many positions. The girls were playing without the help of two starting guards, Judy Long and Nelda Yeager.

BOYS' GAME

The boys looked like professionals in the first game and after very close play during the first half of the one o'clock game with Burnet, were able to score at will and took this melee by a score of 24 to 39. Kite, Tyson, Kirby, Jones and Leo Reynolds started the game and Kite hit the bucket with a lot of regularity but these boys gave way to the other players in Edgington, Todd, Hammond, Dellis, Long, Woods, Carothers and others who made the trip.

The second game started well with the starting five dropping in points with regularity and Five brothers, Henry of Odessa, R. L. of Olney, Ori of Joinersville, Pete of Hamilton and Orville Spivey of Indian Gap.

Palbearers were: Ernest Barton, Son Wilkey, Arlie Hurley, Elmer Hurley, Jake Burkett and Gene Bonds.

Funeral arrangements were under the direction of the Roy Wilkins Funeral Home with interment in the Pottsville Cemetery.

scored 16 points in the first quarter against Llano but at this point bogged down and scored four points in the second stanza, two in the third and 14 in the fourth. Llano had pushed their score to 59 thus took the game by a score of 36 to 49. The boys were completely exhausted after a full day of loafing and stuffing but did come home with the second place trophy.

JUNIOR HIGH

With the high school junior team, the story was somewhat different with only two teams being entered in this division, Llano and Goldthwaite. Our high school girls opened play at 5:00 p. m., against Llano girls and walked off with an easy victory with Warlick throwing long shots at will, Witche dropping in points from pivot position and Thorne driving in for many baskets but hitting 95% of free tosses offered her thus defeating the Llano Lassies by a score of 39 to 22. Fletcher, Woods and Rowlett played their assignments well at guards and neither of the three allowed any girl of Llano to ever feel certain in a shot. Lou Etta Jordan substituted in both positions of forwards and guards and did quite well in both positions as did Jerene Lawson at guard. Shirley Saylor played a lot of the game at guard and held her opposing player to a low score. Other players of that squad were unable to make the trip.

In the high school division only one substitute was with the team that lost to Llano in the last plays of the game on free throws. Connie Todd, Vaughan, Scrivner, Cornelius, Kenneth Cook, and Jerry Howard proved enough to throw a scare into the much taller team. Todd, Cornelius, and Vaughan were closely guarded but Scrivner kept the boys in the game until the last minutes and ended by losing to the Llano boys by a score of 22 to 24 in the final. Thus we brought home second place trophy.

Any player of the day had to be under 16 years of age on September 1, 1953.
