

GARRETT RALLY PLANS FORMED AT EASTLAND

Plans were completed Wednesday morning at Eastland by the executive committee for the Garrett-for-Congress club for Eastland county's participation in a motorcade from Sweetwater and Nolan county to Stephenville, where County Judge Clyde L. Garrett will speak Friday night.

Members of the committee decided citizens of Ranger, Eastland, Cisco and adjacent communities will converge on the south side of the Eastland square. The motorcade will leave Eastland at 1 o'clock. Stops and speeches will be made for Garrett's candidacy to the seventeenth congressional district post at Carbon, Gorman, De Leon and Dublin. The motorcade's schedule will put the group in Stephenville at 5:30.

Citizens of Rising Star and other members of the motorcade in the western part of Eastland county will join at Carbon.

The Eastland band will accompany the group. The Stephenville program will begin at 7:30. Speaking by L. R. Pearson, Ranger; J. W. Cockrill, Gorman; Judge Garrett and others at the rally will begin at 8 o'clock.

Demonstrations On Inoculating Legumes Given

Several Eastland county farmers are inoculating cowpeas, peanuts and other legumes to determine whether the practice pays in the county. The inoculant being used is a commercial preparation containing the necessary bacteria which is mixed with the seed before planting. The inoculation used was obtained by the county agent who is interested in learning the benefits and passing the information to other farmers.

In speaking of using inoculants, A. E. Miller, extension agronomist, states: "Judging from the reports of demonstrations, especially cowpeas, soy beans, and peanuts, results of the experiment station at Nacogdoches where the inoculation of cow peas last year gave a 42 per cent average increase in forage for all varieties, it is very important that we lay more stress on artificial inoculation."

The increases in size of vines is not the only benefit expected as the bacteria in the inoculant attach themselves to the roots of the plant, forming small nodules and making nitrogen from the air, adding it to the soil. Nitrogen is the most expensive element found in fertilizers and is very essential to normal plant growth.

Some of the growers who are inoculating are H. M. Gilbert and H. R. Gilbert of Carbon, Dick Weekes and J. L. Brown of Alameda and W. B. Starr of Dan Jern. The county agent advises that he still has some inoculant on hand if there are any interested.

Prospective A & M Students To Meet

All Eastland county high school graduates who are interested in enrolling in Texas A. & M. College this fall have been invited to attend a meeting in the county courtroom, Eastland, at 2 p. m., Saturday, June 13, at which time ex-students of A. & M. will tell them about the courses offered at the college.

An effort is being made to enroll enough boys from the county to organize a group project, thereby holding the expenses of attending school to a minimum. The project house idea has grown rapidly at A. & M., there being 43 groups of 550 boys during the 1935-36 term. The plan started four years ago with one group of 12 boys. The average cost per student each month, including house rent, utilities, matron's hire, laundry, food and transportation, was $13 per student. In a few houses it was less than this.

Average grades made by boys in project houses compared favorably with those made by boys in the dormitories.

Some of the A. & M. ex-students who plan to attend the meeting Saturday and discuss the school with those interested are R. L. Young, head meter man of Texas Electric Service company; I. D. Black, manager, Community Natural Gas Corp.; Hugh F. Barnhart, assistant county agent, Elmo V. Cook, county agent, and others.

Television Hostesses Await Debut; To Be Britain's "Most Seen" Girls

LONDON.—Television programs produced by the British Broadcasting Corporation scheduled to begin July 1 will feature two attractive hostesses-announcers.

Miss Jasmine Bligh, 22, blonde with auburn hair and blue-grey eyes, and Miss Elizabeth Cowell, 23, a petite brunette, are the two young women selected from 1,122 applicants.

These hostess-announcers, at least the B. B. C. proudly announces, like cocktails, theatres, films, jazz, open-air sports, they listen a good deal and they go to church on Sundays.

They will be seen and heard by thousands of Britons daily and should prove popular since they are smart dressers and have lovely faces and figures.

While one is announcing during programs to be broadcast from Alexandra Palace, the other will greet artists helping them to become accustomed to the unusual atmosphere of the television studios.

Television announcements must be memorized since speakers will dispense with notes before the scanner.

Miss Bligh and her partner hostess-announced must paint their lips blue and their faces yellow so they may be seen properly by television audiences. Other strange color combinations or contrasts will be required.

Miss Cowell speaks German and French fluently and has traveled extensively. She has been a mannequin and is interested in ballet.

Miss Bligh, niece of Lord Darnley, has visited the United States, Italy, Switzerland and France. She speaks French. Her favorite sports are golf, riding and squash racquets. She has had three years' stage and film experience, playing in "Julius Caesar" at His Majesty's Theatre and in the Charlottetown.

The two hostess-announcers who will be the most "seen" girls in Britain shortly, have received contracts for six months. Their starting salary is understood to be about $50 a week.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

BY MARY E. DAGUE NEA Service Staff Writer

JELLY that won't jell is not one of the modern housewife's trials. There has taken care of that. Science has taken care of that. There are four necessary ingredients for jelly and these must be used in correct proportions: fruit juice, fruit acid, sugar and pectin.

Some fruits which are lacking in pectin when fully ripe will jell naturally if used when slightly under-ripe. A good commercial pectin can be added to any fruit to make a perfect, firm jelly.

The fruits that make the best jelly when used alone are sour apples (including crabapples), currants, sour blackberries, under-ripe grapes, gooseberries and decidedly under-ripe raspberries. These fruits naturally have the right proportions of fruit acid and pectin.

Test Shows Pectin Lack

The acidity of a fruit is readily determined by the taste, but the presence of pectin must be determined by test. Should a juice lack acid, this can quickly be corrected by adding 1 tablespoon lemon juice to each cup of juice. Lemon juice added to strawberries or any red fruit will make the color more vivid, too.

When you want to determine the amount of pectin there are two simple rules you can depend on. One test is made by the use of Epsom Salts and the other by denatured alcohol. As denatured alcohol is poisonous, care must be taken that the tested juice is not tasted.

To test for pectin with alcohol, measure 1 tablespoon of fruit juice into a dish and add 1 tablespoon alcohol. If a jelly-like mass forms immediately, a large amount of pectin is present and one cup of sugar to one cup of fruit juice should be used to make in this section of the country of which we are proud.

Indians to Attend Tomato Tom Tom

YOAKUM, Texas.—The Alabama-Coushatta Indians, attired in picturesque tribal regalia, will attend the ninth annual Tomato Tom Tom celebrated at Yoakum, on June 5 and 6.

The Indians, forming the remnant of a once powerful nation, now inhabit a government reservation near Livingston and compose the only Indian tribe left in Texas.

Chief Cooper Styelstine, tribal head, is expected to accompany his braves to the festival here.

Young Lady's Painful Condition Relieved by Cardui

For over fifty years, Cardui has been recommended by mothers to their daughters for the relief of functional pains at certain times and as a tonic to improve nutrition.

"I was very weak and nervous when a young girl at home," writes Ms. J. H. Daniel, of Biloxi, Miss. "My mother was so uneasy about me, she did not ask me to help with the work. My mother decided to give me Cardui and she found it was helping me. I gained weight to the treatment. After six bottles of Cardui, I was regular and the pain and trouble stopped. I grew strong."

Thousands of women testify Cardui brought them relief. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Berries with ready-to-serve cereal, cream, poached eggs on toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Cheese fondue, creamed new peas, cabbage and grapefruit, salad, apple crisp, milk, tea.

DINNER: Vegetable plate, peanut brittle ice cream, sponge drops, milk, coffee.

The jelly. If the juice forms into small flaky particles, there is a small amount of pectin and two-thirds cup of sugar to one cup of juice is the right proportion. If the mixture remains unchanged in consistency, there is no pectin present and commercial pectin or the juice of some fruit known to be rich in pectin must be added.

To Make Epsom Salt Test

To make the Epsom Salts test mix 1 tablespoon fruit juice, 1 teaspoon sugar and 1-2 tablespoon Epsom Salts. Stir until the salts are dissolved and then let stand twenty minutes. The jelly-like mass or the formation of flaky particles indicates the amount of sugar needed.

Hard fruits such as apples and quinces must be cut in quarters and cooked in enough water to make tender in order to extract the juice. Soft fruits such as berries and currants are heated in just enough water to prevent burning until the juice flows freely. Put into jelly bag and let drip. This first extraction clears produces the finest jelly, clear and sparkling.

After the first extraction return the pulp to preserving kettle with water to half cover and heat slowly to the boiling point. Simmer gently for twenty minutes and pour into jelly bag to drip.

CONSTIPATION* MAY BE MORE SERIOUS THAN YOU THINK

It Causes Discomfort, May Ever Lead to Disease

Constipation* is not a condition to be treated lightly. Continued neglect of regular habits of elimination tend to lower your resistance. Then there is the actual discomfort. For constipation* is one cause of headaches, poor appetite, listlessness.

Common constipation usually develops when you eat meals that lack sufficient "bulk." Your system fails to get needed internal exercise. Fortunately, today, you have a generous source of effective "bulk" in Kellogg's ALL-BRAN.

Within the body, the "bulk" in ALL-BRAN absorbs moisture, and forms a soft mass, which gently cleanses the system. This natural laxative food also supplies vitamin B and contains iron.

Serve ALL-BRAN as a cereal, with milk or cream, or cook into muffins, breads, etc. Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. Stubborn cases may require ALL-BRAN often. If not relieved this way, consult your doctor.

ALL-BRAN is guaranteed by the Kellogg Company as an effective laxative food for constipation.* Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

FORT HALL, Idaho.—Indians on the Fort Hall reservation are taking a renewed interest in handling their own tribal pow-wows in contrast to their attitude during the past five years, F. A. Gross, superintendent, declares.

The First Church of Christ, Scientist Holds Annual Meet

BOSTON, Mass., June 10.—An appeal to Christian Scientists to work for the demonstration of World Peace, the reading or reports by church officers on the various activities of the movement throughout the world and sustaining demand for the writing of Mary Baker Eddy, Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, marked the annual meeting today of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

Election of Mrs. Elizabeth Cadwell Tomlinson of Boston as President of The Mother Church was announced. She succeeds Dr. Frank C. Colby. Mrs. Tomlinson was born in Bryon, Wis. After graduating from St. Helen's Hall, a well-known Episcopalian private school, she received a remarkable healing in Christian Science which brought her into the practice of this religion. She was at one time a delegate appointed by the governor of Oregon to a conference of women's organizations in Paris. In 1914 she was in London, England, at the outbreak of the World War and did service under Mrs. Herbert Hoover in relief activities.

The addition of 22 new churches and eight new university organizations, making a total of 2751 branches of The Mother Church and 55 college and university organizations, was announced by the Department of Branches and Practitioners.

Among new Societies was one formed by the natives in a mountain province of the Philippine Islands. They had been holding services over a period of years and this past year came to the point in growth where they were able to go forward as a branch of The Mother Church.

Approximately 6000 Christian Scientists representing every state in the Union and practically every civilized nation in the world attended the meeting. The main floor and three galleries were filled within a short time after the church doors were opened, the overflow being accommodated in the original Mother Church where amplifiers were installed.

Introducing the theme of World Peace, William P. McKenzie, for the past year chairman of the Board of Directors, told the audience, "There is a rising demand in the hearts of men for freedom and justice. Can it be met by fair dealing? This requires self-government, does it not? Instead of battling with others to set them right, let a man become right himself and influence his neighbor by his good example."

Mr. McKenzie designated the way in which peace can be realized, pointing out that "when in a branch church growth has been made to the point that members respect one another and show deference and courtesy, work is done in friendliness. May not a time be coming," he asked, "when in congresses and parliaments good will of this sort will show like harmonious results?"

"Our leader in her preface to 'Miscellaneous Writings' spoke of the spiritual glow and grandeur of a consecrated life wherein dwelleth peace, sacred and sincere in trial or in triumph." Following her inspiring example, let us dignify this coming year by an endeavor to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace." (Ephesians 4:3.)

When Overhead Gets Too High

Like a business man made desperate by steadily increasing losses, Senorita Anita Lizana, Chilean tennis champion, threw caution to the winds and, in an effort to stem the tide, hurled her racket at the ball that soared beyond her reach. She lost the match, played at Surbiton, England, to Dorothy Round.

roborate and fulfill our Leader's prophecy (Miscellany 281:28): 'War will end when nations are ripe for progress.' As humanity ripens in courage, in purity of purpose, in increasing virtue, in holiness, this ripening will hasten the day prophesied by our Leader when 'the Christ-spirit will cleanse the earth of human gore' (Miscellany 265:9). It is the life of men not the death of men, that determines the peace of nations."

Edward L. Ripley, re-elected Church Treasurer, expressed gratitude to the indebtedness of a year ago, resulting from the remodeling and refurbishing of the former publishing house to serve as the Church Administration Building, had been met in full through the active co-operation of the field together with the earnings of The Christian Science Publishing Society. "There is no debt of any kind on the new Publishing House and other property owned by The Mother Church or its affiliated trustees," he said.

Also re-elected was Ezra W. Palmer, Clerk of the Church. One of the principal duties of the Clerk and his co-workers is the handling of applications for membership in The Mother Church.

His report included information as well on the relief work done by the church. The Relief Fund of The Mother Church alleviated distress caused by hurricane in Florida; by earthquake in Montana; continued work at the Veterans' Hospital, Osteen, N. C.; aided those whose property was damaged by tornado in Mississippi and North Carolina; and assisted sufferers from floods in southern and eastern states. Relief was dispensed among Christian Scientists and non-Christian Scientists in 14 states. In the course of this work assistance was given to or through a number of ministers of other denominations who have expressed much appreciation for the assistance and the spirit in which it was administered.

William M. Bartlett, Secretary to Trustees under the Will of Mary Baker Eddy, reported expenditure of more than $150,000 during the year just past, "to more effectively extend and promote the religion of Christian Science." This money went to aid churches and societies to erect or purchase their own buildings, for the free distribution of authorized literature, for supplying literature in Braille for the blind, for aiding branches in paying for their first lecture, and in Germany, for assisting Christian Scientists there who would otherwise have been unable to receive authorized literature following certain restrictions made last August by the German government.

William W. Davis, Executive supervisor of Christian Science Charitable and Benevolent Institutions, reported increased guests at both the Pacific Coast and Chestnut Hill Sanatoriums as well as loyal support of the Pleasant View Home.

As Manager of Committees on Publication, C. Augustus Norwood declared, "We may well rejoice at the continued progress of our religion and the continued growth of our organization. But, when we consider how many years were required to leave the thought of the world sufficiently to make it possible for our Leader, Mary Baker Eddy, to establish the religion and the organization of Christian Science, we must realize that the work of accomplishing her purpose to 'reinstatute primitive Christianity and its lost element of healing' (Manual p. 17) has hardly more than begun."

Mr. Norwood disclosed that through the publication of religious items and the radio-casting of religious programs and news comments from The Christian Science Monitor, friendly relationships have been established with about 2000 newspapers and 300 radio stations. Through these contacts some 150,000 friendly and constructive news items were published, while more than 6,000 religious programs and 60,000 radio-casts of Monitor news were put on the air during the year.

Miss Margaret Murney Glenn as chairman of the Board of Lectureship for the past year cited cases of instantaneous healings which had taken place as a result of public lectures on Christian Science.

WILLOWS IS ACQUIRED BY THE CITY AND POOL WILL BE RUN BY TWO LOCAL CIVIC GROUPS

The City of Ranger has acquired the Willows Swimming Pool property under terms of an agreement made Thursday morning, and will lease it at a nominal cost to a corporation which is now in the process of formation.

With the announcement that the property had been turned over to the city it was also announced that a group representing the Rotary and Lions clubs of the city were forming a corporation for the purpose of operating the pool this year and that it was planned to have it opened to the public by Monday night, if possible.

The directors of the Lions club and the Rotary club will be the governing body of the Willows Park Association, which is the name under which the corporation will be formed. Incorporation papers are now being drawn up to be sent to Austin for approval.

It was mentioned at a meeting of Lions and Rotarians held Thursday morning with members of the city commission, that the city would not have any part in operating the pool, but would lease it to the corporation for operation.

Since many improvements were made last year it is expected that the formal opening can be held on Monday night.

Many people in Ranger have expressed a desire that the pool be opened this year and the continued demand for its operation led to the acquisition of the property, without cost to the city, and the leasing of the property to the Willows Park Association, which will be a non-profit organization running the pool for the benefit of Ranger and the surrounding communities.

Davisson Makes His Announcement

George A. Davisson Jr., candidate for re-election to the state representative post in District 106, composed of Eastland county, Thursday made his formal announcement.

To the Citizens of Eastland County: I think it eminently fitting that as we near the conclusion of the term of the forty-fourth legislature that I should give an account of my stewardship to the people of my legislative district, and that in asking their support for re-election I think it behooves me to discuss at least a part of the issues I think most vital to the welfare of the people of Texas which must receive the consideration of the next legislature.

During the regular session of the forty-fourth legislature, it was my pleasure to sponsor a bill calling for the passage of an unemployment insurance act, designed to afford those unfortunate citizens of the state who find themselves out of employment a means of honorably sustaining themselves until re-employment is made possible. This act I advocated in keeping with the program of a national security bill providing for the repayment of the state of Texas 90 per cent of the tax collected from the wage payers of this state in the event that Texas does provide its citizens with adequate unemployment insurance.

Believing firmly in the precepts of social security, it was my pleasure to participate in the writing and the passage of the present Texas old age assistance act. I recognize the deficiencies and inadequacies of this existing legislation, framed, as it was, by a group of human legislators, and I can do not less than to pledge myself to an earnest and sincere effort in remedying, in the next legislature, those difficulties which at present exist.

I think it well to call the attention of my people to the fact that during this past legislature, it was my privilege to support a drivers' license law, a bill designed to prevent the sale of worthless securities to the people of our state, and bills designed to care for the unfortunate in our state through increasing eleemosynary institutions.

I call the attention of the people of my district to the fact that when my term of office began, the people of Texas were laboring under the highest ad valorem tax rate permitted by the constitution. During my term of office this tax rate has been reduced from 67 cents to 62 cents, a saving of 4% million dollars to the people of Texas. While we have been making this financial saving we appropriated five million dollars per year for rural aid, or 10 million dollars for the biennium, four million dollars more than was ever before given to the rural school children of Texas. Furthering this, we have this year paid a per capita apportionment of $18.50, the highest in the history of the state, and even after this apportionment, the school fund will end this year with a balance of more than a million and one-half dollars in cash. At the beginning of my term of office, Texas had issued 15 million dollars worth of relief bonds. At the conclusion of my first term, Texas will owe less than 14 million dollars worth of bonds and the interest on these bonds will have already been paid to Aug. 31, 1937. This means that while we were spending five million dollars worth of bonds during the past two years, we were building up a fund to retire those bonds which now equals more than six million dollars.

Even a casual investigation into the finances of the state of Texas demonstrates its genuine soundness.

I think it fitting that I call to the attention of the people of Eastland county that it was my privilege last year to write and pass an act to provide for the conservation of the water in Leon river and reclamation of land heretofore devastated by seasonal floods. The waters of the Leon river under the present act will now be controlled and utilized for the benefit of the agriculturists in this county.

In asking the people of my county for their support in the coming campaign, I dedicate myself to the proposition that the old age assistance must be fairly and adequately supported, unemployment insurance must be successfully provided, and that the national program of social security must become a pertinent part of the governmental structure in this state.

I dedicate myself and my policies to a program of economy, believing that the revenues of Texas should be carefully guarded and wisely spent.

I assure the people of my district that I do most earnestly invite their suggestions, their assistance, and their help. Fundamentally, this government, being in democracy, belongs to all of us and each man should participate in it.

I wish to express my most heartfelt thanks for the support given me for this office two years ago, and I earnestly and sincerely ask you to support me again in the continuation of the policies which I have thus far begun.

GEORGE A. DAVISSON JR.

Total liabilities, $115,000, were 75 per cent below those of April and 50 per cent under those of May last year. Average liabilities per failure were down 79 per cent from the preceding month and 36 per cent from May, 1935.

Man Gigs Frog In His Back Yard

By United Press
GONZALES, Texas.—Tired of a continual "jug-a-rumming" in his back yard that kept him awake, R. A. Renschel, Gonzales lumber dealer, went frog-hunting one night recently.

The scene of the hunt was a fish pond in Renschel's yard, and the weapon used was a flounder rig. The result was six pairs of frog legs for dinner next day and a night of noiseless rest.

One of the frogs measured 1 1/2 inches in length. Apparently the six amphibians had abandoned the river bottoms for life in a city fish pond.

Good Night's Sleep Important to Life

AUSTIN.—Sleep is a necessity of life and health, and habitual loss of sleep will tend to retard the body's recovery from the fatigue of the day's activities, advises Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer. "The average healthy adult," he said, "spends about one-third of his life in sleep. Far from being a waste of time, this one-third of your life spent in restful sleep will make possible a happier, healthier, and longer life. "We may be able to go without sleep for a night or two, but too means a sufficient number of hours spent in sleep to enable each individual to feel well, do efficient work, and to keep in a cheerful humor the next day.

"Some exercise out of doors each day will help us to sleep soundly at night. We must also have fresh air in our sleeping quarters. Give as much consideration as possible to the comfort of your bed and bed clothes. Do not mull over your problems and ideas after you have gone to bed. Make your plans early in the evening for a good night's rest by slowing down from the physical and mental work of your daily life. When you arise each morning rested and with a feeling of general well being, you will be amply repaid for your thought in planning a 'good night's sleep.'"

Confederate Vet To Take Air Trip

By United Press
SHREVEPORT, La. — Transportation that even Stonewall Jackson couldn't beat will be used by Confederate Veteran T. J. Saxon, Dallas, when he returns home for the annual convention of men in gray at Dallas June 9-12.

Saxon booked passage with an air line for his first trip through the skies. Now 90 year old, he traveled from Georgia to Texas in 1873 by the fastest methods of the day—train, boat and horseback. The journey took four days.

Pilots informed him that the traveler of 1936 can cover the same distance in six hours.

"Why! Stonewall Jackson couldn't beat that," he exclaimed.

Saxon was born in Butler Georgia. He enlisted in Colquitt's Sixth Georgia Voluntary Infantry in 1861, when he was 16 years old. It was the first Georgia unit to see action in the Civil War. The unit was transferred to General MacGruder's division at Yorktown, Pa. Early in 1862, the Confederates were forced to evacuate the town and Saxon was captured shortly thereafter at Williamsburg, Va.

He was returned to the Southern army in an exchange of prisoners and rejoined his regiment at Richmond in time to take part in the Seven Days' Battle. Later, Saxon's troop was transferred to the command of Gen. Robert E. Lee. In the summer of 1863, three of his brothers were killed in action.

Saxon was wounded severely in the battle of Antietam and spent three months in a military hospital—"the only time in my life I ever so much as had a headache."

After the war, Saxon served two years as a member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Oldest Fire Force In Camden, N. J.

CAMDEN, N. J. — Old-timers here declare that Camden has the oldest paid fire department in the United States. The history dates back to 1869, when the Camden Steam Engine Company No. 1 was formed. These steamers replaced the old hand pumps of volunteer days, and members of the fire department were paid. Records reveal that while the firemen were paid, all citizens—men, women and children—were compelled to form bucket brigades when a fire occurred.

WPA Shutdown Draws a Protest

DALHART.—Union county, N. M., of which Clayton is the county seat, is protesting vigorously the Works Progress Administration order for a shutdown on all projects in the county.

The order was issued in hopes that Union county would furnish its quota of workers for the giant Conchas river dam project at Tucuman.

Clayton business men declare that to fill the quota would require moving of many farmers and their families to the damsite. The objection is based on a present favorable outlook for farming in the section. Citizens of Northern New Mexico are represented as believing the farmers ought to stay at home, not only to prepare crops but to forestall further wind erosion.

Union county objectors plan to protest to Gov. Clyde Tingley if necessary.

Zioncheck Jumps Out Window of Hospital Ward

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Gallagher hospital attendants established a closer watch today over Representative Marion Zioncheck, playboy congressman from Washington, after he broke out of the ward and strolled through the grounds in bare feet and a flowing bathrobe. Zioncheck kicked two screens loose from a window and jumped to the ground a few feet below.

Smoking a big black cigar and with his bathrobe sticking out behind him he began making a circuit of the hospital grounds. The cheers and shouts of other inmates aroused hospital attendants. By the time they reached the grounds Zioncheck was holding conversation with a truck driver in the streets.

"You know that we have paid several hundred dollars in rent over the past few years in Ranger and all we have to show for that money is a hand full of cancelled rent receipts. "And not only that, John, just think of the number of times we have had to move because someone bought our house for a home. Now is the time to act. Today is the day to check on the house you want. Tomorrow the house you have been figuring on may be gone. These houses were put on the market Sunday—five of them have been sold—several others are being considered by parties interested in owning their own home. Ask yourself this question? If you drew down one-half of your bonus, what do you have to show for it today? If you will use part of your bonus money to make the down payment on a home and pay the balance out like rent you will have something to show for your bonus money the balance of your life. And then, too, your money will be invested in something that will not disappear overnight.

LANDON WILL BE CHOICE OF REPUBLICANS

PUBLIC HALL, Cleveland, June 11.—Gov. Alf Landon is the republican national convention choice for president and only one thundering shout this afternoon or tonight remains to make it official.

His rivals wilted today and relieved their delegates who began to plunk their votes to the Kansas. It may not be necessary to ballot, as the delegates are in the mood to put Landon across by acclamation.

The nominating starts this afternoon. Most delegates consider the issue closed. Landon's managers ceased to work for his candidacy and hurried to the hotel room of Senator Arthur Vandenberg in an attempt to draft him onto the ticket as the vice presidential nominee.

Frank Knox of Chicago released his delegates and there was much talk he might be Landon's running mate. Vandenberg, who also cut loose his support, was reported to have done so on the understanding Knox would get second place.

Senator William E. Borah, Senator Dickinson, Robert Taft and other candidates dropped out of the fight. Borah's withdrawal was flat unless certain "contingencies" should arise.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief Of Pain
 Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking the acids and waste out of the blood. If they don't pass 2 pints a day and so get rid of more than 2 pounds of waste matter, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing.

If you have trouble with frequent bladder passages with scanty amount which often smart and burn, the 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This younger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Don't wait for serious trouble. Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills—which have been used successfully for over 40 years by millions of people. British Chancellor Wades In Pool to Save His Own Son

LONDON, June 11.—Neville Chamberlain, staid, dignified chancellor of the exchequer, waded in St. James Park today attired in formal morning dress and rescued his 4-year old boy who had fallen in over the rail.

The chancellor was taking his morning stroll when the accident happened. Before others could get into action the tall statesman vaulted the rail and waded up to his knees to save the child.

farm washing is a job FOR A rugged washer!

the MAYTAG gasoline multi-motor

Not only is the Maytag a rugged washer, but it is powered with a sturdy engine for homes without electricity. The Maytag Multi-Motor, the first washer engine built, is also the simplest, most powerful washer engine—and designed for a woman to operate.

Also consider the one-piece, cast-aluminum tub, and other long-life features of the Maytag. Then you will know why it is used by more farm homes than any other washer. Electric models for homes on the power line. Terms that make ownership easy.

Black Legion Chief Held Under Bond

DETROIT, June 9. — "Brig.

Gen." Wilbur Robinson and five fellow Black Legionnaires were bound over to circuit court on bonds of $50,000 each today for the kidnaping and logging of a member who declined to attend meetings.

The men were ordered held for trial at the conclusion, this morning, of their examinations. They were charged with having forced Robert Fenlow, a steel worker, from his dinner at gun-point.

Centennial Hall of Science Dedicated to Better Health

Dr. J. W. Bass, left, director of public health for the City of Dallas, Saturday dedicated the Frigidaire Hall of Science at the Texas Centennial Exposition, as Phil M. Bratten, southwestern district manager for Frigidaire, looked on. The Hall of Science, occupying an important section in the General Motors building, interprets in non-scientific fashion the ways in which health and life are endangered by improperly preserved foods and beverages in which harmful bacteria have grown because of too low storage temperatures.

YOUR RENT CHECKS CAN PAY THE WAY TO Home Ownership

Take four friendly walls. Put into them some little scuffling feet and a few baby tears, paint them with summer sunshine and winter firelight and touch them with laughter and lingering voices of old friends. Heap there all your hopes and plans and cover them deep with love and living and you have a home. A home that will go with your children when they step out into the world, and yet, strangely, will keep them with you; Here is the living room where Johnny had his first Christmas tree; there, the familiar hall where Mary looked so lovely as a bride. You, who once carried your own bride across its doorstep, rear your children today in its shelter and will one day find peace in the million memories it can bring you—won't you make and keep your home the dream castle you've always wanted it to be?

15 MODERN HOMES FOR SALE! Cash or Time Payments

'Black Legion' Defies Respect of Nation

The news from Michigan about the "Black Legion" reads like a very bad dream; and the most dream-like thing about it is the fact that moronic hoodlums who dedicate their organization to violence and murder should insist that they are furthering "100 per cent Americanism."

Reports that the group has 135,000 members in Michigan and has been responsible for two or three dozen deaths seem too fantastic to be taken seriously. Indeed, the whole business is too fantastic to be worth talking about if it were not for this one fact—

That they have been able to enlist a large number of people in their organization merely indicates that there are more fools in the land than we ordinarily suppose.

But in any group of this kind there are the seeds of great trouble. The seeds may never sprout, but they are there; and the time to make sure that they land on stony ground is now, before some unexpected current in American life provides more fertile soil for them.

There was a time, remember, when Mussolini's Fascists looked no more important or influential than this so-called "Black Legion" now appears. There was a time when Hitler and his plug-uglies cut no more of a figure in German life than these gentlemen of the black robes now cut in American life.

In Italy and in Germany, certain powerful interests discovered that they could use an unprincipled band of terrorists who would stop at nothing. They made the discovery before the rest of their fellow citizens could rally the nation's inherent decency, and what happened thereafter is a matter of bloody record.

There does not seem to be any danger that this Michigan gang will have a similar apotheosis. But the time to speak out against organized mob violence is now, when it first sticks up its head; now, when all decent people instinctively feel a revulsion against it.

We need to remember that no group which uses the whip and gun can possibly be "100 per cent American"; that no organization such as this one in Michigan can possibly play a useful role in our United States; that no patriot can tolerate in his country a gang of sluggers and torturers.

Pearl Output in Far East Is Cut

which a few years ago were rather highly prized have been selling in Tokyo recently for as little as 47. The difference between the cultivated and natural pearl is slight. In both cases the pearl is produced as a result of an irritating substance getting inside the oyster. In the cultivated pearl the irritant is applied by human agency and the oyster does the rest.

Control of production is necessary, Mikimoto believes and he plans to reduce the output to a third of its present rating. Just as in the case of the silk industry, the farmers began to grow pearls along the seashore. There are now 230 pearl culturists in Japan Mikimoto says. He intends to buy these small pearl farms.

Thereafter he will become a salesman rather than a producer. The Mikimoto interests gather and sell natural pearls also but in this line there is severe competition in other countries.

DOCTOR SAYS REV. ESKRIDGE WAS INSANE

By United Press
 HOUSTON, June 9.—Dr. T. B. Harris, alienist, called as a defense witness here today in the murder trial of Rev. C. Edgar Eskridge, answered a two-hour long question about the defendant's mental condition with six words: "I feel that he was insane."
 Eskridge is on trial in district court charged with murdering Police Chief Ed O'Reilly in Orange on May 29, 1935.
 In the question, J. J. Collins, chief defense attorney, pointed to the all-out points of the preacher's alleged irrational actions prior to the slaying without referring to notes and prompted only twice by his co-counsel.
 Collins recited the defendant's anti-crime crusade at Orange, his fear of being killed, his boasting of great wealth and get-rich-quick schemes as told by 27 witnesses since the trial opened a week ago.
 Dr. Harris said he believed Eskridge was insane, suffering from manic depressive insanity.

PWA Activities Led By Schools

By United Press
 WASHINGTON, June 9.—Harold L. Ickes' Public Works Administration used $175,734,691 adding nearly 30,000 classrooms to accommodate more than 1,000,000 students to the nation's public school facilities, PWA statistics showed today.

Second largest PWA activity was spending $83,306,390 for 512 hospital projects, including building that will care for 40,000 additional patients.
 The bulk of PWA school loans and grants went for new high schools. Facilities for general student bodies included auditoriums, gymnasiums, cafeterias, libraries and laboratories.
 California led all other states in the number of school projects, 474 new ones and 503 repair jobs. The California program was necessary to construct earthquake-proof buildings, or repair those damaged by quakes.
 To date, PWA has built or repaired 109 hospitals, and provided new equipment. Institutions were financed in almost every state, and in Alaska and the Virgin Islands.

France Perfects Its National Defense

By United Press
 PARIS, June 9.—A revolutionary unification of the country's national defense was effected by the new left wing government today.
 Power was centered in a committee headed by Edouard Daladier, minister of national defense.
 Two decrees affected the reform considered of vital importance in view of the dangerous European situation.
 The first published to today's official journal, unites the ministries of war, navy and air under Daladier as minister of defense.
 The second promulgated by the supreme war council under Daladier, institutes a permanent defense committee with him as president and removed practical control of armed forces from military chiefs and gives it to the civilian minister.

DALLAS, June 9.—More than 40 members of Frigitaire manufacturing sales and service organization in the United States and Canada have been invited to visit the Texas Centennial celebrations in Dallas, Fort Worth, San Antonio, Houston, and Austin by P. M. Bratten, the Texas manager for the Frigitaire corporation.

Mr. Bratten made the arrangements for the extension of the invitations today when Frank R. Pierce, official from headquarters in Dayton, Ohio, arrived here to inspect the Hall of Science exhibit sponsored by his company in the General Motors building.

"The Frigitaire organization of workers, salesmen, servicemen and their wives and children number in excess of 125,000 persons," Mr. Bratten said. "Mr. Pierce was so impressed with the splendid appearance of the Centennial and the plans for the correlated activities in other Texas cities that he readily agreed to convey our invitation to these men and women. It will be extended in the name of the Texas Frigitaire group consisting of several thousand persons."

With all these multiple births, a modern expectant father is afraid to ask the doctor, "Is it a boy?" for fear the answer will be, "Well, three of them are."

Legionnaires and the Story of Their World War Experiences

Private John A. Ussery, Company C, 142nd Field Artillery, Thirty-ninth Division, American Expeditionary Forces, as he appeared at Coaquidon, France, in the fall of 1918.

Editor's Note: This is the fifteenth of a series of World War biographies being written by B. H. Peacock, Commander of the American Legion Post of Ranger, covering the experiences of members of the local Post. The biography of another veteran will appear in next Sunday's issue.

JOHN ALLEN USSERY

The desire to bring back to America a prized or useful relic or souvenir in remembrance of the days and months spent in France became universal with the thousands of doughboys who went across. That was in the days of 1917-18, and for these boys, it was only once, possibly, in their lifetime. And so it was only natural that each and every one should make some kind of an effort to bring back to mother, father, wife, or sweetheart that little something that in the years to come was to be counted priceless.

And Private John A. Ussery of Company C, 142nd Field Artillery, Thirty-ninth Division, was no exception to the rule. While on leave in the little village of Rhums, France, on the fourth of December, 1918, his musical inclinations prompted him to visit one of the little music shops for which the village was known. Violins of every description adorned the walls and show cases. And one of the instruments, found by Ussery to be quite unusual in its tone and quality, was noted to have been a model of the old 1721 Antonius Stradivarius instrument. The sum of $180 was paid for this instrument, and it has remained with him to this day as a prized souvenir of the Great War.

At the age of 22 years, John A. Ussery enlisted, together with some of his boyhood friends, in Company I, Second Infantry, Arkansas National Guard, for service in France. This was on July 5, 1918, in the little city of Ola, Ark. Fortwith, the outfit as ordered to Fort Logan H. Root at Little Rock, Ark., where it was federalized, and Company F became known as Company C of the 142nd Field Artillery of the Thirty-ninth Division. In only a few days the division was transferred to Camp Beauregard, Louisiana.

It was at Camp Beauregard that Ussery was detailed to attend the cook's school of the army, and in the short space of thirty days he had more thoroughly mastered the art of grading meats, preparing and budgeting rations, and such other knowledge of foods and sanitation that marked an efficient army cook. The rating of chief cook was thereupon assigned Ussery, and the service record of this soldier which showed "capable and efficient" was no mean recommendation for one upon whose shoulders the responsibility of the health and well being of hundreds of soldiers in a large measure rested.

On September 13, 1917, the Thirty-ninth arrived in Camp Mills, New York, and sailed two weeks later (September 31) on a convoy headed for France. "There were three great ships in our convoy," stated Ussery, "the Great Northern, the Great Southern, and the Leviathan. And fortunate for my company and myself, for it fell to our lot to cross the Atlantic on the greatest liner afloat, the giant Leviathan. According to my best recollection, she was 980 feet in length, contained 17 decks, and carried a crew of 2,200 sailors. Her speed was such that she made the trip across in something like two days less time than did the ordinary troop ship. And as was the case with quite a number of convoys during the war, we witnessed our first submarine battle on the third day out. Fortunately, however, no damage was done to our ships."

On September 6, or seven days after setting sail, the Leviathan and her sister ships landed at Brest. For Company C and balance of the outfit, however, it meant a sixty-day tour of duty in stevedore service, or the unloading of war materials to be used by the Allies.

On about December 6, 1917, Ussery, together with his buddies of the 142nd Field Artillery, was transferred to Messac, and in about three weeks later again to Saumur. At Saumur an intensive training program was engaged in by the entire organization for the front line service that was shortly anticipated. And among other things, this training included those rudiments and essentials that would be pertinent to the handling of the mess that would best serve the artillerymen who were to be placed on or near the lines.

The outfit, including Ussery, again moved on March 27 to the Argonne Forest, where they were held in reserve, and where intensive training was likewise carried on. Next came the transfer to Coaquidon, where they remained until after the armistice.

The exemplary services of Private Ussery were recognized while he was still in training at Coaquidon. It was here that he was selected to be chief cook for the officers' mess. Since the rations on or near the front were limited for both officers and enlisted men, it fell to Ussery's lot to employ his own wit and ingenuity in trading with the natives for some of the delicacies that were so rare with the American soldiers in France. With only a limited French vocabulary, he nevertheless became very efficient in trading good American money (and French money, too) for such items as eggs, butter, chickens and geese. And although it was not specifically stated on the bulletin board, Cook Ussery treated his men on several occasions to that rarest of rare meats—known as sirloin of horse meat.

An A. W. O. L. with the major's permission was authority enough for Private Ussery to visit and enjoy the great city of Paris. "We saw the Eiffel Tower—and what a tower," stated Ussery, as he recalled the occasion some eighteen years past. "And there were plenty of toll gates, old castles, and many other things unusual and unknown in the States," he recounted. "And could you imagine it, it was only natural that a native Arkansawyer like me should get turned around in this great city, and have the rare experience of paying the same toll gate three times."

The unusual war-time experience of Soldier Ussery was saddened on two occasions by the loss of two of his buddies. And not in the front lines, and from the fire of the enemy, for not once did Company C thus serve during its nearly two years in France. Shortly before the armistice, during an inspection of arms, Private Charlie Howard, one of the best loved boys of the Company, was accidentally shot through the head. And shortly after the armistice, another of Ussery's buddies, Private Hogan, died from the result of head injuries sustained in a flying tackle on the football field. Both of these soldiers were honored in death by their buddies with a military funeral.

From Coaquidon, Ussery and his outfit were transferred on December 2 to St. Nazaire, where they were employed in stevedore and convoy duty into different parts of France and Germany. And in this connection, Ussery, together with several of his buddies, enjoyed the privilege of a trip to the cities of Coblenz and Metz. "It was the city of Metz," stated Ussery, "that the Allied armies were to concentrate in a mighty drive just as the armistice was announced. It was a quaint and interesting city, and I shall always recall with interest my visit there."

Company C, together with others of the 142nd, embarked in an old German battleship on May 26 from the renowned port of St. Nazaire for the States. Fourteen days (or June 8) found the outfit disembarking on home soil at Norfolk, Va. They came shortly thereafter to Camp Pike, Arkansas, and on June 28, 1919, or exactly after two years, one month and 23 days in the service, the boys of Company C, 142nd Field Artillery, together with Chief Cook John A. Ussery, were given honorable discharges in recognition of faithful and efficient services in the army of their country.

Mr. Ussery, after visiting for a short while at his old home at Perryville, Ark., went from there to Lone Oak, Texas, and shortly thereafter to Burkburnett, Texas, where he was employed by the Prairie Pipe Line Company as cook for their company forces. On September 4, 1920, Ussery went to Ranger, which was then a booming oil town, where he entered the employ of Chestnut & Smith Corporation, refiners of natural gasoline, with which company he remained until January 1, 1931, when he entered the employ of the Lone Star Gas Company, successors of Chestnut & Smith. Mr. Ussery now enjoys the responsible position as foreman of the machine shop department of the company.

He was married on December 14, 1919, to Miss Martha Brazil, and to their union four children were born. In the order of their ages, they are Francis, 14; Allen, 12; Lennie, 11; and Leola, 5. Ussery to his many friends and acquaintances in and around Ranger, is known as "Chick," for it is said that his uncanny ability at fowl and bird imitations has caused many an unsuspecting person to look delightedly into his or her egg basket and see for sure whether or not one of the eggs might have actually hatched.

His hobby and main interest outside of his chosen trade is that of his lodge and church work. The Odd Fellows and the Masonic organizations count him a faithful and worthy member. And his interest in keeping alive the memories of the great conflict in France, and in assisting his disabled buddies has caused him to keep intact an active membership in his local American Legion Post. To such a type of honest, hard-working, consecrated soldier and citizen as that of John A. Ussery, the citizenry of any community can well afford to be proud.

Arguments In Gas Dilution Case Heard

DALLAS, June 9.—Arguments in the suit by which the city of Fort Worth seeks to prohibit dilution of natural gas by the Lone Star Gas Company were heard today by Judge W. H. Atwell. Attorneys for the company testified a nitrogen dilution plant was constructed to stabilize gas. Such processing, they said, tended to prevent smoking and soot forming by gas appliances.

FENCE POST BLOOMS

TOLEDO, June 9.—J. S. Babcock couldn't believe his eyes, nor his nostrils, one day when he looked at a fence post on his farm outside Toledo. Delicate, fragrant blooms covered it. Then Babcock remembered he had made the post from a limb of a pear tree.

The British have perfected a naval rifle capable of piercing armor plate 12 inches thick, which is praiseworthy, even if it still must pass the restaurant steak test.

PENSION AIDES MUST STAY OUT OF POLITICS

AUSTIN, June 9.—An executive order issued by Orville Carpenter, executive director of the Old Age Assistance commission, warned commission employees to keep out of politics.

The warning said: "Your attention is directed to a copy of a law passed by the 44th legislature that was furnished you at the time you were employed by this commission. This law expressly prohibits any state employee from engaging in any political campaigns."

"I am cautioning each of you at this time that this prohibition applies not only to campaigns for state office, but also the campaigns for any local, county or district office."
