Around The Square With Mack

We are looking for about ten or twelve good, stout men who will have time for a little professional kicking. Tomorrow is the last day in which poll tax payments may be made, yet we know from past experience that there is going to be a large group who missed this important act until after the dead-line. Friday when they get up and realize that if the Indians decide to re-take this country there is nothing they can do about it. If Truman is re-elected it will be because they disfranchised themselves and couldn't help but hit out. This group will be here Friday morning trying to hire stout men to take them out behind the barn and give them a good kicking.

One of our customers sent us a clipping a day or so ago, and insisted that it be reprinted here. Ordinarily we do not use this column for reprints, but for a change we will do so. We hope it meets with your approval, and if we find out the author's name we will give him due credit. The article follows.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your request to send a check, I wish to inform you that the present condition of my bank account makes it almost impossible. My shattered financial condition is due to Federal laws, State laws, County laws, brother-in-laws, sister-in-laws, and out-laws.

"Through these laws I am compelled to pay a business tax, amusement tax, head tax, school tax, gas tax, light tax, water tax, sales tax, liquor tax, income tax, food tax, furniture tax, and excise tax. I am required to get a business license, car license, operator's license, truck license, not to mention a marriage license and dog license.

"I am also required to contribute to every society and organization which the genius of man is capable of bringing to life; to women's relief, the unemployed, relief, and the gold digger's relief. Also to every hospital and charitable institution in the City, including the Salvation Army, Community Chest, Red Cross, Purple Cross, Double Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, YMCA, and YWCA, as well as Way Stations for Wayward Girls and Boys' Ranch and Boys' Town.

"For my own safety I am required to carry health insurance, life insurance, fire insurance, property insurance, unemployment insurance, liability insurance, earthquake insurance, tornado insurance, and old age insurance.

"My business is so governed that it is no easy matter to find out who owns it. I am expected, inspected, suspected, disrespected, rejected, dejected, examined, re-examined, informed, required, summoned, fined, commanded and compelled until I provide an inexhaustible supply of money for every known need, desire, or hope of the human race.

"Simply because I refuse to donate to something or other, I am boycotted, talked about, lied about, held up, held down, and robbed, until I am almost ruined. "I can tell you honestly that except for a miracle that happened I could not enclose this check. The wolf that comes to many doors nowadays just had pups in my kitchen. I sold them and here is the money."

Fire Turns In Its Own Alarm

BELOIT, Wis., Jan. 30 (UP)—A fire turned in its own alarm yesterday in downtown Beloit. The blaze ripped through a stationary shop and radio and appliance store before it burned a telephone, causing a light to blink at the central exchange. The operator summoned firemen who brought the fire under control after it had caused about $100,000 damage.

Gas Well Stops Traffic When It Blows In

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Jan. 30 (UP)—A gas well blew in unexpectedly near here last night and spread the volatile vapor over a wide area of farm land skirting suburban Warr Acres.

Traffic into the section was blocked for two hours by Oklahoma County Sheriff Bob Turner, who said oil field experts told him the gas "would have gone up like an atomic bomb" if it had ignited. The spewing McClure No. 3 well finally was capped and residents returned to normal activity. There were no reports of injury from the fumes which rolled over an area of several square miles.

Too Cold For Fish
BEAVAL, Sask. (UP)—The fish in northern Saskatchewan are feeling the cold. Veteran fishermen report 30 per cent drop in their catch compared with last year as the shivering fish cleave to the bottom of lakes.

Ranger Woman, Eastland Sales Barn Team Up To Fight Polio

Mrs. Maggie Masters who is the owner and operator of Masters' Boarding House in Ranger, called the city secretary of Ranger, Lester Crossley, who is head of the March of Dimes in the city, and told him that although she had been putting all her dimes in the parking meters she wanted to do something more. She said she wasn't able to make a large donation of money and she wanted to know what a quit that she had made about thirty years ago and never used would help if it were auctioned off.

Lester told her it wouldn't hurt to try, so he and Rip Galloway and Rev. Garland Lavender took the quilt to Eastland Tuesday and asked Sig Faircloth if he would auction the quilt off for the March of Dimes. Sig said: "I sure will", and then proceeded to go to work.

First Sig started the auction and bought the quilt for himself, then he gave it back and sold it again. This time he bought

Experts Attend Meeting In Eastland Poultry Growers Assured Good Market For Broilers At Meet

The poultry production business from all angles, was discussed at a meeting in Eastland courthouse Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was called by County Agent J. M. Cooper, and lasted for almost two hours. Something like 200 people were in attendance, and while a majority of the group was composed of Eastland county farmers and poultrymen, there were visitors from many points over the state.

Other meetings have been called during recent weeks and the meeting yesterday was more or less a follow-up, where facts and figures were given. Feed mill representatives, hatcheries, and buyers from various large processing companies took part.

Mr. Clawson of Brownwood, a seasoned poultry grower, processor and all-around poultry man, spoke at length on the subject of broilers. He answered the question of marketing, and assured the Eastland group that there is always a good market for quality broilers.

Eastland has one processor, but the plant is not of sufficient size to care for the county's requirements if production is increased to any worth while proportions. However, Abilene, Comanche and Waco, as well as Fort Worth and Dallas, have large processing plants, and would welcome the opportunity to pick up loads of live birds. They can not come for half a load or even a full truck load, but if poultry growers here will produce a sufficient number of quality birds they will find ready buyers to move their birds.

Financing was discussed, and it seems there are a number of large processing firms, feed manufacturers who stand ready to aid the grower. Some will go so far as to buy the chicks, furnish the feed and litter and even fuel for the brooders. However, the farmer who accepts this plan must pay for it. The one good thing is he can not lose anything more than his labor. If he is successful and makes a profit he gives 25 per cent as a fee.

It is known that birds from Arkansas are being shipped to this area for processing, yet Arkansas offers no more than this section when it comes to soil and climate conditions. In fact the Texas grower might be able to produce the birds for less money, and thereby derive a larger profit.

At this time the larger type bird is in demand. The leghorn and other Mediterranean types are slowly giving way to heavier birds, it was pointed out. Some crosses have proven very popular.

That people in this section are interested is well known, and during the coming year many of them will likely venture in to the broiler business, which on the surface looks good. The broiler business is a volume business, and until one is able to produce birds on a large scale, speakers at the meeting were unanimous in their belief that they might not find it profitable. One man can care for 3000 birds almost as easily as he can care for 300.

At this time Kaufman county poultrymen are making considerable progress, and County Agent Cooper is hoping a trip may be arranged for a group to visit Kaufman. The cost will be very nominal, so if you are interested contact the county agent at the earliest possible moment.

American Sabres Down One MIG

8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Jan. 30 (UP)—American Sabrejets shot down one Communist MIG 15 Jet plane in flames today in one of three separate air clashes over North Korea.

It was the third consecutive day of aerial dog-fighting with the enemy and the first kill for the United Nations planes since last Friday when 10 of the Russian-built fighters were downed.

On the ground, UN troops made minor probing attacks Wednesday to keep the Reds off balance.

One allied raiding party ran into heavy resistance northwest of Chonwon and fought the Reds for two hours before withdrawing. Light engagements with smaller enemy units occurred all along the 155 mile front.

Pay Poll Tax Now As Tomorrow Is Last Day

A Day In Eastland's History (Editorial)

Tomorrow, you, as a Citizen of Eastland, have the privilege of deciding the course which the history of your city will follow during the many years ahead. It is a choice which may well determine whether your city lives or dies, whether the value of your property increases over the period to come, or whether it continues to decline because there is no demand for it. You are privileged to decide whether the City of Eastland is to have enough water to drink as well as enough to offer industries requiring water the opportunity of moving to Eastland. Such industries can bring in new citizens who will need to rent or buy your home, rent your building, buy your goods and services.

It is within your power to decide the fate of Eastland, yourself and those who come after you. Those who have seen our lake recently are vividly aware of the dangerous situation in which we now find ourselves. There is barely enough water now for us to use, much less to offer outsiders looking for a location for their businesses. You can vote for our joining the Eastland County Water Supply District and open the wedge for the future growth and prosperity of your city. The choice is obvious.

Tomorrow, January 31, 1952, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m., you may make YOUR choice by casting your ballot in the basement of the County Courthouse at Eastland. You will not be voting a bond issue, but will merely be deciding whether or not Eastland is to join the Eastland County Water Supply District. Bonds to finance said District cannot be issued without a later election in which you will be entitled to vote.

The State Legislature has laid down the conditions which qualify citizens to vote in this election, ALL of which you must meet to vote tomorrow: First, you must live within the City limits of the City of Eastland, and; Second, you must own taxable real estate or personal property located within the city limits of Eastland, and must have rendered such property for taxation by Eastland COUNTY either for the years 1951 or 1952, and; Third, you must have paid your poll tax for the year 1950 (which is the poll tax that was due and payable on or before January 21, 1951, not the poll tax due on or before January 31, 1952).

CAST YOUR VOTE FOR YOUR FUTURE PROSPERITY.

CHANGES MADE AT GOVERNOR'S REQUEST; EVERY CAR CAN PASS

AUSTIN, Jan. 30 (UP)—Car inspection requirements were slashed to a minimum yesterday by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

The revisions sprang from a request by Gov. Allan Shivers that the department make the controversial new law more workable.

The governor yesterday said it now appeared that every car which will roll through the inspection and be issued a permit for operation.

A two-page condensation of regulations was issued by the State Public Safety Commission headed by Hoxie H. Thompson. The boiled-down version eliminated all but nine pages of a 30-page manual previously detailing inspection standards.

Thompson wrote Shivers that the modifications were made following a review of Pennsylvania's long-standing inspection system.

Gov. Shivers called for cooperation of inspection stations, enforcement officers and the motorist to make the law workable — "a real safety measure and a means of saving lives."

The adjusted requirements include the following:

Vehicles with brakes on all wheels must stop in 30 feet at 20 miles per hour, and others must stop in 40 feet at 20 miles per hour. Brakes must be equalized.

All motor vehicles must have two headlights of 3,500 or more candlepower. High and low beams must operate.

Tail lamps—at least one emitting a red light, and a white light over the rear license plate.

Stop lights—required on any motor vehicle sold after Jan. 1, 1948, and on all commercial motor vehicles, busses, trailers and semi-trailers.

Horn—inspection only for audible signal, that can be heard for a distance of 200 feet.

Steering—inspection for looseness of gear box on frame, condition of drag links, tie-rod ends, play in steering wheel, with rejection if any at any point in steering arms is excessive.

Wheel alignment—inspection by visual examination and by test, with rejection if front wheels have sideslip or scuff in excess of 30 feet per mile as indicated on sideslip or wheel alignment indicator.

Windshields—inspection for serious discoloration, cracks and breaks that would seriously impair vision. Vehicles not having any windshield should not be rejected.

Windshield wiper—inspection only if vehicle is equipped.

Windshield wiper on driver's side must be in good working order. Manually operated wipers permissible.

Mirror—(limited to commercial motor vehicles)—inspection for mounting, condition to reflecting surface and view to the rear.

Muffler and exhaust system—inspection to see that there are no serious leaks in the exhaust system, with rejections for serious leaks, straight pipe or gutted muffler.

Stickers—those for identification purposes, such as military installations, defense plants and parking lot sticker, in the lower right hand corner of the windshield, allowed to remain there for this inspection. Stickers identifying handicapped veteran permissible. None other permissible.

Operators of vehicles not having windshields shall have the inspection approval sticker in their possession and able to present it upon demand.

Effort Is Being Made To Pass 5,000 Mark Before Dead-Line

Only one more day and then the poll tax season will be over. Tomorrow is your last day.

If you have not purchased that poll tax, you are urged to do so at once. If you fail it means that you have disfranchised yourself at a time when your vote and influence may be needed.

Of course you don't want the Reds to win, for you are no Communist. You may oppose the present administration, but you will not have a say when it comes to making changes. You merely sit idly by and let the other fellow do the voting. You may do a lot of thinking and wishing, but you will not be allowed to act. You will be out in the cold and won't have a Chinaman's chance.

You may rest assured every Communist and dis-loyal American will have a poll tax, and if they win and want to send you to Siberia, you can not complain. Pay that poll tax.

Payments in Eastland county are showing heavy gains. At 9 o'clock today 3,351 poll tax receipts had been issued in Eastland. More than 400 have been issued at Ranger, approximately that number in Cisco and possibly 300 or more at two other small substations.

Payments are coming in very rapidly and it may be that the 5,000 goal will be reached by midnight Thursday when the time limit expires.

Tax Collector Stanley Webb stated today that his office will be open until midnight Thursday. If you can't make it into town or to one of the outlying stations, mail your check. If it has a postal date earlier than the deadline hour, your receipt will be mailed to you. But do not forget to PAY.

Cisco College Singers Have Hard Schedule

The Cisco Junior College A Cappella Choir will have a busy concert schedule for the next three months. Boasting it's best choir in the past three years the college plans to sponsor a weeks tour through West Texas in March. The dates and schedule will be announced later.

On March 7th the choir will go to San Antonio for the meeting of the Texas Association of Junior Colleges. The Madrigal Singers will entertain for the noon luncheon and the choir will sing for the afternoon session.

In April the group will sing for the various high schools in the area. Besides sacred and secular choral numbers by the choir there are a number of outstanding ensembles and soloists with the group. The Madrigal Singers, the Beauty Shop Quartet and the boys Octet will also appear on the program.

The choir, directed by Robert Clinton, head of the music department, consists of thirty-four members. The home concert in Cisco will be given at the Junior College Auditorium sometime in March, the date to be announced later.

Firemen Plan Benefit Dance Friday Night

A benefit ball is to be given by members of the Eastland Volunteer Fire Department on Friday night of this week. The dance will be held in the American Legion Hall, which has been donated to the firemen by Legion members.

Music will be furnished by Mineral Wells Mountaineers, said to be one of the best group of musicians in this area.

City-Wide Canvass Planned In "Mothers March On Polio"; New Group Captains Are Selected

Team captains have been selected to organize the "Mother's Drive on Polio", to be staged in the city Thursday evening, between the hours of 7 and 8 p.m. This work is being done in conjunction with the National March of Dimes.

Joe Collins and Stanley Webb have charge of the work in Eastland, and have selected the following women as group captains: Meses, Virgil Seaberry, Jr., Earl Conner, Jr., Bob Perkins, Bob Humphreys and J. W. Watson. Each of the five captains will choose 15 additional women to work with her group.

Then Thursday night, while all porch lights are burning, they will visit over the entire city in a final effort to boost Eastland's quota over the top. So plan to be at home with cash on hand for your donation, is the request of leaders.

For 2½ days he had sat in the hearing room while a Senate Labor Subcommittee heard others testify on mine safety legislation. As he walked to the witness table and sat down, television and newsreel cameramen recorded his movements.

Everybody, of course, knew who he was. But the big man apparently thought he had better make sure. Completely dead pan, he said to the committee stenographer: "Get the name?"

The stenographer had. It was John L. Lewis.

Baby Waits On Father
BAYTOWN, Jan. 30 (UP)—Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Cloud hurried to the hospital here yesterday for the greatest excitement was not in the arrival of their first baby, but the maternity ward.

Mrs. Cloud was entering the delivery room when her 24-year-old husband doubled with pain. Attendants wheeled him into an operating room, gave him an anesthetic and doctors removed his appendix. Attention then shifted back to the delivery room. Shirley Beth Cloud postponed her arrival 90 minutes for her father's appendectomy.

Proper Rest Is Essential Beauty Aid

Every woman strives for beauty, and although not every woman has beautiful features, she can achieve the effect of beauty through her poise, personality and grooming.

Good grooming is important to beauty—in fact, it is one of the most important aspects. Realizing this, a woman will spend much time and money on new permanents and keep a close eye on the latest hair styles so that she will be as fashion-right as possible.

New Hat Helps
The fact that she loves to buy new hats and claims they make her feel on top of the world has provided much fuel for the cartoonists' and columnists' pens. The surprising fact is, though, that a new hat often does wonders for a woman—for it gives her a mental lift. Her spouse may not understand this when he's paying the bills, but it's true.

Regardless of what a woman feels is her most important beauty asset, though, she will spend quite a sum of money each year on improving her appearance.

There is, however, one beauty treatment that no woman can afford to overlook—and that is a good night's sleep. It is the most inexpensive way of assuring herself that she is making the most of her beauty possibilities. No woman can be attractive if she has that worn out, tired look that comes from improper rest.

Rest Provides Sparkle
Too many people think that they are getting the proper rest if they merely get eight hours of sleep a night—regardless of the bedding involved. It has been proved more beneficial to have six hours of sleep on good, resilient bedding than ten hours on lumpy, sagging bedding.

Sleeping equipment may cost more than a new hat or permanent, but it will last many years longer and will be a greater beauty aid than anything else one could buy. The inner sparkle that comes from being well-rested is bound to radiate on the outside, and is far more effective than artificial adornment.

U. S. Marines themselves are uncertain who first sent the dispatch "The Marines have landed and have the situation well in hand," but the sentence is thought to have been coined by Richard Harding Davis.

Coffee Imports Rise In 1951

Coffee imports for the year 1951 will show a marked increase over 1950 according to an estimate issued by the National Coffee Association. Although final figures will not be available for some time, it now seems certain that imports in the current year will reach a total of approximately 19,700,000 bags, an increase of 1,250,000 bags over the preceding year.

The association said that, even allowing for possible increases in inventories there was a clear indication that coffee sales were again showing an upward trend.

The increase indicated for this year would amount consumption-wise to approximately six and a half billion cups of beverage coffee.

Consumer prices during the whole year have been steady, reflecting a strong green coffee market. This situation may prevail for a considerable time since consumption is keeping pace with increased production thus preventing the accumulation of any burdensome surplus in exporting countries. Due to high operating efficiency and strong competition, the association pointed out the price of roasted coffee to the consumer was almost entirely dependent on the price at which green coffee could be purchased. Heavy imports during the year, however, indicate that producers are willing to sell freely at prices slightly below the maximum fixed by the Office of Price Stabilization.

Former Baptist Pastor Assists In Organization

Last Sept. 16, a mission started in the Masonic Hall in Rialto, Calif., in April of 1951, became a co-operating Southern Baptist church. There were twenty-one members at the time of organization and ten joined the church at the close of the service, making thirty-one charter members.

The council elected E. W. Moon moderator, Rev. Fred Porter, former pastor of Eastland First Baptist church, conducted the examination of the church. Rev. Wiley Henton preached the sermon and gave the charge to the church. Rev. Gerald Travis was elected clerk of the council.

The newly organized church then elected Mr. Cantrell of Rialto as pastor. They also voted to give ten per cent of all undesignated funds to the cooperative program and two dollars per month to the associational missions.

Thus started a new Baptist church in Rialto, Calif., which is a growing community. It has not only started well but its prospects for growth are excellent, according to E. W. Moon in his article written for the Southern Baptist Home Mission, February issue.

Miss Richter Is Wed To C. E. Ellison In Lubbock

The marriage of Miss Roseann Richter and Curry Elwin Ellison was solemnized Saturday night, Jan. 26, at 8 p. m. in St. Paul's Episcopal church with Rev. Claude E. Canterbury officiating.

Vows were repeated before an altar flanked by arrangements of white gladioli and candelabra marked with white flowers and lemon leaves. The choir rail was covered with jade foliage with white bouquets. Bouquets of white flowers and candles were aisle markers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Richter of 2414 Twentieth are parents of the bride, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Ellison of 2210 Twenty-fourth.

Mrs. Elton Flowman, organist, accompanied Miss Marion Canterbury as she sang "Ave Maria" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Flowman offered a prelude to the ceremony.

Charles M. Richter gave his daughter in marriage. She wore an original model of ice blue tulle and imported Chantilly lace of the same shade. The elongated waistline of the molded bodice came to a point in center front and center back and extended into a redingote which topped an accordion pleated front panel of lace and an underskirt of pleated satin. The full gathered skirt ended in a chapel length train at back and long fitted sleeves ended in points over the hands. Seed pearls were encrusted into the design of the lace in the Queen Anne collar. Her ice blue finger tip veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of feathered white carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Patricia Montroy Weber of Dallas was maid of honor. She wore a gown of iridescent taffeta in aquamarine fashioned with a deep square neckline and brief draped sleeves. The smooth basque bodice came to a point at center front and was joined to a full unpressed pleated skirt. She wore a tiny velvet half hat and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Royce Ellison of Fort Sill, Okla., served his brother as best man. Ushers were Jack C. Pales, John Trout and Duncan Ellison, brother of the bridegroom. Claude Canterbury, Jr., and Oscar L. Slaton, III, were acolytes.

A reception followed the ceremony in Lubbock Women's Club, 2020 Broadway. The reception table was laid with a creme colored imported lace cloth with silver candelabra holding white tapers, arrangements of gardenias and a white wedding ring cake. A silver punch bowl was on a smaller table.

Mrs. J. B. O'Hara cut the cake. Serving were Misses Louis J. Weber, Duncan Ellison, R. C. McMath and Rodger Carter, Assistant Mmes. D. Kinney, Walter Clayton, Clayton Carter, E. T. Lynch, O. L. Slaton, Jr., Joseph M. Perkins, W. C. Richter and H. C. Lazenby. Mrs. J. L. Barslow was at the register. Mrs. Art Townley furnished piano music during the reception.
