Sixty-Seven Youths Attend County Wide Rally At Lake Merritt Sunday

Youth from Mills County turned out in large numbers for the fun of an outing on Lake Merritt, Sunday, August 20th. Approximately seventy youthful swimmers and water-skiers found relief from the heat of a hot August afternoon by getting into the cool waters of Lake Merritt.

This large turnout of local youth was for the Mills County Churches sponsorship of an end-of-summer youth rally. The weiner roast which followed saw a "tubful" of weiners consumed by hungry teens.

Highlights of a display of talent included a skit entitled "Four Women Afloat on a Boat." Presented by Priddy youth, Bridget Meier, Alvin Limmer, Vicki Limmer, Lois Mild, Sue Ann Schlee, Donna Drucekhammer, and Pamela Marwitz, the skit was a humorous, contemporary version of Noah's Ark. Following was a Goldthwaite trio consisting of Marilyn Roberts, Elaine Harper, and Robin Dean which was also enjoyed by the group. An organ solo by Robin Dean was widely acclaimed.

Closing the rally were songs by the entire group and a short Vesper service led by Pastor Mild from Zion Lutheran Church in Priddy.

Approximately twenty adult workers assisted in making the event a success. Though all the adults assisting are not listed below, appreciation to the Allen Morelands, Tom Cody Graves and Clyde Cockerums for furnishing ski boats, the Victor Limmers and Gilbert Schlees for food preparation was expressed. There was considerable discussion and planning to make this an annual event for Mills County youth. Considering the turnout, it would appear that such a thing could be desirable. The fellowship was just marvelous.

Thirty-four youth attended the youth rally from Goldthwaite, eleven from Mullin, eighteen from Priddy and four from Star and Center City.

A white net draped arch with suspended wedding bells and garlanded daisies centered the altar. Beneath the arch a bouquet of yellow and white gladiolus, chrysanthemums, and daisies was placed upon the pulpit. Daisies entwined candelabra holding white bridal tapers flanked each side of the arch. Greenery and white satin bows marked family pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white empire, formal gown of Chantilly lace and organza over silk shantung. The gown featured a scoop neckline of lace, sheer camelot sleeves with appliques of lace, and full skirt drifting into a chapel train. Her elbow length veil of illusion fell from a band headpiece of lace butterflies and organza petals.

The bridal bouquet consisted of a cascade of miniature white mums, bridal lillies, stephanotis, pearl drops, and a center of yellow roses.

Miss Lana Ethridge of Arlington was her cousin's maid of honor. Misses Lee Randolph and Judy Henderson, both of Fort Worth were bridesmaids.

The three-tiered cake was decorated with yellow confection roses and sweetpeas. White Columns separated the middle and top layers. BY LARRY DANIEL

The pecan industry in Texas has become a very valuable and important part of the economy of the state. Much publicity has been provided for the Pecan Growers Referendum set for later this year. In an effort to explain the referendum and other phases of pecan work, an educational meeting has been set for Friday, August 25 at 10:00 a.m. in the Lower Colorado River Authority Auditorium in San Saba.

A leading member of the Texas Pecan Growers Association from this area will be on hand to introduce the program and explain the referendum. Dr. William E. Black, Economist-Marketing, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, will discuss the nature of the check-off with a slide presentation. Dr. Benton Storey, Secretary-Treasurer of the Texas Pecan Growers Association will explain a few areas of urgent need in research, education and promotion where the Pecan Board might reasonably be expected to spend their funds.

Dr. Arlie Powell of Blufford G. Hancock will be present to discuss pecan orchard management problems with growers. The entire meeting should be less than 2 hours in length.

All pecan producers and interested persons are invited to attend the meeting.

Screwworm count in Mills County: 114 confirmed cases since January 1, 1972. Please collect and send in samples of all worm cases; then treat each and every wound.

Keep livestock sprayed good. The screwworm situation in the state of Texas is out of control.

Why can't things be the way they used to be?

Culver Pictures, Inc.

You know. When the Negro "knew his place." When students stayed in the classroom. When poverty was kept off page one. Ah, the good old days. But who's fooling whom? Was it really a better world? Or just a quieter one? A few years ago it was easy to hide from the evils around us. To turn our backs and pretend it really wasn't so. But God knows, it was. All that our modern communication system has done is bring it all cut into the open. And about time. The fact is, God has probably been much too patient with our world. "Love your neighbor," He told us long ago. Not enough of us were listening and that's what today's turmoil is all about. And think about this: maybe—just maybe—God put us here right now because we're the ones who can start setting things straight.

MRS. MICHAEL ALAN WATSON

Martha Echols, Michael Watson Say Wedding Vows Saturday, Aug. 19

Miss Martha Echols and Mike Watson united in marriage Saturday evening in a double-ring ceremony at the Third and Central Church of Christ, Lovington, New Mexico. Cecil Hook, minister, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wash of Goldthwaite. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Watson of Lovington, New Mexico.

The altar area was centered with a tall arched candelabra and two seven branch candelabras bearing white tapers and covered with daisies and greenery. A pedestal bearing a wedding candle and two tapers stood between the minister and the couple.

Before the ceremony a chorus sang "A Time For Us" from Romeo and Juliet. Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Eicke, of Snyder, sang a duet, "We've Only Just Begun" and Alyse Brown of Dumas sang a solo, "The Twelfth of Never." The processional was to "The Hawaiian Wedding Song." "One Hand, One Heart" was sung during the ceremony, and "The Lord Bless You and Keep You" was used for the recessional.

Miss Elaine Body of Lorain was Maid of Honor. Other attendants were Mrs. Roger Gist of Canyon, and Miss Pam Hahn of Lovington. Miss Lynda Young cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. They wore yellow dotted Swiss floor-length gowns trimmed with yellow ribbon around a high waistline, and white picture hats trimmed with yellow ribbon. Each carried a long stemmed yellow rose and the flower girl wore a wrist corsage.

The best man was Joe Bright of Snyder. Groomsmen were Roy Grant of Monte Vista, Colorado, cousin of the groom and Mike Winfrey of Lovington. The ring bearer was Jerry Young, cousin of the bride. Serving as ushers were Ken Watson and Delwin Watson, brothers of the groom. Candles were lit by Barry Lovejoy and David Lough of Lovington.

The bride wore a formal floor-length wedding gown of ottoman fabric designed with a jewel neckline and an empire waist. It was accented with Venise lace and satin ribbon. It featured long sleeves, a semi A-line silhouette, and a chapel train. The matching camelot headpiece held the tulle lace chapel length veil outlined in Venise lace and satin ribbon. She carried a cascade of white and yellow daisies and yellow roses.

The bride's mother wore a formal length dress of beige alaskine. It featured a semi A-line skirt, long full sleeves gathered in wide cuffs, and a jewel neckline. She wore brown and gold accessories. The groom's mother wore a formal length dress of blue double knit. It featured a slight A-line skirt gathered at midriff, a high round neckline, and long full sleeves gathered at wide cuffs. Her accessories were black.

A reception, given by the bride's mother, followed in the fellowship room of the church. The three tiered lemon cake was decorated with yellow roses and topped with a spray of fresh daisies. The table was covered with a yellow satin cloth overlaid with white lace. The centerpiece consisted of the bride's bouquet, surrounded by white candles in antique glass candleholders accented with glass birds on a reflecting tray. Misses Vicki Smithson of Dalhart and Beth Fultz of McLean served the cake and punch. Miss Debbie Vanderveer of Lubbock, was the guestbook hostess.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to points of interest in Texas. The bride traveled in a brown pantsuit with white accessories.

A rehearsal dinner, given by the groom's parents, was held at Pearl's Dining Room at noon Saturday.

The bride was a 1970 graduate of Goldthwaite High School. The groom graduated from Lovington High School in 1970. They both attended Lubbock Christian College.

The couple will make their home in Austin.
