Tentative date for the opening of the Eastland swimming pool has been set as June 2, next Saturday, according to I. C. Heck, city manager.

Heck said that a lifeguard for the pool is still being sought, but everything else seems to be lined up for the opening.

Thursday's rains in the county just about brought everyone up into good shape as far as moisture is concerned at the present time, in this section.

Totals for the week at Gorman and Carbon, both in the midst of the farming area of the county, were over four inches, and most residents were hoping that if there is more rain around that it would wait a couple or three weeks before falling.

Eastland's total for the week figures more than two and a half inches. Thursday's 2.30 inches at Olden was the highest total for that city since May, 1950.

City Manager Heck said that at noon Friday the water in Lake Eastland had risen 20 inches from the Thursday rains. The water level previous to the last rain was at about the 55 inch mark.

Still more water could be used in the lake but it is believed that it is now high enough to be out of the danger area, barring an extreme spell of dry weather.

A two day horned toad derby is in prospect for the city this year according to preparations being made.

The affair will be held Friday and Saturday, with all events downtown. The coronation of the horned toad derby queen, an event inaugurated at last year's race, is expected to be held Friday night with other entertainment, possibly a queen's ball, following.

Saturday will be the race day with the Kid's Derby again set for the afternoon and the larger affair at night.

Concessions for the show will be discussed at a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce Monday night. Each club which plans to have a concession at the affair is urged to have a representative present.

The success of recent wells in the area southeast of Eastland indicate that a new field may be in the making in that area for the county to augment the Banking Briggs-Owens pool.

Last of two wells drilled in the area about five miles southeast of the city is believed to be good for about 150 barrels. Another which was completed this week flowed strongly and was estimated at near 250 barrels per day.

After a two week skip the Rotary meeting this week will be held at the regular place, the Connelley Hotel, and at the regular time, noon Monday.

Last week the group met with the Lions on Tuesday and the week before they observed Ladies Night at a Friday affair.

LA PORTE, May 26 (UP)—A Laporte man and his teenage son were rescued by the Baytown Emergency Corps early today after they had spent a "long night" on a small island in Galveston Bay.

They were G. M. Coons, 42, and his 16-year-old son, Richard. They spent the night on the island, located two miles off shore from here after the motor on their boat went out during a severe rain storm.

The two left home late yesterday to practice casting. When they did not return by nightfall, Mrs. Coons became alarmed and notified authorities.

The Baytown Emergency Corps, which sent out its boat today, found the two on the island. Coons said the motor broke down while they were off the island and they were unable to reach shore because of heavy seas and darkness.

Grand Jury Is Asked For Names

WICHITA FALLS, May 26 (UP)—A Wichita County Grand Jury which charged police with "bungling" the investigation of a murder was challenged today by Mayor Harold Jones.

Jones' challenge, came after the Grand Jury said that no action had been taken to suspend officers of moral turpitude in connection with an investigation into the slaying of City Patrolman E. F. Deuberry.

Mrs. Eula Peacock, red-haired cab driver and friend of the slain officer, has been charged with murder in the case, but no indictment has been returned.

OPS Clinic Conducted Thursday In Eastland By H. E. Terrell

Eastland area businessmen Thursday received individual attention from the Office of Price Stabilization on their problems in complying with ceiling price regulations.

Herbert E. Terrell, chief of Foods Branch for the Fort Worth District OPS, held a price clinic Thursday in the Eastland Chamber of Commerce office, giving individual consultation to those requiring assistance in filling out forms, or explanation of the regulations.

Terrell, a businessman himself, on loan to the government for the Emergency, stated that everyone he talked with had a cooperative attitude toward compliance with OPS orders. In fact, he said, this was true throughout the 53-county Fort Worth OPS district.

Practically all types of business and manufacturing—including commercial and personal service organizations—now are under OPS regulations, according to Mr. Terrell.

He stated his belief in the vital necessity of everyone's cooperation in the price stabilization program, deeming it essential to full production for defense and to halt further increases in the cost of living.

"Place national interests above self interest," said Mr. Terrell. "We've all got to work together to save our country from ruinous inflation."

PANAMA PUTS ARIAS IN A CITY JAIL

PANAMA CITY, PANAMA, May 26, (UP)—Arnolfo Arias, deposed president who tried to be dictator, awaited in jail today to be tried on orders of the national assembly in the slaying of two policemen.

Arias was dragged in disgrace before the assembly last night and convicted of abusing his constitutional power. The assembly barred him from the public office for the remainder of his life.

The deposed president has refused to come voluntarily before the assembly, sitting for the first time in history as a court of justice. So police forcibly brought him into the assembly chamber.

When the government prosecutor concluded reading the indictment, Arias offered no defense. "I am ready for the verdict," he said.

Assembly President Cesar Guillen ordered Arias to stand and hear the sentence—"To be removed from office and deprived permanently of the right to hold public office."

As Arias signed the assembly resolution, he looked up at the people in the crowded courtroom and smiled. Spectators began to sing the national anthem.

The assembly interrupted the outburst with the announcement that Arias be remanded to jail to await trial on criminal charges in the shooting of the police officers.

Eighteen persons were killed in the bloody fighting at the presidential palace during the brief revolution early this month.

The assembly then recognized Alcibiades Arosemena as the president of Panama, to remain in office until October 1952. Arosemena was first Vice President under Arias.

Sgt. James Reid Returns To Camp

S-Sgt. James Reid left Saturday morning for California where he will resume his duties with the U. S. Marine Corps following a two week visit in Eastland.

Sgt. Reid, the son of Mrs. Bethel Reid of Eastland, was recalled to duty with the Marines last year.

U. S. Doesn't Have H Bomb

WASHINGTON, May 26 (UP)—We still don't have the H-bomb. "As a matter of fact," a Congressional Atomic Authority said today, "we still don't know whether we ever will have the H-bomb."

An announcement by the Atomic Energy Commission and Defense Department yesterday said recently completed tests at Eniwetok "included experiments contributing to thermonuclear weapons (H-bombs) research."

But the announcement didn't say or hint that any H-bomb explosions had been set off.

"None have been," the Congressman said. Other official sources confirmed that "experiments contributing to thermonuclear weapons research" didn't mean a Hydrogen-bomb explosion.

One expert said the Eniwetok experiments "didn't even prove whether we could or couldn't build an H-bomb." As the announcement said, they "just contributed to our research data," he explained.

These sources would not say just what H-bomb research was carried out at the Pacific Ocean proving ground. It is known however, that atomic scientists are seeking all the knowledge they can get about means of making an H-bomb go off against the day when an effort may be made to build one.

It takes heat in millions of degrees. Atomic bombs made of plutonium or uranium-235 produce that sort of heat.

But the big problem is how to sustain it long enough and focus it on the material to be heated and maintain it long enough to do the job. Stars can do it, at their high pressure center, but can man?

Merchants Must Fire Price List

Merchants of Eastland are reminded that they must file their pricing charts by May 30, 1951, in order to continue their business under the recent price stabilization act.

In a telegram to H. J. Tanner, manager of the Eastland chamber of commerce, Ellis H. Boyd, district director of the office of price stabilization, urged that he advise merchants as to the deadline.

Boyd's telegram reads as follows: "A great number of merchants in your territory that come under regulation CPR 7, have not filed with us their pricing chart. The regulation as amended provides that no merchant under regulation may offer, sell, or deliver any article after May 30, 1951, unless pricing chart has been filed. Your calling this important matter to attention of your merchants offers fine opportunity for you to render them a real service."

Highway 80 Group Make Their Report

The national U.S. Highway 80 Association announced today that a letter from the Commissioner of Public Roads shows that tolls levied on users of highways totaled $1,420,565,000 for 1950.

The letter charged that $907,065,000 of this money was diverted to other uses. Highway authorities have questioned this and have demanded to know the percentage of the federal tax dollar that is allotted to the use of the highways.

It was stated that in order to hold national income at current levels it would also be necessary to increase transportation. Obsolete roads will be replaced under the control of the state highway departments.

BATTLEFIELD LITTERED WITH THE BODIES OF CHINESE DEAD

By Earnest Hoberecht United Press Staff Correspondent TOKYO, Sunday, May 27 (UP)—United Nations troops poured across the 38th Parallel in a race to wipe out 80,000 to 100,000 fleeing Reds.

The Allies reached Inje and threatened to seal the main Communist escape hatch on the central front.

U. S. Marines who sped north to Inje on the east central front reported they were capturing scores of Chinese who refused to fight any longer. One officer said UN forces "are taking more prisoners now than ever before."

The battlefields were littered with the bodies of enemy dead, slain by a relentless assault by aircraft, artillery and machine-guns.

"There are so many dead on the hills you have to be careful not to step on them," one GI told United Press correspondent Glenn A. Stackhouse.

The round-the-clock Allied bombings and strafings were interrupted Saturday by a 24-hour monsoon rain. United Press correspondent Robert Vermillion said that it was the longest single rainfall of the year on the western front. He said the boggy roads and slippery hills were great obstacles to the mechanized allies, but the Reds were rating northward through the mire.

South Korean forces on the east coast were reported to have occupied Yangyang, six miles north of the Parallel. Other forces just west of the ROKS were pressing close at the heels of "thousands of retreating Chinese."

American and French elements secured and expanded the bridgehead southwest of Inje, but they were halted by heavy enemy fire 2,000 yards north of the town.

Chinese apparently had moved in during the night with an estimated regiment. Fighting continued at nightfall Saturday.

Daniels Says New Bill Needed

HARLINGEN, May 26 (UP)—A bill revising the state's "anti-quated" election laws would be one of the 52nd Legislature's "highest accomplishments" if passed, Attorney General Price Daniels said last night.

Speaking at commencement exercises for Harlingen high school, Daniels said authority for the attorney general to prosecute law violators in elections involving two or more counties is badly needed.

A bill, already passed in the House and now waiting Senate action, would provide those powers.

No End?

The Gold Mannequin

By Myles Connolly

COPYRIGHT 1951 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: A mysterious unknown artist, who signs sketches "Teresa," and whose address is General Delivery, Cedarbrook, N. Y., has saved the exclusive women's shop "Jean Paul" from failure. Paul Panciera and his partner Jean Roland took this mysterious Teresa as a matter of course and paid her $25 per drawing and then suddenly, without explanation, the drawings ceased to arrive. Once more bankruptcy faces Mr. Panciera and Jean. But Jean decides to find the artist. She asks Mr. Panciera for a large, colored envelope and goes to Cedarbrook. She parks her expensive car near the postoffice. After a long time a country girl with pigtail emerges from the postoffice with a large yellow envelope under her arm.

VI
JEAN ROLAND'S vigilant eyes never left the youngster who carried the large yellow envelope from the Cedarbrook postoffice. Jean watched her cross the sidewalk to a dilapidated pick-up truck at the curb.

As the girl crossed to the truck, she waved a greeting to the two farm hands lounging against the postoffice wall but they, with eyes only for Jean, were unaware of the girl. The youngster climbed into the truck and drove off.

JEAN increased her speed, made the turn and came out into a wide clearing beyond which sprawled a long one-story many-windowed red brick building. Other similar but smaller brick buildings could be seen beyond the main building on ground sloping away from it.

A gravel driveway curved around the clearing up to the entrance of the main building and then curved away. A dozen cars were parked in the clearing within the curve of the driveway.

JEAN saw that the girl had parked her truck in the clearing and, still holding the yellow envelope, was walking directly toward the main building.

JEAN parked her car and followed her. The girl pushed her way through the swinging doors of the entrance and disappeared into that. The yellow was an unusual amber-yellow that their press agent favored for mailing photographs.

But the girl could never be the designer. She was too young, Jean speculated, too immature. Perhaps she was Teresa's daughter, or a younger sister.

terrace beyond. A long corridor crossed the passageway and, there were a reception hall and numerous doors leading into offices. But the girl kept right on through the wide passageway to the doors opening on to the terrace. And Jean went through the passageway after her.

THE flagstoned terrace, green with grass and dotted with autumn flowers, picturesque and restful in contrast to the bare clearing in front, sloped down into a well-kept lawn that in turn slipped away by slow degrees into the woods and meadows of a deep, pleasant valley. Scattered along the terrace in the sunlight away from the buildings were a score of men in wheel chairs, all bundled carefully in blankets.

Here and there, other men could be seen, sitting or shuffling about, some with canes, some with crutches. Now and then a nurse's white uniform flashed in the sunlight.

The little girl with the yellow envelope moved across the terrace. All the men knew her, greeted her. There was banter on both sides, smiles. She was evidently a familiar and popular figure there.

JEAN stopped on the terrace just outside the doors, watched her as she made her way toward a chair that had been wheeled to one side near a clump of trees, a considerable distance apart from the others, as if its occupant had sought privacy. The girl slowed down as she neared the chair, stopped a few feet from it and stood carefully still.

After a moment, Jean, circling the terrace as unobtrusively as she could, made her way to the shade and partial concealment of the clump of trees. She came quietly up behind the girl and saw why she had stopped.

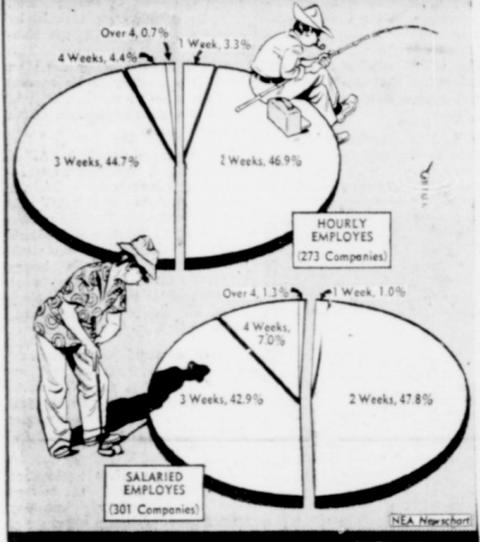

The occupant of the wheel chair was slouched down in it fast asleep. His face, turned away from the sun, was buried in the folds of a blanket.

JEAN touched the girl on the shoulder. Casually, the girl turned her head.

"Teresa?" Jean put the question easily, quietly.

Mexican Govt. Acts Pronto—

MEXICO CITY, May 26 (UP)—The Mexican Government today asked the United States to remove Mexican Farm Laborers from the strike area in the Imperial Valley of California.

The interior and Foreign Ministers called for shifting of "braceros" from "any area where conflicts between farmers and American workers exist, to other regions where they may be needed."

At the same time they ordered Mexican consuls and migration officials to double their efforts to prevent "wetbacks" from crossing the border illegally to work on U.S. harvests—especially as strike breakers.

U.S. Farm workers went on strike yesterday in El Centro, California, partly as a protest against the legal or illegal use of Mexican immigrants on Imperial Valley Farms.

The Mexican government immediately asked U. S. authorities to round up "wetbacks" and report them, and to establish a closer control of legally contracted "braceros" for their us "in areas where there exists no labor trouble."

The South Ward first grade pupils and their teacher, Mrs. Frances Cooper and 16 mothers of the pupils went Thursday afternoon to the City Park for a picnic and final outing of the school year. Pictures were made of the group, a period of games enjoyed and refreshments of orange pop and ice cream was served. The group then returned to the school, where they had gathered, and surprised Mrs. Cooper with a floor lamp, as a parting gift from her class. Room mothers who served informally as hostesses were Mrs. Mmes. D. W. Owen, W. E. Cogburn, D. A. Toliver, D. H. Russell, and J. E. Freese.

The Third Grade pupils of Mrs. M. H. Hart, accompanied by Mrs. Hart and a group of room mothers went to the City park for a picnic and final outing at the same time and the First Grade. The pupils were returned to the school via the snow cone stand, where each pupil was served a cone of his favorite flavor. Upon their return to the school the group presented Mrs. Hart with crystal in her Early American history, completing her service. Room mothers hosting the party were Mrs. Mmes. A. B. Cornelius, Victor Latham, L. E. Huckabay, D. A. Toliver, Neil Day, J. E. Turner

Cotton Prices Move Lower

NEW YORK, May 26 (UP)—Cotton prices on the New York Exchange moved lower this week along what became practically a one-way street.

Six straight days of sagging values carried the list down to the lowest level since mid-December last year.

At Friday's close, the market was 24 to 146 points—$1.20 to $7.30 a bale—lower than the previous week.

Foremost among the numerous reasons cited to explain the turn of events were: Favorable weather news and a resultant hope for a bumper crop this year; willingness of mills to re-sell surplus raw cotton stocks in the open market; dullness in the textile markets while mills cope their way through new price ceiling regulations, and a feeling that the raw cotton supply situation at the season's end in July may not be as tight as originally believed.

Recurring Korean peace rumors despite Washington details, and the reactionary swing in securities and other commodity markets, kept previous buyers on the defensive throughout the week.

The nearby October delivery hit a low of 37.95 cents a pound on Friday. This was the lowest price for that contract since Dec. 15, 1950, and $27. a bale below the seasonal high achieved on March 8, the day trading was resumed after the six-week suspension following the price freeze order.

The census bureau's report on April consumption of raw cotton by domestic mills proved unexpectedly high, but it had little market influence.

Mills last month used up 980,645 bales compared with 911,645 bales consumed in March and 710,662 bales in April last year. Consumption for the nine months period ended May 5 totaled 8,232,461 running bales compared with 6,683,316 bales in the corresponding period last season.

A leading spot firm's semi-monthly crop letter indicated the acreage increase in the eastern and central belts this season may range between 25 and 35 per cent, and between 65 and 70 per cent in the Western belt. All reports also indicate a very large acreage increase in California, the survey added.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE

Absolute trust in God, Soul, reveals the beauty of eternal life and lifts mortals out of the delusion of the belief of life in matter, declares the Lesson-Sermon titled "Soul and Body" to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, May 27.

The Golden Text shows the first step—desire for the things of Soul, Spirit. It is taken from Isaiah 26, and reads, "In the way of thy judgments, O Lord, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee." From the Bible will be read this citation, "The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants; and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate" (Psalms 34:22). Also included in the Lesson-Sermon will be this statement from page 247 of the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, "The recipe for beauty is to have less illusion and more Soul, to retreat from the belief of pain or pleasure in the body into the unchanging calm and glorious freedom of spiritual harmony."

Mrs. Lavon Huddleston, who has been seriously ill in a Ranger hospital, was removed Saturday to the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Elvis Paschal, 515 South Lamar Street, where she is improving.

STEERS STAY HOME AS CATTLEMAN BEEF—Typical of the nation's stock yards are these empty pens at the Union Stockyards in Chicago, testifying to the sharp cutback in beef marketing as the government's roll-back of meat prices went into effect. A week before stockyards were jammed as cattlemen rushed to beat the price freeze.

COLLEGE MEN TAKE EXAMS

WASHINGTON, May 26 (UP)—Some 175,000 college students flocked to testing stations across the nation today to take the draft deferment examination.

Today was the first of four days on which the test is being given. It will be repeated on June 16 and June 30—both Saturdays—and on Thursday, July 12, for those whose religion bars them from taking examinations on Saturdays.

A total of about 400,000 college men are expected to tussle with the examination. Those getting a passing score of 70 will receive occupational deferments as students to continue their education.

Selective Service authorities expect a total of about 500,000 college men to qualify for deferments either by getting a high score or by standing high in their classes. That is about 200,000 fewer than were deferred last year.

After graduation, students still will be liable for the draft.

Another Negro Chooses Texas U

EL PASO, May 26 (UP)—Negroes at Texas Southern University, the state-supported college for colored students, are being shortchanged academically, an attorney charged yesterday.

U. S. Tate, Dallas Attorney, told the University of Texas Board of Regents that Negro students at Southern don't get their money's worth, as compared with students at the University of Texas.

Tate appeared before the Regent Board to appeal for admission of Lovely Lee Hicks, 26-year-old Austin Negro, to the University of Texas Graduate School Hicks wants to work for a degree in education psychology.

Tate said University administrators turned down Hicks, telling him the courses were offered at Texas Southern. This was erroneous, the attorney said, and "the regents should overcome the phobia that goes with non-segregation."

The Regents took no action immediately. Tate said he would take "other steps to protect Hicks' rights" if the Regents refused the admission.

Anderson Has Been Appointed

AUSTIN, May 26 (UP)—Austin F. Anderson, San Antonio City Attorney, has been appointed by Gov. Allan Shivers to be Criminal District Attorney for Bexar County. He succeeds the late William N. Hensley, killed in a jet airplane crash at Dayton, two weeks ago.

Shivers said that Anderson and Harley L. Hardy, now Acting District Attorney, had been highly recommended. But Hardy's appointment was vigorously opposed by Sen. Walter Tynan of San Antonio, the governor said.

Kirk Arrived Home Today

BERLIN, May 26 (UP)—Adm. Alan Kirk, U. S. Ambassador to Russia, arrived here from Moscow today and said he knew nothing about reports the Soviets had indicated a willingness to negotiate for peace in Korea.

Kirk said the Soviet Government had made no direct or indirect approach to him on the subject.

He also said he knew nothing about a Soviet approach to either

Verdict Expected In Waco Today

WACO, May 26 (UP)—A murder-suicide verdict was expected today in the shootings last night of a Waco tavern operator and a tourist camp owner whom he had known only a short time.

The victims were identified as Jack William Allen, 27, the tavern operator, and Redge Montgomery, about 30.

A witness, Herman Waters, 32, of Austin, said Montgomery entered Allen's tavern only a few minutes before the shooting. He said Allen pulled a 16-gauge shotgun from behind the bar and fired pointblank at Montgomery, after the two had exchanged a few words.

Waters said he fled through a rear door just as Allen fired one other shot. The fleeing witness believed the shot was intended for him.

Police said the tavern operator then walked into the apartment at the rear of the bar and told his attractive wife "I've just shot Redge Montgomery." Mrs. Allen told police her husband then pointed the shotgun at his chest and pulled the trigger.

Gen. Collins Is Questioned

WASHINGTON, May 26 (UP)—Senators investigating Gen. Douglas MacArthur's dismissal questioned Gen. J. Lawton Collins today on charges that the deposed commander disregarded military policy established in Washington.

Collins, Army Chief of Staff, testified yesterday that MacArthur tended to "reach out" from whatever leeway he was given in conduct of Korean war operations. Today's session started at 10:02 a.m. EDT.

A cordial welcome awaits you.

In the beginning the Great God created man in His own image. He gave man the Sabbath Day and said "Keep It Holy." He gave man a code to live by, known as the Ten Commandments. Although today THREE of every FOUR people in America are unchurched... He gave man the Church and hoped he would be a worshipper in it, at least, every Sabbath Day. The Cosmic Judge of all the earth will reward our deeds with fairness. Whether to sleep or not to sleep through the hour of worship at your Church each Sunday... that is the question?

Typical of many of the "unchurched group" is the scene above... "The Sunday Morning Sleeper." There is little justification for the habitual "Sunday Morning Sleeper." Man's creation was such that it is necessary for him to gain strength and courage for the battles of life from the influence of the Church and the teachings of Jesus.

Jesus said that "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

A comfortable bed on Sunday morning with radio and a newspaper, wonderful as they are, cannot "tone up" and sweeten a life like an hour of worship in the Church of one's choice. Man needs something luxuries cannot give. He must be fortified for the gruesome tasks which may lie ahead; he must have Jesus on his side.

There is a certain reassurance that comes from the toll of the Church; Bell and singing of the choir. Be a worshipper in the pew of your Church every Sunday. "You need the Church... The Church needs you." You'll find her doors ajar. Don't Be a Sunday Morning Sleeper.

BEN HOGAN HELD THE LEAD AS TOURNAMENT HEADED INTO THIRD ROUND AT FORT WORTH

FORT WORTH, May 26 (UP)—Bantam Ben Hogan held stubbornly to a one-stroke lead over Dentist Cary Middlecoff today as the Colonial Invitational Golf Tournament headed into the third round.

Middlecoff could have taken the lead in yesterday's second round for he was one stroke ahead at the end of 15 holes. But he muffed that lead as he went into a brief tangle in that time could not be blamed on the "allergies" that bothered him early in the year.

When he recovered, Hogan was still out in front by a stroke, just as he was at the end of the first round, with a 139 total and Middlecoff was trailing at 140, even par for the 7,035-yard layout.

Breathing down their necks was Johnny Palmer, the stocky veteran from Baden, N. C., at 141, and seven others at 142.

"Allergies had nothing to do with that," Middlecoff said of his tee shot that splattered off a tree into a sand trap on No. 15. "Nor could grass, flowers or weeds have bothered me when I squirted the second shot from the trap out of bounds."

That must have unnerved him a bit, however, for he went on to three-put the next hole and drop a stroke back of Hogan, where he finished.

Their lead as the tournament moved into the third round wasn't a bit secure, however.

Bunched at 142, two-over par, were Ed Oliver of Seattle, Wash., who shot yesterday's best round a 67; Clayton Heafner the 1948 Colonial Champ from Charlotte, N. C.; Julian Brooks of Southern Pines, N. C.; Sam Sneed, the defending champ from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.; Byron Nelson of Roanoke, Tex.; Toney Pennington of Cincinnati, O.; and Tommy Bolt of Durham, N. C.

Any one of this group was in an excellent position to slip into the lead for $3,000 first prize money should the leaders falter today.

Maragon Led Away To Jail

WASHINGTON, May 26 (UP)—Dapper John Maragon, 58, Greek Emigre who became a White House intimate, was led away to jail today to start serving his 8 to 24 months sentence for lying to Senators.

Federal Judge Jennings Bailey declined to grant probation to the onetime Kansas City bootblack.

Edward J. Hayes, Maragon's attorney, asked that Maragon's sentence for perjury be suspended, particularly since he was acquitted of the main count in the indictment. This count was that he lied about his dealings with government agencies in the Senate "five percenter" inquiry.

Still natty in a navy blue suit, Maragon stood gravely, hat in hand, before the Judge while Hayes pleaded for clemency on his behalf. His son, now serving in the Air Force, sat in the front row of spectators' benches, beside his mother.

TANK TANK FOR ITALY—The World War II peace treaty limitations confining Italy's armed forces to 300,000 men may be lifted if the U. S., Britain and France agree. In the meantime, special instructors, trained at Atlantic Pact training centers, are teaching Italian soldiers how to use arms and equipment supplied by the U. S. under the military aid program. Here, an Italian Army captain instructs a tank team in the handling of its 19 ton M-24 tank, the type now being used by most of Italy's tank outfits.

Supreme Court Examines The Report Today

WASHINGTON, May 26 (UP)—The Supreme Court today examined another report on Federal-State boundaries in the protracted California tidelands oil dispute.

The report was submitted to the justices by William H. Davis, New York Attorney appointed by the court as special master in the controversy over where to draw the exact dividing line between state and federal land.

Davis was appointed after the court awarded the federal government "paramount right" to the oil-rich offshore area in 1947.

Davis was understood to have made no recommendations on how to solve the tangled boundary dispute in his latest report, which will be released some time next week.

Meanwhile, the royalties obtained from oil drillings are being held in a special fund until the controversy is finally settled.

The Dutch first brought tea to Europe in 1610.

SAVING $25.00 PER WEEK ON FEED

A Texas farmer says about his improved pasture, "Before I got started on my conservation program, 2 gallons was good milk production. Now I'm getting better than 3 gallons. I'm saving $25 a week on feed. With that and more milk, I'm better off by $12.88 a day."

With a good pasture program you get more income per acre and of equal importance you are building the soil.

A plan for grasses and legumes in both permanent pasture, and rotation with crops, means high yields and quality production from land that grows richer as you farm it.

The first move in your pasture program is to consult your county agent.
