Southeast Asia Nations Want To Work With West

Delegates Of Seven Countries Demand West Consult Them

BAGUIO, Philippines, May 29 (UP)—Seven nations of Southeast Asia asked today for a closer working relationship with the West.

Winding up a closed conference, they demanded that the Western powers consult them before deciding on matters dealing with this part of the world.

The demand was contained in a resolution that will be approved as a matter of course at tomorrow's closing plenary session. Observers believed it was an implied criticism of the recent London conference and other gatherings which discussed Asiatic problems although no Asiatic representatives were present.

The delegates recommended to their own governments that they "insure that in consideration of the special problems of South and Southeast Asia, the point of view of peoples of this area is prominently kept in mind by and conference dealing with such problems, so that better understanding and cordial relations may subsist between the countries in the region and other countries of the world."

The resolution did not mention the Western powers as distinct from the Soviet bloc but observers said it obviously was addressed to the democracies, whose desire to stop Communism in Asia is shared by this conference.

In the other main points of the resolution, the delegates called on their governments to seek closer cooperation and improved living conditions, work for peace through normal diplomatic channels, and take joint action through the United Nations.

The declaration was said to refer obliquely to the semi-colonial status of French Indo-China and Malaya although neither was named specifically. It also reaffirms the faith of the seven participating nations in the United Nations.

The conference was attended by representatives of the Philippines, Australia, India, Pakistan, Ceylon, Indonesia and Thailand.

Lucas Says GOP Trying To Raise Huge Slush Fund

CHICAGO, May 29 (UP)—Sen. Scott Lucas of Illinois, Democratic floor leader, says the Republicans are attempting to raise a $1,700,000 war chest to defeat his bid for re-election.

Lucas faces one of the roughest fights of his political career this year against former Republican Congressman Everett M. Dirksen.

Meeting with Democratic leaders to lay campaign strategy yesterday, Lucas said that a state Republican committee is trying to raise $700,000 for Dirksen's campaign fund and that the GOP National Committee apparently will add another $1,000,000.

Lucas said the GOP planned "the greatest slush fund campaign in the history of Illinois."

"But they can raise all the money they want to buy this election," he said. "I'll still be victorious in November."

The Lucas strategy committee said he would use television extensively in his campaign and that he would stump the state every week end during the summer. For the two months preceding the election, he will devote his entire time to campaigning.

WASHINGTON, May 29 (UP)—President Truman received a secret report from Secretary of State Dean Acheson today on the Western Power's recent cold war strategy talks in London.

American, Europe Firms Negotiating To Open Plants

BOSTON, May 29 (UP)—Mrs. Golda Myerson, Israel minister of labor, said today that "many" large American and European concerns are negotiating to open new factories in her nation.

Some already have decided to establish plants in Israel, she said in a prepared statement to newsmen.

Mrs. Myerson, here to attend the 27th National Convention of the Labor Zionist Organization of America, will be principal speaker tonight at a banquet in her honor.

Eliahu Elath, former Israel ambassador to the United States and minister - designate to England, will be honored at a convention luncheon tomorrow.

Mrs. Myerson urged Americans to make private investments in Israel where, she said, the Knesset (Parliament) has approved a bill intended to encourage foreign capital.

She said Israel needs new factories to employ its immigrants and to reduce the amount of goods that must now be imported.

Skilled laborers, engineers, nurses and mechanics also are needed in Israel, she said.

"We are hoping that American young people of these professions will come to Israel and help us in the training schemes for the new immigrants," she said.

Greek Girl Asks For Spare Taxicab

DETROIT, May 29 (UP)—Dimitra Pachki asked the Automobile Manufacturers Association today to please find a spare taxi cab and send it over to Athens.

The Greek girl wrote that her father became Greece's first cable in 1914, but that his car was wrecked when it collided with a German military machine during the Nazi occupation. The car had been "my sole inheritance when my father died," she said.

"I beg you to buy for me a rebuilt taxi cab which I shall be obliged to pay in intervals fixed by you," she wrote. "I cannot help to hope that you will be kind enough to help the poor daughter of the first owner of the chauffeur diploma of Greece."

Hopped Up Idea Takes Boys Miles

DETROIT, May 29 (UP)—Two tanned Mississippi lads, having achieved their "little of hopped up idea" of driving a 1922 Ford to Windsor Canada, chugged homeward today.

Royce Barnes, 19, and Charles Williams, 20, both of Tupelo, Miss., wound up their journey when they squeaked across the Ambassador bridge and jerked to a halt before astonished Canadian customs officers.

The youth started the 750 mile trip Wednesday morning. The tires of the ancient coupe held up all the way, they said, and the Ford averaged more than 30 miles per gallon at a top speed of 37 mph.

"It was just a little of hopped up idea," Barnes drawled. "A lot of the folks down here didn't think we could do it."

Someone asked why they chose Windsor as a goal.

"I don't know," Barnes said. "It was just far away."

This buggy got us over some pretty high mountains," Williams said, patting the steaming coupe. "We knew we'd make it."

Then after a brief inspection tour, Barnes adjusted the crank, and back they headed toward Tupelo.

15-Year-Old Girl Planned Robbery Officials Report

LONG BEACH, Calif., May 29 (UP)—A 15-year-old girl was the "brains" of a teen-aged gang that killed a liquor store owner during a robbery, police said today.

Officers said Peggy Burns "cared" the spots she and her confederates, Tom C. Cook, 17, and Muriel C. Downs, 17, planned to hold up. She also arranged strategy for the crimes.

The three "crime club" members appear in juvenile court today as officials determine whether their case should be handled by juvenile authorities or by the superior court.

They have signed statements admitting that they shot and killed Domenico Clarco, 26, when he refused to give them his money. Cook allegedly shot Clarco while the Downs girl stood lookout and Miss Burns sat at the wheel of a getaway car.

Veep Makes 2 Speeches That Raise $174,650

CORPUS CHRISTI, May 29 (UP)—Vice-President Alben W. Barkley made two speeches in two days that brought in $174,650.

Last night he made an impassioned plea for Israel at the Corpus Christi United Jewish appeal campaign and then sat back and watched them collect $74,650. He started his week end in Texas by rousing Lone Star Democrats at an Austin barbecue Saturday night to a $100,000 response.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Barkley who beamed at his introductions, chuckled at his jokes and forgot the words but hummed the tune when "Star Spangled Banner" was sung.

They relaxed today at the home of Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs. Gaylor Lyon at the Corpus Christi Naval Air Station. Mrs. Lyon is a sister of Mrs. Barkley.

They will leave at 1 p. m. tomorrow for Washington.

Speaking before 500 persons at Corpus Christi for 72 minutes last night, Barkley related stories of his visit to German concentration camps after World War II and of trips to Palestine in 1934 and after the war.

"The cause is just, the need is urgent," he said. "If Israel is allowed to go down it will be a reflection upon the people of America."

After he finished he and Mrs. Barkley sat at the head table in the Robert Driscoll Hotel while the campaign workers collected from the guests.

Co-Chairman, A. A. Lichtenstein and his brother, Morris, started things off with $5,000. Publisher Conway Craig of the Call-Times contributed $2,000 for his papers.

UP Writer Says Less Than 2,200 Planes In Operation; Far Short Of Estimated Needs If War Comes

By Charles Cordry
United Press Aviation Writer
WASHINGTON, May 29 (UP)—The total number of military and airline transport planes in operation in the United States today probably falls short of 2,200. That is well below any reliable estimate of needs at the outset of a war.

Authorities believe Air Force troop carrier units would be hard pressed at present to move an airborne division over any appreciable distance.

The Military Air Transport Service (MATS) would be strained to the breaking point in an emergency, as its normal worldwide services almost were when it was contributing heavily to the Berlin airlift.

And the airlines, which might have to give up from one-third to two-thirds of their planes to the military, would be severely taxed to handle essential civilian traffic. All these agencies now are trying to map plans for meeting a war situation, in the event that one should develop.

A survey shows these transport planes in operation:
Scheduled domestic and international airlines 1,083
MATS 568
Air Force Troop Carrier Groups *250 (estimate)

Strategic air command support squadrons 24
Navy support squadrons 70

Additionally there are 33 four-engine airplanes being operated by non-scheduled air carriers, according to government records. There are about 150 Air Force C-82 Packets doing miscellaneous jobs. Beyond all these there may be a few hundred assorted military and civilian transports unaccounted for but they would not be of appreciable significance.

Of all the transports, fewer than 300 are postwar, 300-mile an hour, four-engine types like the Stratocruiser, Stratofreighter, DC-6 and Constellation. The airlines have 231 of these. It is doubtful that more than 150 are on order.

Nearly 700 of the planes listed are twin-engine DC-3's, called C-47's by the military, which were new 15 years ago. They never are included in studies of future wartime military transport capabilities.

MORE PUNCH FOR AIR FORCE—Seen at Farmingdale, N. Y., is the YF-96A, new sweptback version of the F-84 Thunderjet. Designed to carry more fuel and more armament than its 600-plus-miles-per-hour predecessor, the new jet will be flight tested this month at Edwards Air Force Base, Muroc, Calif.

The Army today is putting major emphasis on training for airborne operations. Two of its 10 divisions comprise paratroopers and material to be carried by air. Army officers talk of moving entire corps, even field armies, by air. But in the 48-group Air Force there are only six troop carrier groups. Two are in Europe, on the in Far East Air Force and three in this country. Two, one in Germany and one in the U.S., have C-82 Packets and the improved version known as the C-119, both designed for that type of work. The others have wartime C-54's, not ideally suited for troop carriers. Soon one of the C-54 outfits will be getting giant C-124's which can carry 25 tons.

In the recent exercise swarmer, it was necessary to drain almost 100 C-54's from MATS' global services to supplement troop carrier units. In a five-day period, the MATS planes and a similar number of Packets and Marine commandos ferried 14,329 tons including 17-117 men over simulated distances of 125 to 200 miles. For comparison, an airborne division on a war footing might weigh 15,000 tons.

As a result of the exercises, some high Air Force officers are talking of tightening the relationship between MATS and the troop carrier groups. MATS now flies 70,000 miles of routes linking U. S. supply depots with installations all over the world where American forces are stationed.

Your Health

From Memorial Day to Labor Day family meals take on a summer aspect whether they be served on a cloth spread on the ground or in the most formal dining room. You just don't eat the same way in the summer as you do the rest of the year.

Water, perhaps, takes on the greatest significance as the days get hotter. Are you automatically supposed to drink more water when you start perspiring more? And what about adding salt or salt tablets to the water?

Unless you are doing exceptionally heavy work during the heat of the day, the dictates of thirst are the best measuring stick for the intake of water. If you are not engaged in strenuous activity, dosing with between-meals salt or salt tablets serves no purpose and may actually make you ill. When high temperatures are accompanied by physical work, there may be excessive loss of both salt and water through perspiration. Continued loss of salt may lead to fatigue and later to heat exhaustion or heat cramps.

The office worker, housewife or those not engaged in heavy work will probably find salty foods much more easily added to the diet than other methods of adding salt. Herring, as a summer dish, will appear to the desire of light foods as well as supplying essential salt.

If you drink more than a gallon of water a day, you will need more salt than that contained in the usual diet, which is about a half-ounce. Under ordinary conditions, however, the appetite for salt is a good index for the intake.

LET'S GO FISHIN'
By Onous Dick

Fishing reports are coming in a little bit slow.

But a card from Buckhorn Camp, Possum Lake gives us this news. Douglas Smythe and a party from Amarillo caught 14 cat fish and seven bass.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Haynes caught 28 cat fish, 7 bass and 32 crappie. They were fishing around Sand Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Curley Hodges caught 27 catfish, and four bass. Dick Kinneemon and son used lures to get 8 bass.

A. F. Loyd of Irving caught a nice string of bass. Some of his fish weighed up to five and a quarter pounds. They fished in six feet of water. Dick Brand and Jim Cruse of Dallas caught 34 catfish and a three-day visit.

We get this report from the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission.

AUSTIN, May 29—Helping arrange shooting dates so that migratory waterfowl hunters in the sprawling state of Texas may get a fair break this fall has been undertaken by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission. In the matter of when to shoot ducks and geese, what time of day to begin and quit and the daily bag and possession limit total, the commission functions merely in an advisory capacity. This is because the final decision is made by the United States Fish and Wildlife Service.

The commission, through action at its recent meeting at Pampa, already has asked the federal authorities to cut Texas into two zones, so that the season in the Panhandle and extreme West Texas might run concurrent with the surrounding areas of Oklahoma and New Mexico, thus providing for an earlier shooting season than the state at large. Later open season dates are preferable in the more southerly sections of Texas since the waterfowl reach those areas later.

For the main part of the state, the commission has suggested that the split season plan of last fall be replaced by a stright shooting period beginning November 10. In 1949 Texas duck and goose gunners hunted from November 4 to November 21 and then from December 21 to January 7.

Bag limits also would be changed to provide for eight birds a day or the same number in possession. Game department field men have observed some tendency by hunters to kill more than the bag limit when the daily limit is only four birds leaving the less desirable species to waste where they fall. Thus, waste would be eliminated through a higher daily limit since the proposed possession limit would be unchanged. Similar problems involve the suggested zoning plan to accommodate the Panhandle sportsmen, Texas although as large as two or three ordinary states, has never been zoned for waterfowl hunting. Perhaps one reason is that, with the season in the northern extremity of the state opened two or three weeks earlier than that in the state at large, hunters from the southern area would move in to share in the earlier season, and the hunters in the northern areas would legally travel southward to enjoy a prolonged gunning period within their own state. The commission may recommend and suggest but the final decision is up to the federal authorities.

Hogan won, beating Snead by 10 strokes and tying the world's competitive tournament record with a 259.

Yesterday, they closed out 72 holes of competition on Hogan's own layout, swank, but double tough Colonial Country club here in the Colonial National Invitation tournament.

The one millionth Studebaker built since the end of the war is driven from the company's South Bend, Ind., plant by Harold S. Vance, chairman and president, as he gets the "take it away" signal from P. O. Peterson, vice president in charge of manufacturing. Growth of the No. 1 independent automobile manufacturer is reflected in the fact that it took from 1929 to 1942 to build 1,000,000 prewar Studebaker passenger cars and trucks. The postwar million was launched in late 1945.

Price Daniel To Seek Old Job

Price Daniel announced Saturday afternoon that he would be a candidate for re-election to the office of attorney general in the July primary.

In a prepared statement, Daniel said, "because of the present status of important pending litigation and other circumstances, I believe it would be to the best interest of the State of Texas and to my administration in this office to offer for another term as attorney general. I appreciate the kindness of those who have thought I should offer for another office this summer, but most of my time during the next few months must be devoted to the duties of the office which the

YOU DON'T NEED MUCH ADVICE—
... but it is valuable at least twice in your insurance experience. First is, when you go to purchase a policy. Don't select just any kind of an agent or any kind of policy. There's a difference. Second is, when you have a claim: Use your own conclusions here, but for ourselves, we want somebody with a long record of successful performance in adjusting claims when we have a loss.

Charm for Spring Table Setting:

It is very simple and inexpensive to arrange a table that will delight your family and make meal time a treat. Dip one of your old white linen table cloths in a light green dye. Place your silverplate carefully and correctly. Silverplate should be dramatized by table settings which bring out its delicate beauty.

Your plainest china or pottery will be most effective, perhaps a yellow or white to complete the green of your "carpet" of linen. For your floral arrangement, snip young shoots from a bush or tree. Use dark green tumblers as a refreshing touch for an early Spring table.

The young bride above fondly admires the latest design in 1881 (R) Rogers (R) Silverplate by Oneida Ltd. It's the Brookwood pattern, a 50-piece set in an anti-tarnish chest. It's available at local jewelry stores, and sells tax-free under fifty dollars.

Mrs. Reggie Henderson of Cisco was the guest here of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Harkrider and attended the tea Saturday given for her niece, Mrs. Don Doyle, recent bride, and the former Miss Betty Harkrider.

Two San Antonio Skeet Shooters Set High Mark

CAMP BOWIE, Tex., May 29 (UP) — Two San Antonio skeet shooters left behind here today a record mark that may be "shot at" in the future but never broken.

The team of Bob Brown and Mrs. Anne Martin established yesterday a new world's record for all-gauge skeet shooting by breaking a perfect 400 out of 400 birds.

At the opening day shoot of the two-day Texas Wildlife rodeo Saturday, they fired 200 out of 200.

The previous record of 397 was set in 1948 by two Florida marksmen.

Two Kansans duplicated the feat last year.
