

Water Under The Bridge
by G.F.B.

The paths of many people lead to the Eagle Office in beautiful downtown Goldthwaite. And, as many paths that cross here, there are also as many stories, anecdotes and personalities.

The past few days has witnessed a surprising number of warm-hearted, unusual people in our office, adding a little flavor to the day in the life of newspaper people.

Mr. Eddie Brown, a Mills Countyman by birth and who spent his young manhood in Goldthwaite in the early 1900's, came by a few days ago and related to us the story of how the Eagle office building was constructed. It is not made of native rock as many other buildings of that day were done. The walls were poured solid concrete, and all the "road" was hauled around in wheelbarrows and buckets.

The Eagle building is an 80' by 30' building, and after some seventy-odd years it's still solid as the day it was built, or maybe we should say "poured".

You can't really appreciate older buildings and architecture until you take a close look at it. The construction of our building took close to two months to complete, Mr. Brown said.

And, a couple of days later we had the pleasure of conversing with Lewis L. Cox, another fine Mills County boy who has made his mark in the world. Mr. Cox lives in Terrell, Texas, and visits here occasionally to renew old friendships and sample the attitudes of newcomers.

He had a particular reason for coming this day - to tell about his fond memory of "Uncle" John T. Starks, of the days when Rock Springs was a nice little community in Mills County.

"Uncle John" told Lewis when the latter was a small boy that the best lesson to learn early in life was "when you see trouble a-brewin', be busy and don't take sides either way." Pretty good philosophy, even by today's sophisticated standards.

Lewis remembers one time later when someone asked the successful Mr. Starks why he didn't own more land and spread out. Starks replied, "I could have owned all of Big Valley, but I wouldn't have any neighbors and anyway, I'm happy with what I have."

"And besides," Uncle John added, "I don't have to work; I've got all my post holes dug."

Mr. Cox, well in his 80's, still games and trains horses for his living. And he looks like he never took anything that wasn't his by way of work, and honest work at that.

We would call the whole "water" this week a loss without a word of encouragement for the Goldthwaite Eagle football team.

Their (and I do mean the whole team and coaching staff) game with San Saba ended in defeat, but it showed that they could do battle effectively with much bigger and more experienced men; and when the time is right our Eagles are going to be great.

The season has just begun, and we see that we are going to win a lot of games this year. So, good luck, Eagles!

Football Ticket Price Change

Due to a meeting of District 10A UIL officials held Wednesday night, Sept. 3, there has been a change in the price of adult football tickets. Instead of $1.75 as previously stated, adult tickets will be $2.00 at the gate. Student tickets will still sell for $1.00.

The price change also affects Jr. High games. All student tickets will be 75c, instead of 50c. Adult tickets remain at $1.00.

The change does not include the reserved seat tickets which are on sale at Cattleman's Production Credit. They are $8.75 ($1.75 per ticket). If you wish to get the season tickets at the overall lower price, do so right away. They will remain on sale until Friday, Sept. 12, at noon.

That left eight year old Andrew and his older sister, Annie, ten years of age. The Indians seized them and drove them off with the oxen, stolen horses, and what possessions of the Jacksons they wanted.

Close to nightfall, a company of Texas Rangers, including Frank Gholson, J. S. Cherrer and T. J. Priddy, were riding close by, and seeing the white canvas top of the wagon setting on the groundward forward to investigate. There they rode upon this ghastly sight. Shortly thereafter the Kirkpatricks arrived and identified the family.

The Rangers followed the Indians and small footprints for two days, and finally one of the Rangers saw a tiny face with wide frightened eyes peering from some hanging vines. The Indians had become scared

The Way It Was - Killing Of The Mose Jackson Family

Submitted by Mrs. Hollis Blackwell

Mr. and Mrs. Mose Jackson and family moved to Brown County (later Mills County) a short time before 1858, and settled on a tract of land in Jackson Springs Community, now belonging to Albert Tully. Mose Jackson was a fearless man, and had done much exploring of the Pecan Bayou country, knowing it well.

It was in the late fall, and the Jacksons knew the pecans would be falling, so they wrote their friends, the Kirkpatricks in the Mullin area, to meet them on the Bayou at a designated crossing to gather pecans for the winter's supply and to do some fishing. They were looking forward to a big fish-fry supper, something special in the early days, as most people lived too far from the rivers to drive their ox-drawn wagons just to fish.

On the morning of departure, everyone at the Jackson house was up early, excited and happy in anticipation of the outing. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson and four of their children went along, leaving their two older sons home to tend the chores. The wagon was packed with essentials for spending the night, food cooked especially for the occasion, and fishing equipment.

When they heard shots in the distance and abandoned the children.

The Jacksons were buried the next morning on the river bank, close to the spot where they planned to have the picnic with such excitement and anticipation just the day before.

Mr. Jackson, earlier in the year, had driven his herd of cattle to market and returned with a large sum of gold which he buried in a spot known only to himself and his eighteen year old daughter.

Mr. Albert Tully states that people have dug for years in every likely spot around the house site, but no gold has ever been found.

The children were brought up by relatives in Roundrock, but it is said that the little boy, Andrew, never recovered from this horrifying experience.

Face Hamilton Friday

Eagles Bow To San Saba, 34-15

A stands-full crowd of hot and humid fans saw the Goldthwaite Eagles draw first blood last Friday night only to fall in the end to the San Saba Armadillos 34-15.

The Eagles took the opening kickoff on a 62-yard drive for a touchdown. Halfback Byron Landrum completed the drive with a 19-yard run around right end for the tally. David Miller booted the point after.

The jubilation in the stands on the part of Eagle supporters was short-lived however, as the 'Dillos came out and boomed for a 57-yard touchdown on the first play from scrimmage. Halfback Steve Martin was credited with the run. The PAT was good, tying the score.

Either this play took the wind out of the Eagles' sails or the hot weather was too much for them, as they didn't amount to any more impressive offense until the waning seconds of the half. The Eagles, trailing 14-7, were on the move after taking a 'Dillo punt on the Eagle 34-yard line. A series of fine plays, capped by a nifty screen pass from QB Miller to halfback Tim Spradley, which went for 39 yards, set the Eagles with first and ten on the San Saba 22-yard line. Landrum picked up eight on a pitch and then Miller tried a flat pass to the right that was picked off by corner-back Louis Cisneroz who raced all the way, 95 yards, for the 'Dillos' third tally of the evening. The clock ran out on the return of the interception.

So, what could have been a tie ballgame at the half ended up spelling disaster for the Eagles.

The Eagles came back a little flat in the third quarter, allowing the 'Dillos two more TD's in the third stanza, making it 34-7 at the beginning of the fourth.

The Eagles' final effort for the night came on a beautifully executed double-reverse from 31 yards out. The run was via Spradley, who simply outdistanced the 'Dillo defender. A quick-pitch to Landrum amounted to the two extra points, leaving the scoreboard locked-in at 34-15.

The remainder of the game was unfruitful for the Eagles, as a ball-control 'Dillo offense ate up the clock.

Coach Gene Auldridge's Eagles seemed to have a problem with the defense of the run, allowing San Saba over 360 yards rushing in the game, and 22 first downs.

"It was a disappointing game, Friday night. The boys were not ready to play, that's all that can be said about the situation," commented Head Coach Gene Auldridge when asked about the season opener.

"Offensively we were pretty adequate. As far as the defense goes, we didn't make a showing at all."

EAGLES FACE HAMILTON IN HOMETOWN OPENER

Telephone, Water Rates Rise; Gas Hike Pending

The Goldthwaite City Council met in regular session Monday night and heard a lengthy agenda, headed up by the passage of two rate increases to Goldthwaite citizens and the tabling of another.

The third and final reading of the General Telephone Co. rate increase was passed by the council, on a vote of four to one. Councilmen Howard Campbell, Loy Long, James Carter and Jim Smith voted for the increase, while alderman Frank Bridges rescinded.

The telephone rate increase will become effective October 1st with the following rates to be adjusted:

Business phone, present $13.20, new rate $17.75; business extensions, present $1.75, new rate $2.50; residential one-party, present $7.65, new rate $8.75; residential two-party, present $5.65, new rate $6.65; resident extensions, present $1.75, new rate $2.00. Three rates were included in the rate increase this time that were not listed in previous rate cases. PBX trunks are $38.50 per month; key-line systems are now $27.10, and semi-public phones are $19.75 per month.

In the original brochure asking for a raise in income, General was asking for approximately 40 percent more. The rates adopted reflect a compromise agreement with General and the City of Goldthwaite, and reflect approximately 20 percent as increased in operating revenues to General.

The telephone utility had asked for the raise because of overall increases in their cost of doing business and because the cost of borrowing money has risen.

A petition containing 74 names was presented to the council, officially recording a negative voice concerning the rate increase for the phone company. It cited the City's need to seek outside accounting help in deciding whether the telephone rate increase was justified.

Following the presentation of the budget for the coming year by Acting City Manager Dale Allen, the council unanimously approved an increase in the water rates for the City, to be effective with the September 20th reading. The increase will show on customer's bills on November 1st.

Present rates are a minimum of $2.50 for 2,000 gallons, and a charge of 90 cents for each thousand gallons used thereafter. The increased rate will be a minimum of $3.50 for 2500 gallons, and a rate of $1.50 for each thousand gallons used thereafter.

Allen pointed out that the city's water department had lost almost $20,000 in the past two years and that prospects were for the situation to continue unless rates were adjusted.

The City of Goldthwaite pumps water from the Colorado River into off-channel storage tanks and then filters the water and pumps it to town.

In other council matters, the total budget, in excess of $400,000, was approved by the council on a unanimous vote. The budget includes over $280,000 for the electric department.

The council tabled a rate increase proposal for Lone Star Gas Company. Stephen Friedrich of San Saba, local gas representative, was present at the meeting and cited a recent ruling by the Railroad Commission of Texas that gave approval to Lone Star to pass along increases in the cost of gas purchased from Lo-Vaca gathering company. The gas company is asking for no increases in the profit percentage; it is just passing on the increase to Goldthwaite customers, Friedrich pointed out. The rate increase has passed several other Lone Star communities in our area.

The council's reasons for not granting the request was that Lone Star has cancelled all Goldthwaite based service-men. Present service requirements come from Friedrich who lives in San Saba, and new construction comes from a two-man crew in Lampasas.

Friedrich was told that local service was needed and that there was nothing wrong with the way he was handling the service needs personally. A locally-based man could be on top of the situation better and the time between notification and the completion of service calls could be cut considerably with a man living in Goldthwaite.

When Lone Star first established a system for this city, an office with personnel for bookkeeping and customer relations, service men and an appliance store were maintained. At the present time, there are no connections here as listed.

Lone Star will be on the agenda at the next meeting.

In other matters, the council reviewed:

ONE - A raise in the City's share of the retirement pay for workers. An amount equal to about .1 percent of the worker's pay will be added to the fund to give increased benefits.

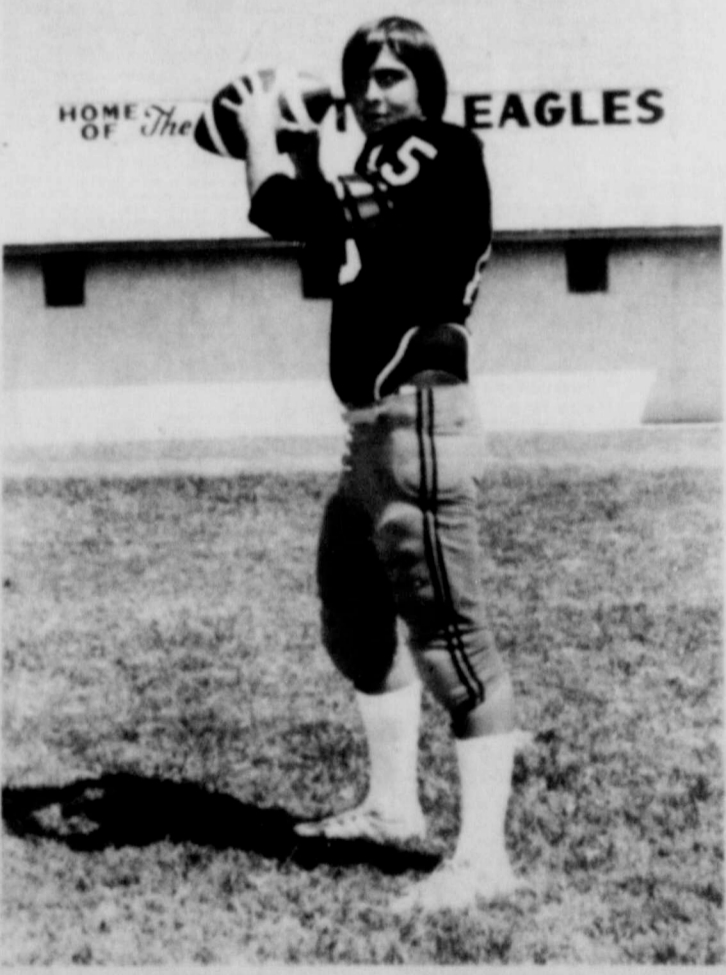

TWO - Heard from John Arthur of the Texas Highway Department concerning a school speed zone and on the red light in downtown Goldthwaite. Arthur said that no school speed zone was necessary and that the cycling time of the red light needs to be changed to avoid prolonged idling of engines. Both propositions were recommended by the council.

THREE - The matter of the sale of the sanitary land fill land that is not needed by the City. About 130 acres will be sold in the near future. The land fill is located out Hann Valley Road about three miles. A survey had just been completed and the method of selling will be discussed at the next meeting of the council.

FOUR - Set the date of September 22 as a special meeting of the council for the purpose of reviewing the application for city manager. To date, the City has received seven applications for the City's top administrative position. Mayor J. D. Harper set the date.

FIVE - Hired a new city secretary to replace Glynn Collier. Mrs. Owen Taylor was selected.

Pamela Hamilton, Charles Miles Exchange Wedding Vows

On Friday, August 29th, Miss Pamela Hamilton and Charles Miles were joined in holy matrimony. The wedding was held in the First Baptist Church of Goldthwaite. The pastor officiating the ceremony was David Crosby, assistant pastor of Gladewater Baptist Church. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jack R. Hamilton of Star and Mr. and Mrs. Jude Miles of Star. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a V-necked dress of satin covered with chiffon and trimmed with lace. A lace covered yolk encircled her waist. The short puff sleeves were of chiffon, also trimmed in lace. Her veil, which was also her train, was made of white netting edged with wide lace. On the lace were pearls and small rhinestones. The headpiece was a simple headband covered with lace. Her bouquet of carnations had a green cymbidian orchid in the center.

Mrs. Nathan Carothers, the pianist, played "We've Just Begun" and "The Lord's Prayer" while Tom Crosby sang. She played "Wedding Prayer", "The Twelfth of Never", "Love Theme to Romeo and Juliet", and others as guests were being seated. The maid of honor was Sherry Jones of Star. Other bridesmaids were Dianne Clary of Star and Janet Crosby of Gladewater. Both are sisters of the bride. Their dresses were of blue and green dotted swiss. They carried white satin and lace fans with blue and green carnations on them. Their hats had blue and green satin ribbon around them with lace on the ribbon. Joy Nell Hamilton, also a sister of the bride, wore a long blue dress and carried a basket of blue and green carnations. Harold Miles, brother of the groom, served as the groom's best man, Barry Miles, also a brother, and Ronnie McMillan were groomsmen. Ushers were

James Woodson Clary and Randall Miles, brother of the groom. Candles were lighted by Jack and Bill Hamilton, brothers of the bride. The church altar was decorated with two white candelabras entwined with greenery. Two fern trees added to the greenery, and two arrangements of gladiolus balanced the setting. A table covered with a white sheer table cloth held a family bible and the unity candles. The reception was held in the banquet room of the church. The table was covered in white with an arrangement of pale blue carnations as the centerpiece. The cake was all white with blue and green flowers. It was topped with green tinted wedding bells. The cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Gerry Whitlock. The girls serving at the reception were Teresa Newton, Linda Griffin, Sandy Jones and Karen Horton. Geri Whitlock registered the guests. The bride wore a pleated white skirt and scooped neck blue top with a floral print blouse as her going-away dress. Rehearsal dinner was held August 28th in the banquet room of the Mills County Bank. The dinner was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Elam Miles and Mr. and Mrs. Danny Miles.

Food Stamp Fraud

WASHINGTON—Scandalously loose federal regulations are taking food from the mouths of the needy and giving it, at taxpayers' expense, to the undeserving.

The federal food stamp program has degenerated into a gigantic boondoggle. What began 10 years ago as a modest federal project funded at $40 million has mushroomed into a fiscal monster that will devour $5 billion of the taxpayers' money this year.

Use of food stamps has increased from one of every 439 Americans in 1965 to one of every 13 Americans today, and the growth of the program is likely to be even more astronomical in the future. Under present regulations, one of every four Americans is eligible for food stamps, and that could easily grow to one of every three Americans.

Under present regulations:
—Some able-bodied persons who do not want to work can get food stamps;
—Owners of jewelry, furs and luxury appliances can get food stamps;
—Minor children can get food stamps without parental consent or control.

Enough is enough. It is time to put a halt to the flagrant abuses of the food stamp program.

I have joined with Sen. James Buckley (R-N.Y.) and nearly 70 other members of the Senate and House in sponsoring the National Food Stamp Reform Act. Our bill would save taxpayers at least $2 billion each year, while at the same time increasing benefits to genuinely needy food stamp recipients by as much as 29 percent. The National Food Stamp Reform Act contains 41 separate provisions to reduce the overall cost of the program by eliminating fraud and abuse and by redefining eligibility requirements.

Administration of the food stamp program would be transferred from the Department of Agriculture to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare in order to eliminate costly administrative duplication in the welfare system.

Among the reforms the bill would make are:

—Use of federal government indices to set cut-off points for food stamp eligibility;
—Elimination of the present complicated system of income deductions which makes it possible for families making as much as $20,000 a year to be eligible for food stamps;

—Denial of food stamp eligibility to able bodied persons without small children who are not willing to work, and —Establishment of accurate monthly reviews to determine whether a food stamp recipient should retain his eligibility.

At the same time, the National Food Stamp Reform Act would significantly expand nutritional assistance. Millions of poor people would benefit directly. The food stamp allotment of each recipient would be immediately increased by 29 percent, and the elderly, who are least able to defend their pocketbooks from the ravages of inflation, would be given special consideration.

Center City News

BY: Mrs. Joe Green

This is Blue Monday night. I will try to send in some news from our city.

We are sure needing rain. It's so hot and dry. And they are working on the highway out this way. That doesn't help either.

Next Friday night the Baptist Church will have a weekend revival. Everyone has an invitation to attend.

Last weekend our children, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Harris and children, visited with us.

Kayvon Coffman and children and Merlene Raynor and daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Coffman and Drou and Mrs. Hosa Head.

Herbert Coffman visited with us Friday evening. He said Dennis was in Korea. Here is hoping he won't have to stay too long.

Oleta, Kenneth and Doron Coffman visited with us one day last week. Other who visited were Walter Frank and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Register. We appreciate these visits very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. Karnes also visited with us.

Lucille Welch has been so nice to us, bringing food which we appreciate so much. Also, Mrs. Walter Frank, Mrs. Z. Karnes, Mrs. Walter Tubbs, Mrs. Oleta Coffman, and Mrs. Earlene Knight and Mrs. Oleta Coffman. We appreciate all of our neighbors who have been so thoughtful.

John Knight came to see us a few days ago. Joe and John both were in M. D. Anderson Hospital at Houston. John looks good. We were sure proud to see him.

Notice on employee bulletin board: "In case of fire, flee the building with same reckless abandon that occurs at quitting time."

Husband: "Where is all grocery money going to give you?"
Wife: "Turn sideways look in the mirror."

Teacher: "With the stroke of his brush, the painter could change a smiling face to a frowning one."
Small boy: "That's what so can my mother."

Bible Facts

A Bible proverb reminds that "The ants are a people that are strong, yet they prepare their meat in summer."

"From the Bible comes the enduring words about moderation: 'Give me neither poverty nor riches, feed me with food and I will not be full, deny me and I will not lack, for I will not deny thee, and say, Who is my Lord?' or lest I be poor, and take the name of my God in vain."

The dentist told the middle-aged oilman that his teeth were in perfect condition. The oilman replied, "Drill away I feel lucky today."

Hubbard: "Where is all grocery money going to give you?"
Wife: "Turn sideways look in the mirror."

Teacher: "With the stroke of his brush, the painter could change a smiling face to a frowning one."
Small boy: "That's what so can my mother."

It's time your family stopped being just "Smith Harold" in the telephone directory.

The new edition of your telephone directory is going to press soon. If you have only a single listing, a lot of people are going to have trouble looking up other members of your family. Certainly, your wife deserves her own listing. And giving a teen-ager a place in the directory is a nice way of saying "You're growing up." To add or change a listing just call our business office. They can tell you how little extra an additional listing will cost. It's as easy as picking up the phone.

Holley Chevrolet Company

In this day and age when every car maker has such a wide selection of models to choose from, it is really difficult for you to decide where to go for a new car. All the companies advertise that their cars are the best, but who is to say which car really is. Obviously all the cars on the market today must have their good points or they wouldn't have survived the ups and downs of the business. We therefore can conclude that the real difference in buying a car is the dealer you buy it from.

The ideal dealer to buy a car from offers a fair price on the new unit as well as an honest dollar for the car you trade in. However, the most important factor is the service that you receive on your new car year after year.

Extension Highlights

By Judy Beavers
Mills Co. Extension Agent

Freezing main dishes can mean menu variety and provide appetizing, nutritious foods on busy days.

Older children can help by placing frozen casseroles in the oven when they get home from school, and dinner will be ready when parents come in from work.

"For freezing main dish meals, prepare the food in the usual way, and cook it until almost done.

Remember to season lightly, because spices such as pepper and cloves become strong in flavor during freezing. Then, just before serving, add more seasonings if they are desired."

To freeze, cook food quickly and wrap it in moisture-vapor-proof material such as freezer paper or heavy aluminum foil.

In baking combination main dishes for freezing, use pans lined with aluminum foil, allowing extra wrap that will fold over the top later.

After baking, because hot food must be cooled quickly for freezing purposes, let it stand at room temperature 30 minutes. Then complete the wrap immediately, label, and freeze at 0 degrees F. or below.

Cooling this food quickly stops the cooking, retards bacteria growth, and helps retain food color, flavor and texture.

Later when ready to heat the food, remove wrappings from the package and place food in the oven in the original pan. Bake until heated throughout.

Of course, homemakers can save even more time if they cook enough for several meals.

This recipe for lasagna serves 24 and is excellent for freezing.

LASAGNA
2 1/2 lbs. ground lean beef
1 cup chopped onion
1/2 tsp. garlic powder
4 tps. salt
1/2 tsp. red pepper, crushed
1 tbs. oregano
3 tbs. parsley flakes
3 cans, 6 ozs. each, tomato paste
3 cans, 8 ozs. each, tomato sauce
2 1/2 cups hot water
3 lbs. cottage cheese, cream style
18 (about 1 lb. uncooked) lasagna noodles, cooked
3 cups or 12 ozs. process cheddar cheese, shredded
1/2 cup Parmesan cheese

Line 8 X 8 inch baking pans with heat-resistant freezer wrap. Allow enough extra wrap to fold over top. Use one pan for each six servings or one-fourth of the recipe. Do not line pans for food to be served without freezing. Crumble beef, cook until lightly browned. Stir in onion, cook until onion is tender. Drain off fat. Stir in seasonings, tomato paste, tomato sauce and water. Simmer for five minutes, stirring occasionally.

In each pan spread a layer of meat mixture. Add a layer each of noodles, meat mixture, cottage cheese, process cheese and Parmesan cheese. Repeat layers until all ingredients are used.

To Serve Without Freezing - Preheat oven to 400 degrees F. (350). Bake 30 minutes or until sauce bubbles at edges.

To Freeze - Fold and seal wrapping. Label and freeze immediately.

To Heat Frozen Food - Remove freezer wrap. Place food in baking pan. Bake 1 1/4 hours or until sauce bubbles at edges and center is hot.

Calories per serving - About 250.

Variation - Italian Lasagna, use ricotta cheese in place of cottage cheese and mozzarella cheese in place of process cheddar cheese. About 280 calories per serving.

Have you checked the prices recently?

Many food prices continue to increase due to rising production, labor and transportation costs, but one vegetable, the potato, has remained almost stable at wholesale price levels.

These stable prices reflect stable potato supplies and demand. Current wholesale prices of potatoes at most markets in this region are about the same as a year ago.

Most shipments to local markets are coming from West Texas, Colorado and Minnesota where harvesting of the summer potato crop is in full swing.

However, market reporters expect shipments from the fall potato crop to start moving in a few weeks. These are the long-keeping potatoes, and the main source of supplies throughout the fall and winter.

Potatoes offer you a high return in food value for the money spent. One medium-size potato can supply as much as one-fifth of vitamin C recommended for the daily diet, worthwhile amounts of thiamine and niacin, two important B vitamins and such minerals as iron, phosphorus and potassium.

When you shop for potatoes, you will find that the best quality potatoes are firm, smooth and well shaped, free from cuts, blemishes and decay. However, it is usually impossible to predict cooking quality from the appearance of potatoes. Except for potatoes labeled as "bakers", cooking quality is seldom indicated on potato labels.

New potatoes are better than mature potatoes in most frozen dishes. Mature potatoes tend to disintegrate or become watery when boiled and then frozen, explains Sally Springer, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Homemaking I FHA Chapter Organized

The Homemaking I FHA Chapter had a class meeting recently and elected their 1975-76 officers. They are: president, Darla Watson; vice president, Peggy Long; and Edna Davis, secretary. The program chairman is Shelley Covington.

The group's first program was given by Judy Hillman, September 8, on child care. Some of the things she demonstrated were how to test a baby's reflexes, how to feed, hold, bathe and burp a baby. In the coming months the class will have other programs. One of these will be a hair demonstration, on how to fix hair attractively, by Wanda Allen. This program will be some time next month.

We are still hot and dry, and no rain in sight.

We visited Mae Egger at the rest home in Goldthwaite last week. She seems to be doing good; at least she was in good spirits.

Mr. and Mrs. Lehman Teal, Sr. of Brownwood visited us Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Henry of Goldthwaite, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Cox of Helton, and Jess Whittley of Goldthwaite visited us Sunday afternoon.

A. R. Rowlett had supper with his children, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Rowlett, at Brownwood Thursday night.

Marvin Lindsey and Robel of Goldthwaite had dinner with us Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Phillips and Junior of Goldthwaite had dinner with us Sunday.

We visited my Uncle Jack Whittly and Bonnie at Spring Creek a while Sunday afternoon. While there Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Reeves and girls stopped in a while. They have twin daughters who are just precious. Their other little girl is a doll, also. Johnnie teaches at Richland Springs.

Norman Hardman of Spring Creek had supper with us Wednesday night.

Jimmie Tanner of College Station had dinner with us Saturday.

Dove season is quiet around here. No doves around here. We are hoping it will get cooler, then maybe some will come in. They had quite a few hunters the first day, but not much luck.

Food Stamp Program Increases Food Purchasing Power

The Food Stamp program is the federal government's latest attempt to resolve the problem of undernourished citizens in food rich America. Food stamps increase the buying power of households by adding to what they normally spend for food.

Eligibility for the program is determined by net income and the number of people in a household. To participate, a person must complete an application form and be interviewed at a stamp center. If eligibility is established, a person is given a food stamp identification card and soon receives the first of his Authority to Purchase (ATP) cards in the mail. These ATP cards, which have the maximum allotment printed on them, are then mailed either once or twice a month to recipients, who must turn them in when stamps are purchased at a post office or other issuing center.

The maximum stamp allotment varies according to family size - $48 per month for a single person, $90 for a family of two, and so forth. The amount a recipient pays for this allotment depends upon his net income (earnings minus certain expenses). For example, a family of three living on a net income of $250 per month, would pay $70 for stamps worth $128. If the family's income were $350, the same amount of stamps would cost $94. And if the net income were $450, the family would no longer be eligible for the program.

Food stamps are used like currency in any market or grocery store certified by the U. S. Department of Agriculture to accept stamps. Only edible items may be purchased; alcoholic and tobacco products are prohibited.

Anyone interested in the program can visit the welfare office in the courthouse basement. Persons not able to visit the office may call 648-2710 and request a food stamp worker to visit their home.

Bob and Virgie Johnson returned home Monday after a week's visit in Nashville, Tenn. with Myron and Louise Walton.

A night at the Grand Ole Opry and a day at Opry Land were two of the many things they enjoyed while there.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Lyndell Williams

AUSTIN — Senate impeachment trial of 229th District Judge O.P. Carrillo has been postponed until September 29.

Senators agreed to the delay since Carrillo faces trial this week in a Corpus Christi federal court on an income tax indictment.

In opening preliminaries, the Senate resolved itself into a court of impeachment and adopted rules for the historic trial—third proceeding of the type in a century involving a Texas public official.

Carrillo's attorneys filed a 170-page answer to the House impeachment resolution of August 5, denying all 10 charges and challenging sufficiency of the allegations. The answer remains as pending business when senators return to Austin late this month to begin taking testimony.

The 51-year-old judge, whose district includes Duval, Jim Hogg and Starr counties, is accused of abusing judicial authority, political conspiracies and use of Duval County personnel and equipment for personal benefit.

Carrillo's motion to disqualify Atty. Gen. John Hill and his staff from assisting the House prosecutors was rejected 23-7.

Senators imposed on the prosecution a duty of proving its charges "beyond a reasonable doubt" to gain a two-thirds vote for removal of the judge, whose troubles date back to a break with the old George Parr political faction in Duval County.

RITES CONDUCTED FOR

CHARLES M. HICKS
IN AUSTIN

Charles M. Hicks, 72, of Midland died early Tuesday, September 9, at Midland Memorial Hospital following a short illness. Services will be held at 10:30 A.M. on Thursday, September 11, 1975, at the Weed-Corley Funeral Home in Austin with burial at Austin Memorial Park.

Hicks, former State Director of the Texas School Food Service Program, had resided in Midland since his retirement in 1973. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Midland and a member of the Masonic Lodge in Cameron, Texas.

A graduate of the University of Texas, Hicks began his teaching career in Stanton, Tx. Later he taught science at Cameron, Texas, where he became County School Superintendent of Milam County. He joined the school food service program in 1952.

The family has requested that memorials be directed to the Charles M. Hicks Scholarship Fund of the Texas School

Oil Theft Aired

Texas and Louisiana met here last week to share information on reports of a widespread oil theft ring.

The thefts came to light with arrest of four men in Runnels County. Investigators have been trying to solve the reportedly organized plot to steal crude oil and sell it to refineries. Runnels County Sheriff Don Atkins said five men in Texas, New Jersey, Illinois and Louisiana are centers of the investigation.

A possible Oklahoma connection is also being explored.

Cost Revised

Comptroller Bob Bullock, who once estimated the proposed new Texas constitution would cost a billion a year and possibly as much as $11 billion overall, reversed himself and said nobody really can tell.

"Only history can write the final cost report," Bullock said. "The ultimate monetary impact of the proposed constitution would depend on innumerable future decisions by elected representatives of the people in the city halls, county courthouses, school boards and legislature."

The new constitution will be voted on November 4.

Bullock earlier pegged direct cost to state government at about $100 million a year. He had concluded the new constitution would permit levying another $53 million a year in new taxation on bank deposits, stocks and other intangible property.

Food Service Association. Other memorials can be directed to the Cameron Public Library in Cameron, Texas, or the University of Texas Athletic Scholarship Fund, Austin.

Hicks is survived by his widow Maggie Hicks of Midland, a sister Miss Anise Jenks of Austin, cousins Frank Jackson of Austin and Mrs. Joe Palmer of Goldthwaite and a number of other cousins.

"4-H-'76... Spirit of Tomorrow"

America's bicentennial period, which begins this year and extends into the 1980's, is an appropriate point in time to pause and reflect on our history, assess where we stand today, and look ahead to new horizons.

More than 7 million young people across the country are doing just that during National 4-H Week, Oct. 5-11, and throughout the coming year. In special observances keyed to the theme, "4-H-'76... Spirit of Tomorrow," they'll be taking a close look at 4-H past, present and future.

4-H'ers have a proud heritage. The movement that became 4-H began around the turn of the century and grew out of a need to make education more practical and interesting to farm youth. The first 4-H projects—corn clubs for boys and canning clubs for girls—offered enriching, real-life learning experiences not provided by rural schools of the era.

Projects have changed through the years as the faces of 4-H'ers have changed. But the basic "learn by doing" concept still holds and has wide appeal. Today's 4-H members take part in activities that range from animal care to environmental improvement to photography and bicycle care and safety. Although 4-H continues to serve the needs of rural youth, it has also proved viable in the cities: 17 per cent of 4-H members live in large urban and suburban areas. And 4-H'ers come from all racial, ethnic and socio-economic backgrounds.

By encouraging high standards and the setting of meaningful goals, 4-H lays a broad and firm base for a lifetime of personal growth. As today's youth grow to adulthood, they will face a world unlike the one most of us grew up in. There will be more people and fewer resources. And there will be vital issues in government that call for wise decision-making.

In challenging young people To Make the Best Better, the head-heart-hands-health program prepares them to assume the responsibilities of adulthood in a changing society. We salute 4-H members, their parents, volunteer leaders, and the Cooperative Extension Service professionals who conduct the 4-H program. Their efforts, combined with the endorsement and support of private business, make 4-H a dynamic organization that promises to be as responsive to the needs of youth tomorrow as it is today.

Mullin Bicentennial Committee Meets Friday Night

Due to some conflict, the Mullin Bicentennial Committee will meet Saturday, September 12, at the Mullin Community Center.

The meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m.

A man stopped at a cafe and ordered a cup of coffee. When the waitress had delivered the coffee, he tried to make conversation.

"Looks like rain, doesn't it?" he ventured.

"I can't help what it looks like," said the waitress. "It's still coffee."

Blood Donor

'Light' Turnout Saturday

There was a light turnout for our Mills County Bloodmobile last Saturday when West Texas Blood Service, who serves the needs of Mills Countians, brought their mobile unit to Goldthwaite. Forty-three units of blood were given and there were ten donors deferred. The Mills County Blood Program Committee does want to thank these individuals for their gift of life. Your donation is greatly appreciated. However, this lighter response to this blood drive means we are far short of supplying the blood needs of our community.

Mrs. Sue Cockrum and Mrs. Alton Keeler again secured our workers for the blood mobile. The workers were Sue Cockrum, Charles Childress, and Mmes. Tom Duren, Tom C. Graves, W. A. Chne, Kenneth Masters, Billie Lewis, Lois Skippings, Edith Daniel, Alton Keeler, Lone Collier, Laura Virden, Verba Lee Aldridge, Horace Gray, Fred Reynolds, Gerald Head, Mack Horton, Oleta Duren, Vivian Henderson, Bob Steen and V. Z. Cornelius.

Those donating blood were as follows: M. C. Kirkpatrick, W. O. Kemp, T. A. Head, Jeanette Benningfield, La Nelle Harms, Dan Connally, Carolyn McCoy, Kenneth Roberts, Richard Duncan, Truett Aldridge, Tom C. Graves, Dianne Phillips, Norman Duren, Marvin Childress, R. W. Phillips, Billie Lewis, Donald Parish, Paul Knight, Douglas Feist, Lynn Collier, John Hill, E. D. Ferguson, Blake English, Lucy Saylor, Steven Saylor, Ronald Saylor, Hazel McCoy, Gordon Talk, Jo Ann English, Harvey Davis, Monta Henry, Lynn Knight, Larry Elliott, Norma Elliott, Walter Bryant, Becky Long, Arnold Roberts, Ruby Sherwood, Frank Bridges, Norma Duncan, Sue Cockrum, J. C. Stewart, Jay Lock, DEFERRED DONORS: Ruby Kemp, Charles Hill, Gerald Head, Lester Geeslin, Ray Gage, Houston Duren, James Leonhard, Patsy Miller, Sybil Head, Margie Stewart.

Everyone is reminded that should they go to some out-of-town hospital and need blood replaced at that hospital, they should let Rev. Dan Connally know or call the local hospital and that replacement arrangements can be made through the Mills County Blood program. Also, anyone who gives regularly at the Mills County Blood Drives will have all blood needs supplied and all cost involved provided for their family for six months.

Paternal great-grandmothers are Mrs. T. D. Goodwin of Blanket and Mrs. J. M. Geeslin of Goldthwaite.

Returning to his seat at the ballgame, the football fan asked a woman seated on the aisle, "Did I step on your feet when I left?"

"Well," smiled the woman, ready to accept his apology, "as a matter of fact, you did."

"Good," exclaimed the guy, squeezing past her. "This is the right row, then."
