Grady Hall, the state auto inspection man, says there's more to that business than some people know about.

He points out that mechanics who make the inspections are subject to being fined by the state for inferior work just the same as motorists may be fined for not having a current sticker on their vehicles. In other words, if a vehicle is given an O, K, and a sticker when it really isn't deserving, the mechanic so doing is subject to a penalty from the state.

Deadline for obtaining stickers for this year -- and every year -- is April 15. That's little more than 45 days away.

People, some of them, anyway, have a tendency to wait until the last minute before getting a sticker, according to Hall. This creates an undue hardship on the inspection station which is, of course, unnecessary since several months are given for the new stickers to be put on.

Hall is in agreement that the annual inspection helps make vehicles safer for the state's highways. He believes that many faults are corrected which would be dangerous if they were allowed to go uncorrected.

He says that at his business about 35 or 40 per cent of the vehicles qualify for a new sticker without having to have any adjustments. The remainder have to be worked on to some extent, at least, before they'll pass the test and qualify for a new sticker and another 12 months of "safe" driving.

As could be expected, the state is involved in the financial end of the business. The minimum charge is determined by the state government.

It is $1.
That's what a sticker costs if your vehicle needs no adjustments.

The charge for work and parts required to get a vehicle in qualifying shape is determined by the individual mechanic and his shop. The state has nothing to do with the additional charge.

That dollar, though, is probably one of the biggest bargains in Texas today. It doesn't take a mechanic long to use up a dollar's worth of time and we kinda doubt if a shop could hold its money together just putting stickers on automobiles which were all acceptable.

There's no charge, as far as we know for operating a vehicle without a current sticker. There's a good possibility of a fine, however, if you get caught by a state highway patrolman without having one on your vehicle.

State highway patrolmen, we guess, train themselves to notice about those stickers to the point that you're assured of being "caught" sometime during the year that you decide to save inspection costs.

Some people probably get by without a sticker, but we figure they're few and far between and don't do much driving on main highways in the state, either.

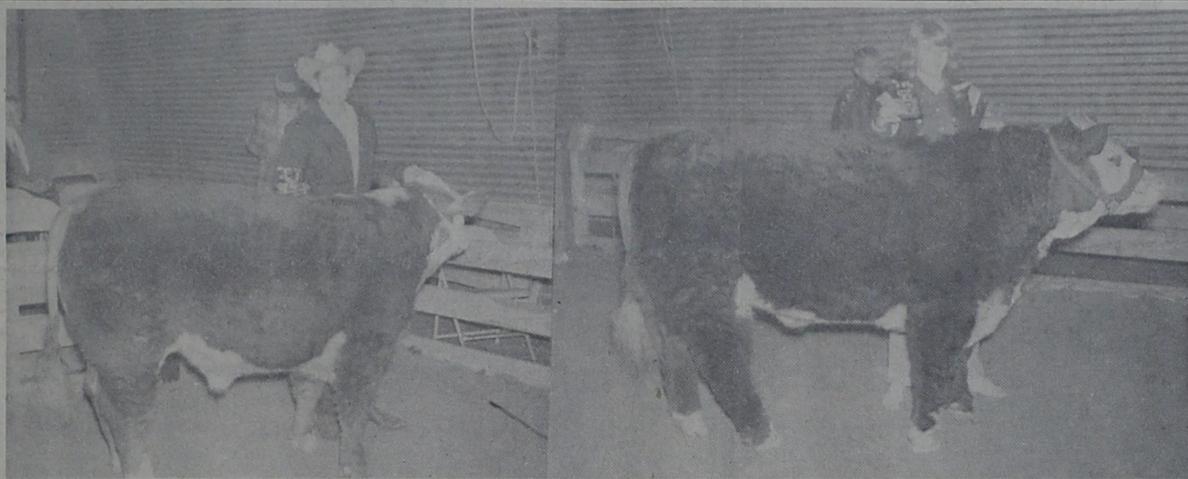

Mention of intelligent, trained dogs in this space last week reminded of "Cola," who calls the Jim Henke place, west of town, home.

School Purchases Land For Expansion

Coaches Get New Contracts

TOP STEERS -- Lowell Taylor, left, had the grand champion steer in the Lions Club-sponsored Bovina FFA and 4-H Show here Wednesday. Brenda Dyer's steer, right, was named reserve champion. Taylor's steer was winner of the heavyweight class and Miss Dyer's entry was the champion lightweight.

With plans on the drawing board for an expansion of school facilities, Bovina Independent School District purchased two blocks of land in the west part of town last week.

Purchased were halves of two blocks located on either side of a two-block tract purchased several months ago by the city. One tract of the new land was purchased from A. L. Glasscock and the other was bought from George McKinney. Cost of each was $5000.

This gives the city a four-block strip which joins Ninth Street on the west. The property fronts on Ninth Street for a one-block width and then is two blocks deep to the west.

Present plans call for the property to be used for a new grade school building.

School trustees continued a months-long discussion of plans for school expansion and improvements at a special meeting Thursday night. It was at this time that the decision was made to purchase the land.

Though no dates were set, school board members are presently considering a three-part program which would cost an estimated $450,000.

Included in this total is a 12-unit grade school building which will be located on the recently purchased land at a cost of approximately $200,000, improving the present football field and adding seating at an estimated cost of $30,000, and a new gymnasium for approximately $220,000.

The board is currently considering whether to make the improvements in one project or to spread the program over a period of years.

Additional grade school classrooms are expected to be needed as early as next year if the school's present rate of growth continues.

The football field and seating is considered to be inadequate for Class A, in which the Mustangs will compete next season. A new gym is needed to make more facilities available for physical education. This is one of the most overcrowded departments at the school now, according to feelings of board members.

At the Thursday night meeting, the board signed a contract for architectural services for the program with Maeker, Stephens and Sessions of Lubbock. The firm has recently completed a study of the school's growth during the past 15 or 20 years and has estimated future enrollment figures.

In other business at the Thursday night meeting, board members voted to transfer $2000 from the general fund into the athletic fund. The athletic funds' only income, it was explained, is from gate receipts at sporting events.

Board members considered a request to purchase 20 new uniforms for members of Bovina Mustang Band. Action on the request was tabled pending additional information.

Purchase of a new electric oven for the school cafeteria was discussed. The oven is expected to cost $2000. Board members said they were interesting in knowing installation and operating costs for the oven before they reach a decision.

Chamber Has New Directors

Bovina Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture has four new directors.

They are James Roach, Tom Beauchamp, Mrs. G. D. Anderson, Jr. and Mrs. Bob Wilson. They were elected from a slate of nine candidates by mail ballot of chamber members.

The new directors will begin serving three-year terms on the 15-member board at a meeting scheduled for Thursday, March 3.

New officers of the board are

Candidates Named For Local Elections

Local politics moved into the spotlight this week as a candidate for mayor was petitioned.

The candidate is Mrs. Herman (Edna) Estes.

The petition submitting Mrs. Estes' for a position on the ballot was signed by W. W. Williams, A. E. Crump, John Wilson, O. W. Rhinehart and J. P. Macon.

Mrs. Estes is the first candidate to be petitioned on the city's ballot.

In addition to a mayor, three members of the city council will be elected. Boyd Gilreath's term as mayor will expire at the end of March as will the terms of Councilmen Tom Bonds, Lloyd Gober and Charles Corn.

Deadline for candidates to file or to be petitioned is Saturday, March 5, 30 days prior to the election.

Holdover members of the council, who have another year remaining on their terms, are Edward Isaac and C. E. Trimble.

Petitions for candidates must be signed by a minimum of five qualified voters and are to be submitted to Mrs. Mary Ruth Martin, city secretary, at the city hall.

The school trustee election is slated for Saturday, April 2. Two positions on the seven-member board will be filled.

MOD Drive Nets $322

March of Dimes campaign for Bovina was wrapped up over the weekend when coin collectors were picked up from Bovina businesses, reports Sonny Spurlin, Bovina chairman.

The fund-raising effort was started here in the middle of January. Total collections stand at $322.57. Spurlin states that no particular goal was set for Bovina, except that the $260 collected in 1965 be topped.

The coin collectors brought $12.34 to the campaign.

Last Wednesday and Thursday nights Jaycees' wives sponsored the Mother's March. This netted the fund $162.57. Mothers who marched were Mrs. Spurlin, Mrs. Don Bandy, Mrs. Bob Fillpot, Mrs. Bob McMeans, Mrs. Billy Smith and Mrs. Mike Barraza.

The '66 campaign was also boosted by the benefit basketball game which netted $104.43.

Grade school children added $43.23 to the campaign from card collectors.

'It's Important To Be Nice'

"If you treat your folks nice, you'll never regret it," Donny Anderson, Texas Tech's two-time All-American halfback who was guest speaker at annual football banquet Friday night, told his audience.

Special guests at the banquet were members of the district champion BHS football team and their dates.

The banquet was sponsored by Bovina Mustang Quarterback Club in honor of the team and its coaches.

"It's nice to be important, but it's also important to be nice," Anderson, a native of Stinnett, said. He received the Southwest Conference Sportsmanship Award for the 1965 season last week.

Members of the football squad and the assistant coaches were introduced by Head Coach Roy Stone, Coach Stone thanked Quarterback Club members for sponsoring the banquet, "Backing of the fans is necessary to be successful," he pointed out. Stone also introduced Superintendent and Mrs. Otis Spears and High School Principal Jake Jacobs.

Entertainment at the banquet was by Betty and Debra Hawkins who did a Western musical act. Accompanying them were Mrs. Mac Glasscock on the piano and Bruce Caldwell on the drums.

Jack McCracken was master of ceremonies for the event. He expressed appreciation to the paying guests for being present to pay honor "to the district champion Mustangs and to the best Class B football coaches in the Panhandle."

McCracken went on to point out that last season marked the end of an era for BHS teams. This is the final season in which they will compete in Class B. Next year, they will be advanced into Class A competition.

At the close of the event,

From
The Blade

TEN YEARS AGO... February 22, 1956
 With one side of Dimmitt High School gym's concrete bleachers crammed full of excited basketball fans and Cotton Center's side almost as full, Bovina's Mustangs eked out a 50-48 win over the Cotton Center Elks last night in a bi-district game. The win earned Bovina the right to play in the regional tournament in Canyon. The Mustangs will first play Briscoe, winner of Districts 11 and 12.

The Bovina FFA Chapter will have its first annual Project Show Saturday, March 10, at the FFA-owned lots on east side of Bovina. Roy M. Crawford, chapter advisor, has announced. Chapter members have approximately 65 animals as projects and Crawford says that he expects a large percentage of these to be in the show. The reason for the show is to encourage the boys in their work and to get the community more interested in the work the boys are doing, Crawford says.

BOVINA BLADE EXTRA TEN YEARS AGO... February 24, 1956
 Coach Bob Wills leads his Bi-District Champion Bovina Mustangs, owners of a 27-1 record, into Region B Tournament action tonight at 7:00 against Briscoe, which has a 30-1 record, in West Texas State Fieldhouse in Canyon.

"If we can get by Briscoe, I think we'll have a chance of winning the tournament," the young, blond-haired coach of the Mustangs, Bob Wills, says.

Bovina High School has had a wealth of basketball material during the last three years. And it has an 83 won, seven lost record to prove the point. The District 3-B Mustangs started their impressive record building in 1953-54 under Coach C. T. Ratliff.

Mustang fans, as loyal and supporting as fans can be, feel optimistic about their beloved Mustangs chances of winning the regional B tournament that begins tomorrow in Canyon.

The Bovina High School girls basketball team, known as the Fillies, have played 22 games since November 21 and are now tied for second place in District 3-B.

SIX YEARS AGO... February 24, 1960
 This week, February 22-27, is National FFA week. It finds Bovina Future Farmers preparing for their annual project show which is scheduled Saturday, March 5. A total of 54 entries will be judged during the show.

Construction began Monday morning on the new building for First Baptist Church. The old building was moved last week and services were conducted in it Sunday. It is now located on the east side of Third Street.

After dropping a heart-breaker 42-43 at Lazbuddie Tuesday night, Bovina's Mustangs saw their last chance for championship glory slip away Thursday as the Longhorns won 46-37.

Campaign speeches and promises are spreading through the halls and classrooms of Bovina High School this week as candidates jockey for positions as student council officers.

Local Elections--
 Grady Sorley and Don Murphy, whose terms will expire, were petitioned for re-election last week.
 Wednesday, March 2, is the deadline for candidates to file or be petitioned for places on the school board ballot. This date is 30 days prior to the elections. Petitions may be presented to Mrs. Pearl Dodson at the school tax office.
 School board members with one more year remaining on their terms are Durward Bell and J. E. Sherrill. Those with two years left to serve are Billy Marshall, Leon Grissom and Leslie McCain.

SENATOR
Ralph Yarborough's
 This week I would like to report to you for the first time on an important bill which I introduced last year, and which is creating a lot of discussion throughout the Nation. This is my bill to compensate the innocent victims of crime. It is the first bill of this nature ever to be introduced in the Congress of the United States by anyone.

Much attention has been paid in the last few years to the treatment of a criminal and the preservation of his rights, but very little has been said about the victims of crime - the innocent person who is brutally beaten, attacked, knifed or shot through no fault of his own.

In earlier times, a man had the responsibility of his defense and every man carried a weapon to guard against crimes to himself and family. However, as man progressed he gave up the duty of defending himself and entrusted it to society through the government and the proper police authorities. Because man has put his entire safety in the hands of society through his government, it only stands to reason that when society fails to give him the proper protection and he is personally injured that society bear the burden.

When the police fail to protect a woman on the streets who has to go to the hospital for weeks, this bill would pay for her hospital care because it was a failure of adequate police forces to give her the protection she required.

Naturally there must be many safeguards written into this law - it only concerns injuries to the person, not for the loss of property when someone is robbed; the victim has to be completely innocent, not a participant in a brawl; and the compensation will be minimal so the person cannot end up better off than before they were injured.

Although this is a new concept in American law, New Zealand has had such a law since 1963 and Great Britain since 1964. Naturally, there must be debate, discussion and clarification of this idea before we enact it into law, but many people have already begun to take a close look at this bill.

California has enacted a somewhat similar but more limited law and New York is making a special study of such a proposal. In an editorial, the Boston Herald has said, "The principle seems sound and the Yarborough bill sounds sensible."

An article in the Washington Post states that "Support of the idea has come from both those who criticize and those who defend current legal trends toward broadened rights of the accused in criminal cases."

Chet Huntley, with NBC News has stated in his broadcast that "The concept of compensating the victims of crime is not new. It is almost as old as law itself."

Now that the Cold War GI Bill upon which I have worked for seven years has been enacted, I will be devoting more of my time to developing the concepts of this bill and encouraging support for the compensation of innocent victims of crime.

At a time when the individual places his safety in the hands of society to protect, it is essential that society should help him and his family when that protection breaks down.

School Purchases--

Contracts of the schools three coaches were renewed for another year. A motion was passed to hire another teacher next year who will be assigned to help with coaching duties.

Renewed were the contracts of Roy Stone, athletic director and head football coach, Darrel Read, head basketball coach and assistant football coach, and Roger Ezell, junior high coach.

The board officially called the annual school board election for Saturday, April 2.

Terms of two of the seven board members expire. These are Grady Sorley, president of the board, and Don Murphy. Both were petitioned for re-election at the Thursday night meeting.

Sorley is completing his second three-year term. Murphy has served one three-year term.

New Directors--

stated to be elected at that time.

Directors whose terms expire at the end of this month are Don Stone, present president, Gene Ezell, Dolph Moten and J. E. Sherrill.

Members of the board who have two years remaining on their terms are Leon Grissom, Mutt Graham, Mrs. Bob Estes, Jim Ware, Wayne Spears, C. E. Trimble and Otis Spears.

Those with one year remaining to serve on the board are A. M. Wilson, Ed Isaac, Tom Caldwell and Don Sides.

 Deadline for voting for new members was Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Donny Anderson--

Anderson, who signed the largest contract in history for a professional football player, signed autographs for his admirers. He will become a member of the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League this summer. His contract is in excess of $600,000. The menu, prepared by members of the cafeteria staff, featured chicken fried steak.

name has been changed to "Colie" even though it started out to be as it was first mentioned here. He had a litter mate, according to Mrs. Hemke, named "Pepsi" so it was natural for this dog to be tagged with the second part of that soft drink trademark.

"Colie" does several things which are uncommon for a pet.

Probably the most unusual is his craving for, and ability to eat, ashes from cigarettes. There's no need to worry about a lack of ashtrays when "Colie" is around. He's a ready-made ashtray. And better yet, he'll do a little trick just for the opportunity to get to eat some cigarette ashes. At the command, "Spin your wheels," the dog will turn round and round and wait the dropping of the ashes, which he quickly gobbles up as if they were good.

This dog, too, can understand human talk. When he's teased about "a big dog going across his yard," for instance, he sets up a howl of protest that makes you think his heart will break. The more he's talked to about that "big dog," the louder he'll howl. He's jealous beyond words and doesn't even like to be talked to about competition. It's more than he can, or will, put up with.

It's almost a thing of the past for people to take the time to teach a dog tricks. But still, intelligent, trained dogs are universally admired.

This department is still of the opinion that the outlawing of the state's poll tax, be it right or wrong, was about as ill-timed as a snowstorm in July. Looks from here as if the ruling could have been made last September, for instance, as easily as it was in February, just after the January 31 deadline for paying the $1.75 for the right to vote for 12 more months.

While the state legislature is currently in special session to decide how voters should register when there is no poll tax, chances are the new plan will be about the same as the old--except there will be no fee charged. It will be necessary to register to vote between October 1 and January 31 each year. Those are the dates between which the poll tax had to be paid previously.

Baptist Mission Enters Program

The Spanish Mission of First Baptist Church of Bovina has entered the 1966 Texas Baptist Church Development Program, the pastor, Ramon Delgado announced this week.

Sponsored by the Baptist General Convention of Texas and the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, the plan is to stimulate interest in church work. Participating churches in a recent year recorded twice as many baptisms per member as the Southern Baptist Convention average.

Horn Faces Imprisonment For Life

Bobby Lynn Horn, 26, who was being tried on a charge of being a habitual criminal was given a life sentence in district court proceedings in Farwell last week.

Counsel for Horn asked for the customary 10 days before sentencing. If no appeal is made the sentence will become final at that time and Horn will be taken to the state penitentiary to begin serving his sentence.

In other district court proceedings Arnulfo San Miguel Jr. had his probated sentence revoked for failure to make restitution. He will begin serving a four-year term on the forgery by altering charge in the near future.

Cecil Garcia Jr. and Eugene Garcia Jr. were each given three-year probated sentences on assault with intent to murder charges, which grew out of a fracas in Bovina recently.

Of Interest To THE WOMEN

WEST TEXAS GUESTS -- Connie Vaughn and Scotty Rundell will represent Bovina High at the 19th Annual Plains Personality Pageant Friday and Saturday at West Texas State University in Canyon.

Represent Bovina --

Vaughn, Rundell To WT For Pageant

Connie Vaughn and Scotty Rundell, both seniors, will represent Bovina High at the 19th Annual Plains Personality Pageant Friday and Saturday at West Texas State University. In her senior year Connie was named Miss Bovina High, most ideal, friendliest, and best dressed girl. She was also a candidate for basketball queen. She led the Bovina Mustang Marching Band as drum major. She was a member of the Junior Class play last year, and the high school musical this year.

Rundell has participated in four years of football, basketball and track. He was named Mr. Bovina High, and Basketball King his senior year. In his junior year, Rundell was elected most handsome. He was nominated for football hero his junior and senior years and basketball king his junior year. He was a member of the Junior Class play last year and a member of this year's high school musical.

The West Texas Student Union Board has invited the outstanding girl and boy most representative of each area high school to be presented with the West Texas personalities at the Pageant. The planned activities are designed to introduce the guests to the academic program offered at WT, as well as campus activities. They will be accommodated in the dormitories on campus and will be subject to dormitory regulations. A student will be assigned to each guest to serve as a guide. Among the planned activities are registrations, dinners, follies in the French quarters, Coke party, banquet, Personality Pageant and presentation of West Texas personalities. High school guests for the weekend will not be competing for honors. They are the guests of the University at its Pageant.

Shower Fetes Mrs. Redwine

Mrs. Carrol Redwine was honored with a post nuptial bridal shower Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Leon Smith Sr. of Lazbuddie. Mrs. Redwine is the former Jeanette Butts of Quanah. The table was laid with a pink lace cloth over white, centered with a floral arrangement and crystal and silver appointments. Refreshments of strawberry cake, pink punch and coffee were served by Mrs. John R. Harris and Mrs. J. V. Bouldin of Friona. Guests were registered by Mrs. Ralph Cox. The guestbook was laid on a table covered with white linen cloth edged in lace. Mrs. Redwine was assisted in opening gifts by her mother and mother-in-law, Mrs. M. T. Butts and Mrs. J. C. Redwine.

Hospital Notes

Mrs. S. A. Barbee Jr. was released from Clovis Memorial Hospital Saturday after undergoing surgery. Mrs. Barbee is resting at home now. She had been hospitalized for 10 days. The new Mr. and Mrs. Redwine make their home in Canyon where he attends West Texas State University. Hosting the shower were Mrs. Dee Brown, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Bert Gordon, Mrs. Dee Chitwood, Mrs. Earl Peterson, Mrs. Clarence Mason, Mrs. Wesley Barnes, Mrs. Tom Beauchamp, Mrs. John Littlefield, Mrs. Rouel Barron and Mrs. Smith.

Guadalupanas In Panhandle Thursday

Members of the Guadalupe Society of St. Ann's Church visited the children's home in Panhandle Thursday. Those making the trip were Mrs. Anthony Brito, Mrs. Gil DeLeon and Mrs. Pete DeLeon, and Rev. Claver Giblin, pastor of St. Ann's Church. A gift of $50 was presented to the children's home supervisor, Sister Valentina. On the return trip the group stopped at St. Francis Convent in Amarillo where they visited Novice Maria Teresa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rejino and Aspirant Aresenia Cano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Cano.

Mrs. Hawkins Speaker At Study Club

Bovina Woman's Study Club will meet tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at the clubhouse. Mrs. Gene Hawkins of Lockney will present the program. She will speak on her trip to the Orient and show slides. Rev. and Mrs. Hawkins went to Japan in September of 1965. They have lived in Lockney for the past four years where he is pastor of First Baptist Church. They are both former residents of Bovina.

Mrs. Betty Adams, Mrs. Lillian Wheeler, Mrs. Pearl Waldom, Mrs. J. R. Caldwell, Mrs. Pearl Hastings, Mrs. Ellen Remsnider, Mrs. Oma Gunn, Mrs. Margaret Caldwell, Miss Rita Caldwell and Mrs. Lady Armstrong.

As a general rule, I don't think much of these women columnists who go on and on each and every week about their children, but thought I could take exception to my self-imposed rule this once with the excuse of extenuating circumstances. After all, not every one can be the mother of a three-year-old son with a broken leg. One gradually gets used to her youngster being able to dress himself, do little things like set the table, and most of all, entertain himself. Then, all of a sudden, BANG! He's not sick enough to want to stay in bed all day, and a three-year-old can hardly do what he considers fun on crutches. Was talking to a friend the other day who was wanting to know what I would write about in this space this week. When I told her that I was considering breaking my rule to write about my son, she said that she thought it was a good idea, and she hoped that she could profit by my experience. My reply was, "I couldn't give advice on the subject, I'm afraid." Though, as most mothers could imagine, it certainly is good for you if you want a good lesson in patience-trying. You have to be patient because the child really can't help it. And, you keep telling yourself, while you're doing all these things which he usually does for himself, it could be worse. That's all the advice for this week. Had the opportunity of going to the tea and art show which the Study Club had here Thursday. Really enjoyed it. It is almost amazing how much talent can be packed into a community like Bovina. All the paintings were excellent. When one takes the time to study a painting, it is surprising how much one can learn about the subject, and the artist, too.

Community Conversation

Mrs. G. E. Free, mother of Mrs. Rouel Barron is visiting in Bovina this week. Mrs. Free now lives in Childress.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Marshall are attending the Abilene Christian College Lectureship this week in Abilene. They will also visit with their daughter, Joyce, who is a student at ACC.

Hromases Host Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hromas hosted a bridge party recently in the community room of First State Bank. The hostess served refreshments of chips and dips, pinwheel sandwiches, petitfours, individual ice cream cups, apple punch, Cokes and coffee. Couple's high prize went to Mr. and Mrs. Don Sides. Mr. and Mrs. Scott Gober won couple's low. Mrs. Sides won women's traveling prize and Kent Glasscock won men's. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bob McMeans, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fillpot, Mr. and Mrs. Glasscock, Mr. and Mrs. Gober, Mr. and Mrs. Sides and Mr. and Mrs. Hromas.

Workshop Meeting Tomorrow

All persons interested in the "Workshop To Maintain Normal Weight" are invited to meet in the home of Mrs. Earl Drake, at 1210 Virginia, in Friona, Friday at 10 a.m. The workshop will be conducted by County Extension Home Economist Cricket B. Taylor. Plans and dates for the workshop will be discussed at the Friday meeting.

Shower Set Monday For Mrs. Edens

Mrs. Robert Edens Jr. will be honored with a get acquainted, post nuptial shower Monday afternoon from 3 to 5 in community room of First State Bank. She is the former Beverly Fitzpatrick of Cutbank, Montana. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edens of Bovina, and is engaged in farming in this community. The couple was married August 28, 1965. Hosting the event are Mrs. Sonny Spurlin, Mrs. Travis Dyer, Mrs. F. O. Turner, Mrs. Ronald Minyen, Mrs. Wallace Rogers, Mrs. Tom Hartwell, Mrs. Lester Rhinehart, Mrs. Oakley Stevenson, Miss Opal Perry, Mrs. C. C. Richards and Mrs. Cecil Sisk.

OL Variety In Christian Home

Oklahoma Lane Variety Club met in the home of Mrs. C. C. Christian in Farwell recently. Home Demonstration Agent Cricket B. Taylor presented the program, "Growing as We Grow Older." The hostess served refreshments of salad, pie, coffee and tea. Four guests were in attendance, Mrs. Grace Jones, Mrs. Clarence Henderson, Mrs. Rose Nix of California and Mrs. Johnny McDonald. Members present were Mrs. Thad Watkins, Mrs. Sam Sides, Mrs. Lloyd Battey, Mrs. L. M. Grissom, Miss Lola Grissom, Mrs. George Lindop, Mrs. J. R. Caldwell, Mrs. G. A. Bandy and Mrs. Bill Foster.

Bovina Sends 38 --

Grissom Earns Superior Rating

Sophomore Mike Grissom, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Grissom, brought home a first division rating in Class I tenor saxophone solo contest in Lubbock Saturday. The first division rating is considered superior, a second is excellent, a third is average, and a fourth below average. Grissom's first division is particularly impressive in Class I competition. Class I music is difficult, Class II is moderate, and Class III is routine. The rating makes Mike eligible for state contests later this year. He was accompanied Saturday by Zella Donaldson at the piano.

Class AAAA through Class B schools from all over the Panhandle participate in the annual contests. A total of 38 Bovina High and Junior High students competed in Saturday's contests. Sharon Hemke played a clarinet solo in Class III for a first division rating. This is the only other first brought home by Bovina students this year. Bill Caldwell, James Denney, Larry Mitchell and Mike Grissom played in a saxophone quartet, Class I, for a second division.

Mary Dane played a Class I clarinet solo for a second division rating. David Dixon also played in Class I for a second division rating on coronet. David is in the seventh grade. Scotty Rundell played a Class I coronet solo for a third division rating. He was accompanied by Sheryl Moore at the piano. Sheryl Lane, Barbara Allen, Pamela Grissom and Meloney Marshall were members of a flute quartet which earned a third division rating in Class I. Vicki Hawkins played a clarinet solo in Class II for a second division rating. Mary Dane, Cecilia Denney,

Margaret Jo Venable and Linda Hemke earned a third division rating in Class II as a clarinet quartet. Members of a brass quartet which played in Class III for a third division were Calvin McCutchan, Steven Lane, Ken Jamerson and Shelly Vaughn. Vicki Hawkins, Debra Kirkpatrick, Kathy Estes, and Vicki Vaughn played in a clarinet mixed quartet in class III competition for a third division rating. Junior High flute quartet, Debra Hawkins, Brenda Newbrough, Meloney Marshall and Cathy Mast, played in Class II for a third division rating. Nancy Mitchell, Krita Morris and Denise Clements played in a clarinet trio in Class III for a fourth division rating.

FIRST DIVISIONER -- Mike Grissom brought home highest possible honors in instrumental contests held in Lubbock Saturday. He played his tenor saxophone for a first division rating in Class I.

Collard To Speak At BYH Meet

All men and women of the community are invited to Bovina Young Homemakers meeting Monday night to hear Richard Collard, Friona attorney, says Mrs. Gary Cox, president of the organization.

Good Neighbors In Looney Home

Mrs. Howard Looney hosted Good Neighbor Club Thursday in her home. One new club member was present, Mrs. Robert Beavers, and one visitor, Mrs. Ella Chambers of Portales, N.M. The hostess served refreshments of cinnamon rolls and coffee. Those attending were Mrs. T. J. Hopingardner, Mrs. W. W. Wilcox, Mrs. Grady Hall, Mrs. Mable Newberry, Mrs. Beavers, Mrs. Chambers and Mrs. Looney.

Okla. Lane Baptists Set Meet

Oklahoma Lane Baptist Church is having a weekend revival Friday through Sunday. Services are at 10 a.m. and 8 p.m., Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Rev. Ralph Aday, pastor of First Baptist Church of Bovina, is the guest evangelist, announces Rev. Wayne Baldwin, pastor. Everyone is invited to attend all the services.

Miss Looney Named To Honor Roll

CANYON -- Lynn Looney of Bovina was one of 128 undergraduates named to the honor roll for the fall semester at West Texas State University, Dr. Walter H. Juniper, dean of the university, has announced. Students who have compiled academic records of at least 2.5 of a possible 3.0 for the fall semester are placed on the honor roll. To be eligible for the list, students must have enrolled for at least 15 semester hours of work. Miss Looney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Looney, is a freshman majoring in mathematics. She is a 1965 graduate of Bovina High.

"You're preaching in the wrong church, young man. Well-bred upper class people just don't sin!"

MIRACLE OF THE FIRST CENTURY CHURCH

"... And the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls." -- Acts 2:41b

We are living in a marvelous day for organized churches in our country. Never before have we had such beautiful sanctuaries in which to worship; never have we had such well equipped educational facilities to educate the membership of our churches, never have churches been so "well off" financially; never have we had such a well educated group of ministers leading our churches. However, in spite of all of this, never have we had churches which have accomplished as little as we are in this modern day.

Consider now the early church. They had no church buildings at all. They had no educational facilities and no equipment with which to improve their teaching. They had little or no money. Their preachers had no education for the most part. And yet it was said of these early Christians, "These are they which have turned the world upside down..."

This was true of them because they were faithful to the teachings of Jesus Christ and were unafraid to tell all whom they met about their experiences as Christians. If today's churches are to once again have a meaningful influence in this world, we must "... be witnesses unto Him..."

Bright Saucy Flavor

Colorful Spanish sauce, with its savory blend of onion and green pepper, is almost a tradition, served with an omelet. Try it also for scrambled eggs, veal chops and fish fillets.

- SPANISH SAUCE
- 1 tbsp. butter or margarine
 - 2 tbsp. minced onion
 - 2 tbsp. minced green pepper
 - 3 (8 oz.) cans tomato sauce
 - 1 tbsp. Lea & Perrins Worcestershire
 - 1-2 tbsp. sugar
 - 1/2 tsp. cayenne pepper

Cook onion and green pepper in butter over low heat several minutes. Do not brown. Add tomato sauce and seasonings. Simmer 20 minutes, or until sauce is thick. Serve with omelet or scrambled eggs, veal chops and fish fillets.

teen talk AT YOUR BEST
By Carol Bennett, Teen Consultant, Breck Hair Care Center

The Roller Derby

Life is full of little problems. Problem One--The Roller Derby. How often have you lain in bed, nose in pillow, risking rapid suffocation because those gigantic rollers made any other position like a medieval torture. There you are--nightly-wearing this tin arsenal all because you want to look beautiful the next morning and be able to bounce out of your house with curls, waves and ringlets (ringlets?!). Problem Two. The Frizz Lizzie. Now you finally emerge into the Great Outdoors with the "do" and walk headlong into gales of winds and rain. Result--very un-settling to your coiffure. Sheep's hair curls in the damp weather, but you're no sheep--you uncurl and get that Frizz Lizzie Look.

These two problems (moan) can be easily solved (yay! yeah!) The secret's in the set and in the use of a setting lotion that extends the length of a hairset and results happily for you in less need for resetting. Breckset Style Setting Lotion in two formulas--regular and extra hold--was developed by the John H. Breck Inc. to "stretch" the life of a hairset and to aid in styling. The setting lotion forms a clear resilient film around hair strands which "hold" the curl much longer than water alone.

Thus Problem One is solved because you have to set less often and Problem Two is whosed away because the curl is stronger and withstands the slings and arrows of inclement weather.

Your curls will "spring" into action--if you do. Next time you wash the Crownning Glory put some Breckset on it before you fiddle with the endpapers, rollers and clips. Watch Frizz Lizzie disappear. And delight in the fact that you can exchange your nightly Roller Derby for a softer, more comfortable nightcap.

AUSTIN--They're back at it again!

Texas legislators were called back to Austin for a special session Monday by Gov. John Connally.

A three-judge federal court's order knocking out the poll tax as a requirement for voting prompted Governor Connally, on advice of Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, to call the extraordinary meeting of lawmakers. Purpose is to pass a voter registration law in case Carr's appeal of the lower court's decision to the U. S. Supreme Court is lost.

Texas has no other form of voter registration than machinery for collecting the poll tax, noted the governor. If the Supreme Court agrees that the $1.75 levy is an unconstitutional infringement on due process, Carr and Connally feared local election officials would find it "virtually impossible to determine who is a qualified voter."

Connally made it clear that if the Supreme Court accepts Texas' appeal and delays final disposition through 1966 elections, only those who paid the poll tax by January 31 will be permitted to vote. Come what may, the governor thinks those who paid the levy should be considered automatically registered this year.

Federal judges here, while convinced the poll tax is an improper "charge on a very precious constitutional right," disagreed with U.S. Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach that it has been employed in modern times to deny Negroes the right to vote. All evidence, they concluded, is to the contrary.

As limited as the special session's subject matter is, state lawmakers already are finding room to disagree. Some think voters should be required to register every year to guarantee purity of the ballot box. Others feel the new law should allow re-registration by voting in elections.

A proposed state constitutional amendment to abolish the poll tax which will be voted on next November calls for annual registration.

"CAMPAINS" BEGIN -- They're off and running in the May 7 primary elections!

Filing deadline last week found seven contested Democratic races and eight Republican candidates filed. All eight GOP candidates were unopposed.

Democratic primary spotlight is on the attorney general's race between Crawford C. Martin (who resigned as secretary of state) and Sens. Franklin Spears of San Antonio and Galloway Calhoun of Tyler. P. S. Ervin of Dallas joined the Democratic contest for railroad commissioner which included incumbent Byron Tunnell and Rep. Paul Haring of Goliad.

Fred Williams, Del Rio, was a late entry against Democratic Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler.

District Judge John F. Onion of San Antonio is opposing Court of Criminal Appeals Judge W. T. McDonald of Bryan.

Rep. Bill Hollowell of Grand Saline, last man to post his $1,000 filing fee, is taking on Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, Lubbock.

Hollowell's teammate, Stanley C. Woods of Houston, and Mrs. Johnnie Mae Hackworth of Brenham, are opposing Governor Connally.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White of Wichita Falls, Comptroller Robert S. Calvert of Austin, Treasurer Jesse James of Austin and three incumbent State Supreme Court judges have no Democrat opposition.

Emphasis this year obviously will be on the November general election clash between GOP U. S. Sen. John Tower, seeking re-election, and the Democratic nominee. Candidates on the Democratic primary ballot are Waggoner Carr and John R. Willoughby of Houston.

Other Republican candidates are T. E. Kennerly, Houston, for governor; Kellis Dibrell, Seguin, for lieutenant governor; Robb Stewart of Dallas for attorney general; Rudy T. Garza, Corpus Christi, comptroller; L. D. Gilmer, Houston, treasurer; Albert B. Fay, Houston, land commissioner; and Jack Garrett, Danbury, agriculture commissioner.

APPOINTMENTS -- Governor Connally named T. D. Armstrong of Galveston, Wells Stewart and Ralph S. O'Connor, Houston, to the board of directors of Texas Southern University.

Governor picked as new Texas Animal Health Commissioners R. W. Hodge of Del Rio and Dent Ingram of Carrizo Springs.

He appointed Mrs. Margarette Bortel of San Antonio to State Board of Cosmetology.

EDUCATION STUDIES BEGIN -- Two important studies of the public school system have been launched. A spokesman for one predicts teachers will ask another $500 a year raise at next year's legislative session.

Governor's Committee on Public School Education, directed to make a far reaching report on school needs, held its first meeting here and selected Glenn H. Ivy, Texas Research League staff member, as its director.

House Interim Committee on Education decided to collect comparative data on what teachers are paid over the nation. Rep. Charles Wilson of Lufkin said he believes teachers will ask another pay raise in 1967. They got one in 1965.

POVERTY PROJECTS APPROVED -- Fifteen more Community Action grants and two VISTA grants under the Economic Opportunity Act have received Governor Connally's approval.

Grants went to agencies in Harris, Hidalgo, Atascosa, Karnes, Wilson, Brooks, Jim Hogg, Zapata, Dallas, El Paso, Kleberg, Maverick, McEnna, Shelby, Starr, Comal, Blanco, Nueces and Webb Counties. They ranged from $5,752 for Economic Opportunity Development Corporation of Laredo project to $53,181 for Harris County Economic Opportunity Organization.

MANUFACTURING AT RECORD LEVEL -- All-time highs in employment, payrolls and value of output were set by Texas manufacturing industries in 1965, and outlook is even brighter for 1966.

So concludes a study of Texas industrial expansion by the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Total Texas manufacturing employment this year is expected to rise by 13 per cent, with biggest increase in electrical machinery production. Estimated value added by manufacture for 1966 is anticipated to be slightly above $8,500,000, a 21 per cent rise over 1963.

A serious problem facing Texas manufacturers, BBR noted, is a shortage of skilled labor (particularly machinists) and engineers for aerospace companies supporting the Manned Spacecraft Center in Houston.

Shortages of engineers, machinists, technicians and managerial talent emphasizes again the "need to provide a superior educational system at the

On The Farm In Parmer County

By JOE VANZANDT
County Agent

One of the best Parmer County Junior Livestock Shows was completed last weekend in Friona. Everyone agreed that the quality of the animals exhibited by the youth of Parmer County was excellent. The show was sponsored by the Friona Lions Club and the show officials had a smooth running show.

In the barrow show we were real proud of the 4-H members. Rickie Seaton, Lazbuddie 4-H'er, exhibited the Grand Champion barrow after his pig had previously been named as the Champion Crossbreed. Showing the Reserve Grand Champion barrow was Wayne Schueier, Friona 4-H member. Wayne's pig had previously won the title of Champion Duroc.

Theresa Seaton, Lazbuddie 4-H member, had the Champion Hampshire barrow and Larry Johnston, of the Friona 4-H Club, had the Reserve Champion Hampshire.

In the light Berkshire class, Kay Riethmayer, Friona 4-H, won 1st and Danny Clark, Lazbuddie 4-H, won 3rd. In the light Chester White class, Al Kerby, Jr., Bovina 4-H, won 4th and in the heavy Chester White class, Loy Dale Clark, Lazbuddie 4-H, won 3rd, Zane McVey, Friona 4-H, placed 4th and Brad Treider, Lazbuddie 4-H, placed 5th.

In the lightweight Duroc class, Glenn Hise, Bovina 4-H, placed 9th and Earl Peterson, Lazbuddie 4-H, placed 10th. In the heavy Durocs, Wayne Schueier, placed 1st, Rickie Seaton, placed 6th, and Zane McVey placed 11th.

The light Hampshire class was won by Larry Johnston, Vickie Pryor, Friona 4-H, placed 3rd and Darwin Green, Farwell 4-H, placed 4th, Theresa Seaton won 1st in the heavy Hampshire class, Rickie Seaton won 2nd, Sam Morton, Farwell 4-H, won 3rd and Raymond Hise, Bovina 4-H, won 4th.

In the heavy Poland China class, Sam Morton, Farwell 4-H won 2nd and Randy Gregory, Oklahoma Lane 4-H, won 4th, Billy Eubanks, Lazbuddie 4-H, won 2nd in light Crossbred class, Theresa Seaton won 4th, Matt Garth, Friona 4-H, won 5th. In the heavy Cross bred class Rickie Seaton won 1st, Jill Riethmayer, Friona 4-H, won 2nd, Danny Clark won 6th, Neil Christian, Oklahoma Lane 4-H, won 7th, and Garvin Thorn, Lazbuddie 4-H, won 8th.

In the lamb show, Larry Cox, Lazbuddie 4-H, won 2nd in the Southdown class; Wesley Barnes, Lazbuddie 4-H, won 4th in Medium wool class. Also in the Medium wool class Greg Bell of Bovina 4-H placed 6th and 7th. Wesley Barnes also placed 9th in the Southdown class.

In the Steer Show Gary Phipps, Friona 4-H member, exhibited both the Grand and Reserve Grand Champion steers. This was the first time in the county for one boy to accomplish this feat. Gary had previously won 1st in the medium weight class and 1st in the heavy class. Another Friona 4-H member, Monty Phipps, won 1st place in the light class.

Other 4-H placings in the light class included: Brenda Dyer, Bovina 4-H, 4th, Jill Riethmayer, Friona 4-H, 6th and 7th, Kay Riethmayer, Friona 4-H, placed 9th in the medium class.

In the light heavy class, Floyd Schlenker, Friona 4-H, won 3rd, and David Sides, Friona 4-H, won 7th.

I was real proud of each 4-H member as they had all put in a lot of hard work into getting their animals ready for the show.

I also want to thank all of the buyers at the auction sale as it was one of the best sales ever held. You buyers sure help encourage all of these youngsters to try and do better next time.

ORGANIC MATTER
Just what is organic matter and what part does it play in a productive soil? These are questions that I often hear discussed by farmers.

Organic matter is the storehouse of plant nutrients in the soil. It results from the decomposition of plant and animal materials by soil organisms. On the average it contains about 56 per cent carbon and 5 per cent nitrogen.

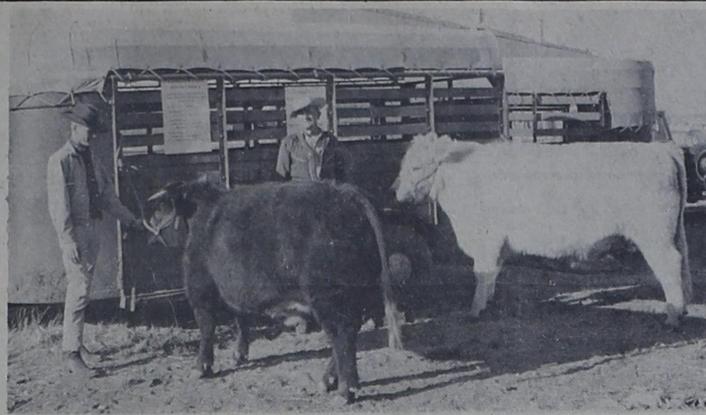

Organic matter improves soil structure and its ability to take in water and hold it in storage for later use by plants. It also improves soil aeration, loosens dense, compact soils and granulates loose, open sandy soils to give them a fairable crumb structure.

During the decomposition process, a continuous supply of carbon dioxide, nitrogen in various forms, phosphorus and other nutrients so essential to plant growth are liberated. Organic matter serves as a storage facility for mineral nutrients such as calcium, magnesium, nitrogen, and many others making them less likely to be lost in drainage or water seepage.

Continuous cultivation without giving attention to regular additions or residues gradually lowers the organic matter in the soil. The level may become so low that maximum production cannot be obtained. A soil test will show the organic level in the soil.

Versatile Cans

On picnics or camping trips a supply of canned meats in the new zip top cans is nice to have. The lids zip completely off in seconds, leaving a smooth rim. And because the cans have an enamel coating inside, they can be used as drinking cups or for storing leftovers. They are found on many Armour canned meats.

RESERVE CHAMP -- Glen Hise, a 4-H Club member, had the reserve champion barrow, a Duroc, at the Bovina junior livestock show here last week.

Q'Backers Set Meeting For Tuesday

Bovina Quarterback Club will have a special meeting Tuesday night of next week at 7:30 in school study hall.

This is a "very important" meeting, and all members are urged to be present, says Alfred Moody, club secretary.

elementary, secondary and college levels," BBR stresses. Many industries, Bureau warns, can move where needed labor is available, and there is less and less work for the uneducated and unskilled.

NEW HIGHWAY MAPS -- New 1966 Texas highway maps are off the presses. Initial printing of 800,000 will be the largest in history.

Maps are prepared for free distribution by Texas Highway Department's travel and information division.

New map shows 521 more miles of divided highways than appeared on 1965 map and over 22,000 miles of farm-to-market roads, an increase of 7,500 miles over 1965. Also shown are all highways, public lakes, safety rest areas, city routes and mileage between points.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES -- State Highway Department can buy interest in land needed for enhancement of scenic beauty adjacent to federal aid highways which are part of the Texas highway system, Attorney General Carr has held.

In other opinions, the attorney general concludes: "Alabama-Coushatta Indian tribal members cannot create a public housing authority as separate corporate entity to which they can make a 40-year lease of state trust land for low-rent housing project."

"Election workers in counties under 500,000 may be paid for overtime over 10 working hours at polls at rate not to exceed $1.25 an hour.

"Conviction in a misdemeanor or case punishable by imprisonment is void where defendant was too poor to employ a lawyer and trial court failed to appoint one for him.

"Game wardens are entitled to $3 arrest fee payable to Parks and Wildlife Department, but fines and trial fees go to county officers' salary funds.

"A prisoner jailed on a misdemeanor charge is credited at rate of $5 a day for time served even though convicted prior to January 1 before new Code of Criminal Procedure took effect.

"An election for abolishment of a consolidated independent school district may not be called within three years after the consolidation election where no charge has been made in the status of the district subsequent to the consolidation election.

"Texas child support orders originating from divorce decrees in state courts should be processed for enforcement though petition is from out-of-state plaintiff.

"Governor's designation of Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation to administer state plans for construction of mental retardation facilities is valid.

WATER RIGHTS -- The March 15 hearing of the Texas Water Rights Commission will begin a review of some 200 water permits and certified filings which reports to the commission indicate have not been used for 10 years.

Commission was given an assignment by the Legislature to cancel unused water rights, so the water in Texas streams can be allocated to cities and others who need and intend to use it.

Law required cancellation of rights which have not been used for 10 years.

Hearing on five such rights on March 15 will launch the review. A second set, involving rights in Lee, Ellis, Wilson, Oldham and Jack Counties, is set for hearing March 30.

SHORT SNORTS -- Governor Connally postponed his scheduled February 21 visit to major South American countries to promote San Antonio's HemisFair because of the special legislative session. . . . State Supreme Court refused request of Associated Press to review libel judgment won by former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker in suit against AP.

April Program On Fabric -- Plans are about to be completed for the program for homemakers on "New Fabrics", to be held in April, so watch for the announcement. Plans are to have it in Bovina, a factory representative will be present, and another guest speaker will also be on the program.

Are You A Designing Woman? Really you may need to be a designing woman to whip up an appealing breakfast for your family. Breakfast is a very important meal and really warrants thought and planning for every family member, and mothers are included too. Do you know teenagers and mothers are the most poorly nourished family member, taking the nation as a whole. Being fat does not mean "well nourished." In fact the overweight person can be and most usually is the most poorly nourished--too many "empty" calories that contribute nothing to their health and well being.

Design A Menu With Breakfast Appeal
You can help your children do better in studies and school games. Back your children up with a good nutritious breakfast every day, and you'll be starting them off right in the morning and encouraging them to develop a habit valuable to them all their lives.

Good breakfasts don't just happen. If family members eat at different times, or if a child must be left to eat alone, keep ready-to-eat foods handy or provide foods that take little preparation. Include plenty of fruit, juices and ready-to-eat cereals in your food supply. Prepare hard-cooked eggs and fix bacon to leave for the latecomers.

Every minute counts for the mothers who work. Prepare frozen or fresh fruit juice the night before. Chill canned juice overnight. Buy pre-cooked sausage or ham. They'll take only minutes to heat through for serving. Serve cold sliced meat or cheese as an alternate for eggs.

Devised a menu that appeals to children, if they aren't interested in breakfast. Try mixing fruits, such as berries and sliced peaches, for a tempting flavor change. Have a variety of fruits on hand, and let the youngsters choose a favorite to go with their cereal.

Breakfast can be brighter for everyone if you can plan and serve food that everyone likes.

Good Posture For Good Health And Work Ability
If you are dreaming about how you are going to look in the new styles this spring--you may need to give some thought to posture. Poor posture spoils our looks, health and effectiveness at work.

A variety of things can cause poor posture. Worry, fear, emotional disturbances and problems at home, school or work affect posture. Fatigue from overwork, or overplay may result in stooped shoulders and general slumping. Beds that are too soft or that sag will prevent proper rest and force the body into unnatural positions.

An infection, poor vision or poor hearing can cause poor posture. Many people with poor vision push their necks forward to enable them to see better. Defective hearing can also result in the head being inclined and to body being off-balanced.

Chairs that do not support the back or that are too high or too low can cause poor posture. A school desk the correct height for a child can improve his posture and quality of work.

Clothing can push or pull the body out of its right position, according to specialists in this field. When feet are weakened or flat, the effect is felt throughout the body. Weak feet or improperly fitted shoes show in the face as well as the body posture.

Correct posture helps body organs do their work with less wasted effort. Energy is conserved. When you stand, walk and sit correctly, your lungs have space to expand. Proper breathing results in better circulation and a more efficient loss of body wastes.

It is suggested that you practice lifting, sitting, running, walking, climbing and standing until you feel that you are performing correctly the movements of the body. You will feel better, look better and do better work.

Set Special Services At Lariat

Beginning today (Wednesday), special midweek services will be at St. John Lutheran Church, Lariat, each Wednesday night at 8 until Easter, reports Rev. Herbert F. Peiman, pastor.

Rev. Peiman states that sections of a gospel harmony of Christ's life from Gethsemane to Golgotha in a modern version will be read at each service. These readings will be interspersed with some of the more than 40 special Lenten hymns from the Lutheran Hymnal.

The public is cordially invited to these Christ-centered and cross-centered services.

Bedroom Study

Bedrooms are getting bigger because Americans use them for reading, TV viewing and as a place to relax away from the family. Recent surveys indicate. The growing popularity of king-size bedding has contributed to the need for larger bedrooms. The National Association of Bedding Manufacturers reports that Americans are replacing under-size mattresses at a record rate.

BENEFIT GAME ACTION -- Jerry Burnett, at right with arm raised, has just taken a shot at the basket in Monday night's benefit basketball game between Bovina's Bulltowners and KCLV DJ's. Waiting for the rebound at right, in white, is Glenn Hromas. Bovina's Jake Jacobs is to Burnett's left. The DJ's won the five-quartered game, 100 to 83.

From Bulltowners --

Clovis Wins Benefit Game

KCLV DJ's from Clovis out-scored the Bulltowners, 100 to 83, in a benefit basketball game Monday night at Williford Gym. Outcome of the game, which lasted five quarters, was incidental, however. The primary purpose for the contest was to benefit Bovina's Community Improvement Fund which it did to the tune of $109.

In addition, another $17.45 was added to the fund from the concession stand through the cooperation of Bovina High Athletic Department.

A taco supper, which preceded the basketball game, added still another total of approximately $85. The supper was sponsored by Bovina chapter of American G. I. Forum. The game had a duration of five quarters because the teams had an agreement that the winner would be the first to score 100 points.

Junior Teams Lose Openers In Tourney

Bovina's junior high basketball teams were eliminated in opening rounds of district tournament last weekend at Hart. Since the tournament was staged to determine first place winners, only one loss was necessary for a team to be eliminated.

The Fillies lost to Farwell, 22-14. Krita Morris was high scorer with eight.

The Ponies were downed by the host team, Hart, 27-16. Manuel Quintan and Jackie Hall led the scoring with seven each.

The tournament completed the season for the junior high teams of Coach Roger Ezell.

List Placings, Buyers At County Stock Show

Bovina entries placed well and sold "exceptionally well" at the Palmer County Junior Livestock Show and Sale last weekend in Friona, according to John Paul Jones, Bovina High FFA advisor, and Joe VanZandt, county agent.

Most of the stock which was shown at the local show here Wednesday was also exhibited at the county show Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Following is a rundown on Bovina stock at the county show, including the owners, placings, prices per pound sold for and the buyers:

By Vern Sanford

Many shooters make the mistake of taking their trusty rifles to gunsmiths and asking them to "sight 'em in." Then they head off without further ado and wonder why they miss easy shots at deer.

This idea of having a gunsmith doing the job for you is okay. But you should test the rifle yourself, to see if you and the gunsmith both see alike.

On the surface that statement might seem ridiculous. But actually, different people do see in a different way. They hold the rifles different, therefore they get different sight patterns.

Very seldom can one man zero in a rifle to hit in the center of the bull's-eye at 100 yards and another duplicate the feat with the same rifle.

For this reason, it pays to "sight in" your own rifle. This isn't as difficult as you would first imagine. In fact, if done correctly, it can be quite simple.

Most common mistake is for someone to set up a piece of cardboard, get back 100 or 200 yards and start blazing away. At this distance, any error in sight adjustment will be magnified, and with a new sight you'll be lucky to hit the cardboard, even if it is of extremely large size. This kind of haphazard sighting only makes the ammunition manufacturers happy.

There is a much easier way. Suppose you've just installed a new scope sight on your rifle. You want to sight it in, so here's how to do it, the quick and easy way.

First, to make sure you're steady and solid, get set up where you have a good rest for shooting. Then, if possible, remove the bolt from your rifle, steady it on a rest and bore sight the rifle at a chunk of cardboard 25 yards away.

When you get the bore lined up, raise your sight and look in the scope. Adjust it until the crosshairs are on the target. This way you'll be reasonably sure of putting your first shot on the paper and you can work from there.

But even if you're shooting something like a lever-action gun where bore sighting isn't possible, at a range of 25 yards you're more than likely to hit the cardboard anyway. Once you've established your first shot you're in business.

Scope sights have adjustments for elevation and windage. The first is to move the bullet placement either up or down, and the other either left or right.

These adjustments are graduated in minutes of angle, or fractions thereof. Some have "click" adjustments while some do not.

A minute of angle has a value of one-half inch at 50 yards, one-fourth inch at 25 yards.

Suppose your rifle is shooting an inch high and an inch to the right. Four clicks on both adjustments should move your aim right to the bull's-eye.

Just remember, if your adjustments moves one minute of angle with each click, you must adjust the dial four clicks to move the bullet placement one inch.

If each click is only one-half minute of angle, then it would require eight clicks to move it an inch. And so forth.

Once you've established your aim at 25 yards, or directly in the black or bull's-eye of the target, you're ready to determine where the bullet will strike at longer ranges.

What you must remember is that a bullet travels in a trajectory. Thus it will bisect a straight line out from the muzzle twice, once as it starts up on its trajectory and again when it comes down. If this first intersection is at 25 yards, the bullet will be in the bull's-eye again somewhere out where it curves down and bisects the line again.

With an ordinary .22 rimfire rifle, for instance, the bullet will cross at 25 yards and again at 60 yards. In firing fast-shooting center-fire rifles, with flatter trajectory, the second point of intersection will be much farther out.

A .243 will bisect the line again about 250 yards out, which means it won't be more than an inch high at 100 yards. So anything between the ranges of 10 yards and 250 yards will be vulnerable to your .243 bullet, since there is no more margin than an inch error anywhere in between.

Agriculture Is More Than Farming

Today, tomorrow and always -- there's a big job ahead for you in Agriculture!

Agriculture is a science, a business, a profession, an industry! Agriculture provides more jobs and careers than any industry.

To hit your mark of success in any line of work, you must sight your target and aim carefully. But agriculture offers you a broad target and rich rewards. If you choose Agriculture, it's hard to miss!

Agriculture to some persons means working on a farm or raising. Actually, Agriculture industry today is much broader than that. It includes industries and businesses providing materials and services to farmers in the production of crops and livestock. It also includes those industries and businesses involved in marketing, processing, and distributing agricultural products.

Agriculture is big, broad and basic! It's the basic industry -- the Big Job! Look at these figures. Of 65 million employed Americans, 25 million work somewhere in agriculture -- 7 million on farms, 8 million produce for and service farmers, and 10 million process and distribute farm products. In addition, a quarter million scientists directly serve agriculture.

About 40 per cent of all jobs are in agriculture -- jobs important to everyone, jobs with future, jobs with financial and personal rewards.

Agriculture supplies our food, most of our fiber, and some of our building materials. As long as we eat, wear clothes and live in houses, there'll be jobs in Agriculture.

You could actually count more than 500 distinct occupations in the eight major fields of Agriculture. Recent surveys indicate that these eight fields each year would and could employ about 15,000 new college graduates.

At present, our land-grant agriculture colleges graduate about 8500 young men and women each year in agricultural science -- 8500 trained persons to fill 15,000 jobs, or about two futures for every graduate.

The field of agriculture sales, including advertising, and promotion provides lucrative occupations for many people, and the demand is growing.

More than $36 billion worth of farm products are marketed each year. It requires a large force of workers just to move this material from the farm to the market place.

In the area of service personnel for suppliers to farmers, the longest field of employment is for people who service and repair farm machinery and equipment. Producers and distributors of fertilizers and farm chemicals, feeds, petroleum products, electricity, and other input items of farming are on the constant lookout for men who are technically and professionally qualified for this kind of employment.

Where else can you find more opportunity, more challenge, more of a possibility for success?

Vocational agriculture can be a great deal of help to you whether you stay in farming or seek employment in some other phase of agrindustry. Managers of business, closely related to farming are looking for high school graduates, such as you will be, who have farm background or the practical knowledge of farming you will have gained through vocational agriculture and work experiences. Vocational agriculture will help you develop skills and know-how possessed by persons anxiously sought by employers in off-farm agricultural business.

A fashion look. But there's one thing your clothes all need, regardless of color, and that's FFF -- Faultless Fashion Finishing.

FFF starts the moment you bring a new dress, blouse or pair of slacks home from the store. That includes keeping buttons on, regular launderings according to the hang-tag instructions, and ironing with Spray-On starch or Fabric Finish to give your clothes just enough body and keep them looking like new throughout their fashion life.

Here's how to test your clothes message: Check your color personality with a look in your closet and drawers. And test your clothes' appearance with a look in the mirror!

DONALD JONES

Donald Jones On Honor Roll At West Texas

Donald Jones, a senior at West Texas State University and the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Jones, has been named to the dean's honor roll with a perfect 3.0 record for the fall semester.

He was one of 15 on the honor roll, which included 128 top students, to compile the perfect "straight A" record. Jones' major is agronomy. He is a 1960 graduate of Bovina High School.

Be not therefore anxious -- (Matt. 6:31).

Anxiety does not add anything to our well-being, it merely leads to frustration. We should follow Jesus' teaching, when He said "Be not anxious for your life, what you shall eat, or what you shall drink; nor what you shall put on. Live each moment in faith."

What's your clothes message? Clothes tell a great deal about you, even when you're not aware of it, according to fashion leaders at Faultless Starch Company. Take the colors you wear.

If you wear red, especially bright red, you're telling people you have a bright outlook on everything.

Pink is a gentle form of red. When you wear pink, you're feminine, charming, and warm.

People who wear blue are calm and cool and extremely clever. They take the time to think things through and make definite decision.

You're ready for anything when you wear yellow! And like red, it stops traffic. People who wear yellow know what they want to do. And they go ahead and do it!

Green, a combination of blue and yellow, is calm like blue and bright like yellow. When you wear green, you're clever, logical and sensible.

So what about your clothes message? Your closet probably contains clothes in all these colors, as well as fashion-right variations like cranberry or turquoise. Some days, you'll wear combinations of colors for
