DON'T CHEAT ON TRAFFIC LAWS

You wouldn't cheat at cards . . . and you'd resent it heartily if anyone suggested that you might cheat in business . . . but how about cheating just a bit on traffic laws?

If you're like a great many drivers, you'll have to admit that there have been occasions when you have disregarded a traffic sign, exceeded the speed limit or been guilty of some other infraction of traffic laws or regulations.

"But," you say hastily, "I only do it when it's perfectly safe. I'd never think of doing it if there were any danger involved!"

There's always danger involved, according to the Texas Safety Association. And the fact that it's not apparent often makes it more treacherous.

For instance, you may come upon a "School, Slow," sign when traveling on a clear stretch of road. As far as you can see there isn't a child around. But this doesn't excuse you from the obligation of slowing down. Children have an uncanny way of seeming to materialize from nowhere. One might suddenly dart in front of your car. The fact that you THOUGHT it was safe to disregard the warning sign wouldn't help much if you struck that child.

It's the same way with traffic signals, turning and passing regulations, and all the rest of the traffic laws and regulations. Their function is to protect you and everyone else who uses the streets and highways. They can't protect you if you ignore them.

Never ask yourself, "Is it safe to cheat a little THIS time?" Make up your mind, once and for all, that it's NEVER safe to cheat on traffic laws.

The only way to stay safe in traffic is to know your traffic laws AND OBEY THEM!

U. S. Judges' Vacations Too Many and Too Long? Senate Judiciary Chairman Would Cut Bench Absences

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON—A congressional investigation is looming to determine why federal judges "take three-month vacations in the summer, another two or three weeks at Christmas, and more time at Easter."

The question is asked by Senator William Langer (R), North Dakota, chairman of the Senate judiciary committee and he intends to find the answer to his question. He says he is appointing a special subcommittee to look into the situation.

Langer emphasizes that farmers, businessmen, and senators do not take such lengthy vacations, although part of this is subject to debate. Congress adjourned in 1953 in early August and didn't reconvene until five months later.

Congress recently authorized the creation of 30 new federal judgeships. Langer went along with the legislation, but in doing so said, "I wish to give notice that some of the federal judges will have to do more work."

The senator added: "There is no question in my mind that some of the judges have been taking too many vacations and too long vacations."

CALIFORNIA—Republicans are becoming increasingly worried about developments in California, which will be a key state in the 1954 congressional elections.

Two men who long have been regarded as GOP leaders in the Golden State—William Bonelli and Dick Graves—recently have deserted the Republican standard.

The firm leadership long exerted by former Gov. Earl Warren over the GOP in the Golden State has been missing since his appointment as Chief Justice of the United States.

Warren, believing that the exalted office he now holds should be completely divorced from partisan politics, has declined to pour oil on the troubled waters.

California Democrats seek to exploit the split in Republican ranks. They believe that if the Democrats can do well in the elections next November, the state may well be found in the party's fold in 1956, a presidential election year.

Meanwhile, Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Senate Majority Leader William F. Knowland have reconciled their own political differences and are united in an attempt to save California for the GOP.

MINIMUM WAGE—President Eisenhower's refusal to recommend to Congress at this time a change in the 75 cents an hour national minimum wage has provoked two diametrically opposite reactions.

From labor there is strong criticism. The big unions are accusing the administration of "reneging" again, as they insist the President has done on his 1952 campaign promise to work for removal of inequities and union-busting features of the Taft-Hartley labor law.

However, from industry there is genuine satisfaction that the President passed up any recommendations for a change in the minimum wage.

Word passed around in Washington is that the President was influenced in his decision by the advice of chairman Arthur Burns of the Council of Economic Advisers, who contended that any increase in the wage at this time might incite more layoffs, especially by struggling concerns with low pay scales.

Miss Bain joined the Mary Hardin-Baylor College Faculty last fall as an instructor in speech. A 1953 graduate of Baylor with a Bachelor of Arts degree, she has also been associated with the College of William and Mary Summer Theatre in Williamsburg, Virginia, and has worked with the High School Speech Institute at Baylor University. She was recently selected as the narrator in the annual Easter Pageant to be given at the College in April.

Miss Blanche Younger is a Mary Hardin-Baylor freshman. Considered by the late Dr. Walter Gilewicz, under whom she studied for more than five years as one of his most promising pupils. He presented her in a recital about a year ago, playing the orchestral accompaniment for her performance of a Schumann concerto.

Miss Lucille Swindahl, a Junior voice student, is also a member of the Choraleers Club and has been presented on television programs and sang at numerous gatherings. She was

A GOOD NAME IS THE FINEST ENDORSEMENT

Almost daily, new drugs appear which we are urged to offer. To reject the unproved products is just as important to this pharmacy as is the service of being alert to provide the newest and the best.

There are certain helpful guides on which we rely. Reliable pharmaceutical manufacturers, such as Parke, Davis & Company, establish quality and effectiveness with exhaustive clinical tests before a product is announced. JOE BAILEY KARNES

our 4% interest rate

is also OLD FASHIONED

35 years ago farmers were burdened with high interest rates and unfavorable terms on their farm real estate loans. The nation-wide Federal Land Bank system with its local farmer-owned national farm loan associations was established to whip this problem.

Gradually, with the Federal Land Bank setting the pace, interest rates on farm mortgage loans worked lower. From as high as 6% our interest rate was dropped to 5 1/2%, then to 5% and 4 1/2% and 4 1/4%, and finally in June 1935 to 4%. For more than 17 years now, we have held to that same low interest rate.

Weather Conditions Change Farmers From Cash Crops To Diversification

Weather conditions being one of the paramount factors a farmer has to take into consideration if he is to make a success of farming, the fact that many farmers in all parts of Texas are changing from cash-crop farming to diversified systems may be attributed to a great extent to unfavorable weather conditions. This is indicated by figures taken from adjustment loans FHA has made amounting to more than $12 million since July 1, 1953. This statement was made by L. J. Cappleman, the agency's State Director, in an announcement made from his Dallas office.

Farmers who in the past have depended almost entirely on cash crops, in recent years have been among those most in need of farming adjustments, he said. "Benefits of these adjustments include a sound system of farming which follows diversified production on their farms," Cappleman said. "We found many farmers seeking credit necessary to put in livestock enterprises to go along with their crops; and FHA provided such credit. There is a growing tendency toward pasture improvement; and the farmers we are serving are expected to develop good pastures for their livestock." He added that this type of adjustment usually takes a few years for completion, which is taken into consideration in the making of an adjustment type of loan. No more funds for adjustment loans will be available until new appropriations are ready for disbursement July 1.

Many farmers needing loans for a short time— perhaps only a year— or farmers needing emergency loans in designated areas, are finding the credit they need at the FHA county office. Long term loans for purchasing or developing family-type farms are also available as insured farm ownership loans. Funds for direct farm ownership loans will also be available July 1.

A special program of loans to livestock-men, hard hit by drouth conditions is also administered by FHA. These loans are to help farmers retain their normal position in the production of cattle and sheep and to restock ranges where herds were reduced by drouth or economic reasons.

No matter what type of credit is sought, FHA cannot approve applications from farmers whose credit needs can be handled by private or coopera-live lenders. Banks and other lending agencies have referred hundreds of applicants they could not accommodate to FHA offices since July 1, 1953. In the eight months' period following June 30, 1953, a total of over 14,000 loans were made for more than $44,750,000. Of this amount $12 million of special livestock loans were made to 800 ranchmen; and approximately $20 million to emergency loans to 10 thousand Texas farmers, of whom 150 received $508,000 to establish or to improve water facilities on their farms.

News Of The Ebony Community

By CLEMENTINE WILMIETH BRILEY

In spite of all that is going on in our nation's Capital, the weather is still our most perturbing calamity. Last week the temperature rose to an unpleasant high then tumbled to a bitter cold accompanied by a raging sandstorm. It has now been about five months since we have had a rain of much consequence. Except in the lowlands and along the creek, the grass in the pasture seems to be dying. The grain fields are suffering, and we wonder what the cattle will eat. In some places the ty-tys and elms are getting green, but most of the landscape is as drab as the dead of winter. Farmers have been able to plow some in the sandy land, but the clay land defies the plow. Charlie Griffin planted some corn in his sandy field last week.

The Griffin orchard bloomed its dull rosy glow and has put out green leaves. It escaped most of the kill of the frost of two weeks ago, but we doubt if it escaped the freeze of this last Saturday night. Charlie Griffin and Johnny and Alexis Eickholt have been pruning the orchard lately, and from the immense amount of smoke we have seen rising over there, they must have burnt a lot of dead wood.

Ernest Malone has not yet returned from McClosky Hospital, but unless he has a setback, he is expected home soon. Jim King is faithfully holding down the place while he is gone.

Mrs. Blue Thompson and Ezelle and Mrs. Charlie Griffin and Johnny called at the Bob Egger home while they were in town Friday. Mr. Egger was real low that day, and Dock Ham had to come out after Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Egger. Mrs. Eugene said Sunday that he was some better Saturday. Mrs. Dewey Smith has not been able to return home yet, but she is better and is up part of the time.

Mrs. Cecil Egger heard from Mrs. Edna Dwyer again this past week. She said their trip home for March 12 did not materialize. She is still under the doctor's treatment and is not able to come home to stay yet.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Reid of Goldthwaite spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Charm Whittenburg. Mrs. Reid says her brother-in-law, Billy McNurlen, is very low at McClosky Hospital. The presence of Mr. and Mrs. Reid in our community awakens memories of the past. For years they kept our store and post office, and were generous with accommodations for all. Then our neighborhood teemed with life and folks, and every neighbor's voice was as near as our phone on the wall. If it should ever go to raining again out here, we still have hopes that Mr. and Mrs. Reid might come to live among us again.

When we got home from town Friday, the wind had quit, but dust was still suspended in the air. I went ahead and hung out the clothes. We woke next morning to a howling norther, and at daybreak the blowing sand was so thick we could not see the Griffin field. Usually I don't let John bring in the clothes because he wads them in the tub, while I fold each piece as I take it from the line. But this was an emergency, and I was glad to get him to bring them in wadded or not. But oh! that dingy look on my pretty white clothes.

When we first came to this country, my mother went to the river to wash, but the water was so hard it dinged the clothes. Then she went to the creek. That was some better. Before I was eight, she taught me how to make cornbread so I could get dinner on wash day. As the years passed my father built tanks to conserve water and prevent erosion. Some of these would be filled with clear, soft water. Such was the orchard tank. So we moved tubs, washboard, and washpots here and let them stay. On wash day my Sister Grace and I carried great loads of clothes here and put in most of the day. But at eventide such a rich reward—stacks of beautiful, clean, white clothes. My aunt, visiting us, once said, "They look like the robes the saints shall wear."

TODAY'S Menu

Four Delicious Dinner Courses

By ALICE DENHOFF
RECIPE round-up today, starting off, as is proper, with an appetizer—Fish Hors d'Oeuvres, the recipe for 12 portions.

Mix well ¾ c. cooked, flaked fish, ½ c. finely rolled cracker crumbs (takes 10 crackers), ½ c. milk, 3 tbsp. mayonnaise, tsp. grated onion, tbsp. chopped parsley, ¼ tsp. salt, pepper and paprika to taste. Fill 12 clam shells with mixture and broil 4 minutes.

Begin with Bouillon
A light, clear tomato bouillon is delightful if the meal is a trifle on the heavy side.

To serve 6, mix 2 c. canned tomatoes, 1 small bay leaf, 2 cloves and ½ sliced onion. Simmer for 20 min., then strain. Add 3 bouillon cubes and 3 c. water. Heat slowly, stirring constantly about 5 min. Strain through cheese cloth.

Pork chops cooked with sweet potatoes and pineapple are a really delectable dish.

Exotic Pork Chops
To serve 6, place 4 tbsp. shortening in a skillet. Add and brown 6 thick pork chops. Season with salt to taste. Peel 3 large sweet potatoes cut in halves, and rub with lemon juice. Add 6 slices pineapple. Wash and remove pits from 12 large prunes and insert a clove into each prune. Add prunes and pour over one c. pineapple juice. Cook, covered, at high heat, and when steaming, turn to low heat and cook for 45 minutes.

Lamb Riblets next, the recipe to serve 6.

Cut into riblet servings 3 lbs. breast of lamb. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Brown in skillet with 4 tbsp. shortening. Add ¼ c. each vinegar and water. Place on top of meat 8 small onions, 8 small carrots and one can string beans. Cook on high flame, and when steaming freely, turn to low heat for one hour.

Orange Marmalade Pudding
For a good, hearty, nourishing dessert, Orange Marmalade Pudding might be the answer!

To serve 6, cream together ½ c. butter and ¾ c. sugar. Add ¼ tsp. orange flavoring. Sift together 2 c. flour, 3 tbsp. baking powder and ¼ tsp. salt. Add alternately with ½ c. milk. Fold in 2 beaten egg whites. Cover bottom of pudding pan with ½ c. orange marmalade. Pour in batter and steam for 1½ hours.

Jesus' Intercessory Prayer

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—John 17.

Lifting up His eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed: "Father, the hour is come; glorify Thy Son, that Thy Son may glorify Thee. . . . I have finished the work that Thou gavest Me to do, and now, O Father, glorify Thou Me."

Jesus prayed next for His disciples, "For I have given them the words which Thou gavest Me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from Thee, and they believe that Thou didst send Me."

Christ prayed for "them also which shall believe on Me through their (the disciples') word; that they may all be one, as Thou, Father, art in Me, and I in Thee, that the world may believe that Thou hast sent Me."

Lastly Jesus prayed that those whom His Father had given Him and who would carry on His work after He was taken from them, "may behold My glory" and be with Him in the hereafter. MEMORY VERSE—John 14:13.

New Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP The Greatest Gasoline Development in 31 Years

"Since I started using Conoco Super with TCP, my Pontiac is performing at least 35% better than ever before. I have 21,000 miles on my car but with TCP it runs just like new. I find Conoco Super with TCP is the best gasoline on the market!"

Connie Warren, Security Sergeant of Plant Protection 917 South Hampton St., Angleton, Texas

"We've used Conoco Super with TCP since the start. We first noticed the tremendous increase in power on a business trip. Pickup was much better, and on hills and passing, it was just like driving a new car. Mileage is up 34 miles to the tankful too!"

Mrs. Ray Banner, Co-owner FFAFF Sewing Center 4637 Troost Ave., Kansas City, Missouri

"As an insurance broker, I drive nearly 25,000 miles a year. Good mileage and plenty of power are important to me. Since using New Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP, I get better pickup, smoother running and three miles more to the gallon!"

Edmund T. Borent, Insurance Broker 3443 N. Springfield Avenue, Chicago, Illinois

"I've got 50,000 miles on my 1950 Buick, but since changing to Conoco Super with TCP it runs just like new. On cold mornings, it starts the first time I kick it over. And on the road, or in city driving, I'm getting a good 2 miles more per gallon."

W. T. "Bill" Olson, Sr., Retail Lumberman 7540 Robinson Way, Arvada, Colorado

"I get a day and a half extra run on my school route since we switched to Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP. The power increase is really something. I don't have to shift to second on hills like I used to. I'm getting an all-round performance increase of 50%."

PARENT PROBLEMS

Parents Should Teach Child Living Ways and Thriftiness

By HARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, Ph.D.

During the readjustments of economy, in the coming years, jobs may not be as plentiful for adults as there might not be much overtime work.

How will these children be prepared to be happy with less money and fewer luxuries, in those families where the income may require retrenchment?

Time to Take Stock
 Parents should take stock now of the standards they are setting for luxury expenditures on their children, and ask themselves if they have set their sights too high. It's easier to lower the sights when the children are very young than when they are in their teens.

The more parents spend on luxuries for the child, and the more they give him to spend, the less likely he is to learn habits of thrift himself. From his early years, the child should practice systematic saving, as should all members of the family.

There was a time when the public school, in cooperation with local banks, stimulated systematic savings by children, even before World War I. We dislike to suggest now, that the teacher, already overburdened, should have to take on a thrift program at school.

Perhaps parents should have sole responsibility for this, the school encouraging, as it often does, in all good home education.

Certainly, parents at all economic levels, should strive hard to train their children in wise and thrifty use of money.

My bulletin, "Allowances," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Naturally, these children expect to see still more of the family budget coming their way, even when at great personal sacrifices to their parents.

GOVERNMENT SUBSIDIES
Farm price support is an issue commanding a lot of attention and a target for much criticism in Washington this year.

What has this program cost the individual taxpayer in the past two decades? And how does it compare with government subsidies to other industries?

The total net less to the government during 18 years of price supports was $1,303,000,000 — or roughly $72 million per year. This means that each person living on the farm has received an average subsidy of $3 per year for price supports.

Looking at it another way, every person in the United States has had to pay an average of only 45¢ per person each year to maintain a solid floor under our agricultural industry.

The subsidies to airlines which have mail contracts far exceeds the farm figure. About $140 million is paid by the post office to airlines for carrying airmail each year and only about $60 million can be considered compensation for actual mail services, according to admissions by the Civil Aeronautics Board to Rep. John W. Heseltin (R. Mass.) and John J. Rooney (D. N. Y.).

In this case, the cost to the taxpayer for subsidizing airmail equals 88¢ per capita during the past several years, or almost double the cost of price support to the farmer.

Two kinds of subsidies are paid to the shipping industry— constructional and operational. From July, 1937 to December, 1946, the government paid construction subsidies amounting to $380,285,242 or about $40 million per year. Operational subsidies from 1951 through 1953 amounted to $144,135,782 or an average of over $48 million per year— and half this total figure was paid in the year of 1953 alone.

Apparently, the cost of subsidies is going up.

These are but two examples of government support of industry. There are hundreds of others and many of them surpass the cost of the farm support plan which guarantees farmers a fair price for their products.

Most farmers would welcome a return to "free economy" and give up the price support if other industries would do the same. But he cannot survive on the open market when other phases of our economy enjoy protection by the government.

If the government will reduce tariffs by one-third, reduce wages by one-third, reduce the cost of living one-third, reduce the cost of machinery one-third —in short, if it will cut subsidies by one third, straight across the board, then the farmer will go along and take his chances with the rest.

Bach, Schubert Junior Music Clubs Present Artist In Recital Sunday

KENT JONES
Sixteen year old pianist from Sterling City, Texas, will be presented in a piano recital at the Jennie Trent Dew Memorial Library Club Room Sunday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock. The program will be sponsored by the Bach and Schubert Junior Music Clubs of Goldthwaite.

Kent recently appeared as guest soloist in the San Angelo Symphony Orchestra Children's Concert. He is the first to have this honor. Twice he has won National honors with a rating of Superior plus in Guild auditions.

For four years he was a pupil of Mrs. Ed H. Lovelace of this city and at present is studying with Mrs. Carter Dalton of San Angelo. Kent took a course under Silvio Scionti and Jack of last year he was presented to the music lovers of his hometown by one of the literary clubs of that city. The recital Sunday afternoon is open to the public. It is hoped that all who are interested will come to hear this talented young artist.

March 31 Is Deadline For Motorists To Purchase Their New 1954 Licenses

Deadline for purchase of the new 1954 auto tags is less than two weeks away, March 31. This reminder was issued this week by C. F. Stubblefield, Mills County tax assessor-collector, who stated that sale of 1954 tags has been "Fairly Good" to date. In reminding the driving public of the county of the forthcoming deadline for getting new tags Stubblefield pointed out that a good many folks do not as yet have their new tags. They are urged to get theirs now and avoid the last minute rush.

After March 31, drivers without the new 1954 tags on their motor vehicles are subject to be issued tickets for violation.

In coming in for their new license plates car owners are requested to bring their last year's tag receipt and certificate of title. Under the law all motor vehicles should have 1954 license plates before April 1.

Boys Who Ransacked Local Home Picked Up By Sheriff

Mills County Sheriff C. F. "Stub" Stubblefield has announced the arrest of three Killeen boys who admitted ransacking the Malcolm Jernigan home on highway 84 east of Goldthwaite on March 3. The three youths apparently were looking for money and ransacked the entire house. The only thing missing was a new pair of boots which were later recovered (damaged) in Hamilton County. They were traced to Killeen through license number.

The trio had also broken into some houses in Hamilton County. Sheriff Stubblefield stated that they would be charged before the grand jury at the next regular session of that group.
