Center City News By MRS. JOE GREEN

This is Monday morning. The sun is shining and the birds are singing. Maybe Spring is finally here; but we have sure had some cold weather out this way. We had church at the Baptist Church Sunday morning and Sunday night. There was a good attendance at both services. Our pastor and his boys attended singing at Early High School Sunday evening. Several in our community attended a singing at Gatesville Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. Karnes went to Gatesville to visit their new great-granddaughter. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Karnes have a new daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Head are the maternal grandparents. Mrs. Rosa Head and Tom, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Karnes, Mr. and Mrs. Hardie Collier and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Williams are all great-grandparents. We have a great-grandchild ourselves, Beverly Rogers, Mattie Joe's daughter, has a baby daughter. It makes you think you are getting on up there. Hilda Mae Frank was home this weekend visiting her parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Frank and Harold.

We were sorry to hear about Mrs. Graham Wall's death. We want to send our deepest sympathy to her loved ones. May God bless all of you.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Watson and children were visiting Mr. and rs. Forrest Ross, Fort Worth Mrs. Jess Whitley over the weekend.

Mrs. Bill Eckert and Mrs. Cary Dupree visited me Saturday evening. Also, Mr. and Mrs. Ace Kincheloe and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Kincheloe.

Register spent the day with us. We enjoyed them all.

Mr. and Mrs. John Howard Owens and children visited Mrs. Rosa Head and Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Owens over the week-

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Evans are driving a new car. They visited us a little while Sunday evening.

I talked to Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Wright Sunday. Mr. Wright has been on the sick list. Also, Mrs. Wright said they both were feeling very well.

Mrs. Millard Meek and Mrs. Mildred Cole and daughter, Paula, visited us one morning last week.

We are kindly getting homesick to see our granddaughter and grandson of San Antonio. We haven't seen them since Christmas. We hope to go to see them before too long if the weather doesn't get too bad.

I will try to get this in the mail today. We want to send our deepest sympathy to the ones who have lost their loved ones. I have some loved ones that are not doing very well at all. I do hope they are better.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this method to say thank you for your ex-pressions of kindness in the passing of our loved one, Mrs. Perry C. Harris. Thank you and may God bless each and every one that contributed in any way to make our burden lighter, and our sadness easier to bear. Eight small trees encircled a matching ivory val theme was used for the kneeling bench. Rev. Stringler read a poem entitled "The Song Of The Love Of Jesus," which was written in 1200. Mrs. Thurman Head of Goldthwaite, organist, presented the wedding music, the theme of 'Romeo and Juliet," during the eremony. Mr. Thurman Head. soloist, sang "Whiter Thou Goest" as the couple walked up the steps.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory silk dress with puffed sleeves. Beading of gold and white enhanced the waistline and sleeves. Her chapel length veil of silk illusion fell from a gold and white beading crown. To complete her ensemble, the bride wore ivory satin shoes. She carried a bouquet of long stemmed red roses. For something old, she wore her greatgrandmother's wedding band.

Mrs. Kenneth Craighead of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, was the bride's matron of honor. Miss Dannielle Newton of Lubbock was the maid of honor and Mrs. Stephen Matthews of San Marcos and Miss Emy Jo Pehl of Llano, served as bridesmaids. mpala Sale.

You save when you buy it. You save when you drive it.

When you buy any Impala V8 model during our "400" Sale, here's how you can get two popular extras at no extra

You order your Impala equipped with a Turbo Hydra-matic transmission, radio, Comfortilt steering wheel, front and rear bumper guards and white stripe tires. Items you'd probably order anyway.

Then we add our big 400-cubic-inch V8 at 265 hp that runs on regular gas, along with dual exhausts-both at no charge. The manufacturer's suggested retail price ncluding Federal excise tax for the regular fuel 400 V8 and dual exhausts is $93.75.) But that's only the beginning. Because your Chevrolet dealer is really anxious to deal these days.

And the Impala you're buying, of course, got to be America's No. 1 car, because of all the value features built right in. Features like flush-and-dry rocker panels that fight rust. Inner fenders to protect ' the outer fenders. Long lasting bias belted ply tires, steel guard beams in every door for added protection, an acrylic lacquer finish over its solid Body by Fisher. All of which contributes to Impala's traditionally high resale value, too. You're getting America's No. 1 car on sale. The car more people buy-year after year after year. How can you beat that?,

Well, this is Monday morning. P. Watson of Lampasas visited I will try to send in some news out this way. We had church at Mrs. W. M. Richards had the the Baptist Church Sunday with a good crowd at both services. The Methodist Church had a Easter Sunrise Service at 6:30. his boys sang out there. Afterwards, he and his boys went to town to the Men's Downtown his boys did the singing. They came back out here to the Baptist Church for services. He

Some of them brought their dinner and spent most of the day. The young children had a Easter Egg Hunt in the afternoon, which they all enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Kemp had several of their children ome for the Easter holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bhanor and daughter visited Mrs. Rosa Head over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Smith had their son home over the holi-

Our children didn't get to ome home, as it was too far. Some of them didn't get off from work in time. I talked to Mrs. O. B. Hill today. They are about the same. She said Oscar had a sister in the hospital at Hamilton. They hadn't heard how she was.

We saw Mr. and Mrs. Joe Alton Kemp at church Sunday Joe seems to be doing very well. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Grelle and new baby daughter came to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Coffman's last week. The baby is sure cute She sure is little, but she sure Alvin Head and daughters were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fairo Head over the Easter holidays. We visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Register Saturday. They both seem to be doing pretty good. Eva Faye, our daughter, called Sunday morning. They are doing fine. She is sure getting homesick. We haven't seen them since Christmas. The baby has seven teeth and is trying to crawl. I saw Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sanders at church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Ising visited Mr and Mrs. Walter Mrs. Rhoda V. Humphries and Frank and Harold, Saturday. Our school will start again today. Some of the school will be out all this week. Hope to do better next time.

WELFARE

Social Security checks were increased April 1, but many received smaller state assistance payments and some became ineligible fo rstate aid.

Welfare Commissioner Burton G. Hackney said Social Security Act amendments will have this effect on Old Age Assistance:

· About 138 500 OAA recipients will receive smaller checks, although with Social Security increase, income will go up about $4 a month.

• Another 95,500 will get $4 more in state Old Age Aissist-
