

The Way It Was - Liberty

Poem by Edna Cone

School history courtesy of Raymond Williams

LIBERTY SCHOOL

Backward turn backward, Oh thine in your flight!
Take me to Liberty just for tonight.
Let me go on a frolic with the Liberty girls and boys, I'm sure no other outing would bring such thrills and joys.

There's Susie so stately with raven black hair, What a contrast to Verna, so low and fair.
There's Walter, our philosopher, who hates the grade "D"
And Earnest who loves history like a bird loves the sea.

There's Clarence who was the pet of the teacher and the girls,
And Maudy who is so winning with her hair done in curls.
There's Lillie who in English ere leads her class, And Hazel, tho tiny, is a very intelligent lass.

There's Wilma who thinks studying is the bestest of fun,
And Lola on the school ground just can't be outrun.
There's Atara who is debating whether to work or to play, But satisfies her teacher by growing sweeter each day.

There's John L. who thinks history a magnificent joke, And Alfred who thinks exams for a boy are a poor dope.
There's Grace whose smile is as innocent as sweet, And our baby, Euna V. - I cast flowers at her feet.

I'm glad that I met you, so soon did we part;
Each one has forever a place in my heart.
Our school days are over - all things must end - I commend you to another - my jewels, my friends.

The above poem was written by Mrs. Edna Cone, a seventh grade teacher at Liberty School, and submitted by Hazel Faulkner Chaney. Mrs. Chaney states that Mrs. Cone lived in a teachage near the school with her two children - and one of them was old enough to stay home and keep the younger one while she taught, then she taught the older child at home. Mrs. Chaney only had two teachers at Liberty, Miss Bell Virden, now Mrs. Tom Collier of Goldthwaite, and Mrs. Cone.

The full name of the children mentioned in the above poem were: Susie Montgomery, Verna Wheat, Walter Dennis, Ernest Obenhouse, Clarence Faulkner, Maudy Montgomery, Lillie Wheat, Hazel Faulkner, Wilma Dennis, Lola Carpenter, Atara Obenhouse, John L. Brim, Alfred Denson, Grace Denson and Euna V. Brim.

NOTE: The Liberty school district was created "for convenience to citizens" by the Commissioners Court in 1896. The first schoolhouse was located about three miles east of Goldthwaite on the old Goldthwaite-Center City road. It was later moved to about one mile east of a location three hundred yards to the south of the Nan Roberts home - formerly known as the Helen Fletcher home.
Mrs. L. E. Booker was the last teacher at Liberty when it was consolidated with Goldthwaite in 1924-25.

Early citizens living there were the P. A. Burks family, the Monroe Fletchers, the Ed Obenhouse family, Mrs.
Fannie Brim family, the Ed Dennis family, the Wheats, John Montgomerys, the Den-sons, Hills, the Carpenters, Sam Carrolls, Cleve Perrys, Elmer Berrys and Clyde Faulkners.

Water Under The Bridge

By G.F.B.

New things around town department...
Dennis Moreland has moved his leather and tack shop downtown to the former Tots and Teens Building on Fourth Street. He invites all his friends to drop by and see what he is up to.

The construction of the new addition of Heritage Home is coming right along, in spite of the inclement weather, and the new Dairy Queen on Highway 84 is also gaining in stature.
And then there's always the new homes of our community. After five years of living here, we haven't seen it as bustling as it is now.
And the quality and size of the new homes is certainly on the up and up. Just goes to prove that the best people in the world live in Mills County.

The lead story in the old bird this week merits attention here too. The new senior citizens center building will be a boon to the senior citizens clubs of Mills County, giving them a central point to gather... a home away from home. Congratulations to County Judge Herb Faulkner on his fine leadership in this endeavor.

We don't have the exact comparison of figures, but it appears that Goldthwaite has experienced a nice growth in retail sales for 1976.

Statistics released by the Comptroller's office reflect about a 13 per cent jump in local sales, according to sales tax tallies.
Even when you discount inflation, this indicates a healthy business climate hereabouts.

Total taxable sales in Goldthwaite for just the third quarter were $3,261,099.

Stan Schlueter Named To Committees

State Rep. Stan Schlueter said he was pleased with committee appointments by House Speaker Bill Clayton.
The freshman lawmaker, who was sworn in as a member of the Sixty-Fifth Legislature last week, was named to three committees.
Schlueter's committee assignments are the prestigious Ways and Means, Intergovernmental Affairs, and Local and Consent Calendars.

Tour Of Building

As the Mills County Senior Citizen Center becomes more of a reality, three of the men responsible for its creation stand at the door of the facility.

Left to right are Walton B. Reedy, Executive Director of CTCOG, Justin Armsby, Director of Regional Planning for CTCOG, and Mills County Judge Herbert Faulkner.

Senior Citizens Center Becoming A Reality

Money is in the bank and Judge Herbert Faulkner, along with Walt Reedy and Justin Armsby, staff members of Central Texas Council of Governments, inspected the Kreative Korner for its conversion to a Senior Citizen Center.

Walton B. Reedy, Executive Director of CTCOG, Director of Regional Planning of the CTCOG, share with Judge Faulkner the excitement of receiving a Federal Grant to purchase the property.

A federal government check in the amount of $22,000 arrived in Goldthwaite Friday and brings the dream of last fall closer to reality.

Beginning in August of last year Judge Faulkner provided the leadership and the Senior Citizens group mounted a campaign to raise the required matching funds.
With assistance from the Central Texas Council of Governments and Hill
Country Community Action Agency an application was submitted to the Department of Health, Education & Welfare through the Governor's Committee on Aging.

Although the competition was fierce, the Mills County application was exceptional and outstanding by reflecting the work and support of the local citizens to contribute and participate. This proves that even the impossible dream is a reality when everyone works together.

The Senior Citizens of Mills County can be proud of their accomplishment, and federal funds were never better spent.
By mid-March the long-awaited Mills County Senior Citizen Center will be in full operation. This was the announcement from Herbert Faulkner, County Judge, on Friday, January 21, 1977.

The Judge indicated that Friday morning he had received a check in the amount of $22,000 from the U. S.
Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare, the grant funds which had been awarded to the county last September under Title V of the Older Americans Act of 1965.

Judge Faulkner stated that work on the proposed facility (formerly Kreative Korner) would begin within the next two weeks and should be ready for opening by the first week in March.
The Judge wishes to congratulate all those residents of Mills County who have worked on this project, especially those senior citizens who gave of both their time and money to make this dream come true.

Special thanks to both the Central Texas Council of Governments and the Hill
Agency for their efforts in our behalf.

Walton B. Reedy, Executive Director of CTCOG, expressed his pleasure at the news and stated that when local governments work together and have strong citizen support even impossible tasks can be accomplished.

Every resident of Mills County looks forward to an even stronger and more active Senior Citizens Program throughout the county in the future.

1977-79 Slate Of Officers Elected At January Meet

The spacious country home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Boykin was the setting of the January 19th meeting of the Goldthwaite Garden Club. Mrs. C. A. Keeler presided over the business meeting. Roll call was answered by members naming their favorite shrub.

Mrs. Walton Daniel and Mrs. Jack Elms reported on the birthday parties at Heritage Home and Hillview Manor, which the club sponsored this month.

At her request, Mrs. Erie D. Roberson's name was placed on the associate list.
The nominating committee presented the following slate of officers for 1977-79 which were elected:

President, Mrs. Jack
Elms; 1st Vice President, Mrs. Paul Henderson; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. R.
Glynn Raley; 3rd Vice President, Mrs. M. A. Campbell; Recording Secretary, Miss Ruth Ervin; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Lloyd Laughlin; Treasurer, Mrs.
Walton Daniel; Reporter, Mrs. Robert McCoy; Assistant Reporter, Mrs. C. A.
Skipping; Parliamentarian, Mrs. C. A. Keeler. These will be installed in May.

Mrs. M. A. Campbell was program leader for the day and introduced Mrs. Delton Barnett and Mrs. Paul Henderson who talked on "What, When and How for Designs in Pruning". Mrs. Barnett said there were several kinds of pruners, such as the barber, the butcher, and the timid soul.

The best time to prune is when you plant. Mrs. Henderson gave the know-how on espaliers, topiaries and vines. She suggested that, when in doubt consult your local nurseryman.

Mrs. M. F. Horton gave garden tips for the month, saying it is time to get tools ready and to plant roses, trees and vines.

Mrs. W. R. Hester of Ft.
Worth, Mrs. Sammie Harper and Mrs. H. W. Boykin were special guests. The hostesses, Mrs. Boykin, Mrs. Jack
Elms, Mrs. Judy Beavers and Miss Laura Virden, served chocolate filled crepes, nuts, coffee, and hot tea to guests and twenty-seven members.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the group journeyed to the Mills County Courthouse plaza where a yaupon tree was planted in observance of Arbor Day. Mrs.
W. P. Duren was in charge of this program.

Mrs. T. J. Collier gave the invocation. The poem "Trees" by Joyce Kilmore was read by Mrs. Walton Daniel, and Mrs. G. C.
Head read "What Do We Plant?" by Henry Abbey.
The planting was closed by the group giving the Conservation Pledge as follows:
"I give my pledge as an American to save and faithfully to defend from waste the natural resources of my country - its soil and minerals, its forests, waters and wildlife."

The Concerned Citizens of Goldthwaite met on Thursday to discuss the problem of cheating in our schools.
As a report of this very serious and interesting discussion, there will be a series of articles dealing with the subject and the conclusions reached.

If cheating is defined as the giving or taking of help on a test or copying homework (this does not include helping another understand difficult assignments) then the problem is quite extensive in the elementary school through the high school. In fact, many students in high school feel that the majority of the students cheat.

The pressures to cheat come from four main sources
- peers, parents, the system, and from within the person himself.
Peer pressure takes the form of "Everyone does it, so..." to "Come on, be a friend."
Parent pressure comes

Cheating A Problem In Our Schools

from over-stressing "good" grades. This over-stressing may be either unfair or too harsh punishment soundings for six week. Rankings, etc.) to unrealistic rewards (money for A's, gifts, etc.). Also parents may have an impossible goal for their children, expecting them to make A's when in reality they are good C students.
Other parents do not provide an atmosphere in which the student is encouraged to study - the TV is blaring or the parents are simply not home to supervise study habits.

The educational system itself may be providing undue pressure for cheating when all honors are based on academics, a certain grade average must be maintained to play athletics, or preferences are made by teachers who favor "smart" students.
Also teachers who do not fully explain material or feel they must cover the book in the year encourage cheating.

The Mills Minister

By Edwin Young, Minister Goldthwaite Church of Christ

Is a man an American citizen just because he claims to be? Or is a man a General in the United States Army simply because he says so? Should a man who claims to be a Doctor of Medicine be respected as such purely on the basis of his claim? Does a man's claim to be a Kiwanian make him one? Ridiculous questions, you say? You are right! These are foolish questions because all recognize that it takes more - much more - than one's personal claim to make him an American citizen or a United States Army General or a medical doctor or a member of the Kiwanis Club. Fulfillment of certain standards, which involve definite and specific obligations, determines who is an American or a General or a doctor or a Kiwanian.

The principle of employing standards is accepted universally except in religion. Strangely, it is only in religion that men have come to feel that standards are meaningless and may vary according to a man's wishes.

Take the question "Who is a Christian?" for example. Since there are so many variations among the doctrines that men advance in the name of Christianity, it has almost come to pass that the only definition that man would accept is this: "A Christian is one who says he is a Christian."

While Christendom may endorse this broad, tolerant definition of a Christian, Jesus would not. He said, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." (Matthew 7:21) Simply calling upon Christ Jesus as Lord does not make one a Christian. Jesus also asked: "Why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?" (Luke 6:46).

Christ's standard, and it alone, determines whether one is truly a Christian. One may have many Christian ideals and concepts, and one may do many Christian deeds but he still may not be a Christian in the Bible sense of the term. Three fundamental principles constitute the determinants for making a Christian:

(1) A CHRISTIAN IS ONE WHO BELIEVES SOMETHING - NOT JUST ANYTHING - BUT ONE WHO BELIEVES IN THE DIVINITY OF CHRIST.

Jesus stated this requirement clearly: "For if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins." (John 8:24) Christ made it plain that men must believe that he is the Messiah, the only begotten and divine Son of God. A man may believe truly in Christ's goodness and His great character and still not believe that necessary to keep him from dying in his sins. A Christian, then, believes that Christ is the divine Son of God; one who does not believe this is not truly a Christian, according to the standard of Christ.

(2) A CHRISTIAN IS ONE WHO DOES SOMETHING - NOT JUST ANYTHING - BUT ONE WHO DOES THE WILL OF GOD.

That which one does is order to become a Christian is the will of God. The will of God which one does is becoming a Christian is revealed in the gospel (2 Thessalonians 1:7-9). The gospel is something to be obeyed, not just believed (Hebrews 5:8-9). A Christian is one who has complied with the terms of the gospel by obeying "from the heart that form of doctrine." (Romans 6:17) A Christian, then, is one who does the will of God as revealed in the gospel; one who does not do the will of God as revealed in the gospel is not truly a Christian, according to the standard of Christ.

(3) A CHRISTIAN IS ONE WHO ABIDES IN A RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD - NOT JUST ANY RELATIONSHIP - BUT ONE WHO ABIDES IN A DEFINITE AND SPECIFIC RELATIONSHIP MADE POSSIBLE BY CHRIST.

Apart from this relationship there is no approach to the Heavenly Father (John 14:6). One enters this specific relationship when he enters Christ (2 Corinthians 5:17), and one enters Christ in baptism (Romans 6:3-5; Galatians 3:27). One must abide faithfully in this relationship, "walking in the light" (1 John 1:7), unto death (Revelation 2:10). A Christian, then, is one who abides in this specific relationship with God; one who does not abide in this specific relationship is not truly a Christian according to the standard of Christ.

Christianity is not something vague, nor philosophically difficult, nor theologically mysterious. One becomes a Christian by believing something definite, doing something definite and abiding in a definite relationship with God. In no other way can we be truly Christian.

Let us be clear and firm in our definition, for the original standard was set by Christ Himself.

She was born October 20, 1898, in Enid, Oklahoma, daughter of Andrew L. Clara Stam Matteson. She was married to Arthur Fred Walk at Enid. They moved to Goldthwaite from La Grange, Texas, in 1952. (Ruby) Sherwood of Goldthwaite; four grandchildren, seven great grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. May Cramer of Mound Valley, Kansas, and Mrs. Fay Cramer of Garber, Oklahoma; and two brothers, Bill Matteson and Andy Matteson, both of Garber, Oklahoma.

Extension Highlights

When the weather doesn't have you in a bad mood, bad weather and bad children - - - - - planning by creative parents can save the day. The most difficult part of the play is thinking of activities that children can do without constant supervision. Safety of the child and protection of household are prime considerations because indoor play areas are smaller.

Ideas for rainy day (indoor weather) activities that might help parents be creative are: Rainy day house walk. Walk quietly through the house. No one can talk - look, touch, smell. Each child can touch wood, metal, glass, count all objects in the room, search for objects of the color of crayons or small objects. When the walk is over, name all the objects found, textures felt, number of objects counted in each room. What different similar smells were in the kitchen, bathroom or bedroom?

Window watching. Each child selects one window of his own. He then looks out the window for five minutes (longer if he wishes). What kind of day is it? What did he see? What new did he see? Tell about the most interesting object seen through the window. Looking in the dark. Parents and children will be doing this activity together - particularly if children are afraid of the dark. Look out a window at night, sit in a large closet with the door closed or sit on the front porch at night. Talk about the things you can see at night or in the dark. Treasure hunt. Place familiar objects throughout the house. Tell the children what to search for and the limits of looking - time allowed, nothing covered up, objects within every child's reach. Older children can be "it" at first, then teach younger children how to hide or seek.

Visit new places that are indoors on rainy or cold days. Take time for the children to look at all the different items in grocery stores or discount stores. Visit the aquarium or local museum on bad weather days - everyone else is at home and the building is yours.

Finger games and simple group games are favorites for indoor days. Save some favorite songs and games for days such as these. The "cooking jubilee" takes the children to the kitchen to make cookies, gelatin, carrot sticks or play dough and finger paint.

Mother: "How was the singing lesson?"
Daughter: "The teacher said I have a haunting voice." Mother: "Oh, that's nice, but what did he mean?"
Daughter: "He said there was a ghost of a resemblance to the original tune."

GIVE THEM A FAITH TO LIVE BY...

Our times may be unique-both in the fears we and our children must face, and the conflicting distractions around us. Is religious faith enough to cope with our troubled world?
The answer is this; if you care, the same place where your faith is built can be made a rallying point for the kind of realistic human involvement that can produce a stirring change for the better in your community, in the world, in your heart. Show the way. Give them a Faith to live by. This week, go to worship-and put your faith to work, all week long.

You have heard the term "Prime Rate." This is the rate of interest the bank sets on funds it loans its largest and most reliable customers. The Prime Rate level very often is the same at all the largest banks at a given time, but can change from locality to locality and from bank to bank.

The Prime Rate rises when there is less money available for credit, and will become lower when money is readily available for credit. The "Prime Rate" affects money you borrow for business.

We want you to know more about our business!!!!

Are the Christmas bells still ringing around G.H.S. or is that a buzzing sound I hear? Actually, most of the students are busy preparing to be attacked by Spring Fever, however there are a few that are still back at Christmas!

The latest happenings around G.H.S. include the activities of the F.H.A. and F.F.A. organizations:

The monthly F.H.A. meeting was concerned with teenage marriage. Valerie Jensen and Selma Higgins both presented a very interesting and enlightening discussion on the pros and cons concerning teenage marriage. The girls also discussed their annual banquet and other projects. Some of the members of the F.H.A. have been choosing standards for the $100 scholarship that will be presented to one Senior girl with very selective motives. The girl to receive this scholarship will soon be selected.

The F.F.A. members are getting ready for their spring judging team in poultry, livestock and dairy cattle. They are also working hard to perfect their very capable talent team. The judging will take place at A&M University. The F.F.A. will be selling grapefruit. Be sure that you get in contact with one of the F.F.A. youths to purchase some of these luscious fruits.

The student council has been working hard this year to express the student body's opinions, and to unify the spirits of our industrious students. The student council managed, with the appreciated help of the school board and Mr. Michael, to arrange for a coke machine to be placed in the school cafeteria. The coke machine has gone over very well, plus given the student council a little money to plan more things. They also sell ribbons for the basketball games. If anyone would like to advertise that they are an "Eagle Nut" they can get in touch with Mina Kay Johnson, the very competent president of the active student council.

There was a program given on "cheating" at the High School Thursday, Jan. 20, by the Concerned Parents for the benefit of the students, teachers, and parents. All different aspects of the problem were discussed and analyzed carefully. The meeting was very interesting and definitely beneficial. No one is expecting miracles, but here's hoping for a little better situation around G.H.S.

Each year the school faculty sends in a certain number of outstanding students' names for nomination to the Society of Distinguished American High School Students. This practice is followed by most other schools. The nominations are taken by the society and from them a select few are chosen, based on school organizations, activities, and athletic activities. A scant one percent of all High School students in the U.S. are chosen for this honor each year. Students who have been fortunate enough to enter the Society are eligible to become semi-finalists and then finalists in the Society. Finalists are also eligible for a scholarship.

Goldthwaite High School is very proud to say that seven students from our school were selected for such an honor. They are Tamra Long, Gwyn Saylor, Charlotte Montgomery, Robert Berry, Tommy Collier, Sandra Derrick, and Gregg Goetin. These students deserve a big CONGRATULATIONS!

Basketball is still going strong around G.H.S. Our teams are doing extremely well this year! If it ever warms up, our tennis and track will be beginning, and then things will start bouncing! Tennis try-outs are set up for within the next couple of weeks. We hope to have a successful season in both tennis and track.

Well, I've done my best to fill the townspeople in on what is happening up at the High School. I hope everyone is pleased with what our youths are cooking up!
