Warner College Football Squad Shows Promise

With only a few more days of practice before their opening game with Amarillo Junior college, Coach Leo Boles is working his Warner College Stags overtime in the rescue ship "Lord Talbot" cabled the cowners today he had landed the crew of the Hutchinson and a demand for a congressional investigation of cotton exchanges, was voted by the house of the two proposed to the Hutchinson and the special state of the special state of Warner College Stags overtime in an effort to get the boys in shape to make a favorable showing.

Amarillo opened their season last week with a 21-0 victory over Panhandle Junior college and the Ligskin cohorts of Warner are doped to be on the losing end of the score Saturday. However the prospects are looking good and Coach Boles is expecting his boys to put up a tough fight.

In the initial scrimmage yesterday several former Eastland High stars dominated the field with their splendid fighting spirit. Among these are Babe Pentecost at center, Myers at end, Massen-gale and McClusky at tackle, and Foster and McClusky at tackie, and Foster and Holleman also at end. However, several out-of-town boys came in for their share of honors and in the line-work, especially the Kardanskey brothers from Ohio at guard and tackle, John Vilhauer at center, from Missouri and Buddy Gregory who Missouri, and Buddy Gregory, who brings with him a wonderful athletic record from prep school in Tennessee. Gregory is fighting for a place at guard and his ability to analyze the opponent's plays make him a formible player.

There are 11 candidates for the There are 11 candidates for the backfield positions, most of them being only of overage weight but fast and shifty and with plenty of experience.
