

CRIME HERE IS ON INCREASE OFFICERS SAY

The Eastland county grand jury's warning a few days ago that crime was on the increase in this section, was reiterated this week by Sheriff John Hart of Eastland county, who, like the grand jury, warns that unless the citizens of this section take the matter seriously and begin now to curb crime, it may become a very serious problem to deal with.

Only a short time ago three places were burglarized at Carbon and one at Okra. Also a few nights ago two places of business in Desdemona were plundered. A similar occurrence was reported from Dublin, in the neighboring county of Erath, only a few nights ago.

According to Sheriff Hart, more than 2,000 chickens were stolen in Erath county a few nights ago, 500 of them from one poultryman. Hart also stated that a few nights ago an automobile was stolen from the streets of Ranger, driven to the nearby country and stripped of its tires.

Eastland county is also experiencing a wave of chicken stealing, a number of cases having been reported, some of which were brought before the grand jury.

Stockmen are also reporting the disappearance of a few animals now and then and considering all of these cases many people feel that it is time that each law-abiding citizen appoint himself a committee of one to collect all of the information he can and place it in the hands of the law enforcement officers, who are now, and will continue to do all in their power to prevent the commission of crime and if it is committed to bring the guilty parties to justice.

Red Cross Notes

On March 17th, 1943, the president signed an act (Public Law No. 10) to include any person who has served in the active military or naval service of the United States on or after December 7, 1941, in the term "veteran of any war."

The effect of this act is to extend to veterans of World War No. 11 the same medical and hospital treatment, domiciliary care and burial benefits as those previously granted to veterans of World War I, and prior wars. It is no longer required that veterans of the present war be discharged for disability incurred in line of duty or be in receipt of pension to establish eligibility for hospital or domiciliary care or burial allowance.

Members of the WAAC and WAVES and SPARS and of the Marine Corps are also included in the provisions of this act. A new "racket" has been described in the New York Times. It is a plan to skirt money from relatives of deceased servicemen, by means of letters to such relatives alleging that the deceased man had incurred debts. Postal authorities are investigating several such cases.

Families who receive communications of this kind should turn them over immediately to the nearest postal authorities. Chapters of the Red Cross are asked to report such instances to area offices, but referral to the authorities, but referral to the authorities.

Have you been to the Red Cross office and rooms in the Pullman building? If not you have missed something of interest and something that is a credit to Eastland and the County. Here they have a re-sale store, where may be found many kinds of clothing, furniture, etc., also they have rummage. If you have anything new or used, that you don't need take it to the Red Cross and that organization will see to it that it is placed where it will do good.

RECORD ATTACK OF WAR HITS DUISBURG AS ALLIES WIPE OUT LAST OF AXIS IN AFRICA

Battle of Tunisia ends in complete victory for Allies with 163,000 Axis prisoners taken including 13 generals

Pre-invasion bombardment of Europe hit its full stride again today after the Allies had wiped out an Axis army of 200,000 in Tunisia, with the RAF striking the heaviest blow of the war at Germany.

Hundreds of four-motored British bombers dropped more than 1,500 tons of explosives on Duisburg last night in a record attack which eclipsed the destructive power of the 1,000 plane raid on Cologne almost a year ago.

It was all over in Tunisia save for the perfunctory mop-up of the battlefields on which the Allies had taken 163,000 prisoners, including 13 generals, and enormous quantities of arms and war material.

The long fight for North Africa, estimated in London to have cost the Axis about 600,000 men, all told, ended in a complete Allied victory.

"The governments of both our countries, to say nothing of the French here, can have real reason for encouragement and hope from the results of this campaign," Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said in summing up the last battle of Tunisia.

The special communique announcing complete victory said: "Organized resistance except by isolated pockets of the enemy has ceased. General Von Arnim, commander of the Axis forces in Tunisia has been captured. "It is estimated that the total of prisoners captured since May 5 is about 150,000.

LONDON (UP) — Spitfires destroyed six German Focke-Wulf 180 fighters during sweeps over northern France today and other fighters escorted Mitchell in a raid on the railroad yards at Boulogne, the air ministry announced.

Vast quantities of guns and war material of all kinds have been captured, including guns and air craft in a serviceable condition.

The end came on the jagged reaches of Cap Bon Peninsula, where von Arnim was taken prisoner, and in a tiny pocket on the mainland to the southwest, where 30,000 crack Axis troops had battled on without supplies or air support until overwhelmed by French and British armies and a merciless aerial pounding. The French announced capture of 25,000 more Germans and Italians in the latter pocket.

The new captives included, in addition to von Arnim, two of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's crack generals, Maj. Gen. Graf von Sponeck, commander of the Ninetieth Light (Motorized) Division, and Maj. Gen. Proich, commander of the Tenth Panzer Division.

The French reported the additional capture of a General Felch, commander of the Italian Superga Division, and a German General Pfeiffer, bringing to 12 the total number of Axis Generals taken prisoner in the final stages of the campaign.

Von Sponeck was in command of the trapped forces below Cap Bon. Early Wednesday Gen. Sir Bernard Freyberg of the Eighth Army's New Zealanders gave him an ultimatum of unconditional surrender. Sponeck replied he would fight to the last but shortly thereafter his men were observed firing into the air in token that they realize the hopelessness of their situation.

Finally the Germans broke and accepted unconditional surrender terms.

Authority of the Church Develops When Philip Goes to the Samaritans

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D. Editor of Advance THE spirit of Christianity soon began to manifest itself following the great events of the Day of Pentecost and the virtual founding of the Christian Church. It quickened a zeal that brought the disciples in conflict with the constituted religious authorities in much the same way that Jesus had aroused hostility to Himself.

BY PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WHEN this year's negotiations for a new contract between John L. Lewis's United Mine Workers and the Bituminous Coal Operators goes off the tipple and into the cars to be hauled away to the dumps of history, it will reveal an uncommonly high percentage of not only Lewis's mind dilly dallying, but an overweight stubbornness on the part of all negotiators.

It is apparent that this particular biennial trouble would have been settled weeks ago. It was not just Lewis's demand for a $2 increase that was pure stubbornness either. Representatives of the operators have been as resistant to any settlement as any rock trace that blunted a miner's pick.

JOHN LEWIS's original demands for a $2 a day increase have been what all such initial demands from organized labor really are—starting point for bargaining. Lewis has repeatedly told the operators to make him another offer after restating his original demands and receiving the expected "No!"

Handle with Care

★ The shallow pan protects the oven floor, in case of accidental boil-overs

Especially in Canning

- 4. In canning on the top burners, handling pressure cooker, water bath, or open kettle, do not set anything hot or wet directly on the enamel spaces. Use cork mats, or asbestos mats. 5. If anything drips on the range, wipe it off immediately with a DRY cloth. (The damp cloth comes later when the range has cooled).

ARE YOU TAKING EXTRA CARE of your Gas Range, to make it feed your family till we win this war?

- 1. Don't burn out the oven enamel with prolonged high heat. (Only a few oven dishes call for high heat; and roast meat tastes much better with a definitely LOW heat). 2. In canning jars of food in the oven, don't prop heavy loads on the open door; it might warp the door. 3. Notice the jar-pan in above photograph.

THE RAFT AGAIN

Yes, here comes the raft again! "Convictions from a Raft—the Supreme Being" is the pastor's sermon subject Sunday morning, concluding a series of three sermons on this topic. Other features of the service will reward you for all the members and friends make their way to the church for this great hour together.

MOTHER'S DAY

It was a good day in the church. More people were present than we had expected. That is always a happy condition. The subject of the day was treated in what many were kind enough to say was a sane and sensible manner.

BY THE BROOK

Well, that is going to be a different type of sermon at 8:15 Sunday evening. The topic will be "By the Brook of Besor". Does not mean a thing in the world to you? Look up the word in your Bible and read its message. Come to the evening service and see what your pastor sees about it. Our small congregation last Sunday evening was a little larger than usual. You could make a contribution to your church by the simple act of attending and boosting its evening services. Those who come regularly are of the opinion they are equally helpful as the morning ones. Some even say better.

Our brother in Christ, member of our church family, Loving husband, obedient son, helpful father, loyal friend of many, Marvin H. Kelly, ended the earthly phase of his life and entered into the heavenly.

WORLD SERVICE

As we "go to press" we are not in the position to announce that we shall be able to report half our World Service (Conference Claims, etc.) paid, as we set out to do, by district conference, which marks the end of the first half of the church year. We are not far from the goal as these lines are written and it is barely possible that we shall make it in full. We want to thank all who generously have contributed.

OUR BUDGET

There was a small deficit in the budget on Monday evening but the finance committee led by Mr. Seaberry assured the Board of Stewards the matter would be attended to before the end of the church month, Saturday. So you have done it again—paid up in full and on time. Some of our

Last week The Methodist Broadcaster did not appear. It was due to a slip-up for which no one was responsible. The material was written on time as heretofore. We appreciate the liberal policy of The Chronicle toward the church.

CHURCH REPAIRS

The Board of Stewards, under the able leadership of its chairman, John W. Jackson, voted Monday evening to repair our beautiful church building in many places. We ought to take the best care of our attractive and useful house.

CHURCH SCHOOL

You will find a friendly group in our church school. There is a class for all ages. The fellowship is delightful and helpful. In many instances you will find the teaching of the highest order. We welcome you to share in this service of the church.

The Women's Society of Christ-in-Service will meet Monday at three o'clock. Some years ago a woman of national significance said the women of this organization were the best informed single group of women in America. That is possible, for through their programs and study courses week after week and year after these women are in continuous contact with the world's highest thought and most vital forces. It is a pity beyond description that so many of our women who need the services of this society do not affiliate themselves with it.

JOIN A CHURCH

You live in Eastland? Are you a member of a church? If so, ought you not have your membership where you are—right here? It will make you feel more at home. It will bring the church closer to you. It will give you the sense of belonging. As long as you stand outside the church, the church, though willing to do otherwise, will stand outside of you. We invite you to unite with the church of your choice. This you ought to do.

OUT OUR WAY

BY WILLIAMS

The Baptist Herald First Baptist Church Rev. Homer J. Starnes, Pastor

It was gratifying to see so many entire families present last Sunday morning. Some of the families sat in a group. What could be more inspiring than to see father and mother and children in the place of worship on the Lord's Day.

We were happy to have more soldiers than usual in the service. Our people will want to be on the alert to make the boys in service know they are welcome to our church. These boys were in the main from far away states, and no doubt felt the need of some home atmosphere on that Mother's Day. When meeting the soldiers on the street invite them to Sunday school and church services.

The dates for the revival meeting are June 13-27. That is not far away. It will be here before we are ready for it if we do not begin now to get every hindrance out of the way. Let us trust that our people will as much as possible put the meeting first. Great victories can be won when efficient, consecrated people work end worship and win together.

It is our intention to hand out Sunday a list of sermon subjects and mid week studies to be used between now and the meeting. We would like for every member of the church to have one and use it as a basis for our mid-week studies together. The pastor in announcing sermon subjects in advance always reserves the privilege of making any change he may feel led to make.

The Vacation Bible School will be held following the meeting. There will not be time for it between closing of the public school and the beginning of our revival effort. The parents can help a great deal to enlist the boys and girls by encouraging them to enroll. We trust that a number of our adults will be ready to serve in the school when called upon. It affords a splendid opportunity for service of lasting good.

There is need now for a number of workers in the Sunday school. Every member should want to find a place of service. Why not seek the leadership of the Spirit in this matter and then talk to the superintendent or the pastor about helping in the Sunday school.

Do we know the value of time? There is no time to be lost. It is folly to try to persuade ourselves that we have more time than we need. God gives not one second too much—but he does give us enough to fulfill his purpose. Millions of money for a moment of time," cried Queen Elizabeth, at the last, after sixty years on the throne.

George Johnson, member of our church, devoted father and husband, kindly spirit, left this world and joined with others in the great world beyond.

SCHOOL FOR JUNIORS

Mrs. P. L. Drago announces that an additional session of the church school for Juniors and older primaries will be held Saturday at 10:00 a. m. for the next four Saturdays. The study will be of a world friendship unit dealing with South America. We trust parents will co-operate with the teachers in these meetings.

Regional Work Stabilization Plan Discussed

Personnel of the United States Employment Service offices in the Abilene District received full instructions regarding the new Regional Labor Stabilization Plan of the War Manpower Commission in a training conference Friday May 7th at Waco, according to L. W. Keilers, Manager of the Eastland U. S. Employment Service office.

The training conference was conducted by E. R. Speer of the WMC Regional office in Dallas. It was intended to familiarize the USES personnel with all of the terms and regulations of the new Regional Stabilization Plan, and enable them to answer the questions of employers and workers of this area on how various provisions of the plan apply to them.

Under the terms of the Regional Plan, any employer engaged in an essential activity may hire any new employee who for the preceding 30 days was not engaged in an essential activity. An employer may NOT hire for work in any activity which is not essential activity, any new employees who during the preceding 30 days was engaged in an essential activity, at a higher salary or wage rate than the worker received in his last job.

Employers may hire for work in an essential activity workers who have been engaged in another essential activity without regard to wage rate, but only if the worker presents a statement of availability issued by the worker's last employer, or by the WMC.

The worker must first apply to his employer for a Statement of Availability, and if the employer refuses to issue it, he may ask the U. S. Employment Service to issue the Statement of Availability.

A statement of availability shall contain the worker's name, his Social Security account number, if any, the name and address of the issuing employer or the WMC officer and office, the date of issuance and a statement to the effect that the worker may be hired elsewhere in essential activity.

No other information may be included on the Statement of Availability.

An employer engaged in essential activity must issue a Statement of Availability to a worker whenever he discharges the worker, or lays off the worker for 7 days or more, or for an indefinite period, or when the workers can establish that he is not being used at his highest skill, or at full time. In addition to these reasons, the WMC may issue a Statement of Availability whenever the worker can establish that the action would be in the best interest of the war effort. No statement of availability may be issued solely on the ground that a worker's wage or salary rate is higher than that of other workers in the industry.

Remember, there is a place for you in the church of your choice. Let us say, "count on me to be in my place Sunday." Bring another with you and let him share the blessings of worship.

substantially less than that prevailing in the locality for similar work.

Workers are prohibited under the terms of the Regional Stabilization Plan for accepting work from an employer, if such employment is prohibited by the plan. Either worker or employer may appeal a decision by the USES on an application, for a Statement of Availability.

"This Regional Stabilization Plan has been in effect in Texas, Louisiana, and New Mexico since April 29," said Mr. Keilers. "It is the responsibility of the worker and the employer to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the plan and to avoid violating its regulations, as penalties may be evoked against both workers and employers. The purpose of the training conference is to enable local USES office personnel to furnish full information, and aid employers and workers in observing the terms of the Plan."

If any worker or employer has any questions he would like to have clarified in regard to the Stabilization Program, he should come to the USES office, Room 10, Sinclair Building, Eastland or call 48.

Gardeners Get Nine-Point Plan For Hose Care

AKRON, O. (UP)—If mindful of the rubber shortage, you are wondering how to coddle your garden hose through its important victory garden job this year, an expert here has a "nine point program" for hose care that may mean the difference between a backyard farmer's success or failure.

W. S. Richardson, manager of the industrial products division of B. F. Goodrich, outlines his nine points as follows: "1. Never drive a car over your hose. 2. Don't leave it lying in the sun. 3. Coil it neatly and hang it up. 4. But not on a spike or snarled stick. 5. Be sure it's drained first, for water left in the hose will damage the fabric reinforcement."

The balance of Richardson's rules are: "6. Don't turn off the water at the nozzle. 7. Don't try to stop the flow by doubling the hose back on itself—for jither way may give you a 'blow-out.' 8. Don't drag a hose over sharp stones in a rock garden. 9. Don't pick an oily spot on the driveway or floor of your garage as the place to coil it.

"For oil," he concludes, "destroys most rubber, and you might end up with a leaky hose and a once promising victory garden 'burned up' by drought."

Sub Has Good Batting Average

WASHINGTON, May 12, (UP)—The Navy reported Wednesday that an American submarine had torpedoed ten Japanese ships in six attacks.

In the course of accumulating its bag, the submarine missed one ship at which it fired. Later, however, it got two victims with one salvo, and so the Navy was able to claim for it a record of: "Ten ships shot at, ten hit." Lieut. Comdr. William S. Stovall, commanding officer of the submarine, was awarded a Navy Cross, and Lieut. Robert E. Dornan received the Silver Star medal.

CHURCHILL MAY Flatwood Flashes HINT SUBJECT OF CONFERENCE

Broadcast announced as Japan revealed as one Of Subjects of parley WASHINGTON, May 13 (UP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill will broadcast from Washington Friday at 2 p. m. CWT and it is expected that he will review the success of the North African battle and possibly touch on the subject of the Washington conference.

This announcement came as it was also learned that new blows to Japan as well as the Axis in Europe are being planned by President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill.

Any question as to this was removed by disclosure that the military men here for the talks include the commanders of British land, sea and air forces in the India theater of operations. They are Field Marshal Sir Archibald F. Wavell, commander in chief in India; Admiral Sir James Somerville, commander in chief of the eastern fleet based at Ceylon, and Air Chief Marshal Sir Richard Peirse air officer commanding in India.

Also in Washington are Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell, commanding American forces in China, and Major Gen. Claire Chennault, commanding American forces in China.

WASHINGTON, (UP)—President Roosevelt and British Prime Minister Winston Churchill today continued their White House conferences, believed to center on plans for a major fall offensive to drive the Japanese out of Burma and open the way to China, and then to Japan.

Although purely in the realm of speculation, there was a disposition among some military men to regard the conferences as having two principal purposes:

- 1. To make plans for decisive campaigns against Japan, and
- 2. To make a last minute check up on plans already made for invasion of Hitler's European fortress.

It was suggested in these quarters that the conferences of the President and Prime Minister are concerned usually with matters that are carried out several months later—primarily of a long-range nature.

President Roosevelt said after the Casablanca meeting in January that plans were made then for the invasions—he stressed the plural—of Europe. There is no reason to conclude that these have been changed, or that they necessitate prolonged conferences between Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Churchill at this time.

The Allied situation with regard to the Pacific War, has however, been fundamentally altered by the victory in Africa and the imminent reopening of the Mediterranean.

"Mortals and Immortals" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 16. The Golden Text is: "Henceforth know we no man after the flesh" (II Corinthians 5:16). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality." (I Corinthians 15:53.) The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "By putting 'off the old man with his deeds,' mortals put on immortality." Tips on How to— Improve Your Lighting

Use One Large Bulb

There is one time when 2 + 2 doesn't equal 4, and that's when you add lamp bulbs. One 150-watt bulb gives more light than three 50-watt bulbs, so where practical, use one or two large bulbs instead of three or five smaller bulbs.

Civic League An Garden Club Pilgrimage

The Eastland Civic League and Garden Club was entertained with a coffee Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. John Turner. She was assisted in serving coffee and cinnamon rolls in the outdoor living room by Mrs. B. W. Patterson, F. M. Kenney, W. D. Maddrey and Mrs. Ella Ligon.

Mrs. Jack Muirhead, Mrs. Jack Frost and Mrs. Earl Conner, Jr., composed the committee in charge of the annual pilgrimage. After a social hour spent at Mrs. Turner's the ladies visited the outdoor living room and vegetable garden of Judge and Mrs. F. W. Patterson. From here they went to Hillcrest where they visited the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Manes, including a victory garden grown by Mr. Manes on clay soil which he built up by the erection of rock retaining walls and the use of soils brought in. This garden was declared by those who saw it to be a very beautiful one.

The spacious gardens of Judge and Mrs. W. P. Leslie, also in Hillcrest, were visited. Here many beautiful flowers trees and shrubs, as well as numerous varieties of vegetables, were found. An herb garden was the scene of attraction at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. E. Owen. The lovely backyard of this home was also a point of attraction.

The well kept garden of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins was visited enroute to the B. W. Brewer home. At the Brewer home the attractive backyard, which the Brewers have improved in a very short while, was admired by the women.

The A. F. Taylor garden was also very beautiful. The pilgrimage ended at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Horton where vegetables, combined with flowers, shrubs and trees with tomatoes about ready for eating were observed.

The garden club is proud of the numerous Victory Gardens, stated Mrs. Jack Ammer, retiring president, who added that
