A Different America Today Watches Europe

As the beginnings of European war unroll themselves like some unrealistic slowmotion newsreel, it is becoming clear that the America which watches is a different America from the one that watched Europe burst into flames in 1914.

Then we were shocked, fascinated, horrorstricken. We were like children, for except for the brief Spanish episode, war was nothing to the average American but a far-away tale of Gettysburg and Antietam told by grandfather. As horror followed horror and all Europe reddened with blood we were emotionally like a nerve-end bared to the touch.

But there is more and more evidence that this European war is not to repeat the pattern of the last one. Instead, it begins more or less where the last one left off.

In 1914, the soldiers marched off amid cheers and defiant shouts of "Nach Paris!" and "A Berlin!" Today there are no flowers stuck in the gun barrels. The mood of German, Frenchmen, Briton alike, is grim, determined perhaps, but somewhat sullen. It is the mood of late 1918.

So Americans, watching this horror spread again over Europe, watch it not so much in the spirit of shock and open-mouthed fascination that marked 1914, but more in the spirit of disillusion that came in 1914 and which has mounted since.

Are we to be shocked by new tales of blood-letting, who have read nothing for the past 10 years but the slaughter of a million men in Spain, and the butchery of the uncounted hundreds of thousands in China? Are we to be surprised when civilians die in air raids, after Spain and China and Ethiopia have dinned into our ears for a decade their lesson that this is war?

Those who remember the Lusitania can scarcely believe today the way in which the United States took in its stride the sinking of the Athenia. Few were shocked, fewer still cried for revenge. True, no Americans died, yet for two days it seemed certain that they had. And not a tithe of the flooding indignation of Lusitania days rose up.

Why? Because in a world which has been deluged with horror for 10 years the recognition has become dully accepted that this is war as it is, and as it must be, today.

The inhuman, brutal, uncivilized murder of civilians in their homes or on the sea is not chargeable today to war as the Germans wage it, or the Poles, or the English or French. It is war, as anyone must wage it today who elects to draw the sword.

Income Survey Shows Buying Power Growing

MINNEAPOLIS.—An increase in income from investments, reflecting recovery in American business during the first half of this year, along with continued low prices for daily living necessities, enable Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Public to buy more goods and services now than they could a year ago, according to a monthly study of what people get and spend, made known here today by Investors Syndicate.

The Public's "real income" at the start of August, 1938, was $1.13 compared with $1 a year ago. Their cash income was $1.11 against $1 a year ago, while their living expenses were only 98 cents against $1 at the start of August, 1938.

The "real income" is not a mere subtraction of cash income from cash outgo, which would be an index of savings rather than real income, but an average relative figure of income and outgo designed to show how the cost of living affects the adjusted dollar income.

One of the most significant changes in the monthly consumers' study, reports Investors Syndicate, "is the increase in income from investments as compared with a year ago. Investment income, in the form of dividend or interest payments, is higher than it has been in many months. At the start of August it was $1.03 compared with $1 at the same time in 1938.

Investment income at the start of July, 1938, was 98 cents against $1 a year earlier. At the opening of June, 1938, it was only 88 cents compared with $1 for the same 1938 period.

Murihead Announces New Buicks To Be Shown By Next Week

Jack Murihead, Eastland Buick dealer, has returned from Dallas, where he has just purchased a full car load of new Buicks, which will be shown on his floor next week.

He is to announce the exact dates for the showing next week. Upon his return from Dallas Murihead released the following advance information concerning the new Buicks:

Price reductions ranging from $17 to $281 on nine of Buick's 1940 models, basic prices on two new series to be introduced this year, and addition of numerous accessories as standard equipment at no extra cost on remaining models, were announced today by Harlow H. Curtice, president and general manager.

The Buick range for 1940, comparable to 1936 prices and considered the lowest in the company's history, is from $895 for the 121-inch wheelbase Series 40 Special business coupe to $2199 for the 149-inch wheelbase Series 90 Limited limousine.

Basic prices on the Series 40 models, with the exception of the convertible Phaeton, remained unchanged from 1939 notwithstanding addition as standard equipment of such important accessories as improved front and rear safety direction signal, extra front bumper guards, extra electrical equipment, trunk lights, fender lamps, oil filter and other accessories which either were not on the cars last year or were optional at extra cost.

As a result, Mr. Curtice said, the new prices represent a substantial savings to consumers, with the price structure embracing complete and luxuriously equipped automobiles over the entire range.

Buick's new Series 50 Super and Series 70 Roadmaster lines, completely new additions for 1940, will take their position price wise just above the Series 40 Special and Series 60 Century models, respectively, providing the most complete market coverage in the experience of the company, Mr. Curtice said. The new Super four-door, six passenger sedan will deliver in Flint, including Federal tax and all standard accessories, at $1109, and the six passenger coupe in the same series is priced at $1058.

Comparable models in the new Roadmaster line are priced at $1359 and $1277 respectively. Priced completely equipped, the Super and Roadmaster series include, besides standard accessories, such added items as flexible steering wheel, rear wheel shields on the Series 70, chrome window reveals, Foamtex cushions, center arm rests and other special equipment.

Reductions of $35 a car on the popular Series 60 Century four door sedan, $78 on the Series 40 Convertible Phaeton, and $120 on the Series 60 Convertible Phaeton were included in the wide range of price cuts. At the same time, substantial additions were made to the standard equipment of these cars.

Large reductions occurred in the Limited group. Limousines and eight passenger Series 90 sedans being cut $281, six passenger Series 90 sedan, $159, Series 80 Convertible Phaeton and Formal sedan, $58, and Series 80 four door sedan, $17.

It was pointed out that all Buick convertible phaetons will include the new improved design under seat heater with defroster and air intake, which likewise is standard equipment on all Limited series cars. The same heater will be offered as an accessory at extra cost on other models.

Foamtex seat cushions, chrome window reveals will be standard on all series except the lowest priced Special cars on which it will be optional at small added cost. White sidewall tires are standard on all convertible models and on the higher priced Limited series.

The new Series 50 Super and Series 70 Roadmaster models are offered in two selections of two-tone color combinations at no extra cost.

Colt Show Being Planned in Ranger For This October

Directors of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce met Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the office of the secretary, with A. N. Larson, president, presiding.

A number of business items were taken up for discussion, but action upon most of them was delayed until a future meeting. It was unanimously decided to sponsor a colt show this fall, similar to the one held last year, though no definite date was named. It was decided, however, that the show should be held the latter part of October.

Six nominees were selected, from which the city commission will elect two directors to fill two vacancies on the board. The commission is expected to name the two new directors at their next meeting, in order that they can begin to function as soon as possible. Those present at the meeting were Larson, Lee Dockery, B. E. Garner, A. J. Ratliff, R. S. Balch, Dr. Ross Hodges, L. R. Pearson and B. A. Tunnell.

Rangerite Named To Aid Airplane Observance Period

C. J. Moore, Ranger city commissioner and airport booster, has been named on a committee of 11 in the State of Texas to promote interest in airports and in the observance of an air progress observance period, which started Monday, Sept. 11 and continues thru Sunday, Sept. 24.

Others named on the committee, besides Moore, are A. J. Peterson, Galveston; W. P. P. Pool, Longview; John Brogotti, Marshall; W. M. Holmes, Midland; H. Sessions, Palestine; Garnett Reeves, Pampa; T. C. McInecke, Plainview; Al Harris, San Angelo; George S. Prim, Sulphur Springs and Jack Bryant, Wichita Falls.

Moore stated today that as a part of Ranger's observance of National Air Progress Observance, a miniature airplane contest would be held at the airport Sunday, September 24, the last day of the period.

All boys in this part of the country will be eligible to enter either rubber band models or gasoline models, Moore stated, and cash and merchandise prizes will be offered for all classes of planes. These contests have been held in other nearby cities, and have been proving extremely popular, both with the contestants and with spectators, Moore said.

Any boy wanting to enter a plane can register with C. J. Moore, or at the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, giving his name, age, address and the type of plane he wishes to enter.

The airport is being cleared off, Moore stated, and preparations are being made for installation of a new hanger, airplane motor repair shops, a filling station, runway and other features to be included in the NYA program for improving the airport and establishment of an airplane mechanics school, which is expected to be started not later than Oct. 1.

Colorful Figures Expected to Attend Breckenridge Fete

BRECKENRIDGE — Three of the most colorful figures in the roaring days of the oil boom in this section are expected to attend the Breckenridge homecoming on Sept. 22 and 23, marking the twentieth anniversary of the great oil rush.

One of them is Jack Rapp, of Ranger, who has shot more oil wells than any other man in the history of the industry. He set off the biggest shot ever known—2,600 quarts of nitroglycerin—in a well in the Caddo pool in this county.

Another is Shorty Woods, also of Ranger, who holds the world's record for loading an oil field boiler on a wagon, single-handed, except for the aid of a pair of horses. His time for loading a 10,000-pound boiler was three minutes, 45 seconds.

Drivers Licenses To Be Issued On A New Schedule

AUSTIN, Tex.—Revised schedules for the issuance of driver's licenses were announced today by Ralph L. Buell, Chief of the Safety Department's Driver's License Division.

Drastic changes in the statewide routine were forced by a 62 per cent reduction in patrolmen-examiner personnel, leaving only 32 men to perform duties formerly assigned to 85. With only a few exceptions, Buell said, licenses may be obtained in county seat cities only one day each week. Full time schedules will be maintained in Fort Worth, Dallas, San Antonio, Houston and Amarillo.

Previous to September 1, when economy cuts took effect, licenses were issued daily in 14 district stations over the state as well as Waco, Beaumont and El Paso. The new schedule follows:

Louis Roth and his group of "mixed cats" and two elephants will be presented three times daily at the 1936 State Fair of Texas by Southern Select Beer.

Roth for years was with the late Al G. Barnes, later with the American Circus Corporation and then with Ringling, and is said to be one of the best animal men in the business. He has trouped for years, but is now employed by the movie studios in Hollywood, to which he rents his animals for African, Indian and other pictures.

Roth is said to have two of the best working elephants ever in show business. The elephants, in addition to putting on the three shows each day, will be used for parade purposes, and also children will be allowed to ride them during their stay at the State Fair of Texas.

Included in the "cat" group is Leo, the original Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer lion, which roars out at the audience as the M-G-M pictures start. Leo is said to be one of the best trained animals in the business.

A wrestling tiger and a wire-walking lion are also included in the group.

The greatest oddity which will be presented by the Southern Select Beer Arena is the Dionne family of the animal world. Triplets are the general order of a lit-

Today Will Soon Be Tomorrow,

We see all about us many good folks who put off doing necessary things until the time comes when they can no longer do so. The doctor, the dentist and the man who does a general credit business have every-day experiences with people who put off today's important duties until tomorrow, which is usually too late.

And it's that way about buying homes. There is nothing more important in any career than owning a home. Some of our best tenants and our best friends know this and have been wanting to own a home for ten years, but they are still renting, and they probably will be renting tomorrow and on and on. It's tragic, but true!

"The Wizard of Oz" Proves the Greatest Miracle of the Show World

A New Audience Hails it As Far Greater Entertainment than "Snow White" Because of Its Human Cast and Magical Technicolor! "Oz" Will Run on Saturday's Lyric and on Saturday's Midnite Show.

The delightful humbug, the Wizard, in songs and dances, Ray Bolger as the Scarecrow, Jack Haley as the Tin Woodman and Bert Laahr as the Cowardly Lion again proved why they have been favorites around the country for years. Their make-up is amazing but not once do you lose their personalities because they are so surprisingly recognizable at all times.

Billie Burke is eye-tilling as the Good Witch and proves she can do more than play feather-brained mothers. Margaret Hamilton is perfect as the Wicked Witch. Charley Grapewin, P. A. Walshe and Clara Blandick score in familiar roles. And, if the little dog Toto isn't a film star soon audiences will miss their guess.

The musical score in which the lyrics form part of the dialogue is as lifting as it is novel, and you will soon be humming such tunes as "Over the Rainbow," "If I Only Had a Brain," "If I Were King of the Forest," and "The Merry Land of Oz."

Judy Garland and Ray Bolger in "The Wizard of Oz"

Producer Mervyn LeRoy has a perfect cast and a multi-star picture. Director Victor Fleming gave the picture the same qualities found in his "Captains Courageous" and "Test Pilot."

And if all this isn't enough, there are hundreds of the most intriguing little Munchkins you'd ever imagine, thousands of other delightful characters and even trees which move. Sound and photographic effects, from the thrilling cyclone shots down to amazing bird sounds, are almost past description. "The Wizard of Oz" is recommended from baby to grandmother.

A World's Fair nude show closed, claiming ground rentals were too high. Either that, or the girls found fall temperatures too low.

Nazis restrict Germans to two suits apiece. Over here we're still trying to pay for the first one.

Garland, Frank Morgan, in "The Wizard of Oz" appeal in large quantities over the country have captured the music and buckled with glee over dialogue and lyrics, at delightful events, to the story's action, popular eyes open in amazement at the greatest color camera magnum of and ended up bump in their throats as the philosophy of the story come to them. No wonder love Oz.

Garland as Dorothy proves the greatest child actress age on the screen and it's her lovely songs which Frank Morgan's star rises in her performance

EDW. G. ROBINSON PLAYS PART OF FIRE-FIGHTER IN HIS LATEST PICTURE, "BLACKMAIL"

A NEW and more sympathetic Edward G. Robinson, giving a brilliant performance in a tense, vivid theme of blazing oil well fires and a prison camp, is seen in "Blackmail" which opens Tuesday at the Lyric theatre.

In it Robinson, although again in the toils of the law, is not the gangster, the killer or the racketeer. Sent to prison nine years before the story opens for a crime he did not commit, Robinson, as an escaped convict, is returned to a prison camp through the hypocrisy and treachery of a former shipmate.

His battles in the swamy jungle of the prison camp, his treatment at the hands of a bitter prison guard, his burning desire for revenge, and his escape and tensely dramatic means of avenging himself on his betrayer combine to project Robinson upon the screen in a characterization as stark and vivid as any he has ever done.

The heavy is admirably played by Gene Lockhart, steadily forging ahead as one of the most versatile character actors in Hollywood. Ruth Hussey is convincing in the role times light, sometimes tragic role of Robinson's wife. Eight-year-old Bobs Watson gives another outstanding performance as his son, Gu'm (Big Boy) Williams, as Robinson's saw-witted partner, provides both laughs and rugged drama, which is highlighted by some of the most gripping of spectacular sequences.

H. C. Potter directed the production with a deft hand.

Film Avoids the Usual Formula
SUGAR-COATING IGNORED IN MAKING OF NEW FILM

The screen often presents a sugar-coated formula for human problems, with its ever-present happy ending and hope of appeasing humanity's conscience.

When a film dares to be different, when it trials with reality and leaves doubt beyond the shadows, it is usually quickly recognized as head 1 for greater popularity and success.

All of which proves that the public once love the truth, even when it hurts.

Universal's "I Stole A Million" co-starring George Raft and Claire Trevor now playing at the Lyric Theatre, comes classified as just such a picture.

It presents a man of mass calibre who tried to forever blot out the yesterdays of error that he might live each tomorrow in the luxury of love.

He winds up the object of a nation-wide man hunt—on the wrong end of a war with society. "I Stole A Million" is well worth your time to see.

Range Hero Swaps Guns For Gloves

Buck Jones, for the first time in his twenty-year movie career as a rough-riding hero of the Western plains, swaps his smoking six-shooters for a pair of boxing gloves in Paramount's comedy-drama, "Unmarried," which arriver today at the Connellee Theatre.

The idol of 2,000,000 Western movie fans portrays the role of a has-been pug who's a chump as far as his sweetheart, Helen Twelvetees, is concerned, and a champ to a norph, played by Donald "Small Fry" O'Connor.

"Unmarried" is a warm, human, funny story of a hardboiled couple who find they're not so tough when faced with the prospect of bringing up a nice orphaned kid. Buck Jones will delight his followers with his fresh portrayal of a fighter who never makes the grade. Co-starred with the cowboy favorite are Helen Twelvetees, who returns to cinematic triumphs after an absence of two years.

Non-Musical Cabbie Leads Dance Band

NEW ORLEANS—Frank (Val) Barbara makes a living out of cabs and cadenzas without being able to read music and without being classed as a singing cabdriver. Here's how he does it: During the day he forsakes music entirely, with the exception of an occasional tweet or the whistle he uses to call cabs. He works as a cab starter—from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. After dark, Barbara directs his dance band. He doesn't know anything about music personally, but he knows there's money in dance bands.

Members of the Eastland Rotary club, in session Monday at the First Methodist church, voted to assist in the continuance of the Eastland W.P.A. nursery project.

Mayor C. W. Hoffmann and Rev. P. W. Walker in talks told the members that unless some way is devised to secure enough money each month to buy food and supplies for the nursery then the city would be unable to continue its operation.

Formerly, the government paid for food and supplies of the nursery. The talks by Mayor Hoffmann and Rev. Walker were preceded by introductory remarks by T. P. Johnson, member of an advisory council to assist in nursery problems.

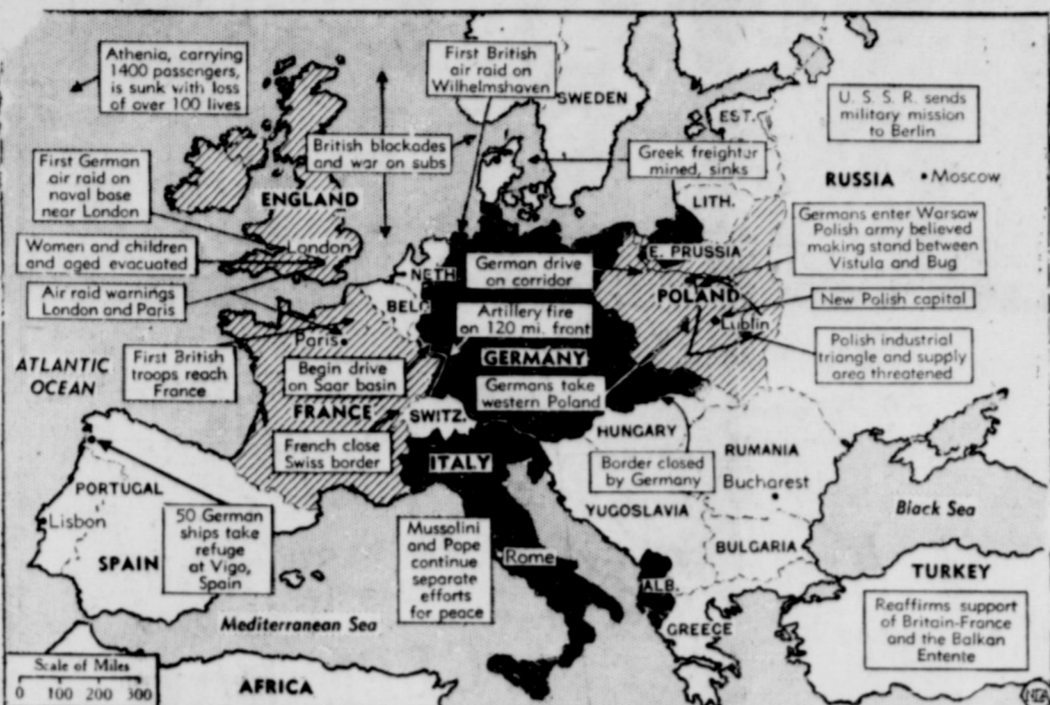

The extent to which the Rotarians will assist will be determined by committee action. Jack Frost presided. Visitors were Dr. Joseph C. B. Pruet, W. F. Creager, Dr. C. L. Jackson, A. J. Miller, all of Ranger, and E. Hooks of Cisco.

A story carried in this paper recently about a butterfat test being made on December Fairy baby, three and a half year old Jersey heifer owned by Jack Walker of Alameda, stated that, in the 105-day test 114 pounds of butterfat had been produced. Legion Post Is Starting Drive For Memberships

The Carl Barnes Post, No. 69, American Legion, is to start an intensive membership campaign, under the regime of Mack Dutton, post commander, and letters have been sent out to nearly 200 war veterans in this part of the country who are eligible for membership. Letters, which are going out over the signature of the post commander, read as follows: "Dear Sir and Buddy: "Just recently having been elected Post Commander of Carl Barnes Post No. 69, Ranger, Texas, my first objective was to reduce our dues from $5.00 to $3.00 per year. This was done, and my next objective is to make this post one of the most active in the 17th district.

DISMISS CASE

Case of J. T. Anderson vs. L. V. Hughes et al has been dismissed by 91st district court at the cost of the plaintiff.

JUDGMENT GIVEN

Judgment for $988 for Mary E. Boyett and husband against D. K. Williamson has been returned by 91st district court.

I do not mean that we are to have the largest membership in the district. What I want is that this post will be in a position to render the best of service, first to our buddies and ex-service men and their dependents, second, render a service to our town and community excelled by no other civic organization. By doing this we must be active in Child's Welfare work, which as you know is being sponsored by our American Legion, Nationally. We should also endeavor to carry our portion of our City's contribution to charity.

"At our recent State Convention at Waco, our delegation had the pleasure of attending meetings of our State Department of Child's Welfare and Service work to Veterans and their dependents, also business meetings of the Sons of the American Legion. The programs of these departments were outlines of heads of each department, who I assure you were well versed, and who had our interest at heart, and I also assure you that had you been present at these meetings, you would consider it a privilege and honor to belong to an organization who has you and your dependents interest at heart as has the American Legion.

"On Thursday, September 14th, we will have our inauguration services, and I trust that you will be present to assist in the ceremony and that you will give us your full support in putting the Carl Barnes Post back on the map in the coming year of 1940.

"Our membership committee will gladly renew your membership in the American Legion, and will give us your support, by meeting with us on each Thursday night, in order that this post will be of real service to you and yours.

"Thanking you very much, we are
"Yours very truly,
