LETTERS FROM READERS

Eastland Weekly Record: I noticed your article on the front page of last week's "Record" on the status of Eastland's business.

I am convinced our merchants are not getting their share of trade from this area.

The City of Eastland as the county seat of this county could draw much greater trade from a distance if an energetic effort was made to reach out further in the country.

We should have some attraction here to draw the customers here, like a Monday trade-day, or some other entertainment on the square on Saturdays. Some of our vacant lots could be used where our rural neighbors could come and trade horses and cattle or anything that was offered.

We ought to have an active wide awake business organization to which every retail merchant belonged. Uniform hours to close the stores, and agreed dates for holidays as well as many other important matters should be discussed and agreed upon that would be for better business methods. No expense need be involved, no dues need be paid, just get together and agree to better the business of our city. Our retail merchants ought to take an interest in the smaller communities near by and visit them in the way of trade excursions.

The rooms of the Chamber of Commerce are conveniently located for meeting of any kind. The secretary would be glad to use his efforts to aid in building up more trade from our surrounding territory.

I am firmly convinced that we could double the trade coming to our city if a concerted effort was made and backed up by a body of retail merchants.

DR. H. B. TANNER,
Sec'y Chamber of Commerce.

ROTARY CLUB HEARS BETTER HOMES TALK

Mrs. Jos. M. Perkins gave a talk in the interest of Better Homes week at the Rotary Club program Monday noon. Mrs. Grady Pipkin sang two Texas songs, "Have you Ever Been to Texas in the Spring?" and "Texas, Our Texas." Ben Hamner was chairman of the program committee.

The following visitors were from Ranger: H. C. (Andy) Anderson, C. E. May, C. B. Pruet, Morris Bendix, and Miss Frances Gaughlin, assistant secretary of the Ranger Club.

Rev. O. B. Darby and Mr. L. E. Harrell of Childress were also visitors.

GAME FISH SEASON OPENS FIRST OF MAY

Fishers who expect to take advantage of the fishing season are reminded by city officials to call at the city hall to secure a license, which grants permission to fish in any of the three lakes controlled by the city.

A license for a family for one day's fishing can be had for fifty cents, or a season's license may be secured for two dollars.

With the opening of the game fish season May 1, the use of artificial lure is permissible. Crappie less than seven inches in length and bass less than eleven inches must be returned to the water.

Better Homes Seen In Window Displays

A number of business houses in town are showing special windows this week in observance of Better Homes Week.

Attractive scenes from every room in the house are displayed in the show windows around the square and in practically every business house in town. Representative living room, dining room, bedroom, kitchen, nursery, bathroom, writing room, garden, home plans, wall papers and draperies are among the contributions to Better Homes.

Most of the windows were arranged with the assistance of Eastland club-women.

Public Program Given On Square

A community program complimenting Better Homes Week was presented by Eastland High School students Tuesday night on the south side of the square.

The program consisted of vocal numbers, tap dancing, readings, and introduction of the cast of the Junior Class play, "The Arrival of Kitty", which was presented at the high school auditorium last night. A skit from the play was also a feature of the program. Ed Pritchard, Jr., acted as announcer for the program.

A message from Mrs. W. K. Jackson, chairman of the Better Homes Week Committee, was read by George Harper, acting as master of ceremonies.

Amplifiers and two microphones on the stage enabled the crowd over the entire south side of the square to hear both music and speech.

Music by electrical reproduction was furnished by Harper Music Company before and throughout the program.

CAN YOU USE TWO TRAINED SEA LIONS?

Two trained sea lions for sale! Don't be surprised if you see just such a sign at the Roberson Garage, for that is exactly what's what.

The two lions are a part of the cargo of the truck which overturned and killed the owner some weeks ago on West Commerce. The body of the owner and trainer was shipped east for burial, and word has just been received to dispose of the lions and other belongings.

Before his death, the trainer gave instructions for the feeding and working of the lions, and Mr. Roberson and others about his place have become very proficient in the art of putting the animals through their stunts.

Hundreds have visited the place and enjoyed the unusual entertainment.

Mr. Roberson says the sea lions have taught him much about the show business.

Broadway Ass'n President Here

F. O. Mackey, president of the Broadway of America Association, and L. C. Townsend, both of El Paso, called on Dr. Tanner, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, here Tuesday.

They were on their way to New York City, where they will head the Broadway of America motorcade leaving there May 3 for the annual convention of this association at San Diego, California.

The motorcade will stop in Eastland Sunday, May 8, at 1:15 P. M.

MUSIC WEEK WILL BE OBSERVED MAY 1-7

The seventh observance of National Music Week opens Sunday, May 1, and continues through Saturday, May 7.

Observance of the week in Eastland is sponsored by the Eastland Music Club. Mrs. Jos. M. Perkins is general chairman.

A series of programs have been announced to be held at the regular meetings of the clubs, church societies, and luncheon clubs of the city. Several special programs featuring Music Week have also been arranged.

Schools Have Garden Contest

West Ward and South Ward school pupils have taken keen interest in their home gardens entered in Contest in Better Homes Week. These gardens were planted several weeks ago in response to invitation by Better Homes Committee. Judging was made by Committee on tour 10 A. M. Wednesday, April 27th. Misses Frank Lovett, A. J. Campbell and Miss Gretchen Overton. Prizes will be awarded.

Misses Wilda Dragoo, Margaret Hart and Catherine Carter attended the Sixth District Music Federation in San Angelo Saturday. Misses Hart and Carter, pupils of Miss Dragoo, entered the senior violin contest, Miss Hart being awarded first place and Miss Carter second.

Arab Employees Burned Tuesday

Jimmie Cheatham and Franklin Dwyer, employees of Arab Gasoline Corporation, were painfully burned by a gasoline explosion in the chemical laboratory at the company plant Tuesday afternoon.

Cheatham received extensive burns about the face and shoulders but is reported to have rested well Tuesday night, and his condition is not believed serious.

Dwyer received lesser burns about the hands.

TOURISTS HURT IN CAR ACCIDENT HERE

Mrs. Betty Hampton, her mother, her daughter, Constance Hampton, and Mrs. Edith McMillip, all of Atascadero, California, were injured in an automobile accident Thursday afternoon of last week on the Bankhead highway just west of town.

Their car collided with a Ford coupe driven by an elderly couple from Fabens, Texas.

They were given medical treatment here, and are now at the Horned Toad tourist quarters, awaiting repairs for their car.

Good Scores At Gun Club Sunday

Some good scores were made at the regular Sunday shoot of the Eastland Gun Club.

The 1932 shooting season is just getting under way.

Visitors are always welcome and can use the shotgun traps without being a member of the club. Charges are made for the targets and shells only. Shotgun shells are for sale on the grounds and anyone wishing to try their luck on the new game of "Skeet" can borrow a shotgun from any of the shooters.

A fee of $3.00 is charged to belong to the Rifle Club. This entitles a club member to ten free shots each Sunday afternoon. Two 30.06 rifles belong to the club and can be used by club members free of charge if they don't have one of their own.

Any Boy Scout can join the club by paying the $3.00 fee. The club has a 100-yard .22 range for boys to shoot over and two Springfield .22 rifles. Each boy is given 20 free shots each week and when the boys become expert with the small rifle they are allowed to shoot the "Big Rifle" over the 200-yard range.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Belew had as their guests during the week end their daughters, Miss Emma Dean Belew of Decatur, and Mrs. Alvin Alland and baby son of Fort Worth. They were accompanied home Sunday by Miss Orlena Davenport, Mrs. Belew, and James and Jackie Belew, all of whom returned here Sunday night.

Miss Winnie Snider, Mr. Jack Berry, and Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Daniels motored to Abilene Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cash and family, of Waco, were visitors Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. O'Neill.

Mrs. Willie Hines, of Carbon, was a visitor in this city Friday.

Last of Flour Is Distributed

Two hundred and thirty-eight sacks of Red Cross flour, amounting to 7000 pounds, have been distributed in and around Eastland within the last ten days.

The last of the orders were given out Monday at the Chamber of Commerce. Another carload is expected to arrive here within two weeks, according to Dr. Tanner.

Individual orders received numbered 209, furnishing a total of 1002 persons with flour. Of these orders, 151 were received by white people, 32 by colored people, and 25 by Mexicans. People within the city limits of Eastland received 113, those in surrounding rural districts received 83, and 15 went to citizens of Olden.

LIONS CLUB FEATURES BETTER HOMES PROGRAM

Better Homes Week was featured throughout the program at the regular Lions Club meeting Tuesday.

Mrs. J. C. Stephens entertained with a musical reading, accompanied at the piano by Miss Peg McLaughlin.

Mr. B. E. McGlamery made a short but interesting talk on the home, during which he brought out the fact that it is not the brick and stone that make the home, but the parents. He stressed the spiritual side of home building and advised the Lions to be better fathers.

R. L. Ponsler, of Cisco, and County Judge F. L. Kuykendall, president of the Albany Lions Club, were visitors.

Fire Department Elects Officers

A meeting of the Eastland Fire department was called Wednesday night for the annual election of officers. Delegates were also elected to the State Firemen's Convention to be held at Austin the second Tuesday in June.

Fred Michael was elected first assistant chief; W. J. Peters second assistant chief; R. E. Kilborn, Bill Hasen and Johnnie Hart, captains; and John Harrison secretary treasurer.

Delegates who will attend the 3-day convention at Austin beginning June 14 are W. J. Peters, Clay Duke and R. E. Kilborn.

The duties of the second assistant fire chief, as explained by Chief Hennessee, are to take charge of the fire police squad, composed of six men, the purpose of which is to stop traffic interference at fires. Running over the fire hose, bringing the cars close enough to the fire to hinder the work of the department, blocking streets, or interfering with the department on its way out are violations of the fire traffic rules. The car numbers of violators will be taken and turned over to the Chief of Police or the City Manager for prosecution.

Chief Hennessee further explained that one blast of the siren is a call to volunteer firemen to assemble at the hall for a meeting or to answer a call from a neighboring town.

Miss Lois Howard, student in Baylor University at Waco, visited in Eastland during the week-end as the guest of her cousin, Miss Dorothy McCanlies.

Mrs. W. H. Cooper, of Ranger, was a visitor in Eastland Friday.

Firemen Sponsor Musical Program

The Volunteer Fire Department will sponsor a musical program and entertainment at the City Hall auditorium here tonight at 7:30, featuring Virgil O. Stamps, Freddie Martin, S. E. Clark, and Leola Marie Clark.

The program will include vocal and instrumental numbers, semi-classical, popular and cowboy songs, spirituals, sacred songs and comedy.

V. O. Stamps is a nationally known singer, composer and publisher, being one of the most famous musicians of his kind in the United States. He has been heard here before, and he and his quartet are accepted favorites in this section of the county as well as elsewhere.

Freddie Martin, the adopted son of Mr. Stamps, though still quite a young boy, is a musician of note, being a pianist, accordionist and singer. He is the possessor of an unusually lovely piano accordion.

S. E. Clark, "The West Texas Plow-Boy", and his guitar are known to everybody. He is popular with radio fans.

Leola Marie Clark, young daughter of S. E. Clark, is an accomplished pianist and singer.

You cannot afford to miss this one and one-half hours of splendid entertainment. Come and enjoy it and help the volunteer firemen.

EASTLAND BAND GIVES CONCERT MONDAY NITE

The Campbell Band Concert, with group Recitals by South Ward and West Ward School Glee Clubs assisted by Campfire Girls in musical numbers drew an immense attendance at the Eastland High School Auditorium when ushers were the four Camp Fire Girls awarded distinction of having chosen the plans judged by Miss Ramsey, County Agent, and shown in bed room demonstration for Better Homes.

Campbell's group was marked for beauty of harmony and overture "Merry Wives of Windsor" and the shading in "Poet and Peasant". The bass solo with muted band accompaniment by Fletcher McWilliams, a selection from the "Octopus" and "Mermaid" drew merited applause.

Concert was opened with charming address by Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, Eastland County Chairman Better Homes who introduced 18th division Chairman in this work and described something of origination of movement and nation-wide activity.

Mrs. W. K. Jackson during intermission, presented theme of development and efforts to reach apex or key-note of cultural undertakings in Civic and mental life. "Stars and Stripes Forever" by band, closed the program, one of the best given by Campbell.

RECORD WANT ADS PAY!

Prairie Company Office Force Cut

A rumor, which is considered authentic but could not be confirmed at the local Sinclair-Prairie Oil Company offices, is afloat to the effect that seventeen or eighteen of the local employees of that company are to be laid off, effective June 1.

The Sinclair-Prairie Oil Company is what has been known in this district as the Prairie Oil & Gas Company, and has been maintaining state headquarters here for a number of years, with John M. Mouser in charge.

The rumor states that only four or five of the present employees will be left in the local office. A representative of the Record was unable to get confirmation at Mr. Mouser's office. However, it is known that a state wide cut of this nature is being effected throughout the state in the personnel of the company. Eastland is said to be faring much better than most of the other offices, some of the district offices being eliminated entirely.

If the rumor is correct, Mr. Mouser, F. J. Nicholson, S. W. Kitley, and J. M. Armstrong will be kept in Eastland.

Dr. Tanner Will Attend Convention

Dr. H. B. Tanner will attend the 26th annual convention of the Texas Commercial Executives Association to be held at the Baker Hotel in Mineral Wells May 4, 5 and 6. This association is composed of the Chambers of Commerce from Texas towns.

It is the custom each year for secretaries to display some kind of exhibit, such as bulletins, newspaper pages, etc., to advertise their respective towns. Dr. Tanner has arranged a most unusual exhibit, consisting of various articles representing Eastland arranged in attractive manner on a board to be hung for display.

Copies of the Chamber of Commerce bulletins, Old Rip postcards, and two photographs of Eastland County Court House, one showing a night illumination and the other a daylight scene, are on the board. A representative of Old Rip himself completes the exhibit.

TOURISTS ASKED TO JOIN MOTORCADE

The Broadway of America motorcade from New York to San Diego, California, will stop in Eastland Sunday, May 8, 1:15 P. M.

Anyone contemplating a trip to California, can find many advantages in joining this motorcade, both regarding entertainment and expenses. Any information can be obtained from Dr. Tanner at the Chamber of Commerce.

STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY TO MEET

The State Medical Society will meet in Waco, May 5, 6, and 7.

Dr. J. H. Caton, who Tuesday accepted the office of secretary for 1933 of the section of Radiology and Physiotherapy of the society, will attend as the official representative of Eastland County.

A meeting of the local City Medical and Dental Society will be called in an effort to secure additional delegates.

Mrs. Loss Woods, who has been ill with the flu several days, is reported to be improving.

Mr. J. W. McKee spent Wednesday night in Eastland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Mickie. Mr. McKee was in route from El Paso to his home in Waco, where he is employed by the Texas Cotton Co-operative Association.

The 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allison has been ill with pneumonia the last two days. It is feared the child is in a serious condition.

Mrs. C. A. Hertig is spending the week with friends in Fort Worth.

Mr. Weldon Graham, of Midland, left recently after a visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Graham.

"STATIC"

By J. L. Cottingham.

F. O. Hunter accuses us of pulling our punches last week. Well—we were scared—there are fellows in town that pull their guns almost anywhere on the square. In all seriousness, our semi-bald editor, Mr. Hatcher, often cuts out a paragraph on me—for some unknown reasons. Sometimes the paragraph he gets is the one that would have put the punch in the whole thing. That is part of the column game though.

Mrs. Joe Perkins was toastmistress at the Parent Teacher Banquet Friday night. She did remarkably well—her humor was broad enough for even Geo. Harrell to get the points and she showed her sense of the fitness of things by not letting Joe Jones or Bill McDonald make speeches. We are sorry that Mrs. Perkins is not a native Texan, but we are glad that she did come to us—from the home of the little brown bean.

Virgil Seabury made a speech. The first thing he did was to deny that his children descended from monkeys—on their father's side anyhow. We cannot understand why he brought that up or thought it necessary to make a public denial—we had never heard anyone even whisper anything like that about Virgil's kids but we do believe that the main reason they have escaped the accusation is that they inherited their looks from the distaff side.

Virgil also gave the combined ages of the teachers of South Ward School as 360 years. Here is how he arrived at the total:

Mrs. A. C. Simmons	58
Miss Reba Seabury	52
Miss Christine Hearn	49
Miss Leora Higgins	47
Miss Edna Day	41
Miss Lillian Smith	57
Miss Sallie Boland	23
Mrs. C. W. Hampton	33
Total Years	360

Mrs. Perkins also made a speech in favor of Better Homes Week in which she said she cleaned out her bedroom closet and found six dollars and seventy-five cents in the pocket of one of Joe's pants. She was glad to find this because it had been missing for twenty years. We thought that was a good idea so we searched a pair of pants we thought Joe had left out at the office but found nothing except a beer check and a ladies vanity initialed M. S.

Mrs. Jackson asked us to put something or other in about Music Week. We can't remember what it is so we wish everybody would call her up and ask her what it was she wanted put in the paper.

I have promised Miss Jessie Ligon that if I got to be Judge of Show Windows, I would award her window the prize. So it is necessary for me to offer myself as candidate of Show Window Judge. I would rather be Bathing Beauty Judge but then we can't have everything.

Mrs. Simmons said Friday night that it was the first time she had seen Jack Hapeman. In case there is any other lady in town that is so unfortunate, I am going to announce that Jack will be on display somewhere around the square every evening from three to five and his wife won't be along. It will be worth every woman's time to make a special trip to see him—he is what Ed Frey-schlagg must have been twenty years ago.

Jack Lewis is putting a stop to the hoarding around here—he spent thirty five cents in the same place Saturday. Johnny Burke invited us to see George Arliss at the expense of the management Friday night. It was worth several times what it cost us.

W. K. Jackson refers to our column as "Whiz Bang". Miss Genevieve Lyon has a Peke that just matches her hair. Stire is getting too snooty to speak since he got his new second-hand car. Saw Grady Pipkin at the midnight show—is his wife a blonde or have I bumped into some new scandal? Rhodes asked us if the straw hat got through the storm alright. The storm was after midnight and we were not out—Rhodes ought to have known how rough the storm was. Davis has a new job but the same girl. The youngest Harkrider boy is celebrating the arrival of another youngster—that is a good example for Kinney. No one has made a successful bid for Charlie Lafoon's services yet. Mrs. Funderburk is supervisor of window dressing. Mrs. Joe Jones and Mrs. Kimbrell made up the window at Kimbrells—the one with the cactus in it. I stood around and watched for an hour—hoping some one would sit on the cactus but I was disappointed.

Further deponent sayeth not. I thank you.

McMILLEN & SPARKS OWN SUNSHINE GRO.

W. M. McMillen and M. H. Sparks are the new owners of the Sunshine Grocery and Market on East Main Street, Mr. Sparks having recently bought the interest of Mr. F. L. Drago.

Mr. Drago is returning to the oil business. He expressed his appreciation of the support given the store during the time he was associated with it.

Mr. Sparks is a grocer with several years experience here in Eastland. He is returning his family here early in May from Breckenridge, where he has been associated with the W. J. Miller store.

Mr. W. H. (Bill) McMillen, who has been associated with the grocery business in Eastland for years, will continue to be interested, he and Mr. Sparks being in personal charge.

Mr. McMillen also expressed thanks to his many friends for their patronage during the few months he has operated the store, and promising the same high class service and quality groceries in the future, solicits a continuation of their patronage.

NEED NOT TAKE PAIR TO GET LOWEST PRICE

The same price is charged for a Star tire, whether you buy one or two of them," Mr Harper of the Harper Tire and Battery Co. explained yesterday. "It isn't necessary to buy Star tires in pairs, to get the lowest price."

Mr. Harper said the impression had gained ground that a saving of several cents per tire could be obtained if the customer bought two, instead of one. He said this is untrue, as regards Star tires.

"We don't think it would be fair for us to tax the motorist who had a need for only one tire. We don't think he should have to pay a higher price than the man who is ready to buy two tires. We figure that a man who buys one Star tire will be pleased to the extent that he will buy one, two or three more of them when he needs them."

While Star tires with the white sidewall continue to be the largest sellers, by far, in the complete Star line, the Star tire is also available in the black sidewall type. The motorist with a preference for either color thus has his choice.

Mr. Joe Mickle returned Wednesday night from El Paso, where he and Mrs. Mickle have been since early last week. They were called to the bedside of their daughter, Mrs. McKee, who underwent an operation in a hospital there last Friday. She is improving nicely now. Mrs. Mickle will remain with her for some time.

Mrs. Edwina Rains has been confined to her home all this week on account of illness. She is improving now, however, and is expected soon to return to her position in Wolf's department store.

Boyce House, special writer for the Fort Worth Star Telegram, was in Eastland Saturday.

Harrell, have been especially enjoyable, everyone entering heartily into the singing of the good old hymns, as well as the new ones. A cordial welcome is awaiting you at the Baptist Church. CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The lesson-sermon subject was "Probation after Death" in all churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, April 24.

"He knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold," was the golden text, taken from Job 23:10.

The service included the following passages from the Bible (Matthew 27: 1,35):

"When the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death. . . . And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots."

The following citation from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, was also included (page 44):

"The lonely precincts of the tomb gave Jesus a refuge from his foes, a place in which to solve the great problem of being. His three day's work in the sepulchre set the seal of eternity on time. He proved Life to be deathless and Love to be the master of hate."

SOUTH WARD PTA ENTERTAINS PATRONS

The South Ward PTA entertained patrons of the school last Friday evening with a San Jacinto banquet, when the patriotic motif was featured in decorations and table service.

W. M. U. NOTES

Better Homes Week Observed

Mrs. W. K. Jackson gave a very interesting talk to the faculty and student body on "Better Homes," Monday during chapel period. She gave many interesting statistics on the organization of the Better Homes Society. She also told several means of making more interesting and beautiful homes. Mrs. Perkins, county chairman, gave a short talk following that of Mrs. Jackson's. Special music added to the interest of the meeting.

Tennis "Racket"

The tournament is only one week off now. The ranking of the players is as follows:

Carl Kardatzke, 1; Mrs. Kardatzke, 2; Lester Crose, 3; Elmer Kardatzke, 4; Arlin Kardatzke, 5; Mabel Abernathy, 6; Russell Barber, 7; Aubrey Forrest, 8; E. O. Bailey, 9; H H Ward, 10.

Mrs. Hale Observes Open Cabin

Saturday evening Mrs. Hale's cabin was open to all students who felt an inclination for coffee or cocoa. This was not the first time she had converted her cabin into a short order cafe. This is another reason why we shall miss her.

Mrs. Mabel Hale Leaves

Sunday afternoon both students and teachers reluctantly bid Mrs. Hale farewell. She returned with her husband to Oklahoma. Her stay with us was appreciated very much, and especially shall we miss her good talks in chapel.

Play to be Given

There will be a play given the second week in May by the name of "Anne of Old Salem." It is a three act play and will be different from any play ever given by W M U, but it will be as good if not much better. There are thirteen characters in the play. Most all of the actors in the play "A Wild Flower of the Hills," will have parts in the coming production.

Girls Have Slumber Party

After ice cream, coffee, and a very interesting (?) impromptu program the dormitory girls finished the night in playing games, telling ghost stories, making tea, singing, and sleeping. All of the girls were down for breakfast, and in a good humor Sunday morning.

Speech Recital Given

The speech recital was quite a success. Every one had a great laugh, especially at the dialogue which Prof. Ward and Elmer Kardatzke performed.

All who took part did fine, and we appreciate the speech and music department very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Heath and Miss Hassie Graham, of this city, and J. C. Brewer, Jr., of Gorman, were visitors in Ranger Saturday night.

Luther Shirley, of Pioneer, was in Eastland Saturday.

Miss Ruth O'Neill spent the weekend in Stephenville, visiting friends at John Tarleton.

Man Made the Town

FOURTH INSTALLMENT

There was a little sound out in the road. A big car had drawn noiselessly up to the gate, and a man was getting out.

A big man with a very unprofessional appearance—Rathbone

Diana made another effort to rise. He would be so angry with her. She heard his step on the path, then his voice talking to the maid.

"Oh, well, then I'll go on up—" then his step on the stairs.

The Creature was not there, of course . . . and now he would be angry to find her out of bed. Not that she cared if he was angry; he was well paid to look after her. He ought to have sent word that he would be coming. Diana was trembling from head to foot as she clung to the window sill, her faced turned to the door.

Rathbone came in . . . he gave one glance at the bed before he saw her, and she broke out tearfully, "I was so tired of bed—I wanted to see what was outside . . . and I can't get back."

He crossed the room in a stride and picked her up as if she had been a child, depositing her in bed and pulling the clothes over her.

"How long have you been there?"

"Only just before you came."

"I told you to stay in bed. I told Miss Starling—"

"She's gone out . . . she must go out sometimes," she added resentfully, for once defending the Creature.

"Well, if you do it again you will have to have two nurses. What would you have done if I hadn't come?"

"Stayed there, I suppose," Diana whispered.

He stood looking down at her unsmilingly.

"Don't you want to get well?" he asked brusquely.

Her lips moved but no words came; her big eyes stared at him mournfully.

"If you don't want to get well, say so, and I won't come any more," he said ruthlessly. "But it seems a pity a child like you. All your life before you—everything to look forward to."

She spoke then, in trembling bitterness. "I hate my life . . . there isn't anything to look forward to. I don't care if I die . . . I suppose you've never wanted to die?"

"I've never been very ill," he answered humorously. "And it's only when you feel ill and weak that you think it would be an easy way out if you died."

"I suppose you think I'm very silly," she submitted.

"I think you're going to be a very wise little girl and get well very quickly."

"I'm so tired of lying here."

He looked at her consideringly.

"Very well, I'll make another bargain with you. If you'll do as you're told—no getting out of bed or refusing to eat—when I come again I'll take you for a little ride in my car."

"When will you come again?" she asked distrustfully.

He laughed. "To-day is Wednesday—shall we say, Saturday?"

"Will you promise?"

"On my sacred word of honour."

He stood up. "No more tears, mind."

"No."

He held out his hand. "Good-bye, for a little while."

"You will come on Saturday?"

"Yes."

Diana gave a sigh. "Thank you very much." It was the first time she had really been polite to him.

The Creature was a little skeptical about that promised Saturday drive; at least, she looked it, although she was too hatefully tactful (so Diana thought) to say anything.

"You will have to see how much you can improve during the next three days," was her only comment.

Diana knew quite well what she was thinking, and it made her all the more determined to be well enough to go with Rathbone.

She made no more trouble about taking her food or medicine, and did everything she was told almost before she was told.

On Thursday she received a letter from Dennis telling her he had found out through Anna where she was and asking if she could see him. She forgot all about their last quarrel and told him to call some afternoon, when Miss Starling would be out.

On Saturday Rathbone came at three o'clock. Diana heard his car come up to the gate, and her eyes grew bright with excitement.
