Mills County Milk Goats Are Good Will Ambassadors To El Salvador

Mills County milk goats are the latest ambassadors of good will to the Central American republic of El Salvador.

Texas headquarters of the Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP) have announced the arrival of 31 Nubian goats in San Salvador. Twenty-nine goats were consigned to the Instituto de Colonizacion Rural and two goats to the American Friends Service Committee.

The goats will provide a basic dairy herd for three pioneer farm communities. Nubians were chosen for their high milk yield. The goats were purchased from H. F. Feight, Rochelle; Grover Dalton, Mullin; and Keith Randle, Granbury. They were shipped to New Orleans by truck, from which point they were air expressed to El Salvador.

The project was approved by the Texas CROP Committee last March upon the recommendation of Dr. Daniel Russell of Texas A & M who had personally observed the need for dairy goats in El Salvador last year. Dr. Russell is again visiting El Salvador this summer on behalf of the federal government. The Texas AFL-CIO Joint Council contributed $200 to the project; additional goats were purchased by Sunday schools and interested individuals. The government of El Salvador will reimburse CROP for shipping costs.

CROP is the food-and-fiber program of Church World Service, an agency for church-directed relief throughout the world. CROP in Texas collects cotton, rice, wheat, and other commodities for overseas relief shipment and sponsors self-help projects such as milk goat shipment to El Salvador.

Benefit Barbecue Nets $174.47 For Landscaping Of Mills County Park

The clean-up day, swimming pool opening and the benefit barbecue at the park last Thursday was a big success. A large group of workers showed up with their equipment and did a good job of clearing and cleaning the park area. A total of $300.50 worth of tickets to the barbecue were sold.

The swimming pool enjoyed a record crowd for the opening day of the new season and attendance has been reported good since opening day.

Miss Anna Gene Hale, band director, had the band on hand and rendered several numbers before dinner was served. Mrs. R. C. Felts of San Saba introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Charles Crane of San Saba. Mrs. Crane explained the work they had done on the park at San Saba and gave the group some pointers on landscaping and improving the park here.

According to report from Mrs. T. M. Glass and Mrs. W. P. Duren of the Garden Club the organization realized $174.47 from the benefit barbecue. This will be applied towards the expense of landscaping the park. In addition to this amount members of the Lions Club had previously pledged $170 and other contributions have been made to the fund.

This leaves the landscaping committee in financial position to go ahead with their project although it will in all probability be necessary to raise more funds before the job can be completed.

Officials of the Garden Club, Lions Club and Park Board expressed their appreciation to everyone who took part and helped in any way to make the park clean-up day, the barbecue diner and opening of the swimming pool such a success.

Miss Vera Shan Upton of Lampasas was a recent guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Reese and other relatives here.

James and John Gilliam returned to Waco Sunday and will attend Baylor University this summer.

TORNADO SAFETY RULES

Every week one has the feeling that the stormy and unsettled weather conditions that have been with us since the early part of April may be coming to a close. We are nearing the summer season when the tornado season usually slacks up. Yet this year the thunder storms and unsettled weather conditions are still with us. So again we would like to pass on a few simple rules about what to do in case of a tornado.

To know what to do when a warning is received, or a tornado is observed, may mean the difference between life and death!

I) There is no universal protection against tornadoes except caves or underground excavations. When time permits, go to a tornado cellar, cave, or underground excavation which should have an air outlet to help equalize the air pressure. It should be kept fit for use, free from water, gas or debris; and preferably equipped with pick and shovel.

II) IF YOU ARE IN OPEN COUNTRY:
1) Move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour.
2) If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression such as a ditch or ravine.

III) IF IN A CITY OR TOWN:
1) Seek inside shelter, preferably in a steel reinforced building.

STAY AWAY FROM WINDOWS.
2) In homes: The Southwest corner of the lowest floor or in the basement offers greatest safety. People living in brick or stone houses should seek other shelter, preferably in a storm cellar or the basement of a frame house. If time permits, electricity and fuel lines should be shut off. Windows on the north and east sides of the house may also be opened to help reduce damage to the building.

3) Standing against the inside wall on the lower floor of an office building offers some protection.

IV) IF IN SCHOOLS
1) In city areas: Especially if school building is of good steel reinforced construction, stay inside, away from windows, remain near an inside wall on a lower floor. AVOID AUDITORIUMS AND GYMNASIUMS.
2) In rural districts—remove children and teachers to a ravine or ditch if storm shelter is not available.

V) IF IN FACTORIES AND INDUSTRIAL PLANTS:
On receiving a tornado warning, a lookout should be posted to keep safety officials advised of the tornado's approach. Advance preparation should be made for shutting off electrical circuits and fuel lines if the tornado approaches the plant. Workers should be moved to sections of the plant offering the greatest protection.

VI: Keep calm. It will not help to get excited. People have been killed by running out into streets and by turning back into the path of a tornado. Even though a warning is issued, chances of a tornado striking one's home or location are very slight. Tornadoes cover such a small zone, as a rule, that relatively only a few places in a warned area are directly affected. You should know about tornadoes though, "just in case."

VII: Keep tuned to your radio station for latest tornado advisory information. Do not call the Weather Bureau, except to report a tornado, as your individual request may tie up telephone lines urgently needed to receive special reports or to relay advisories to radio stations for dissemination to thousands in the critical area.

"I wish to express my sincere appreciation to you and your staff for the splendid publicity that you have given the Garden Club all through this year.

Prospects for a Tax Slash Next Jan. 1 Look Brighter $3 Billion Cut in Budget Would Pave Way

Special to Central Press Association
WASHINGTON—Prospects are looking brighter for a tax cut next Jan. 1 despite the administration's opposition. It now appears that Congress will cut President Eisenhower's $71,800,000,000 spending budget by at least $3 billion and pave the way for the tax reduction.

The best bet is that the Democrats will push through a raise personal income tax exemptions from the present $400 to $500. This plan has the backing of top Democratic leaders.

There's a possibility that the tax cut will be delayed until the next session of Congress. However, if it is, the tax reduction will be retroactive to Jan. 1, 1955.

Of course, any tax cut is out of the question until the war erupts in the Middle East or elsewhere in the world. Even the strongest proponents of tax reduction say they would back down in such a case.

However, as of now, the outlook is bright. Democrats want to go into the 1958 campaign with a record of a tax cut which they can justify by a deep slash in the budget.

POISON INFORMATION CENTERS
Junior swallows that new can of floor wax your local health department soon be able to get immediate information on what action should be used for a quick recovery.

That's what the Public Health Service has in mind in the establishment of a national poison-information center. Centers are already in operation in some areas.

Information on poisonous substances used in the home is being collected on a day-to-day basis. Here's the way it works, as outlined to Congress recently:

"If a doctor is called to a home and the child is sick he is told that the child ate or drank something. That doctor calls the center and says 'such and such' wax was eaten by the child. The center tells him what is in it and what the antidote is."

"Then the poison control center will inform the doctor of the toxic ingredients in it and tell him the antidote and treatment."

MIDDLE EAST MUDDLE—Despite the relaxation of tensions in Jordan, Eisenhower administration officials are means convinced that the Middle East crisis has eased to a degree.

Intelligence sources say there is reason to believe the Israelis will intensify their troublemaking efforts in Syria.

Israel may resist U. S. attempts to persuade her not to showdown with Egypt by attempting to send a ship through the Suez canal in defiance of the Egyptian ban. The Gulf of Aqaba remains an area of potential conflict.

Diplomats say that if his position as Egypt's strong man becomes precarious, President Gamal Abdel Nasser may take some explosive action which could shake the whole region in an armed struggle.

Thus, though it has been withdrawn from the eastern Mediterranean, the powerful United States Sixth Fleet is being kept at an easy steaming distance of the trouble zone. The White House State department and the Pentagon are keeping watchful eyes on the oil-rich, strategic lands of Arabia.

Guests were directed through the house by Mrs. Farris and Mrs. Crabtree was in charge of showing the handsome gift display. Pink and white, chosen colors of the bride-elect, were used in decor throughout the home. Arrangements of Shasta daisies, pink asters and sweetheart roses were featured in the living room. Mrs. Walleit presided at the guest register in the den, which was decorated with pink rosebuds. The tea table was spread with an imported white embroidered linen cloth, highlighted with a handsome centerpiece of large pink Shasta daisies and accented by an umbrella arrangement of small pink daisies. Two crystal candelabrum held tall pink tapers with pink bows and long pink streamers inscribed in silver, "Scottie and Jack, June 29," completing decorations. Individual cake squares topped with tiny pink wedding bells were served with pink fruit punch, nuts and mints. Ap-

TODAY'S Menu
Some Meatless Entrées

By ALICE DENHOFF

MEATLESS meals needn't be dull and tasteless. And they won't be when a tangy Cheese-Onion Pie is the main course. To serve 6-8, slice thin 3 large onions and sauté in 3 tbsp. butter or margarine until light golden brown, stirring gently from time to time. Beat 3 eggs lightly. Add 3/4 tsp. salt, 1/2 tsp. pepper, tsp. dried parsley flakes and 1 1/2 tsp. celery seed. Add gradually 1 1/2 c. top milk or light cream, stirring constantly. Fold in 3/4 c. shredded, sharp cheddar cheese and the onion rings. Turn into 9-in. baked pie shell. Garnish top with a few extra onion rings, sautéed carefully in butter. Sprinkle with paprika and a few extra celery seeds. Bake at 420° F. for 5 min., then reduce heat to 350° F. and bake 30-40 min. longer or until set. Cut in wedges and serve with a sauce of creamed mushrooms, or creamed peas. A crisp green salad goes well with the pie. Eggs en Casserole is excellent for luncheon or supper any time of the year. To serve 4, heat 1 can cream of mushroom soup or chicken soup or 1 1/4 c. medium cream sauce. Add 1/2 tsp. each salt, celery seed and 1/4 tsp. black pepper. Cut 5 hard-cooked eggs in halves, lengthwise. Arrange 1 1/2 c. cooked noodles in bottom of a sharp cheddar cheese and the onion rings. Place eggs in center of noodles and arrange 12 stalks cooked asparagus at sides. Pour soup or sauce over eggs. Combine 3/4 c. shredded sharp cheddar cheese and tsp. celery seed. Crumble over top and sprinkle with paprika. Bake at 350° F. about 20 min. or until heated through.

the little flame that freezes... secret of today's most amazing refrigerator

Thirty years ago came the first "electric ice boxes" ... costly, complicated, noisy, liable to break down, wear out and gluttons for current. Two Swedish chemists decided there must be a better way. And, in their Stock- holm laboratory, discovered The Little Flame That Freezes. A tiny gas flame replaced all those moving parts ... makes all other refrigerators old-fashioned. No noise! Nothing to wear out! They had discovered the refrig- erator that was 30 years ahead of its time! It still is!

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health.
HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner

Within the next 10 years, 100,000 Texans will die of cancer, the present trend continues almost enough.

people to populate a city the size of Corpus Christi.

Almost 54,000 of those cancer victims will be men, since the disease is now claiming almost 15 percent more men than women. It wasn't always like that, however. Back in 1940, 7 percent fewer men succumbed to cancer than did women.

Cancer today is second only to heart disease as a general cause of death for the population as a whole. And when death rates are broken down according to age groups, it is tragically easy to see the wide swath the disease cuts through the cream of Texas youth and young adults.

If you are a girl between 15 and 29 years of age, cancer—chiefly leukemia—is your most relentless disease enemy, killing more of your group than anything else except accidents.

Among boys of the same age, cancer—again mostly leukemia—is the third leading cause of death, claiming more lives than anything except accidents and homicides. Accidents are way out in front.

And as young people mature, the picture changes only slightly. From age 30 to 44, cancer still ranks third as a killer of males, but assumes first place as a cause of death among women. It holds this first-place spot for women through age 59, by which time the disease has crept into second place as a cause of male mortality. At age 60, cancer ranks second for both sexes, falling off into third place after age 75.

During the 15-year period from 1940 to 1955, comparative rates of cancer deaths for men and women changed considerably. In 1940 the male rate was 7 percent less than the female rate, but by 1955 men were leading women by 15 percent. The greatest variance is shown in the 45-49 age bracket, the male death rate exceeding the female rate by 8 percent.

Significant disparity between men and women is noticed in mortality rates according to body sites attacked by cancer. For example, in cancer of the stomach, the death rate is almost 90 percent higher for males than females, and cancer of the larynx kills men 10 times more often than women. On the other hand, women suffer 30 percent more deaths from cancer of the genito-urinary organs than do men.

Cancer of the lung kills six times as many men as women. Eighteen percent of all cancer among men is cancer of the lung, but only five percent of all cancer in women involve the lung.

The present trend toward increasing mortality from cancer can be lessened only by the people themselves through periodic medical check-up and proper medical care when cancers are discovered.

SAN JOSE MISSION STATE PARK AND NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE surround this historic church at the edge of San Antonio. The mission has so great a part in history that it is the only designated national historic site in Texas. Beside this old structure with its beautifully carved stone facade and its famed rose window, the mission restoration includes the defense walls, the granary, quarters of priests, civil authorities, military forces and Indian converts. The restored grist mill is said to have been the first industrial plant in the state.—Photo by Ellison, Austin.

SAN JOSE MISSION STATE PARK at San Antonio is one of the leading tourist attractions in Texas, and the only National Historic Site designated in the state by the federal government.

Described in the 1700's as "Queen of the Missions of New Spain", the park includes both the ancient church and the military and secular quarters of the mission with restored defensive walls. Walls of the granary are stabilized by stone buttresses of old-world design. Within the granary is a replica of the entire mission as it existed in 1720 A. D.

Among the many interesting things to be seen are the wells for water storage and the grist mill, which is said to have been the first industrial plant in Texas. Miniature canals known as acequia carried water to the mill and the fields about the mission. The church building has a carved stone front of remarkable beauty. The rose window of the chapel has been acclaimed as the most beautiful architectural carving in America. The window is not the usual circular type known ecclesiastically as a rose window and to some is known as the "Rosa" window, perpetuating a folk tale that Artist Pedro Huisar carved it in memory of his sweetheart who died enroute from Spain to join him.

Religious services continue in the ancient church which remains the property of the Diocese. Under terms of a federal act the area about the church is administered by the National Park Service, the Texas State Parks Board and the Catholic Diocese. The San Antonio Conservation society, Bexar County and the City of San Antonio assist in the project.

No Takers In GI Land Bonds

AUSTIN—Anticipated acceleration in the purchase of land by veterans under the new one hundred million bond issue that was authorized by the voters last November received a temporary setback today. The first twelve and a half million dollars worth of bonds were offered for sale but no bids were received.

In a joint statement issued by Land Commissioner Earl Rudder, who is Chairman of the Veterans' Land Board, and citizen members, Everett Page, of Carthage, and William Gossett, of El Campo, the failure to find a purchaser was due to the condition of the stock market. The money market has been tight for some time and conditions have not improved sufficiently to make the sale possible under the limitations imposed in it. The interest rate that may be paid by the Board is limited to three per cent by the constitution and the market has not responded favorably.

The first issue of bonds will be advertised again when more improved conditions in the money market become apparent.

Girl Scout Day Camp For 1957 Conducted Last Week Is Success

BY ALMA WILLIAMS
Again the Girl Scout Day Camp has come to an end with a bunch of tired but happy girls, leaders and parents. They carried out the theme of "International Friendship" this year.

Our tour of the camp began at the banks of the Nile River (really a creek) at the camp of the Egyptians. There we were introduced to the following characters: Caesar, his mummie wives, dancing girls and daughters, Cleopatra, Anthony, Sheba, Little Egypt and Salome. They were all in Egyptian costumes (very fancy too). They showed us their fireplace, woodpile, table, garbage disposal unit and the "Girls Only" room. All of these items were made by the 14 girls of Troop 8. They earned the Minstrel Badge and their First Class Rank under the leadership of Mrs. Robbie Dalton, Mrs. Eloise Duren, Mrs. Lee Ruth Campbell and Jerry Lynn Gotcher.

Leaving here we crossed the Suez Canal and on into Africa where we visited the camp of the Head Hunters. Near the entrance of this camp was a pile of old bones (animals or otherwise), which represented the name of the camp. These girls of Troop 3, with six members, had made grass skirts, octopuses of yarn, limie sticks (with which they played games). They had made their fireplace, woodpile, wash rack, cabinet, garbage and grease disposal units. This troop is only second grade girls and their leaders were Mrs. A. G. Wasserman and Judy Benningfield.

We covered the distance from Africa to Japan next and visited the camp of the Japanese of Troop 6. The girls at this camp had left their shoes outside the entrance, but did not require it of us. Here we found lovely little girls in Japanese costumes complete with tiny fans. Betsy Glass, program aide showed us through their camp. They had made fans, chop sticks and coolie hats for their projects. They also had made their fireplace, woodpile, cup tree, cabinet and a bedroom. There are seven girls in this troop with five of them present each day. They had cook-outs and won the Spick and Span Flag one day. Leaders were Mrs. J. C. Wesson, Mrs. Florene Bradley and Miss Betsy Glass.

Next we visited China which was very oriental in character with the girls carrying out the Chinese theme in their dress. They also had made chop sticks and coolie hats. Their work units included a fireplace, wash rack, cabinet and garbage disposal. This was Troop 2 with seven girls under the leadership of Misses Virgilene Geeslin and Johnette Medford.

On our return to home base we stopped off in Hawaii. Here we were greeted by ten girls of Troop 5, in grass skirts and leis of pink and white carnations (made of Kleenex, but natural looking), each visitor was given one of their flowers. These girls made their skirts of brown paper and the flowers for their projects. Here we found an L shaped fireplace, an ingenious icebox (a hole filled with gravel and a gallon bucket sunk in it to keep food in), wash racks, woodpile, cabinets and a bulletin board with the duty circle on it, cup tree and "sit-up-ons," pillows to you, which they had made. The leaders here were Mrs. Wilma Head, Mrs. Alice Summy, Misses Peggy Rowlett and Betty Bramblett.

Leaving Hawaii we returned to the starting place, the clubhouse lawn, where the girls presented the following program. First were the Head Hunters from Africa, who played a game with their limie sticks as they sang a song, calypso style, directed by Judy Benningfield. Then the Japanese girls sang the "Japanese Sandman" and used their chopsticks and plates to eat a pretense meal as they sang another song. These girls were led by Betsy Glass. Next was the Hawaiian girls who danced the "hula hula" in their grass skirts, at the conclusion of their song they threw colored carnations to the crowd. Three Chinese couples followed this and sang a very catchy number, they left to the music of the wedding march. Last but not least were the Egyptian troop; first was the introduction of the characters, then they all sat in a line with the exception of Caesars wives, who had to remain standing as they were wrapped too tightly to sit. After singing an Egyptian song, Janell Jernigan did the "Dance Of The Seven Veils." This concluded the first part of the program.

The camp director then asked everyone to find seats for the flag ceremony. All the girls and leaders formed an almost complete circle around the flag pole, leaving an opening for the Color Guards to advance. Color guards were Kay Campbell, Jan Moreland, Janell Jernigan, Judy Dalton and Linda Yarborough. Mrs. R. V. Geeslin camp Director, expressed her thanks to everyone for all the help and cooperation during the day camp, and especially to Mrs. M. Y. Stokes and Mrs. Jesse Moreland for their medical attention. She presented the 2nd Class awards to seven girls and the 1st Class awards to eleven of the girls. Mrs. Duren then presented 37

Perfect Attendance awards. After the awards were presented a farewell poem was read by Lynette Duren. This was followed by all the girls and leaders singing Taps. Last the Colors were lowered by the Color Guards. As they left with the colors, the circle broke up and everyone thanked the director and leaders for a lovely program.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

 from the Middle Soil Conservation District Association and Sulphur watershed gave testimony at the Public Works House at a special hearing Thursday, Mr. W. C. Howard, President of the district, reports.

Paul Walser, of Temple, represented the U. S. Soil Conservation Service and told of the functioning of some 138 upstream flood water retaining structures in the Trinity Watershed that have greatly reduced flood damage during this rainy season. Walser stated that all of small structures had functioned safely had prevented much siltation of flood plains and larger reservoirs down stream.

W. C. Howard, President of the Texas Association of Soil Conservation Districts told the Committee of the importance of the work going on in the 172 Soil Conservation Districts in Texas which covers more than 90% of the State in controlling downstream floods.

Everett Nichols, Chairman of the Hill Country Soil Conservation District Board, told the Committee of the need for a watershed treatment program on Sulphur Creek. He said the work plan on Sulphur Creek which was completed by the local people at a joint meeting April 24 would have prevented most of the damage to Lampasas during their May 12 storm.

Scott Lanford, a member of the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District Board, told the group of the need for stepping up the upstream program in the Middle Colorado watershed to include Blanket Creek and others that received severe damage during recent storms. George Johnson, who owns several farms in the Brady Creek Watershed, told of the protection received from the 16 flood water retaining structures that have been functioning for more than 30 continuous days. He told the committee about the prolonged stream flow of clear water in Brady Creek and protection from fence, livestock, crop and soil damage, Harkey said. After hearing testimony on statewide flood damage during April and May, the delegation from the Middle Colorado watershed returned home more determined to speed up the flood prevention program, Harkey pointed out.

Button clover has produced an abundance of forage for Ray McDonald's dairy herd. The button clover was planted last fall on a bottomland field on Blanket Creek. In addition to producing an abundance of forage, the clover protected the field from erosion when Blanket Creek got on a big rise this spring.

Cattle were taken off the clover in April. It has made a rapid growth since then and is loaded with seed now.

This past week was observed as Soil Stewardship Week throughout the nation. Churches in the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District participated in the observation of Soil Stewardship Sunday. Request by churches for Soil Stewardship material indicate that 40 churches participated and over 4,000 people heard sermons on Soil Stewardship.

Miss Anita Windecker To Present Organ Concert At Priddy Sunday

Miss Anita Windecker, brilliant young musician, will be presented in an Organ Concert in the Zion Lutheran Church at Priddy on Sunday, June 9th at 8:00 p.m.

This is one of a series of Concerts Miss Windecker is presenting in this, her fourth Concert season. Miss Windecker is a native of Texas, and is a member of the Faculty at Texas Lutheran College in Seguin, a position she has held for the past seven years.

Alois Braun, formerly of Vienna, Austria, was Anita's first professional coach, even though she began studying at the early age of five. After graduating from the University of Texas, with a degree in music, she accepted her position with Texas Lutheran College.

In 1953 she was granted a leave of absence to continue her studies in New York City. There she studied with the renowned Concert Artists of stage, screen and radio, Byron Janis and Adele Marcus. She then was presented in a Concert in Carnegie Hall. Miss Windecker has given three seasons of Concerts and is now completing her fourth. At the present time Miss Windecker is being coached by the eminent artist Gyorgy Sandor of Hungary, now employed by S. M. U. as Artist-Teacher for this year.

The program to be presented will include such well known selections as Valencia, The Irish Reel, Spring Song, Largo, The Old Rugged Cross and other favorites. The public is cordially invited to attend this Organ Concert. There will be a free-will offering to help defray expenses.

Odd Fact

When only 143 people showed up for a town meeting in Southbridge, Mass., officials hurried to a bridge party being held nearby and induced seven women to leave the game and attend the meeting so a quorum would be present to vote.

DROUGHT AND FLOOD—Texas knows both. Here, at Possum Kingdom Reservoir, an installation of the Brazos River Authority, flood waters are pouring over the spillway. Up to May 21, Possum Kingdom released 1,773,540 acre-feet of water downstream. Meanwhile the dam was holding vast quantities of water. Just a few weeks earlier this was drought-parched land. The U. S. Corps of Engineers estimated that, up to May 6th, the two great flood-control dams—Whitney and Belton—had prevented damage of $23,700,000 during recent floods in the Brazos River Basin. The B.R.A. master plan calls for many more dams, for flood control and conservation, on the main Brazos and its tributaries.

Mrs. John Berry, Church Organist, Featured In Christian Advocate

Mrs. John G. Berry, organist of the First Methodist Church of Goldthwaite was featured recently in an article in the Texas Christian Advocate, following a story from Bastrop, which asked if any church could "boast about their organist."

Mrs. Berry has served as pianist and organist for 45 years and for years she was choir director and organist.

She is the only child of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker Hooks and was christened in the Shive church as an infant. She joined the Goldthwaite church at an early age.

Mrs. Berry attended the Switzer private school for girls at Itasca and studied music at Chautauqua, New York, for a number of years and was a student of John M. Williams of New York City.

She was a teacher of piano for years and is always available to play for funerals and revival services as well as weddings.

She is interested in garden therapy and served as the first chairman of the National Council of State Garden Clubs, Inc.

At present, she is serving on the advisory council of Texas State Hospital and Special Schools; a member-at-large on the Travis County Lighthouse board, Austin; co-ordinator of therapy of Texas Garden Clubs; and chairman of the Ada Hooks Library for the Blind.

During the State Fair of Texas, she received the Garden Club award for "Woman Of The Year" for 1956.

Mrs. Berry seldom takes a vacation and never receives pay for her services. For years she has gone to the church at 9 each Sunday morning and played the organ for 30 minutes over the loud speaker.

EMBASSY SACKED IN FORMOSA

RIOTING CHINESE are shown in front of the American Embassy in Taipei, Formosa, as the building was sacked during anti-American demonstrations. The rioting, believed to have been Communist-inspired, was in protest against the acquittal of U. S. Sgt. Robert Reynolds, of Colors, Md., for the slaying of a Chinese "Peeping Tom." When this photo was made, all windows in the embassy had been smashed and furniture thrown into the street. (International)

SESAME IN TEXAS

About five years ago, an ancient plant never before grown commercially in this country was introduced to farmers in the cotton producing areas in Texas.

It was Sesame, a plant that grows under conditions favorable to cotton. It produces tiny seeds from which vital oils are extracted.

At the time, Sesame was hailed as a new cash crop for those areas where cotton production was curbed by allotments. But a big obstacle to profitable production was the Sesame plant's tendency to shatter its seeds.

The Texas Research Foundation at Renner was primarily responsible for development of the crop in Texas. And after much research, the Foundation has been able to produce a "nonshattering" variety.

This new variety has produced amazingly high yields, particularly where irrigation is applied.

On the High Plains, Sesame has been termed the No. 2 money-maker for irrigation farmers, who last year averaged $121 per acre in gross returns—second only to cotton.

The Texas Sesame Seed Growers announced that the 1956 Sesame crop totaled 3,300,000 pounds. The crop was sold for $341,880. TSSG is a production and marketing organization composed of farmers. It handles the bulk of the U. S. Sesame crop.

Sesame production was high as 1,200 pounds per acre last year's crop sold for 25 cents per hundred pounds.

Sesame seed is used in a variety of ways. But its chief market advantage is that it becomes rancid more slowly than most oils and is used in the food industry. The five-year-old crop continues to make gains in Texas but in sections New Mexico, Oklahoma, Kansas and Arkansas.

The record-breaking and high profit being given Sesame a prominent place in Texas agriculture.

"We Were Amazed"

Says CAR LIFE,
The Family Auto Magazine

We were amazed as we drove the Special four-door hardtop, to find that an automobile could be completely changed yet retain so much of its former appearance and character. The 1957 models have all the familiar, solid Buick virtues.

THE ABOVE brief clipping tells you worlds about the '57 Buick.

It tells you we went all out to make this car completely new—yet we didn't sacrifice a single Buick virtue.

So you still get that unmistakable Buick styling.

You still get that big-car room and comfort and that solid Buick quality.

But you also get so complete a change in the vitals of this car that the driving of it is a wondrous new experience.

You get a brilliant brand of performance that's different from anything else that goes on four wheels.

Words won't describe it. Telling you there's an all-new engine, an instant new Dynaflo,* a completely new power train—none of that will convey this news to you.

What you have to do is get in this car and drive it. Drive it around the block, through town, out on the highway. Actually feel what happens when you press the gas pedal, turn the steering wheel, touch those powerful new brakes.

Then—and not till then—will you know why folks call this "the dream car to drive."

The best advice we can give you, by far, is this: Ask your dealer for a trial run today.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional, at modest extra cost on the Special. Safety-Buzzer is standard on Roadmaster; optional at extra cost on other Series.

BUILDING COLLAPSE KILLS WOMAN

RESCUE WORKERS and firemen probe the ruins of a collapsed four-story, 150-year-old tenement in Boston. Later, the body of Mrs. Susan Johnson, 58, a cripple, was found wedged under a concrete slab. sa is the wife of George Ewing, grandson of my half brother, the late Charles Wilmeth. George teaches English in the college and preaches every Sunday at Star in Mills County.

That night we sat in an audience of 2000 or more to hear the baccalaureate sermon. Not far from us we found Lula and Orville Beakley of Mercury. They had come to see their son, La Von, graduate.

Monday the Mitchells and John and I had lunch with Don and Carol Jean. Carol had her Daddy to hood her, and they had to practice that afternoon. Ruth and the children and I went to visit with Lula Beakley. Graduation was to have been in the stadium, but it was too rainy. They had to move it in the church auditorium. There were 250 graduates, and that many persons to hood them. They took up a good part of the first floor. We had to get there early to get a seat. The band outside the church, played the march. The acappella choir seated in the balcony, rendered some beautiful numbers. Congressman delivered the address. It was all very impressive and thrilling. Though Carol Jean had taken the four years' course in three years and had taken on a husband and household duties, yet she graduated "Cum Laude."

Tuesday we went our way. The Mitchells went with us to Brownwood. Stopped a few minutes to see the Burt Brileys. Don and Carol left for Fort Worth. They were soon to go on to Beaumont. And by Sunday to Winnie near Beaumont where Don will preach for the church this coming year. Marie is the gracious hostess. We greatly enjoyed the hospitality of her well-ordered home. Wednesday she was leaving for a tour to Washington D. C., Pittsburg, Pa., and New York, taking with her her three nieces, Lucy Gale and Nancy Wilmeth of Fort Stockton, and Martha McClung of Wichita Falls.

John and I had dinner with the Burt Brileys. Went to see the Jim Wilmeths. We reached home late that evening. The rains had knocked out our creek crossing. Had to go around, and the road through the pasture is so bad we can hardly get over it. The flower beds at the front are a riot of blooming petunias, but they will have to be pulled up to get rid of the weeds and grass. The inside of the house was enough to make one weep. Sand was everywhere. A bird's nest was in the chandelier, all piled up high with cotton around the top. What could be more pitiful than a yard and a house without care for nine months? We connected up the refrigerator, put our groceries away and went back to Mrs. Dwyer's to spend the night. Next morning we came home and went to work. John on the yard and I on the house.

I removed the bird's nest and vacuumed the cups with Mrs. Dwyer's vacuum cleaner. When I screwed the bulbs back in, the lights went out in the living room, kitchen, and breakfast

Get in the fine-car swim at the low Ford price!

There's no need to pay a "fancy price" to enjoy fine-car luxury. Ford is lowest priced* of the low-price three, yet offers values you'd expect only in cars costing far more!

To start with, you can easily pay twice the money, and not find lines that can hold a candle to Ford's for loveliness, loveliness, or just plain good taste.

But step inside. That's when you'll find the real evidence of Ford's quality! And, on the way in, note that Ford offers door checks that hold doors open in either of two positions—for easy entrance or exit. A little thing. But, in a fine car, why not? Then, inside, notice how comfortable those plush, foam-rubber seats are. They'll stay that way. And on long trips. For they're scientifically contoured over non-sag springs. Your rear-seat passengers are treated extra kindly, too—with spring assists to help them open and close the doors—with the most leg room in Ford's field!

Fine cars are smooth—and that's another place Ford really shows its stuff! Ford delivers its famous V-8 power smooth as a whisper. That's because only Ford takes the pains to electronically balance each engine while running under its own power. Not even the makers of the most expensive automobiles go this far to bring you super-smooth performance.

Ford rides fine-car smooth and quiet, too. You can thank the new "Inner Ford" for that. Ford, for instance, has a swept-back front suspension that actually "rolls with the punch" of every road bump.

Ford's rear springs automatically adjust to give the right ride for every road. And Ford keeps things quiet, with the most sound insulation in its field.

Fine cars are built to stay solid. So's Ford!

Ford has the only frame in its field to make use of rugged tubular steel beams. No car at the price offers so many roof-strengthening beams. Expensive cars aren't built of thicker body steel or with sounder engineering skill. Then, of course, in Ford you can have all the power assists and other conveniences found in fine cars. And they cost far less in Ford.* Yes sir! In every feature, every part, Ford is the fine car at half the fine-car price. Come in and see!

MAYFLOWER II

Recently the Mayflower II began to retrace the voyage its namesake made 337 years ago from England to the New World. The other day it made news when it was reported almost becalmed in mid-Atlantic, having covered only thirty sea miles in 24 hours.

Besides its 402 Pilgrims and 25 sailors, do you know one of the most precious things the original Mayflower carried to America? The idea of government by contact, by the consent of the governed, the basis of our Constitution.

Men have always wondered just what claims to obedience the laws have on us.

From earliest times in ancient Greece some have thought that men entered a contract to set up laws among themselves and obey them to keep the peace. But not until 1620 had anybody ever actually written out and signed anything like the Mayflower Compact—the granddaddy of all written constitutions.

Said they "We . . . do by these present solemnly and mutually in the presence of God, and one another, covenant and combine ourselves together into a civil body politic, for our better ordering and preservation. . . and by virtue hereof to enact, constitute and frame such just and equal laws, ordinances, acts, constitutions, and offices from time to time as shall be thought most meet and convenient for the general good of the colony, unto which we promise all due submission and obedience. In witness whereof we have subscribed our names at Cape Cod on the 11 of November. . ."

In 1788 in the same spirit the world's first, oldest, and most successful written constitution came into being, starting out by saying:

"We, the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union . . . do ordain and establish this Constitution of the United States of America."

NEWS from YOUR COUNTY AGRICULTURAL AGENT TEXAS A. & M. COLLEGE EXTENSION SERVICE

By George Reese

Spot oiling Johnsongrass is a very successful method of eradicating scattered stands of established Johnsongrass in row crops. Johnsongrass can be killed to the ground by the application of 1-3 teaspoonful of a herbicidal oil to the crown of each stem. Eradication of established Johnsongrass can be obtained in a single season by repeating the treatment at 7 to 10 day intervals. Best results are obtained before the stems are 6 inches tall and before glazed. Six or more consecutive oil treatments usually are needed to eradicate the grass. It is faster, easier and far more effective than hoeing.

Many Naphtha oils and oil mixtures are satisfactory for the crown treatment of established Johnsongrass.

Crown application by hand permits treatment of the grass without getting the oil on the crop plants. Five to ten dollars of oil per acre application commonly are used, where the infestation is not excessive. The treatment should begin as early in the season as practical.

Two types of hand sprayers are satisfactory for the crown treatment of Johnsongrass, one is the knapsack sprayer equipped with piston-type hand pump and the other is gravity-flow, a sprayer which is the cheapest to buy. Tractor mounted sprayers also are used to spot-treat Johnsongrass in cotton. Complete information and Bulletin No. B-808, Spot Oiling Johnsongrass may be obtained from this office.

Chevy's come up with the newest, sweetest, smoothest automatic drive—Turboglide. It's the first and only triple-turbine transmission!

When you see a steep downhill stretch ahead, you set the selector at "GR" (Grade Retarder) and Turboglide helps slow you down. Try Chevy's new, nothing-like-it automatic drive. It's optional at extra cost—and worth it.

Turboglide is something really new and different in automatic drives. In the first place, there's only one forward-speed position on the control panel. There's no "Low" needed.

Turboglide handles everything with the oil-smooth action of triple turbines. You travel from a standstill to top cruising speeds with never a lurch or lag to mar your motion.

AUSTIN, Tex.—Fifty-fifth Legislators will have a shorter-than-usual "vacation." Gov. Price Daniel says he will call them back, probably about October, for a special session.

Final score showed 47 out of 51, or better than 90 per cent, of the governor's recommended bills passed in the regular session. But the missing 10 per cent are vital, says Daniel. He still wants:

1. His law enforcement commission, a sort of statewide grand jury to investigate official misconduct.

2. A lobbyist registration act, registration of persons who represent others before state agencies, and, possibly, other "better government" bills previously advocated.

3. A state plan for buying water storage space in federal reservoirs. A constitutional amendment to do this died in the past session. Since amendments cannot be considered in a special session, the governor said he is working on a statutory plan—possibly the creation of a statewide water district.

Come in and let Mr. McElyea demonstrate the New Beltone Hear-N-See Glasses at the Saylor Hotel on Monday, June 10 from 3 to 4 p.m. (ADV.)

with authority to issue bonds and levy taxes.

4. Action on "other matters that may arise" after the Travis County grand jury reports. Jury is looking into any irregularities that might have caused the ICT Insurance Co. collapse and alleged payoffs to legislators by the Texas Naturopathic Association.

So, instead of the usual post session lull, the Capitol faces a summer of suspense followed by a frenzied fall.

NEW JURY AT WORK—Texas has generated more troubles than one grand jury could see to in two months. Hence, a brand new Travis County jury begins this week where the old one left off after digging away all during April and May.

Its study of ICT's past and naturopathic legislation will probably last all summer.

A Dallas grand jury already has indicted BenJack Cage, onetime ICT manager, on charges of theft and embezzlement. Authorities are trying to get him returned from South America so he can be tried.

WHO, WHAT, WHERE AND WHEN?—Texas' off-again, on-again Insurance Commission is still a prime source of speculation.

Past legislature passed laws abolishing the old board and enabling the governor to appoint new members. It also directed the commission to move within three years from its leased office quarters into a building to be erected with insurance tax revenue. And it passed dozens of new restrictive insurance laws for the new Commission to administer.

Old board members Mark Wentz and John Osorio promptly resigned. But Gov. Daniel refused to accept their resignations. He said they'd have to stay on until their successors were named.

Then Atty. Gen. Will Wilson ruled the insurance tax revenue couldn't be used for a new building. It goes into the general revenue fund and is already earmarked for other things, he pointed out.

And, until the new Commission gets going, insurance men over the state are uncertain as to how to comply in detail with some of the new laws.

ETHICS QUANDARY—Just who should do what to comply with the new code of ethics is still being discussed in the Capitol.

Some 163 legislators and state officials have given the secretary of state statements about their connections with businesses under state regulation. Assets ranged from Cuban oil companies to small town dry goods stores.

Sec'y State Zollie Steakley said failure to file such a statement could be grounds for removal from office, but that he didn't have authority to enforce it.

Gov. Daniel said he saw no need for his filing, since the construction prohibits a governor's serving as officer or director of a corporation under state regulation. But, he suggested the secretary of state might ask for an attorney general's ruling to clear up other points about the law.

BONDS GO BEGGING—First sale of the second $100,000,000 issue of Texas veterans land program bonds attracted no takers.

In today's "tight money" market the constitutionally-prescribed 3 per cent interest doesn't lure buyers, said Land Commissioner Earl Rudder.

He said the bonds would not be offered again until conditions improve.

CROPS LAG—After years of longing for water, most Texas farmers now are trying to "recover" from the rains.

State Agriculture Comm'r. John White estimates flood damage to crops at $50,000,000 or more. Cotton planting deadlines had to be extended by the state office because farmers were delayed in ploughing their wet fields. Even so, some crop loss was foreseen from inability to plant.

In some areas of North Texas small grains were reported hurt by too much water. But dryland cotton farmers in South Texas said they could use a little more moisture.

Texas already has received more rain in the first five months of 1957 than in the entire year of 1956. Sample totals for '57: Dallas, 36 inches; Austin, 24 inches; San Antonio, 19 inches; Greenville, 44 inches.

NEW BUILDINGS SLATED—From four to six new buildings are to go up soon, moving toward the eventual creation of a "state government center" clustered around the capitol. In the offering are:

1. A State Courts Building, now under construction, to cost about $3,750,000.

2. State Office Building, for which contracts have been let and site-clearing begun, to cost about $4,000,000.

3. A Central Power Building to furnish heat and air conditioning for the Capitol and other buildings. Authorized by Legislature with directive that it be ready by October, 1958.

4. A State Archives and Library Building for which Legislature appropriated $2,500,000.

5. A Texas Employment Commission Building and an Insurance Commission Building. Lawmakers told each to move from rented quarters, but money for new buildings is not immediately available.

SHORT SNORTS—June will see a rise in the number of job holders in Texas, despite layoffs from school endings, predicts the Texas Employment Commission. More jobs in industry will make up the difference...

despite overcrowding, morale of Texas prison inmates is good—no longer "hopeless and forlorn"—reported Pardons and Paroles Board members after a week-long tour. More space is due as a result of a $3,500,000 appropriation last session.
