Around The Square

With Mack

We were mighty happy yesterday morning when Supt. Womack announced that Wendell Siebert had been selected high school principal, to fill the post vacated by W. H. Stanley, who recently resigned to accept a similar post in Killeen. Wendell is one of the home town boys who has made good, and this paper bespeaks for him only the very best of everything, including continued success.

This proves that we do not have to import people to take over our better jobs. We have them right here at home, and a lot of them are better than the imported variety.

We visited in Ranger Tuesday. Fact is we spent several hours over there, and as a matter of fact we were working, rather than visiting. Editor Don Norris of the Ranger Times is enjoying a vacation and we are using our spare moments to edit the Times during his absence. This is not hurting us, and we hope it does not prove fatal to any of his readers.

We met the mayor over there, so if the cops pick us up we will have at least one friend at the city hall. Mayor Crowley is a swell fellow—good enough to be mayor of any town, including Eastland.

In our rambling Monday we discovered that our old friend, Judge R. L. Rust, is a musician of considerable note. We have known for some time that he visits all singing conventions, but we never dreamed he was a composer. He has quite a number of songs to his credit. We can't sing his songs, or songs by anybody else, for our worn out voice sounds something like a horse-shoe rasp being dragged across a tin can.

But we must move on to something more important than mayors, music and monkey shins. Right now we have a president to elect, and it must be Ike. Now this does not mean that Ike is the only man in the United States who is qualified. It does not mean that he can and will be the greatest man ever to hold this office, but it means that he is honest, so far as we have been able to learn and he is truthful. This means much.

Even if the present administration is as pure as the driven snow, (Which it isn't) nobody has any confidence in its leaders. Even though they may have wings like angels (which they haven't) nobody is expecting them to fly—unless the sheriff gets after them. People have just lost confidence in this group, and are ready for a change.

One party has been in power too long. This time it is the Democrats, and for the general welfare of the country, they need to be booted out and polished up a bit. We will likely need them again in a few years, but not before they are given a fumigation of sufficient strength to kill many of their shortcomings. We are going to be forced to boil all the "Fair Dealism" and "Socialism" out of them, give them some rigid training in honesty and truthfulness, let them know that this is a democracy and not a monarchy, and then we will consider them again.

Now we are not fool enough to think that the Republican party is composed of a lily white group, nor capable of sinning. On the otherhand, we may expect good conduct from them for the time being. If, however, we turn Washington over to them for 20 years in a row, that city would be so rotten that Stalin might not take it as a gracious gift. At least we learn this from history. We have seen the time that good men would not admit they were Republicans in broad open daylight. One party is as good as bad as the other, so far as we have been able to determine. The only way to keep them "clean" is to keep them "guessing." Either party in office for more than 8 years will likely have the smell of a "red herring."

This time we'll choose Ike as president, but when and if he begins pulling a "fast one," we'll give him the boot.

For this reason Democrats must now start their eight-year bath. We'll likely need them again.

J. Frank Norris Dies Suddenly In Florida

FORT WORTH, Aug. 20 (UP)—Rev. J. Frank Norris, 74, whose stormy career as a Texas Baptist minister included acquittal on charges of murder and of arson and perjury, died unexpectedly early Wednesday in Jacksonville, Fla.

Norris, who resigned last fall as pastor of the First Baptist church here because of falling health, fled to Jacksonville Tuesday to attend a youth camp.

He had not been particularly ill although in failing health the past two years. Norris, who would have been 75 next month, died at 12:30 a.m.

A world traveler who at one time served as pastor of Baptist churches in Fort Worth and Detroit, where he commuted, Norris had made more than half a dozen trips aboard. His latest was early this year. On one of the tours, he helped in founding a church in Jerusalem.

Norris, who became known as the "stormy petrel of the pulpit," gained national prominence when he was charged in 1926 with the fatal shooting of D. E. Chipps, a wealthy lumberman. He won acquittal on a plea of self-defense in one of the most sensational trials in the Southwest.

Spending For Fiscal Year Scaled Down To $79 Billion

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (UP)—President Truman reported Wednesday that congressional economizing and the slowdown in defense spending caused by the steel strike will keep the government from going as far in the red this year as he originally figured.

He estimated in a special budget review that the deficit for the current 1953 fiscal year will be $10.3 billion instead of $14.4 billion he expected last January.

Spending, Mr. Truman said, will be scaled down from the $85.4 billion figure given in his January message to about $79 billion.

But he said the government will collect less than the $71 billion originally forecast, largely because of the fact that corporations aren't making as much money as the experts had anticipated. The revised estimate of the government's income was $68.7 billion.

Several Reductions Seen
Mr. Truman's new figures show

net reductions of $2.3 billion in government income, $6.4 billion in spending, and $4.1 billion in the deficit.

Regarding income, the President said an anticipated $500 million boost in personal income tax receipts will be more than overcome by an expected slump of $3 billion in corporation levies.

On the spending side, Mr. Truman said military outlays alone will be $6.3 billion smaller than was figured in drawing up the budget last winter. He attributed this to "reductions in appropriations" by Congress and "some slowing of production" as a result of the 55-day steel strike.

While Mr. Truman did not say how much the steel shutdown affected defense plans, Defense Secretary Robert A. Lovett has estimated it will cost the nation from $2.5 billion to $5 billion worth of weapons and other military gear.

Peak Expected Next Spring
The President merely said that defense spending is "expected" to reach a peak in the spring of 1953 and then level off and eventually drop "as peak requirements are met."

He said he may have to ask Congress for more money "later in the year, if fighting in Korea continues." He also said he will request authority to run up another $1.8 billion worth of bills to be paid in future years. This will go mostly for mustering out and combat pay for servicemen recently approved by Congress.

Mr. Truman estimated the revised cost of the six national security programs at $58.2 billion compared with a January figure of $65.1 billion.

Congress voted new veterans' benefits since then which will drive up the overall cost of the program this year to a total of $4.5 billion, an increase of $282 million, the President reported.

Interest Payments Up
Interest payments on the national debt are now expected to be $7.4 billion, or $176 million higher than estimated eight months ago.

The remaining $9.9 billion or 12 per cent of the national budget will go for such things as the postal service, farm price supports, housing and education.

Farm price supports will cost more than originally anticipated, he said, because of "higher production" of U. S. crops, primarily wheat.

Expenditures for defense housing and community facilities have been trimmed to one-third of January estimates. But government mortgages and housing loans are now expected to cost seven times as much as was expected in January.

AFL Sheet Metal Workers Back On Job

BEAUMONT, Aug. 20 (UP)—Sheet metal workers in the Beaumont area were due to return to their jobs Wednesday after being out on strike since July 1.

Members of Local 196 of the AFL Sheet Metal Workers voted Tuesday night to accept the latest proposal of the Association of Sheet Metal Contractors.

R. G. Harper, business agent of the local, said the proposal included a pay boost of 32 and one-half cents an hour, with an additional five-cent increase Oct. 15.

The union had voted to accept the proposal Saturday, but the national leadership of the union ordered a new vote on a technicality involving absentee ballots.

Strip-Teacher Earns $2.85 In Night Spot

By Kenneth Miller
 PARIS, Aug. 20 (UPI)—Pretty brunette Genevieve Philippa, Paris' only "strip teacher," said Wednesday that bald-headed men needn't apply as "students."
 She was bitten on the thigh by one.

The 22-year-old Genevieve has been earning 1,000 francs ($2.85) a night for the past six weeks in a cellar night spot where she doffs a piece of clothing every time a "student" in the audience answers correctly a question about history or geography.

Answers are Bare Facts
 The students get to help in the doffing. And after the final and toughest question, Genevieve dances off-stage clad only in a bright spotlight.

Genevieve admits she often pretends to be a student, too, during her intellectual strip-tease. Most of them are answered with a firm "no."

 She had her answers ready, however, for her first interview—which she said was "harder than undressing."

Genevieve said her aversion to baldies arose when one got so engrossed in his work of helping her remove her scanty panties that he gave her a nip for good measure.
 He apologized later by sending her a big basket of strawberries.

"I don't mind so much, but the mark showed for a week," she explained. Sometimes, she said, the students are very gallant and kiss her hand romantically.

An occasional pinch she writes off as in the line of business.

Men are Made that Way
 "Men are just naturally friendly," she observed.

Genevieve said she personally makes sure the questions aren't too difficult.

"If I can't answer them myself we make them easier. It would be silly for me to stand around in my clothes all evening while people just think."

And what does she think of while posing there in a bright spotlight?
 "O-la-la, you couldn't write that down," she answered coyly.

Genevieve, who has been modeling for left bank artists since she was 16 while studying dancing, has high hopes of going to America soon. She has been accepted for a part in the Edith Piaf troupe which will tour the U. S. and Canada this fall. Her part will be just dancing, however.

She said she really liked being a strip-teacher and added, on a self-convinced note:
 "You could teach lots more people geography this way."

Typhus Fever Appearing In Texas Counties

AUSTIN, Texas—Typhus fever continues to make its appearance in various counties of Texas, says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. Like typhoid fever, most cases appear during the summer and fall and all citizens are urged to help control the spread of typhus by assisting in exterminating rats.

"There is only one way in which Typhus can be controlled," Dr. Cox said, "and that is by, as nearly as possible, completely exterminating rats in the State, since fleas from infected rats transmit the disease to man. We can begin to visualize the extent of the needed extermination campaign when we realize that there is estimated to be 13,000,000 rats in Texas."

There has been some confusion concerning the type of Typhus Fever which is occurring in Texas, but Dr. Cox pointed out that this disease is entirely different from the old world type which has followed some of the armies in Europe. Ordinarily the kind of typhus which makes its appearance in this section of the county is not a fatal

Inadequate Vision Important Link In Delinquency

PITTSBURGH, Pa. —Juvenile delinquency is often due to a chain of circumstances of which inadequate eyesight is an important link, Dr. James F. Wahl, president of the American Optometric Associations, declared today, as parents and teachers prepared for a record fall school enrollment.

"Most juvenile delinquents have failed in school," said Dr. Wahl, a colonel in the U. S. Army Reserves who has long been prominent in youth activities. "When we trace the events back to the causes we often find this:
 "1. The child turns to anti-social behavior and is recognized as an actual or potential juvenile delinquent."
 "2. The child has turned to anti-social behavior because he failed in school and was unable to find normal expression for his energy and emotions."

"3. He failed in school because he could not read properly."
 "4. He could not read properly because he had an uncorrected eyesight problem."

Dr. Wahl said that two out of three children who are retarded readers early in their school careers have vision problems which are causes of important contributing factors. On an average, two out of five children are handicapped in school performance because they disease, although there has been a death rate of about 2 per cent from Typhus this year.

The poisoning and trapping of rats throughout the State will help to control the spread of this disease although these are temporary measures. In order to be permanently rid of rats they will have to be starved out, which means that buildings housing food supplies must be rat proofed.

It should also be remembered that rats cost the householder millions of dollars each year in the amount of food they either eat or spoil.

"With the aid of modern science almost every child can be helped to see adequately for his school tasks," he said. "What we need to prevent poor eyesight from being a cause of juvenile delinquency, is more thorough and frequent examinations with the visions of all school children. The present standards and methods of testing which prevail in most schools are utterly inadequate and dangerously misleading."

School Officials Asked To Join In Defense Work

Texas school officials are being asked to join in a national campaign to make Defense Stamp purchases available to at least 15 per cent of all students enrolled in the schools of each state for the 1952-53 school year. The request was contained in a letter sent out August 15 from state headquarters in Dallas of the U. S. Savings Bonds Division of the Treasury Department.

Mrs. Evelyn Miller Crowell, Education Director for Texas of the Savings Bonds Division, explained that the estimated enrollment of students in the public and non-public schools of Texas is 1,425,000, which makes the 15 per cent quota 213,750. At the close of the 1951-52 school year, weekly Defense Stamp Days were available to approximately 69,894 Texas students. In order to meet the quota for 1952-53, all previous weekly Defense Stamp Days must be resumed and Defense Stamp purchases made available to 143,856 more Texas students.

"It's a high quota, but we aim to make it," Mrs. Crowell said. "For the Mid-Year School Savings Campaign last winter, we were given a quota of 130 new weekly Defense Stamp Days, and doubled it. As a result, Defense Stamp sales in Texas rose from $160,871 during the 1950-51 school year to $197,887 during the 1951-52 school year. Reports show that many Texas students earn the money to buy their Defense Stamps and are saving with a purpose—college education, summer camp or some other definite goal."

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Frost of Kilgore and Mrs. Marvin Rudd of Temple were the weekend end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen D. Dabney. Mrs. Frost and Mrs. Rudd are sisters of Mrs. Dabney.

Timely Check Of Refrigerator Is Electricity Cut

Most people buy a household refrigerator and go on for years enjoying its benefits with never a thought of attention to the mechanical unit. And most modern refrigerators need no attention because the working parts come in "sealed units" not even requiring to be oiled.

However, there is one small chore which the efficient housewife can and should do in order to make sure of maximum cooling says the Refrigeration Equipment Manufacturers Association. That chore consists of checking the mechanical unit occasionally to be sure that the condenser or cooling fins (much like an automobile radiator), through which the air is forced by a fan, does not become clogged up with dust, lint, cobwebs, etc., so as to interfere with the efficiency of the cooling system.

You will usually find the fan and condenser cooling fins in the back or bottom of the unit. By using a stiff brush or the attachment from an ordinary vacuum cleaner, the dust is quickly removed and you will find your refrigerator not only works better after it is cleaned but you also save electricity.

Your refrigerator, which works for you 24-hours a day, 7 days a week, deserves this small attention and now is the time to make your inspection and see that it is in

'Heart of Texas' Exhibit To Be At State Fair

An outstanding committee of agricultural leaders from Extension District 8 is cooperating with the State Fair of Texas in working out the colorful "Heart of Texas" exhibit of the fair's 1952 Story Book of Texas Agriculture.

The committee includes R. G. Burwell, co-chairman, Stephenville; Annie L. Lane, co-chairman, Stephenville; Dudley Everett, Stephenville; J. C. Patterson, Waco; W. D. Seals, Belton; Anita Runge, Belton; Mrs. Elsie P. Short, Stephenville; George Logan, Waco; and Mrs. Vera M. Cargill Waco.

The "Heart of Texas" exhibit honors Bell, Bosque Brown, Burnett, Callahan, Comanche, Coryell, Eastland, Earth, Falls, Hamilton, Hill, Hood, Lampasas, Limestone, McLennan, Milam Mills, Somervell and Williamson counties.

In the exhibit, an old-fashioned scarecrow, with his ever-present companion, a "talking" crow, perched on his shoulder, will be discussing the latest new-fangled farm developments. They will be flanked by new home freezers. Illustrative of the methods used by Central Texas farmers to restore their soil by legumes, a diagram
