City Manger Don Petty Resigns Top City Post Effective April 1

City Manager Don Petty, top city administrator for the past two years, resigned effective April 1st at the regular City Council meeting Monday night. No reasons were given for the resignation and no questions were asked by members of the council. Councilman Loy Long moved to accept the resignation and, following a second by councilman Howard Campbell, the motion passed unanimously.

No discussion was given to a replacement for Petty, as a new council year begins with the next meeting.

Also tendering his resignation at the session was Clarence Miller, electric department employee.

The council reviewed eight applications for the post of water department trainee, and did not take action on the matter, pending further investigation.

CM Petty reported on the extensive smoke testing given the Goldthwaite sewer system during recent days. The testing revealed several serious leaks in the sewer network, allowing infiltration of rain water and runoff. This is the problem that has been causing difficulties in the system in recent months, putting more water through the system than it can handle, thus causing overflows and backups. The leaks are scheduled to be repaired soon.

One of the large pumps at the city's reservoirs at the Colorado River has been losing effectiveness as of late and has been reworked; it can now operate at near capacity of 1100 gallons per minute of water.

Office Manager Dale Allen gave a report on the new truck needed for the electric department. This will replace the truck now carrying the smaller "bucket." A change in model lines has necessitated a change in specifications by the city. The present truck uses a 9 foot long bed and new models have only 8 foot long beds. Allen is instructed to change these specifications to a satisfactory point and secure bids.

Lloyd Laughlin and Italy Rudd were present at the meeting to talk to the council concerning the street lights around the Masonic Hall just south of Goldthwaite. The lights have been shot out and have been replaced. Some question was raised about whose responsibility this was. The question will be investigated.

In other council matters, a pre-application has been submitted to the Housing and Urban Development Agency for grant money for use by Goldthwaite. The money has been asked for several things, namely housing, community center and sewer construction and several others. This is only a pre-application and it is not known at this time if any money will be earmarked for projects here.

The monthly operations report was presented by the City Manager. It showed total collections for February to be $29,379.83 and disbursements for the same period of $30,929.58.

Public School Week Open House Slated Tonight

A special Open House, in conjunction with Texas Public School Week, will be conducted at the Goldthwaite schools Thursday (tonight) beginning at 7 p.m. A general assembly will be held in the high school auditorium, with the Mills County Young Homemakers being in charge of the American Heritage program.

Following the program in the auditorium, officials of the school encourage parents to visit his child's room in order to view work produced by the child. This will also give parents an opportunity to visit with the child's teacher and to discuss any questions relating to the child's school work. Also at this time teaching materials and equipment used by the teachers will be available for the visitors to study.

Officials of the school would also like for everyone to look into the new programs - Special Education and Migrant - now being conducted at the school. Refreshments will be served in the Elementary lunchroom and the High School homemaking department.

The Mills County Young Homemakers invite the public to an American Heritage Program March 6, 1975, at 7:00 in the High School Auditorium. The program is in conjunction with Public School Week. A door prize of $10.00 will be given to the grade in elementary and high school with the most attendance at the program.

The Young Homemakers encourage everyone to visit the schools whether they have children attending or not.

Each Young Homemaker should remember that this program is counted as the monthly meeting and your attendance is important.

Beef Cattle Workshop March 11

A county Beef Cattle Workshop will be held in the meeting room of the Mills County State Bank on March 11, 1975. The workshop will begin at 8:00 p.m. and should conclude by 10:00 p.m.

Dr. Steve Hammack will be on hand to present a major portion of the Program. A film on marketing cattle under present day circumstances will be shown during the Workshop.

The meeting should be both educational and enjoyable. All interested people are encouraged to attend.

Judges Attend Seminar

JUDGES IN 20-HOUR J. P. SEMINAR - Two justices of the peace from Region VIII were among the more than 75 judges who participated in a 20-hour basic Texas Justice of the Peace Training Center seminar conducted Feb. 18-21 in Arlington. Judges from Region VIII participating included (left to right) Judge E. H. Thorne of Goldthwaite and Judge Troy Williams of Priddy.

The training center is headquartered on the Southwest Texas State University campus, where part of the seminar sessions are held.

The training program is funded through the Governor's Office - Criminal Justice Division. There is no charge to the participating counties.

Mills County Churches To Observe World Day Of Prayer

The WORLD DAY OF PRAYER, March 7, 1975, will be held at the Fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church in Goldthwaite at 7:00 p.m. All churches in Mills County are invited to join millions of people in a chain of prayer spanning six continents. This 89th celebration of World Day of Prayer will be observed in a thousand languages and dialects by Protestant, Orthodox, and Catholic Christians in 169 lands.

World Day of Prayer provides an occasion for participation in a nationwide offering which goes into a fund called Intercontinental Mission.

Special speaker for the occasion will be Mr. Jack Speer from Abilene, Texas. Mr. Speer was a missionary for the Church of Christ for seven years in Santiago, Chile. He graduated from Winters High School in 1959 and Abilene Christian College in 1963. He did graduate study in Mission Methods at Queller Theological Seminary, Pasadena, California, and studied Spanish at the Language Institute in Costa Rica. Mr. Speer is a frequent speaker at social, civic and church meetings. He is now employed as Assistant Manager of Abilene Convention and Visitors Bureau of the Abilene Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Speer is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jake Burkes of the Mt. Olive Community.

A reception will be held following the meeting.

Noted Waco Pastor Here For Crusade

Laymen and pastors from seven Mills County churches met Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church to develop plans for a County Crusade this summer.

The date was set for July 7-11, 1975, and the speaker is to be Dr. Peter McLeod, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Waco.

All the churches of the county are invited to have representatives present for the next planning meeting at the Zion Lutheran Church, Priddy, on April 6, at 3:00 p.m.

The conscience of the people is no longer reflected in government. The consideration is given to special interests, lobbyists, and factions - not to the people. Representatives cannot vote their own conscience if they don't "tune in" on them. But it seems our congressmen, Rep. Job Poage of Waco, has this "grassroots" conscience most of the time, and

Plans Made For Annual Summer Baseball Program

The Goldthwaite Jaycees will solicit downtown business firms and other interested individuals for donations to support the Mills County Baseball Program on Friday, March 7th. Jaycee President Blake English states that this fund raising drive will solicit funds solely for the purchase of equipment and the maintenance and upkeep of the baseball park.

Initial planning sessions held by the Jaycees and coaches January 23rd and again February 20th indicate that there is a potential for more than 125 participating in the baseball program this year. The program is shaping up to include three Little League teams from Goldthwaite and one team each from Mullin and Priddy. These teams consist of 9 through 12 year olds, 7 and 8 year olds, and one teenage league team of 13 through 15 year old boys is also planned.

Mr. English states that in the three years that he has been associated with the Jaycees, funds needed to support the Little League program have been raised through sheet shoots, circuses, Little League concession stand proceeds and various other projects. However, for 1975 all funds were used in the addition of the new concession stand and bathrooms for the city-owned ball park. He points out that this was a joint endeavor of the Jaycees and the coaches association. For 1975 these two organizations will have a single goal and a single bank account.

The Jaycees are proud of their accomplishments in connection with the Little League Program. In previous years, numerous improvements have been made, including such items as bleachers, dugouts, and chain link fencing plus the annual purchase of equipment and supplies.

It is evident that the business district supports their local youth in this character building sport, for without this support the whole program would have folded years ago. We hope for a similar show of support through the pocketbook Friday and through the eyes of spectators during the regular season.

Eagle Relays

The Lions-sponsored Eagle Relays are set for Saturday, March 22, and plans and invitations have been sent out to area schools. This year there will be a Junior High division of competition in addition to the High School boys.

Anyone who helped with the track meet in previous years and anyone who would be interested in helping this year is asked to call Coach Auldridge.

Cisco Jr. College Slates Program

The Cisco Junior College Band and Wrangler Belles will present a free assembly program at Goldthwaite High School on Tuesday, March 11, at 11:30 a.m., according to an announcement by the CJC Public Relations Office.

The 80-member performing group of musicians and dancers, who have been featured attractions of two Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parades in New York City, will perform for the student body of Goldthwaite High, and members of the general public are also invited to attend.

Director of the CJC Wrangler Band is Mr. Douglas Fry, and Belles' director is Mrs. Pat Owens. Eris Ritchie, CJC

Public Relations Director, is co-ordinator of the two groups. The three have promised an interesting program which will include a variety of music and dance routines which will last approximately 45 minutes, and they have cordially invited all interested persons to attend the show at the High School.

Swine Production Short Course Set March 17-20 By Priddy FFA

A swine production short-course for adult farmers will be held March 17-20 under the sponsorship of the Priddy High School Vocational Agriculture Department according to Mr. David Casey, Superintendent, and Mr. Melvin Eilers, Jr., teacher of Vocational Agriculture.

Mr. Robert S. Cohen, Swine Production Specialist with the Vocational Agriculture Division of the Texas Education Agency and the Department of Animal Science of Texas A&M University, will be the instructor for the course. He is headquartered at Texas A&M University. Mr. Cohen received a BS degree in Animal Science in 1965, and a MS degree in Animal Nutrition in 1972 from A&M. He has completed course work for a Ph.D. in Animal Nutrition, also from A&M.

He was raised on a swine and beef cattle ranch in southeastern Llano County and was very active in FFA and 4-H programs. During the early 1960's, Mr. Cohen was employed at the A&M Swine Center. Between periods of formal training, he worked for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in Williamson and Eastland Counties and completed active duty with the U.S. Air Force Reserve.

The shortcourse at Priddy is scheduled to begin March 17 at 7 p.m. in the Vocational Ag Building. Other meetings in the series of four will be held March 18, 19 and 20. During the dates the shortcourse is in progress, Mr. Cohen will be available to assist swine producers with individual problems and to provide on-the-farm instruction.

Producers interested in attending the shortcourse should write or call the superintendent of schools, Mr. Casey, or the vocational ag teacher, Mr. Eilers. An enrollment fee will be charged.

Swine Production Short-course certificates will be presented to each swine producer who attends all the training sessions.

Self Culture Club Presented Program On Indians

The Self Culture Club of Goldthwaite met Thursday, Feb. 27, in the cheerful home of Miss Norma Lee Robertson, with Miss Marie Wallace as co-hostess.

Mrs. Clyde Cockrum, club president, presided over the business meeting and reports were heard from standing committee chairpersons. The most important report was from Miss Marie Wallace, co-chairman of the Library. She stated that the new cabinets in the dinette at the Library were being painted and that it would soon be ready for use. She asked for volunteers to help bring up the dishes and silver from the first floor.

Cards were signed to send to ill members.

A delicious refreshment plate of sandwiches, cookies, olives and fruit punch was served to 20 members.

Mrs. Claude Saylor was program leader. She affirmed that Indian Gap, northeast of Goldthwaite, really was a gap in the mountains and that was the reason it was called Indian Gap. It was often used by Indians in early days.

Mrs. Anne Keeler led the prayer, followed by the Lord's Prayer said in unison.

Mrs. Green Mankin gave a very informative talk about Arizona Indians. Mrs. John Patterson spoke about the Indians in New Mexico and Mrs. Fred Reynolds told about early Indians in Texas.

Each member brought relics and objects that the early Indians had left or things the present day and older ones had made. The display was quite interesting and very impressive.

Two Tarleton State College students from Mills County have been placed on the Distinguished Student List. They are Inez Kirkpatrick of Mullin and James K. Blackburn of Goldthwaite.

The Eaglettes fell to the Baird Bearcats 45-49 in a battle for the Bi-District basketball championship. Linda Geeslin led the Eagles with 22 points, Sandra Jordan had 14, Jeanie Stewart 7, and Janan Gray 2.

James Green of Mullin has been awarded an expense-paid trip by Moorman Mfg. Co. to Quincy, Illinois, where their plant is located. He qualified by showing consistent progress in selling and by completing a course on livestock nutrition.

Mills County's 61 retail establishments had $4.3 million in sales in 1963, a decrease of 1 percent from 1958. Retail trade in the county meant jobs for 151 men and women and a yearly payoff of $309 thousand.

Jimmy Ward has purchased Burl Holland's Cafe. Change of ownership took place Monday, March 1. He has also taken over the bus station which is operated in connection with the cafe.

More than 50 Mills County citizens who are interested in better rural roads for Texas, and for this county especially, met last Tuesday in the District Court Room of Judge L. B. Porter. A Mills County Chapter was organized with W. B. Wooster, president; W. A. Hill, vice president; and R. C. Summy, secretary. They will try to promote the necessity for a new source of revenue for rural roads.

Mrs. Thomas J. Hamilton of Star, known to her legion of friends as "Granny Hamilton," is observing a double anniversary. She has been a resident of Mills County for 50 years and next Wednesday she will have her 92nd birthday.

Final rites for Rev. Joseph Davee, who was ordained at Center City in 1888, were conducted Feb. 28 at the First Methodist Church in Goldthwaite. Mr. Davee was 94 this month. His wife, Mary Frances Davee, died Sept. 2, 1947, at the age of 91.

The educational building of the Baptist Church is near completion and certainly makes a nice appearance. It will afford ample room for Sunday School classes and other auxiliary church work.

The state relief board has appointed Ernest Barton, Goldthwaite, terracing assistant to the County Agent for the period March 1 to June 27. He has been a student of the Technological college at Lubbock and is well-qualified.

Mr. Wm. Batchelor was killed last Saturday afternoon by the accidental discharge of his shotgun at the home of his mother, Mrs. S. J. Batchelor of the North Bennett community. The gun went off as he attempted to lift it over a fence he had crossed.

Mrs. J. G. Berry and Mrs. W. E. Miller met with a group of ladies here Thursday afternoon and perfected plans for a Garden Club. A number of ladies have already joined.

The spirit of Hoyt Williams was gently called home last Sunday morning. He suffered a fatal attack of appendicitis. Hoyt was an efficient employee of the bank and was an outstanding young citizen.

Hillview Highlights

WHY ARE FRIDAYS SPECIAL DAVIS - at Hillview? Because HAZEL MOSELEY comes to play the piano!

YOU'LL BE GLAD TO KNOW our dull reporter has been replaced. New ones are all Hillview residents who contribute an article about an activity of the week.

READING - (Reported by Etha Boyd) - Yesterday Velma Summy read the second, third and fourth chapters of Mark for us. Yvonne Bruce comes every week, too, and reads the Bible. It's enjoyable to ask questions, talk and discuss as we want to.

Gladys Cockrum reads all kinds of different stories and articles that are so very interesting.

Right now Willie Mae Cassil is reading to us a book on Revelation by Dr. M. R. DeHam. Some say Revelation is so hard to understand, and he explains it so well.

Then every day when we have time, Geraldine has been reading a book, "Little Britches" for us. It's about a family who moved to Colorado to farm in 1906; and parts of it are so funny - I'd just have to tell you the story. Continued from day to day like that, we look forward to what's going to happen next.

One of the nicest things we have, I think, is our reading program. Reading is wonderful and employs the mind in a good way.

BUS RIDE - (Reported by Alice Waggoner) - Well, now, where did we go? We went to Mullin for one thing; and while we were there went up to the school and watched the boys practicing track. We really took in the sights and had a good time.

SAN SABA CHILDREN - (Reported by Ruby Katties) - They were as cute as pie - a bunch of them all dressed up in costumes. We wondered what they were going to do with those big hats. They put them on the floor and danced around them - Spanish dances. It was really a good program.

SINGING - with the Men's Downtown Bible Class - (Reported by Henry Egger) - Last week we had as large a crowd as we have ever had. Everybody I talked to really enjoyed it. There were people here from all over the county. A bunch of quartets sang - couldn't even tell you who all. I get more joy out of singing than anything else. Thursday night when I told Glenn Nichols I'd lead one song he said, "Well, you'd better. I've got a rope out there in the pickup; and if you didn't lead a song, I was gonna hang you." I'd like to speak a good word was working for John Clay Commission Co. in San Antonio. "Smoot" (nobody knew him by anything else) Trammell brought in a load of cattle and exchanged them for cash and eventually a pretty brown-haired wife. They were married in 1956 and moved to Big Wells where despite a pesky diabetic condition she was able to handle the appointment as Postmaster in 1962.

The Story Of A Brave Postmistress

Editor's Note: The following story appeared in the November issue of the Lone Star newspaper and is about a former San Saba girl by the name of Rosale Trammell and the Postmaster at Big Wells 1962-1974.

Raindrops began splattering on her head at Christmas time 1965. While she decorated her tree she was hit by a massive hemorrhage behind her right eye. Next morning she could hardly see from the eye and she eventually lost sight in it completely. A trip to Boston's famed Joslyn Clinic was a disappointment and she was told to prepare herself to lose the other eye as well.

Six months later, in July, it came to pass. The left eye was affected. Rosale had to stop driving her car. A month later she was back in Boston where a new laser beam technique was tried. Again, disappointment. She was given the bad news and told to try to adjust her life to that of a blind person.

She spelled out the emotional trauma to the unit at the hospital this way: "It was awfully hard to accept. My biggest concern was that I would have to lose my job."

According to "Smoot" she didn't sit around feeling sorry for herself. The first thing she did was to contact the State Commission for the Blind in San Antonio. A counselor came and brought things to help a blind person. In nine months (she said they told her she had set some kind of record) she had mastered Braille.

The regional post office in Dallas learned of her plight and director B. M. Myers visited her and helped her continue working for a few months in order to satisfy requirements for disability.

"Even though I couldn't see, I learned to do just about everything but distribute the mail. I supervised and worked the window."

"The first day Mr. Smith came I told him I wanted a dog. He said he thought I could not get one because I hadn't been blind long enough. But I called the seeing eye organization in New Jersey and got my name on the list. Then one day not long after they called me and said I could come up.

So I beat it on up there and they gave me a beautiful German Shepard named Jilda. After a few days of training we came back home together."

Back in Big Wells, Rosale and Jilda became a common sight. "We would walk three to four miles a day. Nobody had to take me a single place." Meanwhile back at the regional office, officials were having second thoughts about retiring Mrs. Trammell.

She could not read the mail but there was little else she couldn't or wouldn't do. She knew more about Post Office matters than anyone around and the idea grew that it would be tragic to lose this competent person who wanted so very much to continue working. So the idea of retirement was abandoned.

So proficient did she become that in 1967 she was honored by the Dallas Post Office Region as its "Outstanding Handicapped Person." Later she was flown to Washington where she was honored with a special luncheon given by the Postmaster General.

"It was the most exciting experience of my life -- for pleasure."

She had whipped her blindness but another nightmarish problem appeared. Her diabetic condition was taking another toll in kidney function. A trip through a San Antonio medical clinic showed marked renal failure and she was told she would have to go on the machine (kidney dialysis whereby the patient's blood is purified mechanically -- a four to six hour operation).

"When I was back in Big Wells I read about a Dialyzed man who had to be Dialyzed two and three times a week. I told myself I would never torture myself with such commotion. She threw back her head and laughed, "then one day there I was on the machine sitting right across from him and darned glad to be there."

The spirit of Rosale Trammell would not permit such restrictive regiment. Early she had insisted on a seeing dog. Now she impatiently inquired about a transplanted kidney.

In August 1973, doctors sent her to University of Minnesota hospital, one of the few places where kidneys are transplanted in diabetic patients.

There she was tested, tissue typed and accepted as a patient. She was advised to continue dialysis for four to five months and told that she would be called when a cadaver kidney was available.

In January 1974 she was admitted to Santa Rosa as an inpatient. With kidneys completely shut down, her life was sustained by the machine and the technologists who supervised the dialysis.

Last March her condition worsened to the point where doctors removed both kidneys and her spleen.

"I prayed, lordy how I prayed," she said.

About 10 p.m. on June 6 the long awaited call came. The voice from Minnesota said they had a kidney and might be suitable. She should have herself dialyzed and catch a plane immediately. She said her Santa Rosa doctors had her in perfect shape for the transplant.

At Minneapolis they told her there was still a chance the tissue wouldn't match. "I prayed and prayed some more," she said.

The tissue did match and at 5 p.m. she was wheeled into surgery. They didn't finish until 1 a.m. on Saturday June 8 -- Rosale Trammell's 39th birthday. Her precious birthday present -- a healthy functioning kidney from the body of a deceased person whom she would never be able to thank personally.

The days following were anxious ones. The kidney refused to function effectively. "I promised God that if I could get well I would do all I could to help others." On the fifth day after surgery the kidney began to function beautifully and has been ever since.

She returned to San Antonio in July for final recuperation before going home the last part of July. At Big Wells things were not entirely the same. She had been disability retired from her Postmaster job and someone important to her was not there to welcome her home.

The faithful dog who had helped her whip blindness had died. Ironically the final diagnosis by the veterinarian was listed as uremia-kidney failure.

On October 7, 1974, Rosale's husband died of a heart attack, age 46. "Smoot" was buried Oct. 9, survived by Rosale and daughter Susan.

This brave girl's financial means have been depleted through many years of heart-break. If anyone would like to help her financially, please mail checks payable to Rosale Trammell, 500 South 5th St., Carrizo Springs, Tx. 78834.

Mrs. John Burkett and Mrs. Mildred Jones of Goldthwaite are Mrs. Trammell's sisters. Her mother is Mrs. Della Means who lives in San Saba.

What do you do when life says you are anything but a lemon? Rosale Trammell of Big Wells whips up a quick lemonade. That's the action of the nurses and technologists of the Santa Rosa Center who bade her a fond good-bye last July to an extraordinary patient, dressed in a cheery red dress and with only a slight smile in her cheeks to show she was on her way back to small southwest Texas.

These people are the best in the west," she repeated solemnly as she was guided by her husband "Smoot" and 15-year-old daughter, Susan, to the floor elevator. She returned to the staff of the Santa Rosa Hemodialysis unit.

She returned the compliment insisting that Rosale be one of the most courageous, spunkiest ladies ever known to do battle with the forces of medical dragons. Inspiring story begins when she was Rosale, a San Saba girl, who

Former Mullin Resident Recognized As Outstanding Citizen

Among the Outstanding Citizens of the Littlefield Community who were recently honored during the annual Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture Banquet was Hubert Henry. Mr. Henry is a former resident of the Mullin community, having graduated from Mullin High School.

Last year's recipient of the award presented Hubert as the "Man of the Year." "It gives me great pleasure to present the "Man of the Year" award, first because he is a very deserving individual, and second because he means a great deal to me. In the opinion of many he is a candidate for the award every year. "He has devoted more of his time, efforts and energy to the service of his fellow man than any individual in Littlefield, he shows concern for the health and welfare of his neighbors through his acts and deeds. He has spent countless hours aiding and comforting the sick. He is always willing to lend a helping hand. For years he has given his time to all of the various fund raising campaigns for worthy causes not only in Littlefield and his community, but the entire county. No job is too large or too small for him and he tackles each one with enthusiasm. "He has also served the community through the Lions Club of which he is a member and is past president. "He has served the young people of our school by being an avid band booster and serving as president of that organization for two years. For his services to the school he was honored by the high school students by being the recipient of the school's Liaison Award. "He organized the Lamb's Co. Chapter of the Cancer Society and also served as chairman, was district director of the Caprock Council, Girl Scouts of America, chairman of Littlefield Festivities Days; he is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and past director, member of the Friends of the Library, and has been very instrumental in helping with the ground work on the new Memorial Library. "He is a member of Water, Inc., and is currently serving on their membership drive. He spent five years in the military during World War II, serving both in the Army and Air Force and part of those five years was spent in India. "He is a member of the Littlefield Masonic Lodge and Lubbock Scottish Rite bodies. "He is married, has one daughter, is a graduate of Texas Tech, and a member of the First Baptist Church. He is a life insurance agent and has been in business and lived in Littlefield for 26 years. "I think you will all agree that he is a worthy and outstanding citizen."

INVESTMENTS HURT - State investments in stock, like those of individuals, are taking a beating, at least on paper.

If state-owned stocks in the major Texas investment funds had to be dumped at today's market values, losses could be half a billion dollars. However, the officials who manage these funds emphasize they are under no pressure to cash in the chips, and that they will ride out the market plunge without ill effects overall.

"HAPPENINGS"

Residents having birthdays in the month of February were honored at a party by the Methodist ladies of Star. Honorees included Jose Duncan, Brian Smith, Laila Burney, Roxie Knight and Ada Long.

While refreshments were being served, Eulabel Sheldon entertained the group at the piano and with readings of several poems.

Along with Mrs. Sheldon, Mrs. Iva P. Head, Mrs. Lula Casbeer, Mrs. Rene Boykin, Mrs. Coella Clary and Mrs. Maxine McCasland served as hostesses for the event.

Several of our residents enjoyed an impromptu ride on the new bus recently. Since one of our group had to go to Mullin on business, we just went along for a delightful ride.

Sunday services were provided by the Church of Christ and the Sunday School lesson was brought to us by John Davidson. Camille Bryant is very faithful every Sunday in singing as pianist.

Monday at the Movies was enjoyed by a large group. Beavers, besides running the reel, served refreshments popcorn and punch.

Our quiz program is a very popular feature in our home as about 20 were in attendance last week.

Another popular program last week was a group of Mexican Hat Dancers, students of Pat Ynostrosa. We are looking forward to a return visit by the girls.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Nibbled by a Horse

Pupils in a suburban school ten walked to a nearby pasture where they would starve behind the fence and commune with horses. One day, one of the boys reached over the fence and nibbled a little boy on the ear.

In short order, the boy's parents aimed a damage suit at the owner of the pasture.

"Our son was outside the fence doing nothing wrong," they pleaded out in a court hearing. The defendant should have warned children that the animal was dangerous."

But they offered no evidence to prove that the horse had ever behaved before. Denying the claim, the court said the boy was entitled to assume there was reason to think otherwise—that the horse would hurt anybody.

Horses, because of their naturally peaceable disposition generally do get this "benefit of doubt." But, of course, there are circumstances in which a horse owner can and should foresee trouble.

Thus, the proprietor of a stable was held liable for allowing an inexperienced rider to groom a horse known to be temperamental. The court said the time that ensued could have been seen and prevented by a reasonable exercise of caution by the proprietor.

Then too, the law will take account of the behavior of the animal as well. He himself is expected to take elementary precautions to his own safety.

As one judge remarked: "That horses are not especially intelligent, that they are startled, that their principal mode of defense is to kick, have for centuries been among the simple facts of life. People who approach horses from the rear, without making their presence known, very apt to be kicked."

TOURISM STILL HEALTHY - There were fewer tourists in 1974, but those who stayed longer, spent more and drove over Texas slightly less extensively.

Only 12 of 50 reported tourist attractions actually had more business last year than the year before.

More Texans vacationing within their home state in 1974, which helped offset the reduced number of outside state visitors.

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

Imagine getting a letter indicating that you and your family might be heirs to the estate of a distant relative never even knew existed! Sounds like the basis for a lawsuit or novel but it could be the basis for a consumer complaint instead.

That's because in many cases, if you receive a stimulus letter, you're far more likely to lose money than to gain it.

Some companies sending out mass mailings are specialists in what are called "misdirected" schemes. Reports received by the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division indicate growing problems with these schemes in other states.

Most of them involve the company's mailing letters away from the country to persons with common surnames such as Smith, Jones, Brown, Wilder, or Johnson.

The letters tell recipients that they could be heirs to money being held unclaimed in bank accounts - money which has been deposited by someone with the same surname as theirs.

Along with this initial contact letter comes an agreement entitling the company to finder's fee if the money is recovered by the person. In order for the company to research and process the claim, however, the recipient must send $10 to $20 along with the agreement.

The consumer complaints that have arisen in other states indicate that when the recipient turns the agreement and fee usually receives very little or no money.

What he gets often amounts to the name and last known address of the bank depositor, shown on the bank's records. Sometimes information is included on how to file a claim in the account in the state in which the bank is located. Our consumer protection attorneys point out, however, that filing such a claim would be of little value unless the consumer could establish his right to the money.

Texas and other states have "escheat" laws which apply to unclaimed bank accounts, other personal property, and real property. "Escheat" is the process by which real and personal property pass to the custody of the state when there is no other valid claim.

According to Texas law, if a person dies without a will and has no heirs, or is absent seven years and is believed dead, his property passes to the people of Texas. The State of Texas is very aggressive in its efforts to see that people who are entitled to property get it, however.

The escheat process as applied to bank accounts works in the following way:

When a bank determines an account has been inactive for seven years, it must report the property to the State Treasurer. Sixty days after such a report is received, the Treasurer mails a notice to the sheriff of the county in which the bank is located, and the notice is posted in the county courthouse for 30 days.

In 120 days after filing of the report, notice of abandoned property must be published in a newspaper in the county. Persons claiming it can then present proof of the claim to the bank within 60 days. If the property is not claimed after another 90 days have passed, only then is it considered permanently abandoned and escheated to the state. Any time after the property passes to the custody of the State, a person with a valid claim can recover it. The State Treasurer and the Attorney General have joint responsibility for establishing the validity of such claims.

The State Treasurer and our attorneys suggest that any person who believes he has a claim to an abandoned bank account first write the bank to find out if it has been escheated to the state. If it has, contact the State Treasurer, supply the name of the bank and the city in which it's located, and indicate that a claim is to be made.

The Treasurer will send the proper forms to be filled out, notarized, and returned. If the Treasurer and the Attorney General determine the claim is a valid one, payment will be made to the claimant by the state.

If you have a consumer complaint about a missing heir scheme contact the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division, your county or district attorney, or the local Better Business Bureau. If you need further information about claiming escheated property, contact the State Treasurer.

Mullin Community News

By: Lorene Holland

Funeral services were conducted at Bangs last Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Homer Schulze. Mrs. Schulze was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Black of Mullin. She has one brother, Raymond Black, who lives in Mullin. She had been ill for a long time, suffering from cancer. Interment was at the cemetery in Bangs.

Graveside services were conducted at the cemetery in Mullin Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Lum (Cora) White of Alvarado. She was a former Mullin lady and is well known here.

Also, graveside services were conducted Thursday afternoon at the cemetery in Mullin for Mrs. Claude Russell. She also at one time lived in Mullin and is well known by some of the older people here.

Mrs. Beatrice Ethridge is visiting at Mt. Belvieu with her daughter Betty and family.

Mrs. Ruth Tullios visited from Wednesday until Saturday in Brownwood with her sister Addie Hart.

Mr. Floyd Moody underwent major surgery at a Temple hospital last Thursday. At this time his condition is critical. Mr. and Mrs. Moody are former Mullin people and are well known in this area. Their home is in Comanche.

The fish are biting now so they tell me. I enjoyed a fish dinner in the home of Mrs. Fred Mosler a day last week. They were delicious black bass. Just one of them was about all I could eat. They were a nice size.

Mrs. Mosler is in Dallas at this time where her youngest son, Wayne, is to undergo back surgery at Baylor Hospital. Wayne injured his back in a fall several years ago. He has had surgery before. These old backs can really give trouble. When I see someone that says their back never hurts them I look at them in complete amazement.

Mrs. Daisy Wrinkle of Comanche spent the weekend here with her friend, Mrs. John Plummer.

If you meant to go to the Singing at Ridge Sunday and didn't, you missed a good one. There were lots of singers there and a big crowd to listen. It was one of the best singings I've attended in a long time - if not THE best.

The Rev. Ernest Roper will enter the Brownwood hospital this week. He is to undergo surgery while there.

A number of teachers from Mullin attended a seminar at Evant Monday. The students had a happy Monday out of school!

at least he seeks after it. He says in this week's newsletter:

"Although the President and the Democratic leadership have both advocated tremendous tax reductions and refunds, I have been unable to understand how this action was going to solve our problem of inflation. True, it will put some money in circulation which should fight the recession, but for every dollar that goes into circulation as a result of tax refund, the government must either borrow a dollar, which must come out of existing expendable funds of the people; or the Federal Reserve must simply issue money, which will directly increase inflation. We all pay taxes and we would all like to see the tax burden reduced, but this refund doesn't mean that taxes will be reduced - it merely means they are postponed. And, when they are postponed, the government will pay interest on that much larger debt.

"I know that it is extremely difficult to get people to understand that they may not be helping themselves when they grab any kind of tax reduction scheme that is offered them; but the brutal facts of life are that "there is no free lunch." And, there is no way whereby we can have all of the high-ways, all of the social services, all of the medical assistance, all of the public housing, all of the military protection, all of the food stamps, all of the educational aids, and all of the thousand and one other services that the Federal government gives, without paying the bill in taxes. We can shift the taxes from local to the Federal government. We can postpone the taxes (and pay two or three times the original amount in interest); but, we just can't avoid ultimately paying for what we get from government."
