W. R. Chambers Announces For Representative

W. R. Chambers, of May, this week authorized the Eagle to announce his candidacy for reelection as State Representative from Comanche, Brown and Mills County, subject to the Democratic Primary election on July 28th.

Mr. Chambers was in Goldthwaite Monday of this week visiting with friends and working in behalf of his candidacy for reelection to the state legislature where he has served for the past 16 years.

In authorizing his announcement he said: "I have served the folks in the district for 16 years in the State legislature and on my record of past performance, experience and broad knowledge of public affairs, I am asking their vote and support for reelection. I will thank each and everyone for their vote and support in the primary election on July 28."

AUSTIN, Tex. — Income and expense reports of candidates show Daniel, Aikin and Wilson leading in both receipts and expenditures, in their respective fields.

U. S. Sen. Price Daniel was far out in front in financial support. He listed contributions totaling $112,849.

Other gubernatorial contenders' kitties stacked up thusly: Reuben Senterfitt, $31,772; Ralph Yarborough $23,865; W. Lee O'Daniel $1,770.

Sen. A. M. Aikin Jr. led in the Governor's race with $19,657 in contributions, as compared with $8,125 for Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey and $6,300 for John Lee Smith.

Will Wilson was far ahead of the pack in the attorney general's race, reporting financial support totaling $21,021.

On the expenditure side of the ledger the leaders held the same positions. In the Governor's race, Daniel spent $82,474; Senterfitt $32,081; Yarborough $25,826; and O'Daniel $20,589.

Among the candidates for Lt. Governor, Aikin reported expenses of $12,244.82; Ramsey $7,003; and Smith $8,583.05.

Wilson again outdistanced his competitors in the campaign for attorney general with a total expenditure of $10,962.

SHOTS CUT POLIO — State Health Department officials believe Salk shots enabled Texans to avert a bad polio year.

Pre-season incidence of polio, they point out, was unusually high this year—224 cases as compared to 167 in 1955. But as the season progressed, immunization was stepped up. Since April 28 there have been only 269 cases compared to 375 in the same period last year.

"This would have been a major polio year," said one official. "Salk vaccine apparently is the answer to why it isn't."

FARM INCOME OFF 13 PER CENT—Texas farm income thus far in 1956 has slid 13 per cent from last year.

Inadequate moisture was the major cause. Prices were off only three per cent. Therefore, most of the drop came from smaller marketings.

State officials took note of the farmer's worsening plight. Gov. Allan Shivers announced the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture has approved extension of the emergency drought feed program for 64 counties.

A request for direct payments to enable drought-hit farmers to purchase hay on the open market was turned over to the state defense and disaster relief office. It came from the Texas Farm Bureau president who said the present federal program is inadequate.

John White, state agriculture commissioner, said the state's rural economy, in many areas, is in the final stages of collapse. Ghost towns are in the making in the heart of some of our richest agricultural lands, he said.

Last week's widely scattered rain brought only temporary relief to some Southwest Texas areas, reported the Agricultural Extension Service. In most sections, said the service, drought is spreading. Result: feed crops are being lost and livestock sold off in large numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Robbins and son, Reggie, spent the 4th of July in Brady.

Coca-Cola To Introduce New Size Bottle Here

The familiar Coca-Cola bottle now has a "big brother."

King-size bottles of the famed soft drink will go on sale today in food and beverage stores here, J. Claude Smith, Manager of the Brownwood Coca-Cola Bottling Company, revealed yesterday.

Mr. Smith said, "This is the first change Coca-Cola has made in its package in forty years."

In announcing the new-size bottle, Mr. Smith pointed out that the present standard Coca-Cola bottle will continue to be the Company's mainstay.

"Our aim in providing the king-size bottle," he said, "is simply to make it more convenient for people to buy and serve Coca-Cola. For several years we have been doing extensive research on buying habits relating to soft drinks. Our surveys show the majority of the public prefer the standard-size bottle, since it is the ideal size for individual drinks."

"The surveys also show, however, there is a potential market for other size bottles. The king-size, for example, is ideal for refreshment in the home."

Mr. Smith disclosed the new-size bottle has the same distinctive shape as the present bottle. "The two will be companion packages," he said, "both in appearance and in uniform quality."

The size is merely a matter of preference and now the public can have its choice.

Air-Conditioning Campaign At Baptist Church Has Good Response

Members and guests of the First Baptist Church in Goldthwaite worshiped in 78 degree cool refrigerated air conditioned comfort last Sunday while the temperature outside was over 100 degrees. This comfort and worthy addition to an already beautiful and adequate Church Plant was made possible by a gift of $5,100, by Mr. Walter Fairman, and an offering of $4,315.81 by the membership.

The Air-Conditioning system cost a total of $10,200, and with the gifts of Mr. Fairman and the remainder of the membership, this leaves yet $784.19 to be raised in the month of July, pastor Ray V. Mayfield announced.

With a total of 307 families in the Church, members of the Air Conditioning Debt-Retirement Committee are very happy that over 229 of these families have

VIC'S . . . .
SOLILOQUY

From the looks of recent market reports, which give a rundown of activities at Mills County Commission Company, it appears that the peak in sheep run through the auction ring was reached about a month ago. On June 8th., the Commission Company handled 15,322 head of sheep on their regular Friday sheep sale day, not to mention the goat sale on Mondays.

That's a lot of sheep to be sold through the ring in a day's time and there is a keen possibility that this figure also sets an all time record in number of head of stock handled by the company in one day.

This may not mean much to some folks but as we see it it reflects a very good and worthwhile business enterprise for Goldthwaite and Mills County. Malcolm and Sig Jernigan, owners of the Commission Company, are responsible for bringing a lot of folks to our community in either bringing sheep and goats to the sale ring or coming to the sale to buy sheep and goats.

It appears that this will be another record year for the company which has shown an increase for the past several years in number of sheep and goats sold through their ring.

Members of the Board of Directors who have charge of the Municipal Pool and Park are due a pat on the back for their untiring efforts in promoting the pool and park as a community and county project.

They have done an exceptionally good job again this year in sponsoring the free swimming instructions for beginners and advanced students alike. The classes were well attended and served a very useful purpose.

Louise (Mrs. Raymond) Little and Edith (Mrs. Walton) Daniel are two of the adults who took advantage of the instructions in the advanced class.

I visited the pool on the last day swimming classes were given instructions as officials notified students they would be awarded Merit Of Achievement certificates for their work.

As the announcement was being made about the awards, Mrs. Little and Mrs. Daniel were swimming near the edge of the pool. At that point Louise said: "You didn't know that Edith and I are getting ready to enter the Olympics, did you?" "Yes we are. Edith is going in for distance and I will go for speed," she concluded.

I told her that I didn't know they had such plans, but I certainly was happy to hear about it so that I could make mention of it and folks could look forward to the event.

Really though, everyone who took part in the swimming classes had a wonderful time and many are looking forward to the possibility of more instructions to be offered later this summer.

Wesley Dice, former district judge for Bell, Lampasas and Mills Counties for twelve years, and now a Commissioner on the Court of Criminal Appeals, was in Goldthwaite one day last week to visit friends and at the same time do a little work in behalf of the candidacy of Judge W. A. Morrison, of Milam County, presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, in his bid for re-election.

Judge Dice was District Attorney before serving as District Judge and made many friends in Mills County while serving in these two capacities. Many local folks will be interested in his activities and present work in connection with the Court of Criminal Appeals.

After completing his duties as district judge Mr. Dice served as State's Attorney before the Court of Criminal Appeals before being appointed a Commissioner on that court. Judge Morrison was instrumental in the appointment of Dice to that court.

Routine that marks modern-day wildlife studies was typified by the report on a mourning dove banded in Texas six years ago and reported bagged in Mexico recently.

The Director of Wildlife Restoration said the dove was banded near Midland by Game Warden Bob Evins, now of Junction, on June 26, 1950, soon after it hatched in a Chinese elm tree.

The report on the band was made by Julian Fejeda of Santa Maria del Valle, Jalisco, Mexico. He forwarded the number on the band which provided the key to details of the original nest marking.

In complying with the instructions on the band, Fejeda wrote: "The ring on the bird's leg had the following inscription (notify Game Comm., Austin, Texas, 20405) so I am pleased to do it and I hope you will be satisfy."

The Director said this cooperation across the border is "very important" since returns on the banded game is vital to studies by technicians concerning nesting, migrating and feeding habits of the game birds.

MARCH OF EVENTS

Four Ex-Cabinet Chiefs In Next U. S. Senate?

Wickard, Brannan, McKay Plus Clinton P. Anderson?

Special to Central Press Association

WASHINGTON—The United States Senate faces the possibility that four former Cabinet members will be in its ranks when it convenes next January.

One of the ex-Cabinet officers already is firmly established in the body, and now heads the joint congressional committee on atomic energy. He is Senator Clinton P. Anderson, the New Mexico Democrat who served as secretary of agriculture during the first two years of former President Truman's administration.

Anderson's immediate predecessor in the agriculture post, Claude Wickard of Indiana, is assured the Democratic nomination for senator in the Hoosier state, and is given about a 50-50 chance of defeating the incumbent Republican, Senator Homer Capehart.

Anderson's immediate successor at the Agriculture department, Charles F. Brannan of Colorado, also is after a Senate seat—that now held by Republican Senator Eugene Millikin. Brannan is expected to win the nomination handily, and also is said to have a good chance of victory against Millikin—or another Republican, should the ailing Millikin retire.

Another former Cabinet officer with senatorial ambitions is Douglas McKay of Oregon. He resigned his Interior department post to run against Senator Wayne Morse. McKay also is given a 50-50 chance of winning.

● STEVENSON STRATEGY?—Now that Adlai E. Stevenson has disposed of Senator Estes Kefauver as a serious rival for the Democratic presidential nomination, the 1952 nominee's strategists are plotting the elimination of Gov. Averell Harriman of New York and Senator Stuart Symington of Missouri as contenders. Plans under consideration include:

- 1—A bid to ex-President Harry S. Truman, who leans toward Harriman, to accept "unanimous" selection as Stevenson's vice presidential running mate.
- 2—A similar offer to Symington, should Truman refuse to go along with Adlai.
- 3—A whispering campaign to the effect that Harriman, at 64, is "too old to run for President."
- 4—The possibility that Gov. Frank Lausche of Ohio might be offered the vice presidential nomination on the theory that if a Stevenson-Lausche ticket were in the works, all other projected combinations would be out in the cold.

● FRAUD CASES DOUBLED—Fraud cases handled by the Justice department more than doubled in number last year in comparison to 1954. Figures recently supplied to Congress showed that the department's frauds section got 2,299 new cases in 1955, in contrast with 1,129 in 1954 and 652 in 1953.

A statement accompanying the statistics said that "there has been a continuing increase in new business coming into this section." The department added: "The work of the frauds section deals with fraud in almost every phase of industry and agriculture."

In order to cope with these cases, the department said, federal attorneys must "familiarize themselves with the production techniques and the accounting and fiscal practices of the industries concerned."

Furthermore, the department stressed that "prompt action is essential for successful prosecution" because "otherwise evidence becomes more difficult to procure and present properly."

THE FARMER'S BEST MARKET—LAND

During recent years agriculture has been a notoriously bad business to get into. Crop prices have dropped steadily and net farm income is now the lowest in our national economy.

Yet, in spite of this farm depression, the farmer's chief investment—the farm itself—has risen in cost to about the same extent that prices for commodities have dropped.

There are several reasons for the rapid rise in land prices. The most important has been the need of farmers for additional land to off-set lower acreage allotments. Other farmers need more land to take full advantage of increased mechanical equipment and keep income up, despite falling prices, with added production.

Then too, business and professional men with plenty of money to spend have been investing in land. Some want a farm as a place to retire, and others buy small farms for homes and hobbies—and tax write-offs. Farm land prices in suburban areas have gone up most.

But despite this strong demand and prices up nearly 30% since 1950, farm sales have continued at a very low level. Those who could have held onto their land, either because of stubbornness and determination to stay put or else for higher stakes.

However, for those who are buying land or for those who are holding out for all-time-high prices on that land they have for sale, a word of caution is advised.

Of course, it is sometimes hard to evaluate good land in terms of cash, considering what natural and human resources have gone into "making" a farm. But, practical matters considered, most current land prices are above level that can be justified by present or prospective earnings.

Farm operating costs are almost certain to go higher. Labor wages are on the upward trend, and so are transportation, machinery and other supplies. The cost-price squeeze shows little or no signs of easing. Refinancing credit is less plentiful, and interest rates are higher.

Also, there is no land shortage in sight, probably not for two generations, and even then per-acre farm output will have increased to such a level as to be more than plentiful for our population.

In short, unless there is a more rapid rise in farm commodity prices than now appears likely, it will take longer to pay out a farm on the present market than at any time in 40 years if the farmer relies solely on the sale of farm products. And that's about all they grow.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. McLean and children, Paula and Scott, spent last week in Houston, Galveston and Texas City, where they visited friends and enjoyed the various sights of the Coast.

Soil Bank Agreement Forms Are Available At County ASC Offices

COLLEGE STATION, (Spec.)—The County ASC Offices now have copies of the Soil Bank Acreage Reserve agreements available for signature by farmers wishing to participate in the program, according to R. G. Shrauner, Chairman of the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. A short visit to the county office will provide interested farmers with full information on terms and conditions of participation in the Acreage Reserve, which is the first part of the program to get underway this year.

"Growers interested in taking part in the Acreage Reserve have until July 20 to sign the Soil Bank agreements, designating the acreage of wheat (or other "basic" crop) which they wish to include under the Reserve," Chairman Shrauner states.

A wheat grower who wishes to participate in the Acreage Reserve this year, the Chairman explained, first must have complied with all allotments set for his farm. However, any farm may produce one acre of peanuts without becoming ineligible for Acreage Reserve. If he can meet this condition, he then has three or four opportunities for earning payments on 1956 crops.

Such a farmer may earn payments either by underplanting, by crop loss through weather conditions or other natural causes, or by plowing or cutting the crop to reduce the acreage below the allotment. Certain conditions for eligibility are attached to all the methods of qualifying for the Acreage Reserve. Payments per bushel vary with counties but will be based on county rate times the normal or the appraised yield, according to the method of qualifying. Payments for underplanting winter wheat, seeded last fall for harvest in 1956, may be made only if the farmer underplanted his farm wheat allotment because of adverse weather conditions. The rate for this practice is $4 per acre.

WHAT'S IN IT for you — if you step out and buy yourself a 1956 Buick right now?

Well, first of all — the time is right.

Right now, your present car is at its peak worth.

And, with the whole summer and almost half of '56 still ahead of you, you'll get more enjoyment out of a spirited new Buick this year — if you buy now.

Second, there's the matter of how much more automobile your money buys in the best Buick yet.

We tell you flatly that nowhere but in a '56 Buick can you get so much bounty for so little booty.

It's one big reason why Buick now ranks in the

That sure makes Buick a whale of a lot of car for the money. And look:

Nowhere but in a '56 Buick can you get the absolute smoothness and the electrifying performance of Buick's terrific new Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

Nowhere else can you get the obedient responsiveness of Buick's big and mighty new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine. Or Buick's matchless new handling ease and ever-level ride buoyancy — or Buick's bold new sweep-ahead styling, and solidity of structure, and stretch-out roominess.

Add it all up and the answer comes out the same, any way you figure it: Now's the time to buy your 1956 Buick.

Will you come in — before another sun sets — and get set with your best buy yet?

COUNTY HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENT

By LUCY MAY BURRUS

4-H DRESS REVUE IS BIG SUCCESS

Everyone present at the 4-H Girls Dress Revue in the Melba Theatre Friday, July 6 was pleased with the participation in the Revue. There were 13 skirts entered in the Junior Class.

Linda Jewell is the only girl in the county that can meet the requirements for the District Dress Revue. To enter the District Dress Revue, the girl must be fourteen years of age, have had three years of 4-H Club work and be enrolled in a clothing program. Linda moved in from another county. The lack of a home demonstration agent in Mills County for the last several years made it impossible for any of the other girls to enter.

Mrs. C. S. Smith took donations Thursday, July 5, from the local merchants and other citizens to provide prizes for the dress revue. We wish to thank everyone who made the prizes possible.

The construction of garments were judged by Mrs. Dianne Valentine, Coryell County Home Demonstration Agent and the revue was judged by Mrs. Charles Haensch. Score sheets were made up for the judges use. There were four parts of the scoring: The Girl; The costume on the Girl; The Costume; and The Record and Story. Several very good skirts were brought down because the girls did not understand that the records were necessary.

Three different classes of awards were given: Blue ribbon, red ribbon and white ribbon groups. The girls earning a blue award were: Hilda Mae Frank of the Star 4-H Club, age 11; Mildred Spinn of Priddy 4-H, age 11; Tommie Sue Copeland, Star 4-H, age 13; and Carolyn Spinn, Priddy, 4-H, age 13. These girls received a pair of good scissors and a measuring gauge.

The girls earning a red ribbon were: Linda Jewell, Star 4-H, age 14; Eunice Striepe, Priddy 4-H, age 12; Virginia Martinez, Goldthwaite 4-H, age 15; Kayvon Coffman, Star 4-H, age 12; Parky Edmondson, Mullin 4-H, age 12; Carol Ann Seilheimer, Priddy, 4-H, age 13; and Margie

Beth McCasland, Star 4-H, age 13. These girls were given a tracing wheel, tracing paper, pin cushion, package of needles, hem gauge and a tape measure.

Girls earning a white ribbon were: Ann Hohertz, Mullin 4-H, age 13; Rounda Nell Duncan, Star 4-H, age 13; and Barbara Stegemoller, Priddy 4-H, age 13. These girls were given a tape measure, hem gauge, tracing wheel, package of needles and a pin cushion.

Mrs. Nickols, owner and manager of the Melba Theatre, gave each of the girls, Mrs. Haensch and myself a complimentary pass to the show for the month of July.

Good sewing equipment given as prizes instead of clothing specialists from M. Again we wish to thank who contributed and made possible to give prizes.

Miss Annie Lucy Lane, District Agent, was present at our Dress Revue. Approximately 30 people came to watch the revue.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Coffey, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Townsend, Hobbs, New Mexico, were end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilkey and Carolyn. Carolyn turned home with them for two weeks visit.

TU Bureau Of Business Research Reports On Agriculture In Texas

AUSTIN, (Spec.) — Texas farmers have watched their total cash income plunge 13% from last year, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Farm marketing for the first five months of 1956 brought $483,638,000, as compared with $555,981,000 for January-May 1955.

Only 7 of the 17 major commodities reported produced more income this January-May than last: peanuts (plus 37%), corn (plus 19%), poultry (plus 16%), grain sorghums (plus 15%), milk and milk products (plus 12%), fruit and vegetables (plus 7%), and sheep and lambs (plus 7%).

Cash income was lower from hogs (-3%), wool (-6%), calves (-13%), eggs (-14%), cattle (-21%), cotton (-23%), mohair (-29%), oats (-44%), wheat (-70%), and flaxseed (-83%). The two major Texas farm products, cattle and cotton, brought over $60 million less total cash income during January-May 1956 than in the same months of 1955.

Prices Received by Farmers in Texas. Most of the cutback in farm income has been due to smaller marketing, for May prices of farm products in Texas averaged only 3% lower than in May 1955, according to indexes compiled by the Agricultural Marketing Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture. The USDA index of all Texas farm products rose 1% from April to May 1956, largely because of the 2% rise in prices of livestock and livestock products. Prices received for crops in May had virtually no change from April, but were 6% below May 1955. Prices received for livestock and related products gained 1% in the May 1955-May 1956 comparison.

Only one farm commodity declined in price from April to May—food grains (-1%). Of the other ten commodities listed, three (fruit, truck crops, and wool) had changes of less than one-half of one percent. Gains were made by cotton (plus 1%), meat animals (plus 1%), poultry and eggs (plus 1%), feed grains and hay (plus 2%), oil-bearing crops (plus 2%), dairy products (plus 3%), and potatoes and sweet potatoes (plus 6%).

Carload Shipments. May carload shipments of livestock were 10% below April shipments and 11% below May 1955 shipments. In the April-May comparison, hogs (plus 20%) and sheep (plus 92%) registered significant gains. But the decreases in calves (-8%) and cattle (-21%) brought the overall change down to -10%. Carload shipments of fruit and vegetables on the other hand, were running 15% higher this year (i. e. for January-May) than they did in the comparable period last year. Shipments of fruit increased 4%, and shipments of vegetables increased 11%.

Texas' Dry Panhandle. The July issue of the Texas Business Review surveys the rainfall situation in ten key areas of the High Plains during the present drought and compares it with the situation in the 1930's. Indications are that this drought, which has enveloped most parts of the area since 1950, is the longest, hardest the region has ever had. Records for these reporting stations were examined:

1. Amarillo—20.1 inches average rainfall since 1891. During the 1930's there were eight consecutive years below average. In the present drought the last five years have been below average, the last four years below 16.3 inches.

2. Childress—21.4 inches average since 1891. During the 1930's the seven years were below average. The years 1950-1954 were all below average; however, 1955 was above average.

3. Dalhart—17.9 inches average since 1908. During the 1930's there was only one year above average. In the present drought the last five years have all been below average; last year, only 8.4 inches was recorded.

4. Lubbock—18.3 inches average since 1912. During the 1930's there were three extremely dry years but also four years over average. In the present drought the last six years have all been below average.

5. Miami—22.4 inches average since 1906. During the 1930's only one year was above average.

Farm Bureau President Urges Emergency Federal Hay Program

WACO, (Spl.) — Texas Farm Bureau President J. Walter Hammond has urged Governor Allan Shivers to request an emergency federal hay program for drought-stricken Texas livestock producers.

In a telegram to the Governor, Hammond said the present federal feed grain assistance program is inadequate to meet the existing need for roughage for cattle.

"I strongly urge that you request Secretary of Agriculture Benson to institute adequate direct subsidy payments to eligible producers in Texas drought-designated counties," Hammond wired the Governor. He suggested that county ASC committees could determine eligibility of producers.

"Direct payments would permit purchasing of hay on the open market," Hammond said. "This would expedite the hay program and reduce administrative costs."

The Texas Farm Bureau president said that his organization "deems immediate action necessary to enable producers to retain foundation stock and to prevent a disastrous run on the market."

Eligible producers in drought-designated counties are able to buy fed concentrates under the present emergency feed program. Livestock producers and dairymen can get $1 per 100 pounds reduction for feed fed to foundation herds. Feeds eligible for payment include corn, maize, barley and rye.

Hammond said that such feed concentrates did not meet the need of livestock for a "filler" such as hay.

Mrs. Lee Tesson returned home last week from Phoenix where she had visited her past month with her husband and family.
