Safety in Driving Is Urged For All Motorists Over Holiday.

By United Press
Ten degree weather at Lubbock Wednesday presaged a wintry Thanksgiving Day for all Texas. The blizzard that extended through Central Texas struck the central regions late Wednesday, sending the mercury to near the freezing mark.

The cold, U. S. Weather Bureau forecast, will abate slightly Thursday in the Panhandle, but is to continue through North and Central Texas.

Lubbock with 10 degrees was the coldest point in Texas Wednesday. It was 15 at Amarillo, 22 at Abilene, 27 at Dallas, and 46 at San Antonio and Houston.

Snow was falling at Denver, Colo., and temperatures there ranged from 16 to 20 degrees. Rain fell at Brownsville and other places along the lower Texas coast.

The forecast assured that clouds would vacate Texas skies, generally, by Thursday.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—The weather will be "just right" for a walk after that heavy Thanksgiving dinner.

E. S. Forecaster C. A. Donnell predicted that "clear and crisp" weather will prevail Thursday for almost the entire nation.

AUSTIN, Nov. 23.—The public safety department today sent patrolmen to strategic points for double duty until next Monday morning, when the heaviest and most reckless traffic movement of the year are expected.

Football games, hunting trips and the usual holiday visits during the next four days caused predictions of heavy casualties. On past records they looked for 22 deaths and 242 injuries, but hoped to reduce the average.

Charles Rice, president of the exchange, said the market would remain closed over the Thanksgiving holiday, but declined to forecast what action would be taken Friday.

Sweet Potato Is Important Crop Throughout South

COLLEGE STATION, Tex.—The sweet potato is the most important vegetable crop in the South, according to R. E. Wright of the Texas A. & M. sweet potato experiment station at Gilmer.

In relation to its importance the sweet potato crop has been neglected by scientific workers, and there has been little improvement in varieties since they were introduced into the South from the Caribbean Islands and South America, Mr. Wright declared.

The average yield in the East Texas area is about 75 bushels per acre, with only about 50 per cent desirable for market. It is the purpose of the laboratory to point the way toward larger yields and to aid in removing the lower grades of sweet potatoes from commercial markets.

The experiment station urges growers to use only U. S. No. 1 potatoes. Seed potatoes of the Porto Rican variety should have a copper colored skin and orange colored flesh.

Although the Porto Rico is recognized as the leading commercial variety at the present time, eight leading varieties of other areas which compete on the market with the Porto Rico are being tested.

The Triumphs, primarily a starch variety, has produced the highest yield, 248 bushels. The Louisiana Unit 1 was second with 232 bushels while the common strain Porto Rico was eighth, with 162 bushels.

Use of fertilizers in various proportions to increase yield also is being tested, and some interesting results have been obtained. The amount of nitrogen, phosphorus and potash was varied and in the rate of application test, 400 pounds of 4-12-4 produced 212 bushels, 115 of U. S. No. 1 potatoes. In the test in which the proportions were varied the formula 4-12-6 produce a total yield of 211 bushels per acre, 121 bushels being U. S. No. 1. It is interesting to note that the higher percentages of potash resulted in more No. 1 potatoes.

The remaining 16 and parts of three counties are also released from quarantine but are counties in which inspections or dippings or both are done in accordance with State and Federal requirements.

47,817 herds and 748,615 cattle, horses, mules, jacks and jennets were dipped or inspected.

22 herds and 42 livestock were under inspection found to be infested with fever tick.

2,416 herds and 31,504 livestock are being held for further systematic treatment.

Meteorites Are Not So Very Valuable Astronomer Says

AUSTIN, Texas.—The sale of meteorites does not bring a quick fortune as is popularly supposed, Dr. E. G. Keller, professor of applied mathematics and astronomy at the University of Texas recently stated.

Dr. Keller, who constantly receives letters from Texans asking how much they can get for meteorites they have found, said the price is one dollar a pound for metal meteorites and but little more for rock meteorites. Typical of the ideas about the value of these astronomical bodies was a recent letter from a man who believed they sold for $720 an ounce. He explained that the chief use of meteorites is in scientific exhibits in museums.

"One of the chief deposits of meteorite fragments in the world is located about 10 miles from the McDonald Observatory near Odessa, Texas," Dr. Keller said. "There are but few meteor craters in the world, and the one in Texas is comparatively large, being about six hundred feet in diameter."

The South Plains region in Hale and adjacent counties is also a fertile field for surface meteorite fragments and many fine specimens have been found there.

Gorman 4-H Boy Wins Chicago Trip For Electric Survey

Neil Eaves, 16, of Gorman is a delegate to the 17th National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, as a result of an electrical survey made on his father's 320-acre farm. This all-expense trip is the state award in the third annual National Rural Electrification contest, conducted through the state Extension office.

The Eaves farm is not now wired for electricity, but Neil feels that in his 4-H project work he could have used it to advantage. An electric grinder would have lessened feed cost and reduced labor; a milk cooler would increase dairy profit; an electric pump would furnish a better water supply for all animals; and tools used in crop cultivation could be kept in better repair with the use of an electric grinder.

He discussed the importance of electricity before his 4-H group; gave a talk on the value of electricity to a boys' 4-H Club; assisted the county agent in securing moving pictures on electrical appliances; helped in preparing footlights for a club drama; and attended community rural electrification meetings.

Neil has been in club work for three years. The Chicago trip is an award of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company which is also offering college scholarships of $400, $300, $200, and $100 to the highest ranking state winners.

ALASKA MAY BE A HAVEN FOR REFUGEES

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Secretary of Interior Ickes today suggested the possibility of considering Alaska as a haven for refugee Jews from Germany, and other European nations.

Ickes pointed out that Alaska is the only U. S. possession not fully developed. He added that he favors doing everything possible to assist refugees.

Ickes was asked if he would recommend Alaska as a haven to President Roosevelt.

"Well, I wouldn't go that far," he said.

The administration has used Alaska as a site for an experimental settlement in the Matanuska Valley. Families who were unable to find adequate living conditions were transplanted to the valley.

Ickes said that in event of further agricultural development of the valley by refugees natural professional and industrial development would follow.

Plain Duty of America to Hit Prejudice Hard

Recent news from Europe has sounded so much like a throw-back to the dark ages that it is a trifle hard to realize what a truly terrible thing the new anti-Jewish campaign in Germany is.

Since we live in a world which has come to accept the mass murder of women and children in time of war as a matter of course, a return to the barbaric pogroms of medieval Europe can hardly seem surprising. Yet if we grow callous about these things we lose our defense against them.

Consider the cold facts for a moment. One of the innumerable victims of the anti-Jewish campaign finally snapped back, and a sub-official in a German embassy was shot. Immediately the great German propaganda machine went into action, whipping up all of the lowest elements in the nation to make reprisals.

So gangsters were allowed to do as they pleased in the great cities for a few hours. No country on earth is as well policed or as completely disciplined as Germany; can anyone in his senses suppose that these outbreaks took place without the full approval of the German government?

Yet this inspired hooliganism was only a starter. On its heels came a new set of laws the ferocity of which is almost unbelievable.

Jews may not attend theatres or concerts or visit picture galleries. They must pay the stupendous sum of $400,000,000 for the murder of one embassy tea-drinker (and this in a land which protested the World War reparations bill!). Jews whose property was despoiled in the pogroms must stand the damages themselves; if they carried insurance, they must pay the insurance to the state.

All of this happened a long way off, to be sure. It is hard, living in America, to realize that savagery like that can really exist, or to translate into human terms the utter misery that such a program inflicts on scores of thousands of innocent people. Yet realize it we must, if we are to do our duty to our America.

For a thing like this is what a nation lets itself in for when it gives rein to anti-Semitism—or, indeed, to any kind of racial or religious antagonism. What is happening in Germany today is simply the logical end product of the familiar sort of unthinking prejudice that crops out occasionally in our own land.

And our only defense against that sort of thing is to understand to the full the horror of Hitler's most recent descent to barbarism. See this thing for the abomination that it is—and, whenever you see a symptom of the same sort of thing in your own country, hit it and hit it hard. There is no other way to make sure that it won't happen here.

MORE SIGNS FOR TRAFFIC ARE ORDERED

Contracts for two signs for erection between Weatherford and Fort Worth for the encouragement of highway traffic travel over the route formerly called "Highway 89" were let Friday by H. J. Tamer and J. E. Meroney, secretary-managers of the Chambers of Commerce at Eastland and Ranger.

Joining in with Ranger and Eastland were Chambers of Commerce at Fecos, Odessa, Midland, Big Spring, Sweetwater, Abilene and Ciesca.

The letting of the sign contract was during an inspection tour of the short east-to-west route from near Strawn to Weatherford, which took the secretary-managers to Fort Worth.

The signs will advise motorists to keep on U. S. 80 and to travel the route on the left after leaving Weatherford. Exact sites for the signs, to be of the read marker type, had not been decided.

A large sign east of Weatherford was erected recently and results are declared highly satisfactory in routing tourists through this section.

Barnhart is leaving for Throckmorton to become that county's agent, it has been announced.

HIGHLAND PARK HAS HARD TIME WINNING FROM BULLDOGS 14-0

The Highland Park Scots of Dallas, who have won all their games, with one exception, by wide margins, got two "lucky" touchdowns to win from the Ranger Bulldogs 14 to 0 at Dallas Friday afternoon. After the game school officials said that it was the second hardest game of the season for the highly-rated Dallas team.

The first Highland touchdown came with only 30 seconds to play in the first half when Hemmingway tossed a long pass from midfield to Bishop, who snared the pass on the Ranger 28-yard line and scampered over the goal line to score.

In the third quarter, German, Scot end, recovered Houghton's fumble on the Ranger 19 and from there the Highlanders scored again in three plays.

Townzen, Ames, Ray Gray and Bourdeau played good games in the Ranger forward wall, which held the Scots well all through the game, with Palmer doing a nice job of linebacking. The Ranger line held the Scots inside the 10-yard line on three occasions to prevent further scoring.

Townzen turned in an excellent game, personally breaking up Highland plays, one for a loss of 15 yards and one for a 10-yard deficit.

The lineups and summary:

Highland Park: Maher and Germany, ends; Swank and C. Borgeson, tackles; Waters and Harkey, guards; R. Borgeson, center; Jordan Dweil, Harris and Munnell, backs. Substitutes: Seay, Lee, Loftwich, Cox, Frymire, Giddens, Shaw, Bishop, S. Ernest, Crummer, Hemmingson.

Ranger: Bourdeau and Brawnner, ends; Graves and R. Gray, tackles; Hargraves and Ames, guards; Palmer, center; Houghton, Whitefield, Adkins and McKelvin, backs. Substitutes: Townzen, Cox, Anderson, S. Gray, and Floyd.

Olden Loses Game To Woodson 25-0

In a game which decided the championship of the lower bracket of the district the Olden Hornets were crushed by the Woodson Cowboys Friday afternoon to the tune of 25-0.

Outweighed 15 pounds to the man, the lighter Hornets battled the Cowboys on even terms until the end of the third quarter and from that time on it was a slaughter. The Hornets threatened only once and that was in the opening minutes of the first quarter. They reached the 15 yard line the first time they gained possession of the ball.

Twice in the second and twice in the third quarter scores were averted by the Hornet defense within the 15 yard line.

This ends a good season for the Hornets, winning six and losing two. The Hornets compiled 166 points while giving up 53 points for the season. Friday was the first conference game that an opponent had crossed the Hornet goal line against the first team.

A good number of Hornet supporters followed them to the game.

Peterson and Fred Davis, all members of the Menard Fire department. Those from Ranger attending the services were Mr. and Mrs. Isabell, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Shay and Mrs. O. C. Bowen and daughter, Dorothy.

GLORIFYING THE HOME AND ITS CHERISHED HISTORY!

For several years we have used this space each week to say something in appreciation of the American Home. By no means does the Home need defense, but it does need advertising - for hundreds of new family groups come on the stage of life each day.

And many of these couples know nothing of the advantages offered in home ownership, or its character-building influences, or the pleasures it adds to the sum total of human happiness.

It is still our belief that any nation will prosper and be law-abiding if a majority of its people own their homes. It would be hard to guess what would happen if no one lived in or owned his place of abode.

If it's a Home in Eastland, we have it - any price, any location, and a bargain in every sale.

Pastor Conducts a Bride, Groom Service

By United Press

PHILADELPHIA — The Rev. Ivan H. Hagedorn holds an animal "bride and groom" service at Bethel Lutheran Church at which he advises young persons regarding the correct manner of choosing a mate and distributes a booklet on love.

Dr. Hagedorn warned girls against marrying because they wanted a "soft berth" and were tired of working. He said that girls frequently fell in love with gigolos who danced or played bridge well, and that men were just as foolish when they fell in love with a dimple.

There is "too much foolish" talk about love being a matter of luck, according to the clergyman.

Weaver Brothers and Elviry Use Same Theme Song For 23 Years

For more than twenty-three years the famed Weaver Brothers and Elviry, outstanding hill-billy trio who are currently to be seen at the Lyric Theatre in "Down in Arkansaw," have used the same theme song for their vaudeville act and radio programs. The title of this song, which they played no little part in helping to immortalize, is "the Arkansaw Traveller."

The Weavers, yes Elviry too—she's the wife of Frank Weaver—feel that this song has played a great part in the success that they have had for so many years. It carried them to the pinnacle of fame on the vaudeville stage. It put them on the top rung of the ladder in radio and it now looks as if it will play a great part in the phenomenal success they are having in Hollywood where practically every studio in the business is bidding for their talents.

The hill-billy trio estimate that they have played the famed song somewhere in the vicinity of twenty-three thousand times on their home made instruments or an average of one thousand times for each year they have been in show business.

"Down in Arkansaw" is a hilarious hill-billy type musical that features the Weavers and Elviry as mountaineer folks who take kindly to two government agents, who come to the mountains to clear up bad living conditions, and help them succeed where countless other agents have been run out at the point of a shotgun.

Featured in the new picture in addition to the above named trio are lovely June Storey, Ralph Byrd, Pinky Tomlin and Comical Bertou Churehill.

The story was written by the McGowan Brothers, Dorrell and Stuart. Nick Grinde directed the film under the personal supervision of Associate Producer Armand Schaefer.

POWELL—de HAVILLAND NEW STARRING TEAM

Some of the best matches are made—not in Heaven, as the old saying goes—but in the Hollywood casting offices. They don't have to stand the test of marriage, of course, but they do have to stand the test of the film public's romantic ideas. "I don't know what he sees in her" (or vice versa) is probably one of the most overworked sentences in the English language. And that's what the casting directors have to circumvent.

APPLE A DAY PAYS AT 90

By United Press

WALKERTON, Ont. — Mrs. Caroline Freidburger, who has just celebrated her 90th birthday here, attributed her remarkably good health and long life to "work, an apple a day, and three regular meals."

Latest result of their art is the pairing of Olivia de Havilland and Dick Powell in "Hard To Get," a delightful romantic comedy which comes to the Lyric next week. Both young stars have been in the top brackets for some time and have shared romances with the screen's leading lights, but this represents their first co-starring work, and according to advance reports, it's an ideal film match.

Watch Her!

ANN SHERIDAN—all done up in blossoms, beads and bracelets may be pretending she's a Hawaiian maiden on the beach at Waikiki—though the fact of the matter is she's on the "home lot" posing before a south seas drop the candid cameraman has chosen as a becoming background for the red-headed beauty. Ann appears next in Warners' "Angels With Dirty Faces."

Hollywood's Newest Coiffures

MARIE WILSON—frames her face with a halo of softly-rolled blonde curls. She's in "Student Nurse."

There Go Their Hearts!

Fredric March and Virginia Bruce in a scene from "There Goes My Heart."

Fredric March, Virginia Bruce Are Co-Stars in "There Goes My Heart"

Fredric March and Virginia Bruce romp through the merriest adventures of the year in "There Goes My Heart," Hal Roach's gay comedy romance, which begins a 2-day engagement at the Lyric Theatre on Sunday.

The story casts Virginia as a madcap heiress who tries to run out on her fortune and March as a reporter who tries to run out on his boss.

Virginia gives up her yacht for a job in a bargain basement and finds a new world full of walk-up apartments, kind-hearted salesgirls and eccentric motormen.

Then into her life roams the roving reporter and the pair have a barrel of fun eating hamburgers, visiting skating rinks, riding in the subways—and falling in love. The new streamlined Patsy Kelly heads the supporting cast as the electric vibrator demonstrator who befriends the poor little rich girl, and versatile Alan Mowbray has one of his maddest roles as Patsy's subway motorman sweetie-ast, who works all night and studies chiropractic by day.

Nancy Carroll returns to the screen in an important featured role, while others who are prominently cast are Eugene Pallette, Etienne Girardot, Claude Gillingwater and Arthur Lake.

The screen play for "There Goes My Heart" was prepared by Eddie Moran and Jack Jevne from an original story by Ed Sullivan, the famous columnist. Norman Z. McLeod directed the production which marks Hal Roach's first picture under his new releasing contract with United Artists.

PRISON BATTLE

HARD ON GIRLS

Libraries of film sound effects supply everything now from chirps of a chickadee to the gurgle of a gutter-pipe, so the clang of iron prison gates and doors is a simple problem.

Hence the familiar iron-work in cells doesn't have to be iron unless—well, the exception was the cause of many bumps and bruises suffered by Jane Bryan and Sheila Bromley one day on the set of "Girls on Probation," coming to the Lyric theatre. They did a fight scene that day in a prison cell in which the bars were really iron.

The Misses Bryan and Bromley, very lady-like in real life, weren't exactly so in the battle. The script said they had to throw each other against the bars of their cell—and they followed it out.

If the bars had been soft wood imitations, they would have broken right before the camera, spoiled the scene, delayed production. Since they were iron, they not only withstood the battering but handled a lot of it back to Jane and Sheila.

The amateur writer who is accused of trying to burn a one-legged poet with whisky for fuel will probably plead poetic license.

Illness Costs Britain Huge Annual Bill

By United Press

LONDON — Illness costs Great Britain about $1,415,000,000 a year.

Of this sum $250,000,000 goes to the doctors. There are about 17,500,000 people under the National Health Insurance scheme, and their average time on the sick list is a fortnight a year. Treatments and maintenance of these people costs the rest.

On the prevention of illness the nation spends $585,000,000.
