Interest Shown In 1959 Soil Bank By County Farmers

More than 40 Mills County farmers have taken the first step toward participation in the Soil Bank Program, Chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee announced.

The number of farmers who have called at the ASCO Office and requested rental rates be established for placing part or all of their cropland in the Conservation Reserve next year. Farmers have until September 26 to make this initial application for a rate determination. After receiving the rates, farmers have until October 17 to make a formal application for the program if they wish to do so.

Under the Conservation Reserve program, the farmer voluntarily reduces his acreage of cropland to 3- to 10-year contract. The farmer receives rental payments on the land taken out of production. During the time the land is in the Conservation Reserve it cannot be used for cropping or grazing and must be devoted to erosion protective conservation uses. The Government shares the cost of carrying out land, water, or wildlife conservation practices on the reserved land.

At present, according to Mr. Burckett, about 79 farmers in the county have approximately 4,630 acres in the Conservation Reserve under contracts entered into during the 1956-58 period. Total rental payments in the county under these existing contracts amount to about $37,040 per year.

When the county committee sets a maximum annual payment rate for a farm, Chairman Burckett said, it considers productivity, agricultural value and rental rates for similar land in the area. While individual farm rates will vary above and below the county average rate, they may not be greater than 20 per cent of the value of the land on the particular farm, without regard to physical improvements or location. The top limit for any farm in this county cannot exceed 150% of the county rate. The county rate is $10 per acre.

"COVER-TO-COVER READERS"

From the Belmont, Ohio, Chronicle:

"A strong voice of approval for advertising in weekly newspapers spoke out recently at a Milwaukee Press Association meeting.

"According to a front page article in The Publisher's Auxiliary, Alan R. McGinnis, chairman of the board of a Milwaukee advertising agency, stated: '... It is my opinion, although not officially documented, that subscribers of weekly newspapers will come closer to being cover-to-cover readers than any other print medium available.'

"I don't subscribe to the thought that the way to get maximum return on the client dollar is necessarily that of buying as much circulation as possible."

"Along with the obvious advantage of reasonable column rates, is the fact that a full-page ad in a weekly will hit the reader's eye like a rocket burst and he will remember that advertiser's name and product because it is not buried in forty or fifty pages of newspaper."

NATIONAL NEWSPAPER WEEK

This country has something of a mania for "weeks" and "days" celebrating all manner of things and occasions from the sublime to the ridiculous. But some of the observances are far above the common ruck, and deserve the public's interest and attention.

This is certainly the case with National Newspaper Week, October 1-8. Its theme is "Your Newspaper Guards Your Freedoms." And that's more than just a felicitous little slogan. It's a fact. A free press is the most potent weapon against tyranny and persecution that any nation can possess.

Dictators always take over the press as soon as they gain power and pervert it to their own ends. That's only logical. For dictatorship can't stand the freedom of expression and debate a free press stands solidly for.

TEENAGE TALK

A New York reporter recently wrote a series of terrifying articles about teenage delinquents. He called them the "shook-up generation." In teenage lingo shook-up means emotionally unstable.

Other teenage slang, listed in a glossary at the top of his piece, includes: rumble—a gang fight; jap—an ambush; pot—drugs; bopping club—a fighting gang; sig—a party; and deb—a teenage gangster's girl.

This is the kind of talk and the kind of life that is bred in big city slums. Most of us, fortunately, don't hear or see much of it.

Not that our teenagers don't have a special language of their own. By now even the most sheltered of us adults are familiar with such phrases as big deal for an important event, cool for excellent, hip for knowing and square for stupid.

Recently we heard of a new addition to teenage vocabulary. It was started by some bright youngsters who were asked to help get their fellow teenagers vaccinated with the Salk vaccine. To polio authorities like the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis they gave this advice: "Make polio vaccination a fad like pony tails, blue jeans and rock 'n roll music. We'll give you some catch words to do it with."

Maybe on this deal the kids are hip. If it helps get our teenagers protected against paralytic polio, we give our sanction to "Roll up your sleeve, Steve" and "Don't balk at Salk."

Yesterday morning County Agent Weaver received a part of the checks due the farmers for plowing up cotton and hopes to get the remainder of the checks in a few days. The total amount due farmers in this county is $93,000 and approximately $20,000 of that amount was received yesterday. The checks were for farmers of Trigger Mt., Cen-

52 YEARS AGO—

(Taken from The Eagle Files of September 22, 1906)

Last Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock Charlie Simpson and Miss Lillie Stark were happily united in matrimony at the pretty home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stark, in the Rock Springs community. News reached this city last week of the death of Mr. John B. Baker at his home in Val-ter City, Ebony, Center Point, Payne and Goldthwaite.

Harry Allen has received a report on the health department on the Goldthwaite city water and it is pronounced pure. There was no thought that the water was impure but it is well to keep a check-up on it and know rather than hope it is pure.

The Mills County Cold Storage has had some improvements made in the poultry department, preparatory to handling the turkey crop. B. R. Weaver, a dry goods man of long experience, has accepted a position with O. H. Yarborough and entered upon his duties yesterday. Mr. Weaver has been with the Garner-Alvis Co. a good many years and comes highly recommended as a business man and a citizen. He is heartily welcomed to Goldthwaite business circles.

Friends here of J. R. Clark, former banker, druggist and postmaster at Mullin, who is now engaged in the dry goods business in Abilene, have learned with interest that he is an applicant as postmaster of the last named city and we are all hoping he secures the appointment.

Joe Roberts, who was assistant to the management of the Rural Telephone Company at this place, prior to merging of that property with the Southwestern States Company here, has been made manager of the telephone exchange at Rome in Wise County, and "trouble shooter" for the exchange at Decatur. He and his family will make their home at Rome.

Washington Observers Applaud 85th Congress Foreign Development And Like, Put He

By HENRY CATHCART
Central Press Association Washington Writer

WASHINGTON—In the view of most Washington observers the 85th Congress compiled an enviable record of reliability and accomplishment.

Republican and Democratic leaders on Capitol Hill were spoken in praise of the work of the rank and file members of President Eisenhower, while withholding blanket endorsement of congressional accomplishment, is known as pleased by passage of such key parts of the legislative program as the Defense Department reorganization bill, the foreign aid money and an unprecedented, four-year extension of reciprocal trade legislation.

The latter two of these measures had a chance of enactment when Congress reconvened in January, and before Eisenhower and his developments put the heat on for passage.

It is regrettable that the impending political campaigns and this fall's elections overshadowed the closing days of the session. Here, expediency, and a jockeying for political advantage, tended to tarnish the record.

But, after all, Congress is a political body, and politics must be expected to rear its ugly head from time to time.

SEEKING DOUBLE—Members of the Oklahoma congressional delegation gave James H. Edmondson, Democratic nominee for governor of that state, a luncheon recently when he visited Capitol. Into the Senate private dining room walked a man flanked by a group of plainclothes men. Two Capitol Hill men took their place at the door.

Everyone rose as a mark of respect as the visitor walked and shook Edmondson's hand.

"I just happened to be in the Capitol and heard you were the man said. 'I know I'm of the opposite political party, but I wanted to tell you you are welcome.'"

Edmondson was flattered and speechless, everyone else was. Then, one of the Oklahoma congressmen explained. The man was not President Eisenhower, but a double who works in Washington and so closely resembles the President that he fools even one he meets.

When the laughter subsided, the congressman got a great when he told Edmondson, "This was the nearest we could get to the White House."

INFLATION—Washington economic policy leaders are getting more and more concerned over the public attitude toward inflation.

Their present particular area of concern is the stock market which in recent weeks has scored new highs almost daily. Economists in government feel the market is approaching runaway proportions and are urging that the administration take some concrete moves to halt the upward trend.

Such moves, which are being studied closely, would consist of tightening of credit—practically the only course now legally available to federal authorities. This would take the form of increasing interest rates to make loans for expansion less attractive.

During the depth of the recession, the Federal Reserve board took a series of steps which eased loan rates, made borrowing more attractive and stimulated the recovery now underway.

These attractive loan rates, coupled with prospects for a peacetime federal deficit of $12 billion this fiscal year, have set up to inflation in speculators' minds, with the market's surge the result.

The administration wants to control this rise, but legislative clamp on controls which might dampen or even drown the beginning economic recovery movement.

Goldthwaite Methodist Church To Hold Christian Workers' School

A Christian Workers' School is to be held next week, September 29 through October 1 in the Goldthwaite Methodist Church. Everything You Expect In a Fine Washer... the NEW MAYTAG

AUTOMATIC FILTER-AGITATOR

The exclusive new Maytag Filter-Agitator is the most revolutionary change in agitator design since it was invented by Maytag. It provides increased washing action, positive distribution of detergent, and maximum lint filtration. It's new, it's fabulous, and it's available only in Maytag.

New full time filter is in the heart of the new Filter-Agitator, under water where the lint is and is supplemented by Maytag's famous Lint Remover Tub. Surface lint as well as lint suspended in water is filtered out as water circulates through agitator. And there are no pans or trays to interfere with loading or unloading.

Detergent dispenser in agitator prevents discoloration and damage to fabrics from heavy concentrations of undissolved detergent. Simply pour detergent in agitator cavity; circulating water dissolves it completely before it comes in contact with clothes. Big two cup capacity permits addition of water softener.

Famous Maytag Agitator Action has been amplified by the pumping action of the new Filter-Agitator. Wash water circulated through the agitator is forced out through specially designed channels in the bottom, in swirling jet streams. Loosens even deep down dirt in seconds.

mile stretch of road near Dalhart.

In this 48 mile drive he counted 751 scaled quail, or 15.6 birds per mile. This was at the rate of approximately 250 birds per hour.

In one covey he estimated 100 birds, while at numerous other places counts ranged from 10 to 40 birds.

In a few spots he found only pairs, indicating some of the birds are still nesting. He saw young birds, some of them only two or three days old, while many others showed to be only about two weeks old.

The count was started on ranch land and continued on farm land.

Other reports from the Panhandle and south Plains areas indicate the best quail crop in years, where there is sufficient cover. A bountiful grain crop has provided plenty of food.

Hillside Mission

By LIDA BYRNE

It is so important that we reject sin that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God tells us in drastic and imperative terms of everlasting hell fire to shun. He said, in St. Matthew 18:8-9: "Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire. And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire."

FIRE PREVENTION

Farm fire losses are going up. Last year, the U. S. Department of Agriculture estimated that they hit a new high of one hundred fifty-two million dollars!

Check your buildings and acreage for fire hazards regularly. Don't let your farm become a fire loss statistic! says Fire Chief Jack Reid of Goldthwaite.

The Texian Editor's Frontier News Flashes

Department of Journalism & Graphic Arts
University of Houston

September 21 - 27, 1858

The immense amount of money annually disbursed by the War Department of the United States, for the protection (?) of the Texian frontier, might well be reduced to one-half the amount, by the withdrawal of every company of U. S. troops, from the twenty odd forts and camps now occupied by them, and the substitution thereof of a single regiment of mounted Texian Rangers.

It is well known by every frontiersman, woman, and child of ten years old, that these U. S. soldiers, now scattered and stationed in small squads throughout the state, and on its borders, are but subjects for the ridicule and laughter of the Indians that skirt the State, and that the appearance of a score or two of regimentals" (marked U. S.) creates no sensation among them, when compared with a squad of two or three dozen armed and mounted Texans, in their homespun and hunting shirts.

Ex-Governor George T. Wood died at his residence on Trinity River, on the 5th inst. He was a man of great natural force of character, though limited education.

We are glad to learn that the postmaster of San Antonio has ferreted out the late robberies of the mail that took place some time since.

We learn that the mail rider between Wharton and Texacoa was made to dismount and deliver his horse and mail bag by four thieves, who remarked to him at the time that he was getting off well with his life.

Mrs. Parmalee and Mrs. Barrett, of San Augustine, were injured by the upsetting of the stage, near the Nueces River.

The True Issue is loud in its calls upon the citizens of that county (Fayette), to take up the B.B.&C. Railroad at Columbus, and hurry it toward Austin.

The representative will also be at the Department of Public Welfare here November 7-21 and December 5-19.

John W. Sullivan Serving On Destroyer USS Floyd B. Parks

San Diego, Calif., (FHTNC)—John W. Sullivan, commissaryman seaman, USN, son of Mrs. Mary A. Sullivan of Goldthwaite, is serving aboard the Pacific Fleet destroyer USS Floyd B. Parks which returned to San Diego, Calif., in mid August after a tour of duty with the Seventh Fleet in the Far East.

While with the Seventh Fleet the Parks took part in Operation Hardtack, a series of tests of nuclear devices in the Eniwetok-Bikini area. Sailors from the Parks learned to fire rockets to an altitude of over 100,000 feet and to track them in order to gain weather data.

Questions And Answers About Social Security

Question: I was receiving a widow's benefits at the time I married my present husband last year. He gets old age insurance benefits, but I was told I would have to wait 3 years to collect benefits as his wife. Does the new law change this situation?

Answer: Yes, it does. The new law change provides that benefits can be paid a wife without waiting if she was entitled to widow's, dependent parents, or adult disabled child's benefits at the time she married. An application for the wife's benefits should be filed right away. First benefits under this provision will be paid for September 1958.

Question: I have heard that a person cannot receive Social Security disability benefits if he is already receiving a Veterans Administration pension. Is this true?

Answer: No, it is not true. The new law just passed eliminates the provision calling for reduction of the Social Security disability benefit by the amount of a V. A. pension and certain other federal and state disability benefits. Now a totally disabled person who qualifies for these Social Security disability benefits can get his payments whether he gets any other kind of benefits or not.

One of the contests will be a horn blowing event.

We would like to see a large number of people attend this tour for this encourages the boys and girls to do a better job with their calves. The tour will leave the square in Goldthwaite at 8:15 a. m.

You will see some outstanding young calves that will be shown at the larger shows of Texas this Winter and Spring.

SWINE—The District Sears Swine Show was held at Brownwood last Saturday. Jimmy Soules, who lives in the Star community, exhibited the first place boar pig in the district.

Bebe Harper, who also lives in the Star community, exhibited the fourth place gilt. There were five counties represented at this District Swine Show. They were Brown, Comanche, San Saba, Mills and McCulloch counties.

These were the best pigs that were raised in the Sears Swine program in each one of these counties.

RODENT CONTROL—The rodent control demonstrations were very successful. A total of nine of these demonstrations were held in the county and 1,450 pounds of bait was sold. There were a total of 222 persons that attended these meetings.

The Mills County Farm Bureau will have another 1,000 pounds of bait to sell during the next three weeks. This bait will be at Duren Equipment Company and Mr. Fox will be there in the afternoons to distribute this bait to the people of Mills County.

MORE NITROGEN MAY BE NEEDED ON WHEAT

The heavy stubble from last year's wheat crop is responsible for a situation which makes the use of nitrogen fertilizer more important for this year's crop. The situation, says W. F. Bennett, extension soil chemist, means that more of the soil nitrogen will be tied up in the process of decomposing the heavy stubble and a nitrogen shortage will exist.

This shortage would result in a reduced growth rate for this year's wheat crop during the fall and winter months, says Bennett. The nitrogen needs will vary depending upon the amount of stubble and present level of soil nitrogen. Nitrogen needs at planting time, believes Bennett, will generally vary from 20 to 50 pounds an acre. A soil test can be used to determine the amount.

Phosphorus and potash are found in good supply in some soils but in others these vital plant food elements may be deficient. Here again a soil test could prove most helpful.

Bennett says that in addition to the nitrogen applied at the time of plating, another application in late January or early February might prove profitable if the supply of soil moisture is good or if the wheat is irrigated.

For the soil test it will require about ten days to make the laboratory determinations on the soil sample and for getting the results back to the farmer.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thorne of Alvin, formerly of Goldthwaite, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Faltys of Clarkson, Nebraska.

The impressive candlelight ceremony was read by James LeFan, minister of the church, before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli and candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Jimmy Thorne of Alvin, wore a ballerina length dress of white brocade faille. Her shoulder length veil was of nylon and net and she carried a bouquet of white carnations showered with white satin ribbon tied in double lovers' knots.

Miss Danna Thorne of Alvin was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of pink taffeta. Leroy Mikesker of Temple served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Thorne wore a blue crystalline dress with black accessories.

For a trip to Clarkson, Nebraska, the bride chose a light pink suit. The couple is now at home at 315 Walnut Drive, Waco, Texas.

yourself personal injuries and damage by learning to recognize signals house-appliances give when they are not performing as they should. These are some warning signs:

When you stand, stand erect and tall with feet pointed straight ahead. Adjust heights of working surfaces to fit you and keep things within easy reach.

When you lift from the floor or low levels (picking up baby, weeding, looking in oven) stand close to the object to be lifted and bend at the knees—not at hip, keep back straight and lift with leg muscles instead of back.

When you carry, try to keep your shoulders level and your back straight. Carry something in each hand to help keep your body balance and permit free movement for "short hauls." If you must carry a heavy load on your arm, place it as near the elbow joint as possible.

When you push or pull, use your whole body instead of only your arms. Bend at hips instead of sagging your shoulders, use whole body at center of weight to be moved.

When you sit, use a comfortable chair or stool and sit with back straight. Work at a height so you don't have to reach or stoop over.

Good posture combined with use of correct tools, comfortable clothing and a positive attitude will help you have more pep and enthusiasm for everyday living.

Scientific research, which developed these fibers, has now come up with an effective, easy way of combating this tendency—just add a small amount of liquid detergent, fabric softener, or a special liquid anti-static agent to the final rinse water.

Liquid detergents and fabric softeners—often marked as "laundry rinses"—can be purchased at most grocery stores. Liquid anti-static agents can be obtained at notion counters in drug or department stores.

POINT OF NO RETURN!

More intently than ever the pilot now watches his dials, cocking a sensitive ear to the motors' rhythm. He has reached the point of no return. He dare not turn back.

Years of research by scores of scientists have perfected his plane. Hours upon hours have been spent in readying it for the journey. If something goes wrong now, the pilot will know instinctively what to do, because of his long years of training.

Like the pilot, you try to prepare for emergencies. You realize that without training beforehand, it is impossible to meet a crisis wisely and adequately.

The spiritual knowledge you'll need for these times can be found in the Church. Through its guidance you will learn to meet everyday problems with serenity, and emergencies with confidence.

Begin right now to strengthen your spiritual reserves of courage, faith, and hope. TODAY is your point of no return.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Clementine Wilmeth Briley Writes From Temporary Home In El Paso

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY

Time is skipping along quite lively now. The days are lovely with the tang of autumn in the air. Our roses and zinnias are blooming beautifully and the chrysanthemums are exciting with their wonderful growth and their myriads of buds. I have a row of pink shamrock (oxalis) blooming in front of a row of chrysanthemums. It is something I have wanted ever since I first saw them years ago making a solid pink border along a flower bed at the Medical Arts Hospital in Brownwood.

We are all so busy there is never a dull moment. El Paso is always exciting. Our street, Delta Drive, is designated to take some of the traffic off of Highway 80, and cars zip by here all day and until away in the night. The city bus runs right by our door, and roaring airplanes fly right over our house whenever they please. At night I can just peep out the north window of my room and see the beautiful city lights. Red and orange and green. Like a Christmas tree.

The school enrollment has already passed the 42,000 mark. Billy likes his new Junior HI, and he has gone in for band. As soon as Johnny gets home in the afternoon he puts on his play clothes, pulls off his shoes and socks, and goes three doors down the street to play with his friend, Jimmy, who has a sand pile. Johnny says you can make tunnels and everything in a sand pile, and he wishes he had one.

Texas Western has been enrolling pupils this past week. Grace said when they were naming their freshman football boys over TV a few days ago, she heard the name of Timon Kirby from Goldthwaite called.

My sister, Mrs. Grace Bateman, writes me from Fort Worth that her son, Dr. John Robert Bateman, left by plane for the Driest Air Force Base in Paris, France August 31, and they have been busy getting acquainted with his wife, Harley Ruth, who is still working in Fort Worth. She has been waiting for John Robert to find living quarters. She will sail September 27 to join him.

My friend, Otie Willson of Dulin (near Brookesmith) writes me that our mutual friend, Miss Wilder Dunn, also of Dulin, passed away Sept. 1. Wilder grew up at Dulin and in her young days taught school in those parts. She and I attended Summer Normal together at Brownwood. She went to the University of Texas, and upon graduation went to Dallas as City Chemist. When she retired a few years ago, she went back to Dulin, bought the old Dunn home place, and lived there.

John was quite ill Sunday, and I couldn't leave him to go to church. We went to the doctor Monday. He sent us to the Medical Center for x-rays. We spent most of Tuesday there. Today we got the report. The doctor said the x-rays showed nothing seriously wrong. He gave him three kinds of medicine, and told him to report back in two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Stockton have returned from a two weeks vacation. They visited the Beryl L. Robertsons in Odessa and the

O. W. Sanders in Fort Worth and also spent some time in Mineral Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne David Miller and little son, Mark Craig, of Midland spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Edna Hill, and other relatives.

Colburn Ward of Austin spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Ward and Odena.

aluminum, with flotation chambers. It was wide, with square ends. They were using a little 3-hp outboard motor and they carried plenty of shear pins.

This is the ideal boat for such work. Their ice chest, containing food and drink, rode in the center of the boat. The two men balanced it from end to end. They carried life cushions, a couple of good paddles and some first aid equipment. They made it with little trouble.

Another of the boats was a deluxe 14-foot aluminum boat, with an 18-horsepower motor. It went downstream five miles, but the going got too rough for such a heavy boat and it turned back. It barely made the return trip—but under different circumstances.

River trips are an interesting challenge. There are certain seasons of the year, however, when they are safer. Mainly, they should not be made when there is a heavy let-down in the river, for either irrigation or power use. The day they made this trip there was considerable water pouring out of Lake Austin. It was a hot day and LCRA was generating a lot of juice for air conditioners. The water was swift, entirely too swift for safety in the rough places.

There is quite a drop in the Colorado, from Austin to the Gulf. This creates numerous rapids downstream. The river has a lot of fish. Individual fishermen from time to time have caught some fine bass while floating down the river. Catfishermen keep lines out most of the time and get some real beauties.

Also there are many rough fish. Frequently big gars are encountered. Mullet play around the stream from one end to the other. Numerous gravel pits have been dug along the river bank. Water is kept turbid most of the time because of the gravel that is being washed by the operators. But despite all that, there is still good fishing.

Some good lessons can be had from the experience of these eight men. One pair had a 14-foot river boat. It was made of

UNDERGROUND WATER—A MYSTERY UNCOVERED

The amazing existence of great quantities of tappable water below certain areas of the earth's surface was for centuries one of nature's greatest mysteries.

The search for such unseen wealths of water was, in past years, sometimes considered a venture requiring supernatural insight by persons whose best guide might be the fabled "witching stick" or an acute physical sensitivity to the imagined presence of water.

However, underground water obeys the laws of physics, and advancements of this generation have shown us that a great deal can be and has been learned about it.

Through scientific calculation, for example, the depth to which a well in a certain locality should be drilled in order to tap the best available water supply can be determined with reasonable accuracy. The areas in which water sinks underground can be identified, and the rate at which it sinks into underground reservoirs can be computed in some areas. Also, the areas in which no important water supplies exist can, in many instances, be accurately mapped.

Thus, the mystery of underground water has been invaded. But, although the vital presence of water is perhaps now somewhat less of a mystery to us, it is certainly no less a wonder. It is a gift which, like the soil we till, is provided for our perpetual use so long as we care for it. If we abuse it, then we may destroy and ravage the work of centuries with which we were blessed.

The tools of science can tell those blessed with sub-surface moisture just how they can both use it and keep it available for the use of future generations. It is not only practical that they do so; it is their moral obligation.

The use of underground water is divided for several purposes — municipal, industrial, domestic and agriculture. By and far the largest percentage of underground water use in Texas is that directed to agriculture irrigation. This may or along, and you can fish as you go.

If you start early in the morning, work upstream until noon, you'll cover a lot of water. Then you can float back down to your point of entry without too much exertion.

These trips can be fun and you can catch some good fish, if you use care. If you are inclined to be careless, then just don't make the trip.

It is best to organize a party. All should fish close together, so one can help another... if needed.

Now is an ideal time for such float trips. Pick a good stream and give it a trial. But by all means, don't take any chances.

may not be surprising, but it is a paradox since agriculture is probably the only single section of our society which could reasonably survive unaided by underground water.

Therefore, underground water is more a blessing to the farmers who have it than to the cities and industries which require it. And blessings must be safeguarded, not abused.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Texas—Teacher pay raises, an issue that has packed legislative galleries in past years, will probably return next session.

Base pay raises of almost $600 a year will be recommended to the Legislature by the Hale-Aikin Committee. This group of 24 lawmakers and private citizens has spent almost two years in a massive study of ways to improve Texas' public school program.

Its recommendations, now being readied for final presentation, would, for the most part, involve extra spending running into the millions. Cost of moving up the floor on teacher salaries is estimated at $70,000,000 a year.

Advocates say better salaries are necessary to attract and hold enough good teachers. But even within the committee there were objections.

Rep. L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi, co-chairman, voted against the raise recommendation. He said this, plus other proposals would mean "about a quarter of a billion dollar tax bill."

Other committee members said they felt the problem was not a shortage of teachers, but unequal distribution. While small districts may have trouble filling faculties, they said, some cities have a surplus.

Many legislators, elected on "economy in government" platforms, can be expected to echo Hale's sentiments. Since a huge state deficit is foreseen without raising the cost of anything, the squeeze could be especially acute.

Teachers, always a potent force because of their number, might be substantially reinforced by the current concern to "catch up with the Russians" in education. A head-on clash between these groups and the economy forces might well provide the flashiest fireworks of the next session.

NO THANKS—Another Hale-Aikin Committee suggestion: Texas should quit accepting federal money for the school lunch program and vocational education.

Federal funds now received are estimated at $9,000,000 a year. Committee said local districts and parents should pay for these services.

It did recommend, however, that federal aid be continued to districts where military installations bring in a large non-tax-paying attendance.

Other committee recommendations:

1. State should quit levying property tax, leave this source to local districts.
2. Permanent School Fund should be kept as an endowment, not spent for current needs.
3. Counties, not state, should bear the cost of maintaining county school superintendents' offices.

BRIGHTER WEATHER—Texas Securities Board reviewed its first year as a separate state agency and declared the "investment climate" had improved under tougher regulation.

Securities Board was set up by the last Legislature by combining functions formerly handled partly by the Secretary of State's office, partly by the Insurance Department.

Texas' investment climate "was very poor" when the new law went into effect, said Board Chairman Maurice Bullock. Score for the "tightening-up" years: (1) a drop of 37 per cent in the number of licensed securities dealers, (2) investigation under way in 215 cases of possible securities law violation and (3) 75 cases referred to district attorneys over the state.

Bullock said the Board's aim was to weed out the wild promotion schemes so as to restore confidence in Texas securities, but not to be so zealous as to discourage legitimate offerings.

LOCAL PARKS URGED—Several parks now under the administration of the State Parks Board should logically be in the hands of local communities, according to State Auditor C. H. Cavness.

Cavness' audit report on the Parks Board noted that Gonzales State Park had been turned over to the city of Gonzales. Others used on a community basis also could be community operated, he said.

Cavness also noted the addition of six new parks to the state system.

COLLEGE BUILDING ADVANCED—Twelve state colleges have sold $12,375,948 in building bonds—after adjusting to "buyers market" difficulties.

Representatives of the schools, meeting in Austin, first offered $17,500,000 worth of bonds on a 10-year payback basis, but got no offers. Several of the schools already had let contracts for construction, feeling sure the bonds would sell.

Bonds were then re-offered on an 8-year basis and partially sold. Remaining bonds may be offered later.

WATER NEEDS FORECAST—Demand for Texas surface water is expected to triple in the next 50 years. Prediction is by Harry P. Burleigh, area engineer for the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation.

Where will it all come from? Burleigh says enough water is now being wasted to meet that demand. Problem of saving it is up to engineers to solve. Noodled is a simple low-cost means of capturing run-off

P.T.A. Sets Membership Month

They'll Knock On Igloo Doors In Newest State

When more than eleven million P.T.A. members open their annual Membership Enrollment month this October, they will be urged to "knock on every door" to find new members interested in advancing the welfare of children.

Some of those doors may open to the oldest dwellings in the Western hemisphere—stone igloo homes in Alaska, scheduled soon to become the nation's 49th state.

Here, as throughout the U.S., the National Congress of Parents and Teachers will seek to add some half-million new "parents, teachers or friends of children" to what is already the nation's largest voluntary service organization.

Mrs. James C. Parker, of Grand Rapids, Mich., president of the National Congress, cites "the dynamic potential of Alaska, our newest state," as "comparable to the spirit which has enabled Parent-Teacher associations to contribute so much to the welfare of children."

"The variety and scope of P.T.A. activities in the 61-year history of the National Congress are reflected today," Mrs. Parker noted, in the everyday life of Alaskans which ranges in spirit from the quite sophisticated to the "truly frontier."

Alaska's Congress of Parents and Teachers, which became part of the national organization in 1952, today faces problems which can be compared, Mrs. Parker pointed out, with those recorded over the years in tiny Alaskan communities or in its largest cities. For it is a land where . . .

School youngsters may ride for miles in a dog sled to the hut, or walk across the street to a modern, several story building.

—Where accountants, school

"Home is the child's first school," explains Mrs. James C. Parker, president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, as it's in Point Barrow, Alaska, or the continental U.S. Here, school children examine picture of Eskimo family standing in strips of caribou meat outside their far north home. In previous October as P.T.A. Membership Enrollment month, Mrs. Parker points out that development of P.T.A.'s in Alaska, soon to be the nation's 49th state, parallels the organization's pioneering in this country.

teachers and government workers regularly make trips "back in the bush" to hunt and fish for food for their families—and store it in modern freezers.

—Where the airplane is the accepted means of travel between cities, but where the number of sled dogs is increasing.

—Where teachers in schools with large Eskimo or Indian populations must teach a second language—English—to many of their charges, while other schools, especially those on U.S. army bases, maintain typically American libraries, theaters and bowling alleys as part of their recreation program.

—Where the National Congress membership month will apply equally well in this dynamic state, Mrs. Parker pointed out, in its member organization throughout the continental U.S., in Hawaii and in the States, in Hawaii and in the States, in Hawaii and in the States.

"For the primary purpose of the P.T.A.," she explained, "is to safeguard children, to prepare the future in such a way that every community shines brightly home may always be a better place."

In designating October as the P.T.A. membership month, she called upon parent-teacher membership once more on the door, and heart, of every American. "It is all of us, working together, that make America the best place to raise our children."
