AUSTIN, Tex.—Saturday is V-Day . . . "Voting Day" in Texas. It's the Democratic primary!

It could be the biggest voting day in Texas history. Paid poll taxes and exemptions total a record-setting 2,410,188.

Not all these people will mark ballots. Some are Republicans. They don't vote in a Democratic Primary. And some Democrats will stay home.

Not since the Ferguson Era have more than 80 per cent of qualified voters turned out for a primary. General elections have run higher. Biggest vote ever cast in the state was 2,075,946 in the 1952 general election. This was an 87 per cent turnout. Highest primary vote so far was the August, 1954, total of 1,458,220.

Whether candidates in their final fervent appeals, these last few hours, will be able to stir out more voters remains to be seen. Even harder to predict is who will have the edge in major state races. Most informed observers hedged their guesses with "ifs," "buts" and "maybes." They watched the stray votes and sample polls, checked the betting odds, but still weren't sure. Major cause for uneasiness is that rapid growth and shifts in Texas' population have wiped out many of the old rules of thumb on what it takes to win.

Fifteen years ago the rural vote was all-important. Non-metropolitan votes still are in the majority and they are "dependable" votes. However, the five major cities have between them nearly a million eligible voters 917,209. In this big city market, labor claims a 450,000 to 500,000 "sphere of influence" vote.—But admitted it couldn't deliver that many in a bloc to anyone.

Another big question mark is how much voters will be influenced by the three segregation-related referendum issues.

HOW TO VOTE ON REFERENDUMS—A check of voters who cast absentee ballots reveals much confusion about how to vote properly on the three referendums.

Robert Cargill, chairman of the Texas Referendum Committee, puts it simply, in these words: "If you are opposed to mixed schools, mixed marriage and illegal federal interference, vote FOR all three propositions."

Due to the wording of the referendums, it is necessary for one to vote for the measure if he is against the subjects that each covers.

For example, the first proposition reads "FOR (or against) specific legislation exempting any child from compulsory attendance at integrated schools attended by white persons and negroes."

Proposition number two reads "FOR (or against) specific legislation perfecting state laws against intermarriage between white persons and negroes."

Third proposition says "FOR (or against) the use of interposition to halt illegal Federal encroachment."

The use of double-negatives is most confusing.

Monday night on the local diamond, Priddy again showed how to play ball by winning over the Tigers 13-4. The second game of the double header was between the Giants and the Yankees, this was really a close game with the Yanks winning by one point, 9-8.

Mullin was host to the Indians on their home field on Monday night of this week. The score was 13-4 in favor of the Indians.

Tomorrow night, Friday, July 27, brings to a close the scheduled games for the Little League. Dates for the play-offs will be announced later, watch the Eagle for these dates.

Absentee Balloting Reported Heavy For First Primary Election Saturday

Applications for absentee ballots for the first primary election scheduled this Saturday, July 28, have been issued by County Clerk Walter A. Bryant at a rapid rate, it was announced Tuesday, the last day to make application for absentee ballot.

Mr. Bryant announced that 293 absentee ballots were issued before the deadline Tuesday night. Not all of these ballots had been cast at that time. It is expected that most of those who applied for absentee ballots will cast their vote before the deadline Saturday noon. All Absentee Ballots must be in the hands of the County Clerk by Saturday noon, July 28, Election Day.

The number of absentee ballots applied for this year reflects a considerable increase over two years ago at the last regular election. This would indicate that interest in the election is running higher than is manifested in street conversation.

From all indications local folks are taking little interest in the campaign with respect to the state candidates seeking nomination. By the same token there is no heated battle on the local scene with only a limited number of offices open this year and the number of candidates small. At this stage of the game the national picture hasn't crystallized to the point where folks get too excited.

Only two county offices and two precinct offices are open this year. All others are carry-overs with a four year term. Those elected this year will be for a four year term.

Offices to be filled this year on a county-wide basis are that of Sheriff-Tax Assessor and Collector and County Attorney. Precinct offices are those of commissioner in precincts one and three.

Two candidates are in the field for nomination as Sheriff-Tax Assessor and Collector. They are C. F. Stubblefield, who is seeking re-election and W. F. Benningfield.

A. M. Pribble is seeking re-election as County Attorney without opposition.

Making their bid for nomination for Commissioner, precinct 1, are O. H. Shaw who is seeking re-election and Woodrow W. Long.

Three candidates are in the race for nomination as commissioner in precinct three. They are incumbent W. T. Lee, W. H. Hodges and Otto M. Singleton.

Polls will open in the respective voting precincts at 7:00 o'clock Saturday morning and will remain open until 7:00 o'clock p.m.

Voting places according to number and location, and presiding judge, for the election have been announced as follows:

- No. 1, Goldthwaite - District Courtroom, Mrs. Mamie Palmer;
- No. 3, Antelope Gap-Fields Hinds; No. 4, Center City-Martin McCasland; No. 5, Payne Gap-I. T. Howell; No. 6, Star, John Soules; No. 7, Caradan-Raymond Horton; No. 8, Mullin-George M. VIC'S . . .

SOLILOQUY

Ronnie, the talkative six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Truett Aldridge, had quite an interesting experience a few days ago. He went with his uncle and aunt to attend a family reunion down near the coast and while there they also visited in Galveston where Ronnie took in the sights of the Gulf of Mexico. Yes, he even went swimming in the Gulf.

We refer to Ronnie as being 'Talkative'. For the benefit of those who don't know him we might explain it a little. Actually he is one little boy who has less to say about anything, or anytime, than any other little boy we have ever known. As a matter of fact, he doesn't talk—much.

When they started on this trip, or were making plans for it, he was cautioned by his mother, and other members of the family, to have a good time and that "you must talk".

From all indications he had a wonderful time attending the reunion, visiting the Gulf, going swimming and all. He hadn't expressed himself too much during the trip, although he seemed quite impressed with seeing the Gulf of Mexico.

When the trip was over some one asked him what he liked most about the trip. He answered: "The LAKE."

Also, would you please announce that the Harris Reunion will be held the second Sunday in August, which will be the 12th., at Coggin Park at Brownwood."

"Here is a money order for my Eagle. Please keep it flying, as I would be completely lost without it. I can hardly wait for Saturday morning to come, since we get the paper on that day," writes Mrs. Ella Bishop of Hearne, Texas.

Mrs. J. E. Williams writes from Hamilton: "Find check for renewal of our subscription. I couldn't afford to miss a copy of the good old Eagle."

When Mrs. Wes M. Apple moved from Holly, Colorado, to Goodwell, Oklahoma, she wrote as follows: "Please send the Eagle to me at our new address as I do not wish to miss a single copy. It is a great pleasure to read especially the fifty years ago items as I was a little girl living at Center City at that time." She is the former Irma Hawkins.

"You can run a headline in the paper saying: 'I'm going to have a green yard now, we have our new well pumping,'" was the comment from Loy Long one morning last week. He was mighty proud when he took me up to the house to show their new water well in operation and the grass beginning to green again. It was a pretty sight as all those are where folks have their own wells.

Every summer when the extreme dry season hits us folks are faced with the problem of needing more water, especially if they try to have a lawn, flowers or gardens.

It isn't the fact that the city is pumping less water. It is simply the fact that the people are using more water than ever before. The city is providing more water than ever before but when a long period of dry and hot weather hits us the demand is greater than the capacity to produce by city water facilities.

It seems that each year a number of new families drill their own wells and yet the demand for water still increases every year. This is not only a local problem, it is a problem being faced in every community throughout the State of Texas and many other states as well.

DOUBLE STANDARD

It has long been illegal for corporations to make contributions to candidates for political office. This legal restriction, obviously, is based on the theory that corporations otherwise would use their economic power to elect men who would serve special interests.

Whether or not such laws are wise is debatable. What it is not debatable, however, is that similar restrictions do not apply to organizations which also have great economic power—the unions.

The head of a major union, the International Ladies' Garment Workers, has said that his union will have more than $500 thousand available for contributions to candidates in this year's national election campaigns. He said also that the combined AFL-CIO political fund may reach $3 million.

What conceivable justification can there be in forbidding corporations from financing political candidates—and at the same time permitting powerful unions to spend money on a huge scale for political ends?

MARCH OF EVENTS

Cabinet Changes Probable | Wilson, Weeks and Folsom
If Ike Wins Second Term | Believed Eager to Retire

Special to Central Press Association

WASHINGTON—If President Eisenhower should win re-election this autumn, as most Washingtonians think, you can look for several changes in his Cabinet for his second term.

Only three of Ike's original Cabinet appointees left during his first term in office—Welfare Secretary Oveta Culp Hobby, Interior Secretary Douglas McKay and Labor Secretary Martin Durkin.

However, several others are known to be anxious to get back into private life and it's a good bet that they will offer their resignations if Ike gets a second term in the White House.

Among these are Commerce Secretary Sinclair Weeks, Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson and the new Welfare secretary, Marion Folsom.

Folsom wants to return to his position with the Eastman Kodak company. Weeks is said to have tired of public life and its problems, and Wilson also is reported anxious to get back to General Motors.

There also have been reports that Secretary of State John Foster Dulles would like to retire, but the President is said to want his foreign policy chief to return. Also definitely certain of reappointment in a second-term Cabinet are Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey and Attorney General Herbert Brownell. Other Cabinet members also are expected to remain.

● HARD FEELINGS—Political observers are convinced there is no prospect for a Stevenson-Kefauver ticket for the Democrats this year in the wake of the bristling Florida and California primary campaigns.

Although both aspirants for the Democratic presidential nomination maintained a surface friendship, both were stung by some of the other's statements in the heat of battle.

Stevenson was particularly ruffled by Kefauver's assertion that he was conducting a "smile and smear" campaign, likening the 1952 nominee's attitude to that adopted by President Eisenhower toward Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Kefauver was angered by the statement of Stevenson supporter Millard Caldwell, former Florida governor, that the senator was a "sycophant" in his efforts to woo the Negro vote.

● SISTER'S ROLE—Adlai Stevenson's sister, Mrs. Elizabeth S. (Euffie) Ives, is expected to play an increasing role in her brother's campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Should Stevenson be elected President, Mrs. Ives undoubtedly would become his official White House hostess, since the former Illinois governor is unmarried. She would like nothing better.

Mrs. Ives also is considered a powerful political asset for her brother. Party officials noted that she received the warmest ovation at a recent Democratic women's luncheon when she was introduced along with the wives of some other possible candidates—including Mrs. Estes Kefauver, Mrs. Lyndon Johnson and Mrs. Stuart Symington.

In addition, she supplies Adlai with some of the "family atmosphere" which Stevenson would otherwise lack, since he is a divorced man. That, as any political expert will tell you, is mighty important.

'Family Atmosphere' Needed

● BACK TRACK—Look for the Federal Reserve to backtrack on its tight money policy some time in the next few weeks. However, it will not be due to criticism of its action in April hiking interest rates charged banks for loans.

The Federal Reserve adjusts its policies to meet changing conditions, and now it faces a changed condition—business activity is slackening. Easing the supply of money by lowering the interest rate would be calculated to increase business investment, and thus speed up commercial activity of all kinds.

State Capitol NEWS

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Tex. — Reunions. Rodeos. Fishing trips. From now until school starts, vacationing Texans will take to the highways by the thousands.

They are likely to find the roads more crowded than at any time in the state's history.

From year to year, total traffic volume has climbed steadily. Highway Department surveys show. In addition, vacation months bring a steep jump.

August especially is a headache for the Department of Public Safety. Accident rates climb sharply. During the past five years August accident rates have been from 3 to 27 per cent higher than in July.

"People try to over-drive on a long vacation trip," says Asst. Chief C. G. Connor of the Texas Highway Patrol. "Fatigue is a particular problem. Speed is another."

They can't do much about people who drive when they're too tired, Connor admits. But something can and has been done about speed.

"Installation of radar detection devices has had a tremendous impact on driving practices," said Connor.

Studies made before and after radar use was begun on state and federal highways in November, 1954, show: (1) excessive speeding dropped from 21 to 15 per cent, (2) accidents dropped 3.4 per cent and (3) deaths dropped 1.9 per cent.

During the same period accidents on the non-radar-patrolled stretches—farm to market roads, city streets, etc.—climbed 13 per cent. A similar increase could have been expected on the state and federal highways, Connor believes, especially since total mileage increased also—nearly 5 per cent.

Had normal trends continued, 181 more lives would have been lost in 1955.

OPERATION ALERT SCHEDULED — Would Texans know what to do if atomic bombs fell? To find out, a full-scale drill will be held July 20.

Five key areas—Houston, El Paso, Austin, Waco and the Fort Worth-Dallas area—will be assumed hit by bombs between 11 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. that day.

Smaller towns and rural areas also will participate in Operation Alert. Many have been designated as reception centers for evacuees from cities.

State Civil Defense and Disaster Relief Headquarters in Austin has asked all mayors, county judges and other local civil defense officials to cooperate.

Strategic industrial centers, such as Beaumont-Port Arthur, will practice evacuating plants and schools. Military bases will test their full-scale emergency measures.

Purpose of the drill is to show up any flaws in the plan whereby federal, state and local officials and trained volunteers would cooperate to cope with a major catastrophe.

Nationally, Operation Alert will presume 52 cities bombed. FCC has ordered all radio and TV stations off the air at 3:10 p.m. July 20. Special civil defense frequencies, 640 and 1240, will be used for test broadcasts of disaster instructions.

PHYSICAL ED TEACHERS RE-ASSURED — Physical education teachers won't be out of jobs if proposed new high school graduation requirements are adopted.

Commissioner of Education J. W. Edgar clarified the plan for alarmed teachers. Physical education and health courses still are required by state law, he said.

A State Board of Education study committee recommended they no longer be counted among the 16 units required for graduation. Committee suggestions were part of an overall effort to strengthen high school curricula academically, especially in scientific studies.

VACCINE FOR ADULTS SEEN SOON — Texans over 20 may be able to get polio vaccinations within "a month or two."

But, said State Health Department officials, this is still "purely speculative." Actual timing will depend on when the vaccine supply exceeds that needed for youngsters and expectant mothers.

In Texas, polio takes its heaviest toll among tots under four years old. They have 51.2 per cent of all cases, 69.1 per cent of paralytic cases.

Persons over 20 account for only 17.4 per cent of total incidence, 6.8 per cent of paralytic cases.

Forty-one new cases were reported in the state last week, bringing the '56 total to 440.

WORST AND MORE OF IT — More and more Texans have less and less water. In its monthly report, the State Water Board listed these gloomy details:

Texas reservoirs were down 17 per cent, and observation wells and springs were at all-time lows.

Storage in Trinity River basin lakes was at 27 per cent of capacity; in Red River lakes, 55 per cent; in Lake Texoma, 51 per cent.

Famous Comal Springs near New Braunfels ceased to flow for the first time in history.

Ground water levels, below average in almost all areas, hit record lows in four areas.

No general area of the state could claim normal rainfall. Statewide precipitation was 46 per cent of normal.

SHORT SNORTS — Texans had approximately 7 million acres of cotton under cultivation as of July 1, reported the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture. This was one per cent less than 1955, 20 per cent less than the 10-year average. . . Though the primary election is not until July 28, thousands of Texans already have had their say on who goes into office next year. Absentee balloting began July 9, continues through July 24. . . Texas will get a 22 per cent increase this year in funds for its public school lunch program, announced the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture. . . The state acted to make Duval and Jim Wells counties safer for voters on election day. Three rangers were stationed at Alice after boss George Parr stormed into the Duval Co. courthouse, armed with a rifle, in search of his political foe

Tom Molina. He was disarmed and faces a misdemeanor charge.

THE TIME TO BE SAFE IS ALL THE TIME . . .

Wake up! Remember all the time is the time to be safe. Home equipment can be a friend or a foe. . . So use it with care.

For instance, take the ladder. It's a friend when it lifts you up and a foe when it lets you down. Set it securely, far enough from the wall. Work at least two steps from the top. Be careful when on a ladder. Remember the leg you break will be your own.

Keep all your kitchen implements stored safely away when not in use. A fork on the floor may be stepped on by a bare-footed child. Think, to be safe.

Matches are one of the best friends of man. But keep them out of reach of children. Be sure matches are out before they are thrown away. A lot of houses go up in smoke as a result of fires that start through carelessness.

Somebody's waiting for this invitation...FROM YOU

Take someone to church this week...you'll both be happier for it

There's somebody in our town... maybe the new family down the street... maybe the people next door... or that youngster at the office... There's someone in town you know... or know about, who would be really flattered if you asked them to go—with you—to church or synagogue.

Ask them—this week—won't you?

Give them a Faith to live by  Worship with them this week

BALMORHEA STATE PARK has everything built on a scale to fit San Solomon Springs, the world's largest walled swimming pool. Here the big cantilever world's largest furnishes a perch for six West Texas beauties.

PARK OF THE WEEK — Balmorhea State Park in Reeves County is built around San Solomon Springs. The park is between the Davis and the Barilla Mountains at an elevation of about 3,345 feet above sea level which assures cool nights.

San Solomon Springs are remarkable in that there has been no sign of decrease in their flow since the early days when they watered buffalo herds. Even through the state's long drouth the springs have steadily delivered 26 million gallons of crystal clear water daily into the world's largest walled swimming pool.

Park facilities include 18 air-cooled, Spanish type, stucco cabins with red tiled roofs, and a camping area with twelve units along the cool stream flowing from the springs. Each camping unit is concrete floored with a sheltering roof, and is supplied with an outdoor cooking place, electric lights and water. For cabin occupants and campers who do not wish to cook, there is a large dining room with well prepared meals.

Balmorhea State Park is on U. S. Highway 290 at Toyahvale. It is reached easily from Midland, Odessa, Monahans, Pecos and other cities on U. S. Highway 80 by turning south on State Highway 17 at Pecos. Farther west turn off at Kent.

We know there are Christians who are very efficient in their line of work, but God uses some simple ones. The Bible says: "But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; First Corinthians 1:27.

Voters also should remember that they may split their votes on the referendums, if they wish. For example, if a voter were opposed to mixed marriages and illegal federal interference, but not opposed to mixed schools, he would vote FOR the two propositions, and against the latter.

RESEARCH LEAGUE HELPS TEXAS—In contrast with the campaign furor, the Texas Research League works quietly. Their aim is better state government. Election winners, whoever they are, likely will have cause to use the league's exhaustive fact-finding survey.

Only three years old, TRL already has provided Texas taxpayers with nearly a million dollars worth of services. All for free. Big businessmen are footing the bill.

Behind the organizing and financing of the league are nearly 500 business and professional leaders. Their names constitute a Texas "Who's Who." These men, with a bigger than average stake in Texas' future, felt their billion-dollar-a-year state government should have the benefit of the same type of efficiency expert techniques that aid private enterprise.

Ben C. Belt, president of Gulf Oil Corporation, Houston, is chairman of the 72-member board of directors. Alvin A. Burger, a nationally-recognized government research expert, is executive director. A modest office suite two blocks west of the Capitol houses the 21-member staff.

TRL was set up as a non-profit, non-political, educational corporation. It is prohibited by its charter from lobbying for the adoption of any of its recommendations. It can undertake a survey only at the request of the department concerned.

Apparently these restrictions have not hampered its effectiveness. While its analyses may turn up faults and criticisms, state agencies are standing in line for its services. Recommendations from surveys made so far have resulted in far-reaching administrative and legislative changes.

Agencies now working toward league-suggested goals include the state hospital system, University of Texas, and the public school financing (Gilmer-Aikin) program.

A State Library Commission survey is to be ready in about two weeks. Reports on the Department of Public Safety and Board of Control are to be completed by the end of summer. A mammoth State Highway Department analysis is due for release in September.

Slated for beginning in 1957 are studies of the Department of Public Welfare and the Youth Development Council.

SHEPPERD URGES ACTION—Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd has urged the House Investigating Committee to conduct full on-the-ground hearings to uncover election frauds in Duval and surrounding counties.

Shepperd's comment on the situation came as the result of a wire Rep. Wade Spillman, chairman of the committee, sent to C. B. Dick of Laredo. Dick had requested an investigation of absentee voting practices in Webb, Zapata, Jim Hogg, Duval and Starr Counties.

In a wire to Spillman, Shepperd cited a group of bills introduced in the last legislature, at the request of his office, and the Texas Press Association. The measures, he pointed out, would eliminate such situations as now exist in the South Texas area.

All the bills, Shepperd said, failed to win legislative approval.

"Since 1953, we have tried to interest legislative agencies in the cleanup of Duval, and your committee will discover, as we did, that the same thing that happened there can happen in any county where a political boss can control election officials and machinery and the judicial processes," Shepperd said.

The bills to which he referred would open meetings of public agencies, allow full inspection of public records, protect reporters' source of information, require full publication of financial statements of counties and school districts, require an audit upon proper petition by taxpayers, provide punishment for false reporting of official finances or theft of public funds or records, and give venue in adjoining counties in case of theft of public funds.

MORE DROUGHT AID SOUGHT—A committee of 175 Texas agricultural leaders, called together by Ag. Comm. John C. White, is working for two-way expansion of federal drought assistance.

Goals include a six-point credit program and direct subsidies of $10 a ton for buying hay and other roughage.

County Judge W. S. Pickett of Karnes County heads an 11-member group designated to push the program.

RIGHT OF WAY BUYING URGED—Getting the "right of way" is the only major obstacle likely to delay the federal highway building program in Texas.

Enough road building equipment now is on hand to double the present work capacity within two years, said members of the Texas Highway Associated General Contractors.

Cities and counties which can do so were urged to buy up roadway immediately.

Other needs foreseen by the industry include the use of prestressed concrete, to get around the steel shortage; and higher state salaries for beginning engineers, in order to compete with federal employers.
