LITTLE WORK TO BE GIVEN UNDER PLAN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—A comprehensive program to meet the unemployment situation and to replace the CWA will be launched this spring to continue for a year, President Roosevelt announced today.

The program will be based on experience of the past nine months, which has shown unemployment must be faced on more than one front, it was pointed out. It is in this mind the new program has been divided to meet the following situation:

Distressed families in rural areas. Stranded population living in the industry communities in which there is no hope for future employment, such as miners in closed fields.

The unemployed in the urban areas. President Roosevelt plans to direct for this relief the $950,000, recently appropriated by Congress. He believes that sum will be sufficient to carry the program through.

In the question of the care of the elderly in the rural areas, a white statement said: Their security must be identified with agriculture. They must be placed in position of self-support. In many places of the country this calls for a change from commercial farming and dependence on a single cash crop, to the growing of the various commodities needed to maintain the family.

Relief funds, therefore, will be expended on behalf of rural families in a manner and to an extent which will enable them to achieve support. Work for wages from funds is not an essential part of this phase of the program and will be provided only insofar as it is necessary to accomplish the primary objective.

The statement said some of the funds to be employed included building or rebuilding to provide farm homes; the provision of seeds and stock for other commercial purposes and opportunities to these workers to earn money through part-time employment.

In addition the administration has planned distribution of regular jobs on highways and other public works carried on in rural areas.

Poison Ivy Gas Found Dangerous

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah.—Gas from burning poison ivy is as poisonous as the shrub itself, Dr. T. B. Beatty, state health commissioner, and B. P. Spry, state director of safety of the CWA in Utah, disclosed after an extended study.

CWA workers, employed to clean up nearby canyons, were warned against touching the dead wood, but nothing was said about the danger of burning it, Dr. Beatty said.

Smoke from the burning poison ivy causes irritation similar to that of touching it, he explained. While the workers were supplied with heavy boots and gloves to protect them, several cases were treated. It was later discovered the victims had gathered around fires on which poison ivy burned.

VOTING PRECT. NO. 1 DIVIDED, NEW ONE NO. 27

Hereafter, voters in the Eastland precinct cast their ballots at two voting boxes instead of one, the county commissioners at their August session dividing precinct No. 1 into two precincts. Before that date, voters had only one designated place for the casting of ballots.

The new precinct, which was created last August, is number 27. Precinct 27 imaginary line runs north with Daugherty avenue to the Texas & Pacific railroad track, thence east with said track to Eastland and Breckenridge paved road and then north to the county line.

Precinct 1's division line goes east to the Eastland and Carbon paved road, then in a generally northern direction to points which intersect Daugherty street in Eastland, then north with Daugherty to the Texas and Pacific tracks after which the line runs east with the track to where it is crossed by paved road leading from Eastland to Breckenridge, after which it extends to the county line.

The county has 27 voting precincts, which are: Nos. 1 and 27, Eastland; 2 and 25, Ranger; 3, Tudor; 4, Sabanno; 5 and 6, Cisco; 7, Rising Star; 8, Desdemona; 9, Pioneer; 10, Alameda; 11, Kokomo; 12, Carbon 13, Gorman 14, Long Branch; 15, Okra; 16, Seranton; 17, Nimrod; 18, Dothan; 20, Romney; 21, Mangum; 22, Pleasant Hill; 23, Staff; 24, Cook and 26, Rising Star.

Farmers Who Moved In 1933 May Sign Cotton Contracts

Word has been received by J. C. Patterson, county agent, to the effect that farmers who have moved onto farms that were under 1933 cotton contracts whereby the tenant or owner agreed to plow up a percentage of the acreage planted to cotton, would be eligible to sign contracts this year.

There had been some question as to whether or not these farmers would be eligible to come under the plowup plan, but the telegram has made it clear that they would be.

Friday of this week is the last day on which these contracts may be signed and all information must be contained on the contracts so that they will not have to be returned for corrections.

Dr. Kuykendall In Accident Tuesday

Word was received in Ranger Tuesday night by Miss Alla Rae Kuykendall that Dr. and Mrs. Kuykendall, who were enroute to Oklahoma where Mrs. Kuykendall's mother is seriously ill, had been in an automobile accident near Gainesville.

Neither Dr. nor Mrs. Kuykendall were seriously injured, the message stated, though the car was damaged. Repairs were made and the trip to Oklahoma was continued.

FORCED SALE MORATORIUM IS NOW A LAW

AUSTIN, March 1.—A moratorium on forced sales of real property in Texas became effective today when Governor Ferguson signed the senate bill to that effect.

Beginning today, a debtor faced with a forced sale of his property may go into district court and upon proper showing before the judge, secure temporary stays of sale.

No stay may extend beyond Feb. 1, 1935, the date of self-limitation in the bill. Tax delinquency of more than two years shall constitute a barrier to such relief, but it may be removed if the judge finds the debtor to have a substantial equity in the property involved.

March 6 is the next date of scheduled foreclosure sales in Texas. A temporary 30-day moratorium had been enacted last February to allow legislative consideration of the act.

Farm Loans May Be Made Soon at Local C. of C.

At a meeting of the Breckenridge Credit Corporation, held in Breckenridge the latter part of last week, W. C. Hickey was appointed to handle the loans made to the farmers of this section through the corporation, which replaces the Regional Agricultural Credit Corporation of Fort Worth insofar as this section of the state is concerned.

Rufus Cox of Carbon was appointed county supervisor and all applications made for loans will be forwarded to him for approval and will then be sent to the Breckenridge Credit Corporation after receiving approval by him after he has investigated the case.

Applications for loans will be received in Ranger as soon as details concerning the applications is received from the regional office at Houston. These loans will be in addition to the feed and seed loans, which are of a temporary nature, as the organization will be permanent.

Information on these farm loans, which will carry an interest rate of between six and six and a half per cent per annum, can be obtained through the office of the chamber of commerce within a short time, it was stated at the meeting.

County Fair Plan Ready For Approval

Milton Lawrence and Donald Kinnaird, legal advisor and president of the Community Fair of Eastland county, respectively, presented the charter which has been granted by the state of Texas, at the directors of the association's meet Friday, in the offices of the Chamber of Commerce.

Saturday, Kinnaird, Lawrence, and E. Bedford Jones, acting architect on the project, were of the decision to leave for Fort Worth to obtain the approval of the legal and engineering department of the PWA. After their approval, the plans of the project will be sent to Washington for final approval.

Emergency Crop Loans Offered to County Farmers

Farmers seeking loans from the $40,000,000 emergency crop loan fund will be directed in the near future where to apply in their respective communities, stated William I. Myers, governor of the Farm Credit Administration. Rules and regulations covering such loans are now being prepared.

It is required by the law that borrowers, as a condition to receiving an emergency loan, must furnish proof of cooperation with the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. The nature of proof of cooperation will be similar to that recently announced as applicable to other borrowers who apply for loans under the Farm Credit Administration.

Each applicant must obtain clearance through, or furnish a certificate of cooperation with the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. The production control associations will make available lists of those who have signed acreage control contracts. Farmers who are on this list, if otherwise eligible to borrow, will be able to obtain loans.

County councils of the production control associations will certify to representatives of the Farm Credit Administration the names of any farmers who, while not signing acreage control contracts, are cooperating in not increasing their production contrary to the acreage control program.

Where county councils have not been set up, Farm Credit Administration representatives will be instructed to make no loans to farmers who are planning to increase production.

For the time being, according to Governor Myers, the various regional emergency crop loan offices will handle the applications for loans from the $40,000,000 fund, and these offices will be under the immediate direction of the Emergency Crop Loan division, which is placed under the supervision of the Production Credit Commissioner, S. M. Garwood, and the governor.

Farmers May Sign Cotton Contracts Friday, March 2

Miss Mary Campbell, in charge of the cotton acreage reduction contracts in the Ranger territory, has been notified by J. C. Patterson, county agent, that for one day only cotton contracts can be signed by farmers who have not already signed up.

The letter from the county agent explaining this additional day reads as follows: "For one day only, Friday, March 2, we will write cotton contracts. Providing such contracts may be completed and mailed to this office that night or delivered by the producer in person to this office by noon Saturday.

"No contract may be accepted that requires mailing for signatures. Any such contract improperly written or requiring additional information automatically dies as there will be no time for returning contracts for changes.

"I am questioning the following telegram which I have received but have not yet had a reply: 'If any producer fulfilled a 1933 contract on another farm and this farm was under 1933 contract by another producer, contract is not acceptable.'

"If there are producers who want to sign, send them over Friday."

Charter Granted For County Fair

The directors of the Community Fair of Eastland will meet Friday, 2 p. m., in the offices of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce.

At the meeting a report will be offered by Milton Lawrence and Donald Kinnaird, legal advisor and president of the association respectively, who have returned from Austin where a charter was obtained for the association.

In a few days plans for the fair grounds which have already been sent to PWA officials at Fort Worth will be sent to Washington for final approval.

Members of the association are confident that the plans for the project will be approved. In the fair ground project are included plans for the erection of a stadium, an auditorium which can be employed as a gymnasium, a half mile track, an exhibit building, and other forms of buildings which will provide all the necessary equipment to make the annual fair more successful.

E. Bedford Jones, Eastland, is the acting architect.

TEXAS-MADE ARTICLES TO BE EXHIBITED

The public is invited by the Thursday Afternoon club to visit the display of goods manufactured in Eastland and Eastland county and to be shown in the Stubblefield building on the south side of the square, Friday night, beginning at 6 o'clock, and opening Saturday morning at 9:30 for the day.

Local merchants will display Texas-made goods that are handled in their stores, and there will also be articles shown which have been sent directly to the club for this exhibit, and donated.

There is an interesting collection, including cotton goods of all kinds; the famous Texas pecans; handkerchiefs, food staples, and some of these will be served in the demonstration, a refreshment for the visitors.

The enterprise honors Texas Day, and exhibit shown in conjunction with the club program, presented Thursday afternoon in community clubhouse, on "Know Your Texas."

January Sales Above Those of One Year Ago

AUSTIN.—Retail dollar sales continue to make a favorable showing in comparison with the corresponding month a year earlier, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Re-search. In January, sales of 86 Texas department stores and spe-cially shops reporting to the bu-reau were 28 per cent above those of January, 1933. Five cities re-ported increases in dollar sales of 35 per cent or more. They were El Paso, Houston, Port Arthur, Waco, and Temple.

Department stores with an an-nual volume of $500,000 or more showed an increase in dollar sales over January, 1933, of 29 per cent while department stores with an annual volume of business of less than $500,000 reported an average increase of 33 per cent. Men's clothing store sales were 31 per cent above those in January last year; women's specialty shops, 18 per cent above; and dry goods and apparel stores, 17 per cent above.

Although the percentage of cred-it sales to net sales was 2 per cent greater than in January, 1933, the percentage of collections to outstanding accounts was 6 per cent higher.

W. E. Moore Zone Administrator At Rising Star

RISING STAR, Feb. 24.—W. E. Moore of Eastland, and former minister of the Church of Christ in Rising Star, was last week ap-pointed zone administrator of the Eastland county CWA, Zone 4. He opened his office Friday morning in the Keller building on West College street.

Moore's duties as zone admin-istrator will absorb the work pre-viously carried on by the local CWA committee of business men, as well as include supervision of all relief measures taken in Ris-ing Star and other parts of this zone.

Zone 4 includes the territory from Nimrod south to Okra, Rising Star, Pioneer, Sabano, and a part of the Romney district. All CWA relief work done in this territory must be passed on at the office in Rising Star, Moore said.

Eastland Man's Mother Is Dead

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Anderson returned home Monday from Cooper, to which place they were called by the illness of Mr. Ander-son's mother, Mrs. C. W. Ander-son, who passed away three hours before their arrival, Friday, Feb. 23.

She was 58 years of age and left a husband and four children, E. M. Anderson of Eastland, T. A. Anderson and G. W. Anderson of Cooper, and a daughter, Mrs. W. C. Taylor of Crandall, all of whom, with the exception of E. M. Ander-son, were with her when she died.

The funeral services were held at 3:30 p. m., Saturday, in Klon-dike, in the old family burial lot, with Rev. T. A. Nelson, pastor of the Baptist church of Cooper, of-ficiating.

All her nine grandchildren, boys and girls, under 12 years of age, were the flower bearers, and her nephews were the pallbearers.

Wonderful floral offerings at-tested the affection in which the decedent was held.

Mrs. E. M. Anderson stated that the loveliest wreath of all was sent by the Butler-Harvey Chevrolet company of Eastland, where Mr. Anderson is employed.

Baptists Plan A Sunday School Convention Apr. 10

FORT WORTH.—Dr. W. R. White, pastor of the Broadway Baptist Church, Fort Worth, Tex., will be host pastor to the 7,500 messengers who are expected, to attend the Annual Texas Baptist State Sunday school convention, April 10, 11, 12, 1934.

Texas Baptists have a total of 2,169 Sunday schools with an enrollment of 442,000. There are now 40,000 officers and teachers in service in our Baptist Sunday schools. Texas has the second largest enrollment in Sunday school of any state in the Union and first in Baptist Sunday school enrollment.

Principle speakers who are scheduled to deliver inspirational addresses are: Dr. C. Oscar John-son, pastor of the Third Baptist Church, St. Louis; President Pat M. Neff, Baylor University, Waco; and Dr. P. E. Burroughs, Baptist S. S. board, Nashville, Tenn.

Conference work and round table discussions of Sunday school problems will feature most of the morning and afternoon sessions. The evening sessions will be in-spirational with special music and song service preceding the ad-dresses.

A total of 6,985 registered mes-sengers attended the Sunday school convention when it met in Dallas in 1932. Because of the expansion of the work and increase in Sunday school enrollment, of-ficials of the convention expect an even larger total of registered messengers and have therefore set a goal of 7,500.

Eastland Zone B. T. S. Met In Eastland Sunday

The Eastland zone, Baptist Training school, which in reality are the B. Y. P. U. branches of zone, which gather into a general Baptist school of instruction or training school, once a month, met in the Eastland Baptist church Sunday, 2:30 p. m., with Bobby Campbell of Midway, president, opening the program with song service, concluded with the B. Y. P. U. hymn, "The Reapers," led by Mr. Kennedy of Ranger, with accompaniment by Miss Doris Mitchell of Ranger, elected pianist vice, Mrs. Mahaffey, of Eastland, who leaves soon for California, her new home.

In the award of banners, Ran-ger Central church received that for attendance and Gorman church for efficiency.

A deeply helpful, spiritual talk, "Christ Must Reign in Our Quiet Times," was given by J. A. Ross of Eastland.

Midway presented the devotion-al and Gorman representative a reading, "Prayer Changes Things." Talk, "I Wonder," Miss E. May Lindsay of Gorman.

Talk, "Golden Hands," Miss Mamie Robinson of Ranger.

Minutes of the last zone meeting were presented by the secretary, Miss Irene Williams of Eastland, and Terrell Coleman, president of local B. T. S., gave the closing prayer.

Next meeting announced for Gorman, 2:30 p. m., fourth Sun-day in March.

There were 60 present, repre-senting Midway, New Hope, Gor-man, Desdemona, Eastland, and Central and First churches of Ran-ger.

NO GROCERY BILLS FOR HIM

AUGUSTA, Me.—After more than 25 years of planning, Leslie J. Bradley, Augusta farmer, has lopped grocery bills off the family budget. He grows every food nec-essary on his 50-acre farm near here, supporting a family of eight. One son and three daughters, all graduates of Michigan State Col-lege, help manage the farm.

DALLAS, Feb. 27.—Thomas W. Vardell, 61, president of the Southwestern Life Insurance company, died suddenly here today of a heart attack.

Mrs. E. M. Anderson stated that the loveliest wreath of all was sent by the Butler-Harvey Chevrolet company of Eastland, where Mr. Anderson is employed.

Sport Doesn't Weaken Heart

CHICAGO.—The popular idea that heart disease and athletics go hand in hand was disproved by an explanation of the need for edu-cation of cardiac disorders by Mrs. Gertrude Howe Britten, executive director of the Chicago Heart as-sociation.

"The general health effects of physical exercise are part of the bill of rights of every individual," she said. "Instead of impairing the heart, such exercise should build up the healthy and give the individual more resistance to all diseases."

"The modern trend toward athlet-ics cannot be counted as a cause of increased cardiac deaths. With proper knowledge of heart conditions, athletes do not exercise

Restricted Bank To Pay Depositors

FORT WORTH, Feb. 27.—The American Bank & Trust company, operating under a 5 per cent with-drawal restriction since last March, today announced it was prepared to pay its $300,000 deposits in full.

Actual payment began immedi-ately.

President E. C. Gillham asked that all depositors call immedi-ately for their accounts. The bank will discontinue operations as a bank of deposit, he said, and will operate as a trust company.

Game Wardens Used As Aids to Police

BOSTON, Mass.—Criminals will find little refuge in the re-crete parts of Massachusetts. A force of 50 game wardens has been put at the disposal of the po-lice for the purpose of pursuing law-breakers into the little-known spots which they might choose as hiding places until the persistence of pursuit has weakened.

Each game warden knows his particular district thoroughly and has been well trained in law en-forcement. In the past wardens have proved the value of their training by leading authorities to hide-outs and just recently led them to the ruins of a burned car which had been used by killers in fleeing from the scene of a double killing and hold-up in Needham.

PLAYING HORSE FATAL

MONTREAL.—One of the oldest child games—playing horse with a broom—resulted in the death here of Pierre Orleans, aged 20 months. He was fatally scalded when his "horse" balked and upset a pot of hot coffee over him.

The reason why the nations are so slow disarming is that the talk is less convincing than the arms.

Club Women Explain Yard Improvements

"Native shrubs should be plant-ed in clumps as they grow in na-ture," stated Mrs. E. E. Todd, yard improvement demonstrator of the Bass Lake Home Demonstration Club, Gorman. Mrs. Todd is using red bad and red haw plants in the screen plantings.

Mrs. Todd has transplanted her roses from the bed around the house to a rose garden where they can be cultivated as roses need from time to time each year. These bushes have been planted four feet apart, giving plenty of room for cultivation and growth.

A tile cutting bed, the hollow cement tile placed one foot in the ground for sub-irrigating the cut-tings grown there, was made last year. Four hundred and twenty-five cuttings are in the bed at present. These plants are to be used in her yard and the yards of cooperators of the club.

Pruning Roses

Unpruned rose bushes are likely to produce a great quantity of relatively small flowers or no parti-cular shape and value for garden purposes. Pruning is done for two purposes; to conserve the energies of the plant by directing its vitality into those branches which can best use it, and still further to concen-trate it into the proper number of flowers which the plant can devel-op to perfection. When roses are not pruned, nature takes care of part of the work by starving some of the stems and the bush is un-sightly. For these reasons, I prune my roses every year, states Mrs. R. D. Vandeford, yard improvement demonstrator of the Reich Home Demonstration Club, located west of Cisco.

The best method of pruning is to leave only the clean, straight growth of last year. It will be necessary to remove some of last year's growth at times from old vigorous plants in order that each shoot may have room to develop. The shoots left should be evenly distributed in order that the plant may be well balanced.

Wait until the last severe freeze before pruning roses. The top eyes of the rose canes always be-gin to grow first, and this growth is not lost when the roses are pruned. The lower eyes are safely dormant and the bushes will grow off after a late pruning.

Three methods of pruning may be used, first, hard pruning, con-

Whose Fault?

Parents who understand children know where to place the blame when a youngster mopes, keeps to himself, or is "ugly" toward others. With the vent of repeal, student drink has decreased noticeably, opinion of Charles Colson, ager of the student union atquette University here. His is that most students find the liquor system a bit beyond means, but having tasted it, are no longer content with pre-repeal variety.

NORTH STAR

Special Correspondent
The fall sowing of winter grain is looking fine and with the acreage of spring oats that the farmers are sowing, it looks as though they are trying for an early feed crop. The mild winter has been fine on livestock.

From the looks of the gardens, everyone intends to try to have a full pantry this year. They plan to have flowers, too, as all are busy spading yards and making flower beds.

During February the North Star club has canned five hives, in demonstrating the latest methods in beef canning, at which over 100 people attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Turman Jacobs, who have been making their home with his parents, have moved to town.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Burkhead attended the funeral of "Uncle" Buddy Smith Thursday at Rising Star.

The North Star club met Tuesday in an all-day meeting, each lady bringing a covered dish for lunch. We quitted two quilts for Mrs. Buchanan and a very enjoyable meeting was had. In the afternoon we had as visitors Meses Barton, Hill, Brawner and Davidson.

Mrs. J. C. Coursoy is visiting in Brownwood.

Mrs. John Hancock is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bowers of Brownwood spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bowers.

The North Star singing class met Thursday night at the clubhouse with 37 present. The program was enjoyed by all. It being Mrs. Davidson's birthday she served cake. Our next meeting will be March 8. Visitors are welcome.

Mrs. Henry Hill of Okra visited her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Balding, this week.

Here of late all we hear is "reduction, reduction, reduction." When our husbands come in from town after dark and we have the chores all done and supper waiting for them, they have this for their alibi: "Dear, I had to meet with the reduction committee." How do we know? All we hear is corn, cotton, peanuts and hog reduction.

Baseball Fans Had Enthusiastic Meeting Monday

At a meeting of baseball players, Monday, in the Chamber of Commerce office, official announcement of the date of the initial workouts, March 12, was made by L. E. Spalding, manager of the Eastland baseball club. The meeting was attended by approximately 25 players, who displayed enthusiasm in participating in play of a baseball team. Spalding has urged all, in this territory, who contemplate trying out for the local team, to interview him by March 5.

A directors' meet of the Eastland Baseball association was held at 10 p. m., Monday, in the office of the president, Sam Butler. Directors of the association made the decision that in the near future they would send to Comyn and inquire as to the possibilities of Eastland entering a baseball league which has its headquarters at Comyn.

My Trip To The Century of Progress

By JODIE R. JORDAN
Rising Star, Texas

The City of Chicago
The fourth largest city in the world has:

A population of 3,375,000.

An area of 298.6 square miles.

38 railroads terminating here.

1,107 miles of surface lines, carrying 732,095,600 passengers annually.

231 1/2 miles of elevated track, carrying 152,414,250 passengers annually.

146 miles of motor coach, carrying 49,571,370 passengers annually.

101 miles of water front.

20 airports.

3,623 miles of streets, of which over 3,000 are paved.

423,786 licensed automobiles.

5,345 policemen.

2,620 firemen.

1,019,875,653 gallons of water pumped daily.

An electricity output of 3,526,955 K. W. daily.

1,795 churches of all demoni-

nations.
306 elementary schools.
24 high schools.

Facts in Brief of the Fairgrounds
424 acres comprise the fairgrounds.

Every inch of the fairgrounds was once under the surface of Lake Michigan.

Funds mainly raised by bond issue subscribed by private citizens.

127 insurance companies underwrote the exposition against fire and wind.

The "Hall of Science" contains a corillion.

The world's largest loudspeaker were installed (and still are) on the grounds.

Over 400 scientists from every part of the world aided in preparing the science exhibit.

The largest and most expensive solid metal fence encloses and protects the grounds.

60,000 chairs were furnished visitors.

The travel and transport building has the world's largest unsupported roof.

Over 2,000,000 persons can be accommodated to and from the exposition by various means of transportation.

A water-pumping system capable of pumping over 25,000,000 gallons per day supplies the exposition grounds.

Special automobile parking zones are laid out west of the grounds; 50 cents per day.

Young with wheel chairs carried people to all parts of the fairgrounds.

A charge of 50 cents was made on entering the fair grounds.

Forty-four states, four territories, and 14 foreign nations participated in the exposition.

14,079 teachers.
A school enrollment of 508,438.

291 motion picture and vaudeville houses.

Only 15 legitimate theatres.
604 hotels with 83,037 rooms.
525 special and private universities and colleges.

10 major universities.
If I had taken one minute to look at each exhibit shown there I could have stayed 180 days and nights. I only stayed five days and nights. Imagine what I did not see.

The most interesting exhibits I believe that I saw were in the "Hall of Science." For example: Modern plant for making phosphorus and phosphoric acid.

Ammonium treated wood it was proved would not burn.

Iodine crystals were made by sublimation. Heat applied to the bottom of the glass globe causes the iodine to vaporize. As the vapors rise to the cooler parts of the globe, they crystallize.

The transparent man, showing every organ of the body separately by an individual light for each part.

A rail that Abraham Lincoln split on a farm in Coles county, Illinois, 102 years ago.

Cross section of a tree about 6 feet in diameter contracting and expanding, showing cambium layer, pith, medullary rays, etc.

A large globe about 10 feet in diameter showing every chemical element its atomic weight density where found, etc.

Cell divisions in the plants.
In fact you botany and chemistry sharks would enjoy your work better if you could see these exhibits. Then there is one more I would like to mention in this building and that is the development of the human embryo through 90 different stages. More people spent more time observing this than any other exhibit in the Hall of Science. Each stage was preserved in a large glass container placed in the all, each stage was very distinct.

The next most interesting building in my estimation was the Travel and Transport building.

Clay moulds showing Blackstone hills of South Dakota, Yellowstone National Park, Glacier National Park, Mt. Evans, Lindbergh Pass, Berthold Pass, Pike's Peak and many others with highways and waterways with cars being pulled up and down the hills by the use of a chain attached beneath the car. Just to look down on one of the little moulds gives one a vivid imagination of the real hills, mountains, etc. One of the largest maps I have ever seen was made on the wall, about 24 feet high by 30 feet long, showing the main cities and highways of the United States.

Another interesting thing found here was another large globe showing every kind of coin in the entire world. Each coin (enlarged a number of times) was placed vertically on the globe, one beside the other making a complete circle of the globe. Each coin was labeled of course. This building is 125 feet high, 200 feet wide. In the dome the story of the Century of Progress was dramatized.

In the "Hall of Religion," I saw an exact model of the Ulm Cathedral in Germany. This model was composed of 4200 pieces of wood. It took 7 seven years to make the model. The real cathedral will seat about 30,000 people at one time. There was a cup there that it was supposed that Christ drank from. One of the largest churches in the world was represented there. It was "The Chicago Temple." It was 560 feet above sea level; 80 feet by 128 feet; cost $3,500,000, and it has aided 113 other churches in Chicago since 1858. The present building is the fifth one on the site.

Hall of Social Science: A few of the many interesting things seen there were:

World's smallest theatre (holding about 25).

U. S. navy department model, showing ships U. S. model and South American model. The unit of federal government preserving wild life is the U. S. Biological survey. Also in the Social Science group was an exhibit of the Boulder Dam project power plant which puts out 1,835,000 horsepower.

The "Sky Ride" that you hear many people speak of is a "Creative, ingenious man—Strength, heights, power, harnessed to serve him." Two steel towers 625 feet high, one-half mile apart were connected by cables over which ran rocket cars to be ridden for sightseeing and for the thrill.

A few of the foreign countries represented were as follows: Virgin Islands, exhibits were beads, bead bags, turtle shells, large leaves, tapestry and basket work. Hawaiian headquarters, Hawaiian grass huts and a small city shown in the distance. Only one room of this was shown. Porto Rico, flowers, tapestry, needle work, rugs and basket work. Czechoslovakia, beautiful cut glass, clothes and all kinds of expensive dry goods. In fact their exhibit was gorgeous.

Sweden, jewelry, rugs, dry goods, glass ware, etc, were their main exhibits. However, outside was found a Swedish American liner whose length was 600 feet, width 78 feet, H. P. 18,000, and speed, 17 1/2 knots.

The Federal Building Court of State reminds us of our faith in our country. Forty-four states and four territories were represented. The Texas exhibit was not completed until about the first of August. Several other states were late also. We should be proud that we were not last as it seemed we were going to be. The states as a whole had wonderful exhibits. In my estimation California ranked first, Florida second and I heard Texas had a very good exhibit later.

General Motors Building
The gifts of mechanical power intrigue our minds.

This was an exhibition of all G. M. C. The main thing of interest here was the making of the Chevrolet. One man was placed on each little job, doing only one thing. Models of first and last car of each make was shown.

Nash (not a G. M. C.) was shown in a glass revolving show case about 100 feet high.

Just before entering the travel and Transport Building, we inspected the President of Mexico's special train, several coaches consisting of president's private office, clerk's office, kitchen, bedrooms, bathrooms and every other convenience possible.

The world's largest dual service locomotive, length 103 feet, 5 inches, height 16 feet, weight 318,000 pounds, water capacity 18,000 gallons, steam pressure 275 lbs.

S-49 Submarine
To be demilitarized on or before Dec. 1, 1936. It is the largest in the world, weighs 10,300 tons, 240 feet long; can be entirely submerged in less than one minute. It cost $3,000,000 and was formerly of the U. S. Navy.

A few out of the ordinary reptiles were: Gila monster, Chinese dragon, 164 teeth, world's largest snake, 497 pounds, 195 years old, never eats anything except what he kills himself. It has the smallest brain of any animal. The first boa constrictor ever born in captivity was born July 6, 1933.

The Bee Leaf It Oar Knot Odditorium
Things I saw to be true:
The entire alphabet written on a grain of rice.

"Ripley" was written on a hair.
Lord's Prayer written on a grain of rice. The pen that this was written with. V. D. Brenner, the man who wrote them.

Mule faced woman (called that because she was once scared by a mule and her face now resembles one.) She can talk.

Rubber skinned man and woman (skin hung down their back and under their chin about two feet).

Man pulled a little wagon and a man by placing a hook and chain to each eyelid.

A woman with hair eight feet long.

Man played thirty musical instruments during one song.

Four six-lettered words were written backwards, upside down while spelling opposite words aloud.

A man held 20 billiard balls in one hand at one time—also held 18 baseballs at once.

A men with no arms or hands could shave, smoke, throw knives, and a score of other things by using his toes.

A two-headed baby.

A four-legged baby with three arms.

A violin made from 7034 pieces of wood.

A violin made from 10,000 matches.

Shrunken head, about 3 inches in diameter, done by Chinese in olden times for burial.

3634 words written on a postcard.

A sentence containing every letter in the alphabet.

We dislike to exchange job lots of sizes varying from a quarter up.

Drouth Stricken Panhandle Gets Good Rainfall

LUBBOCK, Texas, March 1.—Drouth-stricken South Plains of Texas were water-soaked today.

Rain, which fell in a slow, steady drizzle during the night and today totaled 1.13 inches here. The entire section recorded a rainfall of from one-half to three-quarters of an inch.

It was the first rain here in several months on the parched and almost barren ranges. So serious was the drouth in this section that pleas were made to the legislature for financial aid so feed could be bought.

Some declared the rain fell just in time to prevent the total loss of the winter wheat crop.

Bridegroom, 72, Fails to Get Job

SACRAMENTO, Cal.—Not only did a brilliant idea of a 72-year-old CWA worker fail to solve the problem of keeping a job, but it placed him in a worse position than ever.

The man, whose name was not divulged, was discharged when it was found he was single and had no dependents. Two days later he reappeared at the quarters and den "I've been to 'I got married. Informed that help matters, he said, "If I'd known 'I got married." CANTON, O.—Council is considering of the city's street as an economy move approximately $140, for street lighting in arc areas to the coming to council.

Individ Sermon Heard Sunday at Eastland Church

A good crowd was present Sunday at the Methodist church to hear Dr. C. Q. Smith, the pastor, in a forceful sermon on the "Samaritan." Smith told the beautiful story of the Samaritan and how he gave first aid and rescue to a man that had fallen among thieves. It is a better Samaritan to improve conditions that will steal and kill and de-

Men's 9:49 Bible Class Heard Good Program Sunday

The Men's 9:49 Bible class enjoyed a novel group singing program at their meeting Sunday morning conducted by O. L. Duckett, president, and held in the assembly room of the Methodist church.

Follow the hymn, "There is a Name I Love to Tell," an old-fashioned group singing of "On Jordan's Stormy Bank," was featured in which the older men sang the verses first, then the younger men, and then both groups together led by Frank Pierce, with Mrs. T. J. Haley at piano for program.

Prayer offered by Judge J. E. Hickman was closed with the Lord's prayer in unison.

W. F. Grieger sang the solo part of "O That Will Be Glory for Me," with chorus by the class.

President Duckett read a letter of thanks from the Womens Missionary society of church for the table, a gift of $25 value made by the 9:49 class.

Judge J. E. Hickman presented a fine lecture "Christ's Commission to His Disciples," prefaced with a contrast, and comparing the life of Charles Dickens, reading a part of the author's will, and the life of a Texan, a non-believer in Christ, who recently committed suicide.

There were 61 members present.

Youth Taken In Charge by Officer Attempts Escape

An amusing incident occurred Saturday night in Eastland of which there were many versions, but of which the following seems to be more authentic: a youth was searching cars on South Seaman street when he was apprehended by a resident of the street. The youth was taken in charge by the resident and turned over to one of the local officers. The officer and the offender started in the direction of county jail. Nearing the jail, the youth, "pulled a Houdini," that is escaped from the officer by emerging from his overcoat. As the story goes, the youth ran with Paddockian alacrity to cover, which in this instance was under the floor of a nearby house. Officers routed the boy from his hiding and with more careful measure, took him and locked him in the county jail.

Charges were expected to be filed today.

Editor Declares Isolation Is Fatal

Cleveland.—Statistical data and "cosmic precept" prove that neither America, nor any other nation can live alone, Oswald Garrison Villard, magazine editor, said in a lecture course address here.

Villard pointed out that, in his opinion, America could not isolate herself and live as a self-contained unit, as advocated by James W. Gerard, former Ambas-

FURY of the JUNGLE

DONALD COOK PEGGY SHANNON
ALAN DINEHART DUDLEY DIGGES
NOVELIZATION BY ARRANGEMENT WITH

WHAT HAS HAPPENED

Allen, a youth in Matto Grosso and confirmed woman-hater, falls for Joan, a girl who has been forced to step off at Matto Grosso because of the sickness of her brother. When the brother dies, Allen defends the girl against the advances of Taggart. He goes into the jungle to kill Taggart in order to raise funds to get the girl out of the community. Taggart sends a man after the youth to kill him, but a jaguar kills the assassin. Taggart also hires Dr. Parrish, a physician, away from the girl with the information that Allen has been hurt.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

When Taggart returned, Allen went up to him. "I wasn't around this morning when you were inviting bids." "Why?" asked Taggart with forced superiority. "Were you thinking of putting in a bid?" "Yeah—how do you go about it?" "Like this," said Taggart and he gave him a quick jab in the jaw which staggered Allen and knocked him against the bar. Then, like an uncoiled spring, he rushed back at the man and a fierce fight ensued. Allen was pretty well battered up from the fracas. His arm was twisted and wrenched, and his face and body bore signs of the conflict. But Allen insisted on making light of his injuries and getting ready to leave Malango, to take the boat up the river. He wanted to go to his shack to get his bag, but Dr. Parrish volunteered to do that for him. Just as Dr. Parrish was coming out of the hut, with Allen's bag, he was met by a group of men headed for the shack. "Going some place, Doc?" Taggart asked. "Why, yes. What do you want?" Taggart pointed to the bag. "I want to take a look through that." "What for?" Parrish inquired. "Just a matter of form, Doc. I lost a wallet with three hundred dollars in it. We're searching everybody." "You won't find it here, but you can go ahead and search," said Parrish. Taggart shrugged his shoulders doubtfully. "Go ahead, fellas." And one of the men, reaching into the duffle bag, pulled out the wallet. "Is this it?" he asked and handed the wallet to Taggart, who took it and examined it carefully, counting the money inside. "It's all here, too," Taggart replied. "Guess he was counting on saving it until he got to Rio. Then he looked at the bag and became surprised. "Say—that's Allen's bag. I guess we got the wrong fellow. Sorry, Doc. My apologies." Parrish saw through the entire frameup and realized that in some way he must spare Allen the outcome of it for the sake of Joan. "I had enough nerve to steal this wallet," he said, "but I haven't nerve enough to see you blame an innocent man." He looked straight at Taggart. "What are you getting at?" inquired the latter. "I stole that wallet," Parrish was genuinely calm, with a resigned look on his face. "Then what's it doing in Allen's bag?" "I put it there," Parrish lied. "I was going to borrow the bag along with your wallet." Taggart looked Parrish straight in the eye. "There's no exception to that law about stealing," he said. "If you took that wallet, it's your finish." "Yes, I know," said Parrish completely resigned. "That story won't let Allen out. It looks like money to me." "Let's get this over with," said Parrish. "I stole it and I don't want a trial." "Take him on down, men. I'll meet you there." As they passed Allen's shack, Parrish asked a few minutes to say

"You're sure a pretty picture, lady," Allen murmured. "Mrs. Allen to you," Joan answered. (Posed by Donald Cook and Peggy Shannon)

Sunday School Lesson

JESUS' TESTIMONY ABOUT HIMSELF
Text: Matt. 11:2-12:50
The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for March 4

By WM. E. GILROY, D. D.
Editor of The Congregationalist
What did Jesus say concerning himself? It is instructive to note that when John the Baptist, who had been thrown in prison, sent his disciples to Jesus inquiring whether he was the Messiah whose coming John had predicted, and for whom he had prepared the way, Jesus did not answer by making great claims for himself, or by speaking in any theological and metaphysical terms, such as historic Christianity and the great creeds have used.

It was in accordance with the simple life and teaching of Jesus that he should point to the outward evidences and send the disciples back to John to report the things that they had heard and seen. If Christians everywhere since the day when Jesus was on earth had interpreted the divine character of the Master and expressed their belief in him by emulating his example in loving thoughts and in good deeds, what a different world we should have and how much nearer the great organized forces of religion would have been to the realization of God's will!

It is not in theories concerning Jesus, but in the fact of the response to his life, that men recognize his divinity and find life in him. It is futile for us to speak in honor of our Master except as we honor him by following him and making our lives like his. It is as true today as it was in the day of Jesus himself that the spirit of Christ is manifest in acts and works of blessing.

Those who live in the spirit of Jesus cannot ignore the blind and the deaf and the lame, the sick and the sinful. No correctness of theory, no soundness of doctrine will make our lives speak forth the glory of God and the praise of Jesus unless our words of faith and profession are backed up by lives of love and usefulness toward our fellow men. Here in human life was the testing ground of the divinity of our Master, and here in human life is the testing ground of all who would share that divine life with him.

How accurately Jesus describes the people of his own generation, their prejudices and insistences on unimportant things, and their carelessness and perverseness in the presence of truth! Is our generation very different? Do not the great mass of our people still cavil, and complain, and enter into controversy over unimportant things, neglecting the soul of truth and the presence of the Master who still would lead us into lives and acts of love and goodness? Wisdom still is justified by her children.

From this picture of Jesus and his own generation, how inspiring it is to turn to Jesus himself in the prayer of thankfulness to his father and his simple appeal to all

Applications for Production Loans Being Received

Applications for production loans to farmers and stockmen in Eastland county are now being received by R. A. Choat, secretary-treasurer of the Breckenridge Production Credit Association. According to Mr. Choat, all loans will be made on a business basis and according to the security furnished by the applicant.

"The loans that will be made in this county and the other six counties served by the Breckenridge Production Credit Association must be good loans and loans that are collectible if the association is to continue as a permanent service to farmers in this and other communities, as intended," Mr. Choat said.

"Fortunately, not all farmers in this county need credit," he continued, "but for those who do the association stands as a business organization—not as a charity institution. Loans may be obtained for periods of 3 to 12 months by any eligible deserving farmer or stockman who needs credit and has security; but if a farmer or stockman is eligible for credit it must be extended on a business basis."

Each applicant has to state in his application what property he is offering to secure the loan, Mr. Choat said. Security for these loans will consist of first liens on crops, livestock or other personal property on which a lien, or chattel mortgage, may be taken to secure the loan adequately. The lien may be taken on property already in the possession of the borrower, or to be purchased with the money borrowed. It is not intended that production loans shall be secured principally by mortgages on real estate. Where this type of security is taken it will be regarded only as additional collateral.

Mr. Choat said that the charges on production loans would be as low as possible in keeping with business credit. A small fee is charged to inspect the property offered as security by the applicant, but usually no charge will be made for inspection if the loan is not granted. The minimum amount that can be loaned to any one eligible borrower is $50.00. The interest rate is 3 per cent above the discount rate of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston, and charged only for the actual number of months the loan is outstanding. The present discount rate of the

Science says Today use a LIQUID Laxative

If you want safe relief from Constipation

1. Regulate intestinal action gently—no "purging"
2. Measure dose to suit your individual needs
3. Avoid Bowel Fatigue and the laxative habit

Here's Why:

Harsh laxatives often drain the system, weaken the bowel muscles, and in some cases even affect the liver and kidneys. A doctor will tell you that the unwise use of harsh laxatives often does more harm than good. Fortunately, the public is fast returning to the use of laxatives in liquid form. A properly prepared liquid laxative brings a perfect movement. There is no discomfort at the time and no weakness after. You don't have to take "a double dose" a day or two later. In buying any laxative, always read the label. Not the claims, but the contents. If it contains doubtful drugs, don't take it. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescriptional preparation in which there are no mineral drugs. Its ingredients are on the label. By using it, you avoid danger of bowel strain.

The liquid test:

This test has proved to many men and women that their trouble was not "weak bowels," but strong cathartics: First. Select a good liquid laxative. 2. Take the dose you find is suited to your system. 3. Gradually reduce the dose until bowels are moving regularly without any need of stimulation. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has the highest standing among liquid laxatives, and is the one generally used. It contains senna, a natural laxative which is perfectly safe for the youngest child. Your druggist has Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Eczema Itching Resinol

Quickly relieve the torment and soothe the irritated skin by simply applying safe, comforting Resinol

Federal Intermediate Credit Bank is 3 per cent, which would make the interest rate to the farmer-borrower 6 per cent per annum. Loans may be obtained for general agricultural purposes including the costs of growing, cultivating, or marketing crops, and for the production of livestock, and dairy and poultry products. Most of the loans will run from 3 to 12 months and are to be due and payable at the time when the crops and livestock financed are sold.

Each farmer or stockman borrowing for the first time automatically becomes a member of the association since each is required to own voting stock in the association equal to $5.00 for every $100 or fraction thereof he borrows. The stock may be purchased with a part of the loan proceeds. It is the only voting stock in the association, and may be purchased only by borrowers, each having only one vote regardless of the amount borrowed.

A farmer or stockman who becomes a member of an association does not have to "stand good for" the loans of the association, or the debts of other borrowers. The stock carries no double liability. The Breckenridge Production Credit Association, which is authorized to make loans in this county, is one of 50 which have been established in this state. Most of the capital of the association is provided by the Production Credit Corporation of Houston, which is supervising the work of the associations in Texas.

Cleanup Urged By Health Officer

AUSTIN, Tex.—The warm days of spring will soon be here and the Texas State Department of Health urges everyone to see that their property is cleaned of the winter's accumulation of trash. It is only through individual responsibility and effort that one can have a clean and neat appearing city.

In planning your spring cleaning start with the house itself in the attic and work down, not forgetting the basement. Attics and basements are the greatest collectors of refuse and therefore dust and dirt that the house possesses, and their neglect often constitutes a serious fire hazard. Do not forget to screen against flies and mosquitoes. The better the job of cleaning, and with a garbage pail kept tightly covered, the fewer flies there will be, because flies love dirt and filth and breed in garbage and other filth.

Under the C. W. A. sanitary project pit privies and septic tanks may be installed at no cost for labor, also private water supplies may be sanitized. This will be a great improvement in rural sections and towns that do not have a city water supply or sewer system. We are prone to judge people in small measure by the kind of yard keepers we think they are. Many times you have heard some one say "No, I don't know the people next door but they cannot amount to much because their yard is cluttered with tin cans and papers and their garbage can is always open." Do not let your neighbors be able to pass judgment on you on such grounds.

Corn-Hog Reduction Contracts Should Be Signed at Once

Eastland county farmers have signed contracts for corn-hog production, which, if approved in their entirety by the federal government, will bring them $30,000, according to County Agent J. C. Patterson. Mr. Patterson points out, however, that there are still many farmers who should sign contracts and urges all who intend to sign to do so at once.

This picture tells better than words the merit of your Lucky Strike. Luckies use only the center leaves. Not the top leaves, because those are underdeveloped—not ripe. Not the bottom leaves, because those are inferior in quality—they grow close to the ground and are tough, coarse and always sandy. The center leaves are the mildest leaves, the finest in quality. These center leaves are cut into long, even strands and are fully packed into each and every Lucky—giving you a cigarette that is always round, firm, completely filled—no loose ends. Deal Base League Is Organized

Under a plan of H. C. Davis and a director of the Eastland Baseball Association, Tuesday night, went to town and after discussion with officers of their respective clubs tentatively reached agreement to form a baseball league which has been named "The Deal Baseball League."

Proposals to other towns to join the league have been forwarded to De Leon, Comanche, Gustavus, Stephenville, Ranger and others.

It is the intention of those forming the league to conduct it in a strictly amateur organization and to allow the commercial methods and some of their allied evils and corruptions to creep in. Some of the methods of fortifying the amateur status which have been agreed upon are: players must be residents of the town they represent on the diamond at least thirty days before joining the team, and that owners may not import their players from a greater distance than a radius of ten miles from their location and this not to include incorporated towns exceeding 1000 population.

Announcement of the complete governing rules will be made after meeting of the officers of the deal ball club with Comyn baseball club officials on March 7.

Eastland Girl Returns From A Visit In East

Mary McCarty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milburn McCarty Sr., returned Sunday night from Hanover, N. H., where she attended the annual winter carnival at Dartmouth college.

In commenting on the trip, Miss McCarty made mention of the unusual weather residents of New Hampshire were experiencing. On one day, according to Miss McCarty, the thermometer registered a temperature of 52 degrees below zero. Because of the weather it was necessary that she postpone her return to Eastland for several days as trains were unable to make their scheduled runs.

While attending the many activities at Dartmouth, Miss McCarty was the guest of Deborah Holmes, who had been appointed duchess by The Dartmouth, student publication of the college. Miss Holmes is a student at Smith college, Northampton, Mass.

Winter sports being enjoyed by sport enthusiasts this period of the year, Miss McCarty states, include skiing.

On the trip she visited Sally McLaughlin, from Dallas, who attends school in South Head, N. H. According to Miss McCarty, the trip was an unusual one and she enjoyed it immensely, her only regret being that her visit was of short duration.

Her brother, Milburn Jr., is a student at Dartmouth and is editor of the student publication, "The Dartmouth." Young McCarty plans to attend Harvard after completing his stay at Dartmouth.

TWO AVIATION BILLS SCORED BY SEC. DERN

WASHINGTON, March 1. — America's proud aviation development was thrown into new controversy today when Secretary of War George Dern denounced proposals to create an independent air corps outside the confines of either army or navy.

Mr. Dern told Representative J. J. McSwain, chairman of the house military affairs committee, the unified air corps plan under consideration by the house committee would disrupt the army's military effectiveness he would prefer to have no increase in strength rather than see it adopted.

Dern also opposed two different proposals he said had been introduced, one for creation of a separate air force and the other for construction of an air force of 3,000 planes.

The second measure, he said, has the defect of tearing down vital elements of the framework of defense. To increase the air force to 3,000 planes would provide an air force so far beyond any sane estimates of our needs its passage would be construed only as evidence of ardent militarism or immediate war.

Boys To Exhibit Amateur Planes Modeled Locally

In the coming exhibit of Texas-made products, to be staged under auspices of the Eastland Thursday Afternoon club, there will be a novel exhibit of amateur airplanes, made by boys of Eastland.

Mrs. J. E. Hickman, chairman in charge of the Texas manufacturers' exhibit for the club, requests all boys who have made airplanes, to enter them at the exhibit, in charge of Bobby Perkins.

The exhibit is in honor of Texas Day, and will be confined to a display of goods manufactured in this city and county, and Texas-made goods handled by Eastland merchants, as well as other Texas articles.

The exhibit opens Friday evening at 6 o'clock, with a musical program and will remain open all day Saturday. Admission is free.

Texas Defendant In Many Suits

AUSTIN.—Texas became defendant in another score of suits as a result of the special session of the legislature. Numerous additional resolutions were passed authorizing claimants to take their disputes with state departments into court for decision.

A citizen cannot sue the state without such permission from the legislature.

Most of the claims grow out of highway construction damage claims, or disputes with contractors over the amount due on contract.

A legal division to combat such suits was set up after the regular session of the legislature, so numerous were the petitions to sue.

Funeral services were conducted at Gorman this afternoon at 3 o'clock for John Henry Stinson, a pioneer citizen of Eastland county, who died at Texon Sunday.

DEADLY DISEASE

The film industry in Turkey had a most inauspicious debut at the holy village of Eyoub on the Golden Horn at Istanbul. Enraged by the "unholy" make-up on the faces of the actors, and the operations of the cameramen, a group of Bektashi dervishes attacked the company. They were pacified without any serious casualties.

GUN TRAPS MURDEROUS

HARRISBURG, Pa.—The menace to human beings by gun traps was stressed by the Pennsylvania Game Board. Three men hunting 'coons had a dog killed and narrowly escaped being wounded themselves when the animal stepped on a wire attached to a shotgun trap. Upon searching the vicinity, three gun traps were discovered. Two were baited with meat and one had a wire sprung along the full length of a log. The man responsible for the setting of the traps was sentenced to three months in the county jail.

'Counsellor-at-Law' To Be Shown at the Lyric Theatre Sun.

With the screen play specially prepared by the author of the stage play, with lavish settings, and with a cast headed by the incomparable John Barrymore, Universal has extended itself to the utmost to make "Counsellor-at-Law," which has been booked into the Lyric theatre Sunday, one of the finest motion picture productions of the year.

The stage play, "Counsellor-at-Law," was presented successfully on Broadway for two seasons, opening at the Plymouth Theatre on Nov. 6, 1932, and was presented in every large city in the United States, to be greeted enthusiastically.

Hoping to preserve the perfection of the production, Universal executives summoned personally, Elmer Rice, the author and producer and prevailed upon him to write a scenario for the picture.

Rice, one of the foremost playwrights in America today, is credited with the success of "Street Scene," which he wrote as a stage play and which was later adapted to the screen.

In the cast, in addition to Barrymore, are Bebe Daniels, recently returned from Europe, Doris Kenyon, more popular than ever, Onslow Stevens, slated for stardom, Isabel Jewell, the madcap receptionist of "Beauty for Sale," Melvyn Douglas, who has played opposite both Gloria Swanson and Greta Garbo, Mayo Methot, star of the stage production, "The Torch Song," and 10 members of the original cast of the stage production.

Carl Laemmle Jr., in charge of all Universal production, personally supervised "Counsellor-at-Law," which is hailed by dramatic and motion picture critics as one of the outstanding dramatic pictures of the year worthy of rank among the "10 best."

'Gallant Lady' To Open at the Lyric Theatre Monday

Which is the stronger love—the love of a woman for a man or the love of a mother for her child? In "Gallant Lady," the latest 20th Century picture which opens Monday at the Lyric theatre, beautiful Ann Harding embodies the answer to this age-old question.

Faced with the alternative of becoming reunited with her little son after years of separation under the penalty of silence regarding her true identity, or of disclosing the facts and thereby wrecking his future, Ann makes a decision which changes the whole course of her life—and the boy's.

What would you have done under similar conditions? Would you have acted as she did?

The story of "Gallant Lady," deals with the experiences of an unwed mother who achieves phenomenal business success, and then accidentally meets her own child, whom she had signed away for adoption immediately after its birth through inability to care for it.

In a series of dramatic sequences the tale reunites mother and child, but does it under penalties which would seem to be almost unbearable.

A brilliant cast, including Clive Brook, Tullio Carminati, Otto Kruger, Dickie Moore and Janet Beecher supports Miss Harding in this, her initial picture for Joseph M. Schenck and Darryl F. Zanuck. The picture is released by United Artists.

Take a snack out of the refrigerator just before retiring, and you'll sleep well, says a specialist—unless your wife catches you and keeps you awake half the night.

CITY COMMISSION MEETS The Eastland city commission at a recent meeting voted to donate $50 per month towards the support of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce. The motion was made by Commissioner Sherrill and passed unanimously. The donation was made contingent upon the Chamber of Commerce raising an additional $100 per month for the support of that institution.

The Chamber of Commerce was recently merged with the Retail Merchants' association so far as operation is concerned. H. C. Davis, secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association, is now joint secretary of the combined organization.

The ordinance of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce was repealed by the city commission.
