It is getting dry. No rainfall to report this week—in fact for the past two or three weeks.

Total rainfall recorded in Goldthwaite during the month of June is 3.14 inches. This brings the total for the first six months of the year to 14.27 inches.

Myron Walton, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Walton who reside in the Center City community, has been selected as the most outstanding Mills County 4-H Club boy for 1939. As an award for his accomplishment, Myron will make a trip through the Corn Belt States along with outstanding 4-H Club boys from other counties in Extension District 7, says County Agent Sam von Rosenberg.

Intermittent rains which fell during the past week added 1.79 inches to the already sufficient precipitation of the past month, bringing the total for June to 5.21 inches. The continued rainfall has proved a hindrance to county farmers in the harvesting of their crops.

A card from Mrs. Eula Nickols, who is in Winters, states that she will not be able to send a communication this week, as she was called to Winters Saturday, where her daughter, Mrs. Earline Roberts, was badly burned while canning beets.

Five delegates of the Mills County Land Use Planning Committee will attend A & M Short Course to be held at College Station on July 11 and 12. These delegates are John Burnett, chairman of the committee; T. B. Graves, Eric D. Roberson, Jim Soules and Mrs. Oran W. Carothers.

W. W. Fox has leased the L. E. Booker service station on South Fisher Street and is adding a grocery store and barbecue stand to it.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Sullivan are re-building their home on Fisher Street, which was partially destroyed by fire some weeks ago. They are enlarging the second story and making a very attractive place.

Mr. Sullivan also has had a new front porch built on the old Trent home which is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Sparks Bigham.

E. O. Priddy, the genial ex-sheriff of the county, has sold his fine farm of 500 acres in the Priddy community to F. Weistinger, consideration $3,500.

Drury M. N. Phillips, a prominent geologist of Austin, came in Wednesday morning. He has been brought here by Robert Littlepage to make a geological survey of the lands where indications of oil have been found. It will probably take about fifteen days to complete the survey and upon Mr. Phillips' report depends what action will be taken as to development. Messrs. D. M. Morris & Son of Priddy have sold their general merchandise business at that place to C. F. Jeske. Mrs. N. M. Brinson and children left Monday for a to relatives in Lampasas County. She was accompanied by mother, Mrs. J. A. Hamilton.

GAS AIR CONDITIONING SAVES MONEY AND HEADACHES YEAR AFTER YEAR

You save in operating efficiency, low maintenance, amazingly long service. Combined heating and cooling costs with gas are substantially lower than for electric heating and cooling. Add to that the savings in maintenance and electric compressor replacements and you'll see why gas is your best home air conditioning investment.

LOW DOWN PAYMENT, AS LITTLE AS $25/MO. FOR 2 1/2-TON UNIT

This new gas unit for medium-size homes both cools and heats... puts the world's finest air conditioning in reach of everyone.

HOW GAS UNITS CAN LAST TWICE AS LONG AS ELECTRIC

Gas cooling for homes has no compressor. A simple gas flame is the heart of the cooling cycle—with few moving parts to wear or need repair. No wonder the life-expectancy of gas air conditioning is double that of compressor types!

SPECIAL SUMMER GAS AIR CONDITIONING RATES

Owners of gas air conditioners get reduced gas rates for cooling during the hot summer months. This makes for even more economy from an efficient gas unit!

CALL FOR A FREE ESTIMATE ON GAS AIR CONDITIONING. NO OBLIGATION.

Don't be fooled by "horseback estimates" on costs! Get a bona fide air conditioning price from Lone Star Gas and compare with the price of the same size electric unit. You'll find the little extra per month to buy a gas unit buys you a lot more air conditioning over the years! There are two types of gas systems for the home: a combination cooling and heating system and an add-on cooling system. Investigate the possibility of gas air conditioning your home now.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

A friend of mine has three appropriately labeled closets in his den.

On the door of one hangs a sign that reads "Spinning Room." But he's not a cloth-maker. In fact, he doesn't even sew.

Closet No. 2 is labeled "Casting Room." But he's not a movie director—not even a stage director.

Room No. 3 is called the "Salt Water Room." He makes taffy, occasionally. But not in that room.

By now you fishermen have guessed what this is all about. This gentleman is an ardent angler. He's a methodical type of man and a perfectionist to the highest degree.

In closet No. 1 he has all of his fishing gear of the spinning type. Included are spinning rods and spinning reels both open and closed faced. Also lures to match. Here he keeps canvas and leather cases for transporting his spinning rods and reels. Even ultralight equipment isn't overlooked. Also a couple of tackle boxes with those extras that go with spin-type fishing. This includes extra line and extra spools with various sizes of line already wound upon them... and lots of other extras.

In that second closet are his casting rods and reels with the shorter rods and the thumb-operated spool-type reels. He has a variety of reels and each with a different weight line. Here again you'll find lures appropriate to that type of fishing including the heavier top-water lures and the heavier underwater jigs, etc. Needless to say, his tackle box includes a quantity of artificial worms, bottles of pork rinds in white, black, green and polkadot. Also he has a number of sliding sinkers.

This guy doesn't go in for live bait fishing so in his tackle box you won't find either in room number one or number two any corks or floats. Also, very few split shot and the only hooks which he substitutes on the various lures. He has a penchant for sharp hooks so in all of his tackle boxes he carries a hone. He buys the sharpest hooks he can find. Almost without exception he will substitute his own special selection of hooks for those that come with his brand new lures.

In Room No. 3 is all of his salt water fishing equipment. That includes short rods (very short and very stubby for pulling in the deep sea monsters). Also the extremely long ones for surf castin. Both types of reels are in the heavyweight class and are many times larger than either of the other two types. He has a lightweight rod on hand for salt water bay fishing.

As you can tell, he's geared to go almost on a moment's notice and in each tackle box he has the customary pliers, hook ejectors—the whole gamut down to adhesive tapes, bandaids and the like. Not overlooked is a bottle of suntan ointment, for protection against the sun's rays which are more intense over salt water.

Appropriate stringers go with each tackle box.

We just wonder if his wife would allow him another closet if he went in for fly fishing. I suppose he would name it the "Fly Room" and in it would be all the gear that's necessary for that type of pastime.

We felt real good after seeing his place because the wife is always riding herd on us about the purchase of fishing gear. In fact there used to be a place in Austin called Dan's, which specialized in everything for the hunter and fisherman. It was like a country store, except not as orderly, and we enjoyed browsing around. Of course we bought something on every trip. What gear we had was stored in one closet and it didn't surprise us too much—but it did amuse us—when we came home from one buying expedition to find a sign over the closet door reading "Dan's Number Two." A gentle hint?!

In most cases nothing pleases the fisherman more than having a new lure or a new rod or a new reel or a new motor or better yet, a new boat. Just as in golfing, there's no end to what he can buy, nor what he wants. But we've always been inclined to believe that the tension it relieves, whether golfing or fishing or whatever you are doing outdoors and away from your job is more than paid for by the doctor bills that would have been incurred had you not taken time off to relax.

So we say to the fisherman's widow don't be too hard on him about those purchases. Sure, there's a limit—but there's also

Unlimited Facilities For Fun
Tourist information on Burnet, one of Central Texas' finest vacation cities, lists many fine features.

Fact of the matter is, there are so many fine features in this wonderland of lakes and hills that it's hard to relate all of them.

Perhaps Burnet's best and most accurate claim is that it has "unlimited facilities for fun." To list a few features: Burnet is located among five lakes with a total of 76,000 surface acres of water; nearby Buchanan Dam is the largest multiple arch dam in the world; Inks State Park, located on the shores of Inks Lake, covers 2,000 acres; nearby Longhorn Caverns is the third largest in the world and is dramatically lighted throughout its two-mile expanse.

There are other recreational facilities such as parks and a golf course, but there also are historical sights to see. In addition to a fine museum, nearby Packsaddle Mountain was the site of the last Indian battle in Texas.

Kit Carson's Last Fight

"Kit" Carson, famous frontier fighter, had his last encounter with hostile Indians at the Battle of Adobe Walls.

Site of this battle is marked just 30 miles northeast of Stinnett, Texas, in the northern Panhandle area. Under the productive cove of the adobe walls in Hutchinson County, Colonel Christopher "Kit" Carson, commanding a few companies of U. S. Troops, bravely battled a band of Kiowa and Comanche Indians, killing over 60 braves.

Though only a highway marker remains at the site, such battles and bravery have left a greater mark in the minds of all Americans.

Texas Has The Original

An American treasure is preserved by means of a picture held in the Library of Congress.

You too can have such a picture. In fact you can take it yourself, because Texas has the original subject. It is the San Ygnacio Ranch, on the Rio Grande between Laredo and Zapata, Texas.

This little river settlement was founded in 1790 and the Spanish language is still the most prevalent.

On the ranch is a long series of buildings. All are one story structures but one. It is two stories tall with an overhanging balcony.

Ceiling beams in this stone building have the builder's name and the date of construction inscribed thereon.

You also will find nearby old Fort San Ygnacio that was built in 1835.

Too Shifty To Trust

Many a sailor and ship place their trust in a lighthouse. But when the Aransas Pass Lighthouse was built in 1865, you can bet no one counted on the Pass moving.

However, shifting sands now have moved the Pass a mile south of the old lighthouse.

Though this old beacon has been closed since 1952, others still are in use on our Texas Gulf Coast. Some of our Texas lighthouses have been designated as museums or parks and now are used only by sightseers.

Keep Up With The Browns

They really do it up brown — at Lake Brownwood—in Brown County—near Brownwood, Texas.

And you'll get a nice brown suntan while you go boating, fishing or swimming at this fine lake in the northwest part of Central Texas.

There's a wonderful 539-acre public park right on the lake too. It has cabins, picnic areas, a dining room, lunch counter, grocery store, dance terrace and loads of playground equipment. Don't miss it next time you're out that way. Or better still, make your friends "brown" with envy by making your next pleasure trip a Brownwood vacation.

Beauty Not Skin Deep

It took three Dallas spelunkers to prove that Texas' beauty wasn't just skin deep.

These cave explorers dared to cross a dangerous chasm in a well-known spelunker hole and thus opened up a beautiful new world beneath West Texas soil.

These caverns are located 14 miles west of Sonora, Texas, in Sutton County. Already world-renowned, they were opened officially for sightseers only in the summer of 1960.

Tourist traffic steadily has increased as more and more leave to tell of the three miles of fantasy explored to date.

Experts have praised the Caverns of Sonora as possessing more variety of formations and color than any other known cave. Though thousands of years old, this cavern is a "live" cave and still is growing.

Blanco Is A B-I-G Park!

Yep, there are 110 acres on each side of the river where you can camp, fish, swim or picnic at Blanco Park. It's located where the Blanco River crosses U. S. Highway 281 north of Lubbock. Fish are reported to be plentiful . . . and especially tasty when cooked right there in the open.

If you don't like to fish, it's a perfect place to just rest while the kids keep busy on the playground.

Buried At The Battleground

No silent grave for him — a battleground is where he is laid to rest.

They called him Reveille. He saw many a battle where his remains now lie. And great battles still are waged on this battleground.

The site is Kyle Field at College Station, Texas. It is the stadium for A&M College, in Central Texas' Brazos County.

A "T" emblem in granite forms the marker for Reveille, who is buried beneath in a child's casket.

Reveille was the canine mascot of the Aggies. He died in 1944.

Arnold Head Represents County On Farm Bureau Sponsored Tour

Arnold Head will leave Sunday on a week-long Farm Bureau-sponsored bus tour of five midwestern states to observe operations of county Farm Bureaus in those states.

Mr. Head will join approximately 175 other county Farm Bureau leaders from all over Texas in the seven day tour through Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, and Illinois. This "Institution on Wheels" is designed to give a first-hand look at programs carried on by effective county Farm Bureaus in some of the most important farming areas of the U. S. It replaces the annual Texas Farm Bureau Institute which has been held each summer since 1949.

Four, and possible five, chartered buses will be used—departing from Houston, San Antonio, Abilene, and Lubbock. The buses will rendezvous in Oklahoma City. They will be joined there by other buses carrying county FB leaders from Oklahoma.

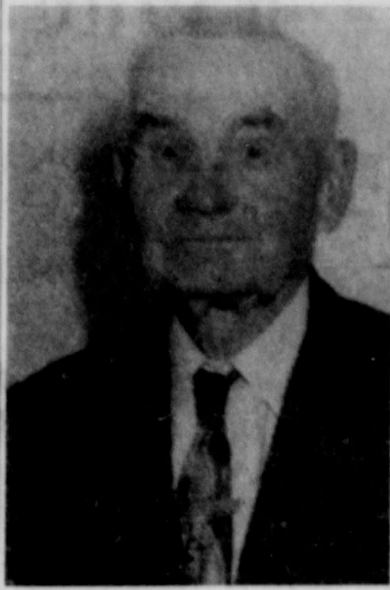

After leaving Oklahoma, the caravan of buses will be divided into tour groups, each one taking a slightly different route to visit not only county FB offices, but also farms, feedlots and other outstanding agricultural facilities in the five states on the itinerary.

The county Farm Bureau leaders will hold a big rally Wednesday evening, July 14, at the headquarters of the state Farm Bureau in Bloomington, Illinois. There they will be joined by another bus group from Arkansas to hear an address by Charles B. Schuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

On the way home, the group will stop in St. Louis Thursday, July 15, to see a baseball game between the St. Louis Cardinals and the New York Mets. The Texans will arrive back home on Saturday, July 17.

Mr. Head lives near Center City and is on the Board of Directors of Mills County Farm Bureau.
