...... PRIZE APRICOTS

The Apricot season may be about over for many of the trees in Mills County, but item of interest comes out of this year's harvest.

C. A. Keeler brought one into the Eagle office recently that measured over 9 inches in circumference. The apricot was larger than a normal peach and just a beautiful piece of fruit . . . Proving once again that with fav orable conditions as we had this year, the soil is very rich and productive in this part of Texas. It will grow almost anything, from prize apricots to prize Keelers . . .

SHERIFF BROOKS DISCUSSES TRAFFIC

Sheriff Brooks was present and shared with the Council various constraints, which regard the Councils' desire to limit drivers who are minors within the city.

The major obstacle was noted as parent apathy, or non-concern. Also, it was brought out that the willful disobedience of traffic laws by adults sets a poor example for our youth. The Council discussed at length possible solutions to

CITY BUDGET REVIEWED

The Council discussed the proposed 1977 - 1978 City idget. After reviewing, the Budget was approved for implementation July 1, 1977. The 1977 - 78 Budget will be published in its entirety at a later date.

City Manager Allen shared a preliminary report from the Equalization Board, stating the Board has met and is revising some real estate appraisals. Invitations to the public will be made for appearance to request reconsideration before becoming effective.

> CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS

The street decorations, which are used during the Christmas season, need repair, or replacement.

Manager Allen reported a $140.00, and cost for repairing the ones now used would cost $50.00. It was suggested that civic organizations be given the op-money toward this city beautification project. If this be the case, materials needed will be ordered now so that the ornaments will be ready for the upcoming holiday season.

SEWER PROBLEMS

Several problems have arisen regarding the sewer plant. Manager Allen announced that a State meeting in June will include for discussion the immediate problems Goldthwaite is now experiencing.

In the meantime, Councilmen expressed interest in visiting sewer plants in order to become better informed on alternative systems.

TRAFFIC SIGNAL

The State Highway Department has rejected the City's offer to release the traffic signal on 4th Street. The Department proposes to reduce traffic control device at that location to a blinking signal, or a 2-way stop.

This action was not acceptable to the Council, which felt even greater traffic control is needed to insure safety of people and

A counter offer was proposed by the City to retain control of the existing signal and install a second one on Fisher at Second Street.

THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1977

The Goldthwaite School Board met in regular session this past Monday night. The resignation of two teachers were accepted and three new personnel were hired for the 1977 -78 school year.

Goldthwaite. Mills County. Texas 76844

The resignations of Patty McCasland and Janie Potts were accepted by the Board.

Robert Baker of Corpus Christi was hired by the Board for sixth grade teaching position. For the past two years he has taught at Woodsboro. He is 27 years old, has his Bachelor's degree and is presently working toward his Masters. He and his wife have a three year old daughter. Also hired by the Board Monday night was Mary Jane Thomison as special education aide. She will replace the position formerly held by Mrs. Mary Lee Peeples. This program is funded by federal money and not local school money

Mrs. Winnie Welch, of Goldthwaite, was hired by the Board as language arts teacher. A number of applications were received for the positions open in the Goldth-waite School System, with all meeting the needed requirements. The members of the Board hired the above be-

Each state or geographic area would be represented on the board in proportion to its cattle pro-

A board spectrum of projects to improve beef production, marketing and distribution. Consumer education and information, and research, could be included in the program.

To pay for the program, producers could be assessed up to three-tenths of one percent of the value of all cattle sold during the first three years of operation. The rate of assessment could be charged after that but could not exceed five-tenths of one percent.

Producers not wishing to participate in the program could have thei assessments refunded.

For approval of the order, at least 50 percent of those registered must vote and two-thirds must favor passage. The voting will take place at the ASCS office between July 5 - 15.

Anyone who was a cattle producer during 1976 is eligible to register to vote in person or by mail.

FELLOWSHIP -- MORE THAN TOGETHERNESS

Often when we think of church fellowship, we think of ice cream socials and church dinners. However, fellowship is much more than these functions. It is more than meeting together, although this is a vital part of Christian fellowship.

Have you ever experienced the feeling of being alone and yet crowds of people were surrounding you? In such a situation there was togetherness but no fellowship. In the truest sense of the word, fellowship involves relationships. God desires us to have fellowship with Him and with one another and He makes possible this fellowship.

Our fellowship with one another must be built upon our fellowship with God. We have a relationship with God only by accepting Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour. Then we must daily pursue a deeper understanding of God to intensify our relationship with Him. Only upon this foundation is one able to build lasting and fruitful relationships with other peociprocal relationship: that is, each member of the relationship must contribute to that relationship. This is why lationship must contribute to that relationship. This is why fellowship with God must be the starting place. If people place their lives in God's hands, their lives will be God-centered and their contributions to the will be God-centered and their contributions to the fellowship of the church will also be God-centered, not selfish and motivated by their own desires. Only when God's will is sought by people will they be able to have true fellowship.

This oneness in purpose is essential to the gathering together of Christian people. Only when it is the guiding force in the individuals' lives will the church be able to experience worshipful singing, meaningful teaching, and powerful prayer.

True fellowship among True fellowship among Christians produces genuine joy within the church. Unity of the church comes about as a result of true fellowship and spiritual growth takes place.

Fellowship is more than togetherness—it involves genuine love and concern for each other, made possible only through one's own experience of genuine love and concern in a living relationship with God. It is a biblical concept which must take a significant place in our lives if we are to realize God's fullest potential for us as individuals and as a church.

As these summer months are upon us and vacation time draws near, let us not forsake the fellowship of other Christians. Rather let us seek fellowship wherever we may be and draw strength and enrichment for our own lives from each other.

A home can save energy for its vacationing owners—if they will take five conservation steps before walking out the door.

Turn off all unnecessary appliances. Unplug an instant-on TV or timed coffee pots and clock radios.

If you'll be gone more than a week, consider turning off your refrigerator. If you do, remember to unscrew the interior light bulb and prop the door open so mildew won't form. If you prefer to leave the refrigerator running, put it on a warmer setting-and be sure no foods are left that will spoil at the warmer temperature.

Turn, off the air conditioner, but be sure to move any house plants to a friend's house, if warmer temperatures in your house would harm them. Consult a horticulturist about temperature range the plants can with-

Turn off the electric or gas supply to your hot water

HEARING TESTS

If you have a hearing problem of any kind you owe it to yourself to have an Electronic Hearing test made to find why, and what can be done to help you before it is too late. The tests are free and will only take about 20 minutes of your time. We check your ears for packed wax, the tubes that let your ears breathe, then with the machine we check your hearing nerve (bone reading), air conduction (outside sounds) then measure how much sound the ear will take. We can pinpoint your problem and explain in plain English what can be done to help you, then never try to high-pressure you into buying anything. There are thousands of people today suffering from hard of hearingness (even some who wear hearing aids) just be-cause they waited too late to do something about it . . . don't let this happen to you.

Mrs. Joe Treadway will hold a regular Hearing Aid Workshop at the Mauney Courts in Goldthwaite, on Monday, * June 13, 1:30 - 3:00 P.M. We invite you to come in for your free test. We do repair service on most makes of Aids, and have a full service on leaving takes between for cleaning, tubes, batteries for your Aid, and can always your Aid, and can always save you money. We are licensed by the State of Texas to fit and dispense Hearing Aids. We are always close by when you need us. We are in the Hamilton. ton office every Friday to run special tests and as-sist you in every way.

Behind The Energy Fraud

by John F. McManus

Belmont, Massachusetts - There are only two basic ways to confront a shortage. The first way is to produce more goods, and the second is to accept a reduction in consumption.

Under normal conditions, any shortage will quickly result in a voluntary redirection of effort in order to fill the need. The promise of economic reward is the only stimulus required. That promise is so compelling, in fact, that it will even lead to the creation of substitute products, some of which turn out to be more practical and even more economical than those Shortages in a free society are always looked upon as opportunities. As a result, they are always short-lived and relatively inconsequential. But when free men are deprived of the ability to deal with shortages either by producing or by improvising, then shortages worsen and become the rule, not the exception.

Is Energy Really Scarce?

The United States is supposed to be in the grip of an energy shortage. Yet various experts in the field insist that our nation is sitting on a huge sea of petroleum and natural gas. Thomas P. Medders Jr., president of the Independent Petroleum Association of America, told a Senate Committee in 1972 that our recoverable resources "are in the order of 100 years' supply at present rates of U.S. consumption of both oil and gas." A 1972 Senate Interior Committee Report reviewed numerous projections of recoverable oil and concluded that Mr. Medders had significantly underestimated our potential

Besides oil and natural gas, the U.S. is richly blessed with coal deposits. The most conservative estimate indicates that we have a 400-year supply at present rates of consumption. "We've got coal coming out our ears," says Bureau of Mines chief Dr. Thomas Falkie. And we lead the world in the use of nuclear power and in nuclear technology. The truth is that the widely publicized shortage is contrived, artificial, and as phony as a nine-dollar bill.

Government Created the Shortage

What's going on is deadly serious. Government, mostly in the name of over-protecting birds, fish, air, and water, has so impeded the workings of the free enterprise system that a shortage of vital fuels has resulted. Laws, edicts, executive orders, and judicial decrees have restricted domestic drilling, blocked offshore drilling, delayed the Alaska pipeline, mandated wasteful anti-pollution devices on autos, and put a price ceiling on natural gas that has inhibited production. When coal and nuclear substitutes were offered by the free enterprise system, government outlawed much of the use of coal and is now harassing nuclear power producers to an early death.

In any discussion of "the energy crisis" by national leaders, we the people get blamed, not the government. It is we who must cut consumption, and because we won't do so voluntarilv. we must be forced to do so with taxes. restrictions, and controls. The government, which created the problem, now insists that a huge increase in its power is the solution.

The free enterprise way to handle a shortage is to produce more goods. The controlled society way, the Communist or Socialist way, is to increase taxes, controls, and restrictions, all of which lead to less production - and to total government

The next time someone tries to tell you that America's leaders have brought about the energy crisis deliberately in order to make the U.S. a Communist or Socialist state, please listen carefully. Your help is needed to put an end to this sinister scheme.

77 Onion Crop 'Crying Shame'

AUSTIN-The 1977 spring onion crop will most likely have everyone in tears - both the consumer and the producer - since this year's harvest will be almost half that of 1976, according to reports from the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Cool, wet weather throughout the winter months have slowed crop development and normal cultivation for weed control, and have slashed yields in the Lower Valley, Laredo, and San Antonio Winter Garden areas. This year's crop, wi should go on the market week, is the smallest 1966.

A total of five mi 50-pound sacks are to harvested, according to Texas Crop and Lives Reporting Service, comto 9.7 million sacks last ye Prices are already reflect the shortages, with ju onions selling for $18 50-pound sack and $14 $15 for medium onions,

Marketing experts preder that prices will remain that level throughout season, possibly rising eve
