Joe Benningfield Shows Champion Delaine Ewe At Annual Show & Sale

Joe Benningfield, of Goldthwaite, showed the grand champion Ewe at the 37th annual show and sale of the Texas Delaine Association held in Menard on May 19-20.

Benningfield, president of the association, also had several other placings with his registered Delaine stock at the show.

In addition to taking the blue ribbon and top trophy for his champion ewe he had the second place ram lamb, third and fourth place ewe lamb and fourth and seventh place yearling rams.

The championship trophy Benningfield brought back from the show is on display at Steen Hardware.

Lane Goar, of Clovis, New Mexico, purchased the champion ewe at the annual sale.

The Farm Bureau Family Night has been scheduled Saturday night, June 3, at 8:00 o'clock. If the weather is favorable the meeting will be held at Mills County Park. If not it will be held in the Goldthwaite High School Auditorium.

The ladies are asked to bring sandwiches and the Farm Bureau will supply the chips and drinks.

A program for both adults and youths will be presented.

Murry Edwards of Clyde will be the speaker. His topic will be "The Moral and Ethical Code of Teenagers." He is the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Edwards of Clyde and grandson of Mrs. Maurine Soules of Star.

Edwards won the Knights of Pythias District oratorical contest in Brownwood last Sunday afternoon, with the speech he will present Saturday night. He also won state honors this year in prose reading and last year he won state in poetry reading.

Also he won third place in the National PFA Speaking Contest. Edwards was the youngest contestant to ever enter the contest.

Refreshments will be served by the host church at 6:15 p. m. The Associational Executive Board and Associational W. M. U. will meet at 6:45 p. m.

The program will begin at 7:15 p. m. Floyd Spradley will be in charge of the music. Bro. Benny Bailey is the speaker for the program. The emphasis of this meeting is "Christian Life."

Gromatzky & Massey Are Directors For Region 12 Education Center

Arthur Gromatzky, vice-president of Farmers and Merchants Bank, in Priddy, and Ralph E. Massey, Editor-Publisher of the Teague Chronicle, at Teague, were elected as directors for Region 12, Education Media Service Center to be set up in Central Texas, at a recent meeting of the executive committee in Waco.

The Central Texas center is one of 20 such units proposed by Texas Education Agency to bring metropolitan and rural resources together for educational planning.

Gromatzky and Massey will serve on the board with five other directors selected from the 12 county region.

Mr. Gromatzky, in addition to his banking interests, is owner of Priddy Insurance Agency and has wide farming, ranching and other interests. He served in the Texas Legislature during the 50th and 51st Legislative sessions and is a director of the Hamilton County Electric Cooperative Association.

Mr. Massey is a native of Mills County and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Massey of Goldthwaite. He has been publisher of the Teague paper the past 10 years.

The other five directors on the seven member board include: Russ Rhodes, vice president of Belton Sand and Gravel Co., Belton; Mrs. W. H. Janes, Leroy; Herman Focke, Mexia Insurance man, Bill Cox, Hubbard Lumberman; and Robert B. Miller, Editor-Publisher of the Hamilton News-Herald.

H. Earl Culp, Superintendent of the Priddy Schools, was a member of the executive committee who selected the board of directors for the regional center.

Region 12 consists of the following counties: Bell, Bosque, Coryell, Falls, Freestone, Hamilton, Hill, Lampasas, Limestone, McLennan, Mills and Navarro.

The board of directors will choose the location of the center and hire the professional staff.

Open House Set This Weekend For A&H Lumber Co.

Open house is scheduled this weekend for A & H Lumber Company, according to Aubrey Muse and Harvey Parker, owners and operators of the firm, which was formerly Horton Lumber Company in Goldthwaite.

Mr. Muse and Mr. Parker purchased the business from Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Horton effective May 1.

In connection with their open house the new owners are also introducing a new paint line with a special one-cent sale, which starts today and will continue through Saturday noon.

There will be free registration for door prizes and free favors for everyone who can come in and visit with the new owners during the two and one half days of open house.

Full details of the open house and introduction of new paint line sale appear in full page ad in this issue of the paper.

Tom Cody Graves was awarded the Eagle rank in Scouting in the Court of Honor at the Goldthwaite Methodist Church on Friday, May 17. Rio Cox of Brownwood, president of the Comanche Trail Council, read a letter to Tom Cody, written by Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America, in which he congratulated Tom Cody on achieving Scouting's highest rank, that of Eagle Scout.

A meeting of special committee for Civil Defense Organization met in the office of the sheriff Saturday.

The group discussed a signal to be used as a warning in case of a tornado in the immediate vicinity of Goldthwaite or in case of some other emergency, other than a fire. It was agreed that in such cases the signal would be four blasts on the siren which is operated by the City of Goldthwaite.

Rainfall recorded here during the past week measured .38 inch. This brings the total so far this month to 7.91 inches, according to official report from Harry Allen.

Miss Leona Mae Carter, freshman student at the University of Texas, has been chosen one of the Dormitory Advisors for next year. Selections are based on grades, ability to get along with others, friendliness and other numerous requirements. She is the daughter of Mrs. Leona Carter of Goldthwaite and a graduate of Goldthwaite High School.

County Clerk, Walter A. Bryant, has issued marriage license since last report to Donnie Hicks and Laurene Hasley.

Last Rites For
Mrs. W. Ticknor
Held In Arlington

Lawanna Jewell (Wood) Ticknor, 44, of 1511 W. Sanford in Arlington, passed away Wednesday, May 17, in an Arlington hospital, after a short illness. She was a native of the Regency community and moved to Ar-

Davis Camp and she will also visit a school friend who now makes her home in that city.

S. T. Weathers and wife are the proud parents of a boy, who arrived at their home Monday.

At her home in Big Valley, amid sorrowing friends and loved ones, Miss Jewel Adair sweetly fell asleep in Jesus. She was born November 15, 1893, and departed this life April 30, 1917.

T. T. Nickols and Jo H. Friczell have purchased new Ford cars for use on their rural routes. By operating these cars the routes can be covered in three hours, which will be advantageous alike for the carrier and patrons of the routes.

Dick Brinson and Lester Ferguson have exchanged locations, the former now being employed in Horton's barber shop and the latter having a similar position in S. T. Weathers' shop. They are both experienced and popular workmen.

Miss Anna Gail Reese Becomes Bride Of Charles Roy Wilkins, Jr.

Miss Anna Gail Reese of Irving and Mr. Charles Roy Wilkins, Jr., of San Angelo exchanged nuptial vows Saturday, May 27, at 8:00 p. m. in the Kirkwood Methodist Church of Irving, with Rev. James Simpson and Rev. John Robinson officiating.

Miss Reese is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rose Claiborn Reese of Irving. Mr. Wilkins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roy Wilkins of Goldthwaite.

Mrs. Kenneth Heitschmidt of Irving was at the organ and accompanied Mr. Bill Brewer of Irving as he sang "Spirit of Life in This New Dawn" and "The Wedding Prayer."

A cathedral arrangement of straight and swirled candelabra with jade greenery interspread with votive candles centered around the prayer bench completed the altar setting.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of silk organza over peau de soie. The empire gown with a cathedral length train was re-embroidered with Alencon lace applique on the bodice and skirt. Her veil was fashioned of silk tulle softly framing her face extended the length of the train. It was held in place by a crown of Lilies of the Valley and orange blossoms.

Miss Leta Ann Thaxton of San Angelo served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Marsha Wilkins of Austin, sister of the bridegroom, Miss LaWanda Osbourn of Fredericksburg and Mrs. David Womack of Mesquite.

The bridal attendants were attired in A-line, fitted formal gowns of Apricot voile with long sleeves, caught at the wrist by tiny covered buttons. A floor length train accented the back and they carried bouquets of Apricot daisies and Baby Breath. They wore Apricot daisies in their hair.

Gerry Head of Stephenville attended the bridegroom as best man. Dr. T. C. Graves of Dallas, Mike Hoover of College Station and Mike Keith of Odessa were groomsmen.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Reese wore a designer's dress of green lace with matching accessories and an Apricot corsage of Ranunculus. The bridegroom's mother chose an imported formal silk suit of turquoise with beaded blouse and matching hat of tulle and flowers. Her corsage was a white orchid.

At the reception in Grady May Hall following the ceremony, the bride's table was laid with a peau de soie cloth overskirted with white net with swags of Apricot tulle. The table was centered with a crystal and silver epergne arranged with Ranunculus and Stephanotis, flanked by silver candelabra. A tiered wedding cake completed the decor. The groom's table was also in white with an Apricot floral arrangement, the coffee service and chocolate cake.

Members of the house party were: Mrs. Larry Shamburger of Irving; Miss Gay Harper of San Angelo; Karen King, Irving; Pauline Lanier, Houston; Lynne Champion, Houston; Carol Herr, Cecilia Grimes and Vivian Heitschmidt, all of Irving.

For a trip to Clouderoft, New Mexico, the bride was attired in a yellow lace coat over a yellow silk linen sleeveless A-line gown with matching shoes and bag.

After their wedding trip the couple will reside at 1930 Lindue, San Angelo.

Out of town guests were from Houston, Dallas, San Angelo,

Freer, San Antonio, Waco, Eastland, Austin, Goldthwaite, Odessa, College Station, Hamilton, Mesquite, Fredericksburg, and Stephenville.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roy Wilkins were hosts for the rehearsal dinner Friday evening in the Royal Room at the Holiday Inn in Irving.

The tables were decorated with flowers of the bride's chosen colors, accented with two white love birds. The centerpiece was flanked by silver candelabra adorning the U shaped table. Other arrangements and candies were placed at vantage points and place cards were for thirty-six guests.

What To Do In The Garden

Spray roses regularly with combination insecticide and fungicide.

Use dusting sulphur to run insects from vegetables.

Feed tomatoes regularly.

Mrs. Walton Daniel Is Installed President Of Local Garden Club

The Goldthwaite Garden Club met Wednesday, May 17, in the Library club room for their last meeting of the year with Mrs. Walton Daniel, president, presiding. The club collect was read in unison. Mrs. Paul Henderson gave the treasurer's report and also a report on the Park project. Mrs. Duren read part of the club By-Laws.

MRS. WALTON DANIEL

Mrs. Jim Weatherby gave a report on awards the club could work on for the coming year. She also suggested that the Goldthwaite club go from the Standard club rating to the Honor club rating. Motion made and carried to change the club rating.

Club awards this year were Sears Foundation Award for their Civic Beautification Program; Honorable Mention on Yearbook for District V and one of the first five President's report in District V.

Mrs. Weatherby also presented awards to the following ladies for outstanding work and perfect attendance: Mmes. W. P. Duren, Paul Henderson, Erie D. Roberson, Geo. Weddell and Robert Butler. Mrs. Daniel was presented an award of Merit.

Reports were given by the following chairmen— Courtesy — Mrs. B. C. Wicker; Finance and Budget — Mrs. Paul Henderson; Flower Show — Mrs. Roy Wilkins; Garden Pilgrimage — Mrs. Jim Weatherby; Horticulture — Mrs. Erie D. Roberson; Scrapbook — Mrs. Malcolm Jernigan; Jr. Garden Club — Mrs. Geo. Weddell; Library — Mrs. Daniel. Also Membership — Mrs. Weatherby; Nominating — Mrs. Jernigan; Park Committee — Mrs. Duren; Telephone — Mrs. Cecil Williams; Teen Gardeners — Mrs. Wilkins; Therapy — Mrs. Butler.

Mrs. Butler, new Flower Show chairman, asked for discussion on time for next flower show. A fall show was agreed upon, time and place to be announced later.

A summary of District V club awards was read by Mrs. Daniel. A request from the Library Board as to whether the Garden Club would sponsor the landscaping of Library grounds was made by Mrs. John G. Berry. Motion made and carried to take over the supervision of the grounds in connection with the Courthouse grounds. Mrs. Daniel appointed the following committees to serve in this capacity: Mmes. Robert McCoy, Roy Wilkins, T. J. Collier, Paul Henderson and Erie D. Roberson.

At the conclusion of the business meeting the hostesses, Mmes. Jernigan, Wilkins, Lee Long and Lloyd Reynolds, served a delicious refreshment plate.

We have had some very pretty weather, but not much farm work has been done.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Daniel enjoyed a family reunion, with all their children and grandchildren present, for the commencement exercises at Mullin School. Their granddaughter, Deanna Cox, was one of the graduates.

We send congratulations to all of the graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. Randal Ratliff and Troy and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stewart are enjoying a vacation in New Mexico.

Mrs. Jimmy Petty and Mrs. May Petty were made very happy Tuesday, when Mrs. J. C. Bramblett phoned them she received a call that Mr. Petty had arrived on Texas soil, after spending several months in Viet Nam. The Pettys are enjoying visiting with loved ones before locating in New York for the present. Jimmy is a former resident of this neighborhood, and a nephew of Mrs. Bramblett. We extend best wishes to them.

The open house last Sunday was a happy occasion for Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford and their son, Mr. and Mrs. William Glynn Crawford of Fort Worth. There were thrills over the gifts, visits of friends, relatives and neighbors and the flowers from Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Hopper of El Paso.

Mrs. A. L. Crawford received word that Tom Stevens of Morton had fallen and broke his leg. We all hope him a speedy recovery.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Ward spent Friday in Austin with Mr. and Mrs. Colburn Ward and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Porter, Jr. and Phil.

Mrs. Ellie Rashell and Mrs. Frieda Schulz of Brownwood visited her brother Fritz Schulz who has been a patient in the Gatesville hospital. Also Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Schulz and Betty Ruth.

Miss Melaine Miller brought her grandmother, Mrs. Annie Miller, home the first of the week from an extended visit in College Station with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Miller and family and with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith in Houston.

SCALLORN HOMECOMING PICNIC SUNDAY, JUNE 4
The Scallorn Homecoming Picnic scheduled for May 21, has been rescheduled for Sunday, June 4, due to the weather. The picnic will be held in Mills County Park. A basket lunch will be served at noon. All friends are invited.
