EASTLAND

By JOE THOMAS COOK

Now that the primary election has passed the successful candidates are grooming themselves for the run-off primary and the others have withdrawn to the sidelines. Conversations the past two or three weeks have ranged from politics to politics and back again to politics, and politics will continue to hold the spotlight until after the general election in November.

At least three of Eastland's favorite sons won the nomination or won the right to enter the run-off for district and State offices. Wilbourne B. Collie will contest with Oliver Cunningham of Abilene for State Senator from the 24th district. Eastland County supported Collie wonderfully and gave him a tremendous majority. Judge J. E. Hickman received almost the unanimous vote of this county and will be in the run-off with Judge William Pierson in August. Judge O. C. Funderburk, our third favorite son, won with an overwhelming majority from E. M. Overshiner in the race for associate justice of the Court of Civil Appeals, 11th district. The last returns on this race showed Funderburk with 26,960 and Overshiner with 16,782.

We nominate Bill McDonald to receive the prize for the candidate taking defeat most gracefully. Bill seemed as happy after the election as he did before, and he determined not to let an insignificant thing like an election upset his equanimity. Virge Foster and Judge C. L. Garrett have been having to discipline themselves to avoid breaking out into smiles over their nominations in the first primary.

Horace Condley and Dr. W. S. Poe returned this week from the Lions International convention at Los Angeles bringing stories of how they do things in California. Dr. Poe says that everything in California now is athletics and that the whole state has caught the spirit of the Olympics. It was all so contagious that he himself became enthusiastic. He became so athletic-minded before he left California that he bought himself two suits of athletic underwear.

Here's one for Ripley. A dead man was elected district clerk in the election last week at Cleburne. A. C. Womack dropped dead of heart attack while he was making his final campaign speech Friday night. Through respect a majority of the people voted for him. Several voters wrote in the name of his widow on the ballot.

Eastland county was not as unfavorable toward Sterling as some of the counties in East Texas were, despite the fact he ran third in this county. Here's our reason for this opinion. While Dan Moody was making a speech for Sterling at Palestine several days ago, someone threw an egg at him. The person's aim was poor and the egg hit a judge who was sitting on the platform with Moody. Nothing like this, as we remember, happened when Moody spoke here last Thursday.

In reply to our protest last week about the conditions in the city park, City Manager Marlow assures us that the City invites people to use the park for picnics and recreation hours. He says that the park will remain open until 10 o'clock for anyone who wishes to use it. If the lights are not turned on at night, he urges that people wishing to use the park go to the caretaker's house and ask that they be turned on.

LITERATURE RECEIVED

A supply of literature on the United States national parks has been received at the Chamber of Commerce and any information concerning them may be received there, according to Dr. H. B. Tanner.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wueth and daughter, Mercedes, of Leavenworth, Kans., are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen S. Stire.

Third Monthly Trades Day Scheduled In Eastland for Next Monday, August 1

Plans have been completed by the program committee for the third monthly Trades Day, which will be held in Eastland next Monday, August 1. The program committee is composed of Carl Johnson, Sid Pitzer and Ira L. Hanna.

The first two Trades Days, which were held on the first Monday of each month, were so successful that the merchants of Eastland have decided to make it a permanent affair, Carl Johnson, a member of the program committee, said this week.

Many attractions will be provided for the people of this territory attending the Trades Day program. A new corral was completed last week for the horses and cattle to be used in the rodeo program of the day. Valuable prizes are being offered by the merchants of Eastland to the winners in the different contests of the rodeo. Contests in bronc riding, horse planned for the rodeo program of the day.

This rodeo program held each racing, and calf roping have been Trades Day is proving an attraction for all of the cattle raisers and livestock fanciers of this territory. Each Trades Day ranchers and cattle dealers bring in their livestock for display and for trading.

The merchants of the town are offering many prizes other than those to winners of the rodeo events, Mr. Johnson pointed out. Various other contests will be held throughout the day, and prizes in merchandise will be given to the winners of these contests.

The majority of the stores in town are offering special prices on merchandise for Trades Day. Special displays have been planned, and bargains will await those who attend Trades Day Monday.

Petition Sent To Commission Asking Valuation Change

In a letter addressed to the board of equalization of the City of Eastland, which is now in session, Marshall McCullough, Sr., petitions the board to set a reasonable valuation on the property of the Community Natural Gas Company. Mr. McCullough says that in raising the gas rates of Eastland, the gas company represented that its property value in Eastland was $188,999. This property was assessed by the City of Eastland last year at a $90,000 valuation, and Mr. McCullough pleads that this figure be increased.

His letter follows:
To the Board of Equalization, City of Eastland:

After answering your notice to appear before you to show cause why the valuation on my home should not be raised or lowered, I desire to plead with this commission to put a reasonable valuation on the property of the Community Natural Gas Company, of Eastland, Texas.

In this connection, I realize some difficulty confronts you. But many persons in our City are so much interested in this matter that it behooves you to do your duty fearlessly and as accurately as possible. To our citizens very much depends on your action with regard to the valuation of this company's property. Your difficulty arises because you are very well acquainted with the value of lots of land and of my home, and other property owned by individuals, but you are not so well prepared to know the real value of a gas distrib-

Poe and Condley Attend Convention

Texas made an excellent showing at the annual Lions international convention, which was held the first part of this week in Los Angeles, according to Dr. W. S. Poe and Horace Condley, representatives to the convention from the local club. Dr. Poe returned home Monday morning from the convention, and Condley, who was accompanied by his wife, returned later in the week.

President Julian C. Hyer's famous cowboy band from San Angelo took the convention by storm, Dr. Poe said, and it proved to be the biggest attraction of the convention. The McCamey, Texas, club won the distinction of having the most key men present at the convention. Maryland had the best percentage of attendance at the convention.

Mr. Condley was chosen president of the Texas caucus during the first days of the convention, and he also served as manager of the Texas delegation train. Condley is district governor of the Lions in this district of West Texas.

Charles H. Hatton, Wichita capitalist, was elected president of Lions International for next year, succeeding Julian C. Hyer of Fort Worth.

Ferguson Leading For Governor By Hundred Thousand

In a primary election that broke all previous records Miriam A. Ferguson is leading Ross S. Sterling by almost 100,000 votes, returns from the Texas Election Bureau indicated late Wednesday night. Mrs. Ferguson was leading by 99,671 votes.

The number of votes cast in this election exceeds the previous record by 7,135 votes. A total of 864,908 votes had been counted up to late Wednesday night, while the previous high vote was 857,773 cast in the run-off primary in 1930.

The vote for resubmission of the Eighteenth Amendment to a vote of the people now stands as follows: for submission, 321,154; against submission, 129,509.

1509 Persons Get Red Cross Flour

A complete estimate of the Red Cross flour that has been distributed in Eastland and surrounding territory during the past three months was made Tuesday at the Chamber of Commerce office, showing a total of 1509 persons served.

Four shipments of flour were received here, being brought from Cisco, stored and distributed by Eastland business men. Orders for the sacks were issued at the Chamber of Commerce. The first flour was given away here April 14.

Eastland people receiving flour numbered 995, Olden 146, and people of surrounding rural districts 376. Of this number 889 were children and 98 were dependents. White people receiving aid numbered 1258, colored people 79, and Mexicans, 181.

Equalization Board Hears Taxpayers Present Problems

Substantial Reductions Are Being Made in Property Valuations

More than two hundred taxpayers of the City of Eastland had appeared before the board of equalization through Wednesday of this week, W. C. Marlow, city manager, said. The board, which is composed of Jep F. Little, A. F. Bandy, and Theodore Ferguson, held preliminary meetings last Friday and Saturday before starting their work of hearing tax cases Monday, July 25.

The board, which is appointed by the City Commission, makes adjustments in city taxes. Heretofore those taxpayers who had rendered their property and who had requested an audience with the board were allowed to appear before the board of equalization. But this year all taxpayers, both those on the rendered and unrendered rolls, are being allowed to appear before the board and present their cases.

Reductions Made

Substantial reductions in property valuation have been made by the board during its first three days of work. Since the maximum rate of $2.50 on the $100 must be maintained

State Ad Valorem Tax Is Reduced To 69 Cents This Week

A reduction of 5 cents in the State's ad valorem tax was announced by State officials this week. This cut is the result of a law passed by the 42nd Texas Legislature last year, providing that no State tax shall be levied higher than 69c on the $100 valuation. The rate last year was 74 cents on the $100.

The State tax is collected by the county tax collectors along with the county taxes and will be due in January. This new tax levy will not provide for appropriations already made for 1932 for schools and for the general fund, officials say, and additional revenue will have to be obtained from some source.

The 69-cent levy consists of 35 cents for schools, 7 cents for Confederate pensions, and 27 cents for general revenue. The reduction was effected by cutting the amount for the general revenue from 32 cents to 27 cents.

Survey of Needy To Be Made Soon

Investigations will be made in the near future to obtain an estimate of the number of people in Eastland and surrounding territory who are in need of clothes, according to Dr. H. B. Tanners, Chamber of Commerce secretary.

Dr. Tanner is in receipt of a letter from J. E. Spencer of Cisco, county Red Cross chairman, stating that this territory will probably receive a part of the cotton cloth to be made from surplus cotton given to the Red Cross by the national government. The Red Cross has received 500,000 bales of cotton from the United States government "for use in providing cotton and wearing apparel for the needy and distressed people of the United States."

The cloth will be provided free of charge but the expense of making the garments will have to be borne locally, Mr. Spencer said. Dr. Tanner and Miss Ramey, county home demonstration agent, will work together in an attempt to get organizations of the county to aid in making the garments.

Miss Floy O'Neill has been absent from her place at Perry Bros. several days this week on account of illness.

Seven Candidates Get Nomination In Primary Last Week

Seven candidates for county and district offices received nomination, which is equivalent to election, in the first Democratic primary. May Harrison received the nomination for county treasurer since she was unopposed. Clyde L. Garrett was re-elected county judge when he received a majority vote over his two opponents, George Bryant and J. R. Burnett. Virge

Eagerness of Farm Boys and Girls For Knowledge Praised

"It is an inspiration to see how eager the farm boys and girls of this State are for knowledge of their profession," Dr. H. B. Tanner, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, said Wednesday after his return from a two-days' visit to the farmers' short course, which is in session at A. & M. College this week.

"Hundreds of the boys and girls from over the State who were not able to afford the cost of meals and lodging offered on the college campus at reduced prices have thrown up camps around College Station and are attending the short course on a minimum of expense," he said.

Dr. Tanner spent two days at College Station attending primarily the sessions of the Public Welfare Conference, which is meeting in conjunction with the short course. One hundred and one people, officials of chambers of commerce and public welfare workers in the main, registered for the welfare conference.

Dr. Tanner attended most of the programs given by the conference while he was on the campus. Men prominent in public welfare, chamber of commerce work, and in agriculture were on the program of the conference. The best methods of raising funds for public welfare was the subject discussed by W. N. Blanton, vice

Tennis Tournery Gets Under Way

The Eastland County Tennis Tournery got under way yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock when preliminary rounds of play were started in the junior and senior men's singles. The play will continue through today, Saturday and Sunday, with the final rounds being played Sunday.

The matches are being played on the City Tennis Club courts just off Seaman street in the 1100 block and on the high school courts. Allen Key, varsity player of the University of Texas, has charge of play, and Hamilton McRae is in charge of registration.

Dabney, in his race for re-election as judge of the 91st district court. T. L. Cooper was re-elected tax collector over his opponent, E. C. Satterwhite; P. L. Crossley won the nomination for district clerk over the present incumbent, W. H. McDonald; and Judge O. C. Funderburk defeated his opponent, E. M. Overshiner by a 10,000 majority for associate justice of the 11th district Court of Civil Appeals.

The total vote in this county, with the exception of one box, Tudor, which has not been brought in, is as follows: (since only between 25 and 30 votes will be cast in Tudor, the results from this box will not affect the results as shown below)

51 Indictments Returned by Jury

Fifty-one bills of indictment were returned by the grand jury of the 91st district court, which has just adjourned after a ten-day session. The following report was made by the grand jury to Judge George L. Davenport:

During the term we have been in actual session ten days, during which time we have examined 195 witnesses, and have returned 51 bills of indictment.

We find that the law enforcers of the county, and the courts, are co-operating in a business-like manner toward the well-being of the citizenship, and the maintenance of the peace and dignity of the county and state.

We have examined the county jail, and find it in good condition, and the prisoners therein confined are receiving the care and attention their situation warrants and permits.

We were made very sorrowful during our session by the death of our door bailiff, W. A. Stewart. He had served faithfully and diligently, and his work was of the highest order. He was always at his post of duty, and at all times performed his duties courteously and efficiently. We deeply regret his passing, and wish thus to extend our sympathy to his bereaved family and his many friends.

Having completed our investigations, we respectfully submit this report, and request to be discharged.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. SPEER,

Foreman.

TIMBER STRENGTH

The strongest lumber in the redwood tree is near the bottom, says the Forest Service of the United States Department of Agriculture.

In testing both virgin and second-growth redwoods, the department found that the difference in the specific gravity between the wood at the top of the tree and the bottom was about fifteen per cent, with the greater specific gravity for the lower part. Lumber with this greater specific gravity is stronger.

This knowledge is useful to lumber users seeking structural material, because they can select the lower logs for their purposes.

What Whisky Did to This Baby

A shot of whisky, administered for a bad case of colic, proved too much for this year-old inmate of the animal nursery on the Atlantic City pier. The liquor, which appears to have been of the bootleg variety, sent the baby elephant spinning with the result that a leg was broken. It was set and placed in a brace, and the patient is learning to walk all over again.

Gas Company Moves Into New Building

The offices of the Community Natural Gas Company were moved this week from their old location at the rear of the Texas State Bank Building to their new quarters on the south side of the square.

The building, which was formerly occupied by Preslar's Ladies' Shop, has been completely overhauled because of the damage sustained in the fire in that block last Christmas. The interior has been completely refinished in light green plastic paint and finely finished hardwood floors have been laid.

A concentration of the Eastland division offices of the company has been made by the removal to this large office, Frank V. Williams, division manager of the company, explained. Both the business offices and the shop for the Eastland division have been moved into the building. The Eastland division of the company includes, besides Eastland, the following towns: Gordon, Strawn, Cisco, Moran, Albany, Putnam, Baird, and Clyde.

Housed also in this building is the office of the geology department of the West Texas district of the Lone Star Gas Company, which had formerly been located in the Exchange National Bank building. P. G. Russell and R. B. Phillips are the district geologists who will have offices here. The Community Natural Gas Company is a subsidiary of the Lone Star Gas Company, which has interests in many other parts of the United States.

MAKE IMPROVEMENTS

Linden—Although they had very little money to work with, 315 girls in 25 4-H clubs of Cass County have made many improvements in their bedrooms. Miss Willie L. Terrell, county home demonstration agent, reports that 315 cleaned their rooms thoroughly, 204 rearranged furniture, 10 have refinished furniture, 12 added clothes closets, 30 added furniture and 15 refinished their floors.

NEW MARKET FOR MILK

Palestine—In spite of the low price for butter fat and no market for butter and skimmed milk, Mrs. Delaney Shuptrine, Pleasant Springs 4-H Pantry cooperator, has found a sale for her milk in the form of milk chocolate which nets her 40c per gallon for her milk. Mrs. Shuptrine sells her milk chocolate in half pint bottles to the cold drink stands, grocery stores and filling stations that have a good cold drink trade. In this way she clears practically $2.50 daily off of her milk.

R. N. Cluck, superintendent of Cisco schools, and T. C. Williams, principal of a Cisco ward school, were visitors at the County Superintendent's office in the courthouse here Monday.

HOPPER PLAGUE STOPPED

COLLEGE STATION — "Alert farmers, aided by rain and by poison, have apparently stopped what promised to be a severe grasshopper invasion," declares R. R. Reppert, entomologist in the Extension Service of Texas A. & M. College. He believes heavy rains in many parts of West Texas kept grasshopper in the pastures, and reports from county agents indicate that quick action by farmers in scattering poison bran mash did the rest. Some damage has been done but reports show that it was invariably stopped or effectively lessened by poisoning. Many county agents point out that the schooling farmers received in demonstration of previous years enabled them to act for themselves on the basis of newspaper warnings without further special help.

Mrs. D. E. Smith and son of Dallas have returned home after a visit here with Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mullings.

Miss Beulah McClennay of Dallas is a guest here in the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. McGlamery and family.

Trio Entertains at Lions Club Meeting

A trio, composed of Carl Garrett, James Simmons, and Elmer Brown, entertained at the weekly luncheon of the Eastland Lions Club on the Connellee roof Tuesday noon. Miss Ruth Hearn was their accompanist.

The trio received the applause of the Lions with "Mona," "The Waltz You Saved For Me," "Too Many Parties and Too Many Pals," and "Only a Shanty In Old Shanty Town." Lions Kenny and Stire composed the entertainment committee for the luncheon. E. E. Freyschlag and Dr. W. S. Poe were appointed by President George Harper to furnish the program for the next meeting.

Donald Kinnaird told of the highlights of the Lions International Convention held in Los Angeles as related to him by Dr. W. S. Poe who was unable to attend this week's meeting. Dr. Poe and Horace Condliey, who represented the local club, will describe the convention to the club at its meeting next Tuesday.

DEPOSITS GIVE NATION POTASH INDEPENDENCE

Enough potash lies in the huge rock deposits of Wyoming and greensand deposits of New Jersey to make the United States independent of any foreign supply of this fertilizer, says the United States Department of Agriculture.

This potash needs only commercially profitable methods of extraction to make it readily available to the American farmer. Experimental blast furnace trials by the department have shown that the Wyoming rock will yield 10 to 11 per cent potash and the New Jersey greensand from 5 to 7 per cent.

Cheap fuel in Wyoming should make possible a commercial furnace plant

Sleeping on Gunpowder Containers

Sailors of the United States navy are here seen sleeping on gunpowder containers, but they are not so reckless as they seem to be. The containers are empty and are being removed from the U. S. S. California following the recent target practice off the California coast. They are sent to various naval ammunition depots to be refilled and returned to the ships for future firing.

there that could produce potash to compete with other potash on the market, the department believes. The Wyoming potash is easier to extract than that from the greensand, but it is farther from the fertilizer market. Experiments with both deposits are under way by the Bureau of Chemistry and Soils of the department and promising results have been obtained with both.

Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Shurmon and family, formerly of Eastland but now of Fort Worth, came to Eastland last week to visit their sisters, Mrs. W. A. Wiegand and Mrs. W. F. Griffin, and incidentally to vote. Mr. Shurmon is now with the Corden Oil Company in Fort Worth.

NEW BUDGET LAW

The new law passed by the 42nd Texas Legislature last year providing for a budgetary control of the expenditures of the county, city, independent school district, and the common school district, is being put into effect this year. Those who are responsible for preparing budgets for these governmental and educational divisions of the State this year may be having a difficult job and may criticize the action of the legislature in adding to the complication of State government.

But after the first budgets are made, the others in the succeeding years will be much more easily prepared and within a few years, the county, city and school officials will wonder how they were ever able to conduct their affairs before the budget was instituted.

The budget is another step in placing the State government on a business-like basis. Large corporations and business institutions have learned long before this time that budgetary control was the only scientific method of conducting their affairs. If the budget is indispensable in private business, then it should at least be an aid in the affairs of government. Incalculable benefit has come to the State since the creation of the office of State Auditor and Efficiency Expert in the Moody administration, and the principal reason for this has been that the finances of the State have been placed on a strict business basis.

So it can be with the subdivisions of the State if this new budget law is able to do what the legislature has planned for it to do. The operation of the county or city without a strict budget, which will be adhered to in the making of expenditures, is comparable to a person's groping in a dark room.

The new budget law passed last year provides that the county judge, under the supervision of the commissioners' court and with the assistance of the county auditor, prepare in July of each year a budget for the ensuing year. Likewise the city manager will prepare a budget for the city, the county school superintendent for the common school district, and the president of the school board for the independent school district. In the preparation of the budget, the budgetary officer in each case must take into consideration the revenues and expenditures of the previous years, he must estimate the possible amount of funds for the ensuing year, and he must also consider the tax rate in each case.

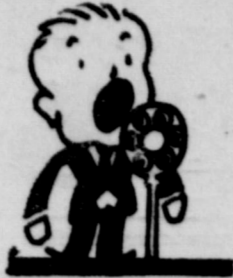

Between August 15 and the time of the tax levy a public hearing will be called at which the taxpayers affected can be present to discuss the budget. After the budget is adopted by the governing body, the commissioners' court in the case of the county, all taxes must be levied according to the budget and all expenditures must be made in strict accordance with the budget. Amendments can be made to the original provisions only in the case of grave public necessity which has been brought about by unusual and unprecedented conditions. A copy of the budget in the case of each of these divisions must be filed with the State Comptroller before October 15 each year.

Muston will fill the Baptist pulpit Sunday.

"STATIC"

By J. L. COTTINGHAM

Jim Horton sent me, through Harry Porter, an item for this column. They are both nice fellows so we really ought to use the item. It is beyond the power of the writer to put any humor into Jim Horton's jokes. Anybody that owes Jim money will naturally laugh at his jokes but when they get him paid off again— Jim had some cards printed saying that he was a candidate for more business. This was not a new stunt but Jim thought it was and was extremely proud of the idea. Now he persuades Harry Porter to ask him how he came out in the election and to that he replies "I carried my own precinct." Well—here is hoping that no one with tight clothes read this—they might tear them laughing.

We gave a wrong credit here last week. Someone told me that the little Irish girl in my neighborhood won the beauty prize in the Small Girls' Beauty Show. I decided that he must have meant Miss Wanza Thomas but have found out since that the prize was awarded to little Miss Theresa Samuels. D. Samuels was very indignant but I wish to remind him that this is the first time this column has ever carried anything that was not absolutely true.

Mrs. Joe Laurent says that my pants fit me like Joe's fit him. After that remark, I could not like her if she was to give me a million dollars. I am getting too much of own doings in this time, but I notice that O. O. McIntyre and Joe Cook get away with it.

The hot part of the political race is over. Now you can go to town without getting a pocket full of cards. If all of the cards that were given out in the past election were piled up in one place and Clyde Garrett was put on top of it them to make a speech, he would be so far away from the earth that by the time his voice got back to us his grandchildren would be old enough to applaud.

W. C. Hammon says that there are some fish in a pond at Olden that will come up out of the water and eat bread-crumbs out of your hand. Even Jim Harrell did not believe that story. H. A. Collins tells about the time he was keeping books in a bank and one of his eyebrows fell out and got stuck over the thousand dollar column and he thought it was a thousand dollars more than it was and spent twenty four days looking for it. Mr. Collins has always borne a reputation in this community of being a truthful man—you can revise your opinion now or not, as you see fit.

Since the depression, lots of ladies are wearing duplicate dresses. That always happens when a girl does not import her clothes direct from Paris. Miss Merle Tieer always gets hers direct, so if you want to know what is the absolute latest, stand on the corner and watch for Miss Tieer.

John Seale was stopping everyone from parking double election night until Marlow came along. Marlow larked like he wanted to and John did not dare say anything about it. We got a good city jail with no one in it and if John is afraid to put Marlow in there, he ought to go down and serve out his time for him.

Maybe we wont hear anymore about Habeas Corpus. Everybody but Neal Day and Marion Seabourn have denied the responsibility for them. We feel sure Marion must be guilty for he surely would have denied it if he had not.

Further deponent sayeth not. I thank you.

Questions and Answers About Canning

Prepared by Miss Ruth Ramey

"Food cans are made of sheet iron, coated with a thin layer of tin. Some acid foods, such as grapefruit, peaches pineapples and tomatoes, if left in a can when exposed to the air, tend to act on the metal of the can. Dissolved iron may give the contents of the can a slightly astringent or "metallic" taste. Any tin dissolved in the food would have no taste, and even if all the tin on the inside of the can were dissolved, the amount of tin which the food would contain would be small, and there is no evidence that such tin compounds as may be present in canned foods are harmful.

"The U. S. Department of Agriculture has recently made a study of the effects of feeding canned foods containing known amount of tin. The results of this work have been summarized as follows by the Bureau of Chemistry and Soils.

"Our own experimental work, involving the ingestion of far larger amounts of tin than any previously reported, and supported by the experimental evidence of other investigators, leads us to the conclusion that tin, in the amounts ordinarily found in canned foods and in the quantity which would be ingested in the ordinary individual diet is for all practical purposes eliminated and is not productive of harmful effects to the consumer of canned foods."

Copy from the National Canners' Association, Bulletin "Stop Wondering, Here are Facts."

Does Rust On a Can Indicate Spoilage? Not unless the rust has penetrated the can and caused a leak.

What Does a Hissing Sound Mean When the Can is Opened? A hissing sound when the can is opened usually means that there is a good vacuum in the can and the sound is made by the air rushing in to fill the vacuum. If the can is bulged, the hissing sound is made by outrush of gas from the can.

Of What is the Can Made? The tin plate used in making cans is a thin sheet of steel coated with pure tin.

What Causes the Discoloration of the Inside of Some Cans? Is It Harmful? Some foods contain sulphur which discolors the inner surface of a can for the same reason that it discolors a silver spoon left in contact with a cooked egg. In either case the stain is harmless. It has no unwholesome effects whatever on the food inside the can.

Does the Metal of the Can Affect the Wholesomeness of the Food? No. The can is simply steel covered with pure tin and for some products it is coated with carefully selected enamels baked on at high temperatures. It is sterilized and clean. It can have no unwholesome action whatsoever on the food inside.

Is There a Taste of Tin? No. The so-called "tinny" taste is usually the astringent or metallic taste imparted by dissolved iron, which is entirely harmless.

Why Are Enamel-Lined Cans Used for Some Foods and Not for Others? Enamelled cans are not necessary to can a wholesome product; but they are necessary with some kinds of food to retain an attractive appearance; for example, to preserve the color of red fruits.

What Is the Best Way to Store Canned Foods? They should be kept at a moderately cool, not refrigerated temperature. A cool, dry cellar or closet is suitable. Avoid storage near steam pipes, radiators, furnaces, or kitchen ranges.

Do Canned Foods Cause Ptomaine Poisoning? No. The illness generally called "ptomaine poisoning" is due to bacteria which are found occasionally in unsterilized foods, but which have such low resistance to heat that they are killed by the canning process. Dr. M. J. Rosenau of Harvard Medical School, who has made an exhaustive study of ptomaine poisoning, recently stated: "Canned foods are the safest foods which come to our tables because of the sterilization to which they are subjected during the process of canning."

Is There Any Danger from Tin in the Food? No. The U. S. Department of Agriculture: "Our own experimental work, involving the ingestion of far larger amounts of tin than any previously reported, and supported by the experimental evidence of other investigators, leads us to the conclusion that tin, in the amounts ordinarily found in canned foods and in the quantity which would be ingested in the ordinary individual diet, is for all practical purposes eliminated and is not productive of harmful effects to the consumer of canned foods."

Methodist WMS Entertained

Almost one hundred guests were present Monday night when members of the Methodist Women's Missionary Society and their families were entertained on the lawn at the home of Judge and Mrs. W. P. Leslie.

Upon arrival guests were conducted to a registration table, after which a picnic supper was served buffet style. The supper was a regular picnic menu with all of its dressings, consisting of fried chicken, salads, tea, ice cream and cake. The guests helped themselves to the food which was spread on long tables, and then retired to small tables placed over the lawn.

Musical selections were furnished by the 9:49 Bible Class Quartet, composed of B. M. Collie, M. L. Keasler, John Knox and A. E. Herring. Mrs. J. E. Hickman had charge of the entertainment, conducting various games and contests.

Mrs. Fred Davenport and Mrs. H. O. Satterwhite had charge of arrangements.

Former Missionary Speaks Here

Mrs. Jeff Smith, of Fort Worth, former missionary to China, entertained a group of children Friday morning with a lecture at the home of Mrs. Harry Wood. Mrs. Smith told of her experiences in China and answered questions of the children concerning Chinese customs.

The trip over the Pacific, the stop in Japan, her reception in China, and experiences there during the war were recounted by Mrs. Smith in her lecture. She told of having charge of a government hospital for wounded soldiers and of having to teach Chinese boys to be nurses since the girls were not educated sufficiently to be taught.

When the fighting became so intense that the nurses were forced to leave, Mrs. Smith said, she and her companions consented to go only after ordered out three times. She told of the journey down the river in a boat with a seating capacity of twelve which was loaded with 112 passengers. Another feature of her talk was a description of a Chinese wedding.

Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Smith were girlhood friends at C. I. A. thirteen years ago and had not seen each other since that time until Mrs. Smith arrived last week for a short visit.

Children attending the lecture were as follows: Dorothy Pratley, Ruth Hart Annie Jane Taylor, Marjorie Murphy, Elizabeth Ann Sikes, Gladys Hoffman, Lorene Chambers, Lillie Dale Chambers, Milabeth Boggus, Carolyn Boggus, Wanda Fehl, Wilda Fehl, Carolyn Massey, Elizabeth Ann Harrell, Mary Jane Harrell, Frances Lane, Mary Jane Copeland.

Merchants Propose Monthly Luncheon

A proposal for a business and professional men's luncheon to be held at least once a month was made at a meeting of the merchants and professional men of Eastland called by Jess Day, secretary of the Retail Merchant's Association, Tuesday night at the Chamber of Commerce. A committee was named to work out the details and set the date for the first luncheon.

Several proposed ordinances which would benefit the local business men and tax payers of this city were read and discussed at the meeting. The merchants approved them and voted that they be presented to the City Commission for its approval.

Advertising projects promoted by out-of-town people must have the approval of the merchants as a body, it was decided at the meeting. The Retail Merchants' Association and the Chamber of Commerce were asked not to sanction any advertising project which does not have the approval of the merchants first. A committee, composed of George Harper, Jess Day, and Curtis Kimbrell, was appointed to investigate the advertising projects as they are presented from time to time and pass on the advisability of calling a meeting to consider the projects.

2 Robbery Cases Reported Monday

Two robberies, both on Monday night, were reported to the Sheriff's office this week. L. J. Lambert, local agent for the Gulf Refining Company, reported that the Gulf warehouse was entered Monday night and about $30 worth of hard oil and lubricating oil taken.

J. A. Stover, Texas & Pacific passenger agent, notified the Sheriff's office that a box car near the Magnolia station about a mile west of the T. & P. station was broken into on the same night. Four cases of pork and beans was all that was taken from the car, Mr. Stover reported.

Deputies of the Sheriff's department have been working on both cases, but no clues have been found as yet.

Rotary Club Has Perfect Attendance

Every member of the Rotary Club was present Monday noon at the luncheon in the roof garden of the Conlee Hotel. Leslie Gray and Sam Gamble were in charge of the program.

Three musical selections were given by the Ranger Junior College girls' quartet composed of Misses Pauline Head, soprano; Crystell Head, baritone; Marjorie Clark, tenor; and Merle Clark, alto and pianist.

James Horton, president of the club made a speech outlining the work for the coming year and making suggestions on club operation which he received at the convention in Sweetwater last week.

John Thurman of Ranger was a visitor. George Harrell of the Magnolia Petroleum Company was elected to membership.

Recently elected members of the club are W. P. Palm, F. O. Hunter, Carl Johnson, B. M. Collier and Carl Angstadt.

uting business. Some two years ago I was placed in a position that caused me to give the valuation of this Company's property some study. Of course, I am no expert and do not claim to know on my own account what real value should be placed on this company's property.

In past years the valuation of its property has been around $50,000 to $70,000, as fixed by former boards of equalization for the City, school and county. Last year the valuation fixed by the city assessment was $90,000. Since the fixing of the valuation last year, the Community Natural Gas Company has made representations to the City of Eastland to raise its gas rates to individuals in Eastland by a material increase over its former rates, and in doing so has presented that its property is worth $188,999. It swears that that valuation is correct. It collects rates on that valuation. It proposes to tax the citizens of Eastland with much higher gas rates because it demands the right to a profit of 10 per cent on a valuation which it swears amounts to the above sum. Then, when the city fixes a gas rate lower than was formerly charged, the Community Natural Gas Company appeals to the State Railroad Commission and again claims that the valuation of its property in Eastland is

Merchants Endorse New Cotton Paper

Support of the South's basic product, cotton, was shown this week in Eastland when several merchants subscribed to the idea of using a new cotton content bond paper for their stationery and office forms. This paper, which is 25 per cent cotton is manufactured by the Champion Fibre Company of Canton, N. C., is being stocked by the Weekly Record office and will be used extensively in job work.

The Eastland merchants and business men who have ordered stationery on this cotton content bond are Harper Tire & Battery Company, Butler and Harvey Chevrolet Company, Freyschlag Insurance Agency, and the County, which is ordering stationery for its different offices.

The South's greatest resources are represented in this new paper—it's cotton and its timber. In printing qualities, in texture, and in general appearance the paper compares favorably with many all-rag papers. It is strong and durable and its texture smooth and close. For every ton of Cotton Content Bond paper 500 pounds of cotton are consumed over $188,999. The company demands a gas rate that will produce to it a profit on that valuation. Now, if it gets a profit out of Eastland on that valuation, then I most solemnly contend it ought to pay taxes to the City on that same valuation. A fair deal both to that Company and to Eastland ought to be given.

I submit it is unfair to the taxpayers of Eastland to assess their property at a fair cash value, or even to reduce it to 50 per cent of its fair cash value, when every citizen here, save the salaried people, perhaps, have been and are now doing business at a tremendous loss, and then at the same time fix a valuation on this gas company's property on the same basis as on the individual's property. The $90,000 valuation given its property last year is just about half what its property is worth, and on the amount it collects its profits out of Eastland. Its own figures and assertions prove every statement I have made. Engineers in your city will sustain my contentions.

As a private citizen, and as one who will be affected by your acts in this matter, I appeal to you to fix a fair cash value to the property of the gas company, and when you do, it should not be less than $175,000. It has not paid its taxes to Eastland on a fair valuation in the past, and now let it do justice to our City this year. Respectfully,
M. McCULLOUGH, SR.

AD GETS RESULTS

In his ad appearing in last week's Record G. S. Stire, manager of the local J. C. Penney store, included an article which he did not have in stock. By 2:30 o'clock of the first day at least twelve people had called for this article. Mr. Stire advertised 10 yards of muslin sheeting for 49c and it should have been 10 yards of unbleached muslin for 49c.

At least one thing was proved by this error and that was that the people of this community are reading the ads in the Record and using this to protect the taxpayers, the board is trying to reduce the property valuations to a minimum.

Equalization--

"Agreement between the taxpayers and the board has been almost unanimous," Theodore Ferguson, member of the board, said. "Only one formal complaint has been filed out of the first 200 taxpayers to appear before the board."

Although theoretically one hundred taxpayers should have appeared before the board each day, the 200 hearings during the first three days has indicated fair progress. Mr. Marlow explained. Six hundred taxpayers on the rendered rolls of the city were summoned to appear before the board during this week and it is hoped that most of these will appear.

All those on the unrendered rolls are being summoned to appear next week, and the board will be in session the greater part of the week.

The city manager and members of the board of equalization urge the taxpayers to be prompt in reporting to the board. A strict schedule should be maintained in order that the board can complete its work in the regular time. Taxpayers who have received notices through the mail should report on the day and at the hour indicated, Manager Marlow urged.
