City Council Employs Engineer To Make Preliminary Water Survey

The City of Goldthwaite this week moved another step forward with the problem of providing residents with an adequate water supply, when the Council employed an engineer to make preliminary water study and survey.

The council Monday night entered into agreement with Joe J. Rady & Co., Consulting Engineers, to have the preliminary study made.

This action was taken by the council after several meetings during the past six weeks when a number of engineers were invited to meet with the council for informal discussion of the problem.

All members of the council were present Monday night when final action was taken and Mayor Y. B. Johnson was instructed to sign agreement to employ the firm. Members of the council are S. A. Edington, I. W. Mauney, Fred Reynolds, V. A. Hudson and Joe S. Langford.

The preliminary studies and survey is expected to be completed in two to three months and will cost the city $2,300.

Mr. Rady announced Monday night that his firm would start work on the project immediately. He and Bob King, an assistant who accompanied him here for the meeting, began gathering data for the studies Tuesday.

The agreement entered into by the city and the engineering firm sets forth the following:

1. In connection with the preliminary studies, the firm will perform the following services:
 - (a) Determine the City's water requirements to the year 2000. As a basis for this determination studies will be made of

Eagles Beat Burnet Bulldogs

The FIGHTING EAGLES battled the 18 point favored Burnet team to a 6-6 draw and then won 3-2 on penetration.

The Goldthwaite Eagles, showing a determination and alertness, last Friday night used Burnet miscues as a deciding factor in the District 9-A football game. An alert Eagle line recovered four Burnet fumbles that played an important part in deciding the outcome of the ball game. Also two pass interceptions, one by John Burdette and one by Mike Hoover, helped stymie the Bulldogs' attack. Only two weeks ago the Burnet Bulldogs were ranked number five in the State in Class A. Following their defeat by Mason they dropped to number nine. This high ranking team was supposed to find an easy opponent in the injury-ridden Goldthwaite Eagles, but much to their surprise they found a team that was hungry for a victory. Following a scoreless first half the Eagles received the second kick-off and controlled the ball for 6 minutes on a 77 yard drive that was climaxed when Mike Hoover raced 12 yards over his own RT for the TD. Graves' pass to Burdette was knocked down by one of the Bulldog defenders. Following the Eagle kick-off Burnet maintained possession of the ball and drove 71 yards for a TD. David Ekru went over his own LT on a reverse and ran 20 yards for the TD. Larry Kinsey was thrown for a loss by defensive LE Jackie Burns on the attempted extra points.

In the fourth quarter the Bulldogs were kept bottled up in their own end of the field by some fine punting on the part of Tom Graves. Late in the fourth quarter the Bulldogs made a desperate bid to win the ball game on the passing arm of Ronnie Helms, the Bulldogs moved to the fighting Eagles' 35 yard line. At this point the Eagles learned that they were ahead on penetrations and would win the ball game if they could keep the Bulldogs outside their own 20 yard line. On the next play the fighting Eagle line swarmed through to throw Kinsey for a 10 yard loss. Again on the next play the Bulldogs attempted to pass but the passer was swarmed by the hard charging Eagle line and thrown for a 7 yard loss. On the last play of the ball game, the Bulldogs tried one more desperation pass but it was hauled in by Mike Hoover and returned to the Eagles' 35.

In the last several ball games the Eagles have not had one or two outstanding performers but have performed in an outstanding team effort, according to

Harvest Festival To Be Presented Goldthwaite P-TA, November 6

The Goldthwaite P-TA again presents "The Harvest Festival," November 6, at 7:30 p. m., at the high school gymnasium.

W. P. Duren, P-TA president, says there are a number of committees working to make the festival the best that is possible. The committees are as follows:

Mrs. Cruz Corona, Thurman Head and D. J. Williams.

CORONATION—Mrs. Malcolm Jernigan, chairman; Mrs. P. R. Jordan, Mrs. Arnold Kelly, Mrs. Loyd King, Mrs. D. W. Arnold and Mrs. N. G. Duren.

An enjoyable program will be presented and the candidate receiving the most votes from the seventh through the 12th grades will be crowned Queen, while the candidate with the most votes in the elementary school will be proclaimed Princess.

The Seniors extend a special invitation to everyone to have chicken dinner with them in the high school lunchroom from 5 to 7 o'clock preceding the program.

The wool program is conducted under the National Wool Act as a means of bringing the country's wool production up to 300 million pounds a year. The incentive price is set at a level designed to encourage this goal, based on cost conditions affecting sheep production.

The yearly production of shorn wool is moving toward the goal of 300 million pounds a year. Estimated 1959 production is 252 million pounds, the highest since 1946, and compares to 234 million pounds in 1955, the first year of the wool payment program.

LOOKING FOR A JOB—The girl was being interviewed for a job, and the boss asked her if she had any particular talents. She modestly conceded that she had won a number of prizes in several advertising quiz contests.

"That's nice," smiled the boss, "But we want someone who will be smart during office hours."
"Oh," she explained brightly, "this was during office hours."

THE RULES ARE AT FAULT—The railroad industry, in its fight for survival, is making a determined effort to rid itself of featherbedding practices, resulting from obsolete and senseless work rules, that are costing the nation a minimum of $500 million a year.

Spokesmen for the railroad brotherhoods have charged that this effort is, in reality, an attack upon the employees of the railroad industry.

That charge brought an unequivocal reply from a leader in the battle against wasteful and destructive featherbedding — President Loomis of the Association of American Railroads. In a letter to a union official, he said: "I challenge you to find a single statement written or uttered by me or any other railroad spokesman to support such a charge. I have repeatedly emphasized that outmoded work rules, and not the people who are trapped and victimized by these rules, are the issue. In my very first statement on this subject last February 1 specifically said: 'I am not attacking railroad labor. There is no more able or conscientious work force in any industry in the nation. I am however attacking and condemning the dead-end rules our workers must work by.'"

Mr. Loomis went on to point out that an average of 3,000 railroad jobs have disappeared each week over the past 10 years. He added: "If you share our deep concern over the problems causing this downhill trend, you will call a halt to a campaign of misinformation and join with management in attacking the real causes of this industry's loss of ground including the progress-blocking, entangling maze of outmoded and wasteful work rules which are placing our industry under such a handicap in meeting our competition."

If that is not done, railroad labor will be one of the greatest losers.

"Make up your mind," retorted he. "You can't have both."

THE COLOR OF THE TIE—The State of Oregon has long used yellow dividing lines on its highways. The evidence indicates that most motorists feel that they provide much better visibility than white lines, particularly in bad weather, and so are an important safety factor.

But now Oregon's Highway Department announces that white lines will replace the yellow. Reason: The Federal government dictates that states must adopt white lines—or lose their share of the funds allocated to the multi-billion dollar interstate highway system.

The significance of this goes far beyond any merits and demerits of white-ties-vs.-yellow-lines. The Portland Oregonian makes the big point with admirable clarity: "When one accepts a 'gift' from Washington, one gives up the free choice that states, as well as individuals, hold dear. When Uncle Sam puts up the money for a new suit, he not only decides what kind of suit it shall be but also picks the color of the tie."

This truism should surprise no one—the principle is as old as government. Centuries ago, someone remarked that "he who pays the piper calls the tune." Now a swollen central government pays more and more pipers, and calls more and more of our tunes.

WAS LENIN RIGHT?—Reports from Washington have lately given the country an indication of how seriously the Administration views the fiscal problem. That problem, it is clear, is second in the President's mind only to the problem of avoiding a third world war.

And the President and his advisors are not alone in this. All manner of qualified people, in and out of the government, are convinced that unless government spending can be curbed, the budget balanced, and inflation checked, we may be heading for a disaster that could destroy us as a nation, and leave the free world, which depends so largely on American strength for survival, wide open to communism. The Kremlin would win the ultimate victory without firing a shot.

This, in fact, is what Lenin, architect of Soviet communism, expected. Long ago, he wrote that capitalism would destroy itself from within. What government does to the people's money and savings will determine whether he was right or wrong.

Russia's Shot to Moon Disturbs U. S. Experts | Successful Guidance Surprises Americans

By HENRY CATHCART
Central Press Association Washington Writer

WASHINGTON — The Russian achievement of hitting the moon with a missile has got some of our own rocket experts more disturbed than ever. The feat captured the attention of the world because of its spectacular nature.

But it caught the attention of our own scientists for an entirely different reason.

When Russia placed its first Sputnik in orbit around the earth a couple of years ago, the American analysis was that she had developed the rocket power necessary for a workable intercontinental ballistic missile. However, it was also believed that the Soviets did not have the sophisticated guidance systems necessary to direct a missile to a small, preconceived target.

The moon shot indicates that Soviet guidance development is as advanced as its rocket power.

Had the Soviet achievement occurred at any time but the closing hours of a Congressional session, the howls on Capitol Hill would have been heard across the nation.

As it is, American scientists are busy preparing presentations to the appropriate Senate and House committees. They expect to be called for their views soon, and they want to be prepared with a recommended stepped-up missile development program.

● ECONOMIC OUTLOOK — Some government economists are becoming a little restive over recent economic developments.

The nation's over-all production dropped three per cent last month — its first significant decline since the 1957-58 recession. Even before this was announced, the stock market reversed a long-time trend and has been dropping sharply and sporadically in recent weeks.

There is a tendency among economists and others who watch national business trends to blame all reverses on the lengthy steel strike. It is true that some of the reduction in national business activity is attributable to the steel strike, but some observers feel that there may be other causes.

They note that some of the production drop obviously occurred before there was any real pinch in steel supplies; and they also point out that the stock market was in a technically weak position at the time the strike began several months ago.

When the steel strike is settled and the economy has been given a chance to regain its equilibrium, the long-term trend will be easier to assess. To economists this period may be just a pause in a long upward trend, or it may be a temporary ceiling which will not be attained again for many months to come.

● PARKING CHISELERS — Washington police have been aware for a long time of some pretty devious devices to park cars at meters contrary to regulations which require they be moved after an hour. Now they're going to crack down on violators if they can figure out a way to do it.

Some motorists handfeed dimes into the meters where their cars are parked near their place of employment of business. They get by for 80 cents a day instead of the $1.50-plus it costs in parking lots. Others watch out of windows for policemen who chalk the tires of their cars, then rush out and erase the chalk marks. Still others operate in "pools" trading their parking spaces after an hour or two.

The cops are now instructed to ticket cars each hour that they violate regulations — if they can be detected.

EAT OR DRINK SOME MILK DAILY

You can eat your milk as well as drink it. SO there really is no excuse for not getting enough of this important food daily.

Dairy foods, such as cheese and ice cream and dishes made with milk, can bring milk's important nutrients into your meals. Everyone Needs Milk. It's an excellent source of protein—the same kind of protein found in red meats. And, it's very important for riboflavin, one of the B* vitamins, as well as many other food values. Milk's major contribution, however, is calcium; it accounts for nearly three-fourths of the total in average diets. Grown-ups as well as children must have calcium to keep their bones and teeth strong and healthy.

Adults need 2 or more cups of milk a day, or other foods that give the same amount of calcium. Children need at least 4 full cups or more. Youngsters in the family go for such combination refreshers as—milk shakes, floats, or other drinks made from milk and ice cream. Recipes for some tasty milk drinks and dishes are given in the bulletin, "Good Milk and Good Meals."

You can get a copy by writing or calling at my office.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

When you want information, where do you look for it? The answer is to seek out a person who is well informed on the subject, then quiz him for all the answers you can get. That's why, when we decided to write something about quail hunting, we went direct to Fred.

Why Fred? Well, in the first place, Fred spent the major part of his life in the great outdoors. The famous Houstonite has hunted since he was a mere boy.

And he has loved it since his first day out. In the second place, he is a master of the art of game calling. Not only does he know how, but he knows how to teach others how.

Fred was born in Inverness, Miss., on Nov. 27, 1920. His father was a hunter and a fisherman of some ability. He devoted much time to teaching his boy to hunt and fish.

Being a natural athlete, Fred caught on quickly. During the depression the youngster earned his spending money hunting and trapping. He sold quail, squirrels and rabbits to hotels in Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he was reared.

Because money was scarce, Fred learned to make every shot a kill. With that type of upbringing he trained his eye to be acute and his coordination perfect.

In high school Fred was active in athletics — in football, boxing and track.

His real interest was in boxing. He became a Golden Gloves finalist as a welterweight and won the Golden Gloves championship in Chicago in 1939.

Out of his 73 fights as a professional he won 71. In a rematch he won over the two earlier victors. In all of his fighting he was never knocked down or out and he scored 38 knockouts.

The last four years of his fighting Fred spent in Hollywood as a stunt man and actor. He still holds a screen-actors guild card.

Fred has played in "Treasure of Sierra Madre" with Humphrey Bogart and Walter Huston. He also was filmed in "Johnny Diamond" with Dick Powell.

As a stunt man he was John L. Sullivan in the film "The Great John L." He was typed in gangster parts, bit parts — and earned 32 screen credits.

Tiring of screen work and longing for the great outdoors, Fred left Hollywood in 1953. He came to Houston to engage in home construction work. Four years later he became associated with Bud Hagner in the game call business. Fred designs the calls and Bud makes the finished product.

To date they have produced three types of Truetone Game Calls. During the next two years they will have six more calls, including domestic, big game calls — for use in Africa to call lions, tigers and other big predator animals.

Their calls are made entirely of anodized aluminum and stainless steel, and therefore are virtually indestructible.

Not content merely to produce a lifetime guaranteed call, Fred made a recording of instructions for the hunter to follow in using each call. Furthermore, he tells how to give the proper inflections — and demonstrates by sounds the exact tones the hunter must endeavor to obtain.

On the other side of his quail call platter Fred discusses the birds and their habits — and their habitats.

About quail hunting Fred has this to say: "Anyone who has hunted quail knows that the cheerful bobwhite will freeze you like it does an old pointer on the first covey of the season. "If you've never been quail hunting, all we can say is that when you do go you'll proclaim it the finest of all wing-shooting sports. The quail is the perfect game bird. He is plentiful. He holds well for a dog. He flies fast and straight. And he is unsurpassed on the table. A smoky, crisp Autumn day affixed with your favorite gun, a fine dog and friend bobwhite, is one of the rare treats in a sportsman's life."

That Fred is enthused about the pastime there is no doubt. We asked him about hunting with dogs. To this he replied, "With a good quail call you can hunt very successfully without a dog. But a good hunting dog will find more birds. Furthermore, he'll help you collect all the birds that you shoot. And there will be fewer cripples left to die."

In answer to our question about the bird itself, Fred said: "Quail feed on grain and the seeds of grass or weeds. Overgrown farms are ideal quail habitats. But this fine game bird flourishes in cultivated country too. He may be found around the edges of fields, along brushy fence rows and in light open woods where his food is more abundant.

"Coveys roost on the ground at night, usually on high ground. Seldom do they move their roosts very far from night to night.

Best shooting comes during the early morning and late afternoon hours. The birds are most responsive to your quail calls during these periods of the day and least responsive during the heat of the day."

With Fred's Truetone Quail Call you don't blow through it... you draw air into it.

Fred demonstrated the proper positioning of the mouth, the thumbs and forefingers for giving the lost quail call. "It's the only call you'll need while hunting," said Fred, as he emitted

LAFF-A-DAY

"I'm leaving you, Edgar."

(Although this is addressed to Chevrolet owners, we'd be glad to have you read it, no matter what make you now own or plan to buy. It might well be as interesting and significant to you as to the Chevrolet owner.)

TO THE MORE THAN 16 MILLION PEOPLE WHO OWN CHEVROLETS

The first and the latest—the 1912 and the 1960 Chevrolet. The progress represented here is the result of continuing efforts to make your new Chevrolet always more beautiful, more useful and more valuable in every respect.

You belong to the largest family of owners in the automotive world.

We hope you're proud of that. It must give you great satisfaction to know that your judgment in choosing Chevrolet has been confirmed by so many other people.

We know that we can hold your preference and your loyalty only by meeting our responsibilities to you fully and completely from the day you buy your Chevrolet to the day you trade it in. And so we'd like to talk with you about our responsibilities as we see them, and what we are doing to meet them.

Our first responsibility, we think, is clear: To design and build products that satisfy your needs and your wants to the highest possible degree. To that end, we have done these things for 1960:

Made the 1960 Chevrolet more economical, roomier, more quiet and comfortable, easier to handle and maneuver.

Introduced the compact and revolutionary Corvair. Produced a new line of Chevrolet trucks with unprecedented advances in efficiency, cargo handling, driver comfort and ability to get a job done.

But it isn't enough to design and build the kinds of products you want. They must be built right. Solidly. Carefully.

Let us assure you of this: Chevrolet's fine reputation as a solid, well-built, dependable product is being safeguarded by more checks and inspections and tests, than ever before.

Along with your Chevrolet dealer, we want you to have available the finest and most complete service facilities. That is why we conduct training schools for Chevrolet dealer mechanics. Study and recommend improved service equipment and techniques. Maintain the industry's most complete parts warehouse system.

Finally, neither Chevrolet nor your Chevrolet dealer has any intention of forgetting you after you buy. To help keep you happy with your Chevrolet, we have established a department new to us, and so far as we know, new to the automobile industry. This is the Chevrolet Department of Owner Relations, whose only job is the coordination of Chevrolet and Chevrolet dealer activities so that you enjoy utmost satisfaction during your entire period of ownership. Through this department, and through all the other extraordinary steps we are taking, Chevrolet and your Chevrolet dealer hope to keep you a happy member of the Chevrolet owner family.

WRIST BANDAGED—Mrs. James Arness, 38, wife of James Arness, of TV fame, who allegedly slashed her wrists in a suicide attempt, arrives in Los Angeles from Honolulu with her left wrist still bandaged. The only explanation she would give reporters was, "My husband was very cold to me."

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights By Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin, Texas — Should all Texas public school teachers receive a raise, or should higher pay be a reward for being a better teacher?

This is one of the questions being debated as teachers flood Gov. Price Daniel's office with letters asking for a special session of the Legislature next year to hike their salaries.

Other points of controversy: (1) How would you decide which are "better" teachers? (2) How do teachers' salaries compare with those of other college graduates?

Texas State Teachers Association is asking for a $405 per year boost in the present $3,204 minimum annual salary.

R. W. Byram, State Board of Education member, has suggested giving teachers examinations to determine which should receive raises on the basis of merit. A bachelor's degree, Byram, noted, is not a mark of "exceptional learning" in these days.

Choice, in Byram's view, is either better pay for more competent teachers or a uniform scale pegged at a lower level.

Byram declared that teachers' salaries in the larger Texas cities which pay more than the statewide minimum already compare well with those of other professions. He said a beginning teacher in Houston gets $444 a month, while a new geologist or petroleum engineer may start from $375 to $425 with the necessity of living "where the job is."

A University of Texas job placement official challenged Byram's figures. Joe L. Bruns contended the Houston school pay is tops, not typical for the state and reminded that teacher pay is for only nine months a year. On a 12-months basis, said Bruns, most Texas teachers average $267 a month. He said UT's engineering graduates last year started at an average of $490 per month.

In Austin, he said, the average starting teacher has about $220 a month take-home pay — not enough "to lure an able young man — particularly a married man."

Senate Committees—Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey has passed out between-sessions study jobs to 29 of the Senate's 31 members.

Key posts went to members who have made up the Senate's conservative leadership for a decade or more. Omitted from committees were Sens. Henry B. Gonzalez of San Antonio and Andy Rogers of Childress, both regarded as liberals.

Named by Ramsey to the panels which will do advance research affecting 1961 legislation are:

Legislative Budget Board: Sens. William S. Fly of Victoria, Wardlow Lane of Center, Crawford C. Martin of Hillsboro and Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo.

Texas Legislative Council: Sens. George Moffett of Chillocothe, Preston Smith of Lubbock, Neville Colson of Navasota, Bruce Reagan of Corpus Christi and Abraham Kazen of Laredo.

Commission To Study State And Local Tax Policy: Sens. Fly, George Parkhouse of Dallas and Jimmy Phillips of Angleton. However, Phillips has announced his resignation from the Senate, effective Nov. 2. He will join the legal department of Dow Chemical Company in Freeport.

Educational Standards Commission: Sens. Fly, Bradshaw and Roberts.

Commission On City And County Governments: Sens. Robert Baker of Houston, Frank Owen III of El Paso and Crump.

Commission For State Health And Welfare Services: Sens. Bill Wood of Tyler, Owen and Colson.

Committee To Study State Fiscal System: Sens. Jarrard Secrest of Temple, William T. Moore of Bryan and Crump.

Senate General Investigating Committee: Sens. A. M. Aikin Jr. of Paris, R. A. Weinert of Seguin, Lane, Hardeman and Reagan.

Committee To Investigate Investment Practices For State Funds: Sens. Martin Dies Jr. of Lufkin, Charles F. Herring of Austin, Hubert Hudson of Brownsville, Lane and Crump.

Committee To Study Effects Of Radiation: Sens. Krueger, Reagan and Wood.

Burglary Without Consent — If a burglar breaks into a house, the owner of the burglarized property must, if he testifies in court, state that he did not give the thief permission to enter the premises.

Court of Criminal Appeals has now reversed three convictions because property owner did not testify that he had not given consent for the defendant to take property from the site.

In one case the defendant confessed that he cut a hole in the ceiling of an office and stole a safe. However, in the appeals court opinion, it must be proven that the defendant was going against the wishes of the property owner.

Stop For School Bus — Texas motorists are being urged to observe the law to the letter when they encounter a school bus on the streets or highways.

Ten children have been killed and 86 injured in school bus accidents since Sept. 1, the Department of Public Safety reports.

Texas law requires that a car must come to a full stop when approaching a school bus that is taking on or letting off passengers. After a complete stop, the motorist may pass the bus at not more than 10 miles per hour.

Penalties for violation range up to a $200 fine. "But the real penalty," said Highway Patrol Captain E. K. Browning Jr., "is the possibility of killing or hurting a child."

GALVESTON—From the Mexican side of the frontier, The Brownsville Flag furnishes information, from which it would appear that the leaders are in the greatest confusion.

BEXAR — The San Antonio Ledger states that the amount or school fund to be distributed in Bexar County for the year of 1959 is $2,612.59. There were 1270 children in attendance at the different schools. The sum allowed was 5½¢ per day for each day's actual attendance at school to indigent, and 1¢ per day to paying patrons.

HUNTSVILLE—The Citizen of Huntsville have sent $150. for the relief of the Houston sufferers. The epidemic progressing northward, had caused some little excitement in that county.

EXCITING NEWS FROM BROWNSVILLE

We have received a large amount of correspondence, giving details of the Civil War in Brownsville. It will be noted that Brownsville has been in a state of seige for over forty days and there is not as yet any appearance of speedy relief either from our state or the Federal Government.

GALVESTON — (Headlines from one news story)

Objection of slave holders to a reduction of the value of their slaves. Startling disparity between the number of slaveholders and non-slaveholders. Effects of the enormous value of slave property, to limit the number or holders. Effects in Texas. Effects upon the tactics of the Black Republicans. Direct abolition appeal to non-slaveholders in the South. Republican leaders proved abolitionists. The entire issue changed; a war system not of sections. Attempt to arouse prejudices on the false plea of a conflict of interest in free and slave labor in the South. The fallacy again exposed. High priced white labor, dependent on slave labor. Slave holders not a class. Diffusion and change of owners. The practical and everyday operation of the system. The irresponsible effect of the present enormous value of 9 slaves, to establish class, and arouse prejudices in the South. Non slaveholders not day laborers. The South had no such class as day laborers and hirelings. The true elements of the Southern society and their resources.

Questions And Answers About Social Security

Question: I am not ready to retire; does my wife have to wait until I retire to draw benefits? She has a social security number and has worked a few years.

Answer: If your wife does not have enough social security credits to draw benefits on her own earnings account, she will have to wait until you are able to receive benefits. If she has sufficient coverage and reached retirement age, she can become eligible to payments before you retire. The social security office can secure her earnings record and inform whether or not she qualifies for benefits on her own account.

Coach Blansit. The coaching staff feels that each Eagle gave a 100% performance Friday night.

Those seeing action in the game Friday night were: Ronnie Laughlin, Charlie Wilkins, Earl Reynolds, Billy Blackburn, John Pat Rudd, Jerry Stanford, Jimmy Smith, John Burdette, Charlie Sherwood, Roger Horton, Gerry Head, Mike Hoover, Alfred Starks, Tom Graves and Jackie Burns.

EAGLES REST THIS WEEK

The Eagles took a day off Monday and were working out in shorts Tuesday and Wednesday. This not only gives the boys a well deserved rest during the time preceding the open date but is also an attempt to have the squad in the best physical condition for the Mason game on November 14, that they have been in since the start of the season. Many of the boys with minor bruises, aches and pains as well as some of the more serious ones will have an opportunity for their injuries to heal, say the coaches.

Thursday and Friday the Eagles will be back in pads for limited contact work.

The only two undefeated teams in District play are Mason and Llano and they will meet in Mason Friday night, November 7, in what many sport writers say will be a mighty fine game. Statistics for the Burnet-Goldthwaite game are as follows:

Goldthwaite	Burnet
11 First Downs	13
125 Yards Rushing	130
10 Yards Passing	77
2 of 5 Passes Comp.	5 of 11
2 Passes Inter. by	1
4 Opps. Fumbles Recv.	1
4 for 40 Penalties	6 for 50
4 for 40.2 Punting Avg.	3 for 30

Grand Jury Returns Bills

The regular November term of the grand jury was held Monday of this week and four bills were returned.

Two bills were on charge of burglary and two on theft.
