Alcoholism-A Disease Engulfing Heavy Drinkers Step By Step

This article is part of a series on "The Progression of Alcoholism" made available by the Central Texas Council on Alcoholism, Temple.

Alcoholism is a disease which need not lead either to death or confinement in a mental institution. It can be arrested through total abstinence if the sufferer reaches the most important and difficult point on the road to recovery - identification of his sickness as alcoholism and the acceptance of the fact that he is an alcoholic and no longer can practice controlled drinking.

A man or woman who concludes, from matching typical symptoms with his or her own behavior, that his drinking problem is out of control is not a rarity, an isolated individual.

Surveys show there are more than 9,000,000 alcoholics among the 80,000,000 who today use alcohol regularly.

Alcoholism can be recognized and diagnosed and treated successfully.

These articles are intended to help each heavy drinker, who suspects he has this disease, to determine for himself if the secrets he so long has kept from others makes him the alcoholic that family, medical men and members of the clergy may have been confronting him with for years.

Alcoholism nearly always is a progressive disease. While progression differs in many cases, the majority of alcoholics follow patterns which can be used as guidelines. Some cases develop slowly and methodically, others swiftly and violently.

To begin at earliest stages, we look at pre-alcoholism periods when individuals may show first symptoms of the disease. It is that person with whom we must be concerned, not all who drink.

Through the pre-alcoholic stages there is a gradual, quite often noticeable increase in the use of alcohol, both in the frequency of imbibing and the quantity of alcohol consumed. This increase usually is not entirely intentional.

The person who eventually abuses alcohol invariably is unaware that he is finding an increasing number of occasions for drinking. This person derives an "exceptional reward" from his drinking. He feels liquor does more for him than it does for most people. For him, alcohol brings a relief from tension. This feeling of pressure, he is positive, comes from circumstances and surely not from the alcohol. When, much later, he analyzes honestly, he realizes that his reaction to alcohol has built up tensions. He continues to drink more heavily and more often, experiencing feelings of freedom, adequacy and confidence which normally are not his. As he drinks more, he eventually becomes aware the drinking of alcohol is more important than is the occasion he once considered to be an excuse.

The next step is obvious. The former pattern of "occasional drinking" grows into "constant or regular relief drinking." Once such relief drinking begins, the imbibing may be designated as a "problem drinker."

His drinking most likely is not yet as conspicuous as that of the alcoholic, but he needs to give attention to the growing problem.

Two-Car Accident Results In Minor Injuries

Saturday, July 13th around 6:45 p.m. a two car accident occurred on Farm Road 573, 3.5 miles south of Mullin, Texas.

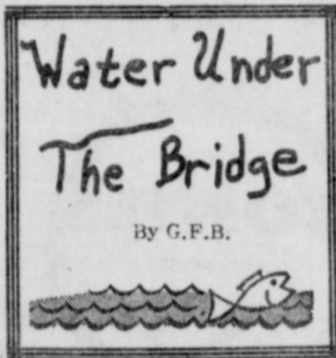

Involved in the accident was a 1974 Ford driven by Grace Brown Edmondson of Pichland Springs and a 1971 Ford driven by Gail Brown Singleton of Mullin.

Both vehicles were traveling north on FM 573 at the time of the accident.

The passengers in the Singleton car were treated for minor injuries at the Childress Hospital and released.

Both cars sustained severe damage.

Investigation was made by local officers.

The recent outbreaks of the dreaded cattle disease anthrax in Falls County east of here, has prompted many local ranchers to be alarmed.

At the present time local officials say that there is not enough vaccine available to take care of us out here in the "not so dangerous" outlying areas away from the deadly disease.

All available supplies of the vaccine are being diverted to the heart of the area that has been hardest hit by the anthrax.

Quarantined by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the Falls County area has lost several hundred animals in the past week.

Over 25,000 doses of the vaccine were reported sold in Limestone County by last Sunday.

Mills County Retired Teachers Take Palo Duro Trip

The Mills County Retired Teachers returned July 10 from their trip to Palo Duro Canyon State Park. The Canyon is the passage way to the Southwest. It has been carved by a million years of wind and water, has rugged terrain and gorgeous colors. The Palo Duro Canyon is the setting for the drama "Texas" which is a musical drama of Panhandle history. The wave of singers and dancers reaches into the past to reveal the struggles of the settlers, the strength of the cowboys, the land of Indians, the burials, politics, business and the celebrations. The lighting and sound effects of the drama are very realistic.

The group had a lovely new motel for the night, enjoyed a guided bus trip through the canyon and a barbecue supper before the drama. They were asked to stand as a group and received recognition after the intermission.

The group visited the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum on the campus of West Texas State University, which is an outstanding museum and art collection of Western Culture. They also visited the Museum on the campus of Texas Tech, which is more of a teaching unit for the students on campus.

Lunch had been prepared for the group at the Holiday Inn in Plainview and it was scrumptious!

Everyone returned happy, not too tired and saying they had a wonderful time and that our country needs more patriotic, historical plays like "Texas."

There were no accidents, and we are sorry that Mrs. Wigley fell and broke her arm after she got home, but one mystery, what happened to Elizabeth Dogget's over night case?

So sorry we could not take anyone who wanted to go, but maybe there will be other trips - watch your Eagle! We do appreciate all of our guests who helped to make the bus trip possible. We couldn't have had a

MRS. MARK GEESLIN

Macine Davis, Mark Geeslin Exchange Wedding Vows

Miss Macine Davis became the bride of Mark Geeslin Friday evening, June 21st, at 8:00 o'clock in a double ring ceremony in the Chapel of the First Baptist Church of Goldthwaite.

Parents of the couple are Mr.
and Mrs. Jack Davis and Mr.
and Mrs. Don Geeslin, all of Goldthwaite.

The impressive candlelight ceremony was read by Rex Tilly, of Gatesville, formally of the Goldthwaite Church of Christ.

Vows were exchanged beneath an arch of greenery and blue carnations, featuring three candleabra. The family pews were marked with white satin bows.

Mrs. Charles Sherwood was pianist, and accompanied Miss Elaine Harper as she sang
"Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage
by her father, wore a long empire gown with peau perled No-thingham lace making a front
bib. A high lace neckline and long tapped lace sleeves were of the same Nottingham lace.
Matching lace detailed the flounce hemline of the exaggerated A-line skirt. A full circular silk orga.za chapel length train, hemmed with matching lace, misted from the back of the bodice line, to compliment

the gown.

A jeweled lace Juliet cap held a tiered English illusion lace veil. She wore diamond earrings, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Miss Jacine Davis served her sister as maid of honor. Her gown was of blue and white chif-fon, fashioned with a high lace neckline and lace-edged ruffles.
Her bouquet was of blue and white carnations.

Kent Geeslin served his brother as best man. Elam Miles and Nick Williams were ushers.

Mrs. Nick Williams and Miss Linda Davis, sisters of the bride, were candlelighters. Their dresses were of lilac chiffon and fashioned similar to that of the maid of honor.

Misses Shelley and Keri Miles, nieces of the groom, served as flower girls. Their dresses were of pink chiffon. They carried white woven baskets filled with pastel colored flowers.

Mrs. Davis, mother of the bride, chose a blue lace dress with white accessories, and the groom's mother wore a coral dress also with white accessories. They each wore an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the banquet room of the church. A three tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, and punch were served from the bride's table, which featured crystal and silver appointments.
Misses Frances Long, Clista
Whitley and Darlene Calder served at the bride's table.

Miss Cindy Davis, sister of the bride, registered the guests.
For traveling, the bride wore a mint green pantsuit with white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. After a wedding trip to Colorado Springs, Colorado, the couple will reside
in Goldthwaite where he is engaged in farming and ranching.

--Hickman Notes--

We are so proud of the achievements of our "bosses." We do have an excellent activities program, and it takes a lot of planning and work. For their efforts in this field, Marie Hamilton and Geraldine Geeslin have received bonds and outstanding achievement award certificates.
We enjoyed the beautiful tapes of the McNiels again Thursday afternoon, and we want to say "Thank You" for helping the Andersons with our ice cream party.
Ruth Dumas was here for exercise class Friday morning and then in the afternoon she and Gladys Cokrum came back with our other guests for the "42" party. We really enjoy having our "42" guests each second Friday.
Walter Berry attended the Primitive Baptist Association at Mt. Olive several days. He reported it to be the best he ever attended.
Thanks, Willie Mae Cassil, for the lovely manicures and visits (almost daily).
As usual, we enjoyed the music of Bessent, Spinks, Holloway and Rainey Saturday nite.
We were sorry to learn Euna V. Barnett has been ill but were glad to see Glenda Lemke again for exercise class Monday. We want to say "Welcome" this week to Mabel Yarborough who moved to our home last week.
