VOL. 63, No. 46

GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS

THURSDAY, JULY 5, 1956

Weather Report

No rain to report for the past two weeks. In fact only .42 of an inch recorded for Goldthwaite for the Month of June. This brings the total for the first six months of this year to 10.92 inches.

This falls short considerably when compared with 1955 when Goldthwaite received 14.27 inches of rainfall from January 1 through June 30.

Swim Classes Well Attended

Swimming classes which have been sponsored by the Municipal Pool and Park Board during the past two weeks, with free instructions, were well attended, according to report from officials.

The classes of instructions closed last Friday with 75 beginners and advanced students being awarded Merit Of Achievement certificates.

Officials have announced that if there is sufficient demand there will be more swimming instructions offered within a few weeks, possibly starting the last week in July.

All those who are interested in taking advantage of a two weeks swimming course are urged to notify the manager of the pool so that plans can be formulated. The Pool and Park Board makes no charge for the instructions which are provided by qualified instructors. Only charge made is the regular swim admission to the pool.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Long, of Grand Prairie spent Monday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Long.

who is a native of Coryell County, is the new pastor of the Methodist Church in Mullin. He assumed his duties as pastor last month.

Before coming to Mullin with Mrs. Cole, he was in charge of the Methodist Circuit of Rural Churches out of DeLeon. Rev. Cole attended Augustana College at Rock Island, Illinois and the Perkins School of Theology at S.M.U. in Dallas, Texas.

Absentee Balloting, For Primary Election July 28, Starts Monday

Absentee balloting for the forthcoming first primary election, scheduled on Saturday July 28, will get underway this coming Monday, it was announced this week by Joe A. Palmer, chairman of the Mills County Democratic Executive Committee.

Primary ballots have been printed and delivered to county clerk Walter A. Bryant who will be happy to assist folks in casting their absentee ballot. Any qualified voter of Mills County who will be unable to be here to vote in the primary election may cast an absentee ballot any time from July 8 through July 24. Since July 8 falls on Sunday balloting will be started Monday July 9.

Hugh and Ben McKenzie returned home Sunday from Albuquerque, New Mexico where they attended funeral services for Fritz Dinklage, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sykes spent Monday in Temple.

QUALIFIED VOTERS

According to announcement by C. F. Stubblefield, county Tax Assessor-Collector, 1624 poll tax receipts were issued this year. In addition to these there were issued 22 exemptions to those who will become 21 years of age before election and be qualified voters in the general election in November.

Officials estimate there are several hundred additional qualified voters in Mills County who are over the age limit and therefore do not have to have poll tax receipt in order to vote.

INTEREST LIGHT

From all indications political interest on the part of the average man on the street is light this year. This is apparently due to the limited number of local offices that are open for election this year which is providing little contest.

Offices which are in contest this year are that of Sheriff, Tax Assessor-Collector, and County Commissioner for precincts one and three.

Two candidates are seeking nomination for the office of Sheriff, Assessor-Collector. They are C. F. Stubblefield who is seeking re-election and W. F. Benningfield.

In precinct one for Commissioner O. H. Shaw is seeking re-election while Woodrow Long is seeking nomination.

Three are making their bids in the race for nomination as commissioner in Precinct three. They are W. T. "Son" Lee who is seeking re-election and Otto M. Singleton and W. M. "Whitt" Hodges.

SAMPLE BALLOT IN THIS ISSUE

The full sample ballot for the first primary election on July 28 is being published in this issue. It appears on page 11. This sample ballot is presented in the Eagle at this time as a public service for the benefit of voters to give them an opportunity to study candidates and offices for which they are seeking nomination.

The sample ballot, as published in this issue, carries all candidates for the office of County Commissioner in both precincts, while official ballot will have only the candidates for that respective precinct.

Voters will also have an opportunity to express themselves on the following three propositions which appear on the ballot: 1) Mixing White and Negro Children in Public Schools; 2) Intermarriage Between Negroes and Whites; and, 3) Interposition.

Priddy is the top team in Mills County Little League baseball for the first half of the season. It was announced this week by Little League Officials.

As the season came to the half way mark Priddy had a perfect record of winning eight and losing none. In second place were the Yankees who had won five and lost three. The Indians stood at four wins and three losses. The Giants are in the basement with one win and seven losses.

TEAM STANDINGS

| Team | Won | Lost |
|---------|-----|------|
| Priddy | 8 | 0 |
| Yankees | 5 | 3 |
| Indians | 4 | 3 |
| Tigers | 3 | 4 |
| Mullin | 2 | 5 |
| Giants | 1 | 7 |

FRIDAY RESULTS

The double header at the local ball park last Friday night finished the first half of play for the Little Leaguers. In the first game to be played that night, Priddy defeated the Indians by a score, 19-9. The second game, between the Tigers and Yankees, was a close one with the Yanks winning 7-6.

Mullin won over the Giants on their own field by a score of 13-12. Judging by the scores now and how they were at the beginning of the season, it is readily seen that these Little Leaguers are progressing under the training of their respective managers.

MONDAY NIGHT

Monday night this week the Indians lost to the Tigers by a slim margin of 11 to 12. Priddy defeated the Giants 19 to 9 and the Yankees won over Mullin 11 to 7.

Mills County Producers Receive Over $200,000.00 In Wool Payments

By A. C. HENDERSON

The Mills County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee will distribute to Mills County wool producers approximately $203,000.00 the first of next week. This money represents the difference of approximately 43c per pound average paid for wool over the nation and 62c per pound incentive price set up by the government for the 1955 marketing year. The money will be paid by draft on Commodity Credit Corporation which can be cashed at any bank, and will be mailed to the producer in a white franked envelope. If you are expecting a wool check, be sure to check your mail thoroughly.

The wool incentive program is a 4 year program with the first year being the year 1955. The incentive rate is set for each year when the time comes and could be set at a higher or lower rate than the previous year, depending on the circumstances at the time the rate is calculated. The ASC Office will file your sales slips for the 1956 marketing year, April 1, 1956 through March 31, 1957, for safe keeping, if you wish.

Floyd Spradley the Upholstery and Furniture man on the west side of the square has been sporting a new haircut. A flattop, but, not quite a GI. Floyd has a typically young man's head of hair, dark, wavy and full. When I met him the other day at the post office I commented on his nice summer haircut and told him I had a good notion to get one like that myself.

At that point he reached up and lifted my straw hat and said to me with a Spradley grin: "You should have done that about fifteen, or so, years ago, it would have been more effective."

Not long ago Trippy Mayfield, young son of Rev. and Mrs. Ray V. Mayfield Jr., was being entertained by Superintendent of Schools J. T. Jones.

During their moments of romping Mr. Jones was pitching Trippy over his shoulder giving him a chance to get a good look at the top of J. T.'s head. After a while Trippy stopped and looked right into the face of Mr. Jones and told him: "Mr. Jones, your head is worn out."

Some people have their hairline move back while others maintain the outside line with new developments right in the center and then there are those whose hairline just disappears. When you hear of one who has a strawberry ice cream colored head, though, that is something new, to say the least.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haenisch and their children, Barry and Lynn were on a recent trip and had an interesting experience as they drove through Corsicana. As they were driving through the business district their son Barry said: "Mother, look, there is a man who looks just like my teacher."

His mother tried to spot the party on the sidewalk and make the proper connection and in doing so she happened to pick out the wrong one to compare with the teacher Barry had in mind.

When she failed to make the right connection Barry said to her: "No Mother, that's not the one, I mean my teacher with the 'Strawberry Ice Cream Colored' head." It developed he was referring to Jerry Griffin who has red hair.

DO YOU WANT TAXES LOWERED?

It would be possible to reduce income taxes by 25 per cent for every one—without eliminating or weakening any necessary government service or activity.

How could that be done? The Town Journal explains it succinctly in these words: "Here are the figures: the personal income tax takes from the people's earnings about $30 billions a year. The Hoover proposals for shaking out the waste and inefficiency would cut the cost of Government by $7.5 billions, is 25 per cent of $30 billions. Save that much and taxes could come down 25 per cent."

That $7.5 billions could, instead, be applied to reducing the national debt, which many think should precede tax reduction. Or part could be used for debt reduction and part for tax reduction.

Some of the Hoover Commission recommendations have gone into effect. The prospect for others seem good. But many of them—including the most important, from the standpoint of saving money and making government more efficient—are dormant at this time. They can be brought to life by public interest and public demand for reform. "Vox populi vox dei" is still guiding rule in government.

TWO WAY OBLIGATION

The president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States recently said that businessmen have both the obligation and the right to speak on political and other issues of the time. He then mentioned certain things that businessmen should be solidly against—among them, government in business, and high taxes.

This is a logical position. At the same time, businessmen must realize that what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander. If, as they should, they oppose costly special favors for other groups, they should be as adamant in opposing special favors for themselves. Business groups have often and deservedly lost public regard because they have supported proposals for government spending that would benefit them—while urging strict economy when it came to the other fellow.

"Next thing, we suppose, fishermen will be asking the government for a guaranteed annual catch." . . . London, Ohio, Press.

Test of Atom Airplane By United States Near?

Wagner's Political Star May Eclipse Harriman's

WASHINGTON—President Eisenhower's new request for funds for new "military propulsion reactors" increases speculation that the United States will test an atomic airplane in 1958 or early 1959.

While Mr. Eisenhower's request for an additional $82.5 million was cloaked in secrecy by the White House, it is believed that the money will go mostly toward development of atomic-powered planes.

Vital breakthroughs proving the feasibility of nuclear-powered aircraft have been accomplished recently by United States Defense department scientists.

The Atomic Energy commission is placing major emphasis on developing atomic engines for planes. More than $75 million was earmarked for nuclear aircraft in the atomic budget even before the President made his new request.

● DARK HORSE—Political observers are convinced that New York City's Mayor Robert F. Wagner rather than Gov. Averell Harriman has the brightest political future among New Yorkers.

They concede that Harriman is in the spotlight this year because of his bid for the Democratic presidential nomination, but they believe that by 1960 Wagner will be the most powerful political figure in the state.

Wagner, the son of the late, famed senator, is considered to have made an impressive record as mayor of the nation's largest city and probably will be able to win a Senate seat or the governorship whenever he wants to move up the ladder.

There is even a possibility that Wagner could wind up being the Democratic vice president nominee this year provided Harriman does not head the ticket.

● VEEP PROSPECTS—Incidentally, political experts are keeping a closer than usual watch this year on vice presidential prospects. Development of an outstanding No. 2 man could give a tip-off on the choice for President.

Usually, the presidential nominee hand-picks his running mate on the basis of geography and other considerations. However, this year, the situation may be quite different for the Democrats.

The vice presidential possibility with the widest popular support could have a strong voice in determining who will head the ticket. The Democrats are seeking a big vote-getter for vice president to strengthen their ticket.

Since you can't have the two nominees from the same state, development of Tennessee's Gov. Frank Clement, for example, might affect the presidential ambitions of Tennessee's Senator Estes Kefauver adversely. The same, of course, goes for Wagner and Harriman in New York.

● BRANNAN AND BENSON—The decision of former Agriculture Secretary Charles F. Brannan to run for the Senate from Colorado promises to throw the present secretary, Ezra Taft Benson, even deeper into the political wars.

Benson probably will do a lot of active campaigning against Brannan as the Republicans seek to stem Democratic efforts to win the crucial farm vote.

The two men often have been at odds over what they believe is best for American agriculture and you can look for their differences to become more violent between now and November.

Purina
Research Announces
A BRAND NEW WAY TO WORM CHICKENS AND TURKEYS
Now—treat for worms the easy way through the drinking water!
Purina Liquid Poultry Wormer! It's the biggest poultry news we've heard in a long time. Big news because it does such a tremendous job of worming chickens and turkeys—big news because it's so easy to give and costs so little.
Purina Liquid Poultry Wormer, you see, is the brand new drinking water treatment for roundworms. Birds worm themselves just by drinking the medicated water from their regular waterers. Because it's a liquid, this new product is a natural for broiler producers who have a medication barrel on their water system. It mixes easily and of course doesn't clog lines or valves.
And just as important is the fact that you don't have to interrupt or change your feeding program to worm your birds. You keep feeding just as usual.
But the best news of all is that Purina Liquid Poultry Wormer does a better job of removing roundworms than any other compound ever tested by Purina! It even knocks other type wormers so often miss.
What does it cost? Only 30 to 50¢ per hundred birds! Where else could you find a safe, effective wormer that's so easy to give and still costs so little? That's why we're sure Purina Liquid Poultry Wormer will make such a big hit with poultrymen in this area. Ask for it today—at the Store with the Checkerboard Sign.

TODAY'S Menu For Lunch Or Picnics

By ALICE DENHOFF

READY for service the year-round but especially welcome in warm weather is a well-stocked shelf of canned meats. They're handy for picnics, of course, but they can also be used for main dishes and substantial salads for summer meals. For example, a jellyed meat dish and a platter of good potato salad is a favorite summer special.

For 6 servings of the jellyed meat recipe, soften an envelope of plain gelatine in 1/2 c. cold water. Put over boiling water and stir until gelatine is dissolved.

Stir in 1/4 tsp. salt, 2 tbsp. lemon juice, 1/4 tsp. Tabasco and cool. Stir gelatine mixture into 3/4 c. mayonnaise or salad dressing. Blend in 2 (2 1/4 oz.) cans deviled ham. Mix in 1 1/2 tsp. grated onion, 1/2 c. finely diced celery, 1/4 c. finely diced green pepper, 1/4 c. diced pimiento and 2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped.

Turn into 6 molds or a 3-c. mold. Chill until firm. Unmold. Garnish with tomato wedges.

That old standby, luncheon meat, can be made into a good main dish with oriental overtones.

To serve 4-6, wash 2 medium-sized green peppers, discard seeds and white membrane. Cut peppers and 3 slices canned pineapple into sixths.

Melt 1/2 cup butter in skillet. Add pineapple, green pepper and 1/2 c. pineapple syrup. Cover and simmer 15 min.

Blend together 2 tbsp. cornstarch, 2 tsp. soy sauce, 1/2 c. vinegar, 1/2 c. brown sugar and 1/2 c. chicken bouillon. Add pineapple mixture, stirring constantly until mixture thickens. Remove contents from a 12-oz. can luncheon meat and cut in 6 slices. Add to pineapple mixture and heat thoroughly. Takes about 10 min. Serve over steamed rice

Gourmet Treat

Luncheon meat is delicious when it is sliced and baked with sweet potatoes and orange slices. Top it with a cherry sauce to make it a gourmet affair. Meat, fruit and vegetable medley takes about 45 min. of baking.

Place 12-oz. can luncheon meat contents in shallow pan, cutting loaf in 6 slices, stopping about 1/2 in. from bottom.

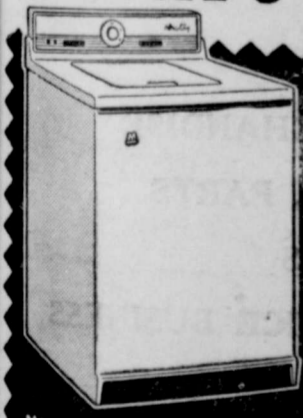

Peel and cut 1 orange into 5 slices. Halve slices. Insert half the slices between meat slices. Cut up remaining orange and place with contents of 1 lb. 2 oz. can of sweet potatoes around meat.

For the sauce, combine 1/4 c. sugar, 1/4 tsp. cinnamon, 1/2 tsp. dry mustard and 1/2 tsp. cornstarch in saucepan. Drain 8-oz. can dark sweet cherries. Add liquid to saucepan with 1/2 c. orange juice and 1/4 c. brown sugar. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil. Stir in cherries, spoon over meat and potatoes. Bake at 350° F. for 45 min.

This dish will star at the most important dinner party.

Bill Jones, native of Mills County and now residing at Kermit, Texas, is a candidate for the office of Commissioner of Agriculture.

He was born 4 miles north of Mullin in 1918 and left Mills County at the age of 13 when he moved to Erath County where he resided until 1948. He finished high school in Erath County in 1935 and has been making his home in Winkler County where he has been in the nursery business since 1948.

He is the son of Lewis and Maggie Jones and married Clara Nell Fitzgerald of Stephenville. Mr. Jones has been in the nursery business for the past twelve

News About Social Security

All farm operators, self-employed architects, engineers, accountants, funeral directors and ministers covered under social security who had net earnings of at least $400 in 1955 and net earnings of at least $400 this year have already earned survivor insurance protection for their families, according to Mr. James B. Marley, Manager of the Austin Social Security office.

"Some survivor benefits are payable if a person of any age dies having worked at least half the time in the three years before his death," Mr. Marley said. "Hundreds of families in this area have survivorship protection today due to the new coverage provisions in the social security law. If the family breadwinner dies, children under 18 and their mothers may receive family benefits each month until the youngest child is 18."

Some newly covered self-employed persons over 65 are now qualified for monthly old-age benefits under the new law. Others who will be 65 by next year may become eligible for old-age benefits based on 1955 and 1956 self-employment income.

"Social security credits for self-employment cannot be given unless tax returns are filed," Mr. Marley emphasized. "All self-employed persons covered under social security are required to file an income tax return on their 1955 net earnings of $400 or more, regardless of whether they had to pay income tax. Returns on 1955 income are now past due and should be filed with the District Director of Internal Revenue if they have not been filed."

Sidney J. Long On Honor Roll

IN THE NAME OF THE LAW

CONTRIBUTED IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST BY TEXAS POLICE ASSOCIATION

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY by Willie Bauer Assistant Chief of Police Beaumont, Texas

Juvenile Delinquency doesn't just happen. It is caused. Possibly in some cases by society in general, but more often than not Juvenile Delinquency is the direct result of "Parental Delinquency."

The Harvard Law School recently made an exhaustive study of Juvenile Delinquency in this country. The results of this study have amazed me. For instance, in 80% of the cases studied there was no "team spirit" in the home. Twice as many juvenile delinquents came from broken homes as others. In 75% of the cases studied there was no fixed routine in the home. In 8 out of each 10 cases studied the mothers of the delinquents spent very little time at home. In 75% of the cases studied the fathers and mothers fought and quarrelled. In 80% of the cases studied the mothers took no interest in their children. In a majority of the cases the parents were unconcerned about their children's friends. In 75% of the cases studied the youngsters reported that their parents were indifferent to them—there was no love or respect in the home. In 80% of the cases studied liquor was a factor. Still further, the study indicated that only a few of the sons and daughters went to Sunday School or church, even infrequently; and the same was true of their parents. To top this off, there was absolutely no religious discussion in the home affected. It was indeed interesting for me to note that in all ten of these findings "THE ORIGINAL FAULT WAS WITH PARENTS."

There's no secret about what causes our juvenile problem of today. Both the cause and the cure have been before us for years. Yet, by far, the majority of parents either fail or refuse to admit it.

The very first mistake a good many parents make is when they allow their children to sleep past Sunday School time. Now, I'm no religious fanatic, but I can honestly say that I've never attended Sunday School or church, whether I wanted to or not, without learning something.

The second mistake is when parents become too busy to have those good 'ole fashioned family conferences. We fail to realize that children are not motivated by reason and object. They lack wisdom, the wisdom we, as parents, are obligated to provide for them. What better place is there to develop such wisdom than in the 'ole fashioned family conference?

Our third mistake is probably the most expensive of all. We dealt democracy a terrific blow when we took the paddle out of the school teacher's hand. Year in and year out—particularly during the formative years—our children spend far more of their active hours with school teachers than they do with parents. Yet, we have deprived these teachers, who have the responsibility of forming our children into good solid citizens, with the very disciplinary action that makes children into good citizens and parents.

This business of out-smarting a child was a tough thing for our parents to put over on us when we were children, and it's getting tougher with each generation. With the movies, television, and other things, our children are given a much better opportunity to become educated earlier in life than we did. Don't try to out-smart your child. There's no such short-cut. You know as well as I do that some of those things the old folks tried to put over on us just didn't take. Remember what you and I did when such attempts were made? Why, of course, we laughed at such stupidity—and that's what your children will do too.

Think I'm wrong? If you do then take a look at the other countries of the world that have practically no juvenile delinquency problem. When you do you'll find that the children in those countries are being reared like we're "raising" our children.

Blue Heaven

By VERA WINSTON

FASHION has the blues this year, but we don't mind one bit. That's because the blues are the rich lovely tones that make up the wide range of this heavenly color from midnight blue to palest azure. Turquoise blue is used for this cotton daytime dress with a midriff sash of dark green plaid in blue. It ties in a bow in back. A buttoned band rises high on the bodice and low on the skirt which is of released, unpressed knife pleats. A many-occasion dress.

We Belong to a Great Company ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON By Alfred J. Buescher

Scriptures—Acts 2:44-47; Hebrews 10:19-25; 11:1-13:8.

The first Christian church in Jerusalem there was complete harmony. All believers lived together, sharing possessions with one another and supplying each man's needs as they arose.

Moses refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter. By faith he led his people out of the land of Egypt into the country which the Lord had promised them.

Abraham had faith when he took his son Isaac to be offered up as a sacrifice at the Lord's command. He obeyed the command and was justified in his faith in God.

"Let brotherly love continue," and "be not forgetful to entertain strangers; for thereby some have entertained angels unawares."
MEMORY VERSE—1 John 4:7.

Baptist Church Installs Regenerated Air-Conditioning Unit

By RAY V. MAYFIELD

Sunday, July 8th, will be the installation date for the conditioning system at the Baptist Church. For several years the church has had evaporative coolers, and this year is installing thirty tons of refrigeration conditioning equipment. The equipment was installed throughstructed for the sum of $10,200. One-half of that amount of $5,100, has already been paid for by Mr. Walter Fairman. Mr. Fairman's spirit of generosity through the years has been deeply appreciated by the membership of the First Baptist Church, and surely is genuinely appreciated in this instance.

The remaining $5,100, will be raised by the 310 families in the Church. Each family will be contacted during the week of July 1-8 through an organization consisting of 104 people, broken down into 26 teams with a Team Captain on each team and 3 other team members. Each worker will contact about 3 families each during this week, explaining to them what the Church is doing, and how we plan to go about it.

Then on Sunday, July 8th, we hope to have a commitment card from each of the 310 families of the Church, giving some indication as to the extent they are willing to help in paying for the remaining $5,100. Indebtedness on the Air-Conditioning. If every family in the Church had an equal share in paying for this, it would amount to only $16.50 per family. This could be paid either in a Cash Gift on Sunday, July 8th, or within a year of that date. Payments could be made either weekly, monthly, semi-annually or annually.

As the hot weather of the summer is upon us, we extend a very cordial invitation to all who aren't worshipping elsewhere to come and worship with us in cool, air-conditioned comfort.

Mr. and Mrs. Burl Lee Robertson have returned home from a vacation spent in Mexico City.

Last year when we returned from El Paso we had the joyful experience of rain, but this year only blowing wind day after day. We say, "Maybe it will blow up a rain."

Charm Whittenburg and Dewey Smith have just finished a good, strong water well for Hulon Egger. They say that water stands in five feet of the top in the recently abandoned oil well on Austin Cawyer's place.

Luther Jernigan paid us a nice little visit Saturday morning. He said he took one of the men who works on his place to town last week. He noticed that canned biscuits were selling for 10c apiece. He bought a dollar's worth. He took the man home. Then he went on back to town to the cattle sale. After the sale, he went to his car to find it all shot with canned biscuits. He said one had come from the back seat, passed under the front seat and landed on the dash board. He had forgotten to take them out as he came by his home. He said he got another dollar's worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Cawyer of Orange arrived at the Dwyer home Saturday evening. They are here for a week's vacation during which time the Wilmeth reunion was scheduled to take place at the home of Mrs. Dwyer July 4.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

By CHARLES HAENISCH
Commissioner Precinct 1, and Jack McKenzie, local contractor, are doing the work.
Mr. and Mrs. O. S. White and Mary Sue of Temple spent the weekend with Misses Abbie and Ruth Ervin and J. P. Erwin.

An abundance of cover is the word that describes the cover crop of Hubam sweetclover and rye on the L. B. Burnham, Jr. farm on the Colorado River. In keeping with the conservation plan Mr. Burnham developed with the supervisors of the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District a number of years ago, this 163 acre field was planted to Hubam sweetclover and rye. This combination of crops has yielded a large amount of temporary grazing and at the present has a good supply of residue to return to the soil.
Later this summer this field will be plowed to leave the residue on or near the surface of the soil. "Managing the residue of crops in this manner leaves the soil in a condition to take up the moisture when the rains do come", states Mr. Burnham.
Those who are preparing to break their stubble land should begin now to make ready for the fall rains by preparing their soil to hold the rains that falls.
Level Borders have been laid out by technicians of the Soil Conservation Service on the R. L. Burdette farm south of Goldthwaite. Mr. Burdette has begun leveling 41 acres of river bottom farm land which will be used for irrigation.
Oscar Burns recently had diversion and field terrace constructed on his farm west of Goldthwaite. O. H. Shaw, County

Advantages Of Savings Bonds Are Cited By Committee Chairman Duren

The slogan "Safer Than Cash" now applied to United States Savings Bonds doesn't begin to tell the full story, according to W. P. Duren, chairman of the County Savings Bonds Committee.
"Not too many people know about the fine service the Treasury offers to bond holders," Mr. Duren declared. "This service is one of the outstanding features that make the Savings Bond one of the best investments ever offered."
"A good many of us already know that we can get our lost, destroyed, or stolen bonds replaced without cost. But this is just the beginning. The Bureau of the Public Debt, which is the branch of the Treasury that handles all bond records and redemptions, leaves no stone unturned to see that the original intent of the purchaser is carried out in the disposition of bonds."
Mr. Duren called special attention to the provision allowing provision for bonds to be issued to co-owners. He cited the example of the man who died suddenly without an adequate will. He had several thousand dollars in Series E savings bonds, issued in his own name and that of his wife as co-owner. The estate seemed to be in for a long period of litigation. The widow, who needed funds badly, had been told that the savings bonds must become a part of the estate.
Upon advice of a friend, the widow wrote to the Treasury Department. She was quickly informed that the bonds were her property and could be cashed at her discretion. According to regulations, whenever a bond

July 20 Is Date Set For Wheat Referendum On Marketing Quotas

COLLEGE STATION, (Spec.)— Marketing quotas for the 1957 wheat crop have been proclaimed by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson and July 20 set as the date for a referendum when wheat growers will decide by ballot whether the quotas will be put in operation or not. A two-thirds vote favoring the quotas make them effective. Growers who are affected by the marketing quotas, and eligible to vote in the referendum, are those farmers who will harvest more than 15 acres of wheat as grain in 1957. In his proclamation, Secretary Benson said, "This marks the fourth successive year that abnormally large wheat supplies have required the proclamation of marketing quotas for the next wheat crop. It is the third successive year for which the national acreage allotment has had to be set at 55 million acres, the minimum specified by law. "All of the wheat we are likely to need from 1957 production, determined according to the formula in the legislation, could be produced on an acreage of about 12.4 million acres. If it were not for the legal minimum, the national allotment could have dropped to that level." "The plain fact is that, in spite of valiant attempts to channel more wheat into exports, we still have enough wheat for the marketing year beginning July 1, 1956, to take care of all our domestic and export needs for more than two years. The carry-over will again exceed a billion bushels. . . . While we are hopeful about holding down the carry-over into 1957-58, wheat continues as one of the most serious problems in the whole farm economy." "This situation points up the need for the Soil Bank which farmers can use to bring about additional adjustments in production without further reducing their incomes."

HERE'S an ensemble that just sings of sweet summer evenings, a simple but a telling song. Navy or black silk organza dotted in white for the dress with its pretty band effect on the snug bodice. Skirt billows over its own taffeta petticoat. Double organza to match the dress color for the collarless coat with streamer bow in back for a novel touch. And below-the-elbow sleeves. Just about as good a costume for warm weather dining and dancing as we have seen this season and becoming to most women since it has chic and is young without being fussy.

It's Normal For Child To Have "Secrets"

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, Ph.D.

"FROM whom no secrets are hidden" is in many a fervent prayer. But should we parents expect our children to tell us everything always? If we have done so in the past, the time may come when they will rarely tell us anything.
Prying Questions
Parents' prying questions are a source of constant annoyance to teen-agers. And yet we rightfully hope our children will talk freely to us about their doubts and fears, joys and sorrows and worries, which seem important to them. They usually do if we have from their earlier years respected their normal secrets.
Dr. Ernest Osborn, of Columbia University, writes a deeply understanding article on "The Secret Life of School Children," in the April issue of the "National Parent-Teacher."
Perfectly Natural
"Not only is it perfectly natural for children to keep some things to themselves," he says, "but such secretiveness is an essential part of desirable growth."

He pleads with parents not to be shocked or feel suspicious when a sign, "Keep Out," appears on the door of a child's room—whether he is six, ten or fourteen. Respect what this sign indicates. Do not expect him to tell what was said on the other end of his long telephone conversation or what was in his mail.
Many of my readers for a number of years will recall that I have urged parents not to eavesdrop on children, open or read their mail, read their diaries or subject them to prying questions.
Secret Clubs
I have pointed out the normal urge for privacy expressed through secret clubs by children from 8 to 12 and through a secret language like "Pig Latin" used right in the family circle.
Dr. Osborn even says we should not pry into the child's daydreams. He presents the whole matter of secrecy in children so simply, plainly and forcefully that every parent and grandparent should profit from reading his unusual presentation.

Farmers May File For Gasoline Tax Refund Before October 1st

Mills County farmers may obtain a refund of the Federal excise tax on gasoline which is used for farming purposes by filing a claim at any time before October 1, 1956, Sam Hamlett announced today.

Claims for the present Federal tax rate of 2-cents a gallon are to be made on Form 2240 and should be filed with the U. S. District Director of Internal Revenue for the farmer's district. Forms are available in Brownwood at the Internal Revenue office, from county agricultural agents, and at some banks and post offices.

Initial refund payments will concern gasoline purchased and used during the first six months of 1956, according to Mr. Hamlett. Refunds will be limited to Federal tax on gasoline which is used by a farmer for farming purposes, in carrying on a trade or business, on a farm located in the U.S.A. A farmer may also request a refund of the tax on any gasoline which is used on his farm by a custom operator or a neighbor in connection with cultivating the soil, or raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity.

Mr. Hamlett cautions, "farmers expecting to file claims should keep ample records to enable Internal Revenue to verify accuracy of the amount claimed."

MISLEADING ADVERTISING

One huge gasoline price sign plus one small fraction of a cent sign equals one angry automobile driver.

Every auto owner has seen them! A gas war flares in an area and filling stations erect tremendous signs with letters four feet high advertising their cut-rate prices. Then in the upper right hand corner of the sign, barely visible to the naked eye, is that awful fraction "9/10ths".

This type of advertising—while not actually misquoting prices—violates the intent of the Weights & Measures Law.

Weight and measures standards, administered by the Texas Department of Agriculture, are aimed at guaranteeing buyers a full amount of goods for their money. There is also a clause which regulates certain types of advertising. This clause is much abused in Texas.

The weight of the contents of any packaged commodity such as pre-packed meat, tinned goods, bread loaf and similar foodstuffs must be clearly marked. The law also books no trifling with attempts to mislead the customer on prices of these commodities. Yet, on gasoline sales, numerous attempts are made to hide those "fractions until the buyer has already been lured into the driveway.

Most of the filling station operators are unaware they are violating a state law with near-illegible signs. Their competitors do it—and so do they. As a result of a continuous campaign by the Texas Department of Agriculture, most chain stations and many individual owners have corrected their signs. But many of these signs still exist.

A clarification of advertising laws and more publicity for them will be requested next January when the Texas Legislature convenes. This is one of the points of a program being prepared by the Department of Agriculture. Three main objectives include:

1. A new poultry and egg inspection law to prevent Texas from becoming a dumping ground of inferior or diseased products from other states.

2. Heavier penalties for repeated violations of existing laws.

3. Strengthening of license requirements of agricultural firms operating under present laws in order to protect legitimate operators and consumers.

These are but a few of the changes proposed by the Department. A full protective program is planned for Legislative action.

Johnnie Beth Elliott Wins 1956 Star Camper Award At GA Camp

Eleven members of the Girls' Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church attended the district GA camp in Brownwood the week of June 18. They left Goldthwaite early Monday morning and returned Thursday afternoon.

Camp activities included church services, mission study classes, recreation periods and a Coronation Tuesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Joel Fergusson, missionaries to Nigeria, Africa, talked to the girls and showed pictures of their work in Africa at the evening services. During recreation the girls swam, played volley ball, softball and worked on handcraft.

Seven of the girls were in the Coronation Tuesday night. Billie Gale Kemp was recognized for finishing her Malden step, Judy Green, Jan Yeager, Kay Benningfield, Marjorie Spradley, Sandra Arnold and Jeannie Taylor for the Lady-in-Waiting step.

Johnnie Beth Elliott won the Star Camper of 1956 award out of a group of over 400 girls from all over the district. The award was based on her promptness at services, participation in recre-

AUSTIN, Tex. — Politicians are waving their banners. Party leaders seek to rally their cohorts. But right now Texans are far more concerned about water. Farm and city dwellers alike are hard hit. Years of drought have added up. Sizzling summer temperatures, unabated since the last of May, have finished off crop prospects for 1956 in many areas.

Few expect relief before the end of summer. Most despaired some time ago of rains that would "really break" the drought. In Austin and elsewhere attention focused on the often-bitter scrambles for dwindling streamflows. Prolonged and frequently heated testimony has been heard by the State Board of Water Engineers on water rights from the proposed Canyon Dam in South Central Texas. San Antonio sought permission to take 100,000 acre feet of water annually from the dam. It is the only way, said San Antonio officials, that the city can meet its future water needs. Guadalupe Blanco River Authority strenuously opposed the request. Joined by citizens of some 20 small towns in the area GBRA contended that the city allocation would not leave enough for downstream users, nor enough to operate a hydro-electric plant.

Testimony is expected to continue for several weeks. Ultimate decision probably will set a precedent for future controversies. Farther South, the Rio Grande reached its lowest point since it stopped flowing completely in 1953. Falcon Dam was shut down, and a watermaster was appointed to ration the dwindling supply among Valley cities. Legislators making up the state water resources committee came out with an idea for the future. They proposed a $100,000,000 Texas Water Development Fund. Controversy over whether to finance water conservation by an ad-valorem or water-use tax defeated the program last session.

BULGANIN TAKES BRITISH AIR CHIEF FOR A RIDE

SOVIET PREMIER Nikolai A. Bulganin is shown rowing a boat on the lake behind the Red Army Officers Club in Moscow during a party given for distinguished visitors to the Moscow Air Show. In the stern is British Air Chief Nigel Birch. The man in the bow is an interpreter. Party boss Nikita S. Khrushchev was unable to persuade Gen. Nathan F. Twining to enter one of the craft. (International Radiophoto)

This new approach of financing through bonds would bypass the difficulty, said proponents. But it would take a long time. First, legislative action; then a constitutional amendment by the people. Meanwhile farmers are leaving their parched fields and looking for work in town to support their families. LABOR UNIONS ARE ACTIVE — Members of Texas' labor unions are working hard to place Liberals in control of state and party offices. And, a politically-confident tone prevailed among some 1,000 delegates at the State Federation of Labor convention, here. Union labor leaders, who played a mighty important part in ousting the conservatives from control of the Democratic party, have openly announced that they will campaign to: 1. Elect Ralph Yarborough governor; 2. Elect legislators friendly to labor; 3. Defeat Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey; 4. Gain control of the state Democratic convention in September; and 5. Elect Liberals to the State Democratic Executive Committee. LABOR LAW DECISION PENDING — Texas' right-towork law now awaits state Supreme Court ruling, possibly July 11. Opponents and backers of the law clashed sharply in final arguments before the court. Union attorneys declared that the Texas case parallels a Nebraska suit in which the U. S. Supreme Court recently voided that state's right-to-work law in the railway industry. Railroad attorneys objected strenuously. They declared the Texas case presents much broader issues. Said Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd, in behalf of the Texas law, "The issue before this court is the right of any Texas citizen to work in his chosen occupation without being forced to give allegiance to any organization which might be against his personal beliefs." NEW HIGHWAY POLICY — An important new step in state policy has been announced by the Texas Highway Commission, for administering the new federal highway aid program. If and when the state provides it more money, the commission will begin to assume part of the heavy cost of right-of-way—now borne wholly by cities and counties. This for highways of the primary state system not included in the new federal interstate system. CAPITOL AREA TO BE DOUBLED — Plans for a vastly expanded, 25-square-block Capitol area have been unveiled by the State Building Commission. Originally the commission had outlined plans for extending the grounds northward two full blocks to 15th street. This would provide space for the new office building and state court building, due to be started sometime next fall. In adopting the official Capitol master plan, the commission designated future Capitol area all the way to 19th street and pinpointed locations of two more future office buildings. LOCAL OPTION ELECTION VOIDED — A local option liquor election is not legal if held in an area less than an entire justice precinct. By this ruling the Third Court of Civil Appeals made "wet" a large section of Austin which had been "dry" for 21 years. It cast doubt on similarly held elections over the state. The decision is subject to review by the Supreme Court. RETAIL SALES UP AGAIN — By early June Texas retail trade had bounced back from its spring slump. But it failed to match the 1955 average. Sales rose 11 per cent from April to May. Durable goods were up 13 per cent. But for the year as a whole, they are still substantially behind. Reason given by analysts is overproducing and overselling by many automobile and appliance makers last year. SHORT SNORTS — State recovery of veterans land funds was increased to $1,299,418 after an Austin district court rendered a judgment for $45,000 against J. Paul Little of Crystal City. Little has been loser in four suits totaling $179,000. Two more are pending. Texas' share of federal highway building funds will be tripled by the new aid bill which has just received final congressional approval. Gov. Allan Shivers is urging the nation's governors to work for legislation to prevent federal laws from superseding state laws. Trial of Francisco Saenz Jr., former Duval County treasurer, on federal income tax evasion charges was postponed by the U. S. Court at Austin, to July 9. An all-time-high bid for mineral leases on state land was received by the University of Texas when Stanolind Oil Company bid a bonus of $4,250,000 on 3,840 acres of Pecos County land. This was in addition to royalty. Total bonus payments on University leases at the June awards reached $16,437,254. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Page went to Cisco Sunday afternoon to visit his brother.
