BODIES OF 24 WOMEN TAKEN FROM FIRE DEBRIS

DAVENPORT, Ia., Jan. 7 (UP)—The bodies of 24 women have been recovered in the mercy hospital fire, corner C. H. Wildman said at 10:30 A. M. today. Thirteen women still are missing, he said.

DAVENPORT, Ia., Jan. 7 (UP)—A flash fire swept a women's mental ward building at Mercy Hospital early today and at least 17 women burned to death. Nine to 11 others were missing and presumed dead.

Sister Mary Annunziata, superintendent of Mercy Hospital, said she "presumed that least 25 persons" would be listed as dead when the final count became known.

All of the known dead were patients except for a nurse's aide, Mrs. Anna Neal, who gave her life trying to save her charges.

The count of dead was announced by Scott County Coroner C. H. Wildman who said that from 60 to 65 persons were in the building at the time of the fire. At least ten of the persons, he said, were still unaccounted for.

Hospital officials said at least 62 persons were in the building. The exact count couldn't be given because it was not known how many attendants may have been absent on duties in other buildings of the sprawling hospital. The death toll rose rapidly after dawn as the embers cooled and firemen were able to enter the smoldering ruins to bring out the bodies of victims.

Most of the bodies were burned so badly that identification was almost impossible. Witnesses said the flames swept the structure so quickly that victims were trapped in their rooms, behind windows that had been barred to prevent their escape from the institution.

The patients screamed and yield in agony as the flames roared around them. Patrolman Richard Fee, one of the heroes of the blaze, told how he found a group huddled together in silent bewilderment, apparently waiting for death by fire to overtake them.

"They just looked bewildered," he said. "Sort of like animals who had something new happening to them and didn't know just what to do."

With flames searing his uniform and skin, Fee personally led "at least a half dozen" parties to safety.

D. A. Huley of Dallas, president of Lone Star Gas Company and immediate past president of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, will be principal speaker for the Eastland Chamber of Commerce annual banquet, which has been tentatively set for Thursday night Feb. 9, H. J. Tanner, secretary-manager, announced.

Arrangements for Huley's appearance here were made by Hubert Westfall, district manager for Lone Star, member of the banquet committee and director in the Chamber.

Huley is said to be a forceful and interesting speaker and Tanner believes the Chamber is fortunate in securing him. Other arrangements for the banquet are being worked out by a committee of five men.

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 7 (UP)—Three State Departments will conduct a hearing Jan. 16 on pollution of the San Antonio River.

The Attorney General's department, the Health Department and the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission will hear charges that the city of San Antonio is discharging raw or partially-treated sewage into the river.

Attorney General Price Daniel said the hearing would bring out plans of the city to speed up construction of additional sewage facilities.

Rushing Motor Company To Show Brand New De Soto Tuesday

A brand new model introducing a long list of new style and performance features will be shown Tuesday by Rushing Motor Company in the 1950 De Soto, Herman Rushing, dealer, announced.

Designed to give added beauty, comfort, convenience, safety and economy of operation, the new De Soto is truly a thing of beauty, Rushing said.

Exterior styling of the DeSoto gives the new car a longer, lower wider look. The rear of the car is completely new. The rear window, now 33 per cent larger, not only adds distinctive beauty to the design, but gives wide-angle visibility. The bottom edge of the window extends all the way down to the belt moulding, giving an attractive double moulding line around the rear.

The 112-horsepower De Soto engine combines with Tip-Toe Hydraulic shift and Fluid Drive to give excellent performance and make De Soto "the car that lets you drive without shifting." The compression ratio is 7.0. The new De Soto will operate efficiently on standard fuels.

Every new De Soto is equipped with Super-Cushion Tires which provide better traction, give a smoother ride, and reduce wear and tear on the car.

Warmer Weather Due In Texas

The mercury began a slow climb today as the blue norther which froze Texas early this week lost its sting.

Rising temperatures were predicted throughout the state over the week end and ice should melt on the streets and highways before dusk tonight.

The U. S. Weather Bureau at Dallas said partly cloudy skies could be expected today and tomorrow.

Sub-freezing temperatures were reported by several cities early today. Amarillo had a 15-degree reading at 4:30 A. M. the coldest in the state at that hour. Brownsville was high with 44.

Other 4:30 A. M. temperatures reported were Laredo 41, Houston 35, Galveston 41, El Paso 22, Guadalupe Pass 27, Salt Flat 19, Wink, 18, Lubbock 18, and Dallas 24.

Skies were cloudy at Beaumont, Lufkin, Bryan, Brownsville, and Corpus Christi and partly cloudy at San Angelo, Junction, Austin, Wink, Houston, Palacios and Waco before dawn. Elsewhere the weather was clear.

Telephone Walkout Possibility Increased

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 7 (UP)—A walkout anytime after Jan. 15 by 50,000 CIO workers of six states loomed as a strong possibility today after the union and Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. officials held a futile negotiations session yesterday.

The company flatly rejected the communication workers of America, division 20, revised wage demand of a 15-cent-an-hour package increase.

In turn, the CWA turned down Bell's proposal to extend the present contract for one year.

Frank P. Lonergan, vice president of division 20, said that after the present 15-day truce between the two parties expires at midnight on Jan. 15, the CWA "will feel free to take any course of action it sees fit."

He added that one course may be a tie-in with the union's national program, "which could mean a nation-wide strike."

Portable Phones Due For Ranchers

DUMAS, Tex., Jan. 7 (UP)—Panhandle farmers and ranchers soon may be able to carry their telephones with them on inspection trips to far reaches of their sprawling wheat and cattle empires.

Lucian Spencer, vice-president and general manager of the North Plains Telephone Company office, said his firm would go ahead with plans of installing a mobile telephone system in Dumas after receiving permission from the Federal Communications Commission.

He said he hoped to have the system, which will have a good signal up to 50 miles on the flat Panhandle Prairies, in full operation by Feb. 1.

Seek Name For Investigators

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 7 (UP)—A name for a Texas-style "Hoover Commission" was sought today by Gov. Allan Shivers.

Following a preliminary meeting yesterday, the governor announced he would name the committee members, and the committee, later this month.

Conference With Rail Commission Asked Tuesday By Area Operators

ABILENE — Oil industry leaders of the West Central Texas District Friday afternoon took steps here to counteract a crisis that seriously threatens production in seven counties of the area.

The action came after an announcement by Premier Oil Refining Company of Longview that it will take only 40 per cent of the allowable of each well in its gathering system in Eastland, Shackelford, Erath, Stephens, Comanche, Palo Pinto, and Young Counties.

Premier—a major purchaser of crude in the district— notified all of its producers Friday that the 60 per cent cut in oil it will move is effective as of Jan. 1, 1950.

The announcement was the second indication within a week that a softened condition exists in the market for West Central Texas crude.

Premier's announcement came close on the heels of Onyx Refining Company's adjustment in the price of 40-gravity crude from $2.65 a barrel to $2.58 last Monday.

Telephone Walkout Possibility Increased

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 7 (UP)—A walkout anytime after Jan. 15 by 50,000 CIO workers of six states loomed as a strong possibility today after the union and Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. officials held a futile negotiations session yesterday.

The company flatly rejected the communication workers of America, division 20, revised wage demand of a 15-cent-an-hour package increase.

Frank P. Lonergan, vice president of division 20, said that after the present 15-day truce between the two parties expires at midnight on Jan. 15, the CWA "will feel free to take any course of action it sees fit."

He added that one course may be a tie-in with the union's national program, "which could mean a nation-wide strike."

Lonergan said that the company by its action yesterday "has definitely closed the door on further negotiations and brings the possibility of a national strike much closer."

He charged that Bell's refusal to meet CWA's latest wage request and their disinclination to arbitrate "is intended to provoke a strike on orders from the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. headquarters in New York."

In rejecting the CWA's pay demand yesterday, Bell declared it "could find no justification in the presentation of the union for an increase in wage rates at this time."

A company spokesman said that Bell would "definitely accept compulsory arbitration" if it were conducted by a panel set up under the King-Thompson law, which makes Public Utility strikes in Missouri illegal.

Federal mediators announced that they would hold separate meetings with Bell and union representatives early next week in an effort to reach some kind of a settlement.

Brock Elected To Fraternity

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 8 — Howard M. Brock of Eastland has been elected to Omega Chi Epsilon, honorary chemical engineering society, at the University of Texas.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brock, 301 North Ammerman, he is a senior and a member of Kappa Kappa Psi, honorary band fraternity; Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering fraternity; Longhorn Band; Phi Lambda Upsilon, honorary chemical society; and the student branch of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers.

"This drastic reduction of 60 per cent would be fatal to a large percentage of these wells and result in the abandonment and the loss of millions of barrels of otherwise recoverable oil.

"The economy of this large area is imperiled by this situation in the interest of conservation and the welfare of all of the people of West Central Texas, we request an early meeting with you . . . looking to an alleviation of this emergency."

An uncalculated amount of revenue would be lost to state, county and local governments and school districts under the shutdown that would be caused by prolonged operation under the 60 per cent cut in production.

The refining company has been purchasing in the neighborhood of 275,000 barrels of oil per month in the affected areas, according to David Pickrell, Ranger, superintendent of Premier's operations in this area.

It was not immediately known how many operators and royalty owners will be affected by the new order, but the number is expected to run into the hundreds.

President Sylvester Dayson of Premier made the announcement in a letter to all producers from whom the company buys crude.

All operators and royalty owners in the counties affected by the new crude purchase patterns are urged to attend the meeting in Austin Thursday.

BAYLOR WILL SEEK ONE OF NATION'S BEST COACHES

WACO, Tex., Jan. 7 (UP)— Baylor University, which lost football coach Bob Woodruff to University of Florida last night, will go after "one of the nation's best" to replace him.

That was the firm assertion today from Dr. W. R. White, Baylor president, who, like everyone else around here, was caught by surprise when Woodruff signed with Florida.

Woodruff began a new five-year contract, at $12,000 annually, with Baylor only this week. At Florida, he signed a seven-year contract, at $17,000 per year.

There, he will be head coach and athletic director. At Baylor, he was only head coach.

In November, he and the Baylor athletic director, Ralph Wolf, had difficulties because of overlapping authority. In the squabble, both of them "resigned." Woodruff quit one night; Wolf the next day.

A week end passed, and Dr. White patched up the differences. He said both had reconsidered and would stay on. Wolf was relieved of his duty as athletic director, and was assigned the job of managing the new 40,000 seat Baylor Stadium, to be ready for next season. Woodruff was to stay as head coach. The job of athletic director was left vacant.

There was a plaintive note in Dr. White's first statement on Woodruff's resignation.

"I thought everything was set-led," he said.

But he disclosed that Woodruff telephoned three times last night from Tallahassee, "insistent" upon being released from his Baylor contract. White said he polled the Baylor Athletic Board by telephone, to get their consent.

Like the school, Wolf appeared to be a loser. Told of the development, he said merely: "It's news to me."

White said nothing had been done toward selection of a new coach, or even having authorities meet to consider hiring anew one.

But, he added, "we plan to get one of the best men in the country."

Also, the Baylor proxy said, Woodruff's departure would not affect the school's pushing ahead with its vigorous athletic program.

All-State Back On Honeymoon

AMARILLO, Jan. 7 (UP)— Jack Newby, the Amarillo Sandies' all-state back, honeymooned in Clovis, N. M., today with his bride, the former Deanie Windsor of Amarillo.

Newby and Miss Windsor, a student at the University of Texas, eloped to New Mexico during the Christmas holiday, but their marriage was not made public until late yesterday.

Newby said he would complete his high school studies at Amarillo and then enter college. He said he had received offers to play football at the University of Oklahoma but that he has not made up his mind where he will matriculate.

Ben Overshadows Golf Tourney

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 7 (UP)—The $15,000 Los Angeles open golf tournament found itself in the position today of being a short subject to the main feature—the Ben Hogan story.

The 24th annual event swung into its second round of play today with dark horse Ed Furgol of Royal Oak, Mich., holding a one stroke lead over Elsworth Vines and Jerry Barbour, both of Pasadena, Cal.

Furgol caught fire on the back nine to come up with a three under par 68 yesterday. But from the interest showered around the little Texan it was apparent that few of the 9,000 fans cared who won the event—as long as it was Hogan.

Hogan, making his first competitive appearance since an auto-bus collision almost killed him 11 months ago, came in with a two over par 73. His play, however, indicated he was ready.

On the front nine, he was one under par but he ran onto bad putting luck coming in—twice having balls hang on the lip of the cup. Hogan's game was typical of the days when his appearance on the fairways usually added two strokes to those of most of his opponents' games.

His approach shots were long and true. He had the same gambling spirit which made him go after birdies instead of taking sure pars. The only thing which wrecked his game was his inability to make his putter perform as it used to. That he smiled wanly, will come in time.

"I was tired after that grind," he said, "but I'm finishing this tourney."

BOWLES' NOMINEE—William Benton of Southport, above, is expected to be named by Connecticut Gov. Chester Bowles to the Senate, replacing Republican Sen. Raymond Baldwin, who resigned to accept a state position. Benton, a former partner of Bowles in a New York advertising firm, is an independent.

The postal guide lists 25 Springfield, one Springfield Center and 23 Lincolns in the United States.

The CAMEO

By Virginia Teale Copyright, 1949, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Charlie Reddy, a young lawyer assisting Chief Peters' investigation of the murder of Martin Faltier, has called upon Stephanie Smith, employed by Hagar Blair who collects cameros and runs a gift shop. Reddy wants to find out about a missing cameo, which Faltier was trying to sell and which Neil O'Neill, another suspect, claimed to own. Stephanie had earlier revealed to Hagar that she was Neil's niece and that Neil stole the cameo from her mother after it was sent to America by her father who was executed during the Russian revolution. Stephanie describes the cameo to Reddy, who does not know that someone placed the missing cameo in Hagar's collection and that it is now in Stephanie's possession.

XIX

STEPHANIE made a little sketch of the cameo. Standing at her shoulder, Charlie Reddy let his eyes rest on the smooth shining wing of hair which fell forward across her cheek.

"You see," she pointed with the pencil, "the carnelian itself is carved with the figure of a weeping woman. Around the stone is a narrow gold frame set with tiny diamonds. This frame has what you might call a super-frame extending into little points, like a crown, and on top of each point is a small pearl."

He was noticing how blue her eyes were. "Those diamonds—in the pin, I mean—are they what makes it valuable? Or the pearls maybe?"

"It's valuable because of what it is, because of what it represents. It has a history like something out of a story book. The locket was made for Isabella d'Este in the 15th century—"

"Did you say 'locket'?" I thought it was a pin."

Her eyes averted, she spoke slowly: "Hagar and I have reason to believe it is a locket."

"Either it is a locket or it isn't. If it is, it opens, and usually reveals family photographs or a lock of someone's hair."

"But it won't open. Not unless Maybe she went directly to the house."

They locked the shop door behind them. Neither of them looked back. They did not see the black convertible which crept up in front of the shop and swung into the side driveway.

When they reached the house, Stephanie accepted Charlie's hand as she climbed from the car. She turned a grave face toward the dark house.

"I'm worried. I wonder if Hagar could have had an accident. She drives that little car of hers at top speed all the time."

"Tell you what," Reddy said, "why don't I come in and wait with you a while. If she doesn't come back, we can drive around and hunt her up."

Stephanie nodded. "Come in then. I'll make a sandwich and some tea. Or, there's beer, if you'd like that."

HE walked toward the kitchen. "Look, Stephanie Smith, this is after-hours, let's use first names. Mine's Charlie." He stopped in the doorway. "What's so interesting out the back window?"

Without turning, she said: "There's a light on in Hagar's studio. I was trying to see if she's walking around in there."

She leaned closer to the window screen: "Hagar!" she called, "Hagar, are you working?"

They listened. There was no sound except the rustle of the wind in the tall palm trees.

She unlocked the back door and switched on the outside light. They picked their way silently across the damp grass. They found the door to the studio standing slightly ajar. Stephanie pushed it open gingerly. He followed her in and they looked about them in the cluttered studio.

Stephanie shook her head in puzzled fashion: "She never leaves this door unlocked, or the light on. Most of her cameros are in that case over in the corner—they're quite valuable, too. She's always so careful about protecting them. See those bars across the windows? And that big window has a burglar alarm on the sill."

Nomadic Dealer Shows Rare Objects D'Art To Eastland Housewives

A nomadic merchant who carries his wares rare "objects d'art" about the country with him in an old school bus is stopping here.

He is A. Greenburg who was once from Baltimore, Md., but now has his home any place his bus will take him.

Cached away in the bus is his stock in trade, rare four-dimensional colored prints, ancient maps, delicate water color paintings, hand-engraved copper plates, and old parchment manuscripts of early church music, to name a few at random.

He covers cities and hinterlands in an endless door-to-door pilgrimage buying and selling pieces of art. He divulged his formula assembling his collection, "It must be artistic, rare, old and educational."

"Love for artistic possessions knows neither geography nor financial station," he averred. "Some of my best customers are those least able to buy. They are people who would rather fill their souls than their stomachs," he said.

"Was a nervous wreck from agonizing pain until I found Pazo!"

Speed amazing relief from miseries of simple piles, with soothing Pazo! Acts to relieve pain, itching instantly—soothes inflamed tissues—lubricates dry, hardened parts—helps prevent cracking, soreness—reduces swelling. You get real comforting help. Don't suffer needless torture from simple piles. Get Pazo for fast, wonderful relief. Ask your doctor about it. Suppository form—also tubes with perforated pile pipe for easy application.

In his mobile shop he is carrying a collection of historic "Americana," including specimens of four dimensional color prints now a lost art. Their subjects are such mile posts in American history as Mount Vernon, the Statue of Liberty, and Library of Congress, and other subjects familiar to every American school child.

He boasts fragments of such famous collections as that of the Italian tenor Caruso, Rudolph Valentino, and a partial collection of the costumes of royal and illustrious families of Europe.

He describes his unusual occupation tersely, "My wares are hard to find and desperately hard to sell."

1950 Chevrolet Offers Automatic Transmission

As in 1949, Chevrolet's newest line of passenger cars offers two individually designed sedans. This is the Fleet-line, so described because the curvature of the rear quarters follows body roof lines. Fresh beauty in exterior and interior treatment is visible to the eye with increased power and comfort highspotting chassis improvements. In addition, the company offers an automatic shift in the optional Powerglide transmission.

WHITE HOUSE HASN'T CHANGED IN CENTURY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 (UP)—They can say as much as they want about the last half-century, but things around here haven't changed too much in the last 47 years. At least not in the White House anyway.

Workmen repairing the Executive Mansion found under the main entrance hall yesterday a tiny marble box, which was laid on Dec. 2, 1902, during the last renovation of the White House.

They hustled it to President Truman, and he had a fine time rummaging through its contents—Indian head pennies, two cent stamps, copies of the old Washington Times and the Washington Star and even a whisky bottle.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Rush and children have moved from Commerce Street to Olden, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Samuel Butler and children Ann and Samuel Butler, III of Denver, Colo., will arrive this week end to be the guests here in the home of Mrs. Samuel Butler, Sr., and Dr. and Mrs. James Whittington.

The President was particularly interested in the newspapers, especially since he delivered his State of The Union message to Congress only last Wednesday, for the Times carried excerpts from the first message of another President—the late Theodore Roosevelt.

Some of old Teddy's pronouncements had a familiar ring. Here's what he had to say to the lawmakers of 1902:

"Wherever possible, arbitration or some similar method should be employed in lieu of war to settle difficulties between civilized nations . . .

"Corporations and especially combinations of corporations should be mangled under public regulations . . .

"Organized capital and organized labor alike should remember that in the long run the interest of each must be brought into harmony with the interest of the general public . . .

"No independent nation in America need have the slightest fear of aggression from the United States . . .

And they even brought up the subject of the White House itself, recalling the 1948 controversy about the advisability of renovating the present mansion or building a new one.

"The White House," Teddy said, "is the property of the nation and, so far as compatible with living therein, should be kept as it originally was."

But the advertisements in the paper showed that some things do change after all. There were fur coats for $84, and shoes for $3

Brownwood Gets Big Housing Unit

BROWNWOOD, Tex., Jan. 7 (UP)—Brownwood housing authorities today laid plans to build 150 low-rent housing units for negro, Latin-American and white families.

Senator Lyndon Johnson yesterday advised housing director Herschel Newby that the public Housing Administration had approved an allocation for the projects and a loan of $55,000 for preliminary planning.

and $3.50. One store advertised men's suits at "all prices," ranging from $9 to $15 for the extra fancy ones.

Mr. Truman ordered the box restored in the White House foundation with a few additions—copies of the newspaper accounts of yesterday's discovery.

AUBURN, Ala. (UP)—Alabama Polytechnic Institute is a college, but from the mass of youngsters swarming around the outside of a certain classroom you'd have thought it was a grammar school. The institute sponsored a course in ice cream making . . .

If You Are 85, 45 or 3, Hadacol Helps All Ages

HADACOL is good for all ages, bringing five of nature's B vitamins and important minerals to the young and old alike. Recently the HADACOL folks received the good news that among the countless thousands who had been benefited by HADACOL were a lady of 85, a man of 45 who felt like he was 18, and a beautiful little girl only three years old.

Mrs. Edmond Doucet, of Church Point, La., is 85 years old, having thousands of friends in the picturesque Evangeline section of Louisiana where she was born and has spent all of her life. These friends are happy to know that Mrs. Doucet feels better now than at any time in two years.

"I had been sick for almost two years and was suffering with gastric disturbances and bloating. I was run down, had lost weight and had to stay in bed most of the time. I lost courage and felt that there was no hope for me."

Mrs. Doucet had tried many preparations without apparent beneficial results when she heard the glorious news about HADACOL.

"After taking several bottles of HADACOL I felt like a new person," said Mrs. Doucet. "I eat anything I want without ill effects and sleep well. I feel much stronger."

Neville Dugas, of Route 1, Box 101 B, Carencro, La., is a successful farmer who had worked early and late at all kinds of hard work and it wasn't so long ago that he wondered if he would ever be able to work that way again. He had tried many medicines, but felt no better.

"I had all kinds of stomach disturbances," said Mr. Dugas. "My stomach was so bloated that it felt like it would swell up and burst. I suffered with gastric disturbances, heartburn and was run down and nervous. I had no appetite and suffered with headaches and I couldn't sleep at night. I was so drawn and pale that my friends had difficulty in recognizing me. After the third bottle of HADACOL I felt a real improvement and after the twelfth bottle of HADACOL I felt like I was 18 instead of 45. I am feeling perfectly well."

"My three year old daughter, Joan, had lost her appetite," said Mr. Dugas. "Her cheeks were pale and she cried often. I started giving Joan HADACOL and after three of the large economy size bottles she is now healthy, has an excellent appetite and her disposition is perfect."

All three of these people were suffering from a lack of B vitamins and the minerals which HADACOL contains. HADACOL comes to you in liquid form, easily assimilated in the blood stream so that it can go to work right away. It is easy to understand, therefore, why countless thousands have been benefited by this amazing tonic, HADACOL.

A lack of only a small amount of B vitamins and certain minerals will cause digestive disturbances. Your food will not agree with you. . . . You will have an upset stomach. . . . You will suffer from heartburn, gas pains and your food will sour on your stomach and you will not be able to eat the things you like for fear of being in misery afterwards. Many people also suffer from constipation. And while these symptoms may be the results of other causes, they are surely and certainly the symptoms and signs of lack of B vitamins and minerals which HADACOL contains. And if you suffer from such a deficiency disorder, there is no known cure except the administration of the vitamins and minerals which your system lacks.

It is easy to understand, therefore, why countless thousands have been benefited by this amazing tonic, HADACOL. So it matters not how old you are or who you are . . . it matters not where you live or if you have tried all the medicines under the sun, give this wonderful preparation, HADACOL, a trial. Don't go on suffering. Don't continue to lead a miserable life. Many persons who have suffered and waited for 10 to 20 years or even longer, are able now to live happy, comfortable lives because HADACOL supplied the vitamins and minerals which their systems needed. Be fair to yourself. Temporary relief is not enough for you. Give HADACOL a trial. Adv.

The makers of Beltone, Dept. 40, 1450 W. 19th St., Chicago 8, Ill., are so proud of their achievement they will gladly send you their free brochure (in plain wrapper) and explain how you can test this amazing device in your own home without risking a penny. Hint to Motorists
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP) — Inspector Hal Allen of the police department's accident investigation division says a lot of traffic grief could be prevented if drivers would "treat the other motorists as they would a guest in their home." Allen labels slow-driving, middle-of-the-roads and motorists who make improper turns as the worst, and most dangerous, traffic offenders.
