Week's rains, which measured an inch in Eastland, more than that in Ranger, a lot of Eastland County from burning worse than they were, according to agent J. M. Cooper.

Farmers got almost no rain in need of it.

Some smart boys already are planting peanuts.

Cooper said that the heavy spell had peanuts being burned pretty badly.

All right, though—just all harvest time really is then watch it rain!

Agricultural activities column of this issue of The Record is a series to be put out by Eastland County Agricultural Association, according to D. Fox of Eastland, the publicity committee chairman.

The little guy who packs an amount of energy into a column, and certainly is writing a lot of which carries no by-line, it is announced as a month event.

High School Coach Siebert says he will be in school starts so he is down to a little more resistance.

While this summer he was at Hardin-Simmons University, rushing back to Eastland attending a night school at Eastland High. He slept in a while.

School starts all he will do is teach, coach football and how his pore little come out next Friday.

Mathews tells the story of a dog that bit a 17-inch catfish.

According to Ben. B. W. Wooley, a farm about seven or eight miles southwest of Eastland, he was in a tank on his place and walked off for a bearing the pole stuck in the ground.

He turned around, the pole came out in the middle of the tank.

He had trained his dog to pick up anything thrown into the tank, and he picked up a rock, and out near the floating pole said "Go fetch!"

He jumped in, swam to the pole, and started to pick up the big fish ducked under the way in, but finally pulled the pole in reaching for the anxious Wooley, who pulled in the catfish.

That's Mathews' story.

Dr. White's Name Added To Clinic

Dr. H. Caton announced this week that effective Friday name of Caton & White Clinic will be changed to the Caton & White Clinic.

As of Sept. 1 Dr. E. White will be a partner in the clinic and will be associated with Dr. Caton in the practice of medicine and surgery. Dr. White is the place of Dr. W. Kenneth who left Wednesday to go to Colorado City.

Crossley, Williams Beaten By Hart, Tucker in Runoff

Holder of major Eastland County political offices had a hard time of it in Saturday's Democratic run-off primary, with County Judge P. L. Crossley bowing to John Hart and Sheriff J. B. Williams being upset by J. F. Tucker.

Crossley's defeat had been indicated by the vote in the first primary in which Hart was leader in a three-man race, but the defeat of Williams came as a distinct surprise to many.

Williams had led Tucker and John Barber by a large total in the July voting.

In other county results Saturday, County Commissioner T. E. Castleberry defeated Henry Davenport of Ranger, 1527 to 1156, and Precinct 1 Constable Porter Woods won over C. C. Street, 889 to 701.

Hart's vote total was 3062 to Crossley's 2321, and Tucker's final tally was 2740 to Williams' 2631.

In the lieutenant governor's race the county reversed itself from the first primary and gave Ben Ramsey 3359 votes to 1943 for Pierce Brooks.

Other county results in statewide races were: Wilson 3048, Dickson 2167; Griffin 3465, Harwood 1611; Lattimore 2276, Morrison 2833; White 3285, McDonald 1918.

The vote was about a third lighter than in the first primary with the exception of Precinct 1, the Eastland-Ranger precinct, where the voters turned out nearly in full strength, apparently spurred by the efforts of Castleberry and Davenport and their supporters.

'Flying Saucer' Found On Farm Near Eastland Turns Out To Be Youths' Joke

A "flying saucer" that stirred excitement at the Aught Byrd farm six miles south of Eastland Monday evening turned out to be only a boyish prank when Sheriff J. B. Williams checked up on it.

Byrd's daughter, Patsy, first saw the object. She said it was aflame as it sailed in over the trees and lit in a field about 100 yards from where she was standing on the back porch of the Byrd home.

She and her brother Ford ran out to see what it was, and found a foot-wide disk full of flame.

Byrd was called to the spot, and the sheriff was summoned. In no time, neighbors were crowding to the spot.

Williams found an object there when he arrived, all right, and it was still warm. He brought it to his office in Eastland, and it proved to be an automobile hub cap, to which had been soldered an old spark jumper and condenser coil, a radio tube, a tail light bulb, and various other things, with wires connecting all the objects. The flame apparently had been created with charcoal.

Tuesday, questioning revealed that some neighbor youths had heard Byrd tell of a flying saucer he had seen on a recent fishing trip, and decided as a prank to furnish him with a flying saucer he could feel.

And the "flying saucer" was seen by hundreds of curious in the sheriff's office this week.

Gusher Is Struck At Perdue Test

Oil flowed over the top of the derrick of the Crossman and Savage Perdue No. 1 well in the new Briggs Owen Field northwest of Eastland Wednesday.

The heavy flow of oil shot out of the hole before all the tools had been removed, and after the well casing had been perforated in a 10-foot section at about 3370 feet.

The well is about a half mile northwest of the nearest producer in the field, and extends the pay area by about that distance.

The well was drilled to depth of 3385 feet and 35 feet of the Lake Sand in which it was producing had been cored. No official estimate had been made on what the well will produce, but it was conceded that it was one of the best wells in the field, as far as initial production is concerned.

Bankline Oil Company's No. 5 Briggs Owen was drilled Thursday at about 3000 feet. The No. 6 Briggs Owen made 75 barrels in three hours on Railroad Commission test this week.

Service pipe had been set on the Briggs Owen No. 7, and locations have been made for Nos. 8, 9, 10, and 11.

Gilchrist Drilling Co. is moving in to start drilling on the No. 1 Ayers, located 330 feet from the south and 987 feet from the west line of Sec. 49, Blk. 4, H&T Survey. Intended depth is 3600 feet.

Mrs. Joe Stephen and son Stanley, Mrs. A. V. Womack of Anson and Mrs. Mary Bull of Abilene are in Dallas for the graduation from S.M.U. of Joe Bull, brother of Mrs. Stephen and Mrs. Womack and son of Mrs. Bull.

Mrs. Henry Watkins of Courts Dam, Wyo., is the guest of her brother, James Freeman.

Ranger Junior College Adds Greatly To Fine Arts Department For 1950-51

The Department of Fine Arts of Ranger Junior College will begin work Sept. 5 with a larger faculty, more equipment, and an adequate plan for full scholarships under the Wilda Dragoo Scholarship Foundation, according to Dr. G. C. Boswell, college president.

The faculty includes Fred D. Baumgardner, head of the department and director of the band and choir, Charles Kiker, head of the piano department, Robert E. Gans, who has charge of work in music theory, and George L. Moore, teacher of strings and woodwinds.

Auditions for scholarships under the Dragoo Foundation will be held next Tuesday and Wednesday at the Fine Arts Building on the Ranger college campus. Dr. Boswell announced. Full scholarships were reported available in piano, voice and violin. Other scholarships are available to instrumental pupils who can play in the college band.

Moore, latest addition to the department faculty, is director of music in the Mineral Wells school system, and formerly held similar posts at Lefors and Muleshoe.

Moore obtained his B. S. degree in music from Lebanon Valley College at Anville, Pa., where he played violin in the college quartet and principal violin in the Harrisburg Symphony Orchestra.

His graduate work has been done at Texas Tech, and he played principal violin in the Lubbock Symphony Orchestra, and traveled to Amarillo to help bolster the viola section in that group.

Tourney To Begin At Golf Club Monday

Qualifying play for the intracity golf tournament at Lakeside Country Club is under way, and will be completed Sunday in preparation for the first match play Monday, Labor Day.

Qualifying started Tuesday and must be completed Sunday, said Jimmy Harkrider, manager at the club.

"There will be flights for all and prizes for all flights," said Harkrider. Golf prizes will be given as prizes, he said.

There will be no Calcutta pool or barbecue, the manager said.

First match play must be completed Monday, and all other play must be finished by the following Sunday, Harkrider said.

The tournament is the first for the general membership of the club since the new course was completed, and has caused much interest among the members.

Thomas M. Morgan, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Morgan of Eastland, has completed his AF basic airmen indoctrination course at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, according to an announcement from the base.

Miss Anna Lou Anderson was the week end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Anderson.

Horse Theft Charged To Eastland Youth

Charges of horse theft have been filed in Justice of the Peace E. E. Wood's court against Tommy Craven of Eastland, who is being held in the County Jail pending making of bond.

Craven was charged with the theft of a horse from Earl Blackwell of Ranger on the night of July 23. Officers said he had admitted the theft, and sale of the horse for $15, but said he does not remember to whom he sold it.

The Eastland youth was picked up and questioned by Sheriff J. B. Williams after suspicion was thrown upon him by another man.

Gene Gaeta Says Gains In Clear In National Guard Row

Pvt. Gene Gaeta of Lackland Air Force Base this week wrote The Record doing all he could to clear the name of Milton J. (Pop) Gaines, owner of Eastland Auto Parts and former employer of Gaeta.

Gaines had been accused by Texas Adjutant General K. L. Berry of telling Gaeta to get out of the National Guard or lose his job.

Capt. Bruce Harris of Ranger, Gaeta's immediate superior in the Guard, upheld Berry's position. Gaines said a letter he wrote saying he would discharge Gaeta if he stayed in the Guard was "just a maneuver" to get him out.

Said Gaeta's letter: "Writing you this letter to see if I can help Mr. Gaines out.

"Yes, it (is) true about Mr. Gaines trying to get me out of the National Guard so I could enlist in the Air Force. But he also wanted me to stay on the job. But as for Mr. Gaines trying to get me out of the N.G. just to keep my job, well it is not true.

"So if the people in Eastland think that Mr. Gaines is in the wrong side, they are wrong. "And as far as I know, I don't believe Mr. Gaines got a thing to do with all this.

"I waited for my release (from the National Guard—Ed.) for two months so I just went to the recruiting office and join.

"And I was not a Pfc. in the Guard. I was a Pvt.

"So if Mr. Gaines needs me let me know so that I can stand for him. Cause all he said is true.

"I'm not sore at Capt. Harris or any body. But I think Mr. Gaines don't have a thing to do with all this.

"I supposed to get my discharge papers after I enlisted in the Air Force, as far as I was told at the recruiting office at Eastland. So if you can help Mr. Gaines out let me know.

"I will write to Capt. Harris and see what he got to say.

"Hope everything comes out fine.

"Yours truly, Gene."

Mrs. J. A. Beard Rites Are Held Saturday; In Eastland Since '98

Funeral services for Mrs. J. A. Beard, 70, who died Friday at her home in Eastland after a long illness, were held Saturday afternoon in the Hamner Funeral Chapel with Rev. J. B. Blunk officiating. Burial was in the Eastland Cemetery.

Mrs. Beard, long prominent in Eastland church and civic circles, was born in Platonia, and came to Eastland with her parents in 1898. She soon married Mr. Beard, and they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary not long ago.

Mrs. Beard had served as organist for the First Christian Church in Eastland for more than 50 years, and was prominent in the Order of Eastern Star also. She formerly belonged to a number of local women's clubs.

Her husband also has played a prominent part in Eastland history. He formerly was a member of the City Commission, and was an organizer and is a director of the Eastland National Bank.

Survivors include two sons, J. W. and H. D. Beard of Dallas, a daughter, Mrs. George R. Bennett of Midland, and granddaughter, George Ann Bennett of Midland, in addition to her husband.

Olden School Opening To Be Tuesday, Sept. 5

Olden schools will open for the fall term on Tuesday, Sept. 5, it was announced this week by School Supt. Travis Hilliard.

Students are to report at 8:30 a. m. Tuesday for a full day session in which all students will be registered. Lunch will be served in the lunchroom, and the school bus will make its run at about the same time as last year.

Hilliard also announced the addition of two new teachers to the faculty, Mrs. Milton Day and Mrs. Evans Hood, both of Eastland.

Band Boosters Build Concessions Booth

Members of the Eastland Band Boosters Club this week completed work on a new concessions booth at Maverick Field, to be used during football season.

The booth is at the rear of the ticket booth at the field, and has hinged windows that permit opening it to the public on three sides. It has been painted green to match the ticket booth.

Wayne Jackson and Bucky Harris, who did much of the work on the booth, said that with it, the club can sell a larger range of foods than in the past.

Rat-Proofing Drive Endangered As Some Won't Sign

Status of the Eastland rat control program was cast in doubt this week when about one-third of the business property owners contacted refused or failed to sign agreements to have their places rat-proofed.

Under an ordinance passed last spring by the City Commission, the rat-proofing is compulsory, but City Manager I. C. Heck said this week that the Commission has no intention of getting into any legal battles over the program.

After the signing up campaign has been completed, the Commission will see what it wants to do, Heck said.

Heck pointed out that last spring before the ordinance was passed, a Mr. Cross of the State Health Department spoke to both of the men's service clubs in Eastland, to a number of women's organizations, and to other groups, on the rat program, and asked for a show of hands for and against at each place. He got all votes in favor, Heck said.

Then later, King and C. W. Young of the city staff contacted about 35 businessmen about the program, and all favored it except a few who had to get approval from out of town, the city manager said.

At mid-week, E. A. King, typhus control air worker for the State Health Department, and Herman Dunlap of Eastland had received about 19 approving answers and about nine turn-downs or failures to answer on signing up for the rat control work.

King was explaining to merchants that all must sign before the program will go into effect, and outlining the benefits to be derived from having a rat-free city.

He also was providing an estimated cost of rat-proofing the individual's building.

Estimated cost for The Eastland County Record building, for example, is $30. The building is 100 feet long and 25 feet wide, has double wooden doors and two windows in the rear, and a series of skylights in the roof.

Under the program, after the buildings are rat-proofed, there will be no further expense to the building owner. The city will provide a man to see that buildings stay rat-proofed.

King said his survey had shown 76 buildings in Eastland that need the rat-proofing.

Heck said Dunlap will be the city rat-proofing man when the program gets under way.

Mavericks To Field 145-Pound Lineup Against Coleman Sept. 8 In First Test

Eastland High School's starting lineup against Coleman at Coleman Friday night of next week likely will average no more than 145 pounds, it was revealed this week as the Maverick squad worked hard and long for the coming campaign.

Barring injuries, almost cinch starters at this stage are Rodney Stephen, Dickie Evert, Doug King and Gerald Ables, with 117-pound Morris Riggan the first likely replacement in the backfield; Eddie Haines, Derrell Black, Bob Womack and Gerald Davis in the line.

That leaves three line places open, with Edwin Aaron, Hill Gaeta and Norman Watson three likely candidates.

Alan Vermillion, freshman who had been contending for a place in the line, broke a thumb in scrimmage Wednesday night and will be out three weeks or so.

The Wednesday night scrimmage session was long and arduous, and bore out Coach Wendell Siebert's forecasts to the Rotary and Lions Clubs earlier in the week that his "pore little boys" were going to have to work long and hard to be anything like ready for Coleman, Ballinger and Albany in the first three Maverick games.

Siebert also told the clubs that the new field house at the football field is being used for dressing and taking showers for the first time this fall.

More Suits Assured To Condemn Land For Right-of-way

Action was reported taken barely in time Thursday to assure early construction of the divided four-lane highway between Eastland and Cisco.

Resident Highway Engineer said Monday that he would have to have positive assurance by Thursday that right-of-way for the project would be obtained by mid-September, or the project would be dropped from the September call for bids on construction.

In view of the situation abroad, this might mean an indefinite delay.

Commissioner Ed Castleberry of Precinct 1 in Eastland is located, has suits filed Wednesday by County Attorney Elzo Been for condemnation of two pieces of right-of-way.

Later, said County Judge P. L. Crossley, one of the suits was settled out of court, but the other, involving the El Morocco night club property, was pending.

Thursday morning, Pritchard said he had been assured that suits would be filed to clear up all right of way contests in Precinct 4, in which Cisco is located.

County Judge P. L. Crossley said it was his impression that there were five or six pieces of property involved on which agreements had not been reached, and on which suits would have to be filed.

The suits were to be filed Thursday afternoon and Friday, Crossley said.

Pritchard said he had informed his superiors in Austin that the suits were to be filed, and that the way had been cleared for calling bids on the improvement project.

After it became known that the deadline was nearing, chambers of commerce in Eastland and Cisco took a hand trying to see to it that the right-of-way requirements were met in time, and at one time a mass meeting was considered to promote public sentiment.

Arch Bint is commissioner of Precinct 4.

James Wright Final Winner In Contest

James Wright won the Westinghouse Laundromat Tuesday night as the Pullman's Westinghouse Amateur Revue wound up its six-week contest.

Wright, the singing milkman, had won top place on every one of the six shows. Winner was determined by crowd applause in each instance.

Mrs. Marene Johnson was producer of the shows, and David Mc Kee was master of ceremonies.

Businesses, Offices To Be Closed Monday

Eastland will take a holiday Monday and businesses will be closed in observance of Labor Day, H. J. Tanager, manager of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce, said Thursday.

The holiday will be observed by public offices, the Post Office, the Eastland National Bank, and by most business firms in Eastland.

Tanager said he had heard of a few businesses that planned to stay open.

—By Special Correspondent—
 By MRS. CLIFTON BECK

Well, since we had Ralph Wheat
 as the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Duncan and had Mr. Charles Harris graduating from Texas Tech, it's just as well with us that our sister-in-law (Mrs. Raymond Beck) gets the blame. (Ed. Note: Last week's Morton Valley column in The Record inadvertently was given a Mrs. Raymond Beck by-line.)

However, if you have any news,
 Mrs. Clifton Beck would appreciate it if you would call her.
 Mrs. Billy Guess and Ronnie of Crosbyton are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Graham.
 Johnnie and Mike Graham underwent tonsillectomies Friday of last week in Ranger. They were reported recovering normally.
 Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hartsell and Pat of Corpus Christi, Mrs. Bill
 Taylor of Littlefield and Mrs. W.
 B. Stewart and Jan of Lubbock were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Thompson.
 Mr. and Mrs. Thad Henderson,
 Linda and Clayton Lee of Sundown visited Mr. and Mrs. W. E.
 Tankersley last week end. Sunday visitors in the Tankersley home were Pat Moseley of Ranger, Misses Oleta Knight and Billie Sue Lat-timer of Albany and Mr. and Mrs.
 Joe Paul Sturm and Eddie of Breckenridge.

MR. PEANUT GROWERS

We will buy your allotment peanuts, and let you keep your oil peanuts. We will shell and treat for seed any peanuts you may own, for a fee.

The only thing required of Commodity Credit Corporation, is to make available to you a market for your peanuts, at not less than 90 percent of parity. If you can obtain satisfactory prices elsewhere, you may do so. We are now paying $220.00 to $250.00 per ton in South Texas.

If you understand how your peanut allotment was reduced this year, maybe you understand how these county allotments were made. We don't.

WORLD'S MOST COPIED TRACTOR

...yet, the ONLY one that gives you ALL of these features:

- Built-In Hydraulic System
 The Ferguson Hydraulic System is built into the tractor as a part of its complete design (just as it has been for over ten years). It is not an afterthought to be changed from implement to implement or mounted on the tractor.
- Automatic Implement Protection
 When a Ferguson Implement such as a plow, strikes an underground obstruction, the Ferguson System automatically and instantly provides protection for tractor and implement.
- Finger Tip Implement Control
 Over ten years ago the Ferguson System gave you this feature. A mere touch of the control lever hydraulically raises unit-mounted implements or lowers them to desired working depth.
- Automatic Steering Alignment
 On the Ferguson Tractor, radius rods and drag links move together with the wheels when changing front tread widths. Thus, maximum rigidity and front wheel alignment are automatically maintained.
- 3-Point Converging Implement Linkage
 Ferguson Link arms converge for maximum implement efficiency and control—far different than attachments which just provide three hitch points.
- Automatic Draft Control
 Implement working depth is automatically maintained by the Ferguson Tractor Hydraulic System.
- Traction Without Excess Built-In Weight
 The Ferguson System automatically changes traction for heavy or light work. No fuel-consuming excess weight needed to gain traction for heavier jobs.
- Special Valve-In-Head Engine
 Economical power from a specially-designed Valve-in-Head Engine. High torque lugging power that pulls three bottoms in most soils.

FOR ONLY $2

If you live in Eastland County, you can receive The Eastland County Record for a year for only two one-dollar bills.

In these days of inflated prices, that's a rare bargain, indeed. For only $2 you can learn of the important happenings of Eastland County—of the elections, the major crimes, the highways built or about to be built, the crop situations and the cause for good crops or bad, the athletics, the oil news, news of industry and business, and so many other different kinds of news stories that we couldn't begin to list them all here.

Then, of course, there are the stories about people—maybe not so important, in many cases, to the world at large, but important always to the friends and neighbors.

Stories of births, and of deaths—stories of weddings, and parties, and of the thousand and one funny and sad and cockeyed things that happen to us and those we know, and which interest us all.

And, always, there are the ads—why, in almost any issue of The Record you might find a bargain ad that will appeal to you, and save you $2 or more in good, hard cash..

Of course we know that most people in Eastland County already subscribe to The Record. We just would like to make it 100 percent, is all.

Don't Shoot Birds On Lines, Is Firm's Plea

"Please don't shoot at birds on telephone lines," was the plea this week of W. H. McAnally, manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, who said that each year thousands of telephone wires are broken by stray shots during the hunting season.

"Birds can fly away," McAnally said, "but telephone wires just have to sit there and take it. It's not that the hunters deliberately try to hit the wires, and I don't think sportsmen would shoot at a sitting bird on a wire, but I guess they just don't realize that a hasty shot might cause serious damage to telephone lines and disrupt long distance service."

Juniors, Seniors Sign Up At E.H.S. Friday

Eastland High School juniors and seniors are to register at the school at 9 a. m. Friday, and freshmen and sophomores are to register at 1 p. m. Friday, School Supt. W. G. Womack reminded Thursday.

Students at all schools are to be on hand at 8:40 a. m. Tuesday for the first regular day of school. School buses will make their first run Tuesday, Womack said.

TO THE VOTERS OF EASTLAND COUNTY

I deeply appreciate the majority vote you gave me for sheriff in the recent primary election. Nothing but my former and newly-made friends could have accomplished this for me. While I am very proud of the honor thereby bestowed on me, I give you and them the credit for it all. I will try to prove my gratitude for this demonstration of your confidence in me by rendering the very best service in accordance with the Constitution and laws of our State, honesty and fair dealing, that it is humanly possible for me to render, as sheriff of Eastland County. I THANK YOU WITH ALL MY HEART FOR WHAT YOU DID FOR ME.

Eastland County Agricultural Activities . . .

George I. Lane, county supervisor for the Farmers Home Administration, says that funds for FHA borrowers will be more limited, and that loans will be very difficult to obtain for one-cash-crop operators. Loan Applications will be favored if good soil improvement and proper livestock management practices are carried out.

FHA recommends 10 pounds vetch and 20 to 30 pounds of rye with 200 to 300 pounds of superphosphate per acre for winter cover crop and also for winter livestock grazing in Eastland County.

Lane advises that during November a layer of three or four inches of barnyard fertilizer will be fine for next spring's garden; then to be followed by 200 to 250 pounds of commercial fertilizer per half acre. Then this should be turned under.

Assistant County Agent Ed Steele announced that the annual Eastland County Sears Pig Show will be held at the Ranger Show Barn Saturday, Sept. 23. Eight gilts will compete for five prizes donated by the Sears Foundation. The first place gilt and the boar will go to Breckenridge for the area show Sept. 30.

Measuring of peanuts and cotton has been completed for the 1950 PMA program in Eastland County, reports Emmett Powell, the PMA administrative secretary, and all producers will receive a notice of their acreage in the near future.

It was estimated that the county now has about 38,000 acres in peanuts. Powell said about half the farmers have overplanted peanuts and will sell the excess acreage peanuts for oil. Powell said money still is available for practices to be carried out under the 1950 program—how about terraces this fall?

The Cisco FFA will plant dry land alfalfa on its demonstration farm this fall, says Gail D. Jones, Cisco High vocational agriculture instructor.

Mrs. Jessop Enrolls Art Course Students

Mrs. Florence Jessop announced this week that she now is enrolling students for her applied arts classes, and anyone wishing to enroll may contact her any morning at her studio at 413 Daugherty Street or call her at Telephone 502.

She said that she now is enrolling students in a course in ceramics. She will teach textile painting, china painting, and water color and oil painting.

Mrs. Jessop, who assisted this summer with the Eastland Art Colony, won honorable mention in the state art exhibit in Austin last year.

Week end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Castleberry were their children, Loyd E. and Mrs. Castleberry of Kilgore, Miss Verna Castleberry of Odessa, Mrs. Lowell Rapp, Mr. Rapp and children, Eddie Donna and Cheryl of Fort Worth, and Mrs. Glynn Page and Paula of Odessa.

J. W. Greathouse and son Danny of Ferriday, La., were the guests of friends and relatives in Eastland the past week. Greathouse is a former Eastland resident, completed high school here and was employed for a time by the Texas Electric Service Company. His wife is the former Nina Mae Williams.

H. L. King was in Dallas on business Wednesday.

Instructor. Last year, good results were obtained on planting the land to wheat for temporary winter pasture and cover crop, on which were grazed stocker steers.

M. D. Fox, Eastland High School vocational agriculture instructor, says his FFA boys' individual feeding and breeding projects are on a more favorable basis than a year ago. In addition, the Eastland FFA chapter has a joint group project of Hy-Line and White Rock laying hens. The boys also have rented the County Farm, and plan demonstration plots of alfalfa, cover crops of rye and vetch to be seeded this fall, and other check tests in the spring.

A great amount of interest is being shown in the special Minnesota No. 1 gilts owned by Charles Mahaffey, according to W. M. Crow, Ranger Veterans Agriculture instructor.

The gilts will farrow in the near future. The Minnesota No. 1 is believed to be the answer for a hog to cross with present breeds to produce a desirable butcher hog of 200 to 240 pounds without excess fat now common to most butcher hogs of a like weight.

According to L. R. Higginbottom, Veteran agriculture instructor at Carbon, Iral Bell and his father have one of the most successful alfalfa crops in Eastland County. They have 170 acres of Southwest Common and Argentine alfalfa, the first of which was planted in the fall of 1947 on heavy creek bottom soil. They now are combining the seed. Higginbottom says this is a $100 per acre crop.

The peanut harvest is under way in the Gorman area, says G. W. Thomas, Veteran agriculture instructor there. Calvin Brown began combining his peanuts Tuesday, Aug. 22, just three months and 17 days after planting time. Brown estimates a yield of 35 bushels per acre from 50 acres. A cover crop was followed by application of 300 pounds of lime and 200 pounds of superphosphate per acre applied broadcast by the Gorman Peanut Company truck.

Joseph Garibaldi did most to bring about the unification of Italy.

Two Farmers Win Egg Contest Prizes

Wyman Blair, poultry farmer of the Corinth community, and Mrs. Toy Funderburk of Ranger were winners this year of $50 prizes in the Texas Farm and Home Egg Laying contests, according to County Agent J. M. Cooper.

Mrs. Funderburk was a winner also in the previous year's contest, and Blair entered it, but failed to win.

Blair entered the contest division in which he started last Oct. 1 with 1000 hens. He wound up July 31 with 425 birds, because of close and frequent culling.

"I culled my hens every time they did not look right or were not laying," he said. "I put them in the cull hen house, and then about every two weeks I took them to town and sold them."

He has electric lights in his laying houses on his farm about midway between Eastland and Cisco, and the hens were awakened by the lights that flashed on daily at 4:20 a. m. That was their signal to hit the ground for feed, water, and their daily round of egg laying.

Blair said he will enter the contest again this fall if it is continued.

Cooper said that Eastland County annually produces over a million dozen eggs.

Officers Hold Man Accused In Ranger

Sheriff J. B. Williams' office was notified Thursday that O. D. Scott of Loreaine, wanted in Eastland County on charges of swindling by worthless check, was being held in Colorado City.

Scott will be returned to Eastland to face charges which grew out of the passing of a worthless check for $169.02 to the Ranger Livestock Commission Co. in payment for livestock, said Deputy Sheriff Cotton Graham.

Graham also said that it had been learned that a man who is in state prison on another charge, in 1948 gave Carl Johnson of Eastland a forged check of $35 against C. E. Wheat of Ranger, clearing up the old case.

Back Stage Behind the Curtains . . .
 . . . in every organized business is always the unseen element that the public knows little about and cares less. In our own business for example, the customer pays $75.00 for his 100-page abstract. It's just some typed pages with numbers on them and the certificate. That's simple! But back of the finished product is costly capital investment—in plant equipment and years of personnel training, as well as financial responsibility. Yes, the abstract looks simple and it is, but what is not so simple is behind the curtains.
