Rain Storm Hits Mills County Saturday

Light To Heavy Damage From Wind And Lightning Reported By Many

Heavy rainfall measuring from one and one-half to seven inches accompanied by the worst electrical storm in years struck Mills County last Saturday afternoon about 3:30. The storm cloud began forming early in the afternoon in the Northwest and people started gathering near storm cellars and other places of protection in case of a tornado. As the wind struck Goldthwaite it was accompanied by a heavy dust cloud for a few minutes. The heaviest damage in town was apparently in the western part as the cloud came in from the Northwest going Southeast.

Reports coming to the Eagle office from various communities include light to heavy damages. In the Mullin area windows were blown out of the Tom Cooksey home, antennas blown down, small buildings destroyed and trees uprooted. Mrs. Connie Knowles of Big Valley reported that of her roof blown off and fruit trees uprooted. Cockrell's Nursery suffered extensive damage to pecan trees, a windmill was blown over and a chicken house destroyed at the August Kaubs home. She also stated that trees were uprooted all over the valley.

In the Duren Community lightning struck twice in the Willie Wasserman field setting two fires which burned off eight acres of stubble before being rained out. Also trees were uprooted. Mrs. Roth Robertson of the Rock Springs Community suffered a foot injury when the storm blew out a window in her home. This community also has trees uprooted and small buildings destroyed.

In the Scallorn Community rainfall up to seven inches was reported and as some of the people stated, there are no water gaps left in the community. Loyd King reported that the roof of his barn was partly blown off and trees uprooted as well as water gaps being washed out. At the Hughes' Shady Oak Ranch in the south part of the county, extensive damage was done to barns and goat sheds as well as many hugh oak trees being uprooted and others twisted out of shape; antennas were down all over the community.

In the town proper the worst damage seemed to be in the west part of town with antennas blown down and twisted, large trees were uprooted as well as small ones.

During the worst part of the storm, lightning apparently struck the Vic E. Koleber home on the Hanna Valley Road starting a fire which caused heavy damage to the inside of the house and contents.

The home of Misses Abbie and Ruth Ervin was also struck by lightning, damaging the chimney, damaging the roof, blowing out fuses and bursting light bulbs.

Mrs. Willie Belle Kirby reported that lightning struck their house, knocking a hole in the floor but did not ignite.

On the San Saba Highway, south of town, Adams Monument Works building was almost totally destroyed, leaving only the north wall standing. A small tile house near the auction barn was also partly unroofed. At the cemetery a number of trees were badly damaged.

Reports from the Chappell Hill Community state that no severe damage was done, only to trees and small out buildings.

LOCAL RAINFALL
LAST WEEKEND, 2.95 IN.
Saturday afternoon and evening 2.95 inches of rain fell during a severe thunderstorm, according to an official report from Harry Allen. This brings the rainfall for the month of June to 3.64 inches.

Pee Wee Little League Team To Be Organized Here - Umpires Are Hired

By CHARLES CONRADT
Baseball is moving along at a rapid pace with the season just about one-half over. The teams are developing fast and the players are hitting the ball hard. Several new boys have been added to some of the teams and certainly have helped and new boys are signing up every week. We would like to have every boy in the county playing ball. We have a place for you—parents get your boys out to play.

The managers have decided that a Pee Wee League should be started for two reasons. Each manager is only allowed 15 boys and at the present they are carrying about 19 boys. This does not give the young boys enough chance to play. The boys that have not played before should be playing twice a week and they can not do so as the teams are now. So, next week all teams will probably be cut to 15 boys. With a pre-Little League game each Monday and Friday night before the regular games for the inexperienced boys. We think we can help every play with a program like this.

The spirit at the games has been great this week. There are words of encouragement to all the boys, which I like to see. The crowds have been fine. This is a good place to come out and visit and relax.

Here is your players of the week as picked by a qualified committee: From Priddy it is Mike Lucky—Mike does a big part of the pitching and is a good hitter. From Mullin it is John Reeves—John is an outstanding pitcher and can break up a lot of ball games with his bat. From the Tigers it is Del Sears—Del only weighs about 35 pounds but he catches, pitches and plays the out-field when needed. From the Red Sox it is Gene Gray—Gene catches, pitches and can play the in-field. He is sure poison with the bat also. From the Indians it is Rocky King—who has carried most of the pitching duty of this team. This is Rocky's first year but he has the making of a good ball player. From the White Sox it is Johnny Hammond—Johnny is a good hitter and can play any position well, also one of the pitchers.

Next week will be listed a new player of the week from each team.

Team standing will be listed next week. It has been suggested by some that we have a work period at the ball park one hour before game time some evening which is a good idea. This will be announced later.

We have had enough applicants for umpires. We have had to turn away some. I guess the salary is what did it. Anyway come on out to the Ball Games and have a big time.

Senator's Wife And Son Visit Here Tuesday

U. S. Senator Ralph Yarborough's wife, Opal, and son, Richard, brought Senator Yarborough's re-election campaign to Goldthwaite Tuesday.

The mother and son campaign team are using the same personal acquaintance, hand-shaking style for which Senator Yarborough has been noted in past campaigns.

Mrs. Yarborough told folks she met here: "Ralph is missing the fun of campaigning but he feels that it is vitally important that he stay in Washington to work for Texas' badly needed water projects that are before the Senate this summer."

As they walked along main street and went in several stores to shake hands with local people, Mrs. Yarborough and Richard were accompanied by several local supporters of Senator Yarborough. Among them was Mrs. Raymond Cockrum, chairman of the Mills County Democratic Executive Committee.

The quotas received favorable majorities in most other counties. A farmer who exceeds his allotment will not be eligible for support. In addition, those who exceed their allotment will be subject to a marketing quota penalty on each acre of excess wheat.
Marketing quotas have been in effect for the last five crops of wheat, including the 1958 crop. They were also approved in 1941 and 1942.

ANTI-RECESSION NOTE

In the May issue of Bankers Digest there appeared a note from Warren P. Duren, President of Mills County State Bank which reads in part:

"Regardless of the talk and reality of the recession, our folk in this area are in the best shape they have been at any time. Moisture is ample, pastures have made an excellent comeback, and the price of cattle, sheep, and goats is excellent. Most of our farmers and ranchmen bought little if any feed during the winter, which more than offsets the lower price of the wool and mohair clips.

"It is our feeling that the general economy will make a gradual climb in the near future, but not to a boom condition as some have predicted."

OATS TESTING 39 POUNDS

This may be a record for Mills County in so far as the bumper oat crop of 1958 is concerned.

A couple of weeks ago the Eagle reported on general conditions of the year's harvest and the wonderful yield reports from farmers regarding their oats and the splendid tests recorded.

During that field trip and survey it was found that most of the oats being combined at that time weighed from 32 to 37 pounds per bushel.

Mr. and Mrs. Glynn Sanders, Mullin, have now come up with a new record of one field of their oats they combined that tested 39 lbs. per bushel. They feel that it is the best in Mills County this year. If anyone in the county has a better report we would certainly like to hear about it. Until then this report will be considered tops.

HAVE YOU A FRIEND?

A friend is a person who is for you always, under all circumstances.

- He never investigates you.
- He likes you just as you are. He does not alter you.
- He likes your success, and your failure endears him more.
- He is better than a lover, because he is never jealous.
- He wants nothing from you except that you be yourself.
- He is the one being with whom you can feel safe.

With him you can utter your heart, its badness and its goodness.

- Like the shade of a great tree in the noonday heat is a friend.
- Like the home port with your country's flag flying after a long journey is a friend.

A friend is an impregnable citadel of refuge in the strife of existence.

It is he that keeps alive your faith in human nature, that makes you believe that it is a good universe.

He is the antidote to despair, the elixir of hope, the tonic for depression.

You give to him without reluctance and borrow from him without embarrassment.

When you are vigorous and spirited, you like to take your pleasure with him, when you are sick you want to see him; when you are dying you want him near you.—Author unknown.

Hints For Helping Hens Beat The Heat

College Station—Over - heating of laying hens during the summer can cause such a loss of production that even the best performance the rest of the year will not offset, warns Ben Wormell, extension poultry husbandman.

The construction of the poultry house and its location are major considerations of every poultryman in providing for the birds' comfort, points out Wormell. A satisfactory house must give protection from heat and cold, high winds and other inclement weather.

Tests indicate that laying hens perform best between 45 and 85 degrees F., he says. At about 65 degrees they consume about two pounds of water per pound of feed and at 95 degrees the ratio is over four to one.

When temperatures rise over a hundred degrees, Wormell recommends wetting the birds slightly through either a fogger system or water sprinklers. When this is done, it is important to have good air movement to evaporate the water. Otherwise the resulting high humidity will only add to the birds' discomfort.

Side walls eight feet high with ventilation panels that open wide, especially along the floor line, provide maximum air movement through the house. Weeds and grass around the edge of the house should be kept mowed so they will not stop air movement in and out of the house. Grass coverage of the area adjacent to the house can be helpful by absorbing some of the sun's rays and preventing their reflection into the house.

Inside WASHINGTON MARCH OF EVENTS

Coffee Consumption in U. S. Not Affected by Recession | Java Gulping Activity During Depression of

By HENRY CATHCART
Central Press Washington Writer

WASHINGTON—The coffee market, vitally important to America, is not one of those directly troubled by the States policies, either foreign or domestic. The Pan-American bureau in Washington has come up with an unusual economic indicator to show that the present U. S. recession hasn't made a depression level yet.

The bureau reports that there is no reason yet that coffee sales in the United States have been seriously affected by the recession, although prices have been steadily dropping for some time as a result of heavy supplies.

In contrast to present sales, the bureau reports during the depression of the 1930s coffee prices also dropped to very low levels but consumption actually increased at that time.

The analysis seems to indicate that people drink more coffee when they have financial "bad times" than they do in periods of prosperity.

WASHINGTON—Look for the reorganization of the Pentagon to be one of the last business of an unusually long off-year election session of Congress.

The House armed services committee is not expected to complete its version of a defense reorganization bill until at least July. Even after House action is completed, the President's plan faces a formidable hurdle in the Senate, since Armed Services Chairman Richard B. Russell (D), Georgia, has expressed sentiments similar to those of his fellow Georgian, Rep. Carl Vinson, the House armed services chairman, is the leader of administration's critics on the military reshuffle issue. All it will be late July or early August before any compromise bill to clear Congress and go to the President.

Congressmen usually like to end election-year sessions by July so they will have plenty of time to convince voters they serve to keep their $25,000-a-year jobs.

However, that isn't likely this year. August 15 is a more likely guess for adjournment, partly because of the controversy over military reorganization plan.

ECONOMY REPORT—Commerce Secretary Sinclair White and other administration officials (who have insisted that the recession isn't as bad as the Democrats have painted it) point to a number of encouraging signs on the economic front.

They cite these facts: Steel production is climbing. Auto dealers report they sold 708,500 used cars in April, only 9.8 per cent below the volume of April, 1957, and they say that this foreshadows an upturn in new car sales.

Also, textile industry sources report that the slump in cloth sales and prices has been halted. A leading farm equipment firm said its sales for the first six months ended April 30 were five per cent above the figure for the first half of the previous fiscal year.

The nation's biggest mail order house called its April sales "encouraging." Sears, Roebuck Chairman Theodore Houser, in making the report, predicted a general upswing in the entire economy by September or October.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

BY HUBERT L. BERRY

The importance of good cover was re-emphasized last Saturday as hard dashing rains hit some sections of the District. Bud Conradt, in the Scallorn community, reported six inches fell in an hour.

All of the water from such a rain can't possibly be utilized; however, damage can be held to a minimum by good range cover and adequate crop residues.

Heavy rains also have focused attention on the upstream flood prevention program. Damage on many watersheds of Texas have been greatly reduced by the foresight of local people. Where conservation land treatment and flood detention dams exist on the upper reaches of hazardous watersheds, little or no damage has been reported.

On June 20th, thirty-four farmers and ranchers of the Goldthwaite area received fish to stock forty farm ponds. These fish were ordered by the Soil Conservation Service and made available by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service. Ponds which are properly stocked and fertilized with a high nitrogen fertilizer are a constant source of food for the family table.

Second year grass plantings or sorghum alnum aren't doing so well in some parts of Texas. According to E. M. Trew, pasture specialist of the Texas Extension Service, this grass acts as a weak perennial when managed for hay or seed and as an annual when grazed. You might want to analyze your plans before using this grass on retired cropland.

Range deferment is still urgently needed on hundreds of acres in the District. Close observation will reveal that a large per cent of the vegetation present is of an annual nature and produces feed for livestock for a short time. Cost sharing for carrying out this practice is available at the ASC Office. Be sure to check with them on rates and time if payment is expected.

Quality Cotton In Good Demand

College Station—Extra rewards await the cotton producer who succeeds in producing a high-quality crop this year, while discounts for low quality will continue to be stiff, reports Fred C. Elliott, extension cotton specialist.

The abundance of low-grade cotton that was left over from last year's crop will continue to depress the market for lower grades, points out Elliott. However, he adds, the present outlook for the 1958 crop indicates a continued shortage of high grade fiber.

A late spring, shortages of good seed, and too much moisture have contributed to a poor start for cotton this year in many areas. But the specialist says there is still plenty of opportunity to aim for high quality through careful management and harvest practices. These practices include weed, disease and insect control; fertilization at rates based on Extension Service recommendations; irrigating for good maturity in areas where it is done with special reference to cut-off dates; careful harvesting and ginning; keeping low and high grade fiber separate and selling on grade.

Almost a third of last year's cotton crop classified as spotted, resulting in a lower grade for the 1957 crop than for any year on record.

Much of this spotting could have been avoided through better management practices, says Elliott. Widespread failure to adhere to such practices weakens cotton's position with synthetic and other fibers in marketing for many uses. And this, in turn, contributes to cotton surpluses and depressed prices.

County agricultural agents can provide the latest information on how to grow cotton for quality, and how to preserve that quality in harvesting and ginning.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

Now bass fishermen are up the top-water seathe type of fishing we of. Unfortunately, too is get out often enough is a lot of luck to bass A lot of science tool of success is in using plug in the right true, there are times an old bass will hit on anything. But, there are other times when it seems he will hit on nothing. Did you say that that usually is the time you go fishing? I feel the same way too—and far too often.

While many fish are caught for some reason or another, the man who comes in with a good stringer of big fish usually does it because he knew what he was doing.

A good example of that occurred recently when a group of fishing tackle salesmen beat the brush in Lake Whitney. They came up with more five pound bass in one afternoon than any of the old timers who were there, ever remembered seeing in one day.

Naturally these salesmen were experts in casting. However, they also knew how to study the lay of the land. It couldn't be said that any one plug was better than another, because each rep was using his own particular brand, and all paid off. The two fishermen who came in for the top prizes were Dave Hawk of Corpus Christi and Ray Belling of San Antonio. Dave makes Pico lures and Ray sells Silaflez rods and Langley reels.

Both are wonders in the use of rod and reel. So were all the other reps. But the big payoff came for this team because they picked out places that were natural for bass.

They not only worked the points and the pockets. They worked water where it was evident that a fault line lay beneath. For instance, if a rock ledge protrudes into the water, study its range. If there is a known drop-off beneath the surface, fish parallel to this reef, not across it. In that way you'll attract the big bass on the deep side, as well as the yearlings that might be playing near the surface.

If there is a little drainage cut entering the lake, where water from the countryside flows in to make a sandbar, that usually is a good place, too. Food particles enter the lakes at such places. Small fish feed on this plankton. Big fish feed on the little ones.

Some people fish with top water lures all the time. They get fish. It is known that a bass will dash 20 feet to take a lure if he wants it.

Top-water fishing follows the same general pattern, even though a good top-water fisherman works according to his own experience.

For the beginner, top water fishing is much easier. He can watch his plug work. He is less likely to get hung and lose a plug. And he can have plenty of fun when a bass hits.

Working along the shore line the man in the back of the boat takes the close-in water; the man in the front of the boat reaches out. The front man, however, always should be careful not to disturb all the waters which will affect the fishing of the man in the back of the boat.

Pick your shots. Lay your plug in where there is likely to be a bass. Twitch it, jerk it or chug it, according to the make of lure you are using. Wind in a couple of times, and then do it again.

Sometimes when you are fishing in brush waters, or in moss pockets, it pays to leave your plug where it falls, for 30 seconds or more. Give it a slight twitch occasionally.

In brush fishing, you'll hang your plug many times. But you'll also get bass. The fellow who never hangs a plug doesn't usually get the most bass.

You can go on and on about the methods of top water fishing. It is good on quiet, still water, in the early morning or late evening. It is a wonderful way to catch bass around lily pads, moss beds, rocky shorelines, in the brush, or among the tree stumps.

Cane Pole Fishing—Long the favorite system of thousands has been cane pole fishing. It may be the lazy way to catch fish, but it also contributes a great deal to the contentment of many thousands of fishermen.

Go anywhere and you'll find pole fishermen. Usually they are wearing flop hats or blue bonnets. But, it also is pretty certain that there'll be a stringer of mixed fish hanging in the water nearby.

Now comes South Bend with a new rod for jig and pan fishing. It is called the Lazy Day. It is a 10-foot telescoping glass rod, with a wooden handle. Some of these rods are equipped with line keepers so that the lines can be wound on the keepers when the rod is closed.

The combination costs more than a cane pole ($7.95 to $11.95), but it also has many worthwhile features to recommend it. For instance a 10-foot rod closes to approximately half its length, and can be carried in the back of an automobile without any trouble.

There's a big day coming for these extension type rods.

A Word Of Caution—Here's a piece of advice that might save you a lot of money before the summer is over. Check your trailers. Most of us run our trailers trip after trip without paying too much attention to them. Then when something happens we are, invariably, a long, long way from home.

D-DAY FOR GRASSHOPPERS AND FIRE ANTS

The Texas Department of Agriculture has declared open war on two major farm pests—the grasshopper and the imported fire ant—and is engaged in active battle on two vital fronts in East Texas and West Texas.

Trailer manufacturers make the best piece of equipment they know how. If we take good care of them, they will give us many miles of trouble-free use.

Here are some suggestions from Gator Boat Trailer Co., which are good for any boat trailer: (1) Clean and repack wheels and check bearings; (2) Thoroughly lubricate all moving parts; (3) Remove rust spots and repaint them; (4) Check cradle and bunker padding for boat protection; (5) Check coupler carefully. If it is out of line you'll bring home undue wear on your tires; (6) Tighten all bolts and (7) Replace winch-rope if it shows signs of fraying.

To these suggestions we might add—be sure and check your tail light and license number plate. Remember also that your tie-downs must be efficient and capable of holding your boat in place.

Take these precautions and you will have a minimum of trailer trouble.

Trailing boats is getting to be more of a problem every day, because of inadequate launching facilities and storage areas. Some boat owners are very thoughtless, too. They'll put their boats in the water and then leave their trailers in the way of others who want to launch their own boats.

Remember, fellows—after you launch your boat, remove your trailer. Get it out of the way, so that the next fellow will have plenty of room to turn and launch. It could save you money in the long run as some of us are not too good at this trailer backing . . . and you might get rammed.

The two enemies are being engaged in separate campaigns befitting their individual tactics. The grasshopper, an ancient foe, has been met in a pitched battle in several Panhandle counties with a mechanized force of eight federal-state spray units. These units are working along major roadways to prevent organized movement and regrouping of hopper defenses in highly strategic points such as field crops and rangelands.

On the eastern front, federal-state "demolition" troops are waging more subtle warfare on the imported fire ant through means of a federal-state quarantine recently imposed in six East Texas counties. A new adversary, the native South American fire ant first began its march on Texas last year after having been introduced into Alabama several years ago.

Natural movement of the ant is rather slow; however, "subversive" movement by means of mechanical transportation of soil from one area to another provides a quick free ride into unconquered territory. Therefore, the new anti-ant campaign will involve a complete check on movement of all products capable of carrying the fire ant from the quarantine counties into uninfested areas.

Although grasshoppers far outnumber the fire ants and are capable of doing more actual crop damage, the hoppers are not ordinarily so bothersome. The fire ant is notorious for both its painful bite and sting and does most of its harm through discomfort caused to humans and animals. In heavily-infested areas, field work by farm laborers is extremely difficult and sometimes impossible.

In addition to the initial spray entrenchment against the grasshoppers along Panhandle highway rights-of-way, an air attack involving spraying of at least 500,000 acres of privately-owned rangeland has been approved. Counties involved in the grasshopper campaign include Dallam, Sherman, Hansford, Ochiltree, Hartley, Moore and Hutchinson.

Fire ant quarantine counties include Jasper, Newton, Tyler, Hardin, Jefferson and Orange.

Slow Down And Live!

"How accidental are traffic accidents?"
This question was asked by J. O. Musick, general manager of the Texas Safety Association, today, in connection with TSA's current Slow Down and Live program for Texas.
"The term 'accident' hardly seems appropriate for mishaps on the highway that are invited through careless or unlawful acts," Musick said. "Of course many violations are not deliberate—just inattention or an impulse to take a chance—but they are still inexcusable because of the damage they cause."
Musick said some people, through their carelessness behind the wheel, commit harakiri by using an automobile instead of a Japanese dagger. He changed the suicidal term slightly by calling it Hurrikari.

"Improper speed doesn't shorten the road; it shortens life," Musick said. "And this is the central theme of the Slow Down and Live program. We hope the campaign will call motorists' attention to the dangers of excessive speed, which accounted for 57 per cent of all rural fatal accidents in Texas during 1957."
Musick defined excessive speed as being any speed which is unsafe—in the face of road, traffic, mechanical, climatic and other physical conditions which present driving hazards.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health.
HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner

The first 100 people you see at their favorite sport are good that will say swimming. Fishing and fishing have been seats as sport choices in recent nationwide polls.

Estimated 50,000 new pools constructed this year in the nation. In Texas, the moment well over 4,000 are attracting swimmers to a flower. All to the good, because swimming lends itself to adjustment. It teaches and builds stamina.

and character. A child who overcomes fear of water has learned courage.

But there is also an element of risk. This accelerated interest in swimming creates hazards to life and limb, and danger of disease transmission. That's why the State Health Department conducts courses to teach pool operators the various skills of their jobs.

"Short schools" for pool operators are concentrated during April, May and June, the intention being to enroll as many operators as possible before hot weather and overflow crowds make it hard for them to get away from their work.

Co-sponsored by the Texas Beach and Pool Association, courses consist of eight hours of intensive technical and practical instruction. It covers such things as how to disinfect the water, and how to control water acidity—the factor, incidentally, which causes swimmers' eyes to burn, rather than chlorine as is popularly supposed. The course also covers pool safety, bathhouse sanitation, and the various filtering systems used by modern pools.

How important are swimming pools as links in the chain of disease transmission? Eye, ear, nose, and throat, skin and intestinal infections are among the most common conditions spread in swimming pools. Typhoid fever and diarrheal diseases have been traced to neighborhood pools.

Visitors To Texas Stayed Around Longer And Spent More In 1957

Visitors to Texas spent more money and stayed around longer spending it in 1957 than during any previous year, so indicates the Tourist Industry Report released by the Texas Highway Department.

D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer, pointed to statistics in the Report which show that expenditures per person per day jumped to $8.22 in 1957, as compared to $7.71 in 1956. "Moreover, the typical tourist extended his visit to 6.3 days in 1957, as against 5.9 days the previous year," Greer observed.

The Report defined tourist dollars as new money earned elsewhere and brought into the community where it is then spent and respent into the local business cycle. Specifically, tourist dollars to the tune of $531 million made music in Texas cash registers and jingled in the pockets of Texas jeans last year. This whopping amount was cleared from tourists traveling by automobile.

Greer pointed out that this was an impressive increase over 1956's intake of $379 million. The Report says that approximately $98.9 million was spent also in 1957 by tourists visiting Texas by air, rail, bus, and ship.

Most prevalent, however, is ringworm of the feet, commonly called "athlete's foot." It is not contracted in pool water, but by walking on wet walks and floors on which spores flourish.

In well-operated pools there is little chance of contracting any of these conditions. That's the reason for the Department's emphasis on swimming pool sanitation.

Swimmers, too, have a responsibility toward pool cleanliness. Like most public places, a pool quickly assumes the character of its least desirable patron.

Largest part of the tourist dollar in Texas is spent for food, lodging, and car upkeep. To serve those basic needs, the Report estimates, 25,320 established businesses with 102,265 employees are required. The final figures are increased many times when the retail stores, amusement spots, gift shops, and other places where the remainder of the tourist dollar is spent are considered.

Tourists themselves provide the records from which the Highway Department obtains the statistics in the annual Tourist Industry Report, Greer remarked. Survey cards, to be completed and mailed back after the visit in Texas, are given tourists stopping at the Department's seven Highway Travel Information Bureaus located on major highways entering the state. Last year the Bureaus played host to 174,000 such out-of-state guests.

Now and Forever...

The sacred promises are made—and their new life together begins. Learning to live together may pose many problems, and the adjustments to marriage may be difficult.

How good it is to know that at the Church or Synagogue where they made their sacred marriage vows, they can always find the help they need to keep these promises. Not just the kindly help of their minister, priest or rabbi—not merely in the meeting with other young people facing the same problems—but in the closeness of worship every week they find the encouragement of hopes and dreams... they find the strength for their lives.

A marriage that starts in the worship of God... that continues to receive the support of faith through joys and sorrows... will last for them in happiness, in security, in deep faith in themselves and their futures.

Find the strength for your life...

Chappell Hill

By PEARL CRAWFORD

We received four and one-half inches of rain last week including the big rain Saturday afternoon. Folks, I was in Goldthwaite Saturday afternoon during the thunder storm. I spent my time with Mr. and Mrs. Mike Welch and two sons at their station. A lot of travelers were stopped because of the heavy rain and cars drowning out. I noticed that Sheriff Stubbiefield kept on the go during the heavy rain helping people in distress. He passed the station a number of times. As far as I know there was no damage.

George was at home and said there was no hail, just high wind and rain. I noticed some trees were blown down.

George and I visited Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford and William G. Sunday night. They did not have so much rain. Albert said two inches of rain and high wind but the cloud wasn't bad.

Woodrow Ratliff had windmill trouble last week. Mr. Ratliff, Ronald Wayne and Steve worked on the mill Saturday and I hope they found the trouble.

This scribe visited Mrs. O. C. Weatherby last Monday. She and Roy had just finished harvesting their grain crop. I also enjoyed looking at her flowers; they are just beautiful.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Oden visited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Duren Wednesday.

Mrs. Noel Ledbetter and sons visited Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ledbetter Saturday.

W. L. Conner visited all the home community and took their offering for the Salvation Army during last week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Evans visited J. N. Crook at Comanche Wednesday.

Mrs. Hugh Nowell and Mrs. A. R. Whately visited the Lippes at Goldthwaite Friday.

Mrs. Wilson Robertson, Larry and Billy of San Angelo were guests Father's Day of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Elms. Billy remained for a longer visit. Bob Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Womack and Mr. and Mrs. Fisher of Brownwood were also guests of the Elms last Monday.

Mrs. Hugh Nowell and Mrs. A. R. Whately visited Mrs. Taylor and children Friday afternoon. W. P. Oxford was a guest Saturday at the Woodrow Ratliff home.

Otto Lippe, long time resident of the Priddy and Lake Merritt communities passed away at his home in Goldthwaite on Friday. We extend our sympathy to his loved ones. May the Lord bless them in their sorrow.

Mr. Scott, a former resident of Mt. Olive community, passed away at Hamilton. He was laid to rest at the Mt. Olive Cemetery Thursday. We extend our sympathy to his loved ones.

Probably the busiest family in 18 West Texas counties these days is the Joe Swanner family of Brownwood. Swanner is a candidate for the Texas State Senate from the 16th District. Substituting hard work for money in the campaign, Swanner is conducting a vigorous personal drive to see all the district's approximately 40,000 eligible voters during the next six weeks.

Scallorn News

MRS. ORA BLACK

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brearly of Fort Worth spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Casbeer, and attended the Hufstutler reunion Sunday.

A twister which hit in the Scallorn community Saturday afternoon around 4 o'clock did considerable damage to out-buildings and up-rooted trees. Trees larger than a man's body were blown down; others with tops twisted off, radio antennas blown down, to say nothing of what the wind and seven inch rain did to water gaps and miles of fences, which were washed down the creek. Stock roamed the country at large. Each fellow and all hands worked all day Sunday trying to corral his stock. Layton Black, who is overseer at Shady Oak Ranch

CAN CHANGE
THE WORLD

ROBERT B. McCRARY, Pastor
First Methodist Church
Goldthwaite

It is a happy privilege to live with Goldthwaite as pastor of the First Church. That is a privilege that is easy to make
of. There has been in the ministry of the Church some thirty years and one learns that it is a holy privilege to the gospel to any condition anywhere, and especally received as their pastor to whom they look for guidance. When I above, none of the
are used lightly nor without meaning.

is a fine Christian courtship and the pastor and congregation of the Baptist Church
our church for my first evening service to welcome and my wife into the home. It is indeed a high privilege to come into your town and be received at once by the best people, church people,

as a brother and citizen, made to feel at once that I should not say "your town" but "my town." We thank you very sincerely for being thus accepted.
We are indeed happy to be here.

Now let us work together in the most important work in the world, the Kingdom of God on earth, the salvation of people, and the establishment of the Christian way of life among our people. I am here to proclaim Jesus Christ and His grace as the Way of love and brotherhood that is able to reconcile
all men who will accept Him;
able to save to the uttermost
those who come unto Him by faith; and able to establish peace on earth and good will among all men who will commit themselves and their affairs to Him. This is the gospel we proclaim, the gospel of His Spirit in our hearts and lives,
is able to give us victory over every sin, even to take the bitterness, the hatred and grudges
out of our lives and to fill us with the love that could not be turned to hatred. Let me urge you: attend the church of your membership or choice, but do not neglect the high privilege of worshipping in the congregation regularly.

spent last week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L.
Wheeler and Mr. and Mrs.

a hand in the Variety Store.

Frontier News Flashes

University of Houston

June 22-23, 1958
STATE NEWS

The crops in Wood county, we learn from the Quitman Herald,
are very promising.

The Waco Southerner has been shown a beet which measured 30 inches in length, 27 inches in circumference, and weighed 25 pounds.

The same paper has holsted at its mast head the name of John A. Quitman, as a candidate for the Presidency in 1860.

The "bloody flux," we learn from the Liberty Gazette, has of late been prevailing in Tyler county, baffling the will of the physicians.

The Liberty Gazette, of the 14th, says two large droves of fat beefs passed through that place, a few days previous, for the New Orleans market.

I. G. Williams, Esq., of Galveston, who has been traveling extensively through the wheat growing portion of Texas, puts the wheat crop of the State down at 3,500,000 bushels.

The Jefferson Gazette of the 5th inst., speaks of dry weather in that section, but says the crops are not yet suffering. It reports the health of the county as being very good.

The Victoria Herald, of the 19th says watermelons, muskmelons and roasting ears are plenty in that region, and the prospects for good living and good times generally, were never more promising.

A severe storm passed over Corpus Christi on the 12th inst.,
which leveled with the ground outhouses and fences without number, blew down one unfinished dwelling and wrenched off the first part of two other buildings.

The Columbia Democrat has heard from all portions of Brazoria, and says there never was a finer prospect for abundant crops in that country.

The Gonzales Inquirer says that the Sea Island and short staple cotton, planted since the grasshoppers left, and only five weeks old, is nearly knee high,
full of squares and growing finely. The corn crop of the same age is six and seven feet high.

S. A. Benton, Esq., of the Richmond Reporter, has purchased the interest of his former partner, S. H. Ferguson, in that paper, and thereby becomes its sole proprietor. The Reporter is an able and fearless journal—exposing error wherever found—and we trust it may long live to battle for an independent judiciary.

The San Antonio Express
learns through a private letter from New Mexico that great excitement exists in that section of the country in regard to late discoveries of new mines of gold and silver there. Many,

it is said, will amass fortunes
in a short time.

We have heard it whispered
through town that Judge Gibson, the accomplished editor of the Sentinel, who is now absent
at San Antonio, is on a wifehunting expedition. We cannot vouch for the truth of the rumor, but if such is the case, we trust our worthy contemporary may succeed in lariatting and bringing home some fair one to cheer his solitary hours.

Judge I. A. Paschal, of San Antonio, arrived in town a few days ago, where he will remain a short time in attendance upon the Federal and District Courts. The Judge appears to be in the enjoyment of excellent health. He says the farming prospects of Bexar and adjoining counties were never better and thinks the yield of corn in that section will be larger this fall than for many years previous.

The friends of education are cordially invited to attend the examination of the pupils of the Austin Collegiate Female Institute on Wednesday and Thursday, the 23rd and 24th
inst.—B. J. Smith, Principal.

An Artificial Breeze Maker—
A new yankee notion is out, in the shape of a rocking chair;
and a most singular invention
it is. It is so constructed that by the ordinary motion of rock-ing, a delicious current of air is blown upon the face of the occupant, by means of bellows attached to the rockers; the bellows is attached to an icebox, and by placing a piece of ice in it, the bellows passes over the ice, conveying a refreshing breeze to the face.

Questions And Answers About
Social Security

Question: Will my social security benefit be reduced because I will be receiving a company pension when I retire?

Answer: Your social security benefit will not be reduced.
However, some private employer retirement plans offset the social security benefit against their retirement amount. Actually there are many different plans or combinations in such cases. You should check now with your employer to see what plan is provided in your case.

Question: How can my wife and I live on our combined social security benefit of $162.80 a month when we are having trouble right now with my full salary?

Answer: The old-age and survivors insurance program was never intended to provide an income equal to that earned during an individual's working lifetime. The basic purpose of this social insurance program is to provide bedrock protection by replacing in part earned income which is no longer available because a worker is retired, disabled, or has died. It was anticipated that social security benefits would be supplemented whenever possible by additional income from investments, private insurance, rentals or part-time employment. In other words, this program will help;
but it will not relieve you of your responsibility to make adequate provision for your future.

Question: I pay a woman $5
a day to come in and do cleaning and other housework two days a week. For some reason she doesn't want me to pay social security taxes on her. What should I do?

Answer: If you pay a domestic worker $50 cash wages each calendar quarter, then you as an employer must file a report with the Director of Internal Revenue showing your employee's name, social security number, and amount of cash wages paid. Neither you nor your employee has a choice in the matter. This report must be accompanied by your share and your employee's share of the social security tax, which is 2 1/4 % of the total amount of the cash wages you pay her. It must be filed by you sometime during the month following the quarter in question. For example, employment in April, May and June must be reported by July 31. If you have not had household help to report up to now and are not receiving reporting forms, ask either the Internal Revenue Service or your nearest social security office for the booklet, "Do You Have a Maid?" This instructs you on how to get started in filing these reports.

area in the Panhandle, Gov. Price Daniel called it the worst grasshopper infestation in 20 years. Unless checked, he said, the 'hoppers could destroy much of the crops and pasture in 26 counties.

County, state and federal agencies worked with landowners to get crews to spray hatching grounds along roadways. State Agriculture Department, Highway Department, National Guard and Defense and Disaster Relief Office are cooperating in the battle. Aim is to try to kill the insects before they leave the hatching grounds and start chewing their way into crops for which farmers had high hopes this year.

Another threat is fund shortage. At a cost of some $3,000 a day for spraying crews, Texas Agriculture Department's emergency funds dwindled fast.

Governor Daniel expressed hope that some federal assistance might be obtained.

Cox Appeal Denied—Ex-Rep. James E. Cox of Conroe has lost another round in his fight against a two-year prison sentence.

Court of Criminal Appeals, by a 2-1 decision, upheld the trial court conviction on charges of consenting to accept a bribe. Cox's attorneys have one more recourse left—filing a motion for a re-hearing. Since the appeals court recesses June 28, this could not be considered until it reconvenes next October.

Cox's troubles rocked the state last Spring during the 1957 legislative session. They began when Howard Harmon of San Antonio, onetime head of the Texas Naturopaths, made public a tape recording of a hotel room conversation with Cox. Harmon and state's attorneys contended that the conversation reflected an effort by Cox to shake down Harmon in return for killing an anti-naturopath bill which Cox had introduced in the legislature.

Judge's Opponent Out—One election contest has already been settled, some six weeks before Election Day.

Texas Supreme Court ruled Dist. Judge Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls not eligible to run for the Court of Criminal Appeals against Judge K. K. Woodley. Reason: Judge Purcell has had only nine years experience as a lawyer and judge.

An 1891 amendment to the Constitution requires that Criminal Appeals Court judges have the same qualifications as Supreme Court judges. At that time the requirement for the high court was seven years experience. In 1945 the Constitution was amended to require 10 years experience for Supreme Court judges.

Despite the time lapse, the effect of the two amendments is to require 10 years experience for Criminal Appeals judges, according to the ruling in the Woodley-Purcell case.

Result is that Woodley will be unopposed in the primary and win automatic renomination for another six-year term.

Line-Jumping Threat—Another Supreme Court ruling on an election dispute poses an Election Day dilemma for Dallas voters.

It held that Grover Cantrell, Dallas labor official and self-styled "Stevenson Republican," is entitled to oppose Cong. Bruce Alger on the GOP primary ballot.

Cantrell's candidacy is interpreted as a move to inconvenience Dallas conservative voters. Election results for 1956 indicate a good percentage of "Big D" voters threw their strength behind conservative Democrats at precinct conventions and primaries, but supported Republican nominees for national offices in the general election. Presumably, unless conservatives are on hand to vote, Cantrell's friends might scratch GOP-favorite Alger in his own primary.

But it's a two-edged sword that applies equally to Dallas liberals. If they go to the Republican primary to help Cantrell, they can't vote for liberal Democratic contenders for state nor fight conservatives for Democratic precinct control.

Like A Jury?—Defending the State Board of Health's closed door meetings, Comm. Henry H. Holle said:

"The Board is like a jury. You get the verdict, but you can't get in on their comments."

State Health Board has authority to allocate federal funds under the Hill-Burton Act to match local funds for hospital building. Its policy has been to announce names of hospitals approved to receive funds, but not those rejected or why.

Newsman had been openly critical of the Board for barring the press from its meetings. Holle said minutes of Board meetings were available to the public after formal approval at the next meeting—three months later.

More Money For Land—Texas Veterans Land Board has made its third $12,500,000 sale of bonds to finance land purchases by veterans.

This brings to $37,500,000 the bonds sold since last December. Land Office spokesmen say it gives the program enough money to carry it until August, 1959.

PRINCESS IS HOSTESS—Frank Sinatra, the guest of honor, is shown with his hostess, Princess Grace, at a party she gave in her palace in Monte Carlo. The party, which preceded the premiere of Sinatra's latest movie, was for her favorite project, the United Nations Refugee Fund. (UPI Radiotelephoto)

A total of $200,000,000 in bond issues was authorized by voters in a recent constitutional amendment.

For a time the program was at a standstill because the Board was unable to find bond buyers who would accept the 3 per cent or less in interest which the state is allowed under the constitution to pay.

Try, Try Again—Texas Supreme Court is again being asked to referee the battle of appointments that has brought the state insurance liquidation to "utter chaos."

Latest deadlock developed when Insurance Commissioner William A. Harrison fired Liquidator James M. Williamson (in office only 10 weeks) and replaced him with C. M. Landeau, formerly first deputy. But Dist. Judge Charles O. Betts, one of three Austin judges handling insurance receivership cases, refused to accept Landeau as receiver for the cases in his court. He named another attorney. Other two judges accepted Landeau.

On behalf of the Insurance Department, Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has petitioned the Supreme Court for permission to file a writ of mandamus voiding Betts' action. His petition charges Betts with usurping powers assigned the Insurance Department. It says the "divided responsibility" of two receivers in one office "creates utter chaos."

In a previous effort to get a ruling that would unshackle authority over liquidation, the high court held the judge could appoint a receiver if the Insurance Department failed to do so.

las after an absence of 14½ years. Both had previously filled two assignments in the Texas division. From January, 1937, to January, 1941, Colonel Pickering served as Youth Secretary in charge of youth activities, and Mrs. Pickering was Director of the Guard; and from January, 1941, to January, 1944, Colonel Pickering served as Divisional Secretary for the Texas Division and Mrs. Pickering was Divisional League of Mercy Secretary.

By coincidence, Colonel Pickering succeeded Colonel Morrison when he became Divisional Secretary in 1941, and he will succeed Colonel Morrison again as Divisional Commander on June 19.

In Dallas Mrs. Pickering will serve as Divisional Home League Secretary for the Texas Division and will direct activities of the women of The Salvation Army. The Pickering's have two sons. Both received their education in Dallas and call Dallas home. Lt. Colonel and Mrs. Morrison, retired under age rule on June 18, have spent an eventual life fully dedicated to "service for others" during the 38 years they have served as officers in this world-wide organization.

Colonel Morrison served as Divisional Secretary of the Texas Division 1936-1940. After a tour of duty in Atlanta, he returned to Dallas as Divisional Commander in 1948 and held that post continuously until his retirement.
