Telephone Workers Return To Jobs; End Strike Threat

FOR FISHERMEN ONLY

The new exploration and research program launched by the Gulf States Marine Fisheries Commission is viewed by the Executive Secretary of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission as bearing great promise for commercial and sport fishermen.

The undertaking will emphasize examination of fish life in previously uncharted angling areas in a broad step toward developing new fields of profit as well as of recreation.

For the average Texan, particularly the inland residents, fishing ordinarily means matching wits with a wary catfish or trying to outguess a fighting black or white bass, or even to lure a tasty crappie or other pan fish to the stringer. Expanded fresh water facilities stress the land lubbers' needs. But the scope of the game and fish department does not end there.

For, down on the coast, a vast industry is centered around providing boats, tackle and guides for the throngs living in that area and for the visitors from inland Texas and from far beyond. Just as vital and probably a greater economic asset, is the commercial fishing industry which brings in the shrimp, oysters and other marketable salt water species.

The fact that Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia and Florida share the same outlook was a mighty factor in harnessing up the coastal team along with the Fish and Wildlife Service to get the job done.

The Executive Secretary, who is vice-chairman of the organization said the marine biologists foresee great new opportunities in the deeper sea areas distant from the shoreline—areas which have never been developed for sport fishing or for commercial fishing.

Two vessels obtained from the Fish and Wildlife Service have been outfitted. One will be equipped with all kinds of fishing gear to do exploratory work off shore. The other will specialize in research—a sort of marine scientist's dream. It will check the water temperature and record currents and other data which vitally affect fish life. It also will be rigged to study the water for microscopic organisms necessary for fish life. The entire life cycle of the denizen of the deep will be charted. The effect of the new trade stimulant will be felt far beyond the coastal boundaries.

FISH STOCKING PROGRESS

The Chief Aquatic Biologist of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission has observed that ranchers and farmers, in utilizing all possible resources to better living conditions, are finding wildlife an indispensable factor. To this end the trend is toward stocking ponds and tanks with fish. Some farm ponds that are only an acre in size have produced three or four hundred pounds of fish annually.

Proper management and education have had an important part in this development. The popular opinion of laymen that the more fish planted in a lake, pond or tank meant more fish and better fishing has been discounted by the biologist. This has permitted distribution of fish fry over a greater area, with consequent benefit for all.

There is a definite limitation to the number of fish a certain area can support. If the place is overstocked, and without the proper balance of species, the result is runted fish and disappointed anglers. Thus when land owners send in their applications, the Game Department judges by the description of the pond, tank or lake what kind and how many fish are needed. The landowner or tenant has a part in this planning, too. He has to describe the area and to be particularly accurate in stating whether his waters are being stocked the first time, or are being restocked.

Dinner Saved Anyway

JACKSBORO, Tex. (UP)—Mrs. Gordon Dennis smelled smoke but thought it was from the Sunday dinner she was cooking. She did, that is, until a neighbor ran in to tell her the roof was on fire.

"Oxen of the sea" is the appropriate nickname given by the Spaniards to the big, tasty crabs weighing five pounds and more caught in the Bay of Biscay.

"Toad Starting" Device Will Be Tried Wed.

A new invention will be unveiled Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at McGraw Motor Company. It is a starting device, designed to cause horned toads to "hit the track runnin'." It will have its first official job August 12, when the second annual Eastland "Old Rip" Horned Toad Derby is held.

Invented by O. C. Hunt, the device includes a cone-shaped bucket sitting upside-down on a six-inch base. Another bucket is placed over the cone and the toads are placed inside. A rope, connected to the covering bucket is pulled, the bucket releases the toads, where-upon, the toads fall to the track and the race gets underway.

Last year, the Toad Derby had 149 entries but this year, there are expected to be more than 300. Other events including a square dance, sponsored by the Girl Scouts, will be featured in the day-long program.

The Eastland Chamber of Commerce will enter "Old Rip, VII," in the annual Horned Toad Derby to be held in Coalinga, California, May 20. Old Rip will be air expressed to that West Coast City. Entry blanks for that derby has been received here and Old Rip will be entered to uphold the honor of Eastland, the originator of the Horned Toad Derbys.

Bandsmen Attend "Festival" Sat. Held In Denton

The Eastland High School Concert Band attended Region X Interscholastic Music Competition Festival held at Denton, Saturday, April 29. Thirty-four high school bands attended the festival for the annual interscholastic event. The Eastland group chose this festival site, which is outside the territory of its own Region 11, because of the incidence of polio reported in the area of activities scheduled for Region 11 in San Angelo.

The bands in Denton were judged by Weldon Covertington of the public school of Austin; R. Oliver, A&M College of Magnolia, Arkansas; Roger Fern, University of Tulsa, Tulsa, Okla., and Lyle Skinner of the Waco public schools.

The appearance of the Eastland band was unofficial in so far as competitive rating was concerned. The group received comments and criticism from the judges which will encourage and stimulate the music program of our high school.

The trip was made possible through the use of the high school bus and parents of the band students L. D. Harris and E. M. Simpson handled the heavy instruments of the band using a pick-up furnished by J. P. Kilgore.

Mrs. A. E. Cushman, Mrs. Ed F. Wilman, and Mrs. J. Whitley accompanied the students on the bus. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Freyschlag, Mr. E. E. Herring, Mr. F. Flowers, Mrs. Joe Stephen, Mr. Homer Smith, and the band director furnished transportation for a number of the band students.

The group enjoyed the visit to one of Texas' best colleges and were greatly impressed by the hospitality of the college officials and students of the school.

NEW YORK, May 1 (UP)—Some 11,000 telephone equipment installers returned to work today after week-long strike, ending the threat of a nation-wide telephone tie-up.

Division 6 of the communication workers of America (CWA) representing installation workers of Western Electric, the telephone company's manufacturing affiliate, called their strike at 2 A. M. four hours before they were scheduled to set up their first picket lines.

At the same time, the union announced that it had reached agreement with the company on the "South Bed Incident" which had complicated contract negotiations. The 104 installers who walked off their jobs in sympathy with fellow union members who refused to cross a muddy field to work on a television tower were restored to their jobs under the agreement.

The union had also asked a money settlement for these men. It was reported this was denied in the compromise settlement.

Contract negotiations were scheduled to be resumed late today with both sides meeting separately with U. S. Mediator Thomas R. Steutell.

DETROIT, May 1 (UP)—A high company official said today that verbal agreement has been reached on all points to settle the Chrysler strike, but the CIO United Auto Workers declared issues still were in dispute.

Herman L. Weckler, Chrysler vice president and general manager, said only contract "language" was preventing a return to work of the 89,000 strikers.

UAW president Walter P. Reuther promptly denied this. "There still are unresolved issues," the tired union leader declared. "The union prefers to work for a solution of these issues rather than engage in a propaganda war with Mr. Weckler."

Weckler's statement that the long and costly strike was nearing an end came after more than 46 hours of grueling "do or die" bargaining to end the 97-day strike.

The agreement, when in final form, will include $100 a month pensions for the 89,000 striking workers and a hospital - medical insurance program believed the best in the automotive industry.

Although Haggard and beary-eyed, bargainers gave no indication of quitting until a contract is born in the littered, smoky conference rooms.

The strike, second longest in automotive history, has idled more than 144,000 persons, including the strikers, across the nation. It has cost production of more than 450,000 cars and trucks.

In his terse statement, Weckler said:

"Assuming that the UAW stands by its verbal agreements on issues that have been discussed over and over again during the months of the strike, apparently the thing that is taking time now is language."

"Going over the language does take time for discussion. That appears to be the UAW's reason for the current delay in ending the strike."

Man Wanted For Check Forgery Held In Okla.

Sheriff J. B. Williams, Eastland, has been notified by authorities in Woodward, Okla., that a man charged in Justice E. E. Wood's Court here for passing a forged check, is under arrest. Williams has sent a "hold order" to the Woodward authorities.

George R. Kemon, address unknown, worked for an Abilene firm for about ten days. The check, in the amount of $50, was drawn on the Abilene firm and cashed by an Eastland merchant.

He also attempted to cash a check in Ranger but fled when the merchant told him "I'll have to phone the bank in Abilene before I cash a check this large." That check, also drawn on his Abilene employer, was made out for $250. He had previously tried to cash the $250 check at the Commercial State Bank but made a hurried exit when informed that the check would have to be passed on by the Abilene bank.

Sheriff Williams will probably return the prisoner to Eastland to stand trial as soon as extradition arrangements can be completed.

An 1843 price list in Wisconsin quoted bacon, five cents a pound; butter, six cents a pound; live chickens $1 a dozen; good fat turkeys 25 cents each.

BOSTON, (UP)—Un-American soapbox orators on Boston Common may take a back seat to television if the city council has its way. After hearing Councilor Francis P. COMMUNISTS 'INVADE' WISCONSIN TOWN FOR DAY

By Michael J. O'Neill
United Press Staff Correspondent
MOSINEE, Wis., May 1 (UP)—"Communist Guerrillas" seized control of this little town's city hall and hustled Mayor Ralph E. Kronewetter off to a "concentration camp" today as 2,000 residents began living under "Soviet rule" to learn how rugged life is behind the iron curtain.

A squad of five "Red raiders" armed with rifles and led by a commissar broke into the Mayor's home at 6:13 A. M. in a mock seizure. They dragged him out of bed and placed him under arrest.

Edward Davis, a former army commando, whipped a pistol from his shoulder holster as he pressed into the house behind the "commissar", Joseph Kornfeder, who actually once was a high leader in the American Communist party.

The raiders forced their way into a kitchen of Kronewetter's home. They lost their way for a few minutes but finally got upstairs and dragged Kronewetter out of bed.

The 50-year-old mayor was hauled into the street, still dressed in his polka-dot pajamas.

It was the first move of "Communists" who took over the town for one day in a dramatic demonstration to the western world that life under the Communists is no bed of roses.

Newsreel cameramen and news photographers stood outside the mayor's house and recorded the scene. Some of them failed to get clear shots, to the make-believe Communists pushed the mayor in and out of the house three times until all were satisfied.

Kronewetter said he was "surprised" that the raiders had struck so early.

"I thought it would be around eight o'clock," he said. "I resent this idea of getting up so early."

But he said he was heartily in favor of the demonstration of life under Communist rule.

The time of the attack had been kept a secret from most local citizens.

The total "striking force" of the imitation Communists consisted of 75 American Legionnaires from Mosinee and several surrounding towns.

The "Red guerrilla squads" moved into position as dawn broke over the sleeping town so they would be ready to set up the first Communist police force state west of the real iron curtain.

Within two hours the Red banners flew over city hall and the new "United Soviet State of America" was proclaimed.

Stamey's Drive Inn Burglarized Saturday Night

Burglars broke a back-door panel of Stamey's Drive Inn Saturday night and looted the establishment of an undisclosed amount of small change, cigarettes, and other small items, according to Sheriff J. B. Williams.

The burglary occurred sometime between 12:00 and 1:00 a. m. The drive inn had closed about 11:30.

Officers patrolling the city discovered the back door open about 1:00 a. m., and began investigation.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (UP)—Contractors and business men were excited by a report in a business magazine that Bloomington was the site of a projected $4,000,000 shopping center and theatre. Their hopes were dashed when they learned this city had been confused with Bloomington, Ill.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,
We have just received this cable from John C. Alexopoulos, our representative in Greece: Just returned from a tour among indigent families. Condition unbearable, children almost naked, sleep with scanty if any bed covers on damp earthen floors. First stages of active T. B. found in most homes. Greek societies working day and night unable to include them all. I appeal to you for urgent shipments of food and clothing.

According to Mr. Alexopoulos, Greece has never been in such bad condition since the war of independence of 1821. He appeals to us for help especially for children of Greece who are the innocent victims of a war and of a foreign aggression which is entirely beyond their understanding.

Will you, in the columns of your valued newspaper, ask your readers to respond, if they are able to, to this urgent appeal.

Thanking you sincerely, believe me to be,
Very truly yours,

DALLAS, Tex., May 1 (UP)—The trial of a Dallas pawnbroker charged as an accomplice in the $40,000 jewel robbery of Mrs. W. W. Shortal last Feb. 17 was due to open in criminal district court today.

Thomas Schwartz was charged with furnishing William Trent Jarrette and Lester Emmett Bennett the needed firearms for staging the tie-up robbery and with receiving and concealing the stolen goods once they were taken from Mrs. Shortal, wife of a prominent Dallas physician.

The gems were recovered later by police.
Jarrette and Bennett are in jail here, awaiting trial on the robbery charge.

located between Eastland and Breckenridge.

Jimmy Still of Wilkins Jewelry reports a nice catch of 80 fish over the week-end. This group of fish included Red Ears, Crappie and Channel Cat. Worthington Lake, north of Breckenridge, was Jimmy's favorite spot.

This cool snap probably kept a lot of fishermen from going to their favorite fishing spots this past week-end. This scribe, Milton Day and Joe Dennis of Ranger paid Possum Kingdom a visit Saturday afternoon. We went to the State Park and set three trotlines and the pay off was very good—two Channel Cat that weighed 10 lbs.

A SPRING TALL TALE
One spring day Uncle Zeke decided to try to catch that old Blue Cat down in the lake that everyone said carried about two ton of fish hooks in him. So he went up to the Hardware Store and bought him a nice new crowbar and got the short end sharpened at the blacksmith's shop.

Then he got about 300 yards of two-inch rope and butchered a steer and put a quarter of beef on for bait and set it out in the lake.

Two or three days later he went down there and the old poplar tree was waving back and forth so he knew the Old Blue was on the line. He went back to the house and got his old white mule and got him hitched to the line and then it started. That old mule set his hind feet and leaped in and that old Blue Cat started moving around.

Well, the up-shot of it all was the mule pulled so hard that he split right between the eyes and pulled his skin clean off and the fish got away. But, Uncle Zeke felt sorry for that old mule and got him some sheep skins that he had up to the house and pinned them skins on with blackberry thorns.

A year or so later he got 400 lbs of wool and 50 quarts of blackberries from that old mule, not counting the ones the kids kicked off climbing on and off of her.

Yes sir, that sure was a BIG FISH.

Ford does it again

Ford's the first car ever to receive the coveted New York Fashion Academy medal in two consecutive years

Named "Fashion Car of the Year" second year in a row

All the world of Fashion looks to New York's famed Fashion Academy as an authority on style. So it's no wonder Ford is proud to receive their medal as "Fashion Car of the Year" for the second straight year. Never before was a car honored by two Fashion Academy Awards in a row! Here's proof that Ford has succeeded in bringing style to the low-price field—that even far costlier cars can't match.

And handsome is as handsome does. A "Test Drive" will show you the quality that makes the '50 Ford the one fine car in its field. You'll feel the smooth, quiet getaway power of Ford's new V-8 engine (or advanced "Six" if you prefer). You'll feel the 35% easier acting King Size Brakes. You'll feel the "Mid Ship" comfort of Ford's 13-way stronger "Lifeguard" Body... now "sound-conditioned." Yes, here's quality you'll see, hear and feel when you "Test Drive" the '50 Ford.
