Water Under
The Bridge
By G.F.B.

Mills County's fine football teams fared real well this past week, and local fans witnessed a first perfect opening game in many a year.

People do a lot of talking about local government in general, but very few, if any, do anything specific to remedy problems that are plaguing us every day.

Sometimes rising prices cannot be helped, and sometimes good, steadfast management is the source of prevention to do away with the pound of cure that public usually has to come to with.

Getting the most out of a work week is a prime example of an art of prevention. The old advice that if you can do a job one hour, then four can do the same thing in thirty minutes, is not exactly true, as everyone should know; but if things are left unchecked, and employees are left to their own judgement enough, things will get out of proportion. It just takes one two lazy employees to ruin business, especially a local government unit where feelings of power and "they can't get without me" prevail.

No one likes to be a tyrant, but that is not the answer, but there is nothing tyrannical about having employees to shape up ship out, because the public and the public's general interest are at stake.

These things should be taken for granted, as they are sometimes. If promises are made to get jobs done and materials and services deferred, then they should be carried out; and if these promises are not kept they should be accounted to their source and the people redesigned or exchanged for a new model.

Again, people do a lot of talking, but a few seconds of personal conversation can go a long way toward easing the "credibility gap" that now exists in government in general, and in Goldthwaite in specific . . .

Lenna Robinson
to Speak Methodists

Dr. Robinson has just recently returned from serving ten years in a medical missionary in Korea. Through her untiring efforts many "Rose Clubs" have been formed. These clubs are for epileptics, for whom there is very little hope in that country. But Dr. Robinson has brought them new knowledge of medicine available to them. Many now find relief, and a new faithfulness because of her great work.

"How Sweet It Is"

Eagles Blank San Saba 7-0; Face Tough Hamilton Friday

One of the most triumphant victories in recent years was witnessed by Eagle football fans on the local gridiron last Friday night as the underdog Eagles defeated the San Saba Armadillos 7-0 before a packed stadium.

The rivalry, going back for many years, usually sees the Class AA Dillos amass a win over the Eagles, but this year the Eagles would not be denied a victory.

Action got underway in the contest with a slow start. The Eagle defense kept the Dillos deep in their own territory, but the Eagles' offense could not generate any thrust to get the ball across the goal line. Things remained at a stalemate until the third quarter.

San Saba was given possession of the football twice in the early minutes of the second half, following Eagle fumbles. However, the stalwart Eagles defensive secondary, led by Dale Page and Terry McLean, stopped the Dillos' passing attack.

The Dillos drove the ball down to the Eagles' 27 yard line but were stopped as their fourth down pass fell incomplete. The Eagles took over at this point and began to move.

Passes to Dale Page and Byron Landrum set the Eagles in good position on the San Saba 29 yard line with first down.

Halfback Mick Simon scrambled for eight yards on a well-executed draw play, and with third and two to go from the 21 yard line quarterback Ray Frazier pitched to speedy Guenaro Siller who cut inside the defensive end and broke two tackles and raced for the end zone for the Eagles' first touchdown of the 1974 season.

Terry McLean added the point after and with 1:58 to go in the third quarter, the Eagles had the lead and the resulting win over the Dillos.

very comfortable for the Eagle fans, as the Eagles lost the ball on a fumble on their own 45 yard line. But two plays later Page intercepted a pass and stopped the momentum. An offsides penalty against San Saba on fourth down kept the Eagles moving, but the Eagles offense, thwarted by a personal foul penalty, had to punt.

David Miller's boomer stopped on the San Saba two yard line - You could hear the sighs all over the Eagle stand.

But the sighs turned to groans pretty quick.

San Saba took the ball and began to move, aided by the fine passing of quarterback Dick Davenport, and before you knew it, they were down to the Eagles' 21 yard line.

But the Eagles' defense answered the call and with fourth and eight, Ali Siller broke in and dropped the Dillo runner for a loss of four yards, killing the scoring drive.

The Eagles took over on the 20 yard line and on the first play fumbled the ball and, you guessed it, the Dillos recovered.
Three pass tries failed by San Saba, and in desperation the Dillos tried a pitch-pass play from the halfback, back to the quarterback. But the wobbly pass fell into the hands of defender Page and he returned the ball thirty yards to just about mid-field. From there it was a simple matter of running out the remaining few seconds.

"A very fine job of teamwork was executed by the boys in the game against San Saba. Last year we were defeated by the Dillos 41-0 and Goldthwaite was out for revenge against the group Friday night," commented Coach Gene Auldridge. "Any team who works together as a unit like the boys did Friday night has a tremendous chance of succeeding in their efforts."

Three Austin
Men Arrested
For 'Telephoning'

Three Austin fishermen were arrested Sunday morning on the Colorado River, allegedly using an illegal "telephoning" device.
Game Warden Benny Schriver
of Goldthwaite, aided by Wardens Jack Reynolds and Jim Havel, made the arrest.

The trio was placed in jail until Monday morning when they were assessed fines totaling $1,822.50 in Judge Horvey Reeves' court in San Saba County.

Cases Filed In County Number
29% More

The annual report of the Texas Civil Judicial Council, released today in Austin, shows that the number of cases filed in the district court of Mills County during 1973 was 29 per cent more than the number filed in 1972.

Cases filed during the last calendar year totaled 54, including 3 criminal and 51 civil.

Judge Donald L. Busby of the 27th District Court has jurisdiction in Mills County. He also serves Bell and Lampasas Counties.

The local district court disposed of 60 cases during 1973, 65 per cent of the cases filed during the year or carried over from 1972. At the end of the year, 32 cases were pending on the docket.

Siller On The Move

Mick Simon leads interference for Guenaro Siller around right end in football action at the Goldthwaite High - San Saba
game last Friday night.

Siller accounted for 73 yards rushing as the Eagles toppled long time rival San Saba 7-0.

Jr. High 'A' Wins, Jr. B & Eagle 'B' Defeated

Last Thursday night Goldthwaite Junior High A and B teams opened their 1974 football season against Early. The B squad was defeated by a 6-0 score. "Defensively the group looked fine, but showed weakness on their offensive game," stated Coach Danny Spradley. "This, however, was the first time for many of the boys to put on a football suit, much less play a real football

MRS. JON DOUGLAS DOGGETT

Suzanne Cockrell, Jon Douglas Doggett
Exchange Wedding Vows August 31

Margaret Suzanne Cockrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt H. Cockrell of Goldthwaite, and Jon Douglas Doggett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Voyd Lee Doggett of Goldthwaite, exchanged marriage vows Saturday, August 31, at eight p. m. in the First Baptist Church at Goldthwaite.

Rev. Ronnie Horton of Fort Worth performed the ceremony. Mrs. Marge Brito of Austin provided the wedding music. She accompanied Anne McComb of Lubbock as she sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The altar table was centered with an arrangement of greenery. Flanking either side of the altar table were spiral candelabra containing ivory tapers and topiary trees of mums, gladioli and daisies in shades of apricot and yellow. Clusters of greenery tied with ivory satin bows marked the family pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor length, princess style gown of candlelight peau de soie overlaid with silk illusion and trimmed with pearls and appliques of Venise lace. The gown featured victorian neckline and sleeves and a cathedral train. Her long veil of silk illusion was attached to a headpiece of peau de soie trimmed in pearls and appliques of Venise lace. She carried a bouquet of ivory roses, Fuji mums and baby's breath.

Fay Stenbridge of Tampa, Florida, attended the bride as matron of honor. Maid of honor was Carol Johnson of San Antonio. Bridal attendants were Margaret Matthews of San Antonio, Beverly Rhoades of College Station, and Alicia Doggett of Goldthwaite, sister of the groom.

Their floor length empire style dresses were fashioned of apricot polyester crepe with sashes of ivory velvet. They wore apricot rose buds in their hair and carried bouquets of apricot roses and Fuji mums accented with apricot streamers.

Jennifer Benningfield of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, niece of the groom, and Heather Burgess of San Antonio, cousin of the bride, served as flower girls. They wore dresses of candlelight silk illusion over peau de soie with sashes of apricot velvet. They carried baskets of daisies, mums and carnations in shades of apricot and yellow, with apricot streamers.

L. V. Benningfield of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Bill Cockrell, brother of the bride, Paul Hardcastle, cousin of the groom, Sam Watson, and Ted Roberts. Candle lighters were Jeffrey Benningfield of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, nephew of the groom, and Dale Schmidt of Irving, cousin of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Cockrell chose a floor length dress of dusty rose nylon crepe with ivory accessories. Her corsage was pink gladioli. The groom's mother was attired in a formal-length gown of aqua crepe. Her corsage was of white gladioli.

Immediately after the ceremony, the reception was held in the Youth Center. The bride's table was laid with an ivory lace cloth over ivory satin and was centered by her maternal grandmother. The groom's table was laid with an ivory lace cloth and was centered with an arrangement of apricot silks, coffee and chocolate cake were served from it.

Members of the house party were Mrs. Leroy Ketchum of Jal, New Mexico, Mrs. Wendell

CHAPPELL HILL
BY: Pearl Crawford

Weather-wise we have promises of some rain; the weather is cool and foggy.

F. H. Tiemann is breaking land. He had some hay cut and baled during last week.

The health in our neighborhood is satisfactory. We learned that Mrs. Albert Evans was hit by a runaway car. She was treated at the hospital and is at home doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone Shipman were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Shipman.

Mr. and Mrs. William Crawford and Letricia were Sunday visitors of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bufe and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford.

George Crawford visited a number of folks at the hospital Friday. We wish all the sick folks a speedy recovery.

The holiday was a very happy one for Mrs. Doris Pratt and Mr. Pratt of Nashville, Tenn. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Partin and Brad, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Partin, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Partin, and so many of their old neighbors and friends. Doris told me she was sure proud to see her grandson. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Tiemann and George and Pearl Crawford.

Holiday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Harris were Mrs. March of Houston, Mrs. Winnie Mae Brown, Mrs. Dass and children of Brooksmith, Mrs. Feral Neely of Goldthwaite and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Harris and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cook of Denton were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ratliff.

Holiday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Whatley were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Goodfelt, Mrs. Pearl Chambers and grandchildren of Brownwood.

Mark Daniel of Tarleton University spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Daniel and Karen.

In Goldthwaite I met Mr. Raymond Williams of Caradan who introduced me to his son, Dr. Dee Williams and Mrs. Williams of Victoria. Dr. Williams is a surgeon and Mrs. Williams is a nurse. We send them congratulations and best wishes and hope to be seeing them often.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stahnke attended church at Priddy Sunday. Mrs. Freda Christenson of Priddy came home with them for lunch and a visit.

Mrs. C. V. Whatley attended church and Sunday school at Goldthwaite Sunday.

Goldthwaite Eagle
Goldthwaite, Texas

Dear Sirs:

Enclosed you will find a check for $6.30 to pay for my Eagle for another year. My time will be up Sept. 18.

I don't want to miss a copy for this is the only way to hear from my friends since my dear cousin Lyda Walton has been ill and not able to write me very often.

My husband has been very ill in St. Mary's, but is home now doing better.

We had a family reunion Aug. 11. There were 46 people there. All of the children (were) there except Margie, the youngest daughter.

Thanks again,
Mrs. Agnes Bird Johnston

It's time your family stopped being just "Smith Harold"
in the telephone directory.

The new edition of your telephone directory is going to press soon.

If you have only a single listing, a lot of people are going to have trouble looking up other members of your family.

Certainly, your wife deserves her own listing. And giving a teen-ager a place in the directory is a nice way of saying "You're growing up."

To add or change a listing just call our business office. They can tell you how little extra an additional listing will cost.

It's as easy as picking up the phone.

Jan Head, Eddie Bynum United In Ceremony

Blonnie Jan Head and Eddie Bynum exchanged wedding vows Saturday, August 31, 1974, at the home of the bride's parents.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. T. M. Mitchell, great-great uncle of the bride. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Head of Goldthwaite and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bynum of Pottsville. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a blue eyelet embroidered gown.

It featured an empire waist line and a ruffled V-neck.

The bride carried out the tradition of wearing something old, which was a pearl necklace given to her by her aunt, Miss Pearl Casbeer, and something new was her wedding gown. Something borrowed was jewelry and something blue was the bride's garter. She also wore a penny in her shoe.

Tammy Head, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She was dressed in a blue floor length gown fashioned after that of the bride's. Everett Vandiver of Pottsville acted as best man.

Wedding music was provided by Jana Duncan.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the bride's parent's home. A white two-tiered wedding cake trimmed in blue, and punch was served by friends of the couple.

Following a short honeymoon the couple is at home in Pottsville. -- Laughlin Studio Photo

Extension Highlights

BY JUDY BEAVERS
Mills County Extension Agent

When on special, buy plenty of eggs - and freeze the extras. But don't just place eggs, shell and all, in a freezer. To successfully freeze them, break eggs and blend white and yolks together. Add one-fourth teaspoon of sugar or salt per egg - to prevent them from becoming thick and gummy - and cover tightly.

If preferred, yolks and white can be frozen separately. To freeze egg yolks, add sugar or salt as instructed previously. Egg whites, on the other hand, don't require extra ingredients to maintain quality during freezing.

Today's rising food prices emphasize the necessity of comparing costs of similar food items. Figuring cost per serving is one facet of shopping wisely.

For example, when figuring cost of any boneless meat, allow four servings per pound. For meats with a small amount of bone, expect three servings per pound.

Chicken and whole dressed fish furnish one to two servings per pound. Each serving provides about three ounces of cooked meat - and 20 grams of protein. This is approximately one-third of the recommended amount needed daily by an average adult male or female.

Serving meat alternates, such as dry beans, peas, nuts, milk and cheese, also helps stretch the food dollar. These foods are excellent sources of protein and calcium.

MORE THANKS - to the TUB for the use of a pool table and to the men who were kind enough to move it for us - Ronald Cline, Blake English, Owen Yarborough, Charles Studer, Bud Saathoff, Robert Garza and Anthony Bosquez. Needless to say, from an upstairs location, that was no easy chore! But now we have another enjoyable recreation.

WELCOME HOME - Gus Roush! NEWCOMERS - also welcomed recently are Knox Coffey, Betty Martin, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Stark, and Arthur Cunningham.

VIDEO TAPES - were made of our exercise class Monday afternoon. Made us feel like movie stars. It's a good thing Glenda Lemke was with us, tho. Otherwise, we'd all have had stage fright. Understand it will be shown at the United Methodist Church Annual Conference.

From the County Agent

BY DANNY LONG

MILLS COUNTY EXTENSION AGENT

Angora goat production has been an important industry in Texas since the goats were introduced in 1849. Texas normally produces 96 percent of the U. S. mohair supply which represents 60 percent of the U. S. world production. Numbers of goats have fluctuated widely over the years because of the highly variable mohair prices and the influence of this variability on the demand for replacement animals. The present population of approximately 1.5 million is the lowest number since 1920. However, favorable mohair prices have in some cases rekindled an interest in the industry. At present most of the Angora goats in Texas are in the Edwards Plateau where the industry began. Before losses to predatory animals became so severe and before the mohair market break in 1964, large numbers were also found in other areas such as the Grand Prairie and Cross Timbers where they were used to an advantage in land clearing or brush control.

Poor reproductive efficiency has always been a problem. No reliable statistics on the kid crop are available, but values range from a low of 0 to a high of over 100 percent. Although kid crops as high as 100 percent are very rare, those as low as zero are not uncommon in the areas where predation is a problem. The average kid crop weaned is probably in the range of 5 to 60 percent, but the potential is more than 100 percent under favorable conditions.

A high reproductive rate is important because (1) of the sale value of the kids produced, (2) it permits the industry to respond more rapidly to changes in demand for mohair, (3) it facilitates improvement through providing a greater selection differential and (4) it permits improved mohair production through lowering the average age of the flock. As goats become older, both the quantity and the quality of mohair deteriorates.

This information comes from a new publication titled, "Reproductive Efficiency In Angora Goats", and written by Maurice Shelton and Jack Groff, Extension Sheep and Goat Specialists for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The publication is available at the County Agent's office upon request.

Alcoholism, A Disease

6th In A Series

Recently, a young housewife visited the offices of an Alcoholism Council after reading an article on the disease of alcoholism. She and her husband were distraught because her mother was a pitiful secret drunk, constantly protected by the housewife's father who believed he was hiding what he considered a disgrace. The young woman pleaded to know what could be done.

Asked if she had told her parents that she knew the truth, that it was out in the open and nothing should stand in the way of seeking aid, the woman was aghast. "I can't do that. I can never embarrass my parents by such a confrontation".

This is the kind of multitudinous situation that tears at the hearts of volunteers in the Alcoholism Council. The young woman was helping keep a fact in the closet. Actually, she was choosing to abet death or institutionalization rather than embarrassment.

This article, among others, seeks to let the public know that alcoholism is a disease, a killer illness, and that help is possible if the problem comes into the open. Tell-tale signs can be recognized and headed.

One of a problem drinker's behavior patterns can trick himself or others into doubting that he has become a victim of acute alcoholism. He may maintain periods of sobriety when he seems to be almost his normal self. At such times, he reasons with some clarity and concludes that, because his bouts have been intense and frequent, he had best give up drinking. But only for a while.

He will not "go on the wagon" for good, but only until he can prove that at last he has learned how to control his drinking. He may abstain for a few days, a few weeks or a few months. During these dry spells he is sure he demonstrates to others, and himself above all, that he can take it or leave it alone. He is confident he doesn't have to drink. Now he must prove that, too - by a little "safe" imbibing.

When he sobers up after that "big proof", he remorsefully reasons he needs a little more drying out. Then he can succeed. So there is a next time and a next and a next and a next.

The sufferer from acute alcoholism is a great rationalizer in worlds of fantasy, not practicality. For the umpteenth time, he finds his answer. The trouble is neither him nor alcohol, he decides.

It must be his manner of drinking. Greatly excited, he sets out to determine what for him is the perfect drink and what the proper drinking times are.

The alcoholic carefully plans what to drink, when to do it, where it'll be, with whom he'll drink. He puts his plan into work with exceeding caution and patience.

For a time, it often seems to be working beautifully. When the state of devastation happens to his careful plans and he is recovering, he again knows the answer. He grew careless, that's what. He used bad direction.

In a way, this has happened. He hastens to try again, not admitting to himself that there always will be those indiscretions with plans, that carelessness, those bad judgements, the false security.

This troubled alcoholic now sits and broods. He feels he has disgraced himself again. He imagines what his friends are saying: "I told you so". "Just as I thought".

He decides that the next chance he gets, he will walk out on everybody - family, friends, his job. Too often, he does it, too.

All this is non-fiction. If a person who is troubled by his own drinking or the uncontrolled partaking of someone dear to him, all that is required is to match the drinker's behavior with any few of those symptoms related in these articles.

The person in trouble just could be on the borderline to chronic alcoholism. That stage could be the last stop before death. Interested readers can get help by telephoning the Central Texas Council on Alcoholism 817-773-3722, Temple.
